12 And Joſaphat ſayde, The worde of the Lorde is with hym. And ſo the kyng of Iſrael, and Joſaphat, and the kyng of Edom went downe to hym.

13 And Eliſeus ſaide vnto the kyng of Iſrael, What haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophetes of thy mother. And the kyng of Iſrael ſaid vnto him, Oh nay: for the Lord hath called theſe three kinges together, to deliuer them into the hande of Moab.

14 And Eliſeus ſaid, As the Lord of hoſtes liueth, in whoſe ſight I ſtande, and it were not that I regard the preſence of Joſaphat the king of Juda, I would (a) not looke towarde thee, nor yet ſee thee. C (a) God forſeeth his worde is declared to the wicked, becauſe of the godly that are among them.

15 But now bring me a minſtrel. And when the minſtrel played, the hande of the Lorde came vpon hym:

16 And he ſayde, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Make this valley ful of dytches.

17 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye ſhall ſee neyther neither winde nor rayne, yet the valley shal be fylled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye, and your beastes, and your catel:

18 And this is yet but a smalle thing in the syght of the Lorde, forasmuche as he wyll geue ouer the Moabites also into your handes:

19 And ye shall smyte euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, and shal fell euery pleasant tree, and stop euery wel of water, and marre euery good plat of ground with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meate offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites hearde that the kinges were come vp to fyght against them, they gathered al that were able "to put on harneste, and stoode in the border of the lande:

"Hebre. to gyue him lyft with a girde.

22 And they were vp early in the morning, and the sunne shone vppon the water, that the Moabites sawe the water a farre of as redde as blood.

23 And they sayde, This is the blood of slaughter: The kinges are slayne, and one haue smitten another: Now therefore Moab geat thee to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the hoast of Israel, the Israelites stood vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they followed vppon them, and smote Moab,

25 And they ouerthrewe the cities, and on euery good parcel of lande cast euery man his stone, and fylled it, and they stopt al the welles of water, & feld al the good trees, onely in Kirharaseth leaft they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slingers, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab sawe that the battayle was to sore for him, he tooke with him seuen hundred men that drue the swoorde, to haue gonne through (euen) vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 And then he tooke his eldest sonne that shoulde haue raigned in his steade, and offred him for a whole burnt offering vppon the wal: And there was (a) great indignation against Israel, and they departed from him, and returned to their owne lande.

(a) The Israelites were greatly offended because of the malice of the Moabite.

The. iiii. Chapter.

4. God increaseth the oyle to the poore wydowe by Eliseus, 12. He obteyneth for the Sunamite a sonne at Gods hande. 28. Who dyed, and was raysed vp agayne.

1 AND there cryed a certayne woman of the wyues of the sonnes of the prophetes vnto Eliseus, sayeing, Thy seruant my husbande is dead, and thou knowest that thy seruant dyd feare the Lorde: And the creditour is comme to fet my two sonnes to be his bondmen.

2 Eliseus sayde vnto her, Tel me what I shall doo for thee: What hast thou in thyne house? She sayde, Thyne handemayde hath nothing at all in the house, saue a pitcher with oyle.

3 He sayde vnto her, Goe, and borowe vessels for thee without, of al thy neighbours emptie vessels, and that not a fewe:

4 And when thou art comme in, thou shalt shut the dooze after thee, and after thy sonnes, and powre out into (a) al those vessels: and set asyde that which is ful.

(a) God euer prouideth for them that trust in him, although he suffer them many tymes to fall into great necessitie.

5 And so she went from him, and shut the dooze after her, and after her sonnes: and they brought to her, and she powred out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she sayde vnto her sonne, Bring me yet a vessell. And he sayd, I haue no more. And the oyle ceassed.

7 Then she came, and told the man of god: and he sayde, Goe, and sel the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto: but lyue thou and thy children of the rest.

8 And it fell on a day that Eliseus came to Sunem, where was a great woman, that tooke him in for to eate bread: And so it came to passe, that from that time forth (as oft as he came that way) he turned in thyther to eate bread.

9 And she sayde vnto her husband, Behold, I perceiue that this is an holy man of god, whiche passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stoole, and a candelsticke: that he may turne in thyther when he commeth to vs.

11 And on a day he came thyther, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein, 12 And sayde to Gehezi his seruant, Call this Sunamite. And when he called her, she presented her selfe before him.

13 And agayne he sayde vnto him, Tell her, beholde, thou hast ben careful for vs with al this care, (b) What shal we nowe doo for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captayne of the hoast? She answered, I dwel among mine owne people.

(b) The seruantes of god are not vnthankful for benefites receiued.

14 And he sayde agayne, What is to be done for her? Gehezi answered, Verily she hath no childe, and her husbande is old.

15 And he sayde, Call her. And when he had callyng her, ſhe ſhoue in the doore.

Gene. 18. b. 16 And he ſayde, At this time appoynted, according to the time of lyfe, thou ſhalt imbrace a ſonne. And ſhe ſayde, Oh nay my loꝛde, thou man of God, doo not lye vnto thyne handmayde.

17 And the wyfe conceiued, and bare a ſonne that ſame ſeaſon that Eliſeus had ſaid vnto her, Accoꝛdyng to the time of lyfe.

18 And when the childe was growen, it fell on a day that he went out to his father, and to the reapers, 19 And he ſayde vnto his father, My head, my head. And he ſaide to a lad, Cary hym to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, & brought him to his mother, he ſate on her knees tyll noone, and then dyed.

D 21 And ſhe went vp, and layde him on the bed of the man of god, and ſhut (the doore) vpon him, and went out, 22 And called vnto her huſ bande, and ſayd, Sende with me, I pꝛay thee, one of the young men, and one of the aſſes: foꝛ I wyll runne to the man of god, and come againe.

23 And he ſayde, Wherefoꝛe wylt thou goe to him, ſeeing that to day is neyther newe moone noꝛ ſabboth day? And ſhe anſwered, Al ſhalbe "wel.

"Hebre. peace.

24 Then ſhe ſadled an aſſe, and ſayde to her ſeruant, Oꝛyue and goe foꝛwarde, ſtay not foꝛ me to geat vp, excepte I bid thee.

25 And ſo ſhe went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel: and when the man of God ſawe her a farre of, he ſayde to Gehezi his ſeruant, Beholde, ponder is the Sunamite:

* oꝛ, ouer againſt him

26 Runne therefoꝛe to meete her, and ſay vnto her, Is all wel with thee, and with thy huſ bande, and with the ladde? And ſhe anſweared, Al is wel.

27 And when ſhe came to the man of GOD vp to the hil, ſhe caught him by the feete: but Gehezi went to her to thruſt her away. And the man of God ſayde, Let her alone, foꝛ her ſoule is "vexed within her, and the Loꝛde hath hidde it from me, and hath not tolde it me.

"oꝛ, in bitterneſſe.

28 Then ſhe ſayde, Dyd I deſyre a ſonne of my Loꝛd? dyd I not require thee that thou ſhouldeſt not deceiue me?

31 Gehezi went before them, and layde the ſtaffe vpon the face of the chylde, but there was neyther voyce, noꝛ any feeling: wherefoꝛe he went againe to meete him, and told him, ſayeing, The childe is not awaked.

32 And when Eliſeus was comme into the houſe, beholde, the chylde was dead, and layde vpon his bed.

33 He went in therefoꝛe, and ſhut the doore vpon them awaye, and pꝛayed vnto the Loꝛde, 34 And went vp, and lay vpon the lad, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his handes, and when he ſo lay vpon the child, the fleſhe of the childe waxed warme.

35 And he went againe, and walked once vp and downe in the houſe, and then went vp, and layde him ſelfe vpon him againe: and then the chylde * gaſped ſeuen tymes, and opened his eyes.

* oꝛ, ſneezed, ther it oftentimes.

36 And he called Gehezi, and ſayde, Call foꝛ this Sunamite. So he called her: whiche when ſhe was comme in vnto him, he ſayd vnto her, Take thy ſonne.

Luke. 5. f.

38 Eliſeus came againe to Gilgal, & there was a dearth in the lande, and the chyldren of the pꝛopheres dwelt with him: and he ſayde vnto his ſeruant, Set a great pot on (the fyre) and make pottage foꝛ the children of the pꝛopheres.

39 And one went out into the feelde to gather herbes, and founde a wilde vine, and gathered therof wilde gourdes his lappe full, and came and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: foꝛ they knewe it not.

Deut. 32

40 So they powred out foꝛ the men to eate: and when they had taſted of the pottage, they cryed out, and ſayde, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they coulde not eate thereof.

41 But he ſayde, Bring meale. And he caſt it into the pot: and he ſayde, Fil foꝛ the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot.

42 There came a man from Baal Salila, and brought the man of God bread of the fyrſt fruites, euen twentie loaues of barly, & ful eares of coꝛne in the huſke: & he ſayde, Geue vnto the people, that they may eate.

43 And his ſeruant anſwered, Why ſhal I ſet this before an hundred men? He ſaide againe, Geue it vnto the people, that they may eate: foꝛ thus ſayeth the Loꝛde, They ſhal eate, and there ſhalbe leaft ouer.

The.v. Chapter.

I. Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16. Eliseus refuseth his gyftes.

A 1 NAaman, captayne of the hoſt of the kyng of Syria, was a great man, and honorable in the ſight of his maiſter, becauſe that by him the Lorde had geuen health vnto Syria, he was alſo a myghtie man, and expert in warre (but he was) a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought out of the countrey of Iſrael a litle mayde, and ſhe was with Naamans wyfe.

3 And ſhe ſayde vnto her lady, I wouldo to God my lorde were with the prophete that is in Samaria, for he would deliuer hym of his leproſie.

(a) Naaman. 4 And he (a) went in, and tolde his lorde, ſaying, Thus and thus ſayde the mayde that is of the lande of Iſrael.

5 And the kyng of Syria ſayd, Goe thy way thither, and I wyll ſende a letter vnto the king of Iſrael. And he departed, and tooke with him tenne talentes of ſyluer, and ſixe thoulande peeces of golde, and ten changes of raymentes:

6 And brought the letter to the kyng of Iſrael, conteyning this tenour, Nowe when this letter is come vnto thee, beholde I haue therewith ſent Naaman my ſeruant to thee, that thou mayeſt rydde him of his leproſie.

B 7 And when the kyng of Iſrael had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and ſaid, Am I God, that I ſhould ſlay, and make aliue? Deut.32.f. For he doth ſende vnto me, that I ſhoulde deliuer a man from his leproſie: Wherefore conſyder, I pray you, and ſee howe he ſeeketh a quarrel againſt me.

8 Whiche when Eliſeus the man of GOD had heard, how that the king of Iſrael had rent his clothes, he ſent to the kyng, ſaying, Wherefore haſt thou rent thy clothes, Let him come nowe to me, and he ſhall knowe that there is a prophete in Iſrael.

9 And ſo Naaman came with his horſes, and with his charrettes, and ſtoode at the doore of the houſe of Eliſeus.

10 And Eliſeus ſent a meſſenger vnto him, ſaying, Goe, and waſhe thee in Iordane ſeuen tymes, and thy fleſhe ſhall come againe to thee, and thou ſhalt be cleanſed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and ſayde, Beholde, I thought with mee ſelfe, he woulde ſurely come out, and ſtande and call on the name of the Lord his God, and put his hande on the place, that he may heale the leproſie.

12 Are not Abana and Pharphar, riuers of Damaſcus, better then all the waters of Iſrael? May I waſhe me alſo in them, ſhal I not be cleanſed? And ſo he turned him, and departed with diſpleaſure.

13 And his ſeruantes came, and communed with him, and ſaid, Father, if the prophete had bid thee do ſome great thyng, oughteſt thou not to haue done it? Howe muche rather then when he ſayth to thee, Waſhe and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, and waſhed hym C ſelfe ſeuen tymes in Iordane, according to the ſaying of the man of GOD, and his fleſhe came againe, like vnto the fleſhe of a litle childe, and he was cleanſed.

15 And he turned againe to the man of god, Luke.4.c. he & al his company, and ſtoode before him, and ſaid, Behold, I knowe now that there is no God in al the worlde, but in Iſrael: now therefore, I pray thee, take a * bleſſing of thy ſeruant? * or, reward.

16 But he ſayde, As the Lord liueth before 1.King.17.a whom I ſtande, I wil receiue none: And when the other woulde haue conſtrayned hym to receiue it, he woulde not.

17 And Naaman ſayde, Shal there not be geuen to thy ſeruant as muche of this earth as two Mules may beare? For thy ſeruant wyl henceforth offer neither whole burnt ſacrifice, nor offering, vnto any other gods, ſaue vnto the Lorde.

18 But herein the Lorde be mercyful to thy ſeruant, that when my maiſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmon for to worſhyp there, and leaneth on my hande, and I bowe mee ſelfe in the houſe of Rimmon: when I bo bowe downe, I ſay, in the houſe of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercyful vnto thy ſeruant becauſe of this thyng.

19 Vnto whom he ſayde, (b) Goe in peace. (b) The prophet did not approoue his acte, but after the common manner of ſpeache he bade hym farewel.
And when he was departed from him, as it were a furlong of grounde, 20 Gehezi the ſeruant of Eliſeus the man of God, ſayde, Beholde, my maiſter hath ſpared Naaman this Syrian, that he woulde not receiue at his hande thoſe thynges that he offered: as the Lord lyueth, I wil runne after him, and take ſome what of hym.

21 And ſo Gehezi folowed Naaman: & when D Naaman ſawe him running after hym, he light downe from the charret to meete him, and ſayde, Is al wel?

22 He anſwered, Al is well: beholde, my 2.Kin.4.b. maiſter hath ſent mee, ſaying, Bee, there be come to me euen nowe from mount Ephraim two young men, of the children of the prophetes: Geue them, I pray thee, one talent of ſyluer, and two change of garmentes.

23 And Naaman ſayde, With a good will, take two talentes. And he conſtrained him, and bounde two talentes of ſyluer in two bagges, with two change of garments, and layde them vpon two of his ſeruantes, to beare them before hym.

" or, forꝛtreſſe, or ſecret place.

24 And when he came to the "lower place, he tooke (them) from theyr hande, and beſtowed (them) in the houſe, and he let the men goe, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and ſtoode before his maiſter: and Eliſeus ſayde vnto hym, whence (commeſt thou) Gehezi? He ſayde, Thy ſeruant went no whyther.

(c) Was not I preſent with thee in ſpirite?

26 But he ſayd vnto hym, (c) Went not mine hart (with thee) when the man turned agayne from his charret to meete thee? Is it nowe a tyme to receiue money, to receiue garmentes, olyue trees, vineyardes, ſheepe, and oxen, men ſeruantes, and mayde ſeruantes?

(d) Couetouſneſſe puniſhed. 2. Kin. 15. a.

27 (d) The leproſie therefore of Naaman ſhal cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy ſeede, for euer. And he went out from his preſence a leper as whyte as ſnowe.

The. vi. Chapter.

6. Eliſeus maketh iron to ſwimme aboue the water. 8. He diſcloſeth the kyng of Syrias counſel to the kyng of Iſrael.

1 THe children of the prophetes ſaide vnto Eliſeus, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is to litle for vs:

2 Let vs goe, we pray thee, vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and builde vs a place to dwel in. And he anſweard, Goe.

3 And one ſayde, Be content, I pray thee, and come with thy ſeruantes. And he anſweared, I wyl come.

4 And ſo he went with them: and when they came to Iordane, they cut downe wood.

5 But as one was felling downe of a tree, the axe head fel into the water: and he cryed, and ſayde, Alas maiſter, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God ſayde, Where fel it? and he ſhewed hym the place: And he cut downe a ſtycke, and caſt it in thyther, and immediatly the iron dyd ſwimme.

7 Therefore ſayde he, Take it vp. And he ſtretched out his hande, and tooke it vp.

8 Then the kyng of Syria warred againſt Iſrael, and toke counſel with his ſeruants, and ſayde, In ſuche and ſuche a place ſhal be my campe.

9 And the man of God ſent vnto the king of Iſrael, ſaying, Beware that thou goe not ouer to ſuch a place, for there the Syrians are lurkyng.

10 Therefore the kyng of Iſrael ſent to the place which the man of God tolde him, and warned hym of, (a) and ſaued hym ſelfe from it, not once, nor twyſe.

(a) God wyl diſclofe the craftie counſell of the wicked.

11 And the hart of the kyng of Syria was troubled for this thing, and he called for his ſeruantes, and ſayde vnto hym, Wil ye not ſhewe me whiche of our men (betrayeth me) to the king of Iſrael?

12 And one of his ſeruantes ſayde, None my lorde, O king: but Eliſeus the prophete, that is in Iſrael, telleth the king of Iſrael, yea the wordes that thou ſpeakeſt in thy priuie chamber.

13 He ſayde Goe, and ſpye where he is, that I may ſende and fetche him. And one tolde hym, ſaying, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore ſent he thither horſes, & charets, and a mighty hoſt: and they came by night, and compaſſed the citie about. C

15 And when the ſeruant of the man of God roſe vp early to goe out, beholde there was an hoſt round about the towne, with horſes and charets: and his ſeruant ſaid vnto him, Alas maiſter, what ſhal we do?

16 He anſwered, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are more then they that be with them.

17 And Eliſeus prayed, and ſayd, Lord, I beſeech thee open his eyes, that he may ſee. And the Lord opened the eyes of the yong man, and he looked: and beholde the mountaine was ful of horſes, and charets of fyre, rounde about Eliſeus. 2. Ch. 32.

18 And when they came downe to hym, Eliſeus prayed vnto the Lord, & ſaid, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindneſſe. And he ſmote them with blindneſſe, accordyng to the worde of Eliſeus. Gene. 19. d. Wiſd. 19. b.

19 And Eliſeus ſayde vnto them, This is not the way, neyther is this the towne: folowe me, and I will bryng you to the man whom ye ſeeke. But he ledde them to Samaria.

20 But when they were come to Samaria, Eliſeus ſayde, Lorde open theyr eyes, that they may ſee. And the Lorde opened theyr eyes, and they ſawe, and beholde they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the king of Iſrael ſayde vnto Eliſeus when he ſawe them, My father, ſhal I ſmite them, ſhal I ſmite them? D

22 And he anſwered, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: but ſmyte thoſe that thou haſt taken with with thine owne swoorde, and with thyne owne bowe: but rather set bread and water before them, that they may eate & drinke, and goe to their maister.

23 And he prepared a great refection for them, and when they had eaten & dronke, he sent them away, and they went to their master; and so the soudiers of Syria came no more into the lande of Israel.

24 After this, Benhadad king of Syria gathered al his hoast, and went vp, and besieged Samaria.

25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: & behold, they besieged it, until an asses head was solde for foure score siluer pence, and the fourth part of a (b) cab of doues doung for fyue pieces of siluer.

(b) The Hebrues wryte, that they burned it in the siege for lacke of wood.

26 And as the king of Israel was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe me my lorde, O king.

27 He sayde, If the Lorde doo not succour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the barne, or with the wine presse?

28 And the king sayde vnto her, What wylt thou? She answeared, Ponder woman sayde vnto me, Bryng thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we wyl eate mine to morowe.

29 And so we dressed my sonne, and dyd eate him: and I saide vnto her the other day, Bryng thy sonne, that we may eate him: And she hath hyd her sonne.

Leuit.26.d. Deu.28.f. Lamen.4.b.

30 And when the king heard the woords of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vp on the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had a sacke cloth vnder (c) vpon his flesshe.

(c) Thus Hypocrites seeing Gods iudgement, thinke to please hym with outwarde ceremonies, who in prosperitie they wyl not knowe.

31 Then he sayde, God do so, and more also to me, yf the head of Eliseus the sonne of Saphat, shal stande on him this day.

32 But Eliseus sate in his house (and the elders sate by him) and the king sent a man before him: but yer the messenger came to him, he sayde to the Elders, Haue ye not seene howe that the sonne of this murtherer hath sent to take away myne head? Be circumspect when the messenger commeth, and shut the doore, and holde him at the doore: Is not the sounde of his maisters feete behinde him?

33 Whyle he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came downe vnto him, and sayde, Behold, this euyl is of the Lorde, and what more shal I looke for of the lord?

The.vii.Chapter.

1. Eliseus propheecieth plentie of vitayle and other thinges to Samaria.

1 THen Eliseus sayde, Heare ye the woord of the Lorde, Thus sayth the Lorde, To morowe this time (shal) a measure of fyne flowre be solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, in the gate of Samaria. A

2 Then a certayne Lorde (on whose hande the kyng leaned) answeared the man of God, and sayde, Behold, if the Lord would make windowes in heauen, myght this sayeing come to passe? He sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, but shalt not eate thereof.

3 And there were foure leprous men at the entring in of the gate: and they sayd one to another, Why sit we here vntyl we dye?

4 If we saye, We wyll enter into the citie: beholde, the dearth is in the citie, and we shal dye therein: and if we sit styll here, we dye also. Nowe therefore come, and let vs flee vnto the hoast of the Syrians: if they saue our lyues, we shal lyue: if they kyl vs, then are we dead.

5 And they rose vp in the twylyght, to goe to the hoast of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vttermost part of the host of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the Lorde had made the hoast of the Syrians to heare a noyse of charettes, and a noyse of horses, and the noyse of a great hoast: insomuch that they said one to another, Loe, the kyng of Israel hath hyred agaynst vs the kinges of the Hethites, and the kinges of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs: Esai.13.a.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fledde in the twylyght, and left their tentes, and their horses, and their asses, and the feelde which they had pitched, euen as it was, (a) and fled for their lyues. B

(a) The wicked neede no greater enimie, then their owne conscience, to pursue them.

8 And when these lepers came to the edge of the hoast, they went into a tent, and dyd eate and dronke, and caryed thence siluer and golde, and rayment, and went and hid it, and came agayne, and entred into another tent, and caryed thence also, and went and hyd it.

9 Then saide one to another, We doo not well, this day is a day to bryng good tydinges, and we holde our peace. If we tary tyl the day lyght, some mischeefe wyll come vpon vs: Nowe therefore come, that we may go, and tel the kinges household.

10 And so they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and tolde them, saying, We came to the campe of the Syrians, & see, there was no man there, neyther voyce of man, but horses and asses tyed, and the tentes whereas they were woont to be.

11 And the porters cryed, and declared (a) to the kinges house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and sayde vnto his seruantes, (b) I wyl shewe you nowe what the Syrians haue donne vnto vs: They knowe that we be hungry, and therefore are they gonne out of the campe, to hyde them selues in the fielde, sayeing, When they come out of the citie, we shall catche them aliue, and gat into the citie.

(b) He mistrusted the prophetes wordes, and as one more politike then godly, cast more perrils then needed.

13 And one of his seruantes answeared, and sayde, Let men take, I pray you, fyue of the horses that remayne and are left in the (multitude:) (beholde, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in the citie: beholde (I say) they are euen as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we wyl sende, and see.

14 They tooke therefore the horses of two charettes, and the kyng sent after the hoast of the Syrians, sayeing, Goe, and see.

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, & loe, all the way was ful of clothes, and vessels, whiche the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and tolde the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoyled the tentes of the Syrians: and so it came to passe, that a measure of fyne flowre was solde for a sicle, & two measures of barley for a sicle, according to ỹ woord of the lord.

17 And the kyng appoynted that lorde (on whose hande he leaned) to be at the gate: and the people (c) trode vpon hym in the gate, and he dyed according to the woorde of the man of God, whiche he sayde when the king came downe to him.

(c) The fayth lesse derider of gods prophete pounished.

18 And so came the thing to passe that the man of God had spoken to the king, sayeing, Two measures of barley for a sicle, and a measure of fyne flowre for another, shalbe to morowe this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 Whereunto that Lorde answeared the man of God, and sayde, Yea and yf the Lorde make wyndowes in heauen, might it comme to passe? And he sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

The. viii. Chapter.

1. Elizeus prophecied vnto the Sunamite the dearth of seuen yeeres.

¶ 1 THen spake Elizeus vnto the woman (whose sonne he had restored to lyfe agayne,) sayeing, Vp, and goe thou and
2.king.4.a. thyne house, and sojourne where so euer thou canst: for the Lorde hath called for a dearth, and the same shall comme vpon the lande seuen yeeres.

2 And the woman arose, and dyd after the sayeing of the man of God: and went both she and her household, and sojourned in the lande of the Philistines seuen yeeres.

3 And at the seuen yeeres ende, the woman came agayne out of the lande of the Philistines, and went out to call vppon the kyng for her house and for her lande.

4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruant of the man of God, sayeing, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great deedes that Elizeus hath done.

5 He tolde the kyng howe he had restored a dead body to lyfe agayne: but in the meane time the woman, whose sonne he had raised vp agayne, cryed to the kyng for her house and for her lande: And Gehezi sayde, My Lord, O king, this is the woman, & this is her son, whom Elizeus raysed vp agayne.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she tolde him: And so the king deliuered her a chamberlayne, sayeing, Restore thou vnto her all that are hers, and al the (a) fruites of the feeld, sence the day that she left the lande, vnto this tyme.

(a) The king caused that to be iustly restored, whi che was wrongfully holden frō her.

7 And Elizeus came to Damascus, and Benhadad the kyng of Syria was sycke, and one tolde him, sayeing, The man of God is come hyther.

8 And the kyng sayde vnto Hazael, Take a present in thyne hande, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest enquire of the Lorde by him, sayeing, Shal I recouer of this disease?

9 And so Hazael went to meet him, & tooke the present with him, & of euery good thing of Damascus, euen as muche as fourtie Cammelles coulde beare: and came and presented him selfe before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Benhadab king of Syria hath sent me to thee, sayeing, Shall I recouer of this disease?

10 And Elizeus sayd vnto him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt (b) recouer: howbeit, the Lorde hath shewed me that he shall surely dye.

(b) Meaning that he should not dye of that disease, yet he should dye by the hande of Hazael the messenger.

11 He looked vppon him stedfastly, vntyl he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? He answeared, For I knowe the euyl thinges that thou shalt doo vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fyre, and their young men shalt thou slay with the swoorde, and shalt dasshe out the braynes of theyr sucking children, and al to teare their women with chylde.

13 But Hazael sayde, What is thy seruant a dogge, that I should doo this great thing? And Elizeus answeared, The Lorde hath shewed shewed me that thou shalt be king in Syria.

14 And so he departed from Elizeus, and came to his maister, whiche sayde to hym, What said Elizeus to thee? He answeared, he tolde me that thou shouldest recouer.
15 And on the morowe, he tooke a thicke cloth, and dypt it in water, and (c) spread it on his face: and he dyed, and Hazael raigned in his steade.
(c) Hazael vnder pretence to refreshe the king, stifled him with the cloth.

The. ix. Chapter.

6. Iehu is made kyng of Israel. 24. And kylleth Ioram the kyng thereof.

1 AND Eliseus the prophet called one of the children of the prophetes, and said vnto hym, Gyrde vp thy loynes, & take this boxe of oyle in thine hande, & geat thee to Ramoth (m) Gilead. A 2. king. 4. c.
2 And when thou commest thyther, looke where is Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, and goe to him, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, and carrye hym to a secrete chamber.
3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus sayth the Lord, I haue annoynted thee to be king ouer Israel: and then open the doore, and flee without any tarying.
4 And so the seruant of the prophete gate him to Ramoth Gilead:
5 And when he came in, beholde, the captaynes of the host were sittyng togeather, and he sayde, I haue an errande to thee, O captayne.
6 And Iehu sayde, Vnto whiche of al vs? He sayde, To thee, O captayne. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and said vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, I haue (a) annoynted thee to be king ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Israel. 1. king. 19. c.
(a) This annoynting was for kinges, priestes, & prophets, whiche were al figures of Messias, in whom these three offices were accomplished.
7 Thou shalt smyte the house of Achab thy maister, that I may auenge the blood of my seruantes the prophetes, and the blood of al the seruantes of the Lorde, of the hand of Iezabel:
8 For the whole house of Achab shalbe destroyed, and I wyl destroy from Achab, him that maketh water against the wal, & him that is prisoned & forsaken in Israel: B
9 And I wyl make the house of Achab, like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, & like the house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia.
10 And as for Iezabel, the dogges shal eate her in the feelde of Iezrahel, & there shalbe none to bury her. And he opened the doore, and fledde.
11 Then Iehu came out to the seruantes of his Lorde, and one sayde vnto hym, Is al wel? Wherefore came this mad felowe to theer? And he sayde vnto them, Ye knowe what manner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They sayde vnto him againe, It is not so, tel vs. He sayde, Thus and thus spake he to me, sayeing, Thus sayth the Lorde, I haue annointed thee to be king ouer Israel.

C 13 Then they hasted, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder hym on the toppe of the stayres, and blewe with trumpets, saying, Iehu is king.

14 And so Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, conspired against Ioram: (Ioram keapt Ramoth Gilead, he, and al Israel, because of Hazael kyng of Syria.

2. king. 8. g. 15 And king Ioram returned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the wounds which the Syrians had geuen him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Iehu sayd, If it be your mindes, then let no man depart, and escape out of the citie, to goe and tel in Iezrahel.

2. Chr. 22. b 16 So Iehu gate vp (into a charet) & went to Iezrahel, where Ioram laye: and Ahazia king of Iuda, was come downe thither to see Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stoode on the towre in Iezrahel, spyed the companye of Iehu as he came, and sayde, I see a companie. And Ioram saide, Take an horseman, and sende to meete them, that he may aske whether it be peace.

18 And so there went one on horsebacke to meete him, and sayd, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Iehu saide, What haste thou to do with peace? * turne thee behynd me. And the watchman tolde, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

19 Then he sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and saide, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? Iehu answeared, What hast thou to doo with peace? turne thee behinde me.

20 And the watchman tolde, sayeing, He came to them also, & commeth not againe: and the driuyng is like the driuyng of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, for he driueth (the charet) as he were mad.

D 21 And Ioram sayd, Make ready. And the charet was made ready, and Ioram king of Israel, and Ahazia king of Iuda, went out eyther of them in his charet, against Iehu, and met him in the fielde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.

22 And when Ioram sawe Iehu, he sayde, Is it peace, Iehu? He answeared, What peace should there be, so long as the whoordomes of thy mother Iezabel, & her witchcraftes are so great?

23 And Ioram turned his hande, and fled, and sayde to Ahazia, There is treason, O Ahazia.

24 And Iehu tooke a bowe in his hand, and smote Ioram betweene the armes, and the arrowe went thorough his harte, and he fell downe flat in his charet.

25 Then saide Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take (hym,) and cast him in the plat of the grounde of Naboth the Iezrahelite: for I remember, that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord * layd his heauie burden vpon him:

* or, spake this prophecie against hym.

26 I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, sayde the Lorde, and I wyl quyte it thee in this grounde, sayth the Lorde. Nowe therefore take and cast him in the plat of grounde, according to the woorde of the Lorde.

27 But when Ahazia the king of Iuda sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: and Iehu folowed after him, and sayde, Smyte him also in the charet, at the going vp to Gur, by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and there dyed.

28 And his seruantes carryed him in a charet to Hierusalem, and buryed him there in his sepulchre with his fathers, in the citie of Dauid. E

29 And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, beganne Ahazia to raigne ouer Iuda.

30 And when Iehu was come to Iezrahel, Iezabel hearde of it, and painted her face, and tyred her head, and looked out at a wyndowe.

31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, she said, Had (b) Zimri peace whiche slue his master?

(b) As though she woulde say, Treason can haue no good successe.

32 And he lyft vp his eyes to the wyndowe, and sayde, Who is of my side, who? And there looked out to hym two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he sayde, Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, and her blood dashed towarde the wal, and toward the horses: and he trode her vnder foote.

34 And when he was come in, he did eate F and drinke, and saide, Goe and visite, I pray you, yonder cursed creature, and bury her, for she is a kynges daughter.

35 And so when they came to bury her, they 1. king. 16. d founde no more of her then the skul, and the feete, and the palmes of her handes.

36 Wherefore they came agayne, and tolde hym: and he sayde, This is the woorde of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of his seruant Elias the Thesbite, sayeing, In 1. king. 21. f the fielde of Iezrahel shal dogges eate the flesshe of Iezabel.

37 And

37 And so the carkasse of Jezabel was euen as doung vpon the earth in the feeld of Jezrahel, so that no man myght say, This is Jezabel.

The. x. Chapter.

6. Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Achab to be slayne. 25. He killeth also al the priestes of Baal.

1 AChab had threescore and ten sonnes in Samaria, and Iehu wrote letters, & sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Jezrahel, to the elders, and to them that brought vp Achabs children, saying,

2 Now whē this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your maisters sonnes, ye haue with you both charrets and hoyses, a strong citie haue ye also, and harnesse.)

3 Looke whiche of your maisters sonnes is best and most meete, and set hym on his fathers seate, and fyght for your lordes house.

4 But they were exceedyngly afrayde, and sayde, See, two kynges were not able to stande before hym: howe shall we then be able to stande?

5 And he that was gouernour of Achabs house, and he that ruled the citie, the elders also, and the tutours, sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruantes, and wyl doo al that thou shalt bydde vs, we wyll make no man kyng: therefore doo thou what seemeth good in thyne eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be myne, and wyl hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heads of the men that are your maisters sonnes, and come to me to Jezrahel by to morowe this tyme: (and the kynges sonnes were threescore and tenne persons, and they were with the great men of the citie, whiche brought them vp.)

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the kinges children, and slue them, euen threescore and ten persons, and layde their heades in basketes, and sent them to hym to Jezrahel.

8 And there came a messenger, and tolde hym, saying, They haue brought the heads of the kynges sonnes. And he sayde, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntyl the morowing.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and stoode, and sayd to al the folke, Ye be ryghteous: behold, I conspired against my maister, and slue hym: But who slue al these?

10 Learne here, that there shal fal vnto the earth nothyng of the worde of the Lorde, whiche he spake concernyng the house of Achab: for the Lorde hath brought to passe the thynges that he spake by the hande of his seruant Elias.

11 And so Iehu slue al that remayned of the house of Achab, in Jezrahel, and al that were great with hym, and his kynsfolkes, and his priestes, so that he let nothyng of hym remayne. 1. Reg. 21. g.

12 And he arose, and departed, and came to Samaria: and when Iehu was in the way of the house where the shepheards dyd sheare their sheepe, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahazia king of Iuda, and sayde, What are ye? They answeared, The brethren of Ahazia are we, and goe downe to salute the children of the kyng and of the queene.

14 And he sayd, Take them alyue. Whom when they had taken alyue, they slue them at the well whiche was beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie men, neyther left he any of them. C

15 And whē he was departed thence, he met with Jonadab the sonne of Rechab, commyng against him, and he blessed him, and sayde to hym, Is thyne hart ryght, as myne hart is true with thyne? And Jonadab answeared, Yea, that it is. Then geue me thyne hande. And when he had geuen hym his hande, he tooke hym vp to hym into the charret, Iere. 15. a.

16 And sayde, Come with me, and see my zeale that I haue for the Lord. And so they made him ryde in his charret, 17 And when he came to Samaria, he slue al that remained vnto Achab in Samaria, tyll he had destroyed hym, according to the saying of the lord which he spake to Elias.

18 And Iehu gathered al the people togeather, and sayd vnto them, Achab serued (a) Baal a litle, but Iehu shal serue him more. 2. Sa. 16. g. (a) Baal signifieth Astaroth, the idol of the Sidonians.

19 Now therefore, call vnto me all the prophetes of Baal, al such as serue hym, and al his priestes, and let none be lackyng, for I haue a great sacrifice to doo to Baal, and therefore whosouer is myssed, he shall not lyue. But Iehu did it for a subtiltie, to the intent that he myght destroy the seruantes of Baal. 1. Reg. 16. d.

20 And Iehu sayde, "Proclayme an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaymed it. "Heb. sanctifie.

21 And Iehu sent vnto al Israel, and all the seruantes of Baal came, that there was not a man left behynde that came not: and they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was ful from the one ende to another.

22 And he sayd vnto hym that was the keper of the vestrie, Bring forth garmentes for for al the seruants of Baal. And he brought them out garmentes.

23 And when Iehu went with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, he sayde vnto the seruantes of Baal, Searche, and looke that there be here with you none of the seruantes of the Lord, but the seruantes of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifice and whole burnt offeryng, Iehu appoynted fourescore men without, and sayde to them, Yf anye of the men whom I haue brought vnder your handes escape, he that letteth him goe, shal dye for him.

25 And assoone as he had made an ende of offeryng the whole burnt sacrifice, Iehu sayde to the men of warre, and to the captaynes, Goe in, & slay them, let none come out. And they smote them with the edge of the swoorde, and the men of warre, and the captaynes, caste them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the image of Baal, and brake the house of Baal, & made a draught house of it, vnto this day.

E 28 And so Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne, Iehu departed not from them (neyther from) the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lord sayd vnto Iehu, Because thou hast donne ryght well in brynging to passe the thyng that is ryght in myne eyes, and hast donne vnto the house of Achab accordyng to al thinges that are in mine hart, therefore shal thy children, vnto the fourth generation, syt on the seate of Israel. 2.Reg.15.a.

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the lawe of the Lord God of Israel with al his hart: for he departed not from ỳ sinnes of Ieroboam, which made Israel to sinne.

2.Reg.8.c. 32 In those dayes the Lorde beganne to cut Israel short, and Hazael smote them in all the coastes of Israel, 33 From Iordan eastward, euen al the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manasses, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) euē Gilead and Basan.

F 34 The rest of the woordes that concerne Iehu, and al that he did, and al his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Israel?

35 And Iehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioachas his sonne raigned in his steade.

36 And the tyme that Iehu raigned vpon Israel in Samaria, is twentie and eyght yeres.

The.xi. Chapter.

3 And he was with her hyd in the house of the Lord sixe yeres: and Athalia did raigne ouer the lande.

4 And the seuenth yere Iehoiada sent and fet the rulers ouer hundredes, with the captaynes, and them of the garde, & tooke them to him into the house of the Lord, and made a bonde with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lorde, and shewed them the kynges sonne. 2.Par.23.a

5 And he commaunded them, saying, This is it that ye must doo, One thirde parte of you, whose duetie is to come in on the sabboth day, shal keepe the watch of the kings house:

7 And two partes of you, that is, al that go B out on the sabboth day, shal kepe the watch of the house of the Lord about the kyng.

8 And ye shall compasse the kyng rounde about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: and whosoeuer commeth within the ranges, let him be slayne: and see that ye be with the king, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaines ouer the hundredes did accordyng to all thynges that Iehoiada the priest commaunded: and they tooke euery man his men that were to come in on the sabboth day, with them that shoulde goe out on the sabboth, and came to Iehoiada the priest. 2.Par.23.a

10 And to the captaines ouer hundredes, did the priest geue kyng Dauids speares and shieldes, that were in the temple.

15 But Iehoiada the priest commaunded the captaines of the hundreds, that had the rule of the host, and sayd vnto them, Haue her forth by the ranges, and if any folow her, kyl hym with the swoorde. For the priest had sayde, She maye not be slaine in the house of the Lorde.

19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundreds, the captaines, and them of the garde, and all the people of the lande, and they brought the king from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde, to the kinges palace, and he sate him downe on the seate of the kinges.

21 Seuen yeeres old was Ioas when he beganne to raigne.

The. xii. Chapter.

6. Ioas maketh prouision for the repayring of the temple. 20. Ioas is kylled by two of his seruantes.

1 AND Ioas beganne to raigne in the seuenth yeere of Iehu, fourtie yeeres raigned he in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beer-seba.

2 And he dyd that whiche was good in the sight of the Lorde, as long as (a) Iehoiada the priest enfourmed him.

(a) So long as rulers geue care to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But the hygh places were not taken away: for the people offered, and burnt incense yet vpon the hygh places.

4 And Ioas sayd to the priestes, All the syluer of the dewisate thinges that be brought to the house of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that euery man with a willing hart geueth, and bringeth into the house of the Lorde:

Exod. 30. b. Leuit. 27. a. Exod. 36. a.

5 Let the priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance, to repayre the broken places of the house, wherelocuer any decay is founde.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentieth yeere of king Ioas, the priestes had mended nothing that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then king Ioas called for Iehoiada the priest, and the other priestes, and sayd vnto them, Why repayre ye not the broken places of the temple? nowe therfore se that ye receyue no more money of your acquaintance, excepte ye deliuer it to repayre the temple withal.

8 And the priestes consented to receyue no more money of the people, excepte to repayre the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the priest tooke a chest, and bored a hole in the lyd of it, and set it beside the aulter, on the right side, as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lorde, and the priestes that keapt the vessels, put therin all the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, & fought against Geth, and tooke it: and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Hierusalem.

13 And the Lorde testified in Israel, and in Iuda, by all the prophetes, and by all the Sears, sayeing, Turne from your wicked wayes, and kepe my commaundementes, and my statutes, accordyng to all the lawe whiche I commaunded your fathers, and whiche I sent to you by my seruauntes the prophetes.

14 Notwithstandyng, they would not heare, but rather hardened their neckes, lyke to the stubbernesse of their (b) fathers, that did not beleeue in the Lord their God.

15 For they refused his statutes, & his couenant that he made with their fathers, and the witnesses wherewith he witnessed vnto them, and they folowed vanitie, and became vayne, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concernyng whom the Lorde had charged them, that they should not doo like them.

16 But they left all the commaundementes of the Lorde their GOD, and made them images of metal, euen two calues, & (made) groues, and worshipped all the (c) hoast of heauen, and serued Baal.

23 Untyll the Lorde put Israel away out of his syght, as he had sayd by all his seruants the Prophetes: and so was Israel caryed away out of their owne lande to Assyria, euen vnto this day.

24 And the kyng of Assyria brought menne from Babylon, from (e) Cuthe, from Aua, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in stede of the chyldren of Israel, and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And at the begynnyng of their dwellyng there, they feared not the Lord, & the Lorde sent Lions among them, which slewe them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the kyng of Assyria, sayeing, The nations whiche thou hast translated and put in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of ỹ God of the lande: therefore he hath sent Lions vppon them, and beholde they slay them, because they knowe not the manner of worshipping the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Assyria commaunded, sayeing, Cary thither one of the priestes whom ye brought thence, and let him goe and dwell there, and teache them the fashion howe to serue the god of the countrey.

28 And then one of the priestes, whom they had caried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them howe they shoulde feare the Lorde.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the hygh places whiche the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Asima.

31 The Auites made Nibhaz & Tharthak: & the Sepharuites burnt their children in fyre to Adramelech, & Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lorde, and made them priestes of the baest of them, which sacrifyced for them in the houses of the high places.

33 And so (f) they feared the Lorde, & serued their owne goddes, after the manner of the people whom they caryed thence.

34 And vnto this day they doo after the olde manners: and neither feare GOD, neyther doo after their ordinances and customes, nor doo after the lawe & commaundement whiche the Lorde commaunded the chyldren of Iacob, whom he called Israel.

35 And the Lorde made a couenant with them, & charged them, sayeing, Feare none other gods, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifyce to them:

36 But feare the Lorde, whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, with great power, and a stretched out arme, hym feare, and to him bowe, and to him do sacrifyce.

37 The statutes, ordinances, lawe, and commaundement whiche he wrote for you, se that ye be diligent to doo for euermore, and feare not any other gods.

38 And the couenant that I haue made

39 But the Lord your God ye shall feare, and he shal deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they dyd not hearken, but dyd after their olde custome.

41 And so these nations feared the Lorde, and serued their images also, like as dyd their children, & their childrens children: euen as dyd their fathers, so dyd they vnto this day.

The. xviii. Chapter.

4. Hezekia king of Iuda putteth downe the brasen serpente, and destroyeth the idols.
7. and prospereth.

A 1 IN the thirde yeere of Hoseas sonne of Ela king of Israel, it came to passe that Hezekia the sonne of Achaz king of Iuda dyd raigne.

2. Chro. 28. 2. Chro. 29.

2 Twentie & fyue yeeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and raigned twentie and nine yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Abi the daughter of Zacharia.

3 And he dyd that whiche is right in the sight of the Lorde, according to all as dyd Dauid his father.

(a) It appertayneth to a good prince to purge the Church of God. Num. 21. c.

4 He (a) put away the high places, and brake the images, & cut downe the groues, and all to brake the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for vnto thold dayes the children of Israel dyd burne sacrifyce to it: and he called it Nehustan.

5 He trusted in the Lorde God of Israel, so that after him was none lyke him among all the kinges of Iuda, neyther were there any in the before him.

6 For he claue to the Lorde, and departed not from hym: but kept his commaundements, which the lord commanded Moses.

B 7 And the Lorde was with hym, so that he prospered in all thinges whiche he tooke in hande: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and serued him not.

8 He smote the Philistines, euen vnto Azza, and the coastes thereof, both castels where they kept watches, and strong cities. 2. king. 17.

9 And in the fourth yeere of kyng Hezekia, (whiche was the seuenth yeere of Hosea, sonne of Ela king of Israel) Salmanazer king of Assyria, came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And after thre yeeres they tooke it: euen in the sixth yeere of Hezekia (that is to say, the ninth yeere of Hosea king of Israel) Samaria was wonne.

11 And the king of Assyria did carye away Israel vnto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they wolde not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his couenant, and all that Moses the seruant of the Lorde commaunded, and would neyther heare them, nor doo them.

13 Therefore in the fourteenth yeere of king Hezekia, dyd Sennacherib king of Assyria come vp against all the strong cities of Iuda, and tooke them. 2. Chro. 32. Eccl. 48.

14 And Hezekia king of Iuda, sent to the king of Assyria to Lachis, saying, I haue offended, depart from me: and al that thou puttest on me, that wyl I beare. And the kyng of Assyria appoynted vnto Hezekia king of Iuda three hundred talentes of siluer, and thirtie talentes of golde. C

15 And Hezekia gaue him al the siluer that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and in the treasures of the kinges house. 2. king. 12.

16 At the same season dyd Hezekia rent of the doores of the temple of the Lorde, & the pillers whiche the same Hezekia king of Iuda had couered ouer, and gaue them to the king of Assyria.

17 And the king of Assyria sent (b) Tharthan and Rabsaris, and Rabsake, from Lachis, to king Hezekia, with a great hoast, against Hierusalem: and they went vp, and came to Hierusalem, & gate them vp, and stoode by the conduite of the vpper poole, which is in the way of the fullers feelde. (b) After certayne yeeres when Hezekia ceased to pay the appoynted tribute, the king of Assyria sent his captaynes against him. Esay. 36. 1.

18 And when they had called to the kyng, there came out to them Eliakim the sonne of Elkia, whiche was stewarde of the household, and Sobna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rabsake saide vnto them, Tell ye Hezekia, I pray you, thus saith the great king, euen the king of Assyria, What confydence is this that thou hast?

20 Thou thinkest surely I haue eloquence, but counsel and strength are for the warre: on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? D

21 Doost thou trust to the staffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wyll goe into his hande, and pearse it: euen so is Pharao king of Egypt vnto all that trust on him. Esai. 36. 6. Ezec. 29. 6.

22 If ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lorde our God: is not that he whose high places, and whose aulters Hezekia hath (c) put downe? and hath sayde to Iuda and Hierusalem, Ye shal worship before this aultar here in Hierusalem. 2. Chro. 32. (c) Idolatrie when idolatrie is destroyed, Gods religion is restored, and the people is remoued.

23 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, geue hostages to my lorde the king of Assyria, and I wyl wyl deliuer thee two thousande horses, yf thou be able to set riders vpon them.

24 Why thinkest thou scorne at the presence of one of the lest Dukes of my maisters seruantes, and trustest to Egypt for charrettes and horsmen?

25 Moreouer, am I come nowe without the bidding of the Lord to this place, to destroy it? The Lorde sayd to me, Goe vp to this lande, and destroy it.

26 And Eliakim the sonne of Helkia, and Sobna, and Joah, sayde vnto Rabsake, Speake, I pray thee, to thy seruantes in the Syrians language (for we vnderstande it) and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the eares of this people that are on the wal.

27 And Rabsake sayd vnto them, Hath my maister sent me to thy maister and thee, to speake these wordes? Hath he not sent me because of the men which sitte on the wal, that they may eate their owne doung, and drinke their owne "pisse with you?

"Heb. the water of their feete.

28 And so Rabsake stoode, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the wordes of the great kyng, euen of the king of Assyria.

29 Thus sayth the king, Let not Hezekia beguile you, for he shall not be able to deliuer you out of myne hande:

30 Neyther let Hezekia make you to trust in the Lorde, saying, The Lord shall surely deliuer vs, and this citie shal not be geuen ouer into the hande of the kyng of Assyria.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezekia: for thus sayth the king of Assyria, Deale kyndly with me, and come out to me, & then eate euery man of his owne vine, and of his owne figge tree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne well, 32 Til I come and fet you to as good a lande as yours is, a lande of corne, and wine, a lande of bread and vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of oline trees, and of hony, that ye may liue, and not dye: and hearken not vnto Hezekia, for he beguileth you, saying, The Lorde shal deliuer vs.

33 Hath euery one of the goddes of the nations, deliuered his lande out of the hande of the kyng of Assyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath, and of Arphad? & where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, & Iua? Dyd they deliuer Samaria out of myne hande?

35 And what God is among al the goddes of the nations, that hath deliuered his lande out of myne hande? (d) Shall the Lorde deliuer Hierusalem out of myne hande?

(d) An execrable blasphemie, to compare dead idols, with the lyuing God.

36 But the people helde their peace, and answered not him a worde: for the kyng had commaunded, saying, Answeare him not.

37 Then Eliakim the sonne of Helkia, whiche was the stewarde of the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekia, with their clothes rent, and told him the wordes of Rabsake.

The. xix. Chapter.

6. God promiseth Esai victorie to Hezekia.

1 SO it came to passe, that when kyng Hezekia heard it, he rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth, & came into the house of the Lorde, A Esai.37.a.

2 And sent Eliakim, which was the steward of the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, and the elders of the priestes, clothed in sacke, to Esai the prophete, the sonne of Amoz.

3 And they sayd vnto hym, Thus sayth Hezekia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blasphemie: for the chyldren are come to the birth, & there is no strength to be deliuered.

4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy GOD wyl heare al the wordes of Rabsake, whom the king of Assyria his maister hath sent to rayle on the lyuyng God, and to rebuke him with wordes whiche the Lorde thy GOD hath heard: and lyft thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are leaft.

5 So the seruantes of kyng Hezekia came to Esai.

6 And Esai sayd vnto them, So shall ye say to your maister, Thus sayth the Lorde, Be not afrayde of the wordes whiche thou hast heard, with whiche the young men of the kyng of Assyria hath rayled on me.

7 Beholde, I wyl sende a blast vpon hym, and he shal heare tidinges, and so returne to his owne lande, and I wil bring to passe that he shal fal vpon the sworde, euen in his owne lande. B Esai.37.c. 2.Chr.32.d.

8 And Rabsake went backe agayne, and found the kyng of Assyria, fighting agaynst Libna, for he had heard howe that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And when he heard men say of Thirhaka kyng of Ethiopia, Beholde he is come out to fight agaynst thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezekia, saying,

10 Thus speake to Hezekia kyng of Juda, saying, Let not thy GOD deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Hierusalem shal not be deliuered into the hande of the kyng of Assyria.

11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the kinges of Assyria haue done to al landes, howe they haue vtterly destroyed them: and shalt thou escape?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which mine auncetours haue destroyed? As Golan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, the king of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena, and Iua?

¶ 14 And Hezekia receiued the letter of the hande of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekia went vp into the house of the lord, and layde it abroade before the Lorde.

(a) It is the true refuge and succour in al dangers, to flee vnto the Lord by earnest prayer.

15 And Hezekia (a) prayed before the Lord, and sayde, O Lorde God of Israel, whiche dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer al the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth.

16 Lord, bowe downe thyne eare and heare: open Lorde thine eyes, (I beseeche thee,) and see: and heare the wordes of Sennacherib, whiche hath sent (this man) to raile on the liuing God.

17 Of a trueth Lorde, the kynges of Assyria haue destroyed nations and theyr landes, 18 And haue set fyre on theyr goddes: for they were no goddes, but the worke of the handes of man, euen of wood and stone: and they destroyed them.

19 Nowe therefore, O Lorde our God, I beseche thee, saue thou vs out of his hande, that al the kingdomes of the earth may knowe that thou only art the Lorde God.

20 And Esai the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekia, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, That whiche thou hast prayed me concernyng Sennacherib kyng of Assyria, I haue heard it.

D 21 This is therefore the worde that the Lorde hath sayde of him, (b) The virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne (O thou king of Assyria) the daughter of Hierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

(b) Hierusalē is called virgin, because as yet it had not ben taken by the enimie. Math. 23. b. Zach. 2. b.

22 Whom hast thou rayled on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? Against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thyne eyes so high? euen against the holy one of Israel.

23 By the hande of thy messengers thou hast rayled on the Lorde, and sayde, With the multitude of my charrettes, I am come vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, along by the sydes of Libanon, and I wil cut downe the hygh Cedar trees, and the lusty Fyrre trees therof: and I wyl goe into the lodging of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.

24 I haue digged and dronke strange waters: and with the strip of my goyng wyl I dyre al the water pooles that are besieged.

25 Hast thou not heard howe I haue ordeyned suche a thyng a great whyle agoe, and haue prepared it from the begynning? And shal I not nowe bring it foorth, that it may destroy and bryng strong cities into waste heapes of stones?

26 And the inhabiters of them shalbe of litle power, and saynt harted, and confounded, and shalbe like the grasse of the feelde, or greene hearbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houses, or as the corne that is vnripe and smytten with blastyng.

27 I knowe thy dwelling, thy comming out, and thy going in, and thy fury against me. Psal. 37. d.

28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I wil put my hooke in thy nostrels, and my byt in thy lippes, and I wyl bryng thee backe agayne the same way thou camest. E

29 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezekia, Ye shal eate this yeere of such things as growe of them selues, and the next yeere suche as come vp of those that did growe of their owne accorde, and the thirde yeere sowe ye and reape, plant vineyardes, and eate the fruites thereof.

30 And it that is escaped & left of the daughter of Iuda, shal yet againe take rootyng downewarde, and beare fruite vpwarde.

31 For out of Hierusalem shal goe a remnant and a number that shal escape out of mount Sion: the zeale of the Lorde of hostes shall bring this thing to passe.

32 Wherefore thus saith the Lorde concerning the king of Assyria, He shal not come to this citie, nor shoote an arrowe into it, nor come before it with shielde, nor cast a banke against it.

33 But shall goe backe agayne the way he came, and shal not come into this citie, saith the Lorde.

34 For I will defende this citie, and saue it, for myne owne sake, and for Dauid my seruantes sake.

F 35 And the selfe same night the angel of the Lorde went out, and smote in the host of the Assyrians an hundred fourescore and fyue thousande: and when the remnant were vp early in the morning, beholde they were all dead coarses. (c) This was the inflictyng of God for his blasphemie, that he should be slayne before that idol whiche he preferred before the liuing God: & by them by whom he ought by nature to haue ben defen-

36 And so Sennacherib kyng of Assyria auoyded, and departed, and went againe and dwelt at Ninyue.

37 And as he was in a temple worshyppyng Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sarezar his owne sonnes (c) smote hym with the swoorde: and they escaped into the lande of Armenia, and Asarhaddon his sonne raigned in his stede.

1. Hezekia being ſycke, 7. receiueth the ſigne of his health.

In 2.Chr.32. Eſai.38.a. A Bout that tyme was Hezekia ſycke vnto deathe: and the prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amoz came to him, and ſaide vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Put thyne houſeholde in an order, for thou ſhalt dye, and not lyue.

2 And Hezekia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lorde, ſaying, 3 I beſeeche thee, O Lorde, remember nowe howe I haue walked before thee in trueth, and with a perfect harte, and haue donne that whiche is good in thy ſyght: And Hezekia wept ſoare.

4 And afore Eſai was gonne out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lord came to him, ſaying,

5 Turne agayne, and tel Hezekia the captayne of my people, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father, (a) I haue heard thy prayer, and ſeene thy teares, & beholde, I wyl heale thee, ſo that on the thirde day thou ſhalt goe vp vnto the houſe of the Lord:

(a) God is moued with the prayer and vnfained repentance.

6 And I wyll adde vnto thy dayes yet fyfteene yeeres, and I wyl deliuer thee and this citie, out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria, and wyl defende this citie, for myne owne ſake, and for Dauids my ſeruantes ſake.

B 7 And Eſai ſaide, Take a lumpe of dryed figges. And they tooke and layde it on the ſoare, and he recouered.

8 And Hezekia ſaide vnto Eſai, What ſhall be the ſigne that the Lorde wyl heale me, and that I ſhal goe vp into the houſe of the Lorde the thirde day?

Exod.48.c. 9 Eſai anſweared, This ſigne ſhalt thou haue of the Lorde, that the Lorde wyl doo that he hath ſpoken: ſhall the ſhadowe goe forward ten degrees? or goe backe agayne ten degrees?

10 Hezekia anſwearde, It is a lyght thing for the ſhadowe to goe downe ten degrees, I deſyre not (that:) but let the ſhadowe goe backwarde ten degrees.

"Other, put them.

14 And Eſai the Prophete came vnto kyng Hezekia, and ſayde vnto him, What ſayde theſe menne? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekia ſayde, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon. C

15 And he ſayde agayne, What haue they ſeene in thy houſe? Hezekia anſwearede, All the thinges that are in my houſe, haue they ſeene: there is nothing among my treaſures, that I haue not ſhewed them.

16 And Eſai ſayd vnto Hezekia, Heare the woorde of the Lorde.

17 Beholde the dayes comme, that all that is in thyne houſe, & what ſo euer thy fathers haue layde vp in ſtore vnto this day, ſhalbe caryed into Babylon: and nothyng ſhall be left, ſayth the Lorde. 2.kin.24.a. and.25.b. Ierr.20.b. yearſe.27.

Chr. 34. 1 (a) His name was prophecied of, and his name mentioned by Iddo the prophete, more then three hundred yeeres before. 3. king. 13. 2

2 He dyd that whiche is ryght in the syght of the Lord, and walked in al the wayes of Dauid his father, and (a) bowed neyther to the ryght hand, nor to the leaft.

3 And in the eyghteenth yeere of the raigne of kyng Iosia, the king sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, the sonne of Mesulam the scribe, to the house of the Lord, sayeng,

4 Goe vp to Helkia the high priest, that he may summe the syluer whiche is brought into the house of the Lorde, whiche the keepers of the porche haue gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliuer it into the hande of them that doo the woorke, and that haue the ouersyght of the house of the Lord: and 2. Chr. 34.

and let them geue it to them that woorke in the house of the Lorde, to repayre the decayed places of the temple.

6 Euen vnto carpenters and masons, and woorkers vpon the walles, and for to buye tymber & free stone, to repayre the temple.

7 Howbeit, let no reckning be made with them, of the money that is deliuered into their handes, but let them doo it vppon trust.

8 And Helkia the high priest sayd vnto Saphan the scribe, (b) I haue found the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he read it.

9 And Saphan the scribe came to the king, and brought hym woorde agayne, and said, Thy seruantes haue "gathered the money that was found in the temple, and haue deliuered it vnto them that doo the woorke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lorde.

10 And Saphan the scribe shewed the king, sayeing, Helkia the priest hath deliuered me a booke: and Saphan read it before the kyng.

11 And when the kyng had heard the woordes of the booke of the lawe, he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commaunded Helkia the priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Saphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, and Asahia a seruant of the kinges, saying, 13 Goe ye, and enquyre of the Lorde for me, and for the people, and for al Iuda, concerning the woords of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is kyndeled agaynst vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the woords of this booke, to doo according vnto al that which is written therein for vs.

14 So Helkia the high priest, and Ahikam, Achbor, and Saphan, & Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetisse, the wife of Sallum the sonne of Thikua, the sonne of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: (which prophetisse dwelt in Hierusalem in the (c) house of the doctrine) and they communed with her.

15 And she answered them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Tel the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl bryng euyl vppon this place, and on the inhabitours thereof, euen al the woordes of the booke whiche the kyng of Iuda hath read:

17 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other Goddes, to anger me withal, the (d) woorkes of their handes: my wrath also shalbe kyndled against this place, and shal not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Iuda whiche sente you to aske counsel of the Lorde, so shal ye say, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, as touching the woordes whiche ye haue hearde:

19 Because thine harte dyd (e) melte, and because thou hast humbled thee selfe before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabiters of the same, howe that they shoulde be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I also haue heard (it) saith the Lorde.

20 Beholde therefore, I wyl receiue thee vnto thy fathers, and thou shalt be put into thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes shal not see al the euyl whiche I wyl bryng vppon this place. And they brought the king woord againe.

5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees followed after the kyng, and tooke hym in the playne of Jericho, and all his armie were scattered away from hym.

6 So they tooke the kyng, and brought him to (Nabuchodonosor) the kyng of Babylon, 2 Par.36.c to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vpon hym.

12 But the captayne of the souldiers left of the poore of the land, to dresse the vines, and to tyl the grounde.

22 Howbeit, there remayned people in the lande of Iuda, whom Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon left, and made Gedalia the sonne of Ahikam, the sonne of Saphan, ruler ouer them.

23 And al the captaynes of the soulders, they, and theirs, hearde that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, and there came to Gedalia to Mizpah, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Iohannan the sonne of Kareа, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophatite, and Iaazania the sonne of Maachathi they, and their men.

? or, be ye not afraid of the seruants of the Chaldees.

25 But in the seuenth moneth, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Elisama, of the kynges blood, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedalia, that he dyed: and so did he the Iewes, and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And al the people both smal and great, and the captaines of warre, arose, & came to Egypt: for they were afrayde of the Chaldees.

27 Notwithstanding, yet in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after Ioachin king of Iuda was caryed away, the seuen and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon, the same yeere that he began to raigne, did lyft vp the head of Ioachin kyng of Iuda out of prison.

28 And spake kindely to him, and set his E seate aboue the seate of the kings that were with him in Babylon.

The. xiii. Chapter.

7. The arke is brought agayne from Kiriath iarim to Hierusalem. 9. Oza dieth, because he toucheth it.

1 AND Dauid counsayled with the captaynes of thousandes and hundredes, and with al the lordes,

2 And sayd vnto al the congregation of Israel, If it seeme good to you, and that it be of the Lord our God, we wyll sende abrode vnto our brethren that are left in all the landes of Israel, and with them also to the priestes and leuites whiche are in their suburbes, to geather them togeather vnto vs:

3 And we wyll bryng agayne the (a) arke of our God to vs: for we regarded it not in the dayes of Saul.

4 And all the congregation was content that he shoulde doo so: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of al the people.

5 So Dauid geathered al Israel togeather, from (b) Sihor in Egypt, vnto the entryng of Hemath, to bryng the arke of the Lorde from Kiriath iarim.

6 And Dauid went vp, and al Israel, to an hygh place towarde Kiriath iarim, that was in Iuda, to fetche thence the arke of the Lorde God that dwelleth betweene the Cherubims, where his name is called on.

7 And they carried the arke of GOD in a newe carte out of the house of Abinadab: and Oza and his * brother guided the cart.

8 And Dauid and all Israel played before the (arke of) God with al their might, with syngyng, and harpes, psalteries, and tymbrels, and cymbales, and trumpettes.

9 And when they came vnto the threshyng flooze of Chidon, Oza put foorth his hande to holde the arke, for the Oxen stumbled.

10 And the Lorde was wroth with Oza, and (c) smote him, because he put his hand to the arke: and there he dyed before God.

11 And Dauid was out of quiet, because the Lorde had rent a rent in Oza: and he called the name of that place, The rentyng of Oza, vnto this day.

12 And Dauid was afrayde of God that day, saying, Howe shal I bryng the arke of God home to me?

13 And so Dauid brought not the arke home to him to the citie of Dauid: but carried it into the house of Obed Edom, a Gethite.

14 And the arke of God remayned with Obed Edom, euē in his houle three moneths: and the Lorde blessed the house of Obed Edom, and al that he had.

(a) His first care was to restore religion.

trees, with Masons & Carpenters to buylde hym an house.

2 And Dauid perceyued that the Lord had confyrmed hym king vpon Israel, and that his kingdome was lift vp on hygh, because of his (a) people Israel:

(a) Because of Gods promise made to the people of Israel.

3 And Dauid tooke yet moe wyues at Hierusalem, & begate moe sonnes & daughters.

4 These are the names of his children whiche were borne vnto him at Hierusalem: Samua, Sobab, Nathan, and Solomon.

5 Ibhar, Elisua, and Elipheleț,

6 Noga, Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 Elisama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that Dauid was annoynted kyng vpon al Israel, all the Philistines went vp to seeke Dauid: and Dauid harde of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came in, and spread them selues through ỳ valley of Rephaim.

(b) Dauid asked counsel at God, before he entred warre.

10 And Dauid (b) asked counsayle at God, saying, Shal I goe against ỳ Philistines? & wylt thou delyuer them into mine hand? 11 And the Lord sayd vnto hym, Goe vp: for I wyl delyuer them into thine hande. And so they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid smote them there, and Dauid sayde, God hath diuided mine enimies with mine hande, as a man woulde diuide water: and therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, Dauid gaue a commaundement, and they were burnt with fyre.

13 And the Philistines came together agayne, and * rushed into the valley.

* or, spread abroade.

14 And Dauid asked agayne at God, and God sayde to hym, Goe not vp after them, but turne away from them, that thou mayest come vpon them ouer against the Mulberie trees.

2. Sam. 5. verse. 23.

15 And when thou hearest a sound goe in the toppes of the Mulberie trees, then goe out to battaile: for God is gonne foorth before ther, to smyte the host of the Philistines.

16 Dauid therefore dyd as God commaunded hym, and they smote the host of the Philistines, from Gibeon, to Gazer.

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into al landes, and the Lord made al nations feare hym.

The. xv. Chapter.

25. Dauid bryngeth the arke with ioy.
29. And dauncyng before it, is despised of his wyfe Michol.

1 ANd Dauid made him houses in the cytie of Dauid, & prepared a place for the arke of God, and pytched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid sayd, The arke of God ought not to be carried, but of the Leuites: for them hath the Lorde chosen to beare the arke of the Lorde, and to minister vnto him for euer. Num. 4.

3 And Dauid gathered al Israel together to Hierusalem, to fetche the arke of the Lorde vnto his place whiche he had ordeyned for it. 2. Sam. 6.

9 Of the sonnes of Hebron, Eliel the cheefe, and of his brethren, foure score.

10 Of the sonnes of Oziel, Aminadab the cheefe, and of his brethren, an hundred and twelue.

11 And Dauid called Zadoc & Abiathar the priestes, and the Leuites, Uriel, Asaia, Joel, Semaia, Eliel, and Aminadab, 12 And sayde vnto them, Ye that are the principall fathers of the Leuites, see that ye be holy with your brethren, ỳ ye may bring in ỳ arke of the Lorde God of Israel, vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.

13 For because ye were not there at the first, the Lorde our God made a rent among vs, for that we sought hym not as the fashion ought to be. 1. Par. 13.

14 So the priestes and the Leuites sanctified them selues, to fetch the arke of the lord God of Israel. C

15 And the children of the Leuites bare the arke of God vpon their shoulders, with staues theron, as Moses commaunded, according to the worde of the Lorde. Exod. 25. Num. 4.

16 And Dauid spake to the cheefe heades of the Leuites, that they shoulde appoynt certayne of their brethren to syng, with instrumentes of musicke, psalteries, harpes, and cymbales, that they myght make a sounde, and to syng on hygh with ioyfulnesse.

17 And the Leuites appoynted Heman the sonne of Joel, and of his brethren, Asaph the sonne of Berechia, and of the sonnes of Merari, and of their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Cusaia.

18 And with them, their brethren, of the second degree, Zacharia, Ben, Jaziel, Semiramoth, 20 And Zacharia, Aziel, Semiramoth, Iehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maasia, and Banaia, played with spalteries to sing with.

23 Berechia and Elkana keapt the dooze of the arke.

24 And Sebania, Iosaphat, Nathanael, Amasai, Zacharia, Banaia, and Eliazer the priestes, dyd blowe with trumpettes before the arke of God: And Obed Edom, and Iehia were kepers of the dooze of the arke.

25 And Dauid, & the elders of Israel, and the captaynes ouer thousandes, went to fetche the arke of the couenant of the Lorde out of the house of Obed Edom with gladnesse.

26 And when (a) God helped the Leuites that bare the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, they (b) offered seuen oxen, and seuen rammes.

27 And Dauid had on him a linnen garmēt, like as had also al the Leuites that bare the arke, and so had the singers, and Chenania the ruler of the songue, with the singers: and Dauid had vppon him an Ephod of lynnen.

28 And all they of Israel brought the arke of the Lordes couenant with showting and blowing of the shawme, and trumpettes, making a noyse with cymbales, psalteries, and harpes.

29 And as the arke of the (c) couenant of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michol the daughter of Saul looking out at a wyndowe, sawe king Dauid dawnsing, and playing, and she despised him in her hart.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1. The arke beyng placed, they offer sacrifices. 8. Dauid appoynteth a notable psalme to be song in the prayse of the Lorde.

SO they brought in the arke of God, and set it in the myddest of the tent that Dauid pitched for it: and they offred whole burnt sacrifices, and peace offeringes before God.

2 And when Dauid had made an end of offering the whole burnt offeringes, & peace offeringes, he (a) blessed the people in the name of the Lorde.

3 And he dealt to al Israel, both man and woman, a cake of bread, and a peece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appoynted certaine of the Leuites to minister before the arke of the Lorde, and to (b) thewe foorth and to thanke & prayse the Lorde God of Israel.

5 And Asaph was the cheefe, and nexte to hym Zacharia, Ieiel, Semiramoth, Iehiel, Mathathia, Eliab, Benaia, Obed Edom, and Ieiel, with instrumentes, psalteries, and harpes: but Asaph made a sounde with cymbales.

6 Banaia and Iahaziel, priestes, blew with trumpettes continually before the arke of the couenant of God.

7 And that same time Dauid (c) dyd appoynt cheefely to thanke the Lorde by Asaph and his brethren.

8 Confesse you (a) vnto God, cal vppon his name: cause the people to vnderstande his deuices.

9 Syng vnto hym, sing psalmes vnto him: talke you of al his woonderous woorkes.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the harte of them reioyce that doo seeke God.

11 Seeke God and his strength: seeke his face euermore.

12 Remember the maruelous woorkes that he hath donne: his woonders, and the iudgementes of his mouth.

13 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant, ye his chosen children of Iacob, he is God our Lorde: his iudgementes are in al the earth.

14 He hath ben myndful alwayes of his couenant (for he promised a woord to a thousande generations:) euen of his couenant that he made with Abraham, and of his othe vnto Isahac.

15 And he appoynted the same vnto Iacob for a lawe: and to Israel for an euerlasting couenant, 16 Saying, vnto thee I wyl geue the lande of "Chanaan, the lot of your inheritance.

17 When they were a few men in number, and had ben strangers but a litle whyle in it: and when they went from one nation to another, from one kyngdome to another people.

18 He suffered no man to "doo them wrong: yea, he reproued euen kinges for their sakes.

19 Touch not myne annoynted: and doo my prophetes no harme.

22 For great is the Lorde, and wourthye to be prayed exceedingly: he is to be feared aboue al Gods.

* vanitie and no god.

23 For all the Gods of the people are * but Idols: but the Lorde made heauen.

24 Prayse and honour are in his presence: strength and gladnesse are in his place.

25 Geue vnto the Lorde ye kynredes of people: geue vnto the Lord glory and dominion.

26 Geue vnto the Lorde the glory due vnto his name: bryng sacrifices, and come before him, and woorshyp the Lord in his glorious sanctuarie.

27 Let all the earth feare him: surely the worlde shalbe stable, and not moue.

E 28 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: and let men tel among the nations that the Lorde is kyng.

29 Let the sea roare, and the fulnesse therof: let the feeldes reioyce, & al that is therein.

30 Then shal the trees of the wood reioyce at the presence of the Lord: because he commeth to iudge the earth.

31 O geue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is good: for his mercy endureth euer.

32 And sayye, Saue vs, O God our saluation, geather vs togeather, & deliuer vs from among the Heathen: that we may geue thankes to thy holy name, and triumph in the prayse of thee.

33 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for euer and euer: and let all the people say Amen, and prayse the Lorde.

34 And so he left there before the arke of the Lordes couenant, Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the arke continually, euery day * his dayes worke.

* or, in his course.

F 35 And Obed Edom and his brethren, three score and eyght: and Obed Edom the sonne of Idithun, and Hosa, were appointed to be porters.

36 And Sadoc the priest, and his brethren the priestes, were before the tabernacle of the Lord in the high place that was at Gibeon, 37 To offer whole burnt offerinages vnto the Lord, vpon the whole burnt offering aulter, perpetually in the mornyng and euenyng, according to all that whiche is written in the lawe of the Lorde, which he commanded Israel.

38 And with them were Heman & Idithun, and other that were chosen, whose names were expressed, to geue thankes to the Lord, that his mercy (lasteth) euer.

39 And with them dyd Heman and Idithun syng with trumpets and cymbales, making a sweete melodie with instruments of musicke, and godly songues, and the sonnes of Idithun were porters.

40 And al the people departed euery man to his house, and Dauid returned to bless his house.

The. xvii. Chapter.

12. Christe is promised vnder the figure of Solomon.

1 AND when Dauid dwelt in his house, he sayde to Nathan the prophete, Lo, I dwel in an house of Cedar tree, but the arke of the Lordes couenant remayneth vnder (a) curtaynes.

(a) In tente couered with skynnes.

2. Sam. 7.

2 And Nathan sayde vnto Dauid, Do al that is in thine hart, for God is with thee.

3 And the same nyght the woorde of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Goe and tel Dauid my seruant, Thus sayth the Lorde, Thou shalt not buylde me an house to dwel in:

5 For I haue dwelte in no house since the day that I brought out the children of Israel vnto this day: but haue gonne from tent to tent, and from one dwelling place to another.

6 And wheresoeuer I haue (b) walked with al Israel, spake I euer one woorde to any of the Iudges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why haue ye not buylt me an house of Cedar tree?

(b) Meaning wheresoeuer his arke went whiche was the signe of his presence.

7 Nowe therefore thus shalt thou say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, I tooke thee from the sheepe coate, and from folowing the sheepe, that thou shouldest be captayne ouer my people Israel:

8 And I haue benne with thee whyther soeuer thou haste walked, and haue weeded out al thine enimies out of thy sight, & haue made thee a name like the name of the greatest men that are in the earth.

9 And I haue ordeyned a place for my people Israel, & made it fast, so that now they may dwel in their place, & moue no more: neyther shall the children of wickednesse vexe them any more, as at the begynnyng.

10 And since the time that I commaunded iudges to be ouer my people Israel, I haue subdued all thine enimies: and I tolde thee that the Lorde woulde buylde thee an house.

11 This also shal come to passe: When thy dayes be expired, that thou muste goe vnto thy fathers, I wyl rayse vp thy seede after thee, which shalbe of thy sonnes, and I wyl stablishe his kyngdome.

12 He shal buylde me an house, and I wyl stablishe his seate for euer.

13 I wyl be his father, and he shalbe my sonne, and I wyl not take my mercy away from hym, as I tooke it from hym that was was before thee.

C 14 But I wyl stablyshe hym in myne house and my kyngdome for euer, and his seate shalbe sure for euermore.

15 Accordyng to al these wordes, and accordyng to al this vision, dyd Nathan tel kyng Dauid.

16 And Dauid the kyng came and sate before the Lorde, and sayde, What am I, O Lorde God, and what is myne house, that thou hast promoted me thus farre?

17 And yet this seemed litle in thine eyes, O God: but thou hast also spoken of thy seruantes house for a great whyle to come, and hast looked vpon me, as vpon a man of high degree, O Lorde God.

18 What shall Dauid desyre more of thee, for the honour of thy seruant? For thou hast knowen thy seruant.

19 O Lorde, for thy seruantes sake, euen accordyng to thyne owne harte, hast thou donne all this magnificence, to shewe all great thynges.

20 Lorde, there is none lyke thee, neyther is there any gods besides thee, accordyng to all that we haue hearde with our eares.

D 21 Moreouer, what nation on the earth is lyke thy people Israel, to whom God hath vouchsafed to come, & redeeme them to be his owne people, and to make thee a name of excellencie & terriblenesse, with castyng out nations from before the people whom thou hast delyuered out of Egypt?

22 Thy people of Israel dydst thou make thyne owne people for euer, and thou Lord becamest their God.

23 Therfore nowe, Lord, let the thyng that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, be true for euer, that thou Lorde doo as thou hast sayde.

24 Let it come to passe, that thy name may be magnified for euer, that it may be sayd, The Lorde of hostes is the God of Israel, euen the God of Israel, & the house of Dauid thy seruant endureth stable before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast tolde thy seruant that thou wylt buylde hym an house, and therfore thy seruant hath founde in his hart to pray before thee.

26 And nowe, Lorde, thou art God, & hast promised this goodnesse vnto thy seruant.

27 Nowe therefore, let it be thy pleasure to blesse the house of thy seruant, that it may continue before thee for euer: For whom thou blessest, O Lord, the same is blessed for euer.

10 He sent * Hadoram his sonne to kyng Dauid, to make peace with hym, and to blesse hym, because he had fought agaynst Hadarezer, and beaten hym, (for Thogu had warre with Hadarezer) and (Hadoram brought) all maner of Iewels of golde, syluer, and brasse with hym. * or, Ioram

11 And kyng Dauid dedicated them vnto the Lorde, with the syluer and gold that he brought from al nations, from Edom, from Moab, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalec.

12 And Abisai the sonne of Zaruia, slue of the Edomites in the salte valley, eyghtene thousande, 13 And put souldiers in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids seruantes: thus the Lorde kept Dauid in al that he tooke in hande.

14 And Dauid raigned ouer al Israel, and executed iudgement and ryghteousnesse among al his people. C

15 And Ioab the sonne of Zaruia was ouer the host, and Iosaphat the sonne of Ahilud recorder.

16 And

16 And Sadoc the sonne of Ahitob, and Abimelech the sonne of Abiathar, were the priestes, and Sausa was scribe, 17 And Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, was ouer the Cerethites, and the Pelethites: and the sonnes of Dauid were next vnto the kyng.

2 And Dauid sayde, I wyl shewe kindnesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, because his (a) father dealt kyndely with me. And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him ouer the death of his father, and the seruauntes of Dauid came into the lande of the chyldren of Ammon, to Hanon, to comfort hym.

(a) Because Nahas receiued Danid & his company when Saul persecuted him, he wold nowe shewe pleasure to his sonne for the same.

3 But the lordes of the chyldren of Ammon sayd to Hanon, Thynkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father in thy syght, that he hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruauntes come to (b) searche, to looke, and espye out the lande?

(b) The malitious euer interpret the purpose of the godly in the worse sence.

4 Wherfore Hanon toke Dauids seruantes, and (c) shaued them, and cut of their coates hard by their buttockes, & sent them away.

(c) They cut of halfe their beardes.

5 And there went certaine, and told Dauid howe the men were serued: and the kyng sent to meete them, (for the men were exceedyngly ashamed) and the kyng sayde, Tarrie at Iericho, vntyll your beardes be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the chyldren of Ammon sawe that they stanke in the syght of Dauid, Hanon & the chyldren of Ammon, sent a thousande talentes of syluer, to hyre them charrettes and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria, Maacha, & out of Zoba.

7 And they hyred thyrtie and two thousand charrets, and the kyng of Maacha and his people, whiche came and pitched before Medeba: and the chyldren of Ammon gathered them selues together from their cities, and came to batayle.

8 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioab and all the host of strong men.

9 And the chyldren of Ammon came out, & put them selues in aray to batayle, before the gate of the citie: and the kynges that were come, kept them by them selues backe in the feelde.

10 When Ioab also sawe that the frunt of the batayle was against hym before & behynde, he chose out of all the chosen men of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he deliuered vnto the hande of Abisai his brother, and they put them selues in aray against the chyldren of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be to strong for me, thou shalt succour me, and if the chyldren of Ammon preuayle against thee, I wyl helpe thee.

13 Plucke vp thyne harte, and let vs play the men, for our peoples sake, and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde shall doo that whiche is good in his owne syght.

14 So Ioab and the people that were with hym, drue nygh, before the Syrians, vnto the batayle: and they fled before hym.

15 And when the chyldren of Ammon sawe that the Syrians were fled, they ran away lykewyse before Abisai his brother, and gate them into the citie: and Ioab came to Hierusalem.

16 And when the Syrians sawe that they were put to the woorse before Israel, they sent messengers, and set out the Syrians that were beyond the * ryuer: & Sophach the captayne of the host of Hadarezer, went before them.

17 And it was tolde Dauid, and he gathered all Israel, and went together ouer Iordane, & came, and set vpon them: and when Dauid had put him selfe in aray against the Syrians, they fought with hym.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed of the Syrians, seuen thousand charrettes, and fourtie thousand footemen, and kylled Sophach the captayne of the host.

19 And when the seruauntes of Hadarezer sawe that they were put to the woorse before them of Israel, they made peace with Dauid, and became his seruantes: neyther wouldde the Syrians helpe the chyldren of Ammon any more.

The.xxi. Chapter.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred,
14. And there dye seuentie thousand men of the Pestilence.

A 1 AND Satan stoode vp against Israel, & prouoked Dauid to number Israel.

2 And Dauid sayd to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go ye, and number Israel, from Beersaba to Dan: and bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.

3 And Joab answeared, The Lorde make his people an hundred tymes so many more as they be: but my Lorde, O kyng, are they not all my lordes seruantes? why then doth my lorde require this thyng? why will my lorde be a cause of (a) trespasse to Israel?

4 Neuertheles the kynges worde preuayled against Joab: and Joab departed, and walked throughout all them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem againe,

5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and all they of Israel were a thousand thousand, and an hundred thousand men that drue swoorde: and Juda was foure hundred, threescore, & ten thousande men that drue swoorde.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them: for the kinges worde was abominable to Joab.

7 And the Lorde was displeased with this B thyng, and smote Israel.

8 And Dauid sayd vnto God, I haue sinned Exod.30. exceedingly in doyng this thing: and nowe 2.Sam.24.

9 And the Lorde spake vnto Gad Dauids
* Seer, saying, * or, pro-phete.

10 Goe, and tel Dauid, saying, Thus saith the Lorde, I geue thee three thynges: choose one of them, that I may do vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Choose thee

12 Either three yeeres famine, or three monethes to be destroyed before thyne aduer-saries, & that the swoorde of thyne enimies may ouertake thee: or els the swoorde of the Lord, & pestilence in the lande three dayes,
& the angel of the Lord destroying throughout all the coastes of Israel: and now aduise thee selfe what woorde I shall bring againe to hym that sent me.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto God, I am in an exceeding straite: let me fall nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for passing great are his mercies) but let me not fall into the hande of men.

14 So the Lord sent pestilence vpon Israel: C
& there were ouerthrowen of Israel three-score and ten thousande men.

15 And God sent the angel to Hierusalem 2.Sam.24.
to destroy it: and as he was about to de- verse.16.
stroy, the Lord beheelde, and had compassion on the euyl, and sayde to the angel that destroyed, It is ynough, let nowe thy hande ceasse. And the angel of the Lorde stoode by the threshyng floore of * Ornan the Jebu-

16 And Dauid lift vp his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord stande betweene the earth and heauen, hauing a drawen swoorde in his hande, stretched out towarde Hierusalem:
then Dauid and the elders of Israel, whiche were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid said vnto God, Is it not I that commaunded the people to be num-bred? It is I that haue sinned, and done euyll in deede: and what haue these sheepe done? Let thyne hande, O Lorde my God, gue vp, and set vp an auter vnto the Lorde in the threshyng flooze of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid went vp, accordyng to the saying of God, whiche he spake in the name of the Lorde.

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the angel, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hid themselues: but Ornan was threshing wheate.

D 21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan loked and sawe Dauid, and went out of the threshyng flooze, and bowed hym selfe to Dauid with his face to the grounde.

22 And Dauid sayde to Ornan, Geue me the place of the threshyng flooze, that I may builde an auter therein vnto the lord: thou shalt gene it me for as much money as it is worth, that the plague may ceasse from the people.

23 And Ornan sayd vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lorde the kyng do that which seemeth good in his eyes: Lo, I gene thee oxen also for whole burnt sacrifices, and threshyng instrumentes for wood, and wheate for meate offeryng, I gene it all.

24 And kyng Dauid sayde to Ornan, Not so, but I wyl bye it for as muche money as it is worth: for I will not take that whiche is thine for the Lord, nor offer whole burnt offeringes without cost.

2.Sam.24. vers.24. 25 And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sickes of gold, sixe hundred by weight.

26 And Dauid built there an auter vnto the Lord, & offered whole burnt offeringes, and peace offeringes, and called vpon the Lord, and he heard him from heauen in (c) fire vpon the auter of whole burnt offering.

27 And when the Lorde had spoken to the angel, he put vp his swoorde agayne into the sheath of it.

28 At that tyme, when Dauid sawe that the Lord had heard him in the threshyng flooze of Ornan the Iebusite, he vsed to offer there:

30 And Dauid coulde not goe before it to counsell at God, for he was afrayde of the swoorde of the angel of the Lorde.)

The.xxii.Chapter.

2. Dauid prepareth thinges necessary for the building of the temple.

1 AND Dauid sayde, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the auter for the whole burnt offering of Israel.

2 And Dauid commaunded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set Masons to hewe and pullishe stones for the building of the house of God.

3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nayles, and doores of the gates, and to ioyne withall, and abundance of brasse without weight,

4 And Cedar trees without number: for the Sidons & they of Tyre brought muche Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid sayde, Solomon my sonne is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the Lorde, must be magnifical, excellent, and of great fame and dignitie throughout al countreyes: I wyll therefore make ordinances for it. And so Dauid prepared many thynges before his death.

6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged hym to builde an house for the lord God of Israel.

7 And Dauid sayde to Solomon, My B sonne, I thought in myne hart to buylde 2.Sam.7.1 an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God:

8 But the worde of the Lorde came to me, saying, Thou hast shed (a) muche blood, and hast made great battayles: thou shalt therefore not builde an house vnto my name, for thou hast shedde muche blood vpon the earth in my sight.

(a) This declareth how greatly God abhorreth the shedding of blood, seyng Dauid for this cause is stayed to builde the temple of the Lord, albeit he tooke no warre in hand, but by Gods commaundement, and against gods enemies

9 Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, and he shalbe a man of rest, for I wyll geue hym rest from al his enimies rounde about: for his name is Solomon, and I will sende rest and peace vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 He shal builde an house for my name, and he shalbe my sonne, and I wyll be his father, and I wyl establishe the state of his kyngdome vpon Israel for euer.

11 Nowe therefore my sonne, the Lord be with thee, and prosper thee, and thou shalt builde an house to the Lord thy God, as he hath sayde of thee.

12 And the Lorde shall gene thee wysedome and vnderstandyng, and shall geue thee commaundementes for Israel, that thou mayest keepe the lawe of the Lorde thy God.

oh, chirp

13 For then thou shalt prosper, euen when thou takest heede, and fulfyllest the statutes and lawes whiche the Lorde charged Moses with for Israel: plucke vp thyne hart therefore, and be strong, dread not, nor be discouraged.

14 Beholde, accordyng to my powertie haue C I also prepared for the house of the Lorde an hundred thousande talentes of golde, and a thousande thousande talentes of siluer:

ſtuerr and as for braſſe and iron, it can not be numbred (for it is very muche) and I haue prepared timber and ſtone: and thou mayſt prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou haſt woorkemen with thee penowe, and maſons, and carpenters, to woorke in ſtone and timber, and many men that be actiue for euery woorke.

16 And of golde, ſiluer, braſſe and iron, there is no number: vp therefore and be dooing, and the Lorde ſhalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commaunded all the lordes of Iſrael to helpe Solomon his ſonne, (ſayeing,)

18 Is not the Lorde your God with you? and hath he not geuen you reſt on euery ſyde? for he hath geuen the inhabitours of the lande into my hande, and the lande is ſubdued before the Lorde, and before his people.

19 Nowe therefore ſet your hartes and your ſoules to ſeeke the Lorde your God: vp, and buylde ye the temple of the Lorde God, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and the holy veſſels of God into the houſe ſo buylt for the name of the Lorde.

The. xxiii. Chapter.

1. Dauid being olde, ordeyneth Solomon king.
13. Aaron and his ſonnes are for the hygh prieſtes.

1 SO when Dauid was olde and full of dayes, he made Solomon his ſonne king ouer Iſrael.

2 And then he gathered togeather all the lordes of Iſrael, with the prieſtes and the Leuites.

3 And the Leuites were numbred from the age of thirtie yeeres and aboue: and the number and ſumme of them was thirtie and eyght thouſande men.

4 Of whiche twentie and foure thouſand were ſet to further the woorke of the houſe of the Lorde: and ſixe thouſande were officers and iudges.

5 Foure thouſande were porters, and foure thouſande prayſed the Lorde with ſuche inſtrumentes as was made to prayſe withall.

6 And ſo Dauid made the ordinances among the chyldren of Leui, namely to Gerſon, Caath, and Merari.

7 Of the Gerſonites was Laadan, and Semei.

8 The ſonnes of Laadan, the cheefe was Iehiel, Zetham, and Ioel, three.

9 The ſonnes of Semei: Selomith, Haziel, and Haran, three. Theſe were the auncient fathers of Laadan.

10 And the ſonnes of Semei, were, Iahath, Zina, Ieus, and Beria: theſe foure were the ſonnes of Semei.

11 And Iahath was the cheefe, Ziza the ſeconde: but Ieus, and Beria had not many ſonnes, therefore they were in one reckenyng accordyng to their fathers houſehold reckened for one.

12 The ſonnes of Caath: Amram, Izahar, Hebron, and Oziel, foure.

13 The ſonnes of Amram, Aaron, and Moſes: and Aaron was ſeparated to haue the rule of the holye thinges in the place moſt holy, he and his ſonnes for euer, and to burne incenſe before the Lorde, and to miniſter vnto him, and to bleſſe in his name for euer.

14 The chyldren of Moſes the man of God, were named in the tribe of (a) Leui.

15 The ſonnes of Moſes: Gerſom, and Eliezer.

16 Of the ſonnes of Gerſom, Sebuel was the cheefe.

17 The ſonnes of Eliezer, Rehabia the cheefe: and Eliezer had none other ſonnes, but the ſonnes of Rehabia were very many.

18 The ſonnes of Izahar, Selomith y cheefe.

19 The ſonnes of Hebron, Iaria the fyrſt, Amaria the ſeconde, Iahaziel the thirde, and Iecmaan the fourth.

20 The ſonnes of Oziel: Micha the fyrſt, and Iſſia the ſeconde.

21 The ſonnes of Merari: Mahli, & Muſi. The ſonnes of Mahli: Eleazar and Cis.

22 And Eleazar dyed, and had no ſonnes, but daughters: and their brethren the ſonnes of Cis tooke them.

23 The ſonnes of Muſi: Mahli, Eder, and Ieremoth, three.

24 Theſe are the chyldren of Leui after the houſeholde of their fathers, euen the auncient of the fathers accordyng to their offices, and after the number and ſumme of the names of them that dyd the woorke in the ſeruice of the houſe of the Lorde, from the age of twentie yeeres and aboue.

25 And Dauid ſayde, The Lorde God of Iſrael hath geuen reſt vnto his people, that they may dwel in Hieruſalem for euer.

26 That the Leuites alſo ſhoulde nowe no more beare the tabernacle, and all the veſſels for the ſeruice thereof.

27 For accordyng to the laſt woordes of Dauid, the Leuites were numbred from twentie yeeres and aboue.

28 And their office was vnder the hande of the ſonnes of Aaron, for the ſeruice of the houſe of the Lord, in the courtes and celles, and in the purifyng of all holy thinges, 32 And that they shulde wayte on the tabernacle of the congregation, and on the holy place, and on the sonnes of Aaron their brethren, in the seruice of the house of the Lorde.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

Dauid assigneth offices vnto the sonnes of Aaron.

1 THese are the * diuisions of the sonnes of Aaron. The sonnes of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 Nadab also and Abihu dyed before their father, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar exercised the priestes office.

3 And Dauid ordred them on this manner, Zadoc, of the sonnes of Eleazar, and Ahimelec, of the sonnes of Ithamar (were) accordyng to their offices in their ministration.

4 And there were moe auncient men found among the sonnes of Eleazar, then the sonnes of Ithamar: and thus were they ordered togeather. Among the sonnes of Eleazar there were sixteene rulers, accordyng to the householde of their fathers, and eyght among the sonnes of Ithamar, according to the houshold of their fathers.

5 And thus were they put in order by lot the one sort from the other, for so were there rulers in the sanctuarie, and lordes, before God, aswel of the sonnes of Eleazar, as of the sonnes of Ithamar.

6 And Semeia the sonne of Nathanael the scribe, of the kinrede of the Leuites, wrote them before the kyng and the Lordes, and before Zadoc the priest, and Ahimelec the sonne of Abiathar, and before the auncient fathers of the priestes and Leuites, one principal householde beyng reserued for Eleazar, and one for Ithamar.

7 And the fyrst lot fell to Iehoiarib: and the seconde to Iodaia, 17 The twentie and one to Iachin, and the twentie and two to Gamul, 18 The twentie and three to Delaia, and the twentie and foure to Maasia.

19 These are the ordinances of them in their offices, when they came into the house of the Lorde, accordyng to their manner vnder Aaron their father, as the Lorde God of Israel had commaunded him.

20 The rest of the sonnes of Leui, are these: of the sonnes of Amram, Subael: of the sonnes of Subael, Iehedia.

21 Of the sonnes of Rehabia, the fyrst Isia.

23 His sonnes, Ieria the fyrst, Amaria the seconde, Iahaziel the thirde, and Iekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sonnes of Vziel, Micha: of the sonnes of Micha, Samir.

25 The brother of Micha was Iissia: of the sonnes also of Issia, Zecharia.

2 And the sonnes of Meselemia were these:
Zacharia the eldest, Iedihel the seconde, Zebadia the thirde, and Iathniel the fourth, 3 Elam the fyfth, Iehohanan the sixth, and Elioenai the seuenth.
4 The sonnes of Obed Edom, Semeia the thirde, Sacar the fourth, and Nathanael the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seuenth,
Peulthai the eyght: for God blessed hym.
6 And vnto Semaia his sonne were sonnes borne, that ruled in the house of their father: for they were men of might.
7 The sonnes of Semeia, Othni, Reph-ael, Obed, and Elzabad, and his brethren B were strong men, Elihu, and Samachia.
8 All these were the children of Obed Edom: they and their children, and their bre-uice, euen three score & two of Obed Edom.

9 And Peleiemia had ſonnes and bꝛethꝛen, active men, eighteene.
10 The ſonnes of Hoſa of the chyldꝛen of Merari, Simri the chiefe, and though he was not the eldeſt, yet his father ſet him in the chiefeſt place:
11 Helkia the ſeconde, Tebalia the thirde, and Zecharia the fourth: al the ſonnes and bꝛethꝛen of Hoſa were thirtiene.
12 Among theſe was diuided the office of the poſterſhip, that they ſhoulde be ancient men, to wayte with theyr bꝛethꝛen, when they miniſtred in the houſe of the Lorde.
13 And they caſt lottes betweene the great and ſmall, after the houſholde of their fathers for euery gate.
¶ 14 And the lot on the eaſt ſide fell vpon Seiemia: and for Zacharia his ſonne (whiche was a wyſe counſaylour) they caſt lottes, and his lot came out towarde the noꝛth.
15 And Obed Edoms lot fell to the ſouth: and for his ſonnes fell the houſes of (a) Aſuppim, 18 In (b) Parbar towarde the weſt two at the goeing vp, and two in Parbar.

19 Theſe are the diuiſions of the poꝛters among the ſonnes of Coꝛeh, and among the ſonnes of Merari.
20 And of the Leuites, Ahiah had the ouerſight of the treaſures of the houſe of God, and of the treaſures of the dedicate thynges.

25 And of his bꝛethꝛen the ſonnes of Eliezer was Rahabia, whoſe ſonne was Ieſaia, whoſe ſonne was Ioram, whoſe ſonne was Zichri, whoſe ſonne was Selomith.
26 Whiche Selomith and his bꝛethꝛen were ouer all the treaſures of the dedicate thinges, whiche Dauid the kyng, and the ancient fathers, the captaines ouer thouſandes and hundꝛedes, and the captaynes of the hoſt, had dedicated, 27 Out of the ſpoyles wonne in battayles they dyd dedicate to maynteyne the houſe of the Lorde.
28 And al that Samuel the Seer, and Saul the ſonne of Cis, and Abner the ſonne of Ner, and Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia had dedicated: and whoſoeuer had dedicated any thing, it was vnder the hande of Selomith and of his bꝛethꝛen.
29 Of the Iſaharites was Chenania and his ſonnes appoynted to the buſyneſſe (c) without ouer Iſrael: for they were officers and iudges.

32 And his bꝛethꝛen were men of actiuitie, euen two thouſande and ſeuen hundꝛed ancient fathers: whom kyng Dauid made rulers ouer the Rubenites, Gadites, and ouer the halfe tribe of Manaſſe, for euery matter partayning to God, and for the kynges buſyneſſe.

2. Sam. 7. a. 2 And king Dauid stood vp vpon his feete, and sayde, Heare me, my brethren and my people, I had in myne harte to buylde an house of rest for the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and for the (a) footestoole of our God, and had made redy for the buylding.

(a) So he called the arke, because on it god shewed him selfe present by miracles.

3 But God sayde vnto me, Thou shalt not buylde an house for my name, because thou hast ben a man of warre, & hast shed blood.

1. Sa. 16. a. 4 Moreouer, the Lord God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be king ouer Israel for euer: for in Juda woulde he choose a captayne, and of the householde of Juda is the house of my father, and among the sonnes of my father he had a lust to me, to make me kyng ouer all Israel.

5 And of all my sonnes (for the Lorde hath geuen me many sonnes) he hath chosen Solomon my sonne, to syt vpon the seate of the kingdome of the Lorde in Israel.

1. Chr. 17. a. 6 And he sayde vnto me, Solomon thy sonne he shall buylde me an house & courtes: I haue chosen him to be my sonne, and I wyl be his father.

10 Take heede nowe, for the Lorde hath choosen thee to buylde hym an house of a sanctuarie: be strong therefore and playe the man.

The. xxix. Chapter.

yet young and tender, and the worke is great: for the house shal not be for man, but for the Lorde God.

2 Moreouer, I haue prepared with al my myght, for the house of my God, gouldе, for vessels of golde, siluer, for brasse, for thynges of brasse, iron, for thinges of iron, and wood, for thynges of wood, and Onyx stones, and stones to be set, * glysteryng stones, and of diuers colours, and al manner of precious stones, and Marble stones, in great abundance.

* Some rede, Carbuncle stones.

3 And because I haue lust to the house of my God, I haue of myne owne proper good, of golde and siluer which I haue geuen to the house of my God, beside al that I haue prepared for the holy house,

(a) He was not only lyberal him self toward the buylding of Gods house, but also prouoked others.

6 And so the ancient fathers, and the Lords of the tribes of Israel, the captaynes of thousandes, and hundredes, with the Lords that were rulers ouer the kynges worke, were wyllyng:

(b) That is, may offer to the buylding of the house of the Lord.

7 And gaue for the seruice of the house of God, fiue thousande talentes of golde, and ten thousande peeces (of golde) and tenne thousande talentes of syluer, and eighteene thousande talentes of brasse, and one hundred thousande talentes of yron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were founde, gaue them to the treasure of the house of the Lorde, by the hande of Iehiel the Gersonite.

9 And the people reioyced when they were so wyllyng to geue their goodes, and with a perfect hart they offered willyngly to the Lorde, and Dauid the kyng reioyced with great gladnesse.

10 And Dauid blessed the Lorde before al the congregation, and sayd, Blessed be thou Lorde God of Israel, our father, from euer, and for euer.

11 Thyne, O Lorde, is greatnesse, and power, glory, victorie, and prayse: for al that is in heauen and in earth, is thyne, & thyne is the kyngdome, O Lorde, and thou excellest aboue al, euen as the head of al.

12 And richesse and honour comme of thee, and thou raignest ouer al, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thine hande it is to make great, and to geue strength vnto al.

13 And nowe our God, we thanke thee, and prayse thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we houlde be able to geue these thinges so willingly? but al thynges comme of thee, and of that which we receyued at thine hande, we haue geuen thee.

15 For we be but strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were al our fathers: our dayes on the earth also are but as a shadowe, and there is none abydyng. Gene. 47. b. Wisd. 2. b.

16 O Lorde our God, al this stuffe that we haue prepared to buylde thee an house for thy holy name, commeth of thyne hande, and is al thyne.

17 I wote also, my God, that thou tryest the hartes, and hast pleasure in vnfaignednesse: and in the vnfaignednesse of myne harte, I haue wyllyngly offred al these things: and nowe haue I seene thy people whiche are founde here to offer vnto thee wyllyngly, and with gladnesse.

18 O Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and of Israel our fathers, (c) keepe this for euer in the desire of the thoughtes of the hart of thy people, and prepare their hartes vnto thee.

(c) Continue them in this good minde, that they may serue thee willingly.

19 And geue vnto Solomon my sonne a perfect hart, to keepe thy commaundements, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do al, and buylde the house for the which I haue made prouision.

20 And Dauid sayde to al the congregation, Nowe blesse the Lord your God. And al the congregation blessed the Lorde God of their fathers, and bowed downe their heades, and worshipped the Lord, and the kyng.

21 And they offered offeringes vnto the Lorde, and on the morowe after the sayde day, they offered whole burnt offeringes vnto the Lorde, euen a thousande young oxen, a thousande rammes, and a thousande sheepe, with their drinke offeringes, many sacrifices offered they for al Israel, D

22 And dyd eate and drynke before the Lorde the same day with great gladnesse: and they made Solomon the sonne of Dauid kyng the second tyme, and annoynted hym prynce before the Lorde, and Sadoc to be the high priest.

28 And he died in a good age, ful of dayes, richesse & honour: and Solomon his sonne raigned in his steade.

The ende of the first booke of the Chronicles, or Paralipomenon.

The seconde booke of the Chronicles, whiche in the Hebrue is one with the first.

The first Chapter.

6. The offeryng of Solomon at Gibeon. 8. He prayeth vnto God to geue hym wisedome. 11. whiche he geueth hym, and more. 14. The number of his charettes and horses, 15. and of his rychesse.

1 AND Solomon the sonne of Dauid was stronge in his kyngdome, and the Lorde his God was with hym, & magnified hym in dignitie.

2 And Solomon spake vnto all Israel, to the captaynes ouer thousandes, to the captaynes ouer hundredes, to the Iudges, and to euery officer in al Israel, and to the ancient fathers.

3 And so Solomon, and al the congregation with him, went to the hygh place that was at Gibeon: for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the seruant of the Lorde made in the wyldernesse.

4 But the arke of God had Dauid brought from Kiriath iarim, into the place whiche Dauid had made therefore: for he had pitched a tent for it at Hierusalem.

5 Moreouer, the brasen aulter that Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation went to visite it.

6 And Solomon went vp there before the Lorde, to the brasen aulter that was before the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousande whole burnt offerynges vpon it.

7 And the same nyght dyd God appeare vnto Solomon, and sayde vnto hym, Aske what I shal geue thee.

8 And Solomon sayde vnto God, Thou hast shewed great mercye vnto Dauid my father, and hast made me to raigne in his steade.

9 Nowe therefore, O Lord God, let thy promise, whiche thou madest vnto Dauid my father, be true: for thou hast made me kyng ouer a people whiche is like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Geue me now wisdome and knowledge, that I may be able to (a) goe in and out before this people: for who els can iudge this people that is so great?

(a) That I may gouerne this people.

11 And God sayde to Solomon, Because this was in thine harte, and because thou hast not asked treasure and richesse, nor honour, nor the (b) lyues of thine enimies, neyther yet long lyfe, but hast asked wisedome and knowledge for thee selfe, to iudge my people, ouer whom I haue made thee kyng:

(b) That is, to be reuenged on thine enimies.

12 Wisedome and knowledge is graunted vnto thee, and I wil geue thee treasure, and richesse, and glorye: so that among the kinges that haue ben before thee, or after thee, none was, or shalbe like thee.

13 And so Solomon came from the hyghe place that was at Gibeon, to Hierusalem, from the tabernacle of the congregation, and raigned ouer Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered charettes, and horsemen: and he had a thousande and foure hundred charettes, and twelue thousande horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the king at Hierusalem.

15 And the king made syluer and golde at Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar trees made he as plenteous as the Mulberie trees that grow in the valleyes.

16 Also

16 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kynges marchantes receiued the fine linnen for a price.
17 They came also, & brought out of Egypt a charret for syxe hundred peeces of syluer, euen an horse for an hundred and fyftie: and so brought they (horses) for all the kynges of the Hethites, & for the kynges of Syria by their owne handes.

The. ii. Chapter.

1 AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the Lorde, and an house for his kyngdome.
2 And Solomon tolde out three score and ten thousande men to beare burdens, and fourescore thousande men to hewe stones in the mountaine, and (a) three thousand and syxe hundred to ouersee them.
3 And Solomon sent to Hiram the kyng of Tyre, saying, As thou diddest deale with Dauid my father, and diddest sende him Cedar wood to build him an house to dwel in (euen so deale with me:)
4 Beholde, I builde an house for the name of the Lord my God, to offer vnto him holy thynges, and to burne sweete incense, and to set hewe bread before him continually, to offer whole burnt sacrifices of the morning and euening, on the Sabboth dayes, in the fyxt day of euery newe moone, and in the solemne feastes of the Lord our God: for it is an ordinance to be continually kept of Israel.
5 And the house which I build shalbe great: for great is our God, aboue al goddes.
6 But who is able to build him an house? when that heauen, and heauen aboue all heauens is not able to receyue him, what am I then, that should build him an house? nay, but euen to burne sacrifice before him (shalehis buylding be.)
7 Sende me nowe therefore a cunnyng man that can worke in gold, and siluer, in brasse, and iron, in purple, crymso, (b) yelow silke, and that can skil to graue with the cunning men that are with me in Iuda & Hierusalem, whom Dauid my father dyd prepare.
8 Sende me also Cedar trees, Pine trees, and (c) Algume trees out of Libanon: for I wote that thy seruantes can skyl to hewe tymber in Libanon: and beholde, my men shalbe with thyne, 9 That they may prepare me tymber penough: for the house which I am determined to builde, shalbe wonderful great.
10 And beholde, for the vse of thy seruantes the cutters and hewers of tymber, I haue geuen twentie thousande measures of beaten wheate, & twentie thousande measures of barley, and twentie thousande battes of wine, and twentie thousand battes of oyle.
11 And Hiram the king of Tyre answeared in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the Lorde hath loued his people, therfore hath he made thee kyng ouer them.
12 And Hiram sayde moreouer, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, whiche made heauen and earth, and that hath geuen Dauid the kyng a wyse sonne, and one that hath discretion, prudence, and vnderstandyng, to build an house for the Lord, and a palace for his kyngdome.
13 And nowe I haue sent a wyse man, and a man of vnderstandyng, whom my father Hiram did vse:
14 The sonne of a woman of the (d) daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can skyl to worke in gold, and syluer, in brasse, & iron, in stone, & timber, in purple, and yelowe silke, and fine white, & crymson, and can graue sundry maner of grauynges, and to fynde out diuers maners of subtile worke that shalbe set before him, with thy cunnyng men, and with the cunnyng men of my lorde Dauid thy father.
15 Nowe therefore, the wheate, and barly, oyle, and wyne, which my lord hath spoken of, let him sende vnto his seruantes:
16 And we wyll cut wood in Libanon, as muche as thou shalt nede, and wyl bryng it to thee in flotes by sea to Japho, from whence thou mayest carrie them to Hierusalem.
17 And Solomon numbred al the strangers that were in the lande of Israel, after the number of them whom his father Dauid had numbred: and they were founde an hundred, fyftie, and three thousande, and syxe hundred.
18 And he set three score and ten thousande to beare burdens, and foure score thousande to hewe stones in the mountayne, and three thousande and syxe hundred officers to set the people a worke.

The. iii. Chapter.

The temple of the Lorde, and the porche are builded, with other thynges thereto belongyng.

1 AND Solomon began to build the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem in mount (a) Moria, where the Lord appeared vnto Dauid his father, euen in the place that Dauid prepared in the threshyng floore of "Ornan the Iebusite.

2 And he began to buylde in the second day of the seconde moneth, the fourth yere of his raigne.

3 And these are the paternes wherebу Solomon was instruct to buylde the house of God: The length was thyrtie cubites, after the olde measure, & the breadth twentie cubites.

4 And the porch that was before the length in the front, accordyng to the breadth of the house, was twentie cubites, and the heygth was an hundred and twentie cubites: and he overlayde it on the inner syde with pure golde.

5 And the greater house he seeled with fyrre tree, whiche he overlayde with the best golde, and graued thereto paulme trees, and chaynes.

6 And he overlayde the house with precious stone beautifully: and the golde was golde of Paruaim.

7 The house (I say,) the beames, postes, walles, and doores thereof, overlayde he with golde, and graued Cherubims on the walles.

8 And he made the house moste holy: whose length was twentie cubites, lyke to the breadth of the house, and the breadth thereof was also twentie cubites: and he overlayde it with good golde, euen with syre hundred talentes.

9 And the weight of the nailes of gold was fyftie sicles: and he overlayde the vpper chambers with golde.

Exod. 25. b.

10 And in the house moste holy, he made two Cherubims of image worke, lyke children, and overlayde them with golde.

1. King. 6. c.

11 And the winges of the Cherubims were twentie cubites long: the one wyng was fyue cubites, reachyng to the wall of the house: and the other wyng was lykewyse fyue cubites, reachyng to the wyng of the other Cherub.

12 And euen so the one wyng of the other Cherub was fyue cubites, reachyng to the wal of the house: and the other wyng was fyue cubites also, and reached to the wing of the other Cherub.

13 So that the wynges of the sayde Cherubims were stretched out twentie cubites: and they stoode on their feete, and looked inwardes.

14 And he made a forehanging of * yelowe sylke, purple, crymson, and fyne white, and caused the pictures of Cherubims to be broidered thereon.

* Or, violet colour.

15 And he made before the house two pyllers of thirtie and fyue cubites hygh, and the head that was above on the top of euery one of them, was fyue cubites.

16 And he made chaynes of wreathe worke for the quyer, and put them on the heades of the pyllers, and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chaynes.

17 And he reared vp the pyllers before the temple, one on the right hande, & the other on the left: and called the ryght Jachin, and the left Boaz.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1. The aulter of brasse. 2. The lauatorie. 6. The caldrons. 7. The candlesticks, &c.

2 And he caste a brasen lauatorie of ten cubites from brym to brym, rounde in compasse, and fyue cubites high, & a line of thyrtie cubites dyd compasse it rounde about. 1. King. 7. a.

3 And vnder it, was the fashion of Oxen, whiche dyd compasse it round about: with ten cubites dyd they compasse the lauatorie rounde about, & there were two rowes of Oxen, which were cast like molten worke.

4 And it stood also vpon twelue Oxen: three looked towarde the North, three towarde the West, three toward the South, & three towarde the East, & the lauatorie was set vpon them: and al their backes were towarde the lauatorie.

5 And the thicknesse of it, was an handbreadth, and the brym lyke the brym of a cup, with flowres of Lillies, and it receiued and helde three thousande baths.

6 And he made ten lauers, and put fyue on the ryght hande, and fyue on the left, to washe and cleanse in them such thynges as they offered for a whole burnt offeryng: but the great lauatorie was for the priestes to washe in. 1. King. 7.

7 And he made ten candlesticks of golde, accordyng to the paterne that was geuen of them, and put them in the temple, fyue on the ryght hande, and fyue on the left.

8 And he made also ten tables, and put them in the temple, fyue on the ryght side, and fiue on the left: and he made an hundred basons of golde.

9 And he made the court of the priestes, and the great court, and doores to it, and overlayde the doores of them with brasse.

10 And he set the great lauatorie on the ryght side of the East ende, ouer against the South.

11 And Hiram made pottes, shouelles, and basons, and finished the worke that he was appoynted to make for kyng Solomon in the house of God.

C 14 And he made two bottomes, and lauers made he vpon the bottomes.

15 The great lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it.

16 Pottes also, shouels, and fleshehookes: and all theis vessels did (a) Hiram his father make to kyng Solomon for the house of the Lorde, of bryght brasse.

17 In the playne of Iordane dyd the kyng caste them, euen in the claye grounde that is betweene Succoth and Sarethatha.

18 And Solomon made all these vesselles in great abundance: for the wayght of brasse coulde not be reckened.

19 And Solomon made all the vesselles that were for the house of God, the golden aulter also, and the tables to set the (b) shewe bread vpon.

20 Moreouer, the candlesticks, with their lampes to burne, after the manner, before the quyer, and that of precious golde.

The. v. Chapter.

The thynges dedicated by Dauid, are put in the temple.

¶ 1 AND so all the woorke that Solomon made in the house of the Lorde was finished: and Solomon brought in all the thinges that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the syluer and golde, and all the iewels, and put them among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon gathered the elders of Israel together, and all the heades of the tribes and ancient fathers of the children of Israel, vnto Hierusalem, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lorde out of the citie of Dauid, whiche is (in) Sion.

3 Wherefore, all the men of Israel resorted vnto the kyng, in the feast, euen in the (a) seuenth moneth.

4 And all the elders of Israel came, and the Leuites tooke vp the arke.

5 And the priestes and the Leuites brought away the arke of the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, and they bare them.

6 And kyng Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto hym before the arke, offered sheepe and oxen, so many, that they coulde not be tolde, nor nombred, for multitude.

7 And the priestes brought the arke of the couenant of the Lorde vnto his place, euen into the quyer of the temple, within the place most holy, and set it vnder the wynges of the Cherubims, B

8 So that the Cherubims stretched out their wynges ouer the place of the arke, & the Cherubims couered both the arke and her barres aboue on hygh.

9 And the barres of the arke were so long, that the "heades of the barres were seene without the arke, within the quyer, but not without: and there (the arke) remayned vnto this day. "or, endes.

10 But there was nothing in the arke, saue the two tables whiche Moses put therein at Horeb, when the Lorde made a couenant with the chyldren of Israel, after they were come out of Egypt. 1. king. 8. f.

11 And when the priestes were come out of the holy place (for al the priestes that were present, were sanctified, and dyd not then wayte by course:

12 That both the Leuites and the singers, vnder Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, were appointed to sundry offices, with their children and brethren, and were arayed in fyne white, hauing Cymbales, Psalteries, and Harpes, and stoode at the east ende of the aulter, and by them an hundred and twentie priestes blowing with trumpetes:

13 And the trumpet blowers, and the singers so agreed, that it seemed but one voyce in praysing & thankyng the Lorde, and when they lyft vp their voyce with the trumpets, cymbales, and other instrumentes of musicke, and when they praysed the Lorde, how that he is good, and that his mercy lasteth euer: the house of God was filled with a cloude,

14 So that the priestes coulde not endure to minister by the reason of the cloude: for the maiestie of the Lorde had filled the house of God. C

3 And the kyng turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, (and al the congregation of Israel stoode.)

9 Notwithstandyng, thou shalt not buylde the house, but thy sonne, whiche shal come out of thy loynes, he shal buylde an house for my name.

10 The Lorde therfore hath made good his sayeng that he hath spoken: and I am risen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, & am set on the seate of Israel, as the Lorde promised, and haue buylt an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel.

19 Let it be thy pleasure therefore to turne to the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lorde my God, to hearken vnto the voyce and prayer whiche thy seruant prayeth before thee.

20 And let thyne eyes be open toward this house day and nyght, ouer this place wher- of thou hast sayde that thou wouldest put thy name there, to hearken vnto the prayer whiche thy seruant prayeth in this place.

21 Hearken vnto the prayers of thy seruant, D

23 Then heare thou from heauen, and doo and iudge thy seruantes, that thou reward the vngodly, and recompence hym his way vppon his head, and iustifie the righteous, and geue hym according to his righteous- nesse.

24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enimie, because they haue sinned agaynst thee: yet if they turne and geue thankes vnto thy name, and make in- tercession, & pray before thee in this house.

27 Then

27 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the sinne of thy seruantes, and of thy people Israel, and guyde thou them into the good way to walke in, & sende rayne vpon thy lande whiche thou hast geuen vnto thy people for an inheritance.

28 And if there be dearth in the land, or pestilence, corruption, or blastyng of corne, grashoppers, or caterpyllers, or that their enimies besiege them in the * cities of their lande, or what so euer plague or sickneſſe it be:

31 That they may feare thee, and walke in thy wayes as long as they lyue in the lande whiche thou gauest vnto our fathers.

32 Moreouer, the stranger whiche is not of thy people Israel, yf he come from a far lande for thy great names sake, and thy myghtie hand, and thy stretched out arme: yf they come, I say, and pray in (c) this house, 33 Thou shalt heare from heauē, euen from thy dwellyng place, & shalt doo accordyng to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth maye knowe thy name, and feare thee, as doeth thy people Israel, and that they may knowe howe that in this house whiche I haue buylt, thy name is called vpon.

34 If thy people go out to warre against their enimies by the way that thou shalt sende them, and they pray to thee in the way towarde this citie whiche thou hast chosen, euen towarde the house whiche I haue buylt for thy name:

35 Then heare thou from heauen their supplication and prayer, and helpe them in their ryght.

36 If they sinne against thee (as there is no man but he doeth sinne) and thou be angrie with them, and delyuer them ouer before their enimies, and they take them, and carrie them away captiues vnto a land far or neare:

37 Yet if they repent in their hart, in the land where they be in captiuitie, and turne and pray vnto thee in the land of their captiuitie, saying, We haue sinned, we haue done euyl and wickedly:

38 And turne agayne to thee with all their hart, and al their soule, in the land of their captiuitie where they keepe them in bondage, and so pray towarde their land whiche thou gauest vnto their fathers, euen toward the citie whiche thou hast chosen, & towarde the house whiche I haue buylt for thy name:

39 Then heare thou from heauen, euen from thy dwellyng place, their supplication and their prayer, and iudge their cause, and be mercifull vnto thy people whiche haue sinned against thee.

40 Nowe my God, let thyne eyes be open, and thyne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Nowe vp, O Lorde God, into thy (d) restyng place, thou, and the arke of thy strength: O Lorde God, let thy priestes be clothed with health, and let thy saintes reioyce in goodnesse. (d) Psal. 132.8. That is, into thy temple.

The. vii. Chapter.

1. The fyre consumeth the sacrifice. 2. The glorie of the Lorde fylleth the temple.

1 AND when Solomon had made an ende of prayng, there came downe fire from heauen, and consumed the whole burnt offerynge, and the sacrifices, and the house was fylled with the glorie of the Lorde. A 1. King. 8 f. Leuit. 9. d. 1. King. 8. g. 2. Mac. 2. b

2 And the priestes couldē not goe into the house of the Lorde, because the glorie of the Lorde had fylled the Lordes house.

3 And when all the chyldren of Israel sawe howe the fire and the glorie of the Lorde came downe vpon the house, they fel downe flat vpon their faces to the earth, vpon the pauement, and worshypped, and confessed vnto the Lorde, That he is gratious, and that his mercie lasteth euer.

4 And the kyng, and al the people, offered sacrifices before the Lorde. 1. King. 8. g.

5 And kyng Solomon offered a sacrifice of twentie and two thousande Oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousand Shepe: and so the kyng, and al the people, dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priestes wayted on their offices, and the Leuites had the instrumentes of musicke of the Lorde, whiche kyng Dauid had made to confesse vnto the Lorde, That his mercie lasteth euer, Dauid prayeng God by them, and the priestes blewe with trumpettes before them, and all they of Israel stoode.

7 Moze-

7 Moreouer, Solomon halowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lorde: for there he offered whole burnt offerynges, and the fat of the peace offerynges, because the brasen aulter whiche Solomon had made, was not able to receyue the whole burnt offerynges, and the meate offerynges, and the fat.

1. Mat. 3. g. (a) That was the feast of tabernacles.

8 So at the same tyme Solomon kept a (a) feast of seuen dayes, and all Israel with him, an exceeding great congregation, euen from the entryng in of Hamath, vnto the ryuer of Egypte.

9 And in the eyght day, they made an assemblie: For they kept the dedication of the aulter seuen dayes, & the feast seuen dayes.

10 And the three and twentieth day of the seuenth moneth, he let the people depart into their tentes glad and merie in hart, for the goodnesse that the Lorde had shewed to Dauid, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

1. King. 9. a. 11 And so Solomon finished the house of the Lorde, and the kynges house: and all that came in his hart to make in the house of the Lorde, and in his owne house, went prosperously forwarde.

Num. 12. a. 12 And the Lorde appeared to Solomon by nyght, and sayde to him, I haue heard thy petition, and haue chosen this place for me selfe, to be an house of sacrifice.

2. Par. 6. a. 13 If I shut vp heauen, that there be no rayne, or yf I commaunde the locustes to deuoure the lande, or yf I sende pestilence among my people:

14 And if my people among whom my name is called vpon, doo humble themselues, & make intercession, & seeke my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes: then wyll I heare from heauen, and be mercyfull to their sinne, and wyl (b) heale their lande.

(b) I wyll cause the pestilence to cease, and destroy the beastes that hurte the fruite of the earth, and send rayne in due time.

15 And from henceforth myne eyes shalbe open, and mine eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 And therefore, nowe I haue chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for euer: and mine eyes and mine hart shalbe there perpetually.

17 And yf thou wylt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to doo all that I haue commaunded thee, & shalt obserue my statutes and my lawes:

18 Then wyll I stablishe the seate of thy kyngdome, according as I made the couenant with Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not be without a man to be ruler in Israel.

2. Sam. 7. a. 2. Chro. 6. c.

19 But yf ye turne away, and forsake my statutes and my commaundementes which I haue set before you, and goe, & serue other goddes, and worshyp them:

21 And this house whiche is made hye, shalbe an astonishment to euery one that passeth by, and shal say, Why hath the Lorde done on this fashion with this lande, and with this house?

2 He buylte the cities that Hiram gaue him, and caused the chyldren of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zoba, (b) and stronghed it.

4 And he built Thadmor in the wildernes, and repayred all the store cities which he had in Hamath.

5 And he buylte Bethoron the vpper, and Bethoron the nether, strong cities, hauing walles, gates, and barres:

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, & all the charret cities, and the cities of the horsemen, & euery pleasure that Solomon had lust to buylde in Hierusalem, and Libanon, and throughout all the lande of his dominion.

7 And all the people that were left of the Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 8 But were the chyldren of them which were left after them in the lande, and were not consumed of the chyldren of Israel, them dyd Solomon make pay tribute, vnto this day.

9 But of the chyldren of Israel, dyd Solomon make no seruantes for his worke: but they were men of warre, and rulers, and great lordes with hym, and captaines ouer his charrettes and horsemen.

10 And these Solomons officers that were ouer the people, were two hundred and fyftie.

1. King. 9. b. c.

11 And Solomon brought the daughter of Pharao

Pharao out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had builded for her: for he sayde, My wife shall not dwell in the house of Dauid kyng of Israel, for it is holy, because the arke of the Lord is come vnto it.

12 Then Solomon offered vp burnt offerings vnto the Lorde, vpon the altar of the Lorde, which he had built before the porche:

13 Doyng euery thing in his due time, and offering according to the commaundement of Moyses, on the sabbaothes, newe moones, & solemne feastes, three times in the yeere, euen in the feast of sweete bread, in the feast of the tabernacles, and in the feast of weekes.

14 And Solomon set the offices of the priestes to their offices, as Dauid his father had ordeined them, and the Leuites in their wardes, to praise and minister before the priestes day by day, & the porters by course at euery gate: for so had Dauid the man of God appointed.

15 They swarued not from the commaundement of the kyng vnto the priestes and Leuites, concerning any maner of thing, and concerning the treasures.

16 For Solomon made prouision for the charges from the first day that the foundation of the house of the Lord was layed, vntil it was finished, that the house of the Lorde was perfect.

17 Then went kyng Solomon to Ezion Gaber, and to Eloth at the sea syde in the lande of Edom.

18 And Hiram sent him by the handes of his seruantes shyppes, and seruantes that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruantes of Solomon to Ophir, and tooke from thence foure hundred and fyftie talentes of golde, and brought it to kyng Solomon.

The ix. Chapter.

1 The queene of Saba commeth to see Solomon, and beholdeth gyftes.

1 AND when the queene of Saba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to proue him with darke questions at Hierusalem, with a very great company, with camels that bare spices, & plentie of golde and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that she had in her hart.

2 And Solomon sayed her all her questions, and there was not one worde hid from Solomon which he tolde her not.

3 And when the queene of Saba had seene the wysedome of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meate of his table, the sitting of his seruantes, and the standyng of his waiters, their apparell, his doctors, they apparell, his goyng vp by the whiche he went into the house of the Lord, there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she sayd to the king, The saying which I heard in mine owne lande of thine acts, and of thy wysedome, is true.

6 I beleeued not the wordes of them, vntyl I came, and mine eyes had seene it: and beholde, the one halfe of the wysedome was not tolde me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy seruants which stand before thee alway, and heare thy wysedome.

8 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath had pleasure in thee, to set thee (kyng) on his seate, that thou mayest be kyng (to) the Lorde thy God: because thy God loued Israel, to make thee continue euer, therefore made he thee kyng ouer them, to do right and equitie.

9 And she gaue the kyng an hundred and twentie talentes of golde, and of spices exceedyng great abundance, and precious stones: nayther was there any more such spice as the queene of Saba gaue kyng Solomon.

10 And the seruantes of Hiram, and the seruantes of Solomon, which brought golde from Ophir, brought also Algume wood and precious stones.

11 And the kyng made of the Algume wood stayres in the house of the Lorde, and in the kynges palace, and harpes, and psalteries for singers: and there was none such wood seene (before) in the lande of Iuda.

12 And kyng Solomon gaue to the queene of Saba euery pleasent thyng that she asked, (a) besides that which she had brought vnto the king: and so she turned, and went away to her owne land with her seruantes.

13 The weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was sixe hundred threescore and sixe talentes of golde, 14 Besides that which chapmen and marchantes brought: and all the kynges of Arabia, and rulers of that country, brought golde and siluer to Solomon.

15 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: and sixe hundred sicles of beaten golde were spent vpon one target.

16 And three hundred shieldes made he of beaten golde: and three hundred (peeces) of golde went to one shielde: and the kyng put them in the house that was in the forest of Libanon.

17 And the kyng made a great seate of Iuorie, and ouerlayde it with pure golde.

18 And there were sixe steppes to the seate, with a footestoole of golde fastened to the seate: and pummels on eche side of the sittyng place, and two lions standyng by the pummels.

19 And twelue lions stoode on the one side and on the other vpon the sixe steppes: so that there was no suche worke made in any kyngdome.

20 And all the drynkyng vessels of kyng Solomon were of golde, and all the vessels of the house that was in the forrest of Libanon were of pureous golde: for siluer was counted nothyng worthy in the dayes of Solomon.

D 21 For the kinges shyppes went to Tharsis with the seruantes of Hiram, euery three yeeres once came the shyppes to Tharsis, and brought golde, siluer, Iuory, and Apes, and Peecockes.

1.Kin.10.D. 22 And kyng Solomon passed all the kynges of the earth in riches and wisedome.

23 And all the kinges of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to heare his wysedome that God had put in his hart.

24 And they brought euery man his present, vesselles of siluer, and vessels of golde, rayment, harnesse, spices, horses and Mules yeere by yeere.

1.King.4.D. 25 And Solomon had "foure thousande stables for horses and charrets, and twelue thousande horsemen: whom he bestowed in the charret cities, and (some were) with the kyng at Hierusalem.

"or, foure thousande horses in stalles.

26 And he raigned ouer all the kynges that were from Euphrates vnto the lande of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the kyng made syluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as (b) stones, and Cedar trees as plenteous as the Mulbery trees (that growe) in the valleys.

2.king.10.D (b) The abundance of these temporal treasures in Solomons kyngdome, is a figure of the spirituall treasures whiche the elect shal enioy in heauē vnder the true Solomon Iesus Christ.

28 And they brought vnto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all landes.

29 The rest of the actes of kyng Solomon first and last, are they not written in the sayinges of Nathan the prophete, and in the prophecie of Ahiah the Silonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer of visions against Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat?

1.King.11. verse.41. 30 And Solomon raigned in Hierusalem vpon al Israel fourtie yeeres.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers: and they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid his father, and Roboam his sonne raigned in his steade.

The.x. Chapter.

4. The rigour of Roboam. 13. He folowith lewde counsel. 16. The people rebel.

1 AND Roboam went to Sichem: for to Sichem were all Israel come together to make him king. A 1.Kin.12

2 And when Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat (which was fled into Egypt from the presence of Solomon the kyng) heard it, he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: And so Ieroboam and all they of Israel came, and communed with Roboam, saying, 1.Kin.12

4 Thy father layde a greeuous yoke vpon vs: make thou therfore (now) thou somewhat of the greeuous seruice of thy father, and of his heauie yoke that he put vpon vs, and we wyl serue thee.

5 And he sayde to them, Come agayne vnto me after three dayes. And the people departed.

6 And kyng Roboam counsayled with the elders that had stande before Solomon his father whyle he yet lyued, and he sayde, What counsayle geue ye me to answeare this people agayne? B

7 And they tolde him, saying, If thou be kinde to this people, & shewe thee selfe lowly to them, and speake louyng wordes to them, they wyl be thy seruantes for euer.

8 But he left the counsel which the elders gaue him, and toke counsell with the yong men that were growen vp with him, and (c) that stoode in his presence. (c) Which were of his counsel and secrete.

9 And he sayde vnto them, What aduise geue ye, that we may answeare this people, which haue communed with me, saying, Abate somewhat of the yoke which thy father did put vpon vs?

10 And the yong men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answeare the people that speake vnto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it somewhat lyghter for vs: thus shalt thou say vnto them, My little finger shalbe thycker then my fathers loynes.

11 For where my father put a heauie yoke vpon you, I wil put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whyppes, but I wil chastise you with "scourges. 1.Kin.12 "or, scorpions, 12 And so Ieroboam and all the people came to Roboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come againe to me the third day.

13 And the kyng answeared them cruelly, and king Roboam left the counsayle of the aged men,

14 And answeared them after the aduise of C the the yonge men, sayeing, Thy father made your yoke greuous, and I wyl adde therevnto: my father chastised you with whippes, but I wyl chastise you with scourges.

1.king.12. 15 And so the kyng hearkened not vnto the people: but the occasion came of God, that the Lorde myght make good his sayeing, 1.king.11.f. whiche he spake by the hande of Abia the Silonite to Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat.

16 And when all Israel sawe that the kyng 1.king.12.d. would not agree vnto them, the people answered the kyng, sayeing, What portion haue we in Dauid? For we haue no inheritance in the sonne of Isai: Euery man to his tent oh Israel, and nowe Dauid see to thyne owne house. And so al Israel gate them to their tentes.

17 So that Roboam raigned ouer no more of the children of Israel then dwelt in the cities of Juda.

18 Then king Roboam also sent Hadoram that was ruler ouer the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he dyed: but kyng Roboam made spede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled agaynst the house of Dauid vnto this day.

The.xi.Chapter.

4. Roboam is forbidden to fyght agaynst Ieroboam.

A 1 AND when Roboam was come to Hie- 1.king.12.a rusalem, he gathered of the house of Juda and Beniamin, nine score thousand chosen men of warre, to fyght agaynst Israel, and to bryng the kingdome agayne to Roboam.

2 And the worde of the Lorde came to Semeia the man of God, sayeing,

3 Speake vnto Roboam the sonne of Solomon king of Juda, and to al them of Israel that are in Juda and Beniamin, and say,

4 Thus sayeth the Lorde, ye shal not goe vp, nor fyght agaynst your brethren: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the wordes of the Lorde, and returned from going agaynst Jeroboam.

5 And Roboam dwelt in Hierusalem, and buylt strong cities in Juda.

6 He buylt vp Bethlehem, and Etam, and Thecoa,

7 Bethzur, Socho, and Adullam,

8 Gath, and Maresa, and Zyph,

9 Aduraim, Lachis, and Azecah,

10 Zora, Aialon, and Hebron, whiche is in Juda and Beniamin, strong cities.

11 And he repayred the strong holdes, and put captaynes in them, and store of vitayle, and wyne, and oyle:

12 And in all cities he put sheeldes & speares, and made them exceeding strong, hauyng Juda and Beniamin on his syde.

13 And the Priestes and the Leuites that were in al Israel, resorted to him out of all their coastes.

14 For the Leuites leaft their suburbes, and their possession, and came to Juda and Hierusalem: for Jeroboam and his sonnes had cast them out from ministring vnto the Lorde. C 2.Chr 13.b. 1.king.12.g.

15 And he ordeyned him priestes for the hygh places, for the (a) deuils, and for the calues whych he had made. (a) Meaning idols, reade Esai.34.c.

16 And after the Leuites, there went out all the tribes of Israel, suche as submitted their harte to seeke the Lord God of Israel, and came to Hierusalem, to offer vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.

17 And so they strengthned the kingdome of Juda, and made Roboam the sonne of Solomon mighty three yeeres long: for three (b) yeeres they walked in the way of Dauid and Solomon. (b) So long as they feared god, and set foorth his woorde, they prospered.

18 And Roboam tooke him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the sonne of Dauid to wyfe, and Abihael the daughter of Eliab the sonne of Isai: 1.king.15.a.

19 Whiche bare hym children, Jeus, Samaria, and Zaham.

20 And after her he tooke Maacha daughter of Absalom, whiche bare him Abia, Atthai, Ziza, and Selomith. Reade Iudges chapter 19.a. D

21 And Roboam loued Maacha the daughter of Absalom aboue all his wyues & concubines: for he tooke eyghteene wynes and three score concubines, and begate twentie and eyght sonnes, and three score daughters.

22 And Roboam made Abia, the sonne of Maacha, the cheefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him kyng. (c) Others reade, and he taught him.

23 (c) And he played wyttely, and scattered al his children throughout al the countreys of Juda & Beniamin, vnto euery strong citie: & he gaue them abundance of vitayle, and obteyned many wyues.

The. xii. Chapter.

1. Roboam forsaketh the Lorde, and is punished by Sesac.

A 1 AND when Roboam had stablished the kyngdome, and became mighty, he forsooke the lawe of the Lord, and (a) al Israel with him. (a) As the prince is, so (for the most part) the people wyl be.

2 And in the fyfth yeere of kyng Roboam, Sesac the kyng of Egypt came vp against Hierusalem (because they had transgressed

Dd ii against agaynst the Lorde.)

3 With twelue hundred charrets, and three score thousande horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypte: Lubim, (b) Suhim, and the Ethiopians.

(b) Whiche were a people in Africa called the Troglodites, because they dwelt in holes.

4 And he tooke the strong cities in Iuda, and came to Hierusalem.

5 Then came Semeia the prophete to Roboam, and to the lordes of Iuda that were gathered together within Hierusalem for Sesac, and sayd vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde, Ye haue leaft me, and therfore haue I also (c) leaft you in the handes of Sesac.

(c) God neuer leaueth vs, vntil we haue cast him away.

6 Wherevpon the lordes of Israel and the kyng humbled them selues, and sayd, The Lorde is righteous.

7 And when the Lorde sawe that they submitted them selues, the woorde of the Lorde came to Semeia, sayeing, They submit them selues, therefore I wyl not destroye them, but I wyl deliuer them somewhat, and my wrath shall not be powred out vpon Hierusalem, by the handes of Sesac.

(d) God punisheth his, not to destroy them, but to reformе them 1. king. 10. a

8 Neuerthelesse, they shalbe his seruantes: to knowe what difference is betweene (d) my seruice, & the seruice of the kyngdomes of the worlde.

9 And so Sesac kyng of Egypt came to Hierusalem, and tooke away the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kinges house, he tooke all: and he caryed away the sheldes of golde which Solomon made.

10 In steade of whiche, king Roboam made sheldes of braſſe, and committed them to the handes of the chefe of the garde, and that keapt the entrance of the kynges house.

1. king. 14. c. 11 And when the kyng entred into the house of the Lorde, the garde came and fet them, and brought them agayne into the garde chamber.

12 And when he humbled him selfe, the wrath of the Lorde turned from him, that he would not destroy altogether: and in Iuda all was well.

13 And so king Roboam waxed mighty, and raigned in Hierusalem: and Roboam was one and fourtie yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned seuenteene yeeres in Hierusalem, the citie whiche the Lorde had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there: And his mothers name was Naama an Ammonitesse.

14 And he dyd euyl, because he prepared not his harte to seeke the Lorde.

1. king. 14. f. 15 The acres also of Roboam fyrst and last, are they not written in the sayinges of Semeia the prophete, and of Iddo the Seer, whiche noted the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Roboam and Ieroboam.

16 And Roboam slept with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid, and Abia his sonne raigned in his stede.

The xiii. Chapter.

1. Abia maketh warre agaynst Ieroboam. 4. He sheweth the occasion. 12. He trusteth in the Lorde, and ouercommeth Ieroboam.

1 The eyghteenth yeere of kyng Ieroboam, began Abia to raigne ouer Iuda. 1 2. king. 15. a

2 And he raigned three yeeres in Hierusalem: (his mothers name also was Michaia the daughter (a) of Uriel of Gibea:) And there was warre betweene Abia and Ieroboam.

(a) Called otherwyse Abialon.

3 And Abia set the battayle in araye, with the armie of valiant men of warre, euen fower hundred thousande chosen menne: And Ieroboam set him selfe in arey to fyght agaynst him, with eyght hundred thousande chosen men, whiche were strong, and men of armes.

4 And Abia stoode vp vpon Zemaraim, an hyl which is in mount Ephraim, and sayd, Heare me thou Ieroboam and all Israel.

5 Doo not you knowe howe that the Lorde God of Israel gaue the kyngdome ouer them of Israel to Dauid for euer, euen to thym, and to his sonnes, with a (b) salted couenaunt?

(b) With a sure & perpetual, because that thing which is salted, is preserued from corruption: he meaneth that it was made sure, and confyrmed by offering of sacrifyces, where as they vsed salt, as was ordeyned. Num. 18. verse. 19. (c) In hast and courage.

6 And Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat the seruant of Solomon the sonne of Dauid, is ryssen vp, and hath rebelled agaynst his Lorde.

7 And there geathered to him leude men, the children of Belial, and preuayled agaynst Roboam the sonne of Solomon, when Roboam was (c) young and tender harted, and could not standе before them.

8 And nowe ye saye that ye be able to preuayle agaynst the kyngdome of the Lorde, whiche is in the handes of the sonnes of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, and haue the golden calues whiche Ieroboam made you for goddes.

9 And haue ye not cast out the preestes of the Lordes the sonnes of Aaron and the Leuites, and haue made you preestes after the maner of the nations of other landes? so that who so euer commeth and consecrateth his handes with a young oxe and seuen rammes, the same may be a preest of them that are no goddes.

10 But we belong vnto the Lorde our God, whom whom we haue not forsaken, & the priestes are the sonnes of Aaron which ministre vnto the Lorde, and the Leuites wayte vpon theyr office.

Exo. 29. f. 11 They burne vnto the Lord euery morning and euening whole burnt sacrifices, and swete incense: the shewe bread set they in order vpon a pure table, and prepare the candelsticke of golde, with the lampes of the same, to burne euer at euen: and truely we keepe the watche of the Lorde our God, but ye haue forsaken hym.

Leui. 10. a. 12 And beholde, God him selfe is our captaine, and his priestes blow with the trumpettes, and crye alarme agaynst you. O ye children of Israel, fyght not agaynst the Lorde God of your fathers: for it will not prosper with you.

13 But for all that Ieroboam conueighed men priuily about, to come behinde them: and so they were before Iuda, and the layers in wayte were behinde them.

14 And when they of Iuda looked about, beholde, the battayle was before and behinde, and they cried vnto the Lorde, and the priestes blewe with the trumpettes.

15 And the men of Iuda gaue a shoute: and as the men of Iuda shouted, it came to passe that God smote Ieroboam and al Israel, before Abia and Iuda.

16 And the children of Israel fledde before Iuda, and God deliuered them into theyr handes.

17 And Abia, and his people slue a great slaughter of them, there fell downe wounded of Israel fiue hundred thousand chosen men.

18 And so the children of Israel were brought vnder at that time, and the children of Iuda preuayled, (d) because they leaned vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

(d) The cause wherefore.

19 And Abia folowed after Ieroboam, and toke cities from him, Bethel with the townes belonging therto, Iesana with the townes that belonged therto, and Ephron with her townes.

20 And Ieroboam recouered no strength agayne in the dayes of Abia: and the Lord plagued him, and he dyed.

21 But Abia waxed mightie, and maryed fourteene wyues, and begat twentie and two sonnes, and sixteene daughters.

22 The rest of the actes of Abia, his maners and his sayeinges, are written in the storie of the prophete Iddo.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

3. Asa destroyeth idolatrie, and commaundeth his people to serue the true God.

1 SO Abia slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid, & Asa his sonne raigned in his stede, in whose dayes the land was in quietnesse ten yeres.

2 And Asa did that was good and ryght in the eyes of the Lorde his God.

3 For he tooke away strange aulters, & the hygh places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the grones:

4 And commaunded Iuda to seke the lord God of their fathers, and to do according to the lawe and commaundement.

5 And he put away out of al the cities of Iuda, the high places and the images: and the kyngdome was quiet before hym.

6 And he built strong cities in Iuda, because the lande was in rest, & he had no warre in those yeres: for the lord had geuen him rest.

7 Therfore he sayd vnto Iuda, Let vs build these cities, and make about them walles, towres, gates, and barres, for the lande is yet in rest before vs: because we haue sought the Lorde our God, we haue sought him, and he hath geuen vs rest on euery side. And so they built, and it prospered with them. B

8 And Asa had an armie of men that bare shieldes and speares, out of Iuda three hundred thousande, and out of Beniamin that bare shieldes and drew bowes two hundred and fourescore thousande: al these were valiant men.

9 And there came out agaynst them Zarah of Ethiopia, with an host of tenne hundred thousand, and three hundred charrets, and came as farre as Maresa. 2. Chr. 17. c. Iosue. 15. g.

10 And Asa went out before hym, and they ioyned the battayle in the valley of Sephata, beside Maresa.

11 And Asa cryed vnto the Lord his God, & sayd, Lord, it is no harde thing with thee to helpe with many, or them that haue no power: helpe vs therefore, O Lorde our God, for we trust to thee, and in thy name we goe agaynst this multitude: thou art the Lord our god, and no man shal preuayle agaynst thee. I. Sa. 14. d.

12 So the Lorde smote the Ethiopians before Asa and Iuda, & the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that was with hym, folowed after them vnto Gerar: and the Ethiopians host was ouerthrowen, that there was none of them left, but were destroyed before the Lord, and before his host: and they caried away a mightie great pray.

14 And they smote all the cities rounde about Gerar, for the feare of the Lorde came vpon them: and they spoyled all the cities, and there was exceeding muche spoyle in them. C

25 They toke also the tentes of cattayle, and caryed awaye plentie of shepe and camelles, and returned to Hierusalem.

The. xv. Chapter.

1. An exhortation of Azaria. 8. Asa purgeth his countrey of idolatry. 14. They sweare together to serue the Lorde. 16. He deposeth his mother for her idolatrie.

1 AND the spirite of God came on Azaria the sonne of Obed.

2 And he went out to meete Asa, & sayd vnto hym, Heare me Asa, and all Iuda and Beniamin, the Lorde is with you, while ye be with him, and when ye seeke him, he will be founde of you: and againe, when ye forsake him, he also wyl forsake you.

(a) For the space of .xvi. yeeres vnder Roboam, and three yeeres vnder Abia, true religion was neglected, & idolatry planted.

3 Now for a long (a) season Israel hath ben without the true God, & without priestes to teache, and without lawe,

4 And whē any man in his trouble did turne vnto the Lorde God of Israel, and sought hym, he was founde of them.

5 And in that tyme there was no peace to hym that dyd goe out and in, but great sedition was there among all the inhabiters of the earth.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and citie of citie: for God did moue al aduersitie among them.

B 7 Play ye therfore the men, and let not your handes slacke: for your worke halbe rewarded.

8 And when Asa hearde those wordes, & the prophecie (b) of Azaria the sonne of Obed the prophete, he tooke courage, & put away the abominable idols out of al the lande of Iuda and Beniamin, and out of the cities whiche he wanne in mount Ephraim, and renued the aulter of the Lorde that was before the porche of the Lorde.

(b) He had two names, both Azaria, and Obed.

9 And he gathered all Iuda and Beniamin, and the strangers with them, out of Ephraim, Manasse, and Simeon: for there fell many to him out of Israel, when they sawe that the Lorde his GOD was with hym.

10 So they assembled togeather at Hierusalem the (c) thirde moneth, the fiftienth yeere of the raigne of Asa.

(c) May.

11 And they offered vnto the Lorde the same time, of the spoyle which they had brought, seuen hundred oxen, and seuen thousande sheepe.

12 And they made a couenant to seeke the Lorde GOD of their fathers with al their hart, and al their soule.

(d) Awe of death for idolaters. Deut. 13.

13 And whosoeuer wouldne not seeke the Lorde God of Israel (d) shoulde dye for it, whether he were smal or great, man or woman.

14 And they sware vnto the Lorde with a C loude voyce, showting and blowyng with trumpets and hawtes.

15 And al they in Iuda reioyced at the oth: for they had sworne vnto the Lord with all their hart, and sought him with all their lust, and he was founde of them: and the Lorde gaue them rest rounde about on euery syde.

16 And kyng Asa put (e) Maacha his mother out of auctoritie, because she had made an idoll in a grouē: and Asa brake downe her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Cedron.

(e) His phisicions, and herein he shewed that he lacked zeale: for she ought to haue dyed both by the couenant & law of God.

17 But all the high places were not taken away out of Israel, though the hart of Asa was perfect al his dayes.

18 And he brought into the house of GOD the thynges that his father had dedicate, and that he hym selfe had dedicate: euen syluer, and golde, and vesselles.

19 And there was no more warre vnto the thirtie and fine yeere of the raigne of Asa. Iud. 4. 1.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1. Asa for feare of Baasa kyng of Israel, maketh a couenant with Benhadad kyng of Syria. 7. He is reproued by the prophete.

IN the thirtie & fire yeere of the raigne of Asa, came Baasa kyng of Israel a- A gaynst Iuda, and built Rama, to the intent that he woulde let none passe out or in to Asa kyng of Iuda. 1. King. 15.

2 And Asa fet out gold and syluer out of the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and (out) of the kynges house, and sent to Benhadad kyng of Syria that dwelt at * Damasco, and sayde. * al. Damascus.

3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thine: beholde, I haue sent thee syluer and golde, that thou wilt come and breake thy league with Baasa kyng of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Asa, and sent the captaynes of his armies to the cities of Israel: and they smote Ion, Dan, and Abilmaim, and al the strong cities of Nephthali.

5 And when Baasa heard this, he left buildyng of Rama, and let his worke ceasse.

6 And then Asa the kyng toke al Iuda, and caryed away the stones and tymber of Rama wherewith Baasa was a buyldyng, and he built therewith Geba and Maspah.

7 At that tyme Hanani the Seer came B to Asa kyng of Iuda, and sayde vnto hym,

2. Chr. 24. f

(b) The prophets of god are punished for speaking the truthe, and thus the wicked is made of turning vnto god by repentance, eleuene the admonition of the prophetes and ministers of God.

(c) He shewed that it is in vayne to seke to the phitions, except first we seke to God to purge our liues, which are the onely cause of sore diseases, and put vs the help of the physicions, as preache by whom god worketh.

10 (a) Wherfore thou hast trusted in the king of Syria, and not rather put thy trust in the Lorde thy God, therfore is the hoast of the kyng of Syria escaped out of thyne handes.

8 Had not the Ethiopians and Lubim an exceeding great hoast, with many charets and horsemen? and yet because thou trustedst in the Lorde, he deliuered them into thyne handes.

9 For the eyes of the Lorde beholde all the earth, to strength them that are of perfect harte towarde him: herein thou hast donne foolishly, and therfore from henceforth thou shalt haue warre.

10 And so Asa was wroth with the Sear, and put him into a (b) prison house, for he was displeased with him, because of this thyng: and Asa destroyed (certayne) of the people the same season.

11 And beholde, these deedes of Asa fyrst and last, are written in the bookes of the kinges of Juda and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirtie and nienth yeere of his raigne, fell sicke in his feete, and his disease contynned very long, and in his sickenesse he sought not the Lorde, (c) but Phititions.

13 And Asa sleapt with his fathers, and dyed in the fourtie & one yeere of his raigne.

14 And they buryed him in his owne sepulchre, which he had made for him selfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde him in the bed whiche was fylled with diuers kindes of spices, and sweete odours, made by the craft of the Appothecaries: and they made a very great burnyng.

The.xvii. Chapter.

5. Iosaphat trusting in the Lorde, prospereth in ryches & honour. 6. He aboliseth idolatrie, 7. and causeth the people to be taught.

1 AND Iosaphat his sonne raigned in his stede, and prenayled agaynst Israel.

2 And he put soudiers in al the strong cities of Juda, and set rulers in the lande of Juda, & in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had wonne.

3 And the Lorde was with Iosaphat, because he walked in the former wayes of his father Dauid, and sought not Baalim:

4 But sought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commaundements, and not after the doynges of Israel.

5 And the Lorde stablished the kyngdome in his hande, and al Juda brought him presentes, so that he had abundance of ryches & honour.

6 And he lyft vp his harte vnto the wayes of the Lorde, and he put downe yet more of the hygh places and groues out of Juda.

7 In the thirde yeere of his raigne he sent to his lordes, euen to Bendail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel, & to Michaia, that they shoulde (a) teache in the cities of Juda:

8 And with them he sent Leuites, euen Semeia, Nethania, Zebadia, Asael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonia, Tobia, and Tobadonia, Leuites: and with them Elisama and Joram, priestes.

9 And they taught in Juda, and had the booke of the lawe of God with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Juda, and taught the people.

10 And the feare of the Lorde fel vpon al the kyngdomes of the landes that were round about Juda, and they fought not agaynst Iosaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines brought Iosaphat gyftes, and tribute syluer, and the Arabians brought him catel, euen seuen thousande & seuen hundred Rammes, and seuen thousande and seuen hundred hee goates.

12 And so Iosaphat prospered, and grewe vp an hygh: and he buylt in Juda castels, and cities of store.

13 And he had great * substance in the cities of Juda: but the men of armes and strongest souldiers were in Hierusalem.

14 And these are the * officers of them in the house of their fathers: the captaynes ouer thousandes in Juda, Adna the captayne, and with him of syghtyng men, three hundred thousand.

15 And next to his hande was Iehonam a captayne, and with him two hundred and fourescore thousande.

16 And next him was Amazia the sonne of Zichri, whiche of his owne good will offered him selfe vnto the Lorde, and with him two hundred thousande myghty men of warre.

17 And of the chyldren of Beniamin, Eliada a man of myght, and with him armed men with bowe and shielde, two hundred thousande.

18 And next him was Iosabad, and with him an hundred and fourescore thousande that were prepared for the warre.

19 These wayted on the king, besides those whiche the king put in the strong cities throughout al Juda.

The.xviii. Chapter.

1. Iosaphat maketh affinitie with Achab, 10. Foure hundred prophetes counsel Achab to goe to warre. 14. Michea is agaynst them. 29. The effect of his prophecie.

(a) Iosaphat sent visitours abrode into the countreys to see religion reformed, and the people truely instructed.

A 1 AND Iosaphat had abundaunce of ry-1.king.22.a ches and honour, and ioyned affinitie with Achab.
2 And after certayne yeares he went downe to Achab to Samaria: and Achab slue many sheepe and oxen for him, and for the people that he had with him, and entrea-ted him to goe vp with him vnto Ramoth
(in) Gilead.
3 And Achab king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat kyng of Iuda, Wylt thou goe with me to Ramoth (in) Gilead? And he answered him, I wilbe as thou, & my people shalbe as thyne (and we wyl goe) with thee to the warre.
1.king.22.a 4 And Iosaphat sayde vnto the kyng of Israel, Seeke counsel, I pray thee, at the woorde of the Lorde this same day.
5 Therefore the kyng of Israel gathered togeather of prophetes foure hundred men, and sayde vnto them, Shall we goe to Ramoth (in) Gilead to fyght, or should I cease? And they sayde, Goe vp, and God shal deliuer it into the kinges handes.
6 But Iosaphat sayde, Is there yet here neuer a Prophete more of the Lordes, that we might aske of him?
B 7 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosa-1.king.22.b phat, There is yet one man, by whom we may aske the Lorde: but I hate hym, for he neuer prophecieth me good, but alway euil:
and the same is Micha the sonne of Iemla.
And Iosaphat said, Let not the king say so.
8 And the kyng of Israel called one of his chamberlaynes, and sayde, Fetche hyther quickly Micha the sonne of Iemla.
9 And the kyng of Israel and Iosaphat kyng of Iuda sate eyther of them on his seate in their apparel, in a threshing floore beside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophecied before them.
10 And one Zedekia the sonne of Chananna
1.king.22.b had made him hornes of iron, and sayde, Thus sayth the Lorde, With these thou shalt pushe Syria, vntyl they be brought to nought.
11 And all the prophetes prophecied euen so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead, and it shal prosper with thee: for the Lorde shal deliuer it into the hande of the king.
12 And the messenger that went to call Mi-1.king.22.b cha, spake to him, saying, Beholde, the woordes of the prophetes (speake) good to the kyng with one assent: let thy woordes therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, that thou speake that which is pleasant.
13 And Micha sayde, as the Lorde liueth, euen what my god saith, that wil I speake.
C 14 And when he was come to the king, the kyng sayde vnto him, Micha, shoulde we goe to Ramoth (in) Gilead to fyght, or leaue off? And he sayde, Goe vp, & al shalbe well, & they shalbe deliuered into your hand 15 And the king sayd to him, How many tymes doo I charge thee that thou saye nothing but the truth to me, in the name of the Lorde.
16 Then he sayde, I dyd see all Israel scattered in the mountaynes, as sheepe that haue no shepheard: and the Lord sayd, (b)
These haue no maister: let them returne every man therefore to his house in peace.
17 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosa-phat, Dyd I not tell thee, that he would not prophecie good vnto me, but euyl?
18 But he sayd agayne, Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde: I sawe the Lorde sit vpon his seate, and all the company of heauen stood on his right hande & on his left.
19 And the Lorde sayde, Who shal deceyue Achab kyng of Israel, that he may goe vp and be ouerthrowen at Ramoth (in) Gilead? And one sayde this, another sayde that.
20 And there came out a spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and sayde, I wyll deceiue him. And the lorde said vnto him, Wherein?
21 And he sayde, I wyl goe out, and be a (c) lying spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. And the Lorde sayde, Thou shalt de-ceyue him, and shalt preuayle: goe out, and doo euen so.
22 And nowe therefore beholde, the Lorde hath put a lying spirite in y mouthes of (d) these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath spoken euyl against thee.
23 And Zedekia the sonne of Chananna went to, and smote Micha vpon the cheeke, and sayde, By what way went the (d) spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake with thee?
24 And Micha sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see the day when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber for to hyde thee selfe.
25 And the kyng of Israel sayde, Take ye Micha, and bryng hym to Amon the go-uernour of the citie, and to Ioas the kings sonne.
26 And ye shall saye, Thus sayth the kyng, Put this felowe in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, & water of trouble, vntyl I come again in peace.
27 And Micha sayde, If thou come agayne in peace, then hath not the Lorde spoken by me. And he sayde, Hearken to ye people euery one of you.
28 And so the king of Israel and Iosaphat the kyng of Iuda went vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead.
29 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, I wyll change me when I goe to battel: but see that thou haue thyne owne

30 But the king of Syria had commanded the captaynes of the charets that were with him, saying, Fyght ye not against small or great, save against the king of Israel onely.

31 And when the captaynes of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they sayd, It is the king of Israel: and therefore they compassed about him to fight. But Iosaphat cryed out, and the Lorde helped him, and God (a) turned them away from him.

32 And when the captaynes of the charets perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned backe againe from him.

33 And a (certayne) man drewe a bowe (b) at aduenture, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ioynts of his habergion: And he sayd to his charetman, Turne thine hande, that thou mayest carrye me out of the host, for I am wounded.

34 And the battaile encreased that day: howbeit, the king of Israel caused his charet (c) to stande stylle against the Syrians, vntyl even: and about the time of the sunne going downe, he dyed.

(a) He dissembled his hurt, that his soldiers might fight the more courageously

The xix. Chapter.

1. After Iosaphat was rebuked by the prophet, he calleth agayne the people to the honouring of the Lorde.

1 AND Iosaphat the king of Iuda came home agayne in peace to Hierusalem.

2 And Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Seer, went out to meete him, and sayde to kyng Iosaphat, Wouldest thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therefore is wrath come downe vpon thee from before the Lorde:

3 Neuertheles, there are some good actes founde in thee, in that thou hast hewen downe the groues out of the lande, and hast prepared thine hart to seeke God.

4 And Iosaphat dwelt at Hierusalem, and rode, (a) and went out to the people from Beer-sabe to mount Ephraim, and brought them againe vnto the Lord God of their fathers.

5 And he set Iudges in the land, throughout all the strong cities of Iuda, citie by citie,

6 And sayde to the Iudges, Take heede what ye doo: for ye execute not the iudgements of man, but of God, which is (b) with you in the iudgement.

7 Wherefore now let the feare of the Lorde be vpon you, and take heede, and be doyng (the thyng that pleaseth him) for there is no vnrighteousnesse with the Lorde our God, that he should haue any respect of persons, or take rewardes.

8 Moreouer, in Hierusalem dyd Iosaphat set of the Leuites, and of the priestes, and of the auncient fathers ouer Israel, in the iudgment and cause of the Lorde, and they returned againe to Hierusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye doo in the feare of the Lorde faythfully, and with a pure hart:

10 What cause so euer commeth vnto you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commaundement, betweene statutes and ordinances: ye shal warne them that they trespasse not against the Lorde, and so wrath come vpon you and your brethren: Thus doo, and ye shall not offende.

11 And behold, Amarias the hye priest is among you in all matters of the Lord, & Zebadias the sonne of Ismael, ruler of the house of Iuda, for all the kynges matters: There be officers of the Leuites also before you, take courage to you therefore, and be doing (manfully,) and the Lorde shalbe with suche as be good.

(a) He visited all his countrey, & brought his people from idolatrie, to the knowledge of the true God.

(b) Forasmuche you, yf you do iustly, it is to your profite: but yf you do contrary,

The xx. Chapter.

1. Iosaphat and the people prayes vnto the Lorde. 21. The marueylous victorie that the Lorde gaue him against his enimies. 38. His reigne and actes.

1 AFter this alsb, the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other of the Ammonites, came against Iosaphat to battayle.

2 And there came some that told Iosaphat, saying, There commeth a great multitude against thee from the other syde of the sea, and out of Syria, and behold they be in Hasason Thamar, which is in Engadi.

3 And Iosaphat feared, and set himselfe to seeke the Lorde, and proclaymed fasting throughout all Iuda.

4 And Iuda gathered themselues together, to aske counsayle of the Lorde: and they came out of all the cities of Iuda, to aske (a) counsayle of the Lorde.

5 And Iosaphat stoode betweene the congregation of Iuda and Hierusalem, in the house of the Lorde, before the newe court,

6 And sayde, O Lorde God of our fathers, art not thou God in heauen, and rulest not thou on all the kyngdomes of the heathen, and in thine hande is power & myght, and there is no man that is able to withstande thee?

(b) Declaring his faith and obedience to the woord of the Lorde. 18 And Iosaphat (b) bowed his face to the …earth, and all Iuda, and the inhabiters of …Hierusalem fell before the Lorde, worshyp-

19 And the Leuites of the chyldren of the …Cathites, and of the chyldren of the Corahites,
…stoode vp to prayse the Lorde God of …Israel, with a loude voyce, on hyghe.
20 And when they arose early in the mor-

…stode and sayde, Heare me, O Iuda, and …ye inhabiters of Hierusalem: Put your

21 And when he had counsulted with the people, and set some to syng vnto the Lorde, and to prayse him in the beautie of holynesse, as they went before the armie, & to say, Prayse the Lorde, for his mercy endureth euer.
22 And when they began to sho wte, and to prayse the Lord, the Lorde layed ambush-

…Moab, and mount Seir, which were come

23 For the chyldren of Ammon and Moab,

24 And when Iuda came towarde Mispah

25 And when Iosaphat and his people came

28 And they came to Hierusalem with psal-

…was thirtie & fiue yeres old when he began

…was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi.
32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and to seek not therefrom, doyng that which was right in the eyghe of the Lorde.

33 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hartes vnto the GOD of their fathers.

1 Kyng. 22. mark. 43.

34 The rest of the actes of Iolaphat fyrst and last, beholde, they are wrytten among the sayinges of Iehu the sonne of Hanani, which noteth them in the booke of the kings of Israel.

35 After this, dyd Iolaphat kyng of Iuda, ioyne hym selfe with Ahazia kyng of Israel, whose mynde was to doo wickedly:

36 He ioyned hym selfe with hym, to make shyppes to goe to Tharsis: and they made the shyppes in Ezion Gaber.

37 And Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Maresa, prophecied against Iolaphat, saying, Because thou hast (d) ioyned thy selfe with Ahazia, the Lorde hath broken thy workes. And the shyppes were broken, that they were not able to goe to Tharsis.

(d) GOD would not haue his to ioyne in seruice with idolaters & wicked men.

The xxi. Chapter.

1. Iolaphat dyeth. 3. Ioram succeedeth hym. 4. Whiche killeth his brethren. 16. He is oppressed of the Philistines. 18. His miserable ende.

1 IOlaphat also slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: and Iozam his sonne raigned in his steade.

1 Kyng. 2. 5.

2 And he had brethren which were ye sonnes of Iolaphat, Azaria, Iehiel, Zacharia, Azaria, Michael, and Sephatias: all these are the sonnes of Iolaphat kyng of Iuda.

3 And their father gaue them many great gyftes of golde and syluer, and other precious substance, with strong cities in Iuda: but the kyngdome gaue he to Iozam, for he was the eldest.

4 And Iozam rose vp against the kingdome of his father, and preuayled, and slue all his brethren with the swoorde, and diuers of the lordes of Israel.

5 Iozam was thirty and two yeres old whe he began to raigne, and he raigned eyght yeres in Hierusalem.

6 And he walked in the waye of the kynges of Israel, lyke as dyd the house of Achab, for he had ye daughter of Achab to (a) wife: and he wrought euyl in the eyes of the Lorde.

7 Howbeit, the Lorde woulde not destroy the house of Dauid, because of the couenant that he had made with Dauid, as he promised to geue a lyght to hym and to his sonnes for euer.

8 In his dayes the Edomites rebelled, whe they were vnder the dominion of Iuda, & made them selues a kyng.

9 And Iozam went forth with his lordes, and all his charrets were with him: and he rose vp by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in, and the captaines of the charrets.

10 But Edom rebelled styll, so that they would not be vnder the hande of Iuda vnto this day: that same tyme also did Libna rebell from beyng vnder his hande, because he had forsaken the Lorde God of his fathers.

11 Moreouer, he made hygh places in the mountaynes of Iuda, and caused the inhabiters of Hierusalem to (b) commit fornication, and prouoked Iuda (to idolatrie.)

(b) Meanyng idolatry because the idolater breaketh promise with god, as doth the adultresse woman with her husbande.

12 And there came a writyng to him from (c) Elias the prophete, saying, Thus sayth the Lord god of Dauid thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iolaphat thy father, and in the wayes of Asa kyng of Iuda:

(c) Some thinke that this was Eliseus, because he had the double spirite of Elias. C

13 But walkest in the wayes of the kynges of Israel, and hast made Iuda, & the dwellers of Hierusalem, to goe a whoryng lyke to the whoredome of the house of Achab, and hast slaine thy brethre, euen thy fathers house, whiche were better then thou:

14 Beholde, with a great plague wyll the Lorde smyte thy folke, thy children, thy wyues, and all thy goodes:

15 And thou shalt suffer great payne, euen a disease of thy bowelles, vntyll thy guttes fall out by reason of thy sickentesse day by day.

16 And so the Lorde stirred vp against Ioram the spirite of the Philistines, & the Arabians that were beside the Ethiopians.

17 And they came vp into Iuda, & wasted it, and carried away all the substance that was founde in the kynges house, and his sonnes, and his wyues, so that there was neuer a sonne left him, saue Iohahaz, which was the youngest among his sonnes.

* or, Ahazia Cap. 22. a.

18 And after all these thynges, the Lorde smote him in his bowelles with an incurable disease.

19 And in processe of tyme, after the end of two yeres, his guttes fell out in his sickenesse, and so he dyed of very cruel diseases: and they made no burnyng for him like the burning of his fathers.

20 When he began to raigne, he was thirtie and two yeres olde, and raigned in Hierusalem eight yeres, and lyued * wretchedly howbeit, they buried him in the citie of Dauid, but not among the sepulchres of the kynges.

The xxii. Chapter.

10. Athalia putteth to death all the kinges lynage. 11. Ioas escapeth.

A AND the inhabiters of Hierusalem made Ahazia his yonge sonne king in his stede: for the men of warre that came (a) with the host of the Arabians, had slayne all his eldest sonnes: And so Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Iuda, was made kyng.

(a) Meanyng the Philistines.

2 (b) Fourtie and two yeres olde was he when he began to raigne, & he raigned one yere in Hierusalem: His mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of (c) Amri.

(b) whiche is to be vnderstande, that he raigned twētie yeres, his father yet liuing, but after his fathers death he was confirmed kyng, when he was fourtie and two yeeres olde.

(c) She was Achabs daughter, who was the sonne of Amri.

3 And he walked also in the wayes of the house of Achab: for his mother by her counsel entised hym to doo wickedly.

4 Wherefore he dyd that whiche was euyll in the sight of the Lorde, as dyd they that were of the house of Achab: for they were his (d) counsaylers after the death of his father, to his destruction.

(d) Euyll counsailours make an euil kyng.

5 And he walked after their counsayle, and went with Ioram sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, to fyght agaynst Hazael kyng of Syria at Ramoth (in) Gilead: and the Syrians smote Ioram.

B

6 And he returned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes whiche were geuen hym at Rama, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Iuda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab at Iezrahel, because he was diseased.

2. King. 9. b

7 And it came of God that Ahazia shoulde be destroyed for his comming to Ioram: for when he was come, he went out with Ioram agaynst Iehu the son of Nimsi, whom the Lord had annoynted to destroy the house of Achab.

8 And when Iehu was executyng iustice vpon the house of Achab, and founde the lordes of Iuda, and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahazia that waited on Ahazia, he slue them.

2. King. 9. f.

9 And he sought Ahazia: and they caught him (where he was hyd in Samaria) and brought hym to Iehu, and when they had slayne him, they buried him: because, sayd they, he is the sonne of Iosaphat, whiche sought the Lorde with al his hart: And the house of Ahazia had no power to keepe styl the kingdome.

(e) To the intent that there should be none to make title to the crowne, and so he might vsurpe the gouernment.

10 But whē Athalia, the mother of Ahazia, sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose, and (e) destroyed all the kynges seede in the kynrede of the house of Iuda.

11 And Iosabeth the daughter of the kyng, toke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale hym from among the kynges sonnes that were slayne, and put him and his nurse in a priuie chamber: & Iosabeth the daughter of kyng Ioram, the wyfe of Iehoiada the priest, (and the sister of Ahazia) hyd him from Athalia, that he was not slayne.

12 And so he was with them hidde in the house of God syxe yeres, and Athalia raigned ouer the lande.

The xxiii. Chapter.

1. Ioas the sonne of Ahazia is made kyng. 14. Athalia is put to death. 17. The temple of Baal is destroyed. 19. Iehoiada appoynteth ministers in the temple.

1 AND in the seuenth yere, Iehoiada, 2. Kin. 11. A being bolde, tooke the captaynes of hundredes, Azariah the sonne of Ioram, and Ismael the sonne of Iehohanan, Azaria the sonne of Obed, Maasia the sonne of Adaia, and Elisaphat the sonne of Zichri, and made bonde with them.

2 And they went about in Iuda, and gathered the Leuites out of al the cities of Iuda, and the ancient fathers of (a) Israel, and they came to Hierusalem.

(a) Meanyng of Iuda and Beniamin. Chap. xv. verse. 4. 2. King. 11. and. 9. 2. Par. 11. and. 7. and. 11.

3 And all the congregation made a bonde with the kyng in the house of God: and he sayde vnto them, Behold, the kynges sonne must raigne, as the Lorde hath sayde of the children of Dauid.

4 This is it therefore that ye shal doo, The thirde part of you shal on the sabboth come to the priestes, leuites, and keepers of the porches, Exo. 7.

5 And another thirde parte shalbe by the kynges house, and another third part shalbe at the gate of the fundation: and al the people shalbe in the courtes of the house of the Lorde.

6 But there shall none come into the house of the Lorde, saue the priestes and leuites that ministre, they shall goe in, for they are holy: but al the people shal kepe the watche of the Lorde.

7 And the Leuites shall compasse the kyng B rounde about, and euery man shal haue his weapon in his hande, and what other man soeuer doeth come into the house (of the Lorde) he shalbe slayne: and be ye with the kyng when he commeth in, and when he goeth out.

8 And the Leuites, and al Iuda, dyd accordyng to al thynges that Iehoiada the priest had commaunded, and toke euery man his men that came in on the sabboth, with them that went out on the sabboth day: neyther did Iehoiada the priest let the companies depart.

9 And

2 And Iehoiada the priest, deliuered to the captaynes of hundreds, speares, shieldes, and bucklers, that had pertayned to kyng Dauid, and were in the house of God.

10 And he set al the people (euery man hauyng his weapon in his hande) from the right side of the temple, to the left side of the temple, along by the aulter & the temple, rounde about the kyng.

11 And they brought out the kynges sonne, and put vpon hym the crowne, and the testimonie, and made him kyng. And Iehoiada and his sonnes annoynted him, and sayde, God saue the kyng.

12 When Athalia hearde the noyse of the people runnyng, and praysing the kyng, she came to the people into the house of the Lorde.

13 And she looked, and beholde, the kyng stoode in his place at the entring in, and the lordes and the trumpettes were by the king, and al the people of the land reioyced, blowing with trumpettes, and the singers were with instrumentes of musicke, such as could syng prayse: but Athalia rent her clothes, and sayde, Treason, treason.

14 And Iehoiada the priest went out to the captaynes of hundreds, that were gouernours of the host, and said vnto them, Haue her forth beside the rankes: and (b) who so followeth her, let him be slayne with the swoorde. For the priest sayde, That they shoulde not slaye her in the house of the Lorde.

15 And they laid hondes on her, & she was come to the entring of the horse gate, beside the kynges house, and there they slewe her.

16 Also Iehoiada made a bonde betweene him, and al the people, and the kyng, that they shoulde be the Lordes people.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal, and destroyed it, and brake his aulters and his images, and slue Mathan the priest of Baal before the aulters.

18 And Iehoiada put the officers of the house of the Lorde, vnder the handes of the priestes and Leuites, as Dauid had diuided them in the house of the Lorde, to offer whole burnt offeringes vnto the Lorde, as it is written in the lawe of Moyses, with reioycyng and syngyng, as it was ordeined by Dauid.

19 And he set porters by the gates of the house of the Lorde, that none which was vncleane in any thing, shoulde enter in.

20 And he toke the captaines of hundreds, and the noble, and the gouernours of the people, and al the people of the land, and ledde the kyng to come downe out of the house of the Lorde, and they came through the hye gate into the kinges house, and set the king vpon the seate of the kingdome.

21 And al the people of the lande reioyced, and the cite was in tranquillitie after that they had slayne Athalia with the swoorde.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Ioas repayreth the house of the Lorde.

25 Ioiada killeth his wife & buryeth.

1 Was seuen yeares old when he began to raigne, and he raigned fourtie yeares in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Zibia of Beer seba.

2 And Ioas did that which was right in the sight of the Lorde, al the dayes of (a) Iehoiada the priest.

3 And Iehoiada gate him two wyues, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

4 And after this, Ioas was mynded to renue the house of the Lorde.

5 And he gat hered together the priestes, and the Leuites, and said to them, Go out vnto the cities of Iuda, and gather of all Israel, money to repayre the house of your God, from yeare to yeare, & see that ye haste the thyng: howbeit the Leuites were slacke.

6 And the kyng called Iehoiada that was the (b) hyeheriest, and to him said, Why requirest thou not of the Leuites to bryng out of Iuda and Hierusalem, the collection of Moyses the seruant of the Lorde, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witnesse?

7 For wicked Athalia & her children brake vp the house of God, and al the thinges that were at leasure for the house of the Lorde, did they bestowe vpon Baalim.

8 And at the kinges commaundement they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the Lorde.

9 And made a proclamation through Iuda and Hierusalem, to bryng to the Lorde the taxation of Moyses the seruant of God, vpon Israel in the wildernesse.

10 And the lordes and al the people reioyced, and brought in, and cast into the chest vntyl it was ful.

11 And at the same time they brought the chest, & as then which were in the kinges businesse, by the hande of the Leuites, and when they sawe that there was much money, the kinges scribe and the officer of the hygh priest, came and emptyed the chest, and toke it, & caryed it to his place again. Thus they dyd day by day, and gathered much money.

12 And the king and Iehoiada gaue it to suche further your labour, and would in the house of the Lord, and hyred Masons and Carpenters to repayre the house of the Lord, & to vp the architects in iron and brasse, to mende the house of the Lord.

13 And so the workemen wrought, and the worke mended through their handes: and they made the house of God as it ought to be, and strengthed it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Iehoiada, wherof were made vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister withal, & chargers, and spoones, vessilles of golde and syluer: and they offered vp burnt offrynges in the house of the Lord euer while Iehoiada liued.

15 But Iehoiada was olde, and dyed full of dayes: 130 yeare old was he when he dyed.

16 And they buryed him in the citie of Dauid among the kynges, because he dealte well with Israel, and with God, and with his house.

17 And after the death of Iehoiada, came the (c) lordes of Iuda, and made obeysance vnto the king: & the king hearkened vnto them.

18 And they left the house of the Lorde God of their fathers, and serued groues & Idoles, and then came the wrath of God vpon Iuda and Hierusalem for this their trespasse.

19 Yet he sent prophetes to them, to bryng them againe vnto the Lord, and they testified vnto them, but they would not heare.

20 Then the spirite of God came vpon Zacharias the sonne of Iehoiada the priest, which stode by the people, and saide vnto them, Thus sayth God, Why trans-gresse ye the commaundementes of the Lord, that ye can not prosper? For because ye haue forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you.

21 Then they conspired against him, (d) and stoned him with stones, at the commaundement of the king, euen in the court of the house of the Lorde.

22 And so Ioas the king remembred not the kyndenesse which Iehoiada his father had done to him, but slue his sonne, and when he dyed, he sayde, The Lorde looke vpon it, and require it.

23 And when the yeare was out, the hoste of Syria came vp against him, and they came against Iuda and Hierusalem, and destroyed all the lordes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoyle of them vnto the king of Damascene.

24 For the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the Lorde deliuered a very great hoste into their handes, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gaue sentence against Ioas.

25 And when they were departed from him, they left him in great diseases: and his owne seruantes conspyred against him, for the bloud of the sonnes of Iehoiada the priest, & slue him on his bed, & he dyed: and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid, but not in the sepulchres of the kynges.

26 And these are they that conspyred against him: Zabad the sonne of Simeath, an Ammonite, and Iehosabad the sonne of Simrith a Moabite.

27 (e) And his sonnes, and the summe of the fare that was layed vp in his time, and the repayring of the house of God, beholde, they are written in the storie of the booke of the kynges: and Amazia his sonne raigned in his stede.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 Amazia putteth them to death which slue his father. 14 He falleth to Idolatrie.

AMazia was twentie and fyue yeares old when he began to raigne, and he raigned twentie and nine yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Iehoaddan, of Hierusalem.

2 And he dyd that which is (a) right in the sight of the Lorde, but not with a perfecte hart.

3 And assone as he was setled in the kyngdome, he slue his seruantes that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slue not their children, because it is written in the (b) Law and booke of Moses, where the Lord commaunded, saying, The fathers shal not dye for the children, neyther shal the children dye for the fathers: but euery man shal dye for his owne sinne.

5 And Amazia gathered Iuda together, and made them captaynes ouer thousandes, and ouer hundredes, throughout all Iuda & Beniamin: and he numbred them from twentie yeares olde, and aboue, and founde among them thirty hundred thousande chosen mennes able to goe to battayle, and that couthe handle speare and shielde.

6 He hyred also an hundred thousande strong fighting men out of Israel, for an hundred talentes of syluer.

7 And there came a man of God to him, & said, O king, let not ye armies of Israel come with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, (c) no nor with all the children of Ephraim.

9 And Amazia sayde to the man of GOD, What shal we doo then for the hundred talentes which I haue geuen to the hoste of Israel? The man of God answered, The Lorde is able to geue thee muche more then they be.

10 And Amazia seperated the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to goe home againe: wherefore they were exceeding wroth with Juda, and returned home in great anger.

11 And Amazia toke hart, and carried out his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousande.

12 And other ten thousande dyd the children of Juda take alyue, and carried them into the toppe of a rocke, and cast them downe from the top of the rocke, that they all to burst.

13 But the souldiers of the (b) armie which Amazia sent away, that they should not goe with his people to battel, fell vpon the cities of Juda, from Samaria, vnto Bethoron, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke muche spoyle.

14 And after that Amazia was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the goddes of the children of Seir, and set them vp to be his goddes, and bowed him selfe before them, and burned incense vnto them.

15 Wherefore the Lorde was wroth with Amazia, and sent vnto him a prophet, which sayde vnto him, Why hast thou sought the goddes of the people, whiche were not able to (c) deliuer their owne people out of thyne hande.

16 And as the prophete talked with him, the kyng sayde vnto him, Haue we made thee of the kynges counsaile? Cease, why wylt thou be beaten? And the prophete ceassed, and sayde, I am sure that God is mynded to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and agreest not vnto my counsel.

17 Then Amazia king of Juda toke aduise, and sent to Joas the sonne of Joahas the sonne of Jehu kyng of Israel, and sayde, Come, that we may set one another.

18 And Joas king of Israel sent to Amazia kyng of Juda, saying, A thystle that is in Libanon, sent to a Cedar tree of Libanon, saying, Geue thy daughter to my sonne to wyfe: and there came a wylde beast of Libanon, and trode downe the thystle.

19 Thou sayest, Loe, thou hast smytten the Edomites, and thyne harte maketh thee proude, to glorifie thee selfe: Nowe therefore byde at home, why doest thou prouoke vnto euyll, that thou mayest perishe, both thou, and Juda with thee?

20 But Amazia would not hearken to him: for it came of God, euen to deliuer them into the handes of their enimies, because they sought counsayle at the goddes of Edom.

21 And so Joas the king of Israel came vp, and they sawe eyther other, both he, and Amazia king of Juda, at Bethshames, whiche is in Juda.

22 And Juda was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to his tent.

23 And Joas the king of Israel, toke Amazia king of Juda, the sonne of Joas the sonne of Joahaz, at Bethshames, and brought him to Hierusalem, and tare the wall of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, vnto the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

24 And he tooke away all the golde and syluer, and all the vessell that were found in the house of God with Obed Edom, and the treasures of the kinges house, the children also that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amazia the sonne of Joas kyng of Juda, lyued after the death of Joas sonne of Joahaz kyng of Israel, fyftene yeres.

26 The rest of the actes of Amazia first and last, are they not written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel? 2. Kin. 14. f.

27 And after the time that Amazia dyd turne away from the Lorde, they conspired treason against him in Hierusalem, and when he was fled to Lachis, they sent to Lachis after him, and slew him there. Luke. 1. d.

28 And brought him vp with horses, and buried him with his fathers in the citie of Juda.

4 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the syght of the Lorde, according to all as dyd his father Amazia.

5 And

2. Kin. 12. b.
(a) This was not that Zacharia which was the son of Iehoiada, but some other prophete of that name.

And he sought God in the dayes of (a) Zacharias, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the Lorde, God made him to prosper.

And he went out and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Iabne, and the wall of Asdod, and built cities about Asdod, and among the Philistines.

And God holpe him against the Philistines, against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur baal, and Mamehims.

And the Ammonites gave gifts vnto Ozias: and his name spred abroade vnto the entring in of Egypte: for he grewe vp mar uelously.

Moreouer Ozias built towres in Hierusalem by the corner gate, and by the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and made them strong.

Also he built towres in the wyldernesse, and digged many wells: for he had much cattell in the valleys and plaines: husbandmen also, and vinedressers in the mountaines, and in Carmel: for he loued husbandrie.

Moreouer Ozias had an hoste of warryng men, that went out to warre by the numbre, according to the number of their office, vnder the hande of Ieiel the scribe, and Maaseia the ruler, and vnder the hand of Hananias, (one) of the kinges lordes.

And the whole number of the auncient fathers and of the men of warre, were two thousande, and six hundred.

And vnder their hande of them, was the armie of the hoste of warre, euen three hundreth thousande and seuen thousand, that mighty men of power with the power of an armie, helping the kyng against the enemies.

14 And Ozias prouided them throughout all the hoste, shieldes, speares, helmettes, habergeones, bowes, and slynges for to caste stones.

15 And he made subtile engines in Hierusalem, which he inuented, and layde on the towres and corners, to shoote arrowes and great stones withal: and his name spred farre abroade, because he was preserued so marueilously strong.

(b) Prosperitie puffeth vp the hart of man, and maketh hym often to forsake God.

16 But in his strength (b) his hart exalted to his destruction: for he trespassed against the Lorde his God, and went into the temple of the Lord, to burne incense vpon the aulter of incense.

17 And Azaria the priest went in after him, and with him foure score priestes of the Lorde, that were valiant men.

18 And they stoode against Ozias the king, and sayde vnto him, It pertayneth not vnto thee Ozias, to burne incense vnto the Lord, but to the priestes the children of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense.

(c) Though his zeale and intencion seemed good, yet because they were not ruled by gods worde, his fact was wicked, and iustly punished. 1. King. 13.

(c) Go out of the sanctuarie, for thou hast trespassed, and it is not worship vnto thee before the Lorde God.

19 Then Ozias was angry, and had incense in his hande to burnt it: and so whyle he was angry against the priestes, the leprosie sprang in his forehead before the priestes in the house of the Lorde, euen before the incense aulter.

20 And Azaria the hyest priest, with all the other priestes, looked vpon him, and beheld, he was become a leper in his forehead, and they thrust him from thence, and he hasted to get out, because the Lorde had smitten him.

21 And Ozias the kyng continued a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt leprous in an house, being a leper, and shut out of the house of the Lorde. And Iotham his sonne was ouer the gouernance of the kinges house, and iudged the people of the lande.

22 The rest of the actes of Ozias first and last, did Esai the prophete, the sonne of Amos, write.

23 And so Ozias slept with his fathers, and they buryed him with his fathers in the feelde of the burial whiche (was) belonging to the kynges: for they sayde, He is a leper. And Iotham his sonne raigned in his stede.

The xxvij. Chapter.

Iotham raigneth, and ouercommeth the Ammonites. 5 His raigne and death. 9 Achas his sonne raigneth in his stede.

1 IOtham was twentie and fiue yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned sixtene yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Ieruse, the daughter of Sadoc.

2 And he dyd that whiche was right in the sight of the Lorde, in all poyntes as dyd his father Ozias, sauing that he came not into the (a) temple of the Lord: and the people dyd yet wickedly.

(a) To vse offeringes against prouision, as Ozias did, is wicked. Chap. 26. vers. 16.

3 He buylt the hyest gate of the temple of the Lorde, and on the wall (where the house of ophmahaz was) he buylt muche.

4 Moreouer, he buylt cities in the mountaynes of Iuda, and in the wood countrey he buylt castles and towres.

5 He fought with the kyng of the children of Ammon, and preuayled against them: and the children of Ammon gaue him the same yere an hundred talentes of siluer, and ten thousande measures of wheate, and ten ten thousande of Barley: so muche dyd the childzen of Ammon geue hym the seconde yeere, and the thirde also.

6 So Iotham became mightie, (b) because he directed his wayes before the Lorde his God.

(b) Al prosperitie commeth of god, who neuer faileth them that put their trust in him.

7 The rest of the actes of Iotham, and all his warres, and his conuersation, loe they are wrytten in the booke of the kynges of Israel and Iuda.

8 He was twentie and fiue yeeres old when he began to raigne, and raigned sixtiene yeeres in Hierusalem.

9 And Iotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid, and Achas his sonne raigned in his steade.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1. Achas an idolater is geuen into the handes of the Syrians and the kyng of Israel. 23. Achas increaseth his idolatrie, 26. His death, and successour.

1 ACHas was twentie yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned sixtiene yeeres in Hierusalem, and he did not that whiche is ryght in the syght of the Lord, as dyd his father Dauid:

2 For he walked in the wayes of the kynges of Israel, and made moulten images for Baalim.

3 He offered incense in the valley of the sonne of Hinnon, & burnt his childzen in fyre, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde cast out before the childzen of Israel.

4 He offered also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on mountaines, and vnder euery greene tree.

5 Wherefore the Lorde his God deliuered hym into the hande of the kyng of the Syrians, which smote him, and caryed away a great multitude of his captiue, & brought them to Damascus: and he was deliuered into the hande of the kyng of Israel, which smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the sonne of Romelia slue in Iuda an hundred and twentie thousande in one day, whiche were al fightyng men: and that because they had forsaken the lord god of their fathers.

7 And Zichri a * mightie man of Ephraim, slue Maasia the kynges sonne, and Azrica the gouernour of the house, & Elcana that was next to the kyng.

8 And the childzen of Israel tooke prisoners of their brethren two hundred thousande women, sonnes, and daughters, and caryed away muche spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria.

9 But there was a prophete of the Lorde, whose name was Obed: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said vnto them, Beholde, because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Iuda, (a) he hath deliuered them into your hand, & ye haue slayne them with cruelnesse that reacheth vp to heauen.

(a) Al victory commeth of God.

10 And nowe ye purpose to keepe vnder the childzen of Iuda and Hierusalem, and to make them bondmen and bondwomen: and do ye not lade your selues with sinne in the sight of the Lorde your God?

11 Nowe heare me therefore, and deliuer the captiues agayne whiche ye haue taken of your brethren: for els shall the great wrath of God be vpon you.

12 Wherefore certayne of the heades of the childzen of Ephraim, as Azaria the sonne of Iohanan, Berechia the sonne of Mesillemoth, and Ezechias the sonne of Sallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stoode vp agaynst them that came from the warre:

13 And sayde vnto them, Bryng not in the captiues hither: for where as we haue offended toward God already, ye entende to adde more to our sinnes and trespasse: for our trespasse is great already, and there is a fierce wrath agaynst Israel.

14 And vpon that, the men of armes left the captiues and the spoyle before the Lordes and al the congregation: C

15 And the men that were nowe rehearsed by name, rose vp, & toke the prysoners, and with the spoyle clothed al that were naked among them, and arayed them, and shoed them, and gaue them to eate and to drinke, and annointed them, & caried all that were feeble of them vpon Asses, and brought them to Iericho the citie of Palme trees, to their brethren: and then they returned to Samaria agayne.

16 At the same time dyd kyng Achas sende vnto the kynges of the Syrians, to haue helpe of them.

17 And the Edomites came agayne, and slue some of Iuda, and caryed away captiues.

18 And the Philistines inuaded the cities in the lowe countrey, and towarde the south of Iuda, and tooke Bethsames, and Aialon, and Gederoth, and Socho, with the townes belonging therto, & Thimna with the townes of the same, Gimso and the townes thereof, and dwelt there. 2. king. 16.

19 For the Lorde brought Iuda lowe, because of Achas kyng of * Iuda, whiche made Iuda naked, and transgressed sore agaynst the Lorde. * or, Israel.

20 And Thiglath Phalasar kyng of the Assyrians came vpon hym, and troubled hym, rather then strengthened hym.

21 For Achas tooke away a portion out of the house of the Lord, and out of the kynges house, and out of the Lordes houses, & gaue vnto the kyng of the Assyrians: and yet it helped hym not.

22 And in the very tyme of his tribulation, dyd kyng Achas trespasse yet more agaynst the Lorde.

(b) As he falsly supposed.

22 For he offered vnto the goddes of Damascus, which (b) smote him, and he sayde, Because the goddes of the kinges of Syria helpe them, therefore will I offer to them, that they may helpe me also: but they were his destruction, and (the destruction) of al Israel.

24 And Achas geathered togeather the vessels of the house of God, and brake them, and shut vp the doores of the house of the Lorde, and made hym aulters in euery corner of Hierusalem.

2. Chro. 29. 2. Chro. 39.

25 And in all the cities of Juda he made hygh places, to burne incense vnto other goddes, and angred the Lorde God of his fathers.

26 The rest of his actes, and his workes first and last, behold they are written in the booke of the kynges of Juda and Israel.

27 And Achas slept with his fathers, and they buried hym in the citie of Hierusalem: but brought hym not vnto the sepulchres of the kynges of Israel, and Hezekia his sonne raigned in his steade.

The.xxix.Chapter.

3. Hezekia repayreth the temple, and admonisheth the Leuites of the corruption of religion.

A 1 HEzekia began to raigne when he was fyue and twentie yeeres olde, and he raigned nine and twentie yeeres in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Abia, the daughter of Zacharia.

2 And he dyd that which was ryght in the sight of the Lorde in al poynctes, as did David his father.

(b) An example for al princes, that first of al thei stablishe the true religion of God.

3 He opened the (a) doores of the house of the Lorde, in the first yeere and (b) first moneth of his raigne, and repayred them.

(c) Meanyng al the idols, aulters, groues, and whatsoeuer was occupyed in their seruice, and wherewith the temple was defyled.

4 And he brought in the priestes and the Leuites, and geathered them togeather into the east streete,

5 And said vnto them, Heare me ye Leuites, and nowe be sanctified, & halowe the house of the Lorde God of your fathers, (c) bryng fylthynesse out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers haue trespassed and done cupl in the eyes of the Lorde our God, and haue forsaken hym, and turned away theyr faces from the * habitation of the Lorde, and turned theyr backes on it.

7 And beside that, they haue shut vp the doores of the porche, and quenched the lampes, and haue neither burnt incense, nor offered whole burnt offerynges in the holy place vnto the God of Israel.

(d) The contempt of religion, is the cause of gods plagues.

8 (d) Wherfore the wrath of the Lord fel on Juda and Hierusalem, and he hath brought them to trouble, to be wondred on, and to be hyssed at, euen as ye see with your eyes.

9 For loe, our fathers were ouerthrowen with the sword, and our sonnes, our daughters, and our wiues were caried away captiue for the same cause.

10 And nowe it is in myne hart to make a couenant with the Lorde God of Israel, that he may turne away his braule indignation from vs.

Num. 11.a.

11 Nowe therefore my sonnes be not negligent: for the Lord hath chosen you to stande before him, & for to minister and serue hym, and to burne incense.

12 Then the Leuites arose, Mahath the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the sonne of Azaria, of the children of the Caathites: and of the sonnes of Merari, Cis the sonne of Abdi, and Azaria the sonne of Jahalelel: and of the sonnes of the Gersonites, Joah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Joah:

13 And of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Simei and Jehiel: and of the sonnes of Alaph, Zacharia and Matthania:

14 And of the sonnes of Heman, Jehiel, and C Semei, and of the sonnes of Idithun, Semeia, and Oziel.

15 And they geathered theyr brethren, and purified them selues, and came accordyng to the commaundement of the king, and the wordes of the Lord, for to cleanse the house of the Lorde.

16 And the priestes went into the inner partes of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought out al the vncleannesse that they founde in the temple of the Lord, into the court of the house of the Lorde: and the Leuites tooke it, to cary it out into the brooke Cedron.

17 They began the first day of the first moneth to purifie, and the eyght day of the moneth came they to the porch of the lord: so they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight dayes, and in the sixtienth day of the first moneth they made an ende.

18 And they went in to Hezekia the kyng, and sayde, We haue cleansed al the house of the Lord, the aulter of whole burnt offring, with al his vessels, and the shewe bread table with al his * apparel:

* or, vessels.

19 And

19 And all the vessels which king Achas dyd cast aside when he raigned & transgressed, them we haue prepared and sanctified, and beholde, they are before the aulter of the Lorde.
20 And Ezekia the king rose early, & gathered the lordes of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lorde.
D 21 And they brought seuen oxen, seuen rammes, seuen sheepe, & seuen hee goates, to be a sinne offering, for the kingdome, for the sanctuarie, and for Iuda: and he commaunded the priestes, the sonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the aulter of the Lorde.
(c) For without sprinckling of blood, nothing could be sanctified. Exod. 9. Exod. 24.
22 And they slue the oxen, and the priestes receyued the blood, and (c) sprinckled it on the aulter: lykewyse when they had slayne the rammes, they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter: they slue also the sheepe, and they sprinckled the blood vppon the aulter.
(f) They that offered a sinne offering, must lay their handes vpon it, Meaning that they them selues had deserued that death: and also that they dyd consecrate it to god, thereby to be sanctified. Exod. 29. Leuit. 10.
23 And then they brought forth the hee goates for the sinne offering, before the king and the congregation, and (f) put theyr handes vpon them.
24 And the priestes slue them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the aulter, to make satisfaction for all Israel: for the king commaunded that the whole burnt offering, and the sinne offering (should be made) for all Israel.
25 And set the Leuites in the house of the Lord, with cymbales, psalteries, & harpes, according to the commaundement of Dadement of the Lorde, though the handes of 27 And Ezekia commaunded to offer the whole burnt offering vpon the aulter: And when the whole burnt offering beganne, the song of the Lorde beganne also, and the trumpets, with the instruments that were ordeyned by the handes of Dauid kyng of Israel.

E 28 And all the congregation woorshipped, singyng a song, and blowyng with the trumpets: and all this (continued) vntyll the whole burnt offering was finished.

30 And Ezekia the king & the lordes spake to the Leuites, to prayse the Lorde with the woordes of Dauide & of Asaph the Seer:
and they sang prayses with gladnesse, and the other bowed them selues, and woor-shipped.
31 And Ezekia answeared and sayde, Now ye haue consecrated your handes vnto the Lorde: goe to therefore, and bryng the sa-crifyces and thanke offeryngs into the house of the Lorde. And the congregation brought in the sacrifyces and thanke offe-ringes, and whole burnt offeringes, as many as were of a free liberal hart.
32 And the number of the whole burnt offe-ringes whiche the congregation brought, was three score and ten oxen, an hundred rammes, and two hundred sheepe: whiche (were) all for the whole burnt offering of the Lorde.
33 And there (were) dedicated fyue hundred oxen, and three thousand sheepe.
34 And the priests were to few to slay all the whole burnt offerings: but their brethren the Leuites dyd helpe them, tyll they had ended the woorke, and vntyll the priestes were sanctifyed: for the Leuites were purer harted to be sanctifyed then the priests.
35 And thereto the whole burnt offeringes were many, with the fat of the peace offe-ringes, and the drinke offerings that belong to the whole burnt offering: and so the service pertaynyng to the house of the Lorde, was finished.
36 And Ezekia reioyced, and all the people, that God had made the folke so ready, and that the thing was so soone donne.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1. The keeping of the Passeouer by the kynges commaundement.

1 AND Ezekia sent to all Israel and Iu-da, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasse, that they shoulde comme to the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, and keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lorde GOD of Israel.
Num. 9. b.
2 And the kyng held a counsayle with his lordes, and all the congregation of Hieru-salem, to keepe the feast of Passeouer in the
(a) seconde moneth:
(a) Though they ought to haue done it in the first moneth, as Exod. 12. yet if any were not cleane or had a long iourney, they myght defer it to the seconde moneth, as Num. 9. verse. 10.
3 For they could not keepe it at that tyme, because the priestes were not sanctifyed sufficiently, neyther was the people gathered together to Hierusalem.
4 And the thyng pleased the kyng and all the congregation.
5 And they decreed that it shoulde be proclaymed throughout all Israel, from Ber-sheba to Dan, that they shoulde come & hold the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lord god of Israel at Hierusalem: for they had not done it of a great (season) as it was (b) written.

6 So the postes went with letters of the kinges and of his lordes, throughout al Israel and Juda, and at the commaundement of the kyng they sayde, Ye chyldren of Israel, turne agayne vnto the Lord God of Abraham, Isahac, and Israel, and he wyl returne to the remnant that are escaped of you out of the hand of the kinges of the Assyrians.

7 And be not ye like your fathers and your brethren, which trespassed agaynst the lord God of their fathers, whiche gaue them vp to be destroyed, as ye see.

8 And nowe be ye not stiffe necked lyke as were your fathers: but yeelde your selues vnto the Lorde, & enter into his holy place, whiche he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lorde your God, & the fiercenesse of his wrath shal turne away from you.

9 For if you turne agayne vnto the Lord, then shal your brethren and your chyldren fynde compassion in the presence of them that tooke them captiue, & they shall come agayne vnto this lande: for the Lorde your God is gracious and mercyfull, and wyll not turne away his face from you, if ye conuert vnto hym.

10 And so the postes went from citie to citie, throughe the land of Ephraim and Manasse, euen vnto Zabulon (but they) laughed them to scorne, and mocked them.

Exod. 34. a.

11 Neuertheles, yet diuers of Aser, Manasse, and of Zabulon, submitted them selues, and came to Hierusalem.

12 And the hande of God was in Juda, and he gaue them one hart to doo the cõmaundement of the king and of the rulers, according to the woorde of the Lorde.

13 And there assembled to Hierusalem much people, and there was present a mighty great congregation, to holde the feast of swete bread in the seconde moneth.

14 And they arose, and remoued the aulters that were in Hierusalem: and all the aulters for incense dyd they away, and cast them into the brooke Cedron.

2. Chro. 28.

15 And they slue the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the second moneth: and the priestes and Leuites whiche were (c) ashamed, sanctified them selues, and brought in the whole burnt offrynges into the house of the Lorde.

16 And they stood in their office after their manner, and according to the lawe of Moses the man of God: & the priestes sprinckled the blood (which they receiued) of the hande of the Leuites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified, and therefore the Leuites had the charge of the killing of the Passeouer for euery one that was not cleane, to sanctifye him vnto the Lorde.

18 For many of the people, and very many of Ephraim, Manasse, Issachar, and Zabulon, were not cleansed, and yet dyd eate the Passeouer, agaynst the lawe appoynted: but Hezekia prayed for them, sayeing, The good Lorde be mercyful to ward euery one 19 That prepareth his hart to seeke the lord God, the God of his fathers, though he be not (cleansed) accordyng to the purifycation of the sanctuarie.

20 And the Lorde hearde Hezekia, and (d) healed the people.

21 And the chyldren of Israel that were present at Hierusalem, held the feast of swete bread seuen dayes with great gladnesse: & the Leuites & the priestes prayed the Lorde day by day, (singing) with loude instrumentes vnto the Lorde.

22 And Hezekia spake comfortably vnto all the Leuites that had good knowledge (to sing) vnto the Lorde: and they dyd eate throughout that feast seuen dayes long, and offered peace offrynges, and thanked the Lorde God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assemblie tooke counsell to doo so other seuen dayes: and they helde thole seuen dayes with gladnesse.

24 For Hezekia king of Juda, dyd geue to the congregation (e) a thousande young oxen, and seuen thousand sheepe: & the lordes gaue out to the congregation a thousande oxen, and ten thousand sheepe, and a great number of the priestes were sanctified.

25 And all the congregation of Juda, with the priestes and Leuites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, & the strangers that came out of the lande of Israel, and that dwelt in Juda, reioyced.

26 And there was great gladnesse in Hierusalem: for since the tyme of Solomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel, there was no such ioy in Hierusalem.

27 And the priestes and the Leuites arose, and blessed the people: and their voyce was heard (of the Lorde) and their prayer came vp vnto heauen his holy dwellyng place.

(b) That is, in such sort and perfection as god had appoynted.

(c) Seeing their owne negligence, and the redynesse of the people.

(d) That is, dyd accept them as purifyed.

(e) Hezekia bestowed his goodes liberally, for the setting forth of gods glory.

2 And Hezekia appointed sundry companies of the priestes and Leuites, after the diuersitie of theyr ministrations, euery man accordyng to his office both priestes and Leuites, for the whole burnt offeryng and peace offerynges, to minister, and to geue thankes and prayse in the gates of the (a) host of the Lorde.

(a) That is, in the temple where they assembled.

3 And the kynges portion of his substance that he gaue, were dayly whole burnt offerings in the morning and euening, & whole burnt offerynges for the Sabboth dayes, newe moones, and solemne feastes, accordyng as it is written in the lawe of the Lorde.

Num. 28. b. 4 And he bade the people that dwelt in Hierusalem, to geue a (b) part to the priestes and Leuites, that they myght with more courage apply them selues to the law of the Lorde.

(b) The tithes & first fruites be the maintenance of the priestes and Leuites.

5 And assoone as the kynges commaundement came abroade, the childzen of Israel brought abundance of fyrste fruites, of corne, wine, oyle, hony, and of al manner of fruites of the feelde, and the tythes of all manner of thinges brought they in plenteously.

6 And the childzen of Israel and Iuda, that dwelt in the cities of Iuda, they also brought in the tythes of oxen and sheepe, and other holy tythes, whiche were consecrate vnto the Lorde theyr God, and layde them al by heapes.

B 7 In the thirde moneth they began to lay the heapes in maner of a fundation, and finished them in the seuenth month.

8 And when Hezekia and the lordes came and saw the heapes, they blessed the Lorde, and his people Israel.

9 And Hezekia questioned with the priestes and the Leuites concerning the heapes.

10 And Azaria the chiefe priest, of the house of Sadoc, answered him, and sayde, Since the people began to bryng the heaue offerings into the house of the Lorde, (c) we also haue had ynough to eate, & yet remaineth plentie: for the Lorde hath blessed his people, and this heape is left.

(c) The ministers were liberally prouided for.

11 And Hezekia bade prepare the chambers in the house of the Lorde: and they did prepare them,

12 And caried in the first fruites, the tithes, and the dedicate thynges faythfully, ouer whiche Chonania the Leuite had the rule, and Semei his brother next to him:

13 And Iehiel, Azazia, Nahath, Asael, Ieremoth, Iosabad, Eliel, Ismachia, Mahath, and Banaia, were ouerseers, ordined be Chonania, and Semei his brother was an officer of Hezekia the kyng, and Azaria was the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Chore the sonne of Imma the Leuite and porter of the east doore, had the ouersyght of the thinges that were offered of a freewil vnto GOD, to distribute the oblations of the Lorde and the holy thynges that were consecrate. C

15 And vnder his hande were Eden, Miniamin, Iesua, Semeia, Amaria, & Sechania, in the cities of the priestes (appointed) of their fidelitie to geue to theyr brethren theyr partes, aswell to the small as to the great:

16 Also to theyr generation, beyng males, from three yeeres olde and vpwarde, euen vnto euery one that entreth into the house of the Lorde, they shall gene day by day for theyr ministration, and for theyr geuyng attendance, and for theyr diuers wayt ynges by course,

17 Both to the generation of the priestes and Leuites, throughout the houshoulde of their fathers, from twentie yeeres & aboue, to wayte when theyr courses came:

18 And to the families of all theyr babes, wiues, sonnes, and daughters, through all the congregation: for vpon the fidelitie of them, were the holy thinges bestowed. D

19 And to the childzen of Aaron the priestes whiche were in the feeldes and suburbes of theyr cities, citie by citie, the men whose names were expressed afore, shoulde gene portions, to all the males among the priestes, and to all the Leuites, accordyng to theyr number.

20 And of this manner did Hezekia throughout al Iuda, and wrought that is good and right and true before the Lorde his God.

21 And in all the workes that he began for the seruice of the house of God, accordyng to the lawe and the commaundementes, he sought his God: and that did he with al his hart, and prospered.

4 For there geathered many of the people togeather, and ſtopt al the welles, and the brooke that ranne through the myddes of the lande, ſaying, Why ſhal the kynges of the Aſſyrians come and fynde muche water?

5 And Hezekia went to ſtiffly, and built vp the wal where it was broken, and made vp the towres, and another wal without, and repayred Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many dartes and ſhieldes.

6 And he ſet captaynes of warre ouer the people, and geathered them togeather to hym in the large ſtreete of the gate of the citie, and ſpake gently to them, ſaying,

16 And yet more thynges dyd his ſeruantes ſpeake againſt the Lorde God, and againſt his ſeruant Hezekia.

18 And they cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes ſpeache vnto the people of Hieruſalem that were on the wall, to feare them, and to make them fayne harted, and that they might take the citie.

19 And they ſpake againſt the God of Hieruſalem, as againſt the goddes of the nations of the earth (whiche were) the workes of the handes of men.

Amos, in the booke of the kinges of Iuda and Israel.
33 And Hezekia sleapt with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the most woorthy place of the sepulchres of the sonnes of Dauid, and all Iuda and the inhabiters of Hieru-salem dyd hym honour at his death: and Manasses his sonne raigned in his steade.

The. xxxiii. Chapter.

kers with spirites, and seers of fortunes, and wrought much euyll in the sight of 7 And he put the carued image, and an idol whiche he had made, in the house of God:

of whiche house God sayde to Dauid and to Solomon his sonne, In this house and in Hierusalem whiche I haue chosen afore all the tribes of Israel, wil I put my name for euer.

9 And so Manasses made Iuda and the in-destroyed before the chyldren of Israel.

10 And the Lorde spake (a) to Manasses, and to his people: but they would not regarde.
(a) Meanyng by his pro-pheres.
11 Wherefore the Lorde brought vpon them the captaynes of the hoast of the king of the Assyrians, whiche tooke Manasses, and bounde him with fetters and chaynes, and caryed him to Babylon.
12 And when he was in tribulation, he be-

14 After this he buylt a wall without the ci-C tie of Dauid, on the weast syde of Gion, in the valley as they come to the fysshe gate, and rounde about Ophel, and brought it vp of a very great heyght, & put captaynes of warre in al the strong cities of Iuda.
15 And he tooke away strange goddes, and aulters that he had buylt in the mount of the house of God and Hierusalem, and cast them out of the citie.

16 And he prepared the aulter of the Lorde, and sacrifyced thereon peace offerynges, and thanke offerynges, and charged Iuda to serue the Lorde God of Israel.
17 Neuertheles, the people dyd offer yll in the hygh places, (howbeit) vnto the lord their God only.
18 The rest of the actes of Manasses, and his prayer vnto his God, & the woordes of the Seers that spake to him in the name of the Lorde God of Israel, beholde they are (written) in the sayenges of the kynges of Israel.
19 And his prayer, and howe that he was heard, and al his sinnes, and his trespasse, and the places where he made high places, and set vp groues and images before he was humbled, beholde, they are written among the sayeinges of the Seers.

20 And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in his (c) owne house, and Amon his sonne raigned in his roome.

(c) Because he had so horribly offended agaynst the Lorde, they did not bury him in the sepulchre of the kinges, but in the garden of the kinges house.

21 Amon was two and twentie yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and raigned two yeeres in Hierusalem.

22 But he dyd euyl in the syght of the Lorde, like as dyd Manasses his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the carued images whiche Manasses his father had made, and serued them, 23 And submitted not him selfe before the Lorde, as Manasses his father had humbled him selfe: but Amon trespassed greatlye.

24 And his owne seruantes conspired against him, and slue him in his owne house.

2. king. 21.

25 But the people of the lande slue all them that had conspired agaynst kyng Amon: and the same people of the lande made Iosias his sonne king in his roome.

The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

I. Iosias destroyeth the idols, 8. and restoreth the temple. 14. The booke of the lawe is founde.

A 1 IOsias was eyght yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned in Hierusalem thirtie and one yeeres.

2. king. 22. a

2 And he dyd that whiche was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neither to the ryght hande nor to the leaft.

3 In the eyght yeere of his raigne, when he was yet a chylde, he beganne to seeke after the God of Dauid his father: and in the twelfth yeere he beganne to purge Iuda and Hierusalem from the hygh places, groues, carued images, & images of metal.

4 And they brake downe the aulters of Baalim euen in his (a) presence: and other images that were in greater honour then they, he caused to be destroyed: and the groues, carued images, and images of metal, he brake, and made dust of them, and strowed it vppon the graues of them that had offered vnto them.

(a) He would see the reformation with his owne eyes. 2. king. 23. a

5 And he burnt the bones of the priestes vpon the aulters of them, and cleansed Iuda and Hierusalem:

(b) The godly zeale of this good prince, is a worthy example for al princes to folowe. 2. king. 22. a

6 And so dyd he in the cities of Manasse, Ephraim, Simeon, vnto Nephthali, and in the wyldernesse of them round about.

7 He plucked a sunder the (b) aulters and the groues, and dyd beate the images, and stampe them to powder, and cut downe al the twols throughout al the lande of Israel, and returned to Hierusalem agayne.

8 In the eyghteenth yeere of his raigne, when he had purged the land and the temple, he sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, and Maasiah the governour of the citie, and Ioah the sonne of Joahaz the recorder, to repayre the house of the Lorde his God.

9 And when they came to Helkiah the high priest, they delinered the money that was brought into the house of God, whiche the Leuites that kept the entreys had gathered of the hand of Manasse and Ephraim, and of al that yet remayned in Israel, and of al Iuda and Beniamin, and they returned to Hierusalem.

10 And they put it in the handes of the workemen that had the ouersyght of the house of the Lorde, & they gaue it to the labourers, that wrought in the house of the Lorde, to repayre and mende the house.

11 Euen to masons & carpenters gaue they it, to geat hewed stone, and timber, for couples, and for beames of the houses whiche the kinges of Iuda had destroyed.

12 And the men dyd the worke (c) vppon trust: and the ouerseers of them to courage them forward, were Iahath and Obadia, Leuites, of the children of Merari: and Zecharia and Mesullam of the children of the Caathites, and other of the Leuites, whiche all conne skyll of instrumentes of musicke.

(c) Faythfully offycers.

13 And ouer the bearers of burdens, & ouer all that wrought in what so euer workemanship it were, were there scribes, officers, and porters of the Leuites.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into ỹ house of the lorde, Helkia the priest founde the booke of the lawe of the Lorde (geuen) by Moses.

15 And Helkia answeared and sayde to Saphan the scribe, I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan.

2. king. 22. b

16 And Saphan (d) caryed the booke to the kyng, and brought the kyng woord againe, saying, All that was committed to thy seruantes, that doo they.

(d) For the king was comaunded to haue continually a copie of his booke, & to reade therein day & night. Deut. 17. c

17 And they haue geathered togeather the money that was founde in the house of the Lorde, & haue delinered it into the handes of the ouerseers of the worke, and to the handes of the workemen.

18 And then Saphan the scribe shewed the kyng, saying, Helkia the priest hath geuen me a booke: And Saphan read in it before the kyng.

19 And when the kyng had heard the worde of of the lawe, he (e) tare his clothes.

(e) For sorow that the word of God had ben so longe suppressed.

20 And the king commaunded Helkia, and Ahikam the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, & Saphan the scribe, and Asaa a seruant of the kynges, sayeing, 21 Goe and enquire of the Lorde for me, and for them that are leaft in Israel and Juda, concerning the woordes of the booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen vppon vs, because our fathers haue not keapt the woorde of the Lorde, to doo after al that is written in this booke.

22 And Helkia, and they that the king had (appointed,) went to Hulda a prophetisse, the wyfe of Sallum the sonne of Thecuah, the sonne of Hasra, keeper of the wardrobe, (for she dwelt in Hierusalem within the seconde wall,) and so they communed with her.

23 She answeared them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Tel ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Euen thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl bring euyl vpon this place, and vppon the inhabiters therof, euen al the curses that are written in the booke whiche they haue read before the king of Juda:

25 Because they haue forsaken me, & haue offered vnto other Gods, to anger me with al manner woorkes of their handes: therefore is my wrath set on fire against this place, and shal not be quenched.

26 And as for the kyng of Juda which sent you to enquire of the Lorde, so shal ye saye vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, concernyng the woordes whiche thou hast heard, (f) The ende of gods threatnynges, is for our repentance.

27 Because thyne hart dyd (f) melt, & thou diddest humble thee selfe before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabiters therof, and humbledst thee selfe before me, and tarendst thy clothes, and diddest weepe before me, I haue heard it also, saith the Lorde.

28 Beholde, I wyl take thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shal not see al the mischeefe that I wyl bring vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters of the same. And they brought the king woorde againe.

29 Then the king sent, and gathered together al the elders of Juda and Hierusalem:

30 And the king went vp into the house of the Lorde, and al the meane of Juda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and the priests and Leuites, and al the people great and smal, and (the kyng) dyd reade in their eares al the woordes of the booke of the couenant that was founde in the house of the Lorde.

31 And the kyng stoode at his standyng, and made a couenant before the Lord, to walow the Lorde, and to keepe his commaundements, his witnesses, and his statutes, with al his hart, and with al his soule, and to fulfil the woordes of the couenant written in the same booke.

32 And he set in their roome al them that were found in Hierusalem and Benjamin: & the inhabiters of Hierusalem did according to the couenant of the Lorde God of their fathers.

(g) Because he had charge ouer al, and must answeare for euery one that perished, he thought it his duety to see that al should make profession to receiue the word of god.

33 And Josias put away al manner of abominations out of al landes that pertayned to the chyldren of Israel, and (g) constrayned al that were founde in Israel, to serue the Lorde their God: and they turned not aside from the Lorde God of their fathers, as long as he lyued.

The .xxxv. Chapter.

1. Iosias keepeth the Passeouer. 2. He setteth foorth Gods seruice. 20. He fighteth agaynst the kyng of Egype, and dyeth. 24. The people bewayle hym.

1 AND Josias helde the (feast of) Passeouer vnto the Lord in Hierusalem, and they (a) slue the Passeouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth.

3. Esdr. 1. 8.
(a) The scripture vseth in sundry places to cal the lambe the passeouer, whiche was but the signe of the passeouer, because in al sacramentes the signes haue the thynges whiche are signified.

2 And he set the priestes in their offices, and ayded them in the seruice of the house of the Lorde,

3 And said vnto the Leuites that taught al Israel, and were sanctified vnto the Lorde, Put the holy arke in the house which Solomon the sonne of Dauid kyng of Israel dyd build, it shalbe no more a burden vpon your shoulders: but nowe serue the Lorde your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare your selues by your ancient houholds and companies, according to the writyng of Dauid king of Israel, and the writing of Solomon his sonne:

5 And stande in the holy place, according to the diuision of the ancient houholdes of your brethren the chyldren of the people, and after the diuision of the ancient houholdes of the Leuites:

6 Kyl the Passeouer, and sanctifie your selues, and prepare your brethren, that they may doo according to the woorde of the Lorde by the hande of Moses.

7 And Josias gaue to the people, sheepe, B lambes, and kydes, all for the Passeouer, and for al that were present, thirtie thousande by tale, and three thousand oxen: and these were of the kinges substance.

8 And

8 And his lordes gaue willyngly both vnto the people, and to the priestes, and vnto the Leuites: Helchias also, Zacharia, and Iehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the priestes for the Passeouer offerynges, two thousande and fyue hundred (sheepe,) and three hundred oxen.

9 (a) Conania, Semeia, & Nathanael, his brethren, and Hasadiah, and Iehiel, and Iozabad, rulers of the Leuites, gaue vnto the Leuites Passeouer offerynges, fyue thousand sheepe, and fyue hundred oxen.

10 And so the seruice was prepared, and the priestes stoode in their places, and the Leuites in their diuerse companies, at the kynges commaundement:

11 And they slue the Passeouer, & the priests sprinkled the (blood) with their handes, and the Leuites pulled of the skinnes of the beastes.

12 And they set away the whole burnt offeringes, to geue them vnto the people that were diuided by ancient houses: and that they shoulde offer vnto the Lorde, like as it is written in the booke of Moses: and so (dyd they) with the oxen also.

Leuit. 1. a. Deut. 12. b.

13 And they dressed the Passeouer with fire, as the maner was: and the other dedicate beastes sodde they in pottes, caldrons, and pannes, and diuided them speedily among al the people.

14 And afterwarde they made readye for them selues, and for the priestes: for the priestes the chyldren of Aaron (were busied) in offering of whole burnt offeringes, and the fat, vntyl nyght: therefore the Leuites prepared for them selues, & for the priestes the sonnes of Aaron.

1. Chr. 25. a and 26. d.

15 And the syngers the chyldren of Asaph stoode in their standyng, accordyng to the commaundement of Dauid, and Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, the kynges (b) Seare: and the porters wayted at euery gate, and myght not depart from their seruice: for their brethren the Leuites prepared for them.

(b) Meanyng the prophet.

16 And so al the seruice of the Lorde was prepared the same day, to offer the Passeouer, and to offer whole burnt offeringes vpon the aulter of the Lorde, accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Iosias.

17 And the chyldren of Israel that were present, kept the Passeouer the same time, and the feast of swete bread, seuen dayes.

18 And there was no Passeouer like to that kept in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel the prophete, neyther dyd al the kynges of Israel holde such a Passeouer as did Iosias, and the priestes, and Leuites, and al Iuda and Israel that were present, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

19 This Passeouer was holden in the eighteenth yeere of the raigne of Iosias.

20 After al this, when Iosias had prepared the temple, Nechao king of Egypt came vp to fight against Charchamis beside Euphrates: and Iosias went out agaynst him.

2. king. 35. d

21 Which sent messengers to him, & saide, What haue I to doo with thee, thou kyng of Iuda? Be not thou against thee selfe this day, for my warre is agaynst another house, & God bade we make haste: leaue of therefore, and medle not with God which is with me, least he destroy thee.

D

22 Neuertheles, Iosias woulde not turne his face from hym, but rather tooke auise to fight with hym, and hearkened not vnto the wordes of Necho, out of the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

* or, I come not to gainst thee this day, but against the house of mine enimy

23 And the shooters shot dartes at king Iosias: and the kyng sayde to his seruantes, Carry me away, for I am sore wounded.

24 His seruantes therefore had hym out of that charet, and put hym in another charet that they had: and when they had brought hym to Hierusalem, he dyed, and was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers: and al Iuda and Hierusalem mourned for Iosias.

25 And Ieremias lamented Iosias, and al singing men, and singing women mourned for Iosias in their lamentations, to this day, and made the same lamentations an ordinance in Israel, and behold, they are written in the lamentations.

Iachim 2. Esd.

26 The rest of the acts of Iosias, and his goodnesse, as it is written in the law of the Lorde, 27 And his sayynges first and last, behold, they are written in the bookes of the kings of Israel and Iuda.

1 AND the people of the land tooke Ioahaz the sonne of Iosias, & made hym kyng in his fathers steade in Hierusalem.

g 2. king. 23.

2 And Ioahaz was twentie and three yeere olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned three monethes in Hierusalem.

3 And the kyng of Egypt put hym downe at Hierusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talentes of syluer, and a talent of golde.

4 And

4 And the kyng of Egypt made Eliakim his brother kyng vpon Iewry and Hierusalem, and turned his name to Ioiacim: and Necho tooke Ioahaz his brother, and caried hym into Egypt.

5 Ioiacim was twentie and fyue yeres old when he began to raigne, and he raigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalem, and he dyd euil in the syght of the Lorde his God.

6 Against hym came vp Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon, and bounde hym with two chaynes, to carrie him to Babylon.

7 Nabuchodonosor carried also of the vessels of the house of the Lorde to Babylon, & put them in his temple at Babylon.

2. Kin. 24. 8

8 The rest of the actes of Ioiacim, and his abominations whiche he dyd, (a) and that whiche was founde vpon him, behold, they are wrytten in the bookes of the kynges of Israel and Iuda, and Ioiacin his sonne raigned in his stede.

(a) He meaneth the markes of idolatrie, which were founde printed in his body whē he was dead.

9 And Ioiacin was eyght yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned three monethes and tenne dayes in Hierusalem, and dyd euil in the syght of the Lorde.

10 And when the yeere was out, kyng Nabuchodonosor sent, and set hym to Babylon, with the goodly vesselles of the house of the Lorde, and made Zedekia his fathers brother kyng, ouer Iuda and Hierusalem.

Ierem. 52. 8
2. Kin. 24. 8.

11 Zedekia was one and twentie yeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalem.

12 And he dyd euil in the syght of the Lord his God, and humbled not hym selfe before Ieremie the Prophete at the mouth of the Lorde.

13 And he rebelled against kyng Nabuchodonosor, which had receyued an oth of him by God: but he was stifnecked, and to hard harted to turne vnto the Lorde GOD of Israel.

14 Moreouer, all the cheefe of the priestes, and the people, transgressed woonderfully after all maner of abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the lord, whiche he had halowed in Hierusalem.

15 And the Lorde God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rysyng vp early, and sendyng: for he had compassion on his people, and on his dwellyng place.

Ierr. 25. 2.

16 But they mocked the messengers of god, and despised his woordes, and misused his Prophetes, vntyl the wrath of the Lorde rose against his people, and tyll there was no remedie.

17 And so he brought vpon them the king of Chaldee, whiche slue their young men with the swoorde in their holy temple, and spared neyther young man, mayden, olde man, nor him that stowped for age: he gaue them all into his hande.

2. Kin. 25. 8

18 And al the vesselles of the house of God, both great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kyng, and of his lordes: al these carried he to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake downe the wall of Hierusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fyre, and destroyed all the goodly iewelles therof.

20 And the rest that had escaped the swoord, carried he to Babylon, where they were bondmen to him and his children, vntyll the tyme that Persia had the Empire:

21 To fulfyl the woord of the Lorde by the mouth of Ieremie, vntyl the lande had her pleasure of her sabbathes: for as long as she lay desolate, she kept sabboth, vntyll three score and ten yeres were fulfilled.

D Ierr. 25. b.

22 And the (b) first yeere of Cyrus kyng of Persia, (when the woorde of the Lorde spoken by the mouth of Ieremie, was fulfilled) the Lord stirred vp the spirite of Cyrus kyng of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kyngdome, and that by writyng, saying:

Xerxes the ſonne of the ſaide Darius ſucceeded him: but is not here placed in the number of the monarchies, for that he left his kingdome to Darius longhand his ſonne, (according to the cuſtome of the Perſians) when he wente to warre againſt the Greekes. The greeke hiſtoriographers not reſpecting that cuſtome, number the ſaide Xerxes, & Cambyſes aboue mētioned, among the ſayde monarchies ſucceſſiuely in order, whiche is the cauſe that they count more yeeres in the ſayde monarchie, that is to ſaye. 226. yeeres.

As touchyng their confuſed names, ye ſhal vnderſtande, that among the Perſians, Darius ſignifieth, he that ſubdueth: Xerxes, a warriour: Artaxerxes, a greate warriour. Alſo, that this name Aſſuerus, is drawen from the Hebrues, in ſteade of Artaxerxes. Further, that Artaxerxes was the common name of all kynges of Perſia, as Pharao was the common name of the kynges of Egypt, and Caeſar, of the Romiſhe Emperours. Therefore where ye ſynde many indifferently named Darius, or, Artaxerxes, or both togeather, that is the cauſe of the difficultie, howe to vnderſtande vnder what kyng that happened, whiche is recyted in the ſayde bookes of Esdras, Nehemias, Esther, Daniel, and other places of the holy Scriptures, except ye wel marke them, and wel vnderſtande the contentes of this table.

The firſt Chapter.

8. and reſtoreth them their holy veſſelles.

1 (a) After that he & Darius had wonne Babylon. 2. Chr. 36. d Jerem. 25. c

IN the (a) firſte yeere of Cyrus kyng of Perſia, (that the woorde of the Lorde ſpoken by the mouth of Jeremie, might be fulfylled,) the Lorde ſtyred vp the ſpirite of Cyrus kyng of Perſia, that he cauſed to be proclaymed throughout al his empyre, and to be written, ſaying, 2 (b) For he was cheefe monarche of the worlde, and had many nations vnder his dominion.

Thus ſayth Cyrus the kyng of Perſia, The Lorde God of heauen hath geuen me (b) al the kingdomes of the earth, and hath commaunded me to buylde hym an houſe at Hieruſalem, whiche is in Juda.

3 Wholoeuer nowe among you is of his people, the Lorde his God be with hym, and let hym go vp to Hierusalem in Juda, and buylde the houſe of the Lorde God of Iſrael, (he is the God) that is at Hierusalem.

4 And wholoeuer remaineth yet in any maner of place, where he is a ſtranger, let the menne of that place helpe him with ſyluer and gold, with good and cattel, beſide that whiche they wyllyngly offer for the houſe of God that is at Hierusalem.

5 Then gate vp the principal fathers of Juda and Beniamin, and the prieſtes and Leuites, and al they whoſe ſpirite God had rayſed to go vp, and to buylde the houſe of the Lorde whiche is at Hierusalem.

6 (c) The Babylonians & Chaldeans gaue them theſe giftes. Thus rather the the children of god ſhould want for their neceſſities, he would ſtirre vp the hartes of very infidels to helpe them.

And (c) al they that were about them, ſtrengthed their hande with veſſels of ſyluer and golde, with goodes and cattel, and iewelles, beſide al that was wyllyngly offred.

7 (d) So the Chaldeans called Zoroabel, who was the cheefe gouernour: ſo that the preeminence ſtil remayned in the houſe of Dauid.

And king Cyrus brought forth the veſſels of the houſe of the Lorde, which Nabuchodonoſor had taken out of Hierusalem, and had put in the houſe of his God.

8 Thoſe dyd Cyrus the kyng of Perſia bring forth by the hande of Mithridates the treaſurer, and numbred them vnto (e) Sethbazer the prince of Juda.

The.iii. Chapter.

1. The Israelites builde the aulter of God. 6. They offer to the Lorde. 7. They prepare for the temple, 11. and syng vnto the Lorde.

A 1 AND when the seuenth moneth came, and the chyldren of Israel were nowe in their cities, the people came together as one man, to Hierusalem.

2.Esd.8.a.

2 And there stoode vp Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and his brethren the priestes, and Zorobabel the sonne of (a) Salathiel, and his brethren, and buylded the aulter of the God of Israel, to offer whole burnt offerynges thereon, as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moses the man of God.

(a) That is, the nephewe of Salathiel, for he was the sonne of Pedaia. Reade. 1. Chro. 3. vearse. 19.

3 And the aulter set they vpon his sockets: for there was a fearefulnesse among them, because of the people of those countreys, therfore they offered whole burnt offerynges thereon vnto the Lorde, (euen) whole burnt offerynges, mornyng and euenyng.

Exod. 23. vearse. 16.

4 And they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is wrytten, and offered whole burnt sacrifices dayly, accordyng to the number and custome day by day.

5 Afterward they offred dayly whole burnt offerynges also, and in the newe moones, and in al the feast dayes that were consecrated vnto the Lorde, and all manner of free wyl offeringes, which they dyd of their owne free wyl offer vnto the Lorde.

6 From the first day of the seuenth moneth began they to offer whole burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde: but the fundation of the temple of the Lorde was not yet layde.

B 7 They gaue money also vnto the masons and * carpenters, & meate, and drinke, and oyle, vnto them of Sidon and of Tyre, to bryng the Cedar tymber from Libanus by sea vnto Ioppa, accordyng to the graunt that they had of Cyrus the kyng of Persia.

* or, workemenne.

8 In the seconde yere of their comming vnto the house of God at Hierusalem, in the seconde moneth, beganne Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and the remnant of their brethr, the priestes and Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuitie vnto Hierusalem: and appointed the Leuites from twentie yeres olde, and aboue, to see that the worke of the house of the Lorde went forwarde.

9 And Iosue stoode with his sonnes, and brethren, & Cadmiel, with his sonnes, and the chyldren of Iuda, was one man, to set forwarde the workemen of the house of God, the chyldren of Henadad, with their children, and their brethren the Leuites.

10 And when the builders layde the fundation of the temple of the Lord, they appointed the priestes in their * aray with trumpettes, & the Leuites the chyldren of Asaph with cymbales, to prayse the Lorde after the "maner of Dauid kyng of Israel.

11 And they sang togeather when they gaue prayse and thankes vnto the Lord, Because he is gratious, and because his mercie endureth for euer vpon Israel: And all the people showted loude in prayising the Lord, because the fundation of the house of the Lorde was layde.

(b) Because they saw that it was nothing so glorious as the temple which Salomon had built. Notwithstanding, Aggeus comforteth them & prophesieth that it shalbe more bewtyful then the firste. Aggeus meaning, because Christ and his apostles shoulde preache the gospel, and worke miracles there.

12 But many of the priestes and Leuites, & cheefe fathers, and ancient men, whiche had seene the fyrst house, when the fundation was layde before their eyes, (b) wept with a loude voyce, and many showted a loude with ioy:

13 So that the people could not discerne the ioyful sounde and gladnesse, from the noyse of the weepyng among the people: for the people showted with a londe crye, and the noyse was hearde a farre of.

3 And

3 And Zorobabel, and Iosue, and the other ancient fathers of Israel, sayde vnto them, It can not be that you & we together should builde the house vnto our God: for we our selues wyl builde alone vnto the Lorde our God of Israel, as Cyrus the king of Persia hath commaunded vs.

4 And the folke of the lande "discouraged the people of Iuda, and troubled them as they were buildyng.

"Or, made their handes weake.

5 And hyred counsaylers agaynst them, to hynder theyr deuice, as long as Cyrus the kyng of Persia liued, vntyll the raigne of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the raigne of (b) Ahasuerus, at the begynning of his raigne, wrote they vnto him a complaynt agaynst the inhabiters of Iuda and Hierusalem.

(b) He was also called Artaxerxes, whiche is a Persian name, and signifieth an excellent warrier.

7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes wrote Mithridath, Tabel, and the other of his counsel, vnto Artaxerxes ỹ king of Persia, with fayre wordes: and the wrytyng of the letter was in the Syrians speache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians:

11 This is the tenure of the letter that they sent vnto king Artaxerxes, Thy seruantes, and the men that are nowe beyonde the water and in Cheeneth (salute thee.)

12 Be it knowen vnto the kyng, that the Iewes which came vp from thee to vs, are come to Hierusalem, a citie seditious and frowarde, and buylde the same, and set vp the walles thereof, and lay the fundations.

13 Be it knowen nowe vnto the kyng, that if this citie be builded, & the walles made vp againe, then shal they not gene toule, tribute, and custome, and so they shall hynder the kynges tribute.

14 And nowe we remembryng that we were brought vp in the kynges pallace, & woulde no longer see the kinges dishonour, therfore sent we out also, and certified the kyng,

15 That it may be sought in the booke of the chronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou fynde in the booke of the chronicles, and perceiue that this citie is seditious and noysome vnto the kynges and "landes, & that they cause other also among them to rebel of old: and for the same cause was this citie destroyed.

16 Therefore do we certifie the kyng, that if this citie be builded againe, & the walles thereof made vp, thou shalt hereafter haue no portion beyonde the water.

17 Then sent the kyng an answeare vnto Rehum the recorder, & Samsai the scribe, and to the other of theyr companions that dwel in Samaria, and vnto the other that were beyonde the water "in Belam, and "Cheeth.

"Or, peace & saluation.

"Or, Cheeneth.

18 The letter whiche ye sent vnto vs, hath ben openly read before me.

19 And I haue commaunded to make search, and it is founde that this citie of olde hath made insurrection against kinges, and that rebellion and sedition hath ben committed therein.

20 There haue ben mightie kynges also at Hierusalem, whiche haue raigned ouer al countreys beyonde the water: and toule, tribute, & custome was geuen vnto them.

21 Geue ye nowe therfore commaundement, that the same menne be forbydden, and that the citie be not buylded agayne, tyl I haue geuen another commaundement. D

22 Take heede nowe that ye be not negligent to do this: for why shoulde the kyng haue harme thereby?

23 Nowe when the tenure of kyng Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum & Samsai the scribe, and theyr companions, they went vp in al the haste to Hierusalem vnto the Iewes, and forbade them with violence and power.

(c) Not altogeather, for the prophets exhorted them to continue, cap. 5. verse. 1. but they vsed the lesse diligēce, because of their troubles.

24 Then (c) ceassed the worke of the house of GOD at Hierusalem, and continued so vnto the seconde yeere of Darius kyng of Persia.

The. v. Chapter.

1. Aggeus and Zachari do prophesie. 3. The worke of the temple goeth forwarde, contrary to the mynde of Thathanai. 6. His letters were sent to Darius.

1 THe prophetes Aggeus, and Zachari the sonne of Iddo, prophesied vnto the Iewes that were in Iuda and Hierusalem in the name of the God of Israel. Z

2 Then gate vp Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and began to builde the house of God at Hierusalem: and with them were the prophetes of God, (a) whiche helped them.

(a) Whiche encouraged them to go forwarde.

3 At the same tyme came to them Thathanai, whiche was captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and theyr companions, and sayde thus vnto them, Who-hath commaunded you to build this house, and to make vp these walles?

4 Then sayde we vnto them after this maner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

(b) His fauour and the spirite of strength.

5 But the (b)eye of theyr God was vpon the elders of the Iewes, that they coulde not cause them to ceasse, tyll the matter was brought to Darius: and then they answeared by letters thereunto.

6 This is the tenure of the letter that Thathanai whiche was captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and the counsaillours of Apharsath, whiche were beyonde the water, sent vnto kyng Darius.

B 7 And the matter that they sent vnto hym, was written thus within the letter, Unto Darius the kyng, al peace.

8 Be it knowē vnto the kyng, that we went into the prouince of Iurie to the house of the great GOD, whiche is builded with mightie great stones, and beames are layde in the walles, & the worke goeth fast forth, and prospereth in theyr handes.

9 Then asked we the elders and sayde vnto them thus, Who commaunded you to build this house, and to make vp the walles therof?

10 We asked theyr names also, that we might certifie thee, & write the names of the men that were theyr rulers.

11 But they answeared vs with these wordes, and sayde, We are the seruantes of the God of heauen and earth, & build the house that was builded of olde, and many yeeres

15 And said vnto him, Take these vessels, and go thy way, and set them in the temple that is at Hierusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Salbazar, & layde the fundation of the house of God which is at Hierusalem: Since that tyme also vntyl nowe hath it ben in buildyng, and yet it is not fynished.

17 Nowe therefore yf it please the kyng, let there be searche made in the kinges (c) treasure house whiche is there at Babylon, whether it hath benne kyng Cyrus commaundement that this temple of GOD at Hierusalem should be builded: and let the kyng sende his minde concernyng the same matter.

(c) Where lay the registers or records of tymes.

The .vi. Chapter.

1. At the commaundement of Darius kyng of Persia, after the temple was builded and dedicate, the children of Israel keept the feast of vnleauened bread.

1 Then commaunded kyng Darius, that searche shoulde be made in the librarie of the (kynges) treasure house, whiche lay at Babylon: A

2 And there was found in a coffer in the palace that is in the prouince of the Medes, a volume, and therein was it thus written, as a memorial,

3 In the first yeere of kyng Cyrus, gaue the same king Cyrus commaundement concerning the house of God at Hierusalem, that the same house shoulde be builded in the place where they offer the sacrifices, and to ioyne the walles togeather of threescore cubites height, & threescore cubites breadth,

4 Three rowes of rough stones, and one rowe of newe tymber: and the expences shalbe geuen of the kynges house.

5 And let the golde and syluer vessels of the house of GOD, whiche Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the temple at Hierusalem, and brought vnto Babylon, be restored, and brought agayne vnto the temple at Hierusalem to their place, in the house of God.

6 Nowe therefore, thou Thathanai captaine beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanei, and your counsaylers, and Aphersechei, whiche are beyonde the water, geat ye away from them.

7 Let the worke of the house of this GOD B alone, that the captayne of the Iewes and theyr elders may builde the house of God in his place.

8 I haue commaunded what ye shall do to the elders of Iuda for the buildyng of the house of God, that of the kynges goodes, euen of the tribute beyonde the water, forthwith expences be geuen vnto the men, that they be not hyndred.

9 And

9 And if they haue neede of calues, rams, and lambes for the whole burnt offering of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, wine, and oyle, after the custome of the priestes at Hierusalem, let the same be geuen them dayly, that there be no default:

10 That they may haue to offer sweete sauours vnto the God of heauen, and pray for the kinges lyfe, and for his children.

11 And suche a commaundement haue I geuen, that what man soeuer he be that alte-reth this woorde, there shal a beame be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shalbe hanged thereon, and his house shalbe made a dounghil for the same thing.

12 And the God that set his name there, destroy al kinges & people that put to their hande to alter and to breake downe this house of God whiche is at Hierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree, that this be donne with speede.

13 Then Thathanai the captayne (of the countrey) beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, with their counsaylours, accordyng to that which kyng Darius had sent, so they did speedily.

¶ 14 And the elders of the Iewes buylded, and they prospered through the prophecying of Aggeus the Prophete, & zachari the sonne of Iddo, and they buylded, and they finished it according to the commaundement of the God of Israel, and after the commaundement of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerres, kinges of Persia.

15 And this house was finished the thirde day of the moneth (a) Adar, euen in the (b) sixt yeere of the raigne of king Darius.

16 And the children of Israel, the Priestes, the Leuites, and the other children of the captiuitie, held the dedication of this house of God with ioy.

17 And offred at the dedication of this house of God an hundred calues, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambes: and for a reconciling of al Israel, twelue hee goates, according to the number of the tribes of Israel:

18 And set the priestes in their sundry courses, and the Leuites in their diuers offices, to minister vnto God at Hierusalem, as it is written in the booke of Moses.

19 And the children of the captiuitie helde the Passouer vppon the fourteenth day of the fyrst moneth:

20 For the Priestes and Leuites were purified altogether, and killed the Passouer for al the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the Priestes, and for them selues.

21 And the children of Israel whiche were comme agayne out of captiuitie, and all suche as had separated them selues vnto them, from the fylthynesse of the heathen of the lande, to seeke the Lorde God of Israel, dyd eate, 22 And helde the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with ioy: for the Lorde had made them glad, and turned the hart of the kyng of Assur vnto them, to strengthen their handes in the woorke of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

(a) That is, the twelfth moneth, and fourteenth part of February, and part of March, in which were the two and fourtie yeeres after their first returne from Babylon.

The. vii. Chapter.

I. By the commaundement of the kyng, Esdras and his companyons come to Hierusalem. 27. He geueth thankes to God.

1 AFter these thinges, there was in the raigne of (a) Artaxerres kyng of Persia, one Esdras the sonne of Saraia, the sonne of Azaria, the sonne of Helkia,

2 The sonne of Sallum, the sonne of Zadoc, the sonne of Ahitob,

3 The sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Asaria, the sonne of Meraioth,

4 The sonne of Zeraia, the sonne of Ozi, the sonne of Bucci,

5 The sonne of Abisua, the sonne of Phinehes, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the cheefe priest.

6 This Esdras also went vp from Babylon, & was a * perfect (b) scribe in the lawe of Moses, whiche the Lorde God of Israel dyd geue: and the king gaue him all that he required, according to the hande of the Lorde his God which was vpon him.

7 And there went vp certayne of the children of Israel, of the priestes, Leuites, singers, porters, and of the Nethinims, vnto Hierusalem, in the seuenth yeere of kyng Artaxerres.

8 And he came to Hierusalem in the fyfth moneth, euen in the seuenth yeere of the kyng.

9 For vpon the fyrst day of the fyrst moneth, began he to goe vp from Babylon: and on the fyrst day of the fyfth moneth came he to Hierusalem, according to the (c) good hand of his god (that was) vpon him.

10 For Esdras prepared his hart to seeke the lawe of the Lorde, and to doo it, and to teache the preceptes and iudgementes in Israel.

11 And this is the tenure of the letter that kyng Artaxerres gaue vnto Esdras the priest, and scribe, whiche was a wryter of the woordes and commaundementes of the Lord, and of his statutes ouer Israel.

12 Artaxerres king of kinges, vnto Esdras the priest and scribe of the lawe of the God of heauen, peace and saluation.

A (a) The Hebrues write that the kinges of Persia were called by this name, as Pharao was a common name to the kinges of Egypt, and Caesar to the Emperours of Rome.

* Or, redy. Or prompt.

(b) He sheweth here what a scribe is, who had charge to write the lawe, and expounde it. Whō Marke calleth a scribe, Marc. 12. vearse. 28. Matthewe & Luke cal him a lawyer or doctour of lawe. Matth. 22. Luke. 25.

(c) Accordyng to the fauour and mercy of God.

13 I haue commaunded that al they of the people of Israel, and of the priestes & Leuites in my realme, whiche are mynded of their owne good wyll to goe vp to Hierusalem, goe with thee.

14 And therefore art thou sent of the kyng and of his seuen counsailers, to visite Iuda and Hierusalem, accordyng to the lawe of thy God, whiche is in thy hande.

15 And that thou shouldest take with thee siluer and golde, whiche the kyng and his counsaylers offer of their owne good will vnto the God of Israel, whose habitation is at Hierusalem:

16 And al the siluer and gold that thou canst fynde in all the * countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of their owne good wyl, and the priestes geue wyllyngly for the house of their GOD whiche is at Hierusalem:

* or, prouince.

17 That thou mayst buye diligently with the same money, orn, rammes, and lambes, with their meate offeringes and drinke offeringes, and thou shalt offer them vppon the aulter of the house of your God which is at Hierusalem.

18 And looke what lyketh thee and thy brethren to doo with the remnant of the syluer and golde, that doo after the wyll of your God.

19 And the vessels that are geuen thee for the ministration in the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God at Hierusalem.

20 And whatsoeuer thing more shalbe needfull for the house of thy God, whiche is necessary for to spende, thou shalt receiue the charges out of the kinges treasure house.

21 I kyng Artaxerxes haue commaunded al the treasures beyond the water, that looke what so euer Esdras the Priest and scribe in the lawe of the God of heauen requireth of you, that ye fulfyll the same speedily,

1. kyng. 7. d. 2. Chro. 2. d

23 What soeuer also is the commaundement of the God of heauen, let the same be done without any delay for the house of the god of heauen, that he be not wroth agaynst the realme, and agaynst the kyng and his children.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no authoritie to require taxing and custome, and yerely rentes, vpon any of the priestes, Leuites, singers, porters, Nethinims, and ministers in the house of his God.

25 And thou Esdras, after the wysedome of thy God, that is in thyne "hande, set iudges and arbitrers (by my authoritie) to iudge al the people that is beyonde the water, and al such as knowe the lawe of thy God: and them that knowe it not, those let that ye teache.

26 And who so euer wyl not fulfyll the lawe of thy God, and the kynges lawe, let hym haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to be condempned in goodes, or to be put in prison.

27 Blessed be the Lorde God of our fathers, whiche so had inspired the kinges hart, to garnisshe the house of the Lorde that is at Hierusalem: 3. Esd. 14.

28 And hath enclined mercie vnto me in the presence of the kyng and his counsaylers, and before al the kynges byrth estates: and I was comforted euen as the hande of the Lorde my God was vppon me, and so gathered I the heades of Israel together, that they myght goe vp with me.

The. viii. Chapter.

1. The number of them that returned to Hierusalem with Esdras. 21. He causeth them to fast. 24. He admonisheth the priestes of their duetie.

1 These are nowe the principal fathers of them, & this is the * register of them that went vp with me from Babylon, what tyme as kyng Artaxerxes raigned. 3. Esd. 1. * or, progenie. Reade Chap. 7. verse 1.

2 Of the chyldren of Phinehes, Gersom: of the chyldren of Ithamar, Daniel: of the chyldren of Dauid, Hattus:

3 Of the chyldren of Zechania, among the chyldren of Pharos, Zachari, and with him were numbred an hundred and fyftie men.

4 Of the chyldren of the captayne of Moab, Elioenai the son of Zerahia, and with him two hundred men.

5 Of the chyldren of Zachania, the sonne of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred men.

6 Of the chyldren of Adin, Abed the sonne of Jonathan, and with him fyftie men.

7 Of the chyldren of Elam, Esaias the sonne of Athalia, and with him seuentie men.

8 Of the chyldren of Saphatia, Zebadia the sonne of Michael, and with him fourescore men.

9 Of the chyldren of Joab, Obadia the sonne of Jehiel, and with hym two hundred and eyghteene men.

10 Of the chyldren of Selomith, the sonne of Josaphia, and with him an hundred and threescore men.

11 Of

11 Of the children of Bebai, Zacharias the sonne of Bebai, and with him twentie and eight men.

12 Of the children of Asgad, Johanan the sonne of Hakatan, & with hym an hundred and ten men.

13 Of the children of Adonicam that were the last, whose names are these: Eliphelet, Jehiel, and Samaiah, & with them threscore men.

14 Of the children of Bigvai, Uthai, and Zabud, and with them seuentie men.

E 15 And I gathered them together by the water that runneth towarde Ahava, and there abode we three dayes: and I looked among the people and the priestes, & founde there none of the children of Leui.

16 Then sent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, Semeia, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zacharia, and to Mesullam, the rulers, and to Joiarib, and Elnathan, which were men of understanding.

* 17 * And I sent vnto. 17 And to those gaue I commaundement vnto Iddo the chiefest at Casphia, and I tolde them what they should say vnto Iddo and to his brethren the Nethinims at Casphia, that they shoulde cause the ministers of the house of our God to come vnto vs.

18 And through the good hande of our God vpon vs, they broughte vs a very wyse man from among the children of Moholi the sonne of Leui the sonne of Israel, and Sarabia, with his sonnes & his brethren, euen eightiene.

19 And Hasabia, and with hym Esaias of the children of Merari, with his brethren, and their sonnes, twentie.

20 And of the Nethinims whom Dauid and the princes gaue to minister vnto the Leuites, two hundred and twentie of Nethinims: which all were named by name.

D 21 And euen there at the water beside Ahava I proclaymed a fast, that we myght humble our selues before our God, & seeke of hym a right way for vs, and for our children, and for al our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the kyng souldiers and horsemen, to helpe vs against the enimie in the way: for we had spoken vnto the kyng, saying, The hande of our God is vpon all them that seeke him in goodnesse, and his power and wrath is against al them that forsake hym.

23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this, and he was entreated of vs.

24 And I tooke out twelue of the chiefe priestes, Sarabia, and Hasabia, and tenne of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed them the siluer and golde, & vessels that were appointed for the house of our God, which the kyng and his counsaylers, & his lordes, and al Israel that were there at hande, had geuen together.

26 And I weighed vnto their hand fyue hundred and fyftie talentes of syluer, and siluer vessels an hundred talentes, and in golde an hundred talentes.

27 Twentie basons of golde of a thousande (a) drams, and two costly vesselles of good brasse, as cleare as golde.

(a) A dram is the eyght part of an ounce.

28 And I sayde vnto them, Ye are consecrate vnto the Lorde, like as the vessels are holy also: and the golde and syluer are geuen of a good wyl vnto the Lorde God of your fathers.

E 29 Watche ye, and kepe them: for ye shall weigh them downe before the chiefe priestes and Leuites, and ancient fathers of Israel at Hierusalem, in the treasuries of the house of the Lorde.

30 Then tooke the priestes and Leuites the weighed siluer and golde, and vessels, to bring it to Hierusalem vnto the house of our God.

31 And we brake vp from the water of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first moneth, to goe vnto Hierusalem: and the hande of our GOD was vpon vs, and deliuered vs from the hande of the enimies, and of suche as layde wayte for vs by the way.

32 And we came to Hierusalem, and abode there three dayes.

33 But on the fourth day was the siluer and gold and vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hande of Meremoth the sonne of Uria the priest, & with hym was Eleazar the sonne of Phinehes, and with them was Iosabad the sonne of Iosue, and Noadia the sonne of Bennoi the Leuites.

34 Accordyng to the number and weyght of euery one, was the weight al written vp at the same tyme.

35 And the children of the captiuitie, which were come out of captiuitie, offred whole burnt offerynges vnto the God of Israel, twelue bullockes for al Israel, ninety & sixe rammes, seuenty and seuen lambes, twelue hee goates for sinne (offryng) all to the whole burnt offeryng of the Lorde.

36 And they deliuered the kynges commission vnto the kynges officers, and to the captaynes (that were) beyonde the water: and they promoted the people, and the house of God.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. Esdras complayneth on the people that had entred them selues from god, and maryed with the gentiles, 6. He prayeth vnto God.

3.Esd.9. verſ.6.

AND When theſe thinges were done, the rulers came to me, and ſayde, The people of Iſrael, and the prieſtes and Leuites, are not ſeparated from the people of the landes, as touching their abominations: namely of the Chananites, Hethites, Phereſites, Iebuſites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

3 And when I heard this ſaying, I rent my clothes and my garment, and pluckt of the heare of my head and of my beard, and ſate * mourning.

5 And about the euenyng ſacrifice I aroſe vp from my heauineſſe, and rent my clothes and my rayment, and fell vpon my knees, and ſpread out my handes vnto the Lorde my God,

6 And ſayde, O my God, I am aſhamed, and dare not lyft vp my eyes vnto thee my GOD: for our wickednesses are growen ouer our head, and our treſpaſſe is wayed great vnto the (a) heauen.

(a) They ſo exceede, that they can growe no greater. Deut.18.d. 2.Chr.32.b 1.king.24.b

7 Synce the tyme of our fathers haue we ben in great treſpaſſe vnto this day, and becauſe of our wickednesse haue we and our kynges and our prieſtes ben deliuered into the hande of the kinges of the nations, vnto the ſwoorde, into captiuitie, into a ſpoyle, and into confuſion of face, as (it is to ſee) this day.

8 And nowe for a litle ſpace grace hath ben ſhewed from the Lord our God, in cauſing a remnant to eſcape, and in geuyng vs (b) a nayle in his holy place, that our God may lyghte our eyes, and geue vs a litle lyfe, to take breath in our bondage:

(b) That is, a reſtyng place: it is a ſimilitude taken of them that remayne ſtil in a place. Eſai.22. verſ.23.

9 For we were bondmen, and yet our God hath not forſaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercy vnto vs in the ſyght of the kyng of Perſia, to geue vs lyfe to ſet vp the houſe of our God, and to reedifie the deſolation therof, and to geue vs a wall in Iuda and Hieruſalem.

10 And nowe, O our God, what ſhal we ſay after this? for we haue forſaken thy commaundements, Exod.23. verſ.32.

11 Whiche thou haſt commaunded by thy ſeruantes the prophetes, ſaying, The lande vnto whiche ye goe to poſſeſſe, it is an vncleane land, becauſe of the filthyneſſe of the people of the landes, which with their abominations haue made it ful of vncleanneſſe on euery ſyde.

Deut.7.a.

12 Therefore ſhal ye not geue your daughters vnto their ſonnes, & their daughters ſhal ye not take vnto your ſonnes, nor ſeeke their peace and wealth for euer: that ye may be ſtrong, & eate the goodneſſe of the lande, and that ye and your children may haue the inheritance of it for euermore.

Deut.23. verſ.6. * or, rest.

13 And after that all theſe thinges are come vpon vs, becauſe of our euyl deedes and great treſpaſſes (ſeeyng that thou our God haſt * ſtayed vs from beyng (c) beneath for our iniquities) and haſt geuen vs ſuche deliuerance:

14 Shoulde we returne to breake thy commaundementes, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of theſe abominations? wouldeſt not thou be angry towardes vs, tyll thou haddſt conſumed vs, ſo that there ſhoulde be no remnant, nor any eſcapyng?

Deut.28. verſ.13.

15 O Lorde God of Iſrael, thou art righteous, for we remayne yet eſcaped, as (it is yet to ſee) this day: Beholde alſo, in thy preſence are we in our treſpaſſes, and becauſe of it may we not ſtande before thee.

The.x.Chapter.

I. The people repent and turne, and put away their ſtrange wiues.

1 AND when Esdras prayed after this manner, and (a) knowledged, wept, and lay before the houſe of God, there reſorted vnto hym out of Iſrael a very great congregation, of men, and women, and children: and the people wept very ſore.

A

2 And Sechania the ſonne of Iehiel, one of the children of Elam, anſwered, and ſayd vnto Esdras, We haue treſpaſſed againſt our God, and haue taken ſtrange wyues of the people of the lande: Yet nowe there is (b) hope in Iſrael concernyng this thyng.

(b) Meaning that Iſrael may repent, and God receiue them to mercy.

2 For nowe we wyl make a couenant with our God, and put away al the wyues and ſuche as are borne of them, accordyng to the counſel of the Lorde, and of thoſe that feare the commaundementes of our God, that we may do accordyng to the lawe.

4 Ariſe thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we alſo wyll be with thee: be of good comfort therefore, and do it.

5 Then aroſe Esdras, and tooke an othe of the chiefe prieſtes and Leuites, and of all Iſrael, that they ſhoulde do accordyng to this worde: and they ſware.

3.Esd.9.a.

6 And Straunge maryage.

6 Anye Esdras rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the sonne of Eliasib: and when he came thyther, he dyd eate no bread, nor drinke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of the people that had ben in captiuitie.

7 And they caused a proclamation to goe throughout Juda and Hierusalem, vnto al them of the captiuitie, that they should gather themselues togeather vnto Hierusalem:

8 And that who so euer came not within three dayes, according to the counte of the rulers and elders, all his substance should be confiscated, and he should be put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie.

9 Then al the men of Juda and Beniamin, gathered themselues togeather vnto Hierusalem, within three dayes, euen y twentieth day of the ninth moneth, & al the people sate in the streete of the house of God, and trembled, because of this matter, and for the rayne.

*or, great rayne. 11 Confesse nowe therefore vnto the Lord God of your fathers, and doo his pleasure: and separate your selues from the people of the lande, and from the straunge wyues.

12 And al the congregation answered, and sayde with a loude voyce, It shalbe so, and we wyl doo as thou hast sayde.

13 But the people are many, and it is a rayny weather, and the people are not able to tary without in the streete, nyther is this a woorke of one day or two: for we haue offended very sore in this thing.

*or, we are many that haue offended in this thing.

14 Let our rulers stande therefore in all the congregation, and let al them whiche haue taken straunge wyues in our cities, comme at the tyme appoynted, and let the elders of euery citie & their iudges be with them, tyl the fierce wrath of our god for this matter be turned from vs.

15 Then were appoynted Jonathan the sonne of Asahel, and Jahasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter: and Mesullam and Sabbathai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captiuitie did euen so: and Esdras the priest, and the auncient heads through the house of their fathers, all menne of great fame, separated them selues, and sate them downe in the first day of the tenth moneth, to examine y matter.

17 And vntyl the first day of y first moneth, they were finishing the businesse, with al the men that had taken straunge wyues.

18 And among the children of the priestes, there were menne founde that had taken straunge wyues, namely among y children of Josue the son of Josedec, & of his brethren, Maasia, and Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedalia.

19 And they gaue their handes, that they would put away their wyues: and they that hadde trespassed, gaue a ramme for their trespasse.

44 Al these had taken straunge wyues, and among the same there were some that had children.

The booke of Nehemias, or ſecond booke of Eſdras.

The firſt Chapter.

I. Nehemias bewayleth the calamitie of Hieruſalem. 5. He confeſſeth the ſynnes of the people, and prayeth to god for them.

A 1 The woꝛdes of Nehemias the ſonne of Hachalia. In the moneth (a) Cheſlen, in the twentieth yeere, as I was in the caſtel at Suſan, 2 Came Hanani, one of my bꝛethꝛen, he and the men of Iuda: and I aſked them howe the Iewes dyd that were delyuered and eſcaped from the captiuitie, and howe it went at Hieruſalem.

3 And they ſayde vnto me, The remnant that are leaſt of the captiuitie there in the lande, are in great affliction & rebuke: the wal of Hieruſalem alſo is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fyre.

4 And when I harde theſe woꝛdes, I ſate downe and weapt, and mourned (certayne) dayes, and faſted and prayed before the god of heauen:

5 And ſayde, O Lorde God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, thou that keepeſt couenant & mercie for them that loue thee, and obſerue thy commaundementes:

6 Let thyne eares hearken, & I beſeeche thee, and let thyne eyes be open, that thou mayſt heare the prayer of thy ſeruant, whiche I nowe pray before thee day and nyght, for the chyldren of Iſrael thy ſeruantes, and knowledge the ſinnes of the chyldren of Iſrael, whiche we haue ſinned agaynſt thee: both I and my fathers houſe haue ſinned.

B 7 We haue greeuouſly ſynned agaynſt thee, and haue not kept thy commaundementes, ſtatutes, and iudgementes, whiche thou commaundeſt thy ſeruant Moſes.

8 I beſeeche thee call to remembrance the woꝛde that thou commaundeſt thy ſeruant Moſes, and ſaydeſt, Ye wyl tranſgreſſe, & I wyl ſcatter you abroade among the nations.

9 But yf ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commaundementes, and doo them: though ye were caſt out vnto the vttermoſt part of heauen, yet wil I gather you from thence, and wyll bꝛyng you vnto the place that I haue choſen to ſet my name there.

10 They are thy ſeruantes and thy people, whom thou haſt deliuered through thy great power, and in thy myghty hande.

11 O Lorde, I beſeeche thee, let thyne eare hearken to the prayer of thy ſeruant, and to the prayer of thy ſeruantes, whoſe deſire is to feare thy name: and let thy ſeruant proſper this day, and graunt him mercy in the ſyght of (b) this man. For I was the kynges Butler.

(a) whiche conteyneth part of November, and part of December, and was their nienth moneth.

2. Reg. 25. b

(b) That is, of kyng Artaxerxes.

The.ii. Chapter.

I. After Nehemias had obteyned letters of Artaxerxes, II. he came to Hieruſalem, 17. and beylded the walles.

1 IN the moneth (a) Miſen, in the twentieth yeere of kyng Artaxerxes, the wine ſtood before him: and I toke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the kyng: and I had not ben before heuy in his preſence.

(a) whiche was the ſeuenth moneth of the yeere, and conteyneth parte of March and part of April.

2 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, Why loketh thou ſo ſadly, ſeeing thou art not ſicke? It is nothing els, but that thou art heuy harted. And I was ſore afrayde,

3 And ſayde vnto the kyng, God ſaue the kyng for euer: howe ſhoulde I not looke ſadly, when the citie & place of my fathers buryals lye waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fyre?

4 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, What is then thy requeſte? I made my prayer alſo to the God of heauen.

5 And ſayde vnto the king, If it pleaſe the king, and if thy ſeruant haue found fauour in thy ſyght, ſende me vnto Iuda, vnto ꝧ citie of my fathers burials, ꝧ I may build it.

6 And the kyng ſayde vnto me (the queene ſitting by him,) Howe long ſhall thy iourny continue, and when wylt thou come agayne? And it pleaſed the kyng to ſende me, and I ſet him a time,

7 And ſayde vnto the king, If it pleaſe the king, let him gene me letters to the captaynes whiche are beyonde the water, that they may conuey me ouer, tyll I come into Iudea:

8 And letters vnto Aſaph the Lorde of the kinges wood, that he may gene me tymber, to make beames for the gates of the palace whiche is harde by the houſe, and for the walles of the citie, and for the houſe that I ſhall enter into. And the kyng gaue me accoꝛdyng to the * hande of my God whiche was good vpon me.

* 25. b. vnto.

9 And when I came to the captaynes beyonde the water, I gaue them the kynges letters: and the kyng had sent captaynes of the armie, and horsmen with me.

10 Sanaballat also the Horonite, and Tobia a seruant, the Ammonite, heard of it, and it greeued them sore that there was comme a man whiche sought the wealth of the children of Israel.

11 And I came to Hierusalem, & was there three dayes.

12 And I gate me vp in the myght season, & a fewe menne with me, neyther tolde I any man what God had geuen me in my harte to do at Hierusalem: and there was not one beast with me, saue it that I roode vpon.

13 And I departed in the night by the valley porte, before the dragon welle to the doung porte, and considered the walles of Hierusalem, howe they were broken downe, and the portes thereof consumed with fire.

C 14 And I went ouer vnto the wel porte, and to the kynges * conduit, and there was no roome for the beast that was vnder me to passe.

* or, fyshe pull.

15 Then went I in the night by the brooke syde, and considered the wal, and turned backe, and came home againe by the valley porte.

16 And the rulers knewe not whyther I went, or what I dyd, neyther dyd I as yet tel it vnto the Iewes, to the priestes, to the noble menne, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the woorke.

17 Afterwarde sayde I vnto them, Ye see the miserie that we are in, howe Hierusalem lyeth waste, and howe the gates therof are burnt with fire: come therfore, and let vs buylde vp the wall of Hierusalem, and that we be no more a rebuke.

(b) They were encouraged, and gaue them selues vnto wel, & to trauayle in this woork, by exterprise.

18 Then I tolde them of the hande of my God, that it was gratious ouer me, and the kinges wordes that he had spoken vnto me: and they sayd, Let vs geat vp, & buyld. And (b) they strengthed their handes to good.

* or, rebel.

19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, and Tobia the seruant, an Ammonite, and Gesem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed vs to scorne, and despised vs, and sayde, What is this that ye doo? Wyl ye * fal (c) away from the king?

(c) Thus the wicked whē they wil burden the children of God, euerlay treason vnto their charge, both because it maketh them most odious to the world, and also stirreth the hatred of princes most against them.

20 Then answered I them, and said, The God of heauen, he it is that hath graunted vs prosperitie, & we his seruantes wyl geat vp, and buylde: as for you ye haue no portion, nor ryght, nor remembrance in Hierusalem.

The. iiii. Chapter.

The number of them that buylded the walles.

1 AND Eliasib the high priest, gate hym vp, with his brethren the priestes, and they buylded the sheepe gate, they repayred it, and set vp the doores of it: euen vnto the towre Mea (a) repayred they it, and vnto the towre of Hananeel.

2 Next vnto him also buylded the menne of Iericho: and beside him buylded Zachur the sonne of Amri.

14 But the doung port buylded Melchiah the sonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth part of Bethacharem: he repayred it, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres therof.

C

(a) In Hebrue, they sanctified it, that is, they finished it, & so dedicated it to the lord by prayer, in desyring him to maintaine it.

(b) The rych and mightie woulde not obey them whiche were appoynted officers in this woorke, neither wold they helpe therunto.

15 But

15 But the well gate repayred Sallum the sonne of Cholhoiah, the ruler of the fourth parte of Mispah: he buylded it, and cou-ered it, and set on the dores, lockes, & barres therof: and the wal vnto the fishe poole Siloah by the kinges garden, and vnto the steppes that goe downe from the citie of Dauid.

16 After him buylded Nehemias the sonne pulchres of Dauid, and to the fishe poole that was repayred, and vnto the house of the mightie.

A 17 After hym buylded the Leuites, Rehum ded Hasabia the ruler of the halfe parte of Keilah in his quarter.

18 After him buylded their brethren Banai the sonne of Henadad the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah.

peece, hard ouer against the going vp to the house of ordinance (that was) in the corner.

20 Againe, after him brake foorth Baruch the sonne of Zachai, of (c) indignation, and repayred the other peece from the turnyng corner, vnto the doore of the house of Eliasib the high priest.

(c) Agaynst hym selfe, wonderyng his owne slackenesse.

D 21 After him also buylded Merimoth the sonne of Uria, the sonne of Haccos, the other peece, from the doore of the house of Eliasib, euen as long as the house of Eliassib extended.

(d) whiche dwelt in the plaine countrey by Iordane and Iericho, and yet had houses in Hierusalem.

22 After him buylded the priestes, the (d) men of the playne.

23 After him buylded Beniamin and Ha-sub, ouer against their house: and after him wrought Azaria the sonne of Maasia, the sonne of Anania, by his house.

24 After him also builded Bennui the sonne of Henadad, the other peece, from the house of Azaria, vnto the turning (of the wal,) and vnto the corner.

25 After him builded Pbal the sonne of Vzsai, ouer against the corner, and the high towre whiche lieth out ouer from the kings house that was beside the court of the priros.

1. Esd. 2. verse. 43.

26 As for the Nethinims, they dwelt in the strong holde, vnto the water gate, towarde the east, and to the towre that lyeth out.

27 After him buylded they of Thecua the other peece, ouer against the great towre that lyeth outwarde, vnto the wal of the strong holde.

E 28 But from aboue the horse gate foorth, buylded the priestes, euery one ouer against his house.

29 And after them buylded Sadoc the sonne of Emmer, ouer against his house: after him builded also Semeia the sonne of Sechania, the keeper of the east gate.

30 After hym buylded Hanania the sonne smythes sonne, vnto the house of the Neth-inims, and of the Marchantes, ouer against the gate Mephkad, and to the parlour in the corner.

32 And betweene the parlour of the corner, vnto the sheepe gate, buylded the goldsmy-thes and the Marchantes.

The. iiii. Chapter.

7. The buylding of Hierusalem is hyndered.
15. But God breaketh their enterprise.
17. The Iewes buylde with one hande, and holde their weapon in the other.

1 BVt when Sanaballat heard that we buylded the wal, he was wroth in hym selfe, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the Iewes:

A

2 And sayde before his brethren, and the souldiers of Samaria, What doo these impotent Iewes? * wyl the (heathen) suffer them? shal they offer? shal they perfourme it in one day? shal they make the stones whole againe, that are brought to dust, and brent?

* Or, lyst they trouble them selues.

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside hym, and sayd, Though they buyld, yet if a foxe goe vp, he shal breake downe their ston-ie wal.

4 Heare, O thou our God, for we are despised, turne their shame vppon their owne head, and geue them ouer * into despisyng in the lande of their captiuitie.

* Or, by prayer.

5 (a) Couer not their wickednesse, and let not their sinne be put out in thy presence:
for they haue prouoked the buylders.

(a) Let thy plagues declare to the worlde, that they fetche foloe against thee and thy church: that be present, only hauyng respecte to Gods glory, and not for any priuate affection or grudge.

6 And so buylded we the wall, and it was ioyned whole togeather vnto the halfe heyght therof: and the people were mynded to labour.

7 But when Sanaballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Asdodites, heard that the walles of Hierusalem were made vp, and that the breathes began to be stopped, they were very wroth,

8 And conspyred altogether to come and fight against Hierusalem, and to make an
* hynderance therein.

* Heb. Make a lye

9 Neuertheles, we made our prayer vnto our

our God, and set watchemen by them day and nyght, because of them.

10 And Juda sayd, The strength of the bearers is feeble, and there is yet much more matter, and we are not able to buylde on the wal.

11 And our aduersaries sayd, They shal not knowe, neyther see, tyl we come in the myddes among them, and slay them, and cause the worke to ceasse.

12 But when the Iewes (which dwelt beside them,) came, they tolde vs (b) tenne tymes, that in al places where ye goe vnto, they are appointed to fal vpon vs.

(b) That is often tymes

13 Therefore set I the people after their kynredes, with their swordes, speares, and bowes, beneath in the low places behynde the wal, vpon the toppes of the stones.

C 14 And I looked, and gate me vp, and said vnto the cheefe men, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not ye afrayd of them: but thynke rather vpon the great lord whiche ought to be feared, and fight for your brethre, your sonnes, your daughters, your wyues, and your houses.

2.Esd.1.b. ma.9.l.

15 Neuertheless, when our enimies hearde that we had gotten word of it, God brought their counsayle to nought: and we turned al agayne to the wal, euery one vnto his labour.

16 And from that time forth, the halfe part of the young men dyd the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the speares, shieldes, bowes, and breastplates, and the rulers (stoode) (c) behynde al the house of Juda.

(c) To ouerse them, & to encourage them in their worke.

17 They whiche buylded on the wal, and they that bare burdens, and those that laded them, with one hande did euery one his worke, & with the other helde his weapon.

18 For euery one that buylded, had his sworde gyrded by his thigh, and so buylded they: And he that blewe the trumpet, was beside me.

19 And I sayde vnto the principal men, to the rulers, and to the other people, The worke is great and large, and we are separated vpon the wal one far from another.

20 Looke in what place therefore ye heare the noyse of the trumpet, resort ye thyther vnto vs, and our God shal fyght for vs.

D 21 And we wyl be labouryng in the worke. And the halfe parte of them helde their speares, from the mourning spring, tyl the starres came forth.

22 And at the same tyme, sayde I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruãt lodge within Hierusalem, that in the night season we may watche, & labour on the day time.

23 As for me and my brethren, my seruants, and the men of the watche whiche folowed me, we put neuer of our clothes, sane only because of the washyng.

The.v. Chapter.

I. The people are oppressed, and in necessitie. 7. Nehemias forbiddeth vsurie.

A 1 AND there arose a great complaynt of the people and their wyues, against their brethren the Iewes.

2 For there were some that sayde, Our sonnes, and daughters, & we, are very many: therefore wyl we take corne for them, that we may eate, and lyue.

3 Some also there were, that sayde, Let vs set our landes, vineyardes, and houses to pledge, and take vp corne in the dearth.

4 But some there were that sayd, We haue borowed money for the kynges tribute, and that vpon our landes and vineyardes.

5 And nowe our flesche is as the (a) flesche of our brethren, and our children as their children: and loe, we bryng into subiection our sonnes, & our daughters, as seruantes, and some of our daughters are subdued vnto bondage already, and no strength is there in our hands to redeeme them, and other men haue our landes and vineyardes.

(a) That is although we are of the kynrede and stocke that our rulers be of: yet they not regarding our necessitie, doo take our children & lands to gage: and so bring vs in like bondage as our brethren which remayne styl in the captiuitie.

6 And when I hearde their complaynt, and suche woordes, it displeased me sore.

7 And I aduised so in my mynde, that I rebuked the counsaylers, and the rulers, and sayde vnto them, Euery one of you taketh vsurie of his brother. And I brought a (b) great congregation agaynst them,

(b) Or multitude of people, either because they shoulde be moued with pitie, or els asshamed, seeyng howe many were oppressed by them, & also might heare the iudgement of others, which shoulde be as it were witnesses of their cruel dealing towarde their brethren.

8 And sayde vnto them, We after our abilitie haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, whiche were solde vnto the heathen: and will you sel your brethren agayne? and shal they be solde vnto vs? Then helde they their peace, and coulde fynde nothyng to answeare.

9 And I sayde, It is not good that ye doo: ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, because of the (c) rebuke of the heathen that are our enimies?

(c) who by this occasion wyl blaspheme the name of god, seeyng that our doynges are no better then theyrs.

10 I, and my brethren, and my seruants, do lende them money and corne: I pray you, let vs leaue of this vsurie.

11 Therefore, this same day, I pray you, see that ye restore them their lands againe, their vineyardes, oliue gardens, and their houses, and remit the hundred parte of the money, of the corne, wine, and oyle, that ye haue exacted of them.

12 Then sayd they, We wyl restore them again, & wyl require nothyng of them, and wyl doo as thou hast spoken. And I called the priestes, and tooke an oth of them, that they they should doo accordyng to this promise.

13 And I shooke my lappe, and sayde, God shake out euery man after the same maner from his house and labour, that maynteyneth not this worde, euen thus be he shaken out, and voyde. And all the congregation sayd, Amen, and praysed the Lord: And the people dyd accordyng to this promise.

¶ 14 And from the time forth that the (kyng) committed vnto me to be captayne of them that were in the lande of Iuda, euen from the twentieth yeere, vnto the thirtie & two yeere of kyng Artaxerxes, that is, twelue yeres, I with my brethren lined not of such sustenance as was geuen to a captayne.

15 For the olde captaynes that were before me, had benne chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread and wyne, beside fourtie sicles of syluer, yea, and their seruantes had oppressed the people: but so dyd not I, and that because of the feare of God.

* or, but rather I fortified a portion in the worke of this wall.

16 * But I laboured also in the worke vpon the wal, and we bought no lande: and al my seruantes came hyther together vnto the worke.

17 Moreouer, there were at my table an hundred and fyftie of the Iewes and rulers, whiche came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs.

18 And there was prepared for me dayly an oxe, and syx chosen sheepe, and birds were prepared for me: and euer once in ten dayes wyne for all in abundance: Yet requyred not I the * lyuyng of a captayne, for the bondage was greeuous vnto the people.

* or, bread.

2.Esd.6.d.

19 Thynke vpon me my God vnto the best, accordyng to all that I haue donne for this people.

The.vi.Chapter.

3. Nehemias answeareth with great wysdome and zeale to his aduersarie. 11. He is not discouraged by the false prophetes.

A 1 AND when Sanaballat, Tobia, & Gesm the Arabian, and the other of our enimies heard, that I had buylded the wal, and that there was no moe * gappes therein: (howbeit, at the same tyme, had I not hanged the doores vpon the gates,)

* or, breaches.

2 Sanaballat and Gesem sent vnto me, saying, Come, that we may meete and take counsel together in the villages that are in the playne of the citie Ono. Neuertheless, they thought to doo me euyl.

3 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I haue a great businesse to doo, & I can not come downe: Why should the worke ceasse, whilest I leaue it, and come downe to you?

4 Howbeit, they sent vnto me foure tymes after the same manner: and I gaue them the same answeare.

5 Then sent Sanaballat his seruant againe vnto me the fyfth time, with an open letter in his hande.

6 Wherin was wrytten, It is told the heathen, and Gesem hath sayde it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebel: for the whiche cause thou buyldest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, accordyng to these (a) woordes:

(a) As the same goeth.

7 And hast ordeined the prophetes to preach of thee at Hierusalem, & to say, He is kyng of Iuda. And nowe shall this come to the kynges eares: come nowe therefore, and let vs take our counsayle togeather.

8 And I sent vnto hym, saying, There is no suche thyng done as thou sayest, for thou faignest them of thine owne hart.

9 For they were all mynded to make vs afrayde, saying, They shal withdrawe their handes from their woorke, that it shall not be finished: Now therefore, strengthen thou my hande.

10 And I came vnto the house of Semaia the sonne of Delaia, the sonne of Mehetabeel, and he had shut him selfe within, and sayde, Let vs come togeather in the house of God, euen vnto the midst of the temple, and shut the doores of the temple, for they wyl come to slay thee, yea euen in the night wyl they come to put thee to death.

11 And I sayde, Shoulde any suche man as I, flee? Who is, that being as I am, wil goe into the temple to saue his lyfe? I wyl not goe in.

12 And loe, I perceyued that God had not sent hym, but that he pronounced this prophecie agaynst me: for Tobia and Sanaballat had hyred hym for money.

13 Therefore was he hyred, that through feare I shoulde so doo, and synne, that they myght haue an euyl reporte of me, to lay to my charge.

14 My God, thinke thou vpon Tobia, and Sanaballat, accordyng vnto these their woorkes, and on the prophetisse Noadia, and the other prophetes that would haue put me in feare.

15 And the wal was finished in the twentie and fyfth day of the moneth (b) Elul, in (c) fyftie and two dayes.

(b) Which was the sixt moneth, and conteyneth part of August, & part of September.

16 And when al our enimies heard thereof, al the heathen that was about vs, were afraid, & their courage fayled them: for they perceyued that this woorke came of our god.

(c) After that I had sent Sanaballat his answeare.

17 And at the same time were there many of the chefe of Iuda, whose letters went vnto Tobia, & agayne, from Tobia vnto them.

18 For

18 For there were many in Iuda that were sworne vnto hym: for he was the sonne in lawe of Sechania the sonne of Arah, and his sonne Iohanan had the daughter of Mesullam the sonne of Barachia.
19 And they spake good of him before me, and tolde hym my woordes: And Tobia sent letters to put me in feare.

The. viii. Chapter.

2. Esdras geathereth together the people, and readeth the lawe to them.

1 AND al the people geathered them selues together as one man, in ỹ streete that was before the water gate, and they sayde vnto Esdras the scribe, that he should fetche the booke of the lawe of Moses, whithe the Lorde commaunded to Israel.

2. Esd. 2. 1. Esd. 7. verl. 6. Deut. 31.

2 And Esdras the priest brought the lawe before the congregation, both of men, and women, and al that coulde vnderstand, dyd hearken vnto it, vpon the first day of the seuenth moneth.

3 And he read thereyn in the streete that was before the water gate, from the morning vntyl vntil the noone day, before men and women that vyd hearken to it: and the eares of all the people were (enclined) vnto the booke of the lawe.

4 And Esdras the scribe stoode vpon a pulpet of wood whiche they had made for the preachyng, and beside him stoode Mathathia, Sema, and Anaiah, Uriah, Helkia, and Baaseiah, on his ryght hand: and on his left hande stoode Pedaia, Misael, and Melchia, and Halum, Hasabadana, Zachari, and Meshullam.

5 And Esdras opened the booke before all the people, (for he stoode aboue al the people:) and when he opened it, al the people stoode vp.

6 And Esdras prayed the Lorde the great God: and al the people answeared, Amen, Amen, lyfting vp their handes, and bowed them selues, and worshipped the Lord, falling downe vpon their faces to the ground.

7 And Iosue, Bani, Serebia, Iamin, Accub, Sebethai, Hodaia, Maasia, Celita, Azariah, Iosabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Leuites caused the people to geue heede vnto the lawe: and the people stoode in their place.

Nehemi. 7. 8 And they read in the booke of the lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to vnderstande the readyng.

9 And Nehemias, which is Athirsatha, and Esdras the priest & scribe, and the Leuites that caused the people to take heede, sayde vnto all the people, This day is holy vnto the Lorde your God, be not ye sorie, and (a) weepe not. For all the people wept when they heard the wordes of the lawe.

(a) The Leuites doo not reproue them for mourning for their sinnes, but assure them of Gods mercies, for so much as they are repentant.

10 And he saide vnto them, Goe your way, and eate the fat, and drinke the sweete, and send part vnto them also that haue not prepared for them selues: for this day is holye vnto our Lorde: be not ye sorie therefore, for the ioy of the Lord is your strength.

11 And the Leuites stilled al the people, and sayde, Hold your peace, for the day is holy, be not sad therefore.

12 And al the people went their way to eate, and to drinke, and to send part vnto other, and to make great myrth, because they had vnderstand the wordes that were declared vnto them.

13 And on the nexte day were gathered together the cheefe fathers among all the people, and the priestes and Leuites, vnto Esdras the scribe, that they myght vnderstande the wordes of the lawe.

Exod. 23. k. 14 And they found written in the lawe whiche the Lord had commaunded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwel in boothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth:

15 And that they shoulde cause it to be declared and proclaymed in al their cities, and throughout Hierusalem, saying, Goe forth vnto the mount, and fetche Olive branches, Pyne branches, Myrtell branches, Paulme branches, and branches of the thicke tree, to make boothes, as it is written.

16 And so the people went forth, and set them, and made them boothes, euery one vpon the roofe of his house, & in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the streete by the water gate, and in the streete of the porte of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come agayne out of the captiuitie, made boothes, and sate vnder the boothes: for since the tyme of Iosuah the sonne of Nun, vnto this day, had not the children of Israel (b) donne so: and there was very great gladnesse.

(b) That is, were not so vniuersallye geathered together as one man, as yeares. I.

18 And euery day, from the first day, vnto the last, read Esdras in the booke of the lawe of God, and seuen dayes held they the feast, and on the eyght day they geathered together, according vnto the manner.

The. ix. Chapter.

I. The people repent, and forsake their strange wyues. 5. The Leuites exhort them to prayse God.

1 IN the twentie and fourth day of (a) this moneth, came the children of Israel together agayne, with fasting, and sackeclothes, and earth vpon them.

(a) Meanyng the seuenth moneth, as, Chapter. 8. verse. 2.

2 And they that were of the seede of Israel, were separated from al the strange children, and stoode, and knowledged their sinnes, & the wickednesse of their fathers:

3 And stoode vp in their place, and read in the booke of the lawe of the Lorde their God foure tymes on the day, & they knowledged, and worshipped the Lord their God foure tymes (on the day.)

4 Then stoode vp vppon the stayres of the Leuites, Iosue, Bani, Cadmiel, Sabaniah, Bunni, Serebiah, Bani, and Chanani, and cryed loude vnto the Lorde their God:

5 And the Leuites, Iosue, and Cadmiel, Bani, and Halbania, Serebia, & Hodia, Sebania, and Phathahia, said, Stand vp, and prayse the Lord your God for euer, and let thankes be geuen vnto the name of thy glory, whiche excelleth all thankes geuyng and prayse.

6 Thou art Lorde alone, thou hast made heauen, and the heauen of al heauens, with al their host, the earth, and al thinges that are therein, the sea, and all that is therein, and and thou preseruest them al, and the host of heauen worshypperth thee.

Exod. 3. b. 9 And hast considered the miserie of our fathers in Egypt, and hearde their complaynt by the red sea,

10 And shewed tokens and woonders vpon Pharao and al his seruantes, and on al the people of his lande: for thou knewest that they were presumptuous and cruel against them: and so madest thou thee a name, as it is this day.

Exod. 19. a. Exod. 20. vearse. 1.

13 Thou camest downe also vppon mount Sinai, & spakest vnto them from heauen, & gauest them right iudgements, true lawes, good commaundementes, and statutes:

Exod. 16. b. Exod. 17. d. Deut. 1. vearse. 8.

15 And gauest them bread from heauen, wher they were hungrie, and broughtest foorth water for them out of the rocke, when they were thirstie, & promisedst them that they shoulde goe in, and take possession of the land ouer which thou haddest lift vp thine hande for to geue them.

16 But they, and our fathers, were proude and hardnecked, so that they folowed not thy commaundements:

17 And would not obey, neyther were mindfull of the woonders that thou dyddest for them: but hardened their neckes, and had in their heades to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O GOD of mercies, gratious, and ful of compassion, of long sufferyng, and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not.

Exod. 32. vearse. 4. Exod. 13. b. Num. 14. vearse. 14. 1. Cor. 10. vearse. 2.

18 Moreouer, when they had made them a moulten calfe, and sayde, This is thy god that brought thee out (of the lande) of Egypt, and dyd blasphemies:

19 Yet forsookest thou them not in the wyldernesse, according to thy great mercies: and the cloudie pyller departed not from them on the day tyme, to leade them the way, neyther the pyller of fyre in the nyght season, to shewe them lyght in the way by whiche they shoulde goe.

Exod. 16. b.

20 And thou gauest them thy good spirite to enfourme them, and withheldest not thy Manna from their mouth, and gauest them water when they were thyrstie.

Exod. 17. b. D Deut. 8. b.

21 Fourtie yeeres long dyddest thou feede them in the wyldernesse, so that they lacked nothyng: their clothes waxed not old, and their feete swelled not.

22 And thou gauest them kyngdomes and nations, and dyddest (b) scatter them into corners: so they possessed the lande of Sehon, and the lande of the kyng of Hesbon, and the lande of Og kyng of Basan.

(b) Meaning the heathen. Num. 21. f.

23 And their children multipliedst thou as the starres of heauen, & broughtest them into the land whereof thou haddest spoken to their fathers, that they shoulde goe into it, and haue it in possession.

Iosuh. 2. a.

24 And the children went in, and possessed the lande, and thou subduedst before them the inhabiters of the lande, euen the Chananites, & gauest them into their handes, with their kynges, and the people of the land, that they might doo with them what they woulde.

25 And they wan their strong cities, and a fatte lande, and tooke possession of houses that were full of all manner of goodes, * welles dygged out, vineyardes, olive gardens, and many fruitful trees, and they dyd eate, and were filled, & became fat, & lyued in pleasure through thy great goodnesse.

* or, pitternes.

26 Neuerthelesse, they were disobedient, & rebelled against thee, and cast thy lawe behind their backes, and slue thy prophets, * whiche exhorted them earnestlye, that they myght bring them agayne vnto thee, and dyd great blasphemies.

2. Chr. 24. * or, like the gard sted among them, to turne them to thee.

27 Therefore thou gauest them ouer into the hand of their enimies that vexed them, and in the time of their trouble, when they cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and through thy great mercie thou gauest them sauiours, whiche helped them out of the hande of their enimies.

28 But when they came to rest, they turned backe agayne, to doo euyll before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hande of their enimies, so that they had the dominion ouer them: and when they conuerted, and cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and many tymes hast thou deliuered them, according to thy great mercie, and yet woulde they not heare: therefore gauest thou them vnto the handes of the nations of the landes.

29 And

31 And for thy great mercies sake thou hast not vtterly consumed them, nether forsaken them: for thou art a gratious and mercifull God.
32 Now therefore our God, thou great God, mightie and terrible, thou that keepest couenant and mercy, regarde not a litle all the trauayle that hath come vnto vs, and our kynges, our princes, our priestes, our prophetes, and our fathers, and all the people since the time of the kynges of Assur, vnto this day.
33 And truely thou art iust in all that thou hast brought vpon vs, for thou hast done right: as for vs, we haue done wickedly.
34 And our kinges, and our princes, our priestes, and our fathers haue not done thy law, nor regarded thy commaundementes, and thy * earnest exhortations wherewith

35 And they haue not serued thee in their kyngdome, and in thy great goodnesse that thou gauest them, and in the large and them, and haue not conuerted from their wycked workes.

36 Beholde, we are in bondage this day, and so is the land that thou gauest vnto our fathers, to eate the fruites and goodnesse therof, beholde there are we bondmen.
37 And great is the increase of it vnto the kinges, whom thou hast set ouer vs because of our sinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodyes and cattayle, euen as they will them selues: and we are in great trouble.
38 Nowe because of all this, make we a sure couenant, and write it, and our princes, Leuites, and priestes seale vnto it.

20 As for the residue of Israel, of the priests and Leuites, (they were) in all the cities of Iuda, euery one in his inheritance.
21 And the Nethinims dwelt in * Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were set ouer the Nethinims.
22 The ouerseer of the Leuites at Hierusalem, was Azzi the sonne of Bani, the sonne of Hasabia, the sonne of Matthania, the sonne of Micha: of the children of Asaph, singers were ouer the businesse in the house of God:
23 For it was the kynges commaundement concernyng them, that the singers shoulde deale faythfully euery day.
24 And Pathaia the sonne of Merezabel, of the children of Zerah the sonne of Iuda, was * next the kyng in al matters concerning the people.
25 And in the villages in their landes, some of the children of Iuda dwelt at Kiriath arba, and in the villages thereof, and in Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Iecabzeel, and in the villages thereof:
26 At Iesua, Moladath, Bethphalet:
27 In * the towne of Sual, Beersheba, and in the villages thereof:
28 At Siklag, and Moconah, and the villages thereof:
29 And at Enrimmon, Zarah, Ierimoth,
30 Zanoa, Odullam: and in their villages: at Lachis, and in the feelds thereof: and Aseka, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beersheba, vnto the valley of Hinnom.
31 The children also of Beniamin from Geba (dwelt) in Machmas, Aia, Bethel, and in their villages, 32 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,
33 Hasor, Ramah, Gethaim,
34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballath,
35 Lod, and Ono, in the carpenters valley.
36 And the Leuites had possession both in Iuda and in Beniamin.

23 The children of Leui the principall fathers were written in the Chronicles, vntil the tyme of Ionathan the sonne of Eliasib.
24 And these were the cheefe among the Leuites: Halabia, Serebia, and Iesua the sonne of Cadmiel, and their brethren * in their presence, to geue praise and thankes, according as Dauid the man of GOD had ordeyned it, one watch ouer against another. * 07, about them.
25 Matthania, Bacbukia, Obadia, Mesullam, Talmon, and Accub, were porters * in the watche, at the thresholdes of the gates. * 07, keeping the warde.
26 These were in the dayes of Ioiakim the sonne of Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and in the dayes of Nehemias the captayne, and of the priest Esdras the scribe.

27 And in the dedication of the wall at Hieruſalem, they ſought the Leuites out of all their places, that they myght be brought to Hieruſalem, to kepe the dedication and gladneſſe with thankeſgeuinges, and ſyngyng, with cymbales, * pſalteries, and harpes.

* or, vials.

28 And the children of the ſingers gathered them ſelues together from euery ſyde, out of the playne countrey about Hieruſalem, and from the villages of (a) Nethophathi,

(a) Whiche were a certayne family, and had their poſſeſſyons in the feeldes, as 1. Chro. 2. verſe. 54.

29 From the houſe of Gilgal, and out of the countreys of Geba, and Aſmaueth: for the ſingers had buylded them villages rounde about Hieruſalem.

30 And the Prieſtes and Leuites were purifyed, and cleanſed the people, & the gates, and the wall.

31 And I brought the princes of Iuda vpon the wall, and appoynted two great * quiers of menne to geue thankes, which went on the right hande of the wal towarde the Doung gate.

* or, companyes.

32 And after them went Hoſaia, and halfe of the princes of Iuda, 33 And Azaria, Eſdras, and Meſullam,

34 Iuda, Beniamin, Semeia, and Ieremi,

35 And certayne of the prieſts children with trumpettes: namely Zacharie the ſonne of Ionathan, the ſonne of Semeia, the ſonne of Matthania, the ſonne of Michaia, the ſonne of Zacur, the ſonne of Aſaph.

36 And his brethren, Semeia, Azarael, Melalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathanael, and Iuda, and Hanani, with the muſical inſtrumentes of Dauid the man of God: and Eſdras the ſcribe (went) before them.

37 And by the Well gate, (beſyde) vp ouer againſt them vpon the ſteppes of the citie of Dauid at the going vp of the wal, beyonde the houſe of Dauid vnto the water gate eaſtwarde.

38 The other quiers of them that gaue thankes, went ouer againſt them, and I after them, and the halfe part of the people vpon the wall beyonde the Furnace gate, vnto the broade wall, 39 And beyonde the port of Ephraim, and beyonde the olde gate, beyonde the fyſhe gate, and the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Mea, euen vnto the Sheepe gate, and they ſtoode ſtyl in the * pylon gate.

* or, the gate of the warde.

40 And ſo ſtoode the two quiers of them that gaue thankes in the houſe of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me:

41 And the prieſtes, namely Eliakim, Maaſia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elioenai, Zacharia, and Hanania, with trumpettes:

42 And Maaſia, Semeia, Eleaſar, Azzi, Iehohanan, Melchiah, Elam, and Ezer: and the ſingers ſang loude, hauyng Iezrahiah for their ouerſeer.

43 And the ſame day they offered great ſacrifyces, and reioyced: for God had geuen them great gladneſſe, ſo that both the wyues and chyldren were toyfull, and the myrth of Hieruſalem was heard farre of.

44 And the ſame tyme were the men appoynted ouer the treaſure houſes, wherein were the heaue offerynges, the fyrſtlinges, and the tithes, that they ſhoulde geather them out of the feeldes about the cities, to diſtribute them vnto the prieſtes and Leuites accordyng to the lawe: for Iuda was glad of the prieſtes and Leuites that ſerued. 2. Chro. 31. verſe. 11.

45 And both the ſingers & porters kept the warde of their God, and the warde of the purifycation, accordyng to the commaundement of Dauid, and of Solomon his ſonne. 2. Chro. 34. verſe. 35.

46 For in the tyme of Dauid and Aſaph of olde were the cheefe ſingers (ordeyned) and the ſonges of prayſe and thankeſgeuyng vnto God.

47 In the time of Zorobabel and Nehemias, dyd all Iſrael geue portions vnto the ſyngers and porters euery day his portion: and they * gaue tythes vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites * gaue tithes agayne vnto the chyldren of Aaron.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1. The lawe is read, 3. They ſeparate from them all ſtrangers. 30. An ordinance to ſerue God.

1 AND that day dyd they reade in the booke of Moſes in the audience of the people, and therein was founde written, that the Ammonites and Moabites ſhoulde neuer come into the congregation of God: A Num. 22. verſe. 5. Deut. 23. verſe. 3.

2 Becauſe they met not the chyldren of Iſrael with bread and water, but hyred Balaam againſt them that he ſhoulde curſe them: and our God turned the curſe into a bleſſing. Num. 22. verſe. 5.

3 Now when they had heard the law, they ſeparated from Iſrael euery one that had * mixt him ſelfe therein.

* or, ſtrangers.

4 And before (a) this had the prieſt Eliaſib the ouerſeyar of the treaſurie of the houſe of our GOD, and he was kinſeman vnto Tobia,

(a) That is, before the chyldren of Iſrael had ſeparated the ſtrangers from among them.

5 And had made him a great chamber, and there had they afore tyme layed the offerynges, frankencenſe, veſſels, and the tithes of corne, wine, and oyle, whiche was commaunded to be geuen to the Leuites, ſingers, and porters, and the heaue offerynges of the prieſtes.

6 But

6 But in al this (tyme) was not I at Hierusalem: for in the two and thirtieth yere of Artaxerres kyng of Babylon came I vnto the kyng, and after certayne dayes obteyned I license of the kyng to come to Hierusalem.

7 And I gate knowledge of the euyll that Eliasib did for Tobia, in that he had made hym a chamber in the court of the house of God.

8 And it grieued me sore: therefore I cast forth al the vessels of the house of Tobia out of the chamber:

9 And commaunded them to cleanse the chambers, and thether brought I ageyne the vessels of the house of GOD, with the meate offeryng, and the incense.

10 And I perceiued that the portions of the Leuites had not ben geuen them, and that euery one was fled to his lande, euen the Leuites & singers that executed the worke.

11 Then reproued I the rulers, & said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, & set them in their place.

12 Then brought al Iuda the tithes of corne, and wine, and oyle, vnto the treasures.

13 And I made treasurers ouer the treasure, Selemiah the priest, and Sadoc the scribe, and of the Leuites, Phedaias: vnder them hande was Hanan the sonne of Zaccur the sonne of Mathania: for they were counted faythful, and they office was to distribute (the portions) vnto their brethren.

14 Think vpon me, O my God herein, and wype not out (b) my mercy that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the officers thereof.

15 And the same time saw I in Iuda some treading wine presses on the sabboth, and bryngyng in sheaues, and whiche laded Asses also with wine, grapes, and figges, and al burdens, & brought them into Hierusalem vpon the sabboth day: and I rebuked them earnestly the same day that they solde the victualles.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fyshe, and al maner of ware, and solde on the sabboth vnto the children of Iuda in Hierusalem.

17 Then reproued I the rulers in Iuda, and sayde vnto them, What euyll thyng is this that ye do, and breake the sabboth day?

18 Dyd not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this cities: and ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the Sabboth?

19 And when the gates of Hierusalem began to be (c) darke before the sabboth, I commaunded to shut the gates, and charged that they should not be opened tyl after the sabboth: and some of my seruantes set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabboth day.

20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchantes once or twyce ouer nyght without Hierusalem with al maner of wares.

21 Then reproued I them, and sayde vnto them, Why tary ye al night about the walle? If ye do it once ageyne, I will lay handes vpon you: from that tyme forth came they no more on the sabboth.

22 And I sayde vnto the Leuites, that they shoulde cleanse themselues, and that they shoulde come and kepe the gates, to halowe the sabboth day. Thinke vpon me, O my God concernyng this also, and spare me according to thy great mercy.

23 In those dayes also saw I Iewes that maried wiues of Asdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their children spake halfe in the speache of Asdod, and could not speake in the Iewes language, but according to the language of the one people and of the other people.

25 Then I reproued them, and (d) cursed them, & smote certayne men of them, and made them sweare to them by God, Ye shal not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, nether shal ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, or for your selues.

26 Dyd not Salomon the kyng of Israel sinne by these thynges? and yet among many nacions was there no kyng like hym, which was beloued of his God, and God made hym kyng ouer al Israel: and yet nenertheles, outlandish women caused him to sinne.

27 Shall we then obey vnto you, to do all this great euyll, and to transgresse against our God, and marry strange wyues?

28 And one of the children of Ioiada, the sonne of Eliasib the high priest, was the sonne in lawe of Sanaballat the Horonite: but I chased hym from me.

29 O my God, thinke thou vpon them that defile the priesthood, and the couenant of the priesthood and of the Leuites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from al suche as were of straunge blood, and appointed the courses of the priestes and Leuites, euery one in his office:

31 And so after the wood at times appointed, and also for the first fruites. Thinke thou vpon me, O my God, for the best.

The booke of Esther.

The first Chapter.

3. Kyng Ahasuerus maketh a royal feast. 10. Whereunto the queene Vasthi wyll not come. 19. For whiche cause she is put away. 20. The kynges decree touching the preeminence of man ouer his wyfe.

A 1 NOw the dayes of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus whiche raigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred and twenty and seuen prouinces.)

2 In whole dayes when the kyng Ahasuerus sate on his seate (a) royal, which was in the palace of Susan:

3 In the thirde yeere of his raigne, he made a feast vnto all his princes and seruantes: and the mighty men of Persia and Media, the captaynes also and rulers of his countreys were before hym.

4 And he shewed the ryches & glory of his kyngdome, and the glorious worshyp of his greatnesse many dayes long, an hundred and fourescore dayes.

5 And when these dayes were expired, the kyng made a feaste vnto all the people that were in ỹ palace of Susan, both vnto great and small, seuen dayes long, in the court of the garden by the kynges palace,

6 Where there hanged white, greene, and * pelawe clothes, fastened with cordes of fyne silke and purple in siluer rynges, vpon pyllers of marble stones: the bedsteedes also were of golde and syluer made vpon a pauement of * greene, white, yelowe, and blacke marble.

7 And they dranke in vesselles of golde, and changed vessel after vessel, and royall wine in abundance, according to the power of the kyng.

8 And the drynkyng was by inuyted, none might compell: for so the kyng had appoynted to all the officers of his house, that they shoulde do according to euery mans pleasure.

9 And the queene Vasthi made a feast also for the women, in the palace of Ahasuerus.

10 And on the seuenth day when the kyng was merye after the wine, he commaunded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Thalma, Abagthan, Zethar, and Charchas, the seuen chamberlaynes that ministred in the presence of kyng Ahasuerus, 11 To fetche the queene Vasthi with the crowne royall into the kinges presence, that he myght shewe the people and princes her fayrenesse: for she was beautiful.

12 But the queene Vasthi wouldo not come at the kinges worde by his chamberlaynes: then was the kyng very wroth, and his indignation kindled in hym.

13 And the king spake to the wyse men whiche (b) knewe the tymes (for so was the kinges manner towardes all that knewe the lawes and the iudgementes:

14 And the next vnto hym were, Carsena, Sethar, Admata, Tharsis, Mares, Marsena, and Memuchan, the seuen princes of Persia and Media, whiche (c) sawe the kynges face, and sate the first in the kyngdome.)

15 What, shal we do vnto the queene Vasthi according to the lawe, because she dyd not according to the worde of the kyng Ahasuerus, whiche he commaunded by his chamberlaynes?

16 And Memuchan answered before the kyng and the princes, The queene Vasthi hath not only done euill against the kyng, but also against al the princes, and against al the people that are in all the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus.

17 For this deede of the queene shall come abroade vnto all women, so that they shal despise their husbandes before their eyes, and shal say, The kyng Ahasuerus commaunded Vasthi the queene to be brought in before hym, but she would not come.

18 And so shal the princesses in Persia and Media say lyke wyse this day vnto all the kynges princes, when they heare of this deede of the queene: thus shall there arise to much displesaunt nesse and wroth.

19 If it please the kyng, let there go a commaundement from hym, and let it be written according to the lawes of the Persians and Medians, and not to be transgressed, that Vasthi come no more before kyng Ahasuerus, and let the kyng geue her royall estate vnto another that is better then she.

20 And when this commaundement of the kyng which he shalbe made, is published throughout all his empire, (whiche is great,) all women shal honour nour both among great and small.

21 This lykyng pleased the kyng and the princes, and the king dyd according to the woorde of Memuchan.
22 For he sent letters foorth into all the kings prouinces, into euery lande according vnto the writting thereof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man should be lorde in his owne house: and this to be published after the languages of his people.

The .ii. Chapter.

2. After she queene is put away, certayne young maydens are brought to the kyng.
14. Esther pleaseth the king, and is made queene.

1 AFter these actes, when the displeasure of king Ahasuerus was nowe asswaged, he thought vpon Vashti, and what she had donne, and what was decreed against her.
2 Then said the kinges seruantes that ministred vnto him: Let there be faire young virgins sought for the king.
3 And let the kyng appoint officers in all the prouinces of his empire, that they shoulde bryng together all the faire young virgins vnto the palace of Susan to the womans buildyng, vnder the hande of Hegai the kinges chamberlayne that kept the women, to geue them their apparel.
4 And that the mayden which pleased the king, shoulde be queene in Vashtis stede. And this pleased the king, and he dyd so.
5 In the palace of Susan there was a certayne Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus, the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis, a man of Iemini,
6 Whiche was caryed away from Hierusalem with the captiuitie, when Iehonia the kyng of Iuda was led away, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caryed thence:
7 And he nourished Hadassa (that is Esther,) his vncles daughter: for she had neyther father nor mother, and he was a faire and beautifull mayden, whom Mardocheus (when her father & mother were dead) receyued for his owne daughter.
8 So when the kynges commaundement and commission was published, and many maydens were brought together into the palace of Susan vnder the hand of Hegai, Esther was brought also vnto the kinges house, vnder the hande of Hegai the keeper of the women.
9 And the mayden pleased him, & she found fauour in his sight: and he caused * ornamentes to be geuen her speedyly, and suche thinges as belonged to her, and appointed her seuen comely maydens out of the kings house, and fauoured both her and her gentlewomen singularly in the house of the women.
10 But Esther shewed not her people and her kinrede (for Mardocheus had charged her, that she should not tell it.
11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of the womens house, that he might knowe howe Esther dyd, and what shoulde become of her.
12 And when the appointed tyme of euery mayden came, that she shoulde goe in to the kyng. Ahasuerus, after that he had bene twelue moneths, according to the manner of women (for so were the dates of their purification accomplished, aye monethes with oyle of myrrhe, & sixe moneths with sweete odours, and in the purifying of the women:
13 And thus went the maydens vnto the king) what so euer she required, that must be geuen her, to goe with her out of the (a) womens * buylding vnto the kynges palace.
14 In the euening she went, and on the morowe she returned into the seconde house of the women, (a byding) vnder the hande of Saasgaz the kinges chamberlayne, which kept the concubines: and she came in vnto the king no more, except it pleased the kyng to haue her, and that she were called by name.
15 Nowe when the course came of Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardocheus (whiche had receyued her as his owne daughter) that she should come in vnto the kyng, she desyred nothing but what Hegai the kinges chamberlayne the keeper of the women sayde: and Esther founde fauour in the sight of all them that looked vpon her.
16 And Esther was taken vnto kyng Ahasuerus into his house royal, in the tenth moneth (whiche is the moneth (b) Tebeth) in the seuenth yeere of his raigne.
17 And the king loued Esther aboue all the women, and she founde grace and fauour in his sight, more then all the virgins, so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her queene in stead of Vashti.
18 And the king made a great feast vnto all his princes and seruantes, which feast was because of Esther, and caused the prouinces to be in (c) quietnesse, and gaue gifts as became the royaltie of a kyng.
19 And when the virgins were geathered together the second time, Mardocheus sate in the kinges gate.
20 And as yet had not Esther shewed her

* 07, and he gaue charge to her, and to her maydens, of the best in the house of the women.

(a) There were three houses appointed for women: one for virgins, another for concubines, the third for queenes.

kinrede and her people, according as Mardochee had wild her: for Esther did nothing vpon the worde of Mardocheus, like as yf she had ben yet vnder his gouernaunce.

21 At the same tyme (whyle Mardochee sate in the kinges gate) two of the kinges chamberlaines, Bigthana & Theres, which kepte the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay their handes on the king Assuerus.

22 Whereof also Mardocheus gate knowledge, and tolde it vnto queene Esther, and Esther certified the kyng thereof in Mardocheus name.

23 And when inquisition was made, the was founde so: and they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the Cronicles before the kyng.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Haman after he was exalted, obteyned of the kyng, that the Iewes should be put to death, because Mardocheus had not bowed nor worshipped him.

1 AFter these actes did kyng Assuerus promote Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, and set him on high, and set his seate aboue all the princes that he had with him.

2 And all the kinges seruantes that were in the kinges gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman, for the king had so commaunded concernyng him: but Mardocheus (a) bowed not the knees, neither did him reuerence.

3 Then the kynges seruantes whiche were in the kynges gate, spake vnto Mardocheus, Why transgressest thou the kings commaundement?

4 And though they spake this daily vnto him, yet wouldē he not heare them, therefore they tolde Haman, that they myght see howe Mardocheus matters would stand, for he had tolde them that he was a Iewe.

5 And when Haman sawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knees vnto him, nor dyd reuerence vnto him, he was ful of indignation.

6 And thoug he it to litle to lay handes only on Mardocheus, for they had shewed him the nation of Mardocheus: wherefore he sought to destroy all the Iewes that were throughout the whole Empire of Assuerus, and that were of the nation of Mardocheus.

7 In the fyrst moneth (that is the moneth Nisan) in the twelfth yeere of king Assuerus, they cast Phur, that is a (b) lot, before Haman from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelfth moneth, that is, the moneth Adar.

8 And Haman sayd vnto kyng Assuerus, There is a people scattered abroade, and dispersed among al people in all the prouinces of thyne empire, and their lawes are diuers from all people, and they kepe not the kinges lawes, therefore it is not the kinges pleasure to suffer them.

9 If it please the kyng, let it be written, that they may be destroyed: and so will I * way downe ten thousand talentes of siluer, by the handes of them that haue the charge of this businesse, to bryng it into the kinges treasurie. * Or, pay.

10 And the kyng toke his ryng from his hande, & gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, the Iewes enimie.

11 And the kyng sayde vnto Haman, Let the siluer be thyne, and doo with that people as it pleaseth thee.

12 Then were the kynges * scribes called, on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written according as Haman commaunded vnto all the kynges officers, and to the captaynes that were ouer euery prouince, & to the rulers of euery people in euery countreys in euery tong, according to the writyng hereof, and to euery nation after their language, in the name of kyng Assuerus was it written, and sealed with the kynges ryng. * Or, lettrins.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into al the kinges prouinces, to roote out, to kil, and to destroye all Iewes both yong and olde, children and women, in one day, vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, (which is the moneth Adar) and to spoyle them as a pray.

14 This was the tenore of the writyng, that there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in al prouinces, and published vnto al people, that they shoulde be redy against the same day. C Read verse 7.

15 And the posts went in al haste, according to the kinges commaundement, and in the palace of Susan was the commaundement deuised: and the kyng and Haman sate and dranke, when in the meane tyme the (c) citie of Susan was disquieted. (a) That is, the Iewes whiche were in Susa.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 Mardocheus geueth the queene knowledge of the euell degree of the kyng against the Iewes. 16. She willeth that they pray for her.

1 WHen Mardocheus perceyued al that was donne, he rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth with asshes, & went out into the middes of the citie, and cryed loude and lamentably.

2 And came before the kinges gate, but he might mighte not enter within the kinges gate, because he had sackecloth on.

3 And in al prouinces, countreyes, and places, as farre as the kynges worde and commaundement came, there was great lamentation among the Iewes, fasting, weeping, and mourning, and many lay in sackecloth and in ashes.

4 So Esthers maydens, and her chamberlaynes, came, and tolde it her: then was the queene exceedyngly astonied, and she sent rayment, that Mardocheus should put on, and lay the sackecloth from him: but Mardocheus would not take them.

5 Then called Esther Hathach, (one) of the kinges chamberlaynes, whiche stoode before her, & gaue him a commaundement vnto Mardocheus, to knowe what it was wherefore he dyd so.

6 So Hathach went forth to Mardocheus, vnto the streete of the citie, whiche was before the kinges gate:

7 And Mardocheus told him of al that had come vnto him, and of "the summe of syluer that Haman had promised to way down into the kinges treasurie, because of the Iewes, if he would destroy them.

8 And he gaue him the copie of the kynges commaundement that was deuised at Susan, to destroy them, that he might shewe it vnto Esther, and to speake to her, and to charge her that she shoulde goe in vnto the king, and make her prayer and supplication vnto him for her people.

9 And when Hathach came in, he tolde Esther the woordes of Mardocheus.

10 And againe Esther spake vnto Hathach, and commaunded him (to say) vnto Mardocheus, 11 Al the kinges seruantes, and the people in the prouinces of the king knowe, that whosoeuer commeth within the court vnto the king, whether it be man or woman, whiche is not called, "the commaundement is, that the same shal dye, excepte the king hold out the golden scepter vnto him, for then he shal liue: but I haue not ben called to come in vnto the king now this thirtie dayes.

12 And when Mardocheus was certified of Esthers woordes, 13 Mardocheus bade say againe vnto Esther, Thinke not with thee selfe that thou shalt escape in the kinges house more then al the Iewes.

14 For if thou holdest thy peace at this time, then shal the Iewes haue "helpe and deliuerance out of an (a) other place, and thou and thy fathers house shalbe destroied: And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdome "for this cause sake?

15 Esther bade them giue Mardocheus this answere,

16 Go and gather al the Iewes that are founde at Susan, and fast ye for me, that ye eate not and drynke not in thre dayes, neyther day nor nyght, I and my maydens wyl fast likewise: and so wyl I goe in vnto the king, whiche thing is yet contrarye to the commaundement, and (b) if I perish, I perishe.

17 So Mardocheus went his way, and did according al that Esther had commaunded him.

The. v. Chapter.

I. Esther entreth in vnto the kyng, and byddeth hym and Haman to a feast. II. Haman prepareth a gallous for Mardocheus.

1 AND on the thirde day, Esther put on her royal apparel, and stoode in the court of the kinges palace within, ouer against the kinges house: and the kyng sate vppon his royal seate in the kinges palace, ouer against the gate of the house.

2 And when the kyng sawe Esther the queene standyng in the courte, she founde grace in his syght: and the kyng helde out the golden scepter that was in his hande: So Esther stept forth, and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then sayd the kyng vnto her, What wylt thou, queene Esther? and what requirest thou? (aske) euen the halfe of the empire, and it shalbe geuen thee.

4 And Esther answeared, If it please the kyng, let the kyng and Haman comme this day vnto the banquet that I haue prepared for him.

5 And the kyng sayde, Cause Haman to make hast, that he may doo as Esther hath sayde. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the kyng sayde vnto Esther at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? And what requirest thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empire, it shalbe donne.

7 Then answeared Esther, and sayde, My petition and desire is,

8 If I haue founde grace in the sight of the kyng, and if it please the kyng to geue me my petition, and to fulfyl my requeste, then let the king and Haman comme to the banquet that I shal prepare for them, & so wyl I doo to morowe as the king hath sayde.

9 Then went Haman forth the same day ioyful & merry in his minde: but when Haman man sawe Mardochens in the kinges gate, that he stoode not vp, nor mooued for hym, he was ful of indignation at Mardocheus.

10 Neuerthelesse, Haman refrayned hym selfe, and when he came home, he sent and called for his frendes, and Zares his wyfe.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his richesse, and the multitude of his children, and al the thinges wherein the king had (a) promoted him so greatly, and how that he had set him aboue the princes, and seruants of the king.

12 Haman sayde moreouer, Yea Esther the queene dyd let no man comme in with the king vnto the banquet that she had prepared, except me: and to morow am I bydden vnto her also with the king.

13 But in al this am I not satisfied, as long as I see Mardocheus the Iewe sitting at the kinges gate.

14 Then sayde (b) Zares his wyfe, & al his frendes vnto him, Let them make a gallous of fiftie cubites high, and to morowe speake thou vnto the king that Mardocheus may be hanged theron: then go thou in merely with the king vnto the banquet. And Haman was wel content withal, and caused the gallous to be made.

(a) Thus the wicked when they are promooted in stead of considering their charge, & humbling them selues, waxe ambitious, disdaynful, & cruel.

(b) The comfort & counsel which he receiued of his wife, and freendes, through the prouidence of God, was turned to his destruction.

The. vi. Chapter.

1. The kyng turneth ouer the Chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus, 10. and commaundeth Haman to cause Mardocheus to be had in honour.

A 1 THE same nyght could not the kyng sleepe, and he commaunded to bryng the * Chronicles and Stories: & they were read before the kyng.

2 Then it was founde written, howe Mardocheus had told that Bigthana & Theres the kinges two chamberlaynes which keapt the * doores, sought to laye handes on kyng Ahasuerus.

3 And the kyng saide, What honour and dignitie hath benne geuen to Mardocheus therefore? Then sayd the kinges seruantes that ministred vnto him, There is nothing at al done for him.

4 And the king said, Who is in the court? (for Haman was come into the court without before the kinges house, that he might speake vnto the king to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the kinges seruantes said vnto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king sayd, Let him come in.

6 And when Haman came in, the king sayd vnto him, What shalbe done vnto the man whom the king would fayne bryng vnto worshyp? (Haman thought in his harte, Whom delireth the king to bring vnto worshyp more then me?)

7 And Haman answeared the kyng, Let the man whom the king pleaseth to bring vnto worshyp, be brought hyther, B

8 That he maye be arayed with the royall garmentes whiche the king vseth to weare, and the horse that the kyng rydeth vpon, & that the crowne royal may be set vppon his head:

9 And let this rayment and horse be deliuered vnder the hand of one of the kyngs most noble princes, that they may araye the man withal, whom the king is disposed to bring to honour; and cause him to ryde vpon the horse through the streete of the citie, and proclayme before hym: Thus shal it be done to the man whom the king pleaseth to bring to honour.

10 And the kyng sayde to Haman, Make hast, & take as thou hast said, the rayment & the horse, and doe so vnto Mardocheus the Iew, that sytteth before the kings gate: and let nothing faile of al that thou hast spoken.

11 Then tooke Haman the rayment, and the horse, and arayed Mardocheus, and brought him on horsebacke through the streete of the citie, and proclaymed before him, Thus shal it be donne vnto the man whom the kyng is disposed to honour.

12 And Mardocheus came agayne to the kinges gate: but Haman gate him home in al the hast e mourning, & his head couered.

13 And tolde Zares his wyfe, and all his frendes, euery thyng that had befallen hym. Then saide his wise men, and Zares his wife vnto him, If it be Mardocheus, of the seede of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begunne to fal, thou shalt not preuayle against him, but shalt surely (a) fal before hym.

14 And whyle they were yet talking with hym, came the kinges chamberlaines, and caused Haman to make haste to come vnto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

(a) That is commonly preached in the mouth of the very wicked, to speake the thing which he hath decreed to come to passe.

The. vii. Chapter.

3. The queene prayeth for her selfe, and her people. 6. Shee accuseth Haman, and he is hanged on the gallous whiche he had prepared for Mardocheus.

1 AND the kyng and Haman came to A banquet with queene Esther.

2 And the kyng sayd againe vnto Esther on the seconde day, at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, queene Esther, that it maye be geuen thee? and what Esth. 5.

requyrest thou? If it be euen to halfe of the empire, it shalbe done.

3 And Esther the queene answeared, and sayde, If I haue founde grace in thy syght, O kyng, & if it please the kyng, then graunt me my lyfe at my desyre, and my people, for my petitions sake.

4 For we are solde, I, and my people to be destroyed, to be slayne, and to perishe: and would God that we were solde to be bondmen, and bondwomen, then would I holde my tongue: although the enimie could not recompence the kynges (a) losse.

(a) Meaning the tribute whiche the Iewes payde vnto the kyng.

5 The kyng Ahasuerus answeared, and sayde vnto queene Esther, Who is he? and where is he that dare presume in his minde to doo after that maner?

6 And Esther sayde, The enimie and aduersarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedyngly afrayde before the kyng and the queene.

B 7 And the kyng arose from the banquet, and from the wine in his displeasure, & (went) into the palace garden: and Haman stoode vp, & besought queene Esther for his lyfe: for he sawe that there was a mischeefe prepared for hym of the kyng alredy.

8 And when the kyng came agayne out of the palace garden, into the place where they dranke wine, Haman had layd him vpō the bed that Esther sate vpon. Then sayde the kyng, Wyl he force the queene also before me in the house: As soone as that woorde went out of the kyngs mouth, they (b) couered Hamans face.

(b) This was the maner of the Persians whē one was out of the kyngs fauor, Hest. 2. b.

9 And Harbona, one of the chamberlaynes that stoode before the kyng, sayde, Behold, there standeth yet a gallous in Hamans house, fyftie cubites hygh, whiche he had made for Mardocheus, that spake good for the kyng. Then the kyng sayde, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallous that he had made for Mardocheus: Then was the kynges wrath pacified.

The. viii. Chapter.

1. After the death of Haman, was Mardocheus exalted. 14. Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

ON the same day dyd king Ahasuerus gene the house of Haman the Iewes enimie, vnto queene Esther, and Mardocheus came before the kyng: for Esther told what he was vnto her.

2 And the king tooke of his ryng whiche he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Esther set Mardocheus ouer the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet more before the kyng, and fell downe at his feete weeping, and besought hym that he would put away the wickednesse of Haman the Agagite, & his deuice that he had imagined against the Iewes.

4 And the kyng held out the golden scepter toward Esther. Then rose Esther, and stoode before the kyng,

5 And sayde, If it please the kyng, and if I haue found grace in his syght, and if it be acceptable before the kyng, & I please hym, then let it be wrytten, that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may be called agayne, whiche letters he wrote to destroy the Iewes whiche are in al the kynges prouinces.

6 For howe can I suffer and see the euyll that shall come vnto my people? or howe can I beare and looke vpon the destruction of my kynrede?

7 And the king Ahasuerus sayd vnto queene Esther, and to Mardocheus the Iewe, Behold, I haue geuen Esther the house of Haman, whom they haue hanged vpon a tree, because he layde hande vpon the Iewes. B

8 Write ye also for the Iewes as it lyketh you in the kynges name, and seale it with the kynges ryng: For the wrytynges that were wrytten in the kynges name, and sealed with the kinges ryng, durst no man disanul.

9 Then were the kynges scribes called at the same tyme, euen in the thirde moneth (that is, in the moneth (a) Siuan) on the three and twentieth day therof, and it was wrytten accordyng to all as Mardocheus commaunded, vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the deputies and captaynes in the prouinces whiche are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely, an hundred, twentie and seuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince accordyng to the wrytyng thereof, and vnto euery people after their speache, and to the Iewes according vnto their wryting and language. Dan. 6. c.

(a) Whiche conteyneth part of May, and part of Iune.

10 And he wrote in ꝑ kyng Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kynges ryng, and by postes that rode vpon horses, and swyft yong Mules, sent he the wrytinges,

11 Wherein the kyng graunted the Iewes, in what cities soeuer they were, to gather them selues together, and to (b) stande for their lyfe, and to roote out, to slay, and to destroy al the power of the people and prouince that woulde trouble them, both the chyldren, and women, and to spoyle their goodes:

(b) That is, to defend them selues against al that would assaile them.

day of the twelfth moneth, whiche is the moneth Adar.

Esther.3.b. 13 The tenour of the writyng was, howe there shoulde bee a commaundement geuen in all and euery prouince, and published among al people, and that the Iewes should be redy against that day, to auenge them selues on their enimies.

14 And so the Posters that rode vppon the fayre horses and Mules, made haste with al speede to execute the kynges worde: and the commaundement was deuised in the pallace of Susan.

15 And Mardochens went out from ỹ kyng in royal apparel, of * pelowe and whyte, and with a great crowne of golde, beyng arayed with a garmente * of sylke and purple: and the citie of Susan reioyced, and was glad.

* or, blewe.

* or, fyne lynnen.

16 And vnto the Iewes there was come lyght and gladnesse, ioy, and worshyp.

17 In all prouinces and cities, into what places soeuer the kynges worde and commaundement reached, (there was) ioy and mirth, a feast and good dayes among the Iewes: insomuche that many of the people of the lande became Iewes, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

The.ix. Chapter.

1. At the commaundement of the kyng, the Iewes put their aduersaries to death. 14. The ten sonnes of Haman are hanged.

A 1 IN the twelfth moneth (that is, the moneth Adar) vppon the thirtienth day of the same, when the kynges worde and commaundment drewe neare to be put in execution, in the day that the enimies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them.

Esther.3.b.

2 For then gathered the Iewes together in their cities within al the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus, to laye hande on suche as woulde doo them euyll, and no man coulde withstand them: for the feare of them was come ouer al people.

3 And al the rulers in the prouinces, and princes, and deputies, and officers of the kyng, promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardochens came vpon them.

4 For Mardochens was great in the kynges house, and the report of hym was noysed in al the prouinces: for this man Mardochens waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enimies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and dyd what they woulde vnto their enimies.

6 And at the pallace of Susan, the Iewes destroyed (a) fyue hundred men.

7 And slue Pharsandatha, Dalphon, Aphatha,

(a) Beside those three hundred that they slue the seconde day, as ye reade.

11 At the same tyme was the kyng certified of the number of those that were slayne in the palace of Susan.

* or, in the pay.

12 And the king saide vnto queene Esther, The Iewes haue slayne and destroyed fyue hundred men in the palace of Susan, and the ten sonnes of Haman: What haue they done (thinkest thou) in other landes of the king? And what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? or what requirest thou more to be done?

13 Esther answered, If it please the kyng, let him suffer the Iewes which are in Susan, to morowe also to doo accordyng vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans ten sonnes vpon the tree.

14 And the king charged to doo so: and the decree was deuised at Susan, & they hanged Hamans ten sonnes.

15 For the Iewes that were in Susan, gathered them selues together vpon the fourtienth day of the moneth Adar, and slue three hundred men at Susan: but on their goodes they layde no handes.

Esther.

16 As for the other Iewes that were in the kynges prouinces, they came together, and stoode for their liues, and had rest from their enimies, and slue of their enimies seuentie and fiue thousande: howbeit, they layde no handes on their goodes.

17 (This they dyd) on the thirtienth day of the moneth Adar, and on the fourtienth day of the same moneth rested they, whiche day they held with feasting and gladnesse.

18 But ỹ Iewes that were at Susan, came together, both on the thirtienth day, and on the fourtienth: and on the fyftienth day of the same they rested, and helde that day with feastyng and gladnesse.

19 And therefore the Iewes that dwelt in the villages, & vnwalled townes, helde the fourtienth day of the moneth Adar with gladnesse and feastyng, and (b) kept holye day, and euery one sent presentes vnto his neyghbour.

23 And the Iewes promiſed to doo as they had begun, and as Mardocheus had wrytten vnto them:
24 Becauſe Haman the ſonne of Hamadatha the Agagite, al the Iewes enimie, had deuiſed againſt the Iewes, howe he might deſtroy them, and cauſed to caſt Phur, (that is a lot,) for to conſume them, and to bring them to nought.
25 But when Eſther came before the king, he commaunded by letters, that his wicked deuice, which he imagined againſt the Iewes, ſhould be turned vpon his owne head, and that he and his ſonnes ſhoulde be hanged on the tree.
26 For the whiche cauſe they called theſe dayes Phurim, becauſe of the name of the lot, and becauſe of al the wooꝛdes of this wꝛityng, and what they ſuffred ſelues had ſeene, and what had come vnto them:
27 And the Iewes ooꝛdeyned, and tooke it vpon them and their ſeede, and vpon al ſuch as ioyned them ſelues vnto them, that they would not miſſe, but obſerue theſe two dayes yeerely, accooꝛding as they were wꝛitten and appoynted in their ſeaſon.
28 And that theſe dayes are to be remembred, and to be kept of chylders chyldren among al kinredes in al landes and cities: in theſe dayes of Phurim, whiche are not to be ouerſlypt among the Iewes, and the memoꝛial of them ought not to periſh from their ſeede.
29 And queene Eſther the daughter of Abihail, and Mardocheus the Iewe, wꝛote with al auctheꝛitie to confiꝛme this ſecond wꝛityng of Phurim.
30 And he ſent the letters vnto al the Iewes, to the hundꝛed twentie and ſeuen pꝛouinces of the Empire of Ahaſuerus, with wooꝛdes of peace and trueth:
31 To confiꝛme theſe dayes of Phurim in their tymes appoynted, accooꝛdyng as Mardochens the Iewe, and Eſther the queene had appoynted them: and they bownd their ſoule and their ſeede to faſting & pꝛayer. or, ſelues.
32 And the decree of Eſther confiꝛmed theſe wooꝛdes of Phurim, and was wꝛitten in the booke.
33 And the king Ahaſuerus layde tributs vpon the lande, and vpon the Iles of the ſea.
34 And al the actes of his power, and of his myght, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mardocheus, wherewith the king magnified him, be they not wꝛitten in the bokes of the Chꝛonicles of the kinges of Medes and Perſia?
35 For Mardocheus the Iewe, was the ſeconde next vnto king Ahaſuerus, and great among the Iewes, and accepted among the multitude of his bꝛethꝛen, as one that ſeeketh the wealth of his people, and ſpeaketh peaceably to al his ſeede.

17 And whyle he was yet ſpeaking, there came another, and ſayde, The Chaldees made out three bandes, and fel vpon the Cammelles, and haue caryed them away, yea, & ſlaine thy ſeruantes with the ſwoord, and I onely am gotten away alone to tell thee.

18 And while he was yet ſpeaking, there came another, and ſayde, Thy ſonnes and thy daughters were eating and drinking wyne in their eldeſt brothers houſe, 19 And beholde, there came a mighty great wynde from beyonde the wyldernes, and ſmote the foure corners of the houſe, which fel vpon thy children, & they are dead, and I am gotten alway alone to tel thee.

20 Then Iob ſtoode vp, and (i) rent his clothes, and haued his head, fel downe vpon the grounde, worſhypped, 21 And ſaide, Naked came I out of my mothers woombe, and naked ſhal I turne (k) thyther againe: the Lord gaue, and the Lord hath taken away, bleſſed be the name of the Lorde.

22 In al theſe thinges dyd Iob not offend, nor charged God foolithly.

(k) Whereby is meant the belly of the earth, which is the mother of vs al.

The.ii. Chapter.

9. Iobs wyfe tempteth hym to forſake God.
11. His three freendes viſite hym.

1 AND on a day, the chyldren of GOD came and ſtoode before the Lorde, and Satan came alſo among them, & ſtood before the Lorde.

2 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, From whence commeſt thou? Satan anſwered the Lorde, and ſayde, I haue gone about the lande, and walked thyrough it.

3 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Haſte thou not conſydered my ſeruant Iob? howe there is none like vnto him in the earth, a perfecte and a iuſte man, one that feareth God, and eſcheweth euyl, and continueth ſtyl in his vprightneſſe, although thou mouedſt me againſt him, to deſtroy hym (a) without cauſe.

4 And Satan anſwearedthe Lorde, and ſaid, (b) Skynne for skynne, yea, a man will geue al that euer he hath for his lyfe.

5 But lay thine hande nowe vpon him, and touche his bone and his fleſhe, and he ſhal curſe thee to thy face.

6 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Loe, he is in thine hande, but ſaue his lyfe.

7 So went Satan forth from the preſence of the Lorde, & ſmote Iob with ſore byles, from the ſole of his foote, vnto his crowne.

8 And he tooke a potſharde to ſcrape hym: and he ſate downe among the aſhes.

9 Then ſayde his wyfe vnto hym, Doeſt thou continue yet in thy perfectneſſe? (c) curſe God, and dye.

10 But he ſayde vnto her, Thou ſpeakeſt like a fooliſhe woman: ſhal we receiue good at the hande of God, & (d) not receiue euyl? In al theſe thinges did not Iob ſinne with his lyppes.

11 Nowe when Iobs three freendes heard of al the trouble that came vpon hym, they came euery one frō his owne place (namely) Eliphaz the Themanite, Bildad the Suhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they were agreed togeather, to comme to ſhewe their compaſſion vpon him, and to comfort hym.

(a) Iob.1.c.
Iob.1.b.
(a) God alwayes lokis innocencie, becauſe he ceaſſed not to ſeeke god although he tryed hym with ſore crauelles. Satan no queſt.
(b) That is as a man will be content with the loſſe of an other mans ſkynne ſo he maye ſpare his owne: ſo is it high content to beare the loſſe of his children ſkynne, lyues, ſubſtance, dyes in prayſe, ſo that he ſaue his owne body to be touched.
(c) For ſo was ſpoken to Adam that he ſhould eate of the fruite of the tree of knowledge of good & euyl.
(d) That is, we reioyce when he ſendeth

hym.
12 So when they lift vp their eyes a farre of, they knewe hym not then they cryed, and weapt, and euery one of them rent his clothes, and spynckled duste vpon their heades "in the ayre.
13 They sate them downe by him also vpon the ground seuen dayes and seuen nightes, and none spake a worde vnto him, for they sawe that his greefe was very great.

The. iii. Chapter.

1. Iob complayneth, and curseth the day of his byrth. 11. He desyreth to dye, as though death were the ende of al mans miserie.

A 1 AFter (a) this opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his day.
2 And Iob answeared, and sayd,
3 Let the day perishe wherin I was borne, (b) and the night in the which it was said, There is a man chylde conceyued.
4 The same day be (turned to) darkenesse, and not regarded of God from aboue, neyther let the lyght shyne vpon it.
5 But let it be stayned with darkenesse and the shadow of death, let the (dimme) cloude sal vpon it, which may make it terrible, as a most byttter day.
6 Let the darke stormе ouercome that night: and let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor conned in the number of the monethes.
B 7 Desolate be that nyght, and without gladnesse.
8 Let them that curse the day, and that be redy to rayse vp mournyng, geue it also their curse.
9 Let the starres of that "nyght be dymme through darknesse of it, let it loke for light, but haue none, (c) neyther let it see the dawnyng of the day.
10 Because it shut not vp the doores of my mothers wombe, nor hid sorowe from mine eyes.
11 Why dyed I not in the byrth? Why dyd not I perishe as soone as I came out of the wombe?
12 Why set they me vpon their knees? Why gaue they me sucke with their brestes?
13 Then shoulde I nowe haue lyen styll, I shoulde haue slept, and ben at rest,
C 14 Lyke as the kynges and "lordes of the earth, whiche haue buylded them selues "specyal places:
15 Or as the princes that haue had golde, and their houses ful of syluer:
16 Or (why) was not I hid as a thing borne out of tyme, (eyther) as young chyldren whiche neuer sawe the lyght?
17 There (d) must the wicked ceasse from their tyrannie, and there suche as laboured valiantly, be at rest.
18 There the (e) prisoners rest together, they heare no more the voyce of the oppressour:
19 There are small and great, and the seruant (is) free from his master.
20 Wherfore is the lyght geuen to him that is in miserie? and lyfe vnto them that haue heauie hartes?
21 Whiche long for death, and fynde it not, though they searche more for it, then for treasures:
22 Which reioyce exceedingly, and be glad when they can fynde the graue.
23 From whom their endes are hyd, and concealed by God?
24 For my syghes come before I eate, and my rosinges are powred out like the water:
25 For the thing that (f) I feared, is come vpon me, and the thing that I was afrayd of, is happened vnto me.
26 Was I not happie? Had I not quietnesse? Was I not in rest? and nowe commeth suche miserie vpon me.

(d) That is death is the end & helpe from the tirannie and wickednesse of them.
(e) Here Iob declareth the sore plagues he bare, cositing him self in worse state then the vilest persons, and bounde prisoners: of which cares, after opinion of the flesshe, he accompteth death the only end.
(f) That is, aduersitie, which being in prosperitie, he feared

The. iiii. Chapter.

5. Eliphaz blameth Iob for impatiencie, 7. vniustice, and for the presumption of his owne ryghteousnesse.

1 AND Eliphaz the Themanite answered, and sayde,
2 If we assay to commune with thee, wylt thou be discontent? (a) But who can withholde hym selfe from speakyng?
3 Beholde, thou hast benne an instructer of manye, and hast strengthened the (b) weery handes.
4 Thy woords haue set vp him that was fallyng, thou hast refreshed the weake knees.
5 But nowe it is come vpon thee, and thou art grieued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.
6 Is this thy feare, thy confidence, thy hope, and thy (c) vpryght lyuyng?
7 Consyder, I pray thee, who euer perished beyng an innocent? or when were the godly destroyed?
8 For as I haue proued by experience, they that plowe iniquitie, and sowe wretchednesse, reape the same.
9 With the blast of God they perishe, with the breath of his nosethyrles are they consumed away.
10 The roaring of the Lion, and the voyce of the Lion, & the teeth of the Lions whelpes are pulled out.
11 The (d) Lion perisheth for lacke of pray, and the Lions whelps are scattered abroade.
12 But

A (a) Because of thy sore affliction, and thy impatiencie.
(b) Meanyng thou hast holpen and comforted many in misery, & canst thou not rule thee selfe nowe?
(c) By this he gathereth that Iob was but an hypocrite, & had not perfecte feare nor trust in god.
(d) That is, God wyl punish tyrants, whiche are compared to Lions, although men neglectyng their office, doo wynke at them.

(c) Here Eliphaz sheweth the maner of diuine reuelation by the holy ghost, saying that that whiche he wyl now declare, is not humane reason, but as reuealed vnto hym from God.

12 But whereas a thyng was (c) hyd from me, yet myne eare hath receyued a litle thereof.
13 In the thoughts and visions of the night, when sleepe commeth on men, 14 Feare came vpon me, and dread, whiche made al my bones to shake.
15 The winde passed by before my presence, and made the heares of my flesh to stand vp.
16 It stoode, and I knew not the face thereof, an image there was before myne eyes, & in the stylnesse heard I a voyce.
17 Shal man be more iuste then God? or shal a man be purer then his maker?
18 Beholde, he founde not trueth in his seruantes, and in his angels there was folie:
19 Howe muche more in them that dwell in (f) houses of clay, and whose fundation is but duste, whiche shalbe consumed, as it were with a moth?
20 They shalbe smitten from the morning vnto the euening: yea, they shal perishe for euer, when no man regardeth them.
21 Is not their royaltie gonne away with them? they shal die truely, and not in wisedome.

(f) Meanyng mans bodye, which is nothyng but dust and clay 2. Cor. 5. vearse. 1.

The.v. Chapter.

I. 2. Eliphaz sheweth the difference betwene the chidren of God, and the wicked.

A
(a) He wylleth Iob to consyder the exemple of al them that haue lyued godly, whether any of them were plagued in suche sorte as he was.

1 CRye, I pray thee, yf there be any that wyl answeare thee; and (a) looke thou vpon any of the holy.
2 As for the foolishe man, wrath kylleth hym, and enuie slayeth the ignorant.
3 I haue seene mee selfe when the foolyshe was deepe rooted, and sodainely I cursed his habitation.
4 His children were without prosperitie, and they were slayne in the gate, and there was no man to delyuer them.
5 His harueste was eaten of the hungry, and taken from among the thornes, & the thirsty dranke vp their labour: 2. it is not the earth that bryngeth forth iniquitie,
6 Neyther commeth sorowe out of the grounde:

B
(b) If I were in thy case, I would seeke helpe of God, saith Eliphaz.

7 But man is borne vnto labour, like as the sparkes flee vp.
8 But (b) I would alke counsel at the lord, and talke with God:
9 Whiche doeth great thynges, and vnsearchable, (and) marueyles without number.
10 He geueth rayne vppon the earth, and powreth water vpon the streetes, 11 To set vp them that be of lowe degree, & that those whiche are in heauinesse may be exalted to saluation.
12 He destroyeth the deuises of the subtil, so that their handes are not able to performe that which they be enterprise.
13 He compasseth the wyse in their owne craftinesse, and maketh foolishe the counsayle of the wicked.
14 They run into (c) darknes by fayre day, and grope at the noone day, as in the night.
15 But he delyuereth the poore from the swoorde, from their threatnynges, and from the violence of the myghtie.
16 He is the hope of the poore, & the mouth of the wicked shalbe stopped.
17 Beholde, blessed is the man whom God correcteth, therfore refuse not thou the chastenyng of the almyghtie.
18 For he maketh a wound, and he healeth: he smyteth, and his handes maketh whole agayne.
19 He shal deliuer thee in (d) syxe troubles, and in the seuenth there shall no euyll come to thee.
20 In hunger he shal saue thee from death, and when it is warre, from the power of the swoorde.
21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue, and when destruction commeth thou shalt not neede to feare.
22 In destruction and dearth thou shalt be merry, & shalt not be afrayde of the beastes of the earth.
23 For the (e) stones of the land shalbe confederate with thee, and the beastes of the fielde shalbe at peace with thee.
24 And thou shalt know that thy dwellyng place shalbe in rest, and thou shalt visite thy habitation, and shalt not (f) sinne.
25 Thou shalt see also that thy seede shalbe great, and thy posteritie as the grasse vpon the earth.
26 Thou shalt come also to thy graue in a ful age, like a corne heape cut downe in due season.
27 Loe, this we our selues haue proued by experience, and euen thus it is: hearken thou to it also, that thou mayest take heede to thee selfe.

(c) That is, in thy prosperitie and playne, thou want godly wisedome and grace to se.

(d) Alludyng to the sixe daies of the first worke, and the .7. secret rested from worke, signifying that all thy troubles shal haue ende, and God shal deliuer thee in the .7. (e) That is, that thou shalt haue good fortune, & al creatures shal be at thy wyl seruaunt to our good.
(f) God shal so blesse thee that thou shalt not offende in al thynges, and neyther be greeued

The.vi. Chapter.

1. Iob answereth that his payne is more greeuous then his fault. 8. He wysheth death. 14. He complayneth of his freendes.

1 BVt Iob answeared, and sayde,
2 O that my complaynt were (a) truely weighed, & my younishment layde in the ballances together:
3 For nowe it would be heauier then the sande of the sea: and this is the cause that my woordes sayle me.
4 For the arrowes of the almyghty are vpon me, the poyson therof hath dranke vp my spirite, and the terrible (b) feares of God are set agaynst me.

(a) Meaning that his troubles are of greater and greuouser nature, as the sandes of the sea.
(b) Desperation ragyng in his bodyly, was not so much afflicted outwardly as his mynde

5 Doeth

5 Doth the wylde Asse roze when he hath grasse? or loweth the oxe when he hath fodder?

6 That whiche is vnsauerie, (c) shal it be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the whyte of an egge?

7 The thynges that sometyme I myght not awaye withal, are nowe my meate, for very sorowe.

8 O that I myght haue my desyre, and that GOD would graunt me the thyng that I long for.

9 O that God wolde begin and smite me, that he wolde let his hande goe and take me cleane away:

10 Then shoulde I haue some comfort, yea I wolde desyre hym in my payne, that he would not spare, (d) for I wil not deny the wordes of the holy one.

11 For what power haue I to endure? and what is my ende, "that my soule myght be patient?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesche of brasse?

13 Is it not so that there is in me no helpe: and that my substance is taken from me?

14 He that is in tribulation, ought to be comforted of his neighbour: but the feare of the almyghtie is cleane away.

15 Mine owne brethren passe ouer by me as the water brooke, and as the ouerflowyng of waters which do hastily goe away.

16 Which are blackishe because of the yce, and wherein the snowe is hyd.

17 Which when they haue passed by, do vanishe: and when the heate commeth, they fayle out of theyr place.

18 They depart from the course of theyr wonted chanel to other places, they run in payne, and perishe.

19 They that went to (e) Theman consydered them, and they that went to Saba hayted for them.

20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thyther, and were ashamed.

21 Euen suche truely are ye, nowe that ye see my miserie ye are afrayde.

22 Dyd I desyre you to bryng vnto me, or to geue me any of your substance?

23 To deliuer me from the enimies hande, or to saue me from the hand of the tirantes?

24 Teache me, and I wyl holde my tongue: and wherein I haue erred, cause me to vnderstande.

25 Howe strong are the wordes of trueth? and whiche of you can rebuke or reproue them?

26 Do ye imagine to reproome (f) wordes, that the talke of the afflicted shoulde be as the winde?

27 Ye fal vpon the fatherlesse, and dygge a pyt to ouerthrowe your owne frende.

28 And therefore be content, and (g) looke nowe vpon me, and I wyll not lye before your face.

29 Turne, I pray you, "be indifferent iudges: turne agayne, (and ye shall see) myne vngyltinesse, whether there be any vnryghteousnesse in my tongue, or payne wordes in my mouth.

(g) To consyder my cause whether I sayue or no

" Heb. Let there be none iniquitie.

The.vii. Chapter.

1. Iob sheweth the shortnesse and misery of mans lyfe.

1 IS there not an appoynted tyme to man vpon earth? are not his dayes also lyke the dayes of an (a) hyred seruant?

2 For lyke as a bonde seruant desyreth the shadowe, and as an hyrelyng woulde fayne haue the rewarde of his worke:

3 Euen so haue I laboured whole monethes long in payne, and many a carefull myght haue I tolde.

4 When I layde me downe to sleepe, I sayde, O when shal I aryse? and (b) measuryng the euenyng, I am euen full with tossyng to and fro vnto the dawnyng of the day.

5 My flesche (c) is clothed with wormes, and dust of the earth: my skinne is wythered and become horrible.

6 My dayes passe ouer more speedyly then a weauers shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is but a winde, and that mine eye shall no more see pleasures:

8 Yea and the eye that hath seene me, shall see me no more: for yet thou (d) fastenest thyne eye vpon me, I come to nought.

9 The cloude is consumed and vanished away: so he that goeth downe to the graue, (e) shal come no more vp,

10 Nor turne agayne vnto his house, neyther shal his place knowe him any more.

11 Therefore (f) I will not spare my mouth, but I will speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bytternesse of my mynde.

12 Am I a sea or a whale fyshe, that thou keepest me so in prysone?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, I shal haue some refreshyng by talkyng to mee selfe vpon my couche:

14 Then fearest thou me (g) with dreames, and makest me so afrayde through visions,

(a) Meanyng that his case is worse then eyther the hirelyng or bondman.

(b) Declaring his sore paynes, in that eche houre was loathsome & greeuous vnto hym.

(c) Hereby he sheweth why he was so despised, in that his disease was very strange and horrible.

(d) That is, fasten thy iudgement, whiche is so heauie, that I can not beare it.

(e) Before the general iudgment.

(f) That is, seeyng my life vanisheth as the winde, & that there is no returne after death, I wyl refreshe mee selfe by expressyng the greefe of my burdened mynde.

(g) That is, I am in extremeall affliction continually nights & dayes.

15 That my soule wysheth rather to perysshe and dye, then my bones to remayne.
16 I am weerie, I shal not liue alway: (h) O spare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.
17 What (i) is man that thou doest magnifie him? and that thou settest thine hart vpon him?
18 Thou visitest hym early and euery day, euery moment doest thou trye him.
19 Why (k) goest thou not fro me, nor lettest me alone, so long tyl I may swalow downe my spittle?
20 I haue offended, what shall I do vnto thee, O thou preseruer of men? Why hast thou set me (as a marke) against thee, so that I am a burden to mee selfe?
21 Why doest thou not pardon my trespasses, and take away mine iniquitie? Behold, now must I sleepe in the dust, and if thou seekest me in the morning, I shal not be.

(h) Seeing I haue so litle time to lyue, geue me some rest.
(i) As though Iob had said, there is no cause why thou shouldest esteeme man.
(k) Why doest thou not ceasse to punishe me?

The.viii. Chapter.

1. Bildad sheweth that Iob is a sinner, because God punisheth the wycked, and preserueth the good.

1 Then answeared Bildad the Suhite, and sayde,
2 Howe long wilt thou talke of suche thinges? howe long shal the wordes of thy mouth be as a (a) mightie winde?
3 Doth God peruert the thing that is lawful? or doth the almightie destroy the thing that is right?
4 For seeyng that (b) thy sonnes sinned against him, did not he sende them into the place of theyr iniquitie?
5 If thou wouldest nowe resorte vnto God betymes, and make thy prayer to the almightie,
6 If thou wouldest liue a pure and godly life: should he not awake vp vnto thee immediatly, and make the habitation of thy righteousnesse prosperous.
7 Insomuche that wherin so euer thou haddest litle afore, thou shouldest haue nowe great abundance.
8 Enquire, I pray thee (c) of thy former age, and search diligently among their fathers:
9 (For we are but of (d) yesterday, and consyder not that our dayes vpon earth are but a shadowe.)
10 Shal not they shewe thee, and tel thee, and vtter the wordes of theyr hart?
11 May a (e) rushe growe without moystnesse? or, may the grasse growe without water?
12 No, but whilest it is nowe in his greennesse, though it be not cut downe, yet withereth it before any other hearbe:
13 So are the pathes of al that forget god, & the hypocrites hope shal come to nought.
14 His confidente shalbe destroyed, and his trust shalbe a (f) spiders webbe.
15 He shall leane vpon his house, but it shal not stande, he shal holde him fast by it, yet shal it not endure.
16 (But) the greene (tree) in the sunne shooteth foorth his branches in the garden.
17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountayne, and are folden about the house of stones.
18 If any plucke it from his place, and it denye, (c) saying, I haue not seene thee:
19 Beholde, it wil reioyce by this meanes, yf it may growe in another moulde.
20 Beholde, God wyl not cast away a vertuous man, neyther wyl he * helpe the vngodly.
21 Thy mouth shal he fil with laughing, and thy lippes with gladnesse.
22 They also that hate thee, shalbe clothed with shame, & the dwelling of the vngodly shal come to nought.

(a) He declareth that those mens words which wil deminish any thing frō the iustice of God, are but as a puffe of winde that vanisheth away.
(b) And therfore are iustly plagued, but thou rather art more bounde to god, because he hath geuē thee space to repent.
(c) Here Bildad confyrmeth his sayinges by the auctority of the fathers.
(d) That is, lately borne.
(e) Meanyng that as a rush without moisture can not grow: so can not an euyl man lyue, without repentaunce moystened with Gods grace.
(f) Which is spon to dire, & no succour sweepe away: wherein a likened the house of the wicked, his riches & his substance.
(g) That is, that there is no meanes to helpe them to prosper, whether they had repented or no.
* or, that vngodly shal not be helped.

The.ix. Chapter.

1. Iob declareth the mightie power of God, and that mans ryghteousnesse is nothing.

1 IOB answeared, and sayde,
2 I knowe it is so of a truth: for howe may a man (compared) vnto God be (a) iustified?
3 If he wyll argue with him, he can not answeare him one thing of a thousande.
4 He is wise in hart, & mightie in strength; who hath ben fierce against him, and haue prospered?
5 He (b) translateth the mountaines or euer they be aware, it is he that ouerthroweth them in his wrath.
6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pyllers thereof shake withal.
7 He commaundeth the sunne, and it riseth not: he closeth vp the starres as vnder a seale.
8 He him selfe alone spreadeth out the heauens, and goeth vpon the * wawes of the sea.
9 He maketh the Waynes of heauen, (c) the Orion, the Seuen starres, and the secrete places of the south.
10 He doth great thinges and vnsearchable: yea and wonders without number.
11 Lo, (d) when he goeth by me, I shall not see hym, and when he passeth, I shall not perceiue him.
12 If he be hastie to take away, who wyll make

(a) Iob answered vnto Eliphas & Baldads ernest confessyng man inclined to be nothyng, beyng compared vnto God.
(b) Herein loweth the infinite power of God, whereby dost appeare his weakenesse the more.
* or, brimmes.
(c) Thele be the names of certayne starres, declaring that the powered heauen are at his commaundement.
(d) Though his wonderous works be before myne eyes, yet am I not able to comprehend the, make him (e) restore it? or who wyl say vnto him, What dooest thou?

13 God wil not withdraw his anger, and the most wighty doo stoupe vnder him.

14 Howe muche lesse shall I answeare him? or howe shoulde I fynde out my woordes with him?

15 For though I were ryghteous, yet might I not geue him one woorde agayne, but meekely submit mee selfe to him as my iudge.

16 If I had called vpon him, and he had answeared me, (f) yet wouldst I not beleeue that he hearde my voyce:

17 He troubleth me so with the tempest, and woundeth me out of measure without a cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but fylleth me with bitternesse.

19 If (men wyl speake) of strength, loe he is strong: if (men wyl speake) of iudgement, who shalbe my pleader?

20 If I wil (g) iustifye mee selfe, mine owne mouth shal condemne me: if I will be a perfect man, he shal proue me a wicked doer.

21 (Though) I were perfect, yet I know not my soule, and am weery of my lyfe.

22 This is one poynt, and therefore I sayd, He destroyeth both the perfect & vngodly.

23 And though he slaye sodenly with the scourge, wyl he laugh at the punishment of the innocent?

24 As for the earth, it is geuen ouer into the hande of the wicked, and he shal (h) couer the faces of the Iudges thereof: if not, where is he, or who is he? (that can shewe the contrary?)

25 My dayes are more swyft then a runner, they are gone, & haue seene no good thing.

26 They are passed away as ꝑ shippes that be good vnder sayle, and as the Eagle that fleeth to the pray.

27 If I say, I wyl forget my complaynyng, I wyl ceasse from my wrath, and comfort mee selfe:

28 Then am I afraide of al my sorowes, for I knowe that thou wylt not iudge me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then (i) labour I in vayne?

30 If I washe mee selfe with snowe water, and make myne handes neuer so cleane at the wel:

31 Yet shalt thou * dippe me in the mire, & (k) myne owne clothes shal defyle me.

32 For he that I must geue answeare vnto, and with whom I goe to the lawe, is not a man as I am:

33 Neither is there any dayes man to lay his hande betweene vs.

34 Let him take his rodde away from me, yea let him make me no more afrayde of him, 35 And then shall I answeare him without any feare: but * because I am not so, I holde me stil.

* or, I haue nothing to make for me.

The. x. Chapter.

1. Iob is weerie of his lyfe, and setteth out his frailenesse before God. 20. He desyreth hym to slay his hande. 22. A description of death.

1 MY soule is (a) cut of, though I liue, I wil powre out my cõplaint against mee selfe, and wyl speake out of the very * beautie of my soule.

2 I wyl saye vnto God, O (b) doo not condemne me, but shewe me wherefore thou contendest with me?

3 Thinkest thou it well donne to oppresse me? to cast me of, being the woorkes of thy handes? and to (c) mayntayne the counsel of the vngodly?

4 Hast thou fleshly eyes? or dooest thou looke as a man looketh?

5 Are thy dayes as the dayes of (d) man? and thy yeeres as mens yeeres?

6 That thou makest suche inquisition for my wickednesse, & searchest out my sinne?

7 Thou knowest (e) that I haue not done wickedly, and that none can deliuer me out of thyne hande.

8 Thy handes haue made me, and fashioned me altogeather rounde about, wylt thou then destroy me?

9 Remember, I beseeche thee, that thou madest me as the moulde of the earth, and shalt bryng me into dust agayne.

10 Hast thou not powred me as it were milke, and turned me to cruddes like cheese?

11 Thou hast couered me with skinne and flesshe, and ioyned me togeather with bones and sinowes.

12 Thou hast graunted me lyfe, and donne me good: and thy (f) visitation hath preserued my spirite.

13 Thou hast hydde these thinges in thyne hart, (yet) I am sure that thou remembrest this thing.

14 If I dyd sinne, thou haddest an eye vnto me, and shalt not pronounce me innocent from myne offence.

15 If I haue donne wickedly, wo is me therfore: if I haue donne righteously, yet (g) dare I not lyft vp my head, so ful am I of confusion, and see myne owne miserie.

16 And let it encrease, hunt me as a Lion, but thou wylt returne and shewe thee selfe maruelous vpon me.

A

(a) I am more lyke to a dead man, then to one that liueth, or, bitternesse.

(b) That is, in thy secret iudgement doo not lay thinges to my charge.

(c) Wylt thou helpe the wicked, and leaue me destitute.

(d) That is, changeable, as though he would say, Art thou not the same god that thou wast wont to be? mercyful and good to Iob?

(e) That is, I can not offend, by reason thou kepest me lowe in affliction.

(f) Thy fatherly care and prouidence wherby thou preseruest me.

(g) That is, I wyl walke in meeke humilitie.

* or, plagues.

17 Thou bringeſt freſhe * witneſſe againſt me, and thy wrath increaſeſt thou vppon me: diuers and many are the plagues that I am in.

18 Wherefore haſt thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had periſhed, and that no eye had ſeene me.

19 And that I were as though I had not benne, but brought from the wombe to the graue.

20 Are not my dayes fewe? Let hym then leaue off from me, and let me alone, that I may comfort mee ſelfe a litle,

D 21 Before I go (thyther from whence) I ſhal not turne againe, euen to the land of darkneſſe and ſhadowe of death:

(k) That is, no difference betweene light and darkneſs.

22 Yea a lande as darke as darkneſſe it ſelfe, and into the ſhadowe of death, where is (k) none order, but the light (is there) as darkneſſe.

The. xi. Chapter.

I. Iob is vniuſtly blamed of Sophar. 7. The maieſtie of God can not be ſearched. 14. God is mercyfull to the repentant. 18. The godly ſhal lyue in ſafetie.

A 1 Then anſwered Sophar the Naamathite, and ſayde,

(a) For not he that ſpeaketh muche, but he that ſpeaketh truely, ſpeaketh wel.

2 Shoulde not (he that maketh) many woordes be anſwered? Shoulde he that (a) bableth much be commended therein?

3 Shoulde thy lyes make men holde their peace? and when thou mockeſt (others) ſhal no man make thee aſhamed?

4 For thou haſt ſayde, (b) My doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thyne eyes.

(b) Here Sophar layeth to Iobs charge wordes that he ſpake.

5 But O (c) that God woulde ſpeake, and open his lippes againſt thee,

(c) Sophar goeth about to proue Iob to be iuſtly plagued.

6 That he myght ſhewe thee the (d) ſecrets of wyſedome, howe thou haſt (deſerued) double, accordyng to ryght: Knowe therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thyne iniquitie.

(d) Whiche is not to ſtande in iuſtifying thee ſelfe.

7 Art thou hable to finde out (the ſecrets of) God? Or wylt thou attayne to the perfectneſſe of the almighty?

(e) If man be not hable to comprehend the height of heauen, the deapth of hel, the length of the earth, & the breadth of the ſea, whiche are but creatures, how can he attayne to the perfect knowledge of the creatour?

8 He is (e) hygher then heauen, what art thou hable to doo? deeper then the hel, how wylt thou then knowe him?

9 The meaſure of hym is longer then the earth, and broder then the ſea.

10 Though he turne all thynges vpſyde downe, cloſe them in, or gather them together, who wyl turne him from his purpoſe?

11 For it is he that knoweth vayne men, he ſeeth their wickednеſſe alſo, ſhoulde he not then conſyder it?

12 Yet vayne man woulde be wyſe, though man (newe) borne, is lyke a wylde aſſes coult.

13 If thou preparedſt thyne hart, and liftedſt vp thyne handes towarde him:

14 If thou wouldeſt put away the wickednеſſe whiche thou haſt in hande, ſo that no C vngodlyneſſe dwel in thy houſe:

15 Then myghteſt thou (f) lyft vp thy face without * ſhame, and then ſhouldeſt thou be ſure, and haue no nede to feare.

(f) Suche are the quiet myndes of thoſe that truly repent.

* or, ſpot.

16 Then ſhouldeſt thou forgeat thy miſerie, and thinke no more vpon it, then vppon the waters which paſſeth by.

17 Then ſhoulde thy * lyfe be as cleare as the noone day, thou ſhouldeſt ſhine forth, and be as the morning.

* or, age.

18 Then myghteſt thou be bolde, becauſe there is hope, and take thy reſt quietly, as compaſſed with a trenche.

19 Then mighteſt thou lye downe, and none to make thee afrayde, yea many one ſhould make ſuite vnto thee.

20 As for the eyes of the vngodly, they ſhal fayle, and they ſhall not eſcape, and their hope (ſhalbe) forowe of myndе.

The. xii. Chapter.

I. Iob accuſeth his freendes of ignorance. 7. He declareth the myght and power of God. 17. And howe God changeth the courſe of thinges.

1 AND Iob anſwered, and ſayd,

2 Then no doubt ye are the people, and (a) wyſedome ſhal periſhe with you.

(a) As though he ſhoulde ſay, your wyſdome exceedeth al other, and when ye dye, al wyſdome ſhould periſhe with you.

3 But I haue "vnderſtandyng as well as ye, and am not inferiour to you: yea, who knoweth not theſe thinges?

"An hart.

4 I am as one mocked of his neyghbour, who calleth vpon GOD, and he heareth him: the iuſt and the vpryght is laughed to ſcorne.

5 Being as a lyght (b) deſpiſed in the harts of the riche, and as one redy to fal.

(b) That is, as he that deſpiſeth the lyght in the night ſeaſon, may ſoone ſtumble, ſo they that refuſe the afflicted which ſhine before gods face, do geat to them ſelues his wrath to their peril.

6 The houſes of robbers are in wealth and proſperitie, and they that malitiouſly meddle againſt GOD, dwell without care in thoſe thinges that God hath (c) geuen rychely with his hande.

7 Aſke the catayle, (d) and they ſhall enſourme thee: the foules of the ayre, & they ſhal tel thee.

8 Speake to the earth, and it ſhall ſhewe thee: or to the fyſhes of the ſea, and they ſhal certifye thee.

9 What is he, but he knoweth that the hand of the Lorde made al theſe?

10 In

(c) The Hebrewe reade, whom God hath brought in with his hande. (d) For euen the catayle, and al creatures do declare gods power, as it is ſayde: The heauens declare the glory of God.

20 In whose hande is the (e) soule of every liuing thing, and the breath of all mankinde?

21 Doth not the eare discerne the wordes? and the mouth taste his meate?

22 Among olde persons there is wisedome, and in age is vnderstanding.

23 Yea with (God) is wisdome & strength, counsel and vnderstanding.

24 Behold, (g) if he breake downe a thing, who can set it vp again? if he shut vp any, who will open it?

25 Beholde, if he withholde the waters, they dry vp: if he let them goe, they destroy the earth.

26 With him is strength and wisedome: both the deceiuer, and he that is deceiued are (h) his.

27 He carieth away the counsellers as it were a spoyle, and maketh the iudges fooles.

28 He looseth the rule of kinges, and girdeth their loynes with a bonde.

29 He leadeth away the great men into captiuitie, and ouerthroweth the mightie vpside downe.

30 He stoppeth the mouth of them that speake truely, and disposseth the aged of their vnderstanding.

31 He powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the strength of the mightie weake.

32 Looke what is hid, he doth in darkenesse, he bringeth it openly, and the very shadowe of death bringeth he to light.

33 He encreaseth the people, and destroyeth them, he maketh them to multiplie, and diminisheth them.

34 He taketh away the hart of them that be heades of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in the wildernesse out of the way.

35 They grope in the darke without light, and he maketh them to stacker like a drunken man.

The xiii. Chapter.

20. Iob prayeth vnto God that he would not handle hym rigorously.

1 LO, (a) all (this) haue I seene with mine eye, heard it with mine eare, and vnderstande it.

2 What ye knowe, that same do I knowe also, neither am I inferior vnto you.

3 Neuertheless, I talke with the almighty, and my desire is to commune with God.

4 As for you, ye are workmaisters of lyes, and (b) vnprofitable phisitions altogether.

5 Woulde GOD ye kept your tongue, for then might ye be reckened for wise men.

6 Howe beare my reasoning, and ponder the arguments of my lippes.

7 Will ye speake (c) wickedly for God? (defence), and talke deceitfully for his (cause?)

8 Will ye accept the person of him? or will ye contende for God?

9 Shall that helpe you when he calleth you to reckening? or as one maketh merie with men, so ye so with him?

10 He shall surely reproue you, if ye do secretely accept any person.

11 Shall not his excellencie make you afraide? shal not his feare fall vpon you?

12 Your (d) remembrance is lyke vnto dust, and your bodies like the clay.

13 Holde your tongues before me, that I may speake, and let come on me what wyl.

14 Wherefore do I (e) teare my flesh with my teeth, and put my soule in myne handes?

15 Lo, though he slay me, yet wyl I trust in him: but I will reproue mine owne wayes in his sight.

16 He shalbe my saluation: for there may no (g) hypocrite come before him.

17 Heare diligently my wordes, and ponder my sayinges with your eares.

18 Beholde, now haue I prepared my iudgment, and know we that I shalbe founde (h) righteous.

19 What is he that will (i) goe to law with me? yf I nowe holde my tongue, I dye.

20 Neuertheless, do not these two thinges vnto me, and then will I not hide mee selfe from thee:

21 Withdraw thyne hande farre from me, and let not the fearefull dread of thee make me afrayde.

22 Then cal, and I will answeare: or let me speake, and geue thou me an answeare.

23 Howe many are my misdeedes & sinnes? let me know my transgressions and offences.

24 Wherefore hydest thou thy face, and holdest me for thyne enimie?

25 Wylt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro, and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou layest sharpely to my charge, and punishest me for the sinnes of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feete also in the (k) stockes, and lookest narowly vnto all my pathes, and makest the print thereof in the heeles of my feete:

28 And I as a rotten thyng do consume away, as a garment that is moth eaten.

(a) Meaning that I knowe the power of God as well as you.

(b) That is, you are vnmeete for my disease, which the lyke as the medicine to cure, but rather to encrease it, with your lies and talke to trouble me.

(c) Marke what I shal lay agaynst you, for I blame you not in that ye declare gods power, but because you fayne a carnal and humane iustice to be in him: and so of true things, ye conclude lyes.

(d) Your fame shal come to nothyng.

(e) That is, before verse and torment mee selfe: though I should rent and teare my flesh with teeth.

(f) That is, to set my life in dangers.

(g) Here it appeareth that Iobs trust & hope in God was not all perished, discharging him selfe of hypocrisie wherewith they charged him.

(h) I am not condemned for my sinnes, as you do reason.

(i) To praue that GOD plagueth me for myne offences.

(k) Thou makest me thy prisoner, and doest so oppresse me, that I can not shyfte aboute nor flee.

I. Iob desireth to be releued of the miserie of the lyfe of man. 14. Hope is better then godly. 22. He complaineth of Gods rigor.

MAN that is borne of a woman hath but a fewe yeres to lyue, and is ful of miserie.

2 He commeth vp, and is cut downe (a) like a floure: he fleeth as it were a shadow, and can not continue.

3 Doest thou (b) marke vpon such one, and bringest me into the iudgement?

4 Who can make it cleare that is vncleane? of an vncleane thing can no body make cleane.

5 The dayes of man surely are determined, the number of his monethes are knowen only vnto thee, thou hast appointed him his boundes whiche he can not goe beyond.

6 Goe from him, that he may rest, vntil his day (c) come which he loketh for, like as an hyrelyng doth.

7 For if a tree be cut downe, there is some hope yet that it will sprynge & shote forth the branches agayne.

8 Though the roote of it be waxen olde in the earth, and the stocke thereof be dead in the grounde:

9 Yet when it getteth the sent of water, it will budde and bryng forth boughes, lyke as a tree that is planted.

10 (d) But as for man, when he is dead, wasted, and consumed away, what becommeth of hym?

11 As the waters passe from the sea, and as the floodde decayeth and dryeth vp:

12 So man after he is aslepe riseth not, he shal not make ryll the heauens be no more, nor ryse out of his slepe.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the graue, and kepe me secrete, vntil thy wrath were past, & to appoynt me a tyme wherein thou mightest remember me.

14 May a dead man lyue agayne? All the dayes of my lyfe wyl I wayte styll, tyll my changing shal come.

15 Thou shalt (e) call (me) and I shall answere thee, & despise not thou the worke of thine owne handes.

16 For now thou (f) numbrest al my goings, and geuest no delay vnto my sinne.

17 Myne iniquitie is sealed vp as it were in a (g) bagge, and thou addest (punishment) vnto my wyckednesse.

18 The mountaynes fall away at the last, the rockes are remoued out of their place.

19 The waters pearce through the very stones by litle and litle, the floodes washe away the grauell and earth: so shalt thou destroy the hope of man.

20 Thou prenaylest still against him, so that he passeth away: thou changest his face, and puttest him from thee.

21 And whether his children come to worship or no, he knoweth not: & if they be men of lowe degree, he perceiueth not.

22 But while his (h) flesh is vpon hym, it must haue sorowe, and his soule shal mourne within hym.

The xv. Chapter.

Eliphas reproueth Iob of vnsemely wordes, and that he chalengeth wysedome and purenesse to himselfe.

1 THen answered Eliphas the Themanite, and sayde,

2 Shall a wyse mans answere be as the wynde, and fyl his belly with the (a) winde of the east?

3 Shall he reproue with a worde that is nothing worth, and speake the thinges which can do no good?

4 Surely thou hast cast of feare, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth setteth forth thyne owne iniquitie, seing thou hast chosen the tongue of the craftie.

6 Thyne owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I; yea thine owne lippes shape an answeare agaynst thee.

7 (b) Art thou the first man that euer was borne? or wast thou made before the hylles?

8 Hast thou heard the secrete counsel of God? and doest thou restrayne wysedome to thee selfe?

9 What knowest thou that we knowe not? and what vnderstandest thou, but we can the same?

10 With vs are both olde and aged men, yea such as haue lyued longer then thy father.

11 Thinkest thou it a smal thing of the consolations of God? with thee is a lyeing worde.

12 Why doth thyne (c) hart so betwytche thee? and wherefore wynkest thou with thyne eyes, 13 That thy mynde is so (d) pufte vp against God, and lettest such wordes goe out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be cleane? and he which is borne of a woman, wherby he myght be righteous?

15 Beholde he doeth not trust his saintes, yea the heauens are not cleane in his syght:

16 Howe muche more then an abominable and vile man, whiche (e) drynketh wyckednesse like water.

17 I wil tel thee, heare me, and I will shewe thee that I haue seene:

18 Whiche wise men haue tolde, and haue not hidde that whiche they receiued from their fathers:

19 Vnto

(a) This expresseth mans shortnesse of lyfe, and the vnstablenesse thereof, being compared to a floure, to a shadow, and to the grasse in the fielde.
(b) Meaning that seeyng man is so frayle, he shoulde not handle hym soextremely.
(c) That is, death, which he desireth, as the hireling wayteth in the ende of his labour to receiue his wages.
(d) Iob saith not this as hauing no hope of immortalitie, but as one sore tormented.
(e) Thou plagest me now, yet whe thou shalt cal me vp at domes day, I shal answeare thee, for thou art merciful. Or, thou shalt sone.
(f) That is, thou hast all my deedes numbred, spare me therefore.
(g) Thou kepest all my sinnes in store, and sufferest none vnpunished.

(a) Words spoken and vttered in the wynde, drieth vp the moysture soone as it falleth: so foolish wordes, rayneth perysht & soone ouerthrowen may be spoken.
(b) That is, art thou as ancient, that al wisdome is in thy head?

(c) As one standyng in thyne owne conceit.
(d) So reak, answeryng hym, as thy pleasure is: The Hebroe is, answeryng him in thy spirite.
Or, among his saintes there is not without fault.
(e) Whiche hath a desire to sinne, as he that is thirstie to drinke.

19 Neyther whom they derely loued, haue forsaken me, and now stronger are standing them against me.

20 The (f) vngodly sequeth all the dayes of his life, as it were a woman with child, and the (g) number of his yeares are vnknowen.

21 A fearfull sounde is in (e) eares, and when he is in peace, the destroyer shall come vpon him.

22 He beleeueth not to be deliuered (h) out of darkenesse: for the sworde is alwayes before his eyes.

23 He wandereth abroade for bread where it is, knowyng that the day of darkenesse is redy at his hande.

24 Trouble and anguishe wyl make him afrayde, they shal preuayle against him, as a king with his armie.

25 For he hath stretched out his hande against God, and armed him selfe against the almighty.

26 He runneth proudly vpon him, and with a stiffe neche fighteth he against him.

27 Where as he (i) coureth his face with fatnesse, and maketh his body wel lykyng.

28 Therefore shall his dwelling be (k) in desolate cities, and in houses whiche no man inhabiteth, but are becomme heapes of stones.

29 He shall not be riche, neither shal his substance continue, neither shal the possessions therof be prolonged vpon the earth.

30 He shal neuer depart out of darkenesse, the flame (l) shall drie vp his braunches, with the blast of the mouth (of God) shall he be taken away.

31 Be beleeueth not that he erreth in vanitie, and yet vanitie shalbe his recompence.

32 He shall perish afore his time be worne out, and his (m) branche shal not be greene.

33 He shalbe plucked of as an vnripely grape from the vine, and shal let his flower fal as the olyue dooth.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shalbe desolate, and the fyre shall consume the houses of suche as are greedy to receyue gyftes.

35 He conceyueth trauayle, and beareth vanitie, and their belly hyngeth footh deceipt.

The xvi. Chapter.

L Iob moued by the importunacie of his freendes, 7. counteth in what extremitie he is, 19. and taketh God to witnesse of his innocencie.

1 THen answeared Iob, and sayde,

2 I haue oft times heard suche thinges: (a) miserable geuers of comfort are ye, all the sort of you.

3 Shal not vayne wordes comme yet to an ende? or by what maketh thee bolde so to answeare?

4 I coulde speake as ye doo also: but would God that your (b) soule were in my soules steade, then coulde I frame woordes for you, and shake my head at you:

5 I would strengthen you with my mouth, and release your (payne) with the talking of my lippes.

6 For all my woordes my sorowe wyl not ceasse: and (c) though I holde my tongue, whatcum I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weery, thou hast made desolate all (d) my congregation.

8 And that thou (e) hast filled me with wrinckles, my fleshe is retoyde, and my leanenesse ryseth vp against me, and beareth to my face thereof in my face.

9 His wrath hath torne (me), he hateth me, and gnasheth vpon me with his teeth: myne enemie lookyth fiercely vpon me with hole eyes.

10 They haue opened their mouthes wyde vpon me, & (f) smitten me vpon the cheeke despitefully, they gather them selues togeather against me.

11 God hath shut me vp with the vngodly, and delyuered me (g) into the handes of the wicked.

12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath all to shaken me, and set me as a marke for him selfe.

13 His (h) archers compasse me rounde about, he woundeth my raynes, and dooth not spare, my bowels hath he (i) powred vpon the grounde.

14 He hath geuen me one wounde vpon another, and in falleth vpon me lyke a giant.

15 I haue sowed a sackcloth vpon my skinne, and wallowed my * head in the dust.

16 My face is mythered with weeping, and in myne eyes is the shadowe of death.

17 Howbeit, there is no wickednesse in my handes, but my prayer is cleane.

18 O earth couer not thou my blood, and let my crying finde no rome.

19 For loe, my witnesse is heauen, and he that knoweth me is in the height.

20 My freendes geue me many woordes to scorne, and myne eye poureth out teares vnto God.

21 O that a body myght pleade with God, as one man dooth with another.

22 For the number of my yeeres is comme, and the way that I must goe is at hande, from whence I shal not turne agayne.

(a) Here he reproueth euerye one of his freendes, as of vnprofitable comforters.

(b) That is, out of the middes and hearte which is vpon him.

(c) That is, he shall haue no quietnesse and rest in his bed.

(d) That is, he shall be in feare day and night, not knowyng whether he shall escape or no.

(e) That is, out of the middes and hearte which is vpon him.

(f) That is, abundance of riches shall make him proud.

(g) That is, he shall not be able to withstande the power of God.

(h) That is, out of the middes and hearte which is vpon him.

(i) That is, he shall haue no certaintie and sure ground of his life.

(k) That is, as God gaue him, shalbe turned into ashes.

(l) That is, by processe of yeeres.

(m) That is, his posteritie shall not flourish.

(a) For they more vexe him with their comfort then comfort him.

(b) Woulde ye suffered that which I suffer?

(c) For God wyl haue his pleasure euer me.

(d) My house holde, children, and substance.

(e) Not by reason of yeres, but by reason of my greefe, shewing his extreme paines.

(f) That is, despitefully handled me, whiche striking on the cheeke signifieth.

(g) To prouoke him, and not to destroy him.

(h) His plagues and afflictions wherewith he vexeth me.

* or, gall.

(i) God hath not only stricken outwardly my body and al my substance, but also touched my inwarde parter.

* Hebr. horne.

* or, wynde of winde.

(a) In al Iobs extreme afflictions, yet this one made the rest most greeuous, that they that should cheer fully comfort him, did cruelly vexe him and mocke him.

or, mockers.

(b) That is, make promise with me O God, that I may talke with thee, for I wyl not reason with them, for they are fooles.

(c) That they can not vnderstande the cause of my punishment, but iudge me wicked not knowing thy wysdom, wherby thou doest afflict thy children.

* or, tabret.

(d) Though the godly see themselues afflicted of god as the wicked are, yet they dispaire not, knowing that the iust also are punished for proofe of them.

* or, come nowe.

(e) Seeing I am but corruption.

The xvii. Chapter.

I, Iob by the shortnesse of my life, and yet dooth paciently abyde it, 10. He exhorteth his frendes to repentance, 13. shewing that he looketh but for death.

1 My breath is corrupt, my dayes are shortened, I am harde at the graues mouth.

2 (a) * Froward men are with me, and myne eye must continue in the bitternesse of them.

3 O deliuer me, and (b) stroke vnto me to be my suerte in thy sight: what is he that striketh who wyl promise for me?

4 For thou hast withholden their hartes (c) from vnderstanding, therefore shalt thou not set them (aboue) for they shall not be exalted.

5 He that speaketh flatterie to his frende, the eyes of his children shall faile.

6 He hath made me a by worde of the people, wherevnto afore I was their mocke.

7 Myne eye is dimme for very heauynesse, and all my strength is liken a shadowe.

8 Certeynly men therefore shall wel consider this, and the innocent shall take part agaynst the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall (d) kepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes, wyll euer be stronger and stronger.

10 As for all you, turne you, and go to it, I cannot finde one wyse man among you.

11 My dayes are past, and my counsayles and thoughtes of my hart are vanished away.

12 Changing the night into day, and the light approching into darknesse.

13 Though I tary nere so much, yet the graue is my house, and I haue made my bed in the darke.

14 I sayde to corruption, Thou art my father: and to the wormes, Ye are my mother, and my syster.

15 (e) Where is then nowe my hope? or who hath consydered the thing that I looke for? (My hope) shal go downe with me into the pit, and lye with me in the dust.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1. Bildad rehearseth the paynes of the vnfaythful and wicked,

1 Then answeared Bildad the Suhite, and sayde,

2 When wyl ye make an ende of your wordes? Marke wel, and then we wyll speake.

3 Wherfore are we counted as beastes, and reputed so vyle in your sight?

4 He destroyeth him selfe with his anger: shal the earth be forsaken, or any stone remoued out of his place? (a) because of that?

5 Yea the light of the vngodly shalbe put out, and the spirit of his fire shall not shine.

6 The (b) light shalbe darke in his dwelling, & his candel shalbe put out with him.

7 The steppes of his strength shalbe restrayned, and his owne counsayle shall cast him downe.

8 For his feete are taken (as it were) in the net, and he walketh vpon the snares.

9 The grime shall take him by the heele, and the thirstie of blood shal catche him.

10 The snare is layde for him in the ground, and a pitfal in the way.

11 Fearfulnesse shall make him afrayde on euery syde, and shal drive him to his feete.

12 (c) Hunger shalbe his meynger, and destruction shalbe redy at his syde.

13 He shall (d) eate the strength of his owne skinne: euen shal the firstborne of death eate his strength.

14 His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwelling, and that bring him to the (e) king of feares.

15 (Fyre now) shall dwel in his house, and it shalbe none of his, and brimstone shalbe scattered vpon his habitation.

16 His rootes shalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue shal his branche be cut downe.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, & he shal haue no name in the streete.

18 They shal drive him from the (f) light into darknesse, and chase him cleane out of the worlde.

19 He shall neither haue (g) children nor kinsfolke among his people, no nor any posteritie in his dwellinges.

20 They that come after him, shalbe astonyed at (h) his day, and * they that go before shalbe afrayde.

21 Suche are nowe the dwellinges of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

The. xix. Chapter.

1. Iob reprooueth his frendes, 15. and poureth his miseries and greeuous paynes. 25. He assureth him selfe of the generall resurrection.

1 Iob answeared, and sayde,

2 Howe long wyl ye vexe my soule, and trouble me with wordes?

3 Loe, tenne tymes haue ye reproched me, and are not ashamed, but haue laughed me to scorne.

4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, mine er-rour

your then remayneth with mee (a) selfe.
4 But if ye wyl auaunce your selues against me, & rebuke me for the shame that is come vpon me:
6 Knowe this then, that it is (b) God which hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compaſſed me with his net.
7 If I complayne of the violence that is done vnto me, I can not be heard: and if I crye, there is no sentence geuen with me.
8 He hath hedged vp my way that (c) I can not paſſe, and he hath layd darkenesse in my pathes.
9 He hath spoyled me (d) of mine honour, & (e) taken the crowne away from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on euery side, and I am gone: my hope hath he taken away, as a tree pluckt vp by the roote.
11 His wrath is kindeled against me, he taketh me as though I were his enimie.
12 His (f) menne of warre come togeather, whiche made their way ouer me, and beſieged my dwelling rounde about.
13 He hath put my brethren farre away from me, and mine acquaintance are also become strangers vnto me.
14 Mine owne kinſfolkes haue forsaken me: and my beſt acquainted haue forgotten me.
15 The ſeruantes and maydens of myne owne house tooke me for a stranger, and I am become as an alliene in their ſight.
16 I called my ſeruant, and he gaue me no answeare: (no thoughe) I prayed hym with my mouth.
17 Myne owne wyfe might not abyde my breath, (though) I prayed her for the chyldrens sake of myne owne body.
18 Yea, the yeung men deſpiſed me, and when I roſe, they ſpake euyl vpon me.
19 All my moſt familiars abhorred me: and they whom I loued beſt, are turned againſt me.
20 My bone cleaueth to my skynne, and to my fleshe, onely there is leafe me the skynne about my teeth.
21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my frendes, for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye perſecute me as God (doth,) and are not ſatisfied with my fleshe?
23 O that my woordes were nowe written, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an yron penne in lead, or in stone, to continue.
25 For I am sure that my redeemer lyueth, and that I ſhal (g) ryſe out of the earth in the latter day.
26 And ſhalbe couered agayne with my skynne, and ſhal ſee God in my fleshe:
27 Whom I mine ſelfe ſhal ſee, and myne eyes ſhal beholde, and none other for me: this my hope is layde vp in my bosome.
28 But ye ſayd, Why is he perſecuted, and there was a deepe matter in me?
29 (h) But beware of the ſworde: for y sword wyl be auenged of wickednesse, and be sure that there is a iudgement.

(a) Because Iob bragged of his innocēcie (as they thought) Sophar enterrupted his talke, as though he bosted in vayne, for that God accepteth none but the repētant sinner.
(b) For two causes Sophar ſpake, one because Iob in answering toucheth him: and for that he deemed his knowledge ſufficient to answeare agayne.
(c) Sophar euen to the ende of this chapter, allegeth true ſentences: but he erreth, in that he thought Iob for impietie & hypocriſie to be plagued, &c.
(d) For euyl gotten goods god wil ſone take away, & reſtore to them from whom they were craftily ſpyled and rauened.
(b) That is, the iudgmēt of god, the reuenger of iniquitie: meaning, though their wicked endeuor take place nowe, yet god wyl hereafter conſider him, & be reuenged of the euyl.

The. xx. Chapter.

1. Sophar sheweth that the wicked and the couetous shal haue a ſhort end, 22. though for a tyme they flouriſhe.

1 THen answered Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde,
2 For the same cause do (a) my thoughtes compel me to answeare, and therefore make haſte.
3 I haue (ſufficiently) heard the (b) checking of my reproofe, therefore the ſpirite of my vnderſtanding cauſeth me to answeare.
4 Knowest thou not this of olde, and ſince God placed man vpon earth,
5 (c) That the gladneſſe of the vngodly hath ben shorte, and that the ioye of hypocrites continued but the twinkling of an eye?
6 Though he be magnified vp to the heauen, ſo that his head reacheth vnto the clouddes:
7 Yet he perisheth for euer, like his doung, (in ſo muche) that they whiche haue ſeene hym, ſhal ſay, Where is he?
8 He ſhal vanishe as a dreame, ſo that he can no more be founde, and ſhal paſſe away as a viſion in the nyght.
9 (So that) the eye whiche ſawe him before, ſhal haue no more ſyght of hym, & his place ſhal know him no more.
10 His children ſhal pleaſe the poore, and his handes ſhal reſtore their goodes.
11 From his youth his bones are ful of ſinnes, whiche ſhal lye downe with him in the earth.
12 Whē wickednesse was ſweete in his mouth, he hyd it vnder his tongue.
13 That he fauoured, that would he not forſake, but kept it cloſe in his throte.
14 The bread that he dyd eate, is turned to the poyſon of serpentes within his body.
15 The riches that he deuoured ſhal he barcheake againe: for God ſhal draw them out of his belly.
16 He ſhal ſucke the gall of serpentes, and the adders tongue ſhal ſlaye hym:
17 So that he ſhal no more ſee the ryuers and brookes of hony and butter.
18 The thyng he hath laboured for, ſhall he reſtore, and (d) ſhal not eate of it: great trauaile ſhal he make for riches, but he ſhal not not enioy them.

19 Because he hath oppressed the poore, and not helped them: houses hath he spoyled, and not buylded them.
20 Because he could not perceyue when his belly was wel, though his greedie desire he shal not escape.
21 There (c) shal none of his meate be left, therefore shal no man looke for his goodes.
22 When he had plenteousnesse of euery thing, yet was he poore, though he was helped on euery syde.
23 And it shal come to passe, that wherwith he purposed to fil his belly, God shal powre the furies of his wrath theron, and shal cause his indignation to raigne vppon him, and vpon his meate.
24 He shal flee from the yron weapon, and the bowe of steele shal strike him through.
25 The swoorde is drawen out, and goeth through the body, and glystereth of his gal: so feare shal come vpon him.
26 All darknesse shalbe hyd in their secrete places, (f) an vnkindled fire shal consume hym: and looke what remaineth in his house, it shalbe destroyed.
27 The heauen shal (g) declare his wickednesse, and the earth shal take part against him.
28 The substance that he hath in his house shalbe taken away, and perish in the day of the Lordes wrath.
29 This is the portion that the wicked man shal haue of God, and the heritage (that he may looke for) of God, because of his (h) wordes.

The. xxi. Chapter.

1. Iob declareth howe the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proude. 14. Insomuche that they blaspheme God.

1 IOb answered, and sayde,
2 O heare diligently my wordes, & that shalbe in steade of your consolations.
3 Suffer me that I may speake, and when I haue spoken, mocke on.
4 Is it with (a) man that I make this disputation? whiche if it were so, shoulde not my spirite then be in sore trouble?
5 Marke me, and be abashed, and (b) laye your hande vpon your mouth.
6 For when I consyder, I am afraide, and my flesche is smitten with feare.
7 Wherefore doo wicked men lyue, come to their olde age, and encrease in ryches?
8 Their children lyue in their sight, and their generation before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from al feare, and the rodde of God is not vpon them.
10 Their bullocke gendereth, and that not out of tyme, their cowe calueth, and is not vnfruitful.
11 They sende forth their children by flockes, and their sonnes daunce.
12 They beare with them tabrets and harpes, and reioyce in the sounde of the instrumentes of musicke.
13 They spend their dayes in wealthinesse, but (c) sodaynely they go downe to the graue.
14 They say also vnto God, (d) Go from vs, we desire not the knowledge of thy wayes.
15 Who is the almyghtie, that we should serue him? and what profite should we haue if we shoulde pray vnto him?
16 Loe, there is vtterly no goodnesse in their hande, therfore wil I not haue to doo with the counsaile of the vngodly.
17 How oft shal the (e) candle of the wicked be put out, and their destruction come vpon them? Or what sorowe shal God geue them for their part in his wrath?
18 Yea, they shalbe euen as haye before the wynde, and as chaffe that the storme careth away.
19 God wyl laye vp the sorowe of the (i) fathers for his children: and when he rewarded him, he shal knowe it.
20 Their owne miserie shal they se with their eyes, and drynke of the feareful wrath of the almightie.
21 For what careth he for his house after his death, when the (f) number of his monethes is cut short?
22 Seeyng God hath the highest power of al, who can teache him any knowledge?
23 (g) One dyeth in his full strength, being in al ease and prosperitie:
24 His brestes are ful of mylke, and his bones runne ful of marowe.
25 Another dyeth in the (h) bytternesse of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure.
26 They shal sleepe both alike in the earth, and the wormes shal couer them.
27 Beholde, (i) I knowe what ye thinke, yea, and the subtiltie that ye imagine against me.
28 For ye say, (k) Where is the princes palace, & where is the dwelling of the vngodly?
29 Haue ye not asked them that goe by the way? doubtlesse ye can not denye their tokens, 30 That the wicked is kept vnto the day of destruction, & the vngodly shalbe brought forth to the day of wrath?
31 (l) Who dare declare his way to his face? Who wyl reward him for that he doeth?
32 Yet shal he be brought to his graue, and dwel among the heape (of the dead.)

33 Then

(c) That is, his heyres & executours shal gape in vaine.
(f) That is, fire frō heauen: & here Sophar toucheth Iob, for that his frendes & children were consumed by fire.
(g) There is nothing hyd that shal not be opened, & the earth shal eyther be vnfruitful or beyng forth things hurtful to the wicked.
(h) Spoken against God.
(a) Though he shoulde say, My cause is before god whom I can not escape: and not before you.
(b) That is, kepe silence.
(c) Or, litle.

22 Then shal the (m) thynke hastely be wrete vnto hym, al men also must folowe hym, as there are innumerable gone before hym.

24 Howe wayte then is the comfort that ye geue me, seeyng falshood remayneth in all your answeares?

The.xxii. Chapter.

1. Eliphaz affirmeth that Iob is punished for his sinnes. 6. He accuseth him of vnmercifulnesse. 13. and that he denied Gods prouidence. 21. He exhorteth hym to repentance.

1 THEN (a) Eliphaz the Themanite gaue answeare, and sayde,

2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wyse may be profitable to him selfe?

3 Is it any aduantage to the almighty, that thou art ryghteous? or shal it profyte hym that thou makest thy wayes perfect?

4 Is he afrayde to reprooue thee, & to steppe forth with thee into iudgement?

5 Is (b) not thy wickednesse great, and thy vngracious deedes innumerable?

6 For thou (c) hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and robbed the naked of theyr clothyng.

7 To such as were weery, hast thou geuen no water to drynke, and hast withdrawen bread from the hungry.

8 But the myghtie man had the earth, and he that was in auctoritie dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widdowes away emptie, & the armes of the fatherlesse were broken.

10 Therefore art thou (d) compassed about with snares, & sodainly vexed with feare.

11 Shouldest thou the see no (e) darknesse? & should not the water flood runne ouer thee?

12 Is not God on hygh in the heauen? beholde the height of the starres, howe hygh they are.

13 Wylt thou therfore say, Howe (f) should God know? can he iudge through the darke cloude?

14 The cloudes couer him, that he may not see, and he walketh on the toppe of heauen.

15 Hast thou marked the way of the world, wherein wicked men haue walked?

16 Which were cut downe out of time, and whose fundation was as an ouerflowyng ryuer.

17 Whiche sayde vnto God, Got from vs: and what could the almighty doo for them?

18 He fylled their houses with good things: but the counsayle of the vngodly be farre from me.

19 The righteous saw it, and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to scorne.

20 Is our substance hewen downe? As for the remnant of them, the (g) fire hath consumed.

21 Therefore (h) reconcile thee vnto God, and be at peace: so shal al thynges prosper with thee ryght wel.

22 Receyue, I pray thee, the lawe at his mouth, and lay vp his words in thine hart.

23 For yf thou wylt turne to the almyghtie, thou shalt be (i) built vp, & put al vnrighteousnesse from thy dwellyng.

24 Thou shalt lay vp gold (as plentiful) as the dust, and the golde of Ophir as the stones of the ryuers.

25 Yea, almyghtie God shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of syluer.

26 Then shalt thou haue thy delyte in the almyghtie, and lyft vp thy face vnto God.

27 Then shalt thou make thy prayer vnto hym, and he shal heare thee, and thou shalt keepe thy promises.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and he shal establish it vnto thee, and the (k) light shal shyne in thy wayes.

29 When (the wicked) be cast downe, thou shalt say, I am lyfted vp: and God shal saue the humble person.

30 The innocent shal delyuer the Iland: (l) it shalbe preserued by the puretie of thyne handes.

The.xxiii. Chapter.

2. Iob affyrmeth that he both knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the iudge, 10. and that he is not punished onely for his sinnes.

1 IOB answered, and sayde,

2 Though my talke be this day in bytternesse, and my plague greater then my groning,

3 O that I (a) might knowe him, and finde him, & that I might come before his seate:

4 I would plead my cause before him, and fyl my mouth with argumentes:

5 I would knowe what answeare he would geue me, and vnderstande what he would say vnto me.

6 Wyl he pleade agaynst me with his great power? No, but he wyll make me the stronger.

7 There the ryghteous might dispute with him, so should I be delyuered for euer from my iudge.

8 Beholde, though I goe forwarde, I fynde him not: yf I goe backward, I can get no knowledge of him:

9 If I goe on the left syde where he worketh his woorke, I can not atteyne vnto him: agayne, yf I goe on the ryght syde, he hydeth him selfe, that I can not see him.

10 But

(m) Meaning the vngodly and euyl persons.

(h) Eliphaz exhorteth Iob to repentance, by the great goodnesse that commeth thereof.

(i) God wyl restore vnto thee al thy substance.

(k) That is, the fauour of God.

(l) The place fareth the better where the ryghteous are.

(a) Iob being admonished before to returne to god, sayth, Yf I should come to him, wher is he, or wher myght I find him, to plead my cause before hym.

(b) That is, gods wayes, knowyng therfore him selfe not to deserue suche greeuous plagues and afflictions for his faultes.

(c) For God is immutable, and his decrees stand fast.

(d) That is, he hath decreed thus to pounishe me appoynted hereunto, although I can not atteyne to the secrete iudgement of God therein, and therfore I doo feare his presence.

10 But as for my waye, he knoweth me, and trieth me, that as the gold I may be tryed.
11 My (a) foote hath kept his path, his waye haue I holden, & wyl not goe out of it.
12 I wyl not forsake the commaundement of his lypes, I haue esteemed the wordes of his mouth more then my necessary (food.)
13 He is one, and (c) who can turne hym? he hath strength to passe what he desyreth.
14 He (d) performeth the thyng that is appoynted for me, and many suche thynges dooth he.
15 This is the cause that I shrynke at his presence, so that when I consyder hym, I am afrayde of hym.
16 For God maketh my hart softe, and the almyghtie putteth me in feare.
17 Because I am not cut of before the darkenesse, (nor her) hath he couered the darke fro my face.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1. Iob describeth the wickednesse of men, and sheweth what curse belongeth to the wicked. 12. Howe all thynges are gouerned by Gods prouidence. 17. and the destruction of the wicked.

1 WHy shoulde not the (a) tymes by hydden from the almyghtie, & they that knowe hym, see not his dayes?
2 For some men remooue the landmarkes, robbe men of their cattel, and feede of the same.
3 They dryue away the asse of the fatherlesse, & take the widowes oxe for a pledge.
4 They cause the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of the earth hyde them selues together.
5 Beholde, as wylde asses in the desert goe they forth to their worke, and rise betimes to spoyle: Yea, the very (b) wyldernesse ministreth foode for them and their chyldren.
6 They reape the corne fielde that is not their owne, and gather the vineyarde of the wycked (which they possesse vniustly.)
7 They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the shewres of the mountaynes, and imbrace the rocke for want of a couerynge.
9 They pynche the fatherlesse from the brest, and take the pledge from the poore.
10 They let hym goe naked without clothyng, and haue taken away the sheafe of the hungrie.
11 They that labour in their oyle milles, & treade their wyne presses, suffer thyrste.
12 Men of the cyth crye out, the soules of the slayne also crye out, yet God regardeth not their complaynt.
13 Those are they that flee from the light, they knowe not his wayes, nor continue in his pathes.
14 The murderer riseth early, and killeth the poore and needie, and in the nyght is as a theefe.
15 The (c) eye of the aduulterer waiteth for the darkenesse, and sayth, There shall no eye see me: and hydeth his face.
16 In the darke they digge through houses, whiche they marked for them selues in the day tyme: they knowe not the lyght.
17 The morning is to them euen as the shadowe of death: yf one knowe them, (they are) in the terrours of the shadow of death.
18 (The wycked) is (d) swyft vpon the water: their portion shalbe cursed in the earth, and he shal not behold the way of the vineyardes.
19 As the drye grounde and heate (e) consume the snowie waters: so shal the graue the synners.
20 The (f) pitiful man shal forget hym, he shalbe sweete to the wormes, he shalbe no more remembred, & his wickednesse shalbe broken as a tree.
21 He hath oppressed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the wydowe hath he done no good.
22 He (g) dryue the myghtie after hym with his power, and when he was gotten vp, no man was sure of lyfe.
23 And though they gaue hym to be in safetie, yet his eyes are vpon their wayes.
24 They are exalted for a tyme, but (shortly) are gone, brought to powertie, and taken out of the way, yea, and vtterly plucked of as the eares of corne.
25 Is (h) it not so? who wyl then reproue me as a lyer, and say that my wordes are nothyng worth?

(a) The dooinges of men are such, and so variable, that it semed to Iob that God was ignorant and careleſſe, because he punished not the wicked, nor reuenged the godly.

(b) That is, they lyue by robberie and theefte.

The. xxv. Chapter.

Bildad prooueth that no man is cleane, not without sinne before God.

1 THEN answeared Bildad the Suhite, and sayde,
2 (a) Power and feare (is) with hym, (who) maketh peace in his highnesse.
3 Is there any number of his armies? and vpon whom shal not his lyght aryse?
4 But how may a man, compared vnto god, be iustified? or howe can he be cleane, that is borne of a woman?
5 Behold, the mone* shyneth not, and the starres are vncleane in his syght.

6 Howe

6 Howe much more then man that is but * corruption, and the sonne of man (which) is but a worme?

* a hepme

The .xxvi. Chapter.

Iob sheweth that no man can helpe God, and prooueth it by his woonderful woorkes.

1 IOb answeared, and saide, (a)
2 Whom hast thou helped? him that is without strength? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?
3 Where is the counsaile that thou shouldest gene him which hath no wisedome? haste thou taught him that is very wise?
4 To whom hast thou spoken these woords? who made the breath to comme out of thy mouth?
5 (b) Are not dead thinges shapen vnder the waters, and in (places) neare vnto them?
6 Hel is naked before him, and destruction hath no couering.
7 He streatcheth out the north oner the empte place, and hangeth the earth vpon nothing.
8 He bindeth the water in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them.
9 (c) He holdeth backe the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloudes before it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with certaine boundes, (d) vntyl the day and nyght come to an ende.
11 The (e) very pyllers of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe.
12 He stylleth the sea with his power, and through his wisedome smiteth he ỹ strength (thereof.)
13 His spirit hath garnished the heauens, and his hande hath made the crooked serpent.
14 Loe, these are part of his wayes: but how litle a portion heare we of him? who can vnderstande the thunder of his power?

The .xxvii. Chapter.

3. The constancie and perfectnesse of Iob. 13. The rewarde of the wicked, and of the tyrantes.

1 AND Iob proceeded, and went forth in his parable, sayeing,
2 (a) As God lyueth, whiche hath taken away my iudgement, and the almighty that hath vexed my mynde:
3 Whyle the breath is in me, and the wynde that God hath geuen me is in my nosthyls,
4 My lyppes shal talke of no vanitie, and my tongue shal speake no deceite.
5 God forbydde that I shoulde graunt your cause to be ryght: as for me, vntyl mine end come, wyl (b) I neuer goe from mine innocencie.
6 My righteous dealyng keepe I fast, whiche I wyl not forsake: my hart shal not reproue me (c) of my dayes.
7 Therefore (d) mine enimie shalbe founde as the vngodly, and he that taketh parte against me, as the vnrighteous.
8 For (e) what hope hath the hypocrite, though he be neuer so couetous, if God take away his soule?
9 Wyl (f) God heare his crye when trouble commeth vpon him?
10 Hath he suche delight in the almightie, (g) that he dare alway cal vpon God?
11 I wyl teache you in the * name of God, and the thing of the almightie wyl I not keepe from you.
12 Beholde, al ye your selues haue seene it, why then doo you thus vanishe in vanitie?
13 (Sayeing,) This is the portion that the wicked haue of God, and the heritage that tyrantes shal receiue of the almightie.
14 If he haue many chyldren, (they shal perisshe) with the swoorde, and his posteritie shal haue scarsenesse of bread.
15 His remnant shalbe buryed in death, and his wydowes shal not weepe.
16 Though he heape vp syluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the claye:
17 He may wel prepare it, but the godly shal put it on, and the innocent shal deale out the syluer.
18 He buyldeth his house as (h) the * moth, and as a booth that the watchman maketh.
19 When the ryche man slepeth, he shal not be gathered (to his fathers:) they opened their eyes, and he was gonne.
20 Terrour taketh holde vpon him as waters, and the tempest stealeth hym away in the night season.
21 A vehement east wynde carryeth hym hence, and he departeth, a storme hurleth hym out of his place.
22 (God) shal cast vpon hym (suche thinges) and not spare hym, he would fayne flee out of his hande.
23 Then shal (menne) clap their handes at hym, and hysse hym out of his place.

(c) Of my former life past.
(d) That is, because they reprehended me vnwoorthily, they rather might be accounted wicked, and the plague shal light on them, & be ryd from me.
(e) what auaileth it a man if he gaine al the world, & lose his own soule?
(f) we haue no greater gyft of God, then the spirite of prayer, whereby if we pray, God dooth heare vs.
(g) The hypocrite neyther trusteth nor prayeth to God: yea, though he pray, God wyl not heare hym.
* or, hande.
(h) Whiche breedeth in an other mans garment, and is soone shaken out.
* or, spider.

The .xxviii. Chapter.

Iob sheweth that the wisedome of God is vnsearcheable.

1 THere is a place where siluer is brought out of, and where golde is tryed,
2 Where yron is dygged out of the grounde, and stones resolued into brasse.
3 (God) bringeth the darkenesse to an ende, and searcheth out al perfection, the stones (hydden) in darkenesse, and in the deepe shadowe.

shadowe.

4 The floodes brake out against the inhabitantes, and the (a) whiche forgotten of the foote, whiche were higher then a man, are gonne away.

5 (b) Out of the same earth cometh bread, and vnder it, as it were, fire is turned vp.

6 The (c) stones of it are a place of Saphires, and the dust of it is golde.

7 There is a waye that the byrde knowe not, that no Aukrites eye hath seene:

8 Wherein the lyons whelpes walke not, and wherein no man commeth.

9 He (d) putteth his hande vpon the stonie rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaines by the rootes.

10 Ryuers flowe out of the rockes, & looke what is pleasant, his eye seeth it.

11 He byndeth the floodes that they do not ouerflowe: and the thing that is hyd bryngeth he to lyght.

12 Where then is wisedome founde? and (e) where is the place of vnderstanding?

13 No man can tell how (f) worthy a thing it is, neither is it founde in the lande of the lyuing.

14 The deepe sayth, It is not in me: the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It can not be gotten for golde, neither may the price of it be bought with any syluer.

16 In golde of Ophir, no precious Onix stones, no Saphires may be valued with it.

17 No, neither golde nor Diamonde shalbe equal vnto it, the exchange of it shal not be for the place of fyne golde.

18 No mention shal be made of Coral, nor of Gabis: for wisdome is more precious then pearles.

19 The Topas of Ethiopia shal not be equal vnto it, neither shal it be valued with pure golde.

20 Whence then commeth wisedome, and where is the place of vnderstanding?

21 It is hyd from the eyes of al men liuing, and hyd from the foules of the * ayre.

22 Destruction and death saye, We haue heard the fame thereof with our eares.

23 God seeth the way thereof, and knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he beholdeth the endes of the world, and looketh vpon all that is vnder heauen.

25 When he wayed the wyndes, and measured the waters:

26 When he made a decree for the rayne, & a way for the lightnynges of the thunder:

27 Then dyd he see it, then declared he it, prepared it, and knewe it.

28 And vnto man he said, (g) To feare the Lorde, is wisedome, and to forsake euyl, is vnderstanding.

(a) whiche a man can not wade thorow

(b) As the fruitful feeldes tylled & plawed, bringeth foorth corne: so it being deeply digged, there are founde stones, out of the whiche fire is stroke.

(c) The Saphires doo shine with golde spoints, so that here by Saphires, is ment clodes of golde. Al these thinges are found, but gods wisdome who can reache?

(d) Here he sheweth gods power, the earth may be dygged, hilles ouerthrowen, a fountaine made among stones, riuers turned from their course, but gods wisdome is not to be found.

(e) Gods wisdome is partly seene in these worldly thinges, but his heauenly wisedome and secrete iudgements is hid, & vnknowen to al men.

(f) That is, it passeth mans capacitie to attaine to it.

* or, heauen

(g) Meaning by this, that man hath so much of this excellēt wisdome of god as he dooth shew in vertue of ly ving, due obedience, and feare of hym.

The xxix. Chapter.

1. Iob witheth the prosperitie of his tyme past. 7. He setteth foorth aucthoritie, 12. iustice, and equitie.

1 MOreouer Iob proceeded and went forth in his parable, saying,

2 O that I were as I was in the monethes paste, and in the dayes when God preserued me.

3 When his (a) lyght shined vpon my head, when I went after the same light, and shyning euen through the darkenesse:

4 As it stoode with me when I was young, when God prospered my house:

5 When the almightie was yet with me, when my children stoode about me:

6 When I washed my (b) steppes with butter, and when the stonie rockes gaue me ryuers of oyle:

7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement seate, and when I prepared my seate in the streete:

8 The (c) young menne sawe me, and hyd them selues, and the (d) aged arose, and stoode vp:

9 The (e) princes leafte of their talkyng, and layde their hande to their mouth:

10 The myghtie keapt styl their voyce, and their tongue cleaued to the roofe of their mouth.

11 When the eare hearde me, it blessed me: and when the eye sawe me, it gaue witnesse to me:

12 For I deliuered the poore when he cryed, and the fatherlesse, and hym that had none to helpe hym.

13 The blessyng of him that was redye to perishe, came vpon me, and I caused the wydowes harte to reioyce.

14 I put vpon me righteousnesse, which couered me as a garment, and equitie was my crowne.

15 I was an eye to the blynde, and a foote to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knewe not the cause, I sought it out diligently.

17 I brake the iawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the spoyle out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shal dye in my nest: and I shal multiplie my dayes as the sand.

19 For my roote was spread out by the waters side, & the deaw lay vpon my * come.

20 Mine honour encreased more and more, and my bowe was * euer the stronger in myne hande.

21 Unto me men gaue eare, me they regarded, and keapt silence at my counsel.

22 After my woordes they answeared not, and my talke dropped vpon them.

23 They

23 They (f) wayted for me as for the rayne, and gaped vppon me as (the ground doeth to receyue) the latter shewre.

24 When I laughhed on them, they (g) beleeued it not, and the lyght of my countenance wouldе they not put out.

25 I tried out their way, I sate as a cheefe, and dwelt as a kyng with his armie about hym: and when they were in heauinesse, I was their comforter.

The.xxx. Chapter.

1. Iob complayneth that he is contemned of the vylest, 11. 21. because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23 Death is the house of al flesshe.

1 BVT (a) nowe they that are younger then I, haue me in derision: whose fathers I wouldе haue thought scorne to set with the dogges of my cattel.

2 Whereto might the strength of (b) their handes profite me? for the tyme was but lost among them?

3 For very (c) miserie & hunger they fled into the wylderneſſe, a darke place, horrible, and waste,

4 Plucking vp nettles among the bushes, and the Iuniper rootes for their meate.

5 And when they were dryuen forth, men cryed after thē, as it had ben after a theefe.

6 Their (d) dwellyng was in the clyffes of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth.

7 Among the bushes went they about crying, and vnder the thornes they geathered them selues togeather.

8 They were the children of fooles and villaynes, whiche are the vylest in the earth.

9 Nowe am I their songue, and am become their iesting stocke.

10 They abhorre me, and flee far from me, and stayne my face with spyttel.

11 Because God hath loosed my corde, and humbled me, they haue loosed the bridle before me.

12 Vpon my ryght hande ryse the young men agaynst me, they haue hurt my feete, treading vpon me, as vpon the wayes whiche they wouldе destroy.

13 My (e) pathes haue they cleane marred, it was so easie for them to doo me harme, that they needed no man to helpe them.

14 They fel vpon me, as it had ben the breakyng in (of waters,) and came in by heapes to destroy me.

15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they pursue my soule as the wynde, and my health passeth away as (f) a cloude.

16 Therefore is my soule nowe powred out vpon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken holde vpon me.

17 My bones are pearsed throughe in the nyght season, and my synowes take no rest.

18 For the vehemencie of sorowe is my garment changed, whiche compasseth me about, as the (g) coller of my coate.

19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become lyke ashes and dust.

20 When (h) I crye vnto thee, thou doest not heare me: and though I stande before thee, yet thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become mine enimie, and with thy violent hande thou takest part agaynst me.

22 (In tymes past) thou diddest (i) set me vp on hygh, to be carried as it were aboue the wynde, (but nowe) hast thou geuen me a very sore fal.

23 Sure I am that thou wylt bryng me vnto death, euen to the lodgyng that is due vnto al men lyuyng.

24 Notwithstanding, thou wylt not stretch out thyne hande (agaynst him that is) in the graue, though men crye in his destruction.

25 Did not I weepe with hym that was in trouble? Had not my soule compassion vpon the poore?

26 Yet whereas I looked for good, euyll came vnto me, and (k) where I wayted for lyght, there came darkneſſe.

27 My bowelles seethe in me without rest, for the dayes of my trouble are come vpon me.

28 I went mournyng without heate, I stoode vp in the congregation, and cryed.

29 I am a brother of dragons, and a felowe of Estriches.

30 My skinne vpon me is (turned) to blacke, and my bones are brent with heate.

31 My harpe is turned to mournyng, and my instrumentes of musicke into the voyce of them that weepe.

The.xxxi. Chapter.

Iob rehearseth the innocencie of his lyuyng, and number of his vertues.

1 I Made a (a) couenant with myne eyes, that I wouldе not loooke vppon a mayden.

2 For howe great a portion (shal I haue) of God from aboue: and what inheritance of the almyghtie from an hygh?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and some strange thyng to the workers of iniquitie?

4 Doeth

(a) That is, they ouerthrew al my doinges which is a great greefe to be mocked of any other.

(b) That is, they coulde help me.

(c) That is, most swiftly.

(d) That is, most swiftly.

(e) In this Chapter Iob declareth his vpryght lyuyng, not to boast against God, but to refel the false slaunder of his aduersaries.

(f) That is, most swiftly.

(g) It is the maner amōg the Hebrues to haue their garments sowed round in euerye part, sauyng a hole only in the highest of it, to put foorth the necke.

(h) Iob sayth not this as blamyng god, but greuous affliction moued affection.

(i) That is, thou diddest set me in hye authoritie, and sodainly thou puttest me downe.

(k) In steade of comfort they gaue me mockes.

4 Doeth not he ſee my wayes, and tell al my goynges?
5 If I haue walked in vanitie, or if my feete haue runne to deceyte:
6 Let me be weyghed in an euen ballance, that God may ſee myne innocencie.
7 If my ſteppe haue turned out of the way, and mine hart walked after myne eyes, and if any (blot) haue cleaued to mine handes:
8 Then that I ſowe, and another eate: yea, my * poſteritie ſhalbe cleane rooted out.
9 If my hart haue ben deceyued by a woman, or yf I haue layde wayte at my neighbours dooze:
10 Thē let my wife (b) grind vnto another man, and let other men * lye with her.
11 For this is a wickednelle, and ſinne that is worthie to be iudged:
12 Yea, a (c) fyre that vtterly ſhoulde conſume and roote out al my increaſe.
13 If I euer thought ſcorne to doo right vnto my ſeruantes and maydens when they had any matter againſt me.
14 When GOD (d) wyl ſyt in iudgement, what ſhal I doo? and when he wyl viſite me, what anſweare ſhal I geue him?
15 He that (e) faſhioned me in my mothers wombe, made he not him alſo? were we not both ſhapen alyke in our mothers bowels?
16 If I denied the poore of their deſyre, or haue cauſed the eyes of the wyddowe to wayte in vayne:
17 If I haue eaten my (f) morſel alone, that the fatherleſſe hath not eaten therof:
18 (For from my youth (mercie) hath brought me vp as a father, and hath guyded me from my mothers wombe.)
19 If I haue ſeene any periſhe for want of clothyng, or any poore lackyng rayment:
20 If his loynes haue not bleſſed me, becauſe he was warmed with the fleece of my ſheepe:
21 If I haue lyft vp mine hand againſt the fatherleſſe, when I ſawe that I might help him in the gate:
22 Then let mine arme fal from my ſhoulder, & mine arme be broken from the bone.
23 For I haue feared the vengeance of god, and (knewe very wel that) I was not able to beare his burden.
24 Haue I put my truſt in golde? or haue I ſayde to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence?
25 Haue I reioyced becauſe my power was great, and becauſe my hand gate ſo muche?
26 Did I (g) behold ye ſunne when it ſhined? or the moone walkyng in her bryghtneſſe?
27 Hath my hart ben ſecretly deceyued? or dyd I kyſſe myne owne hande?
28 (That were a wickednelle worthie to be iudged: for then ſhoulde I haue denyed the God that is aboue.)
29 Haue I reioyced at the hurt of myne enimie? or was I glad that any harme happened vnto hym?
30 I neuer ſuffered my mouth to ſinne by wyſhyng a curſe to his ſoule.
31 Dyd not the men of myne owne houſhold ſay, Who ſhal geue vs of his fleſhe? we can not be ſatiſfied.
32 The ſtranger did not lodge in the ſtreete, but I opened my dooꝛes vnto him that went by the way.
33 Haue I kept ſecrete my ſinne, and hydde mine iniquitie in my boſome, as Adam did?
34 If I feared a great multitude, or the deſpiſyng of the meanneſt of a familie, I would haue kept ſcilence, and not gone out of the (h) dooꝛe.
35 O that I had one whiche ſhoulde heare me: beholde my ſigne that the almyghtie wyl witneſſe for me, though myne aduerſarie wꝛyte a booke (againſt me.)
36 Surely I wyl take it vpon my (i) ſhoulder, and as a garlande bynde it (about my head.)
37 I wyl tel him the number of my goings, and goe vnto him, as to a (k) prince.
38 If my lande (l) crye againſt me, or that the (m) furꝛowes therof make any cōplaynt:
39 If I haue eaten the fruite therof vnpayde for, yea if I haue greeued the ſoules of the * maiſters therof:
40 Then let thyſtles growe in ſtede of Wheate, and cockle for Barley.

Here ende the woordes of Iob.

The .xxxii. Chapter.

6. Eli reproueth them of follie. 8. Age maketh not a man wyſe, but the ſpirite of God.

1 SO theſe three men ceaſſed to anſweare Iob, (a) becauſe he helde him ſelfe a ryghteous man.
2 But Elihu the ſonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the kinrede of Ram, was very ſore diſpleaſed at Iob, becauſe he called hym ſelfe iuſt before God.
3 And with Iobs three freendes he was angrie alſo, becauſe they had founde no anſweare, and yet condemned Iob.
4 Nowe tarried Elihu tyll they had ended their communication with Iob: for they were elder then he.
5 So when Elihu ſawe that theſe three men were not able to make Iob anſweare, he was miſcontent.
6 Therefore Elihu the ſonne of Barachel, the

(b) Let her be a bonds ſlaue to an other man.
* or, bowe downe vpon her.
(c) Though mans pouniſhment for adulterie be omitted, yet Gods plague wyl neuer reſt to conſume and roote it out.
(d) That is, yf I in lawe haue reiected the complaynt of my ſeruāt, what ſhould I doo when God calleth me to lawe.
(e) Iob expreſſeth the cauſe why he dyd pitie his ſeruants, for that they had one creatour, and both made of the ſame ſubſtance.
(f) Meanyng that he hath ben beneficiall to the poore, to the fatherleſſe & wyddowes.
(g) Dyd I vſe to woorſhyp the ſunne or moone, as other gentiles whiche were idolaters.
(h) Mean that he durſt not for feare of any.
(i) That I wyl confeſſe the booke that the aduerſarie wꝛyte, and wyl not creepe in a corner.
(k) That I wyl come with ſcare.
(l) That the lande be not ſlaine.
(m) That the furꝛowes be not growen full of weedes.

the Buzite, answered, and sayde, I am young, and ye be men of age, I was afraid, and durst not shewe forth my minde.
7 For I thought thus within mee selfe,
It becommeth olde men to speake, and the aged to teache wisedome.
8 Every man no doubt hath a mynde, but it is the inspiration of the almightie that giveth understandyng.
9 Great men are not alway wyse, neyther doth every aged man understande the thing that is lawfull:
10 Therefore I say, Heare me, and I wyl shewe you also mine understanding.
11 For when I had waited tyll ye made an ende of your talking, and heard your wysedome, (b) what argumentes ye made in your communication, 12 Yea when I had diligently pondred what ye sayde, I founde not one of you that made any good argument against Iob, that could answeare his wordes.
13 Lest ye shoulde say, We have (c) founde out wysedome, God shall cast hym downe, and no man.
14 He hath not spoken unto me, and I wyll not answeare him as ye have done.
15 For they were so abashed, that they coulde not make answeare, nor speake one woorde.
16 When I had waited (for they spake not, but stoode styl, and answeared ne more) 17 Then answeared I in my turne, and I shewed myne opinion.
18 For I am full of matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me.
19 Beholde, my (d) belly is as the wine whiche hath no vent, lyke the newe bottels that burst.
20 (therefore) wyll I speake, that I may take breath: I wil open my lippes, and make answeare.
21 I wyl (e) regarde no manner of person,
no man wyl I spare.
22 For if I woulde goe about to (f) please men, I knowe not howe soone my maker woulde take me away.

The. xxxiii. Chapter.

5. Elihu accuseth Iob of ignorance, 14. He sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instruct man, and to drawe hym from sinne.

1 Wherefore heare my wordes, O Iob, and hearken unto all that I wyl say:
2 Beholde, I have nowe opened my mouth, my tounge hath spoken in my throte.
3 My hart doth order my wordes aryght, and my lippes talke of pure wysedome.
4 The (a) spirit of God hath made me, & the breath of the almighty hath geuen me lyfe.
5 If thou canst geue me answeare, prepare thee selfe, and stande before me.
6 Beholde, (b) before GOD I am even as thou: for I am fashioned and made even of the same moulde.
7 Behold, my terrour shal not feare thee, neither shal my hande be heavie upon thee.
8 (c) Mowe hast thou spoken in mine eares, and I have heard the voyce of thy woordes:
9 I am cleane without any fault, I am innocent, and there is no wickednesse in me.
10 But lo, he hath pycked a quarel against me, and taketh me for his enimie.
11 He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narowly unto al my pathes.
12 Behold, in this hast thou not done right,
I wil make answeare unto thee, that God is greater then man.
13 And why doest thou then strive against him? for he shal not geue thee accomptes of al his woordes.
14 For God (speaketh (d) once or twyse (and yet man) understandeth it not.
15 In dreames & visions of the night, when slumbryng commeth upon man, that they fal asleepe in their beddes, 16 He openeth the eares of men, and terrefeth them:
17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and deliver him from (e) pryde, 18 And kepe his soule from the graue, and his lyfe from the swoorde.
19 He chasteneth hym with sickenesse upon his bedde, he layeth for punyshment upon his bones:
20 So that his (f) lyfe may away with no heed, and his soule abhorreth to eate any daynte meate:
21 In so muche that his flesche is cleane consumed away, and his bones are broken that they can not be seene.
22 His soule draweth unto the graue, and his lyfe to death.
23 Now if there be a messenger, one among a thousand, sent for to speake unto man, and to shewe hym the ryght way:
24 Then the Lorde is mercyfull unto hym, and sayth, Be halde deliuered, that he fall not downe to the graue: for I am sufficiently reconciled.
25 Then shall his flesche be as freshe as a childes, and shall returne, as in the dayes of his youth.
26 He shal pray unto God, and he wyll be favourable unto hym, & he shall see his face with ioy, for he wyl render unto man his ryghteousnesse.
27 A respect hath he unto men, for men then say, I have offended, I did unrightreously, and it hath done me no goode:

(b) Iob before desired to pleade his cause before God without feare, therefore sayth Elihu, I am here in gods steede, who thou needest not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.

(c) I have heatde the boast of thy righteous lyfe, that thou art innocent and iust, therfore wyll I not prooue thee wicked of thy former lyfe, but by thefe thy wordes.

(d) God speaketh two manner of wayes unto men, either by sleepe, or by his rod of sickness: & other plagues.

(e) For to beate downe the pride of man, GOD sendeth his plagues.

(f) That is, sickneſſe that decayeth life can take no sustenance.

a, to the buriers.

28 He hath deliuered my soule from destruction, and (g) my life shal see the light.
29 Lo, all these thynges doeth God * alwaye with man:
30 That he bring backe his soule from the graue to the light, euen the light of the liuing.
31 Marke wel, O Iob, and heare me: holde ther fyl, and I wyl speake.
32 But if thou hast any thing to say, then (h) answeare me, and speake, for I desyre to iustifie thee.
33 If thou hast not thing, then heare me, and holde thy tongue, and I shall teache thee wysdome.

(g) That is, my soule shal appeare cleare in the lande of the liuing.
* Heb. twise, or thryse.
(h) That is, to shew thee selfe iust, and not wicked.

The .xxxiii. Chapter.

5. Elihu chargeth Iob that he calleth hym selfe ryghteous. 12. He sheweth that God is iust in iudgementes.

1 ELihu answeared, and sayde,
2 Heare my wordes, O ye (a) wyse men, hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderstandyng:
3 For the eare discerneth wordes, and the mouth tasteth meates.
4 As for (b) iudgement let vs seeke it out among our selues, that we may know what is good.
5 For Iob hath sayde, I am righteous, and God hath (c) taken away my iudgement.
6 In my right I must be a lyer: my wounde is incurable without my fault.
7 Where is there suche a one as Iob, that (d) drinketh vp scornefulnesse like water,
8 Whiche goeth in the company of wycked doers, and walketh with vngodly men?
9 For he hath sayde, It profiteth a man nothyng that he shoulde walke with God.
10 Therefore hearken vnto me ye that haue vnderstandyng: farre be it from God that he shoulde meddle with wickednesse, and farre be it from the almighty that he shoulde meddle with vnryghteous dealyng.
11 For he shal rewarde man (after) his workes, and cause euery man to finde accordyng to his wayes.
12 Sure it is that God will not do wyckedly, neyther wil the almightie peruert iudgment.
13 Who ruleth the earth but he? or who hath placed the whole worlde?
14 If he set his hart vpon (man) and gather vnto him selfe his spirite and his breath:
15 All flesche shal come to nought at once, and man shal turne agayne vnto dust.
16 If thou nowe haue vnderstanding, heare this, and hearke to the voyce of my wordes:
17 May he be a (e) ruler that loueth not ryght? wylt thou iudge hym wycked that is most iust?
18 Wilt thou say vnto a king, (thou art) wicked? or to princes (ye are) vngodly.
19 God hath no respect vnto the persons of the princes, ne regardeth not the ryche more then the poore: for they be all the worke of his handes.
20 In the (f) twinckelyng of an eye shal they dye, and the people shalbe troubled at mynight, and passe away, and the mighty shalbe taken away without hande.
21 For his eyes (looke) vpon the wayes of man, and he seeth al his goeinges.
22 There is no darkenesse nor shadowe of death, that can hide the wicked doers from hym.
23 For GOD wyl not lay vpon man more then he hath sinned, that he should enter into iudgement with him.
24 He shall destroy the mightie without seekyng, and shall set other in theyr (g) stede.
25 Therefore shall he declare their workes: he shal (h) turne the night, and they shalbe destroyed.
26 The vngodly doth he punishe (i) openly:
27 Because they turned backe from him, and woulde not consyder all his wayes:
28 Insomuch that they haue caused the voyce of the (k) poore to come vnto hym, and he heareth the complaynt of suche as are in trouble.
29 When he geueth quietnesse, who can make trouble? and when he hydeth his face, who can beholde him? whether it be vpon nations, or vpon one man only?
30 Because the hypocrite doth raigne, and because the people are snared.
31 Surely of God only it can be sayde, I haue pardoned, I wyl not destroy.
32 If I haue gone amysse, enfourme thou me: if I haue done wrong, I wyl leaue of.
33 Wilt he perfourme the thing (though thee) for thou hast refused his (iudgement) thinke is the choyse, and not myne: but speake on what thou knowest.
34 Let men of vnderstandyng tell me, and let a wyse man hearken vnto me.
35 Iob hath not spoken of knowledge, neyther were his wordes accordyng to wysdome.
36 O (l) father, let Iob be * wel tryed, because he hath answeared for wycked men:
37 Yea aboue his sinne he doth wickedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplieth his wordes agaynst God.

(a) Here Elihu proueth that God can not be vniust, because he is the iudge of the worlde, the gouernour & creator of al.
(b) Let vs scanne the cause by reasoning vpryghtly.
(c) That is, he hath not dealt with me accordyng to the equitie of my cause.
(d) That is, for his foolishnesse he beareth the scorneful reproches of the mockers.
(e) As though Elihu would say, is it not that the vniust and wicked shulde rulers, or in necessary chastisement wicked-nesse, or in seruice to couetous princes, or subiectes to resist the king? howe muche lesse the? &c.
(f) That is, sodainly before they be aware of it.
(g) God punisheth one man by another, as the fourtenne riches of the worlde for example, that is, of the Assyrians, of the Persians, of the Grecians, and of the Romanes: so GOD doth nowadaies, & doth he iustly.
(h) That is, he shal bring to light the which lyeth in darkenesse.
(i) That is, in the sight of al men.
(k) Through their cruel and vnmerciful handlyng of them.
(l) Elihu doth not wyshe to Iob any euil, but desyreth rather that he may acknowledge his offences whicke are nor be brought to passe but by or, vnto the ende.

The.xxxv. Chapter.

3. Neither doeth godlynesse profyte nor ungodlynesse hurt God, but man. 18. The wicked crye vnto god, and are not hearde.

1 Elihu (a) spake moreouer and sayde,
2 Thinkest thou it ryght that thou sayest, I am more righteous then God?
3 For thou sayest, What aduantage wyll it be vnto thee, and what profyte shall I haue (yf I be cleansed) from my sinne?
4 I wyl answeare thee a woorde, and thy (b) companions with thee.
5 Looke vnto the heauen, and beholde it, consyder the (c) cloudes, which are higher then thou.
6 If thou hast (d) sinned, what hast thou donne against him? if thyne offences be many, what hast thou donne vnto him?
7 If thou be (e) ryghteous, what geuest thou him? or what wyl he receyue of thyne handes?
8 Thy wickednesse (may hurt) a man as thou art, and thy righteousnesse (may profite) the sonne of man.
9 They which are oppressed, crye out vpon the multitude, yea they crye out for the power of the mighty.
10 But none sayth, Where is GOD that made me? and that geueth * vs occasion to prayse him in the night?
11 Which teacheth vs more then the beastes of the earth, and geueth vs more wysedome then the foules of heauen.
12 If any (f) suche complaine, no man geueth answeare, and that becaus of the wickednesse of proude tyrantes.
13 For God will not heare vanitie, neyther wil the almightie regarde it.
14 Although thou sayest (to God) thou wylt not regarde it: yet iudgement is before him, truste thou in him.
15 But nowe because his anger hath not visited, neyther called men to accompt with great extremitie:
16 Therefore doeth Iob open his mouth in vayne, and he maketh many woordes without knowlenge.

The.xxxvi. Chapter.

1. Elihu sheweth the power of God, 6. and his iustice, 9. and wherefore he punisheth. 13. The propertie of the wicked.

1 Elihu also proceeded, and sayde,
2 Holde thee styl a litle, and I shal shewe thee what I haue yet to speake on gods behalfe.
3 I wyll open vnto thee yet faure byther knowledge, and wil attribute righteousnesse vnto my maker.
4 And truely my woordes shall not be false, seeing he is with thee that is (a) perfect in knowledge.
5 Beholde, the great God casteth away no man, for he him selfe is (b) mighty in power and wyse counsel.
6 As for the vngodly, he shall not preserue him, but that helpe the poore to their right.
7 He shall not turne his eyes away from the righteous, but as (c) kinges shall they be set in their throne, he shall stablishe them for euer, and they shalbe exalted.
8 But yf they be layde in chaynes, or bound with the bondes of trouble, 9 Then wyl he (d) shew them their workes, and their sinnes which they haue committed stoutly.
10 He openeth their eare also to discipline, and warneth them to leaue of from their wickednesse.
11 If they obey and serue him, they shall weare out their dayes in prosperitie, and their yeeres in pleasure.
12 But yf they wyll not hearken, they shall goe through the swoorde, and perishe for ouer they be aware.
13 As for (e) hypocrites in hart, they shall heape vp wrath (for them selues) for they call not vpon him, though they be his prisoners.
14 Thus shall their soule perishe in * foolishnesse, and their lyfe among the vncleanes.
15 The poore shall he deliuer out of his affliction, & * rounde them in the eare when they be in trouble.
16 Euen so wouldst he take thee out of the straite place, into a large place in the which there is no straightnesse: yea and make thy table quiet, replenished with fatnesse.
17 Neuertheless, (f) thou hast commended the iudgement of the vngodly, & euen suche a iudgement and sentence shalt thou suffer.
18 And seeing there is (g) wrath (with God) beware lest he take thee away in thy wealth, and all that thou hast to redeeme thee, can not deliuer thee.
19 Thinkest thou that he wyll regarde thy ryches? (he shall not care for) golde, nor for all them that excel in strength.
20 Desyre not the nyght in carefull thoughtes, howe he destroyeth the people out of their place.
21 Beware that thou turne not aside to wickednesse, which hyther to thou hast chosen more then affliction.
22 Beholde, God is of a mighty high power: where is there such a teacher as he?
23 Who wyl reproue him of his way? who wyl say vnto him, Thou hast donne wrong?

(a) And therefore credite my sayeings, for I come to pleade for gods cause.
(b) And therefore he wyl not destroy the iust, the wyse, and the godly, seeing they are therein lyke vnto hym.
(c) So God doeth exalt the godly, and they that loue him.
(d) If he shall plague the righteous, he wyl declare the cause of the same.
(e) Hypocrites that confesse god in their mouthes and not in their hartes, wyl not acknowledge their offece, and so runne into desperation, and confusion.
* 6). youth.
* 8). open their eares.
(f) Thou hast alowed the counsel of the wicked, and layde aside the counsel of god as vaine.
(g) Meanyng thou shalt be in payne whiche can not be released for any price.

24 Therefore shall men feare him: he regardeth not all them that are wise in their owne conceite.

25 All men see it, yea men doe beholde it a farre off.

26 Beholde, so great is God, that he passeth our knowledge, (h) neither can the number of his yeres be searched out.

27 He diminisheth the water in small droppes, he powreth his cloudes together to rayne.

28 Whiche rayne the cloudes doe droppe, and let fall abundantly upon men.

29 Who can conceyue the (i) spreading out of his cloudes, the crackinges of his tabernacle?

30 Beholde, he spreadeth his lyght upon it, and coureth the bottome of the sea.

31 For by these * gouerneth he his people, and geueth them abundance of meate.

32 With the cloudes he coureth the lyght, & at his commaundement it shineth cleare.

33 Whiche declareth vnto the rude showres, theyre tokens of wrath.

The. xxxvii. Chapter.

2. Elihu prouoketh that the vnsearcheable wysedome of God is manifest by his woorkes, 4. as by the thunder, 6. the snowe, 9. the whirle winde, 11. and the rayne.

1 AT (a) this also my hart is afrayed, and mooued out of his place.

2 Heare (b) then the sounde of his voyce, and the noyse that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his lyght vnto the endes of the worlde.

4 A roaring voyce followeth it: for his glorious maiestie greeteth it: thunder clap, and he wyl not stay when his voyce is heard.

5 God thundreth marueylously with his voyce, great thinges doeth he, whiche we can not comprehende.

6 He commaundeth the snowe, and it falleth vpon earth: he geueth the rayne a charge, & the shewers haue their strength and fal downe.

7 With the voyce of (the rayne) he shutteth men vp, that all menne may knowe his (c) woorkes.

8 The beastes (d) creepe into their dennes, and remayne in their places.

9 Out of the south commeth the tempest, and colde out from the north winde.

10 At the (e) breath of God the hoare frost is giuen, and the large waters are frosen.

11 He maketh the cloudes to labour, in geuing no plentie, and agayne, with his lyght he driueth away the cloude.

12 He turneth the heauens about by his gouernement, that they may doe what so euer he commaundeth them vppon the whole worlde.

13 He causeth rayne to come, whether it be for punishment, or for his lande, or to doe good to them that feare him.

14 Harken vnto this, O Iob, stand still, and consyder the woonderous woorkes of God.

15 Dyddst thou knowe when God layde them? and caused the (f) lyght of his cloudes to shine?

16 Hast thou knowen the varieties of y cloudes, and the woonderous woorkes of him which is perfect in knowledge.

17 And howe thy clothes are warme, when the land is stil through the south wynde?

18 Hast thou holpen him to spreade out the heauens which are strong, and bright as a (g) molten glasse?

19 Teache vs what we shall saye vnto him: for we are vnmeete to frame our talke, because of (h) darkenesse.

20 Shal it be tolde him what I say? Shall man speake when he shalbe destroyed?

21 For men see not the lyght that shineth in the cloudes: but the wynde passeth and cleanseth them.

22 The (i) fayre weather commeth out of the north, the prayse (thereof) is to God, who is terrible.

23 It is the almighty, we can not fynde him out: he is excellent in power and iudgement, and abundant in iustice: he afflicteth not.

24 Let men therefore (l) feare him: for there shall no man see him that is wyse in his owne conceite.

The. xxxviii. Chapter.

God speaketh to Iob, and declareth the ignorance of man in the consyderation of his creatures.

1 THen answeared the Lorde vnto Iob out of the (a) whirle winde, and sayde,

2 What is he that (b) darkeneth his counsel by woordes without knowledge?

3 Girde vp thy (c) loynes lyke a man: for I wyl question with thee, geue me an answeare.

4 Where (d) wast thou when I layde the fundations of the earth? tel me, if thou hast vnderstanding.

5 Who hath measured it, knowest thou? or who hath spread the line vpon it?

6 Whereupon are the fundations set? or who layde the corner stone thereof?

7 (Where

(h) For he is God from euerlasting, without beginninge or ending.

(i) Gods maiestie is woonderfully declareth in his creatures.

* Or, iudgeth.

(a) That is, at gods woonderful creatures, as the thunder, and suche lyke.

(b) As though he would say, the thunder is the dreadful voyce of God.

(c) Whiche woorkes are as it were a confirmation of Gods maiestie: for as soone as the thunder commeth, they flee for feare, wherein they shewe their owne weakenesse, and do witnesse a maiestie of god on high.

(d) Not only man, but beastes also are witnesses of gods power and maiestie, when they runne to their dennes for feare of the thunder.

(e) Meaning the wyndes whiche are called the breath of god, whiche as they blowe harde make, & they frese or thawe the waters, making them lesse and greater.

(f) That is, the light.

(g) Or, christall.

(h) That is, darkenesse of our ignorance.

(i) Meaning the clearenesse or brightnes of the sunne.

(l) Feare him, that is, of our ignorance.

(a) To shewe his maiestie, and to make Iob before whom he spake.

(b) That speaketh is couertly and obliquely.

(c) That is, prepare thy selfe to answeare.

(d) Inferring by this, that yf he coulde not conceyue gods woonderfull woorkes, much lesse his vnsearcheable wysedome.

7 (Where wast thou) when the morning starres praysed me togeather, and all the children of God reioyced triumphantly?

8 Who shut up the sea with dooores, when it brake forth as out of the wombe?

9 When I made the cloudes a couering for it, and darkenesse as his swadling bande,

10 When I gaue it my commaundement, making dooores and barres for it, 11 Saying, Hytherto shalt thou come, but no further, and here shalt thou lay downe thy proude waues?

12 Hast thou geuen the morning his charge sithe thy dayes, and shewed the day spring his place, 13 That it might take holde of the * corners of the earth, and that the vngodly might be shaken out of it?

14 (c) They are fashioned as is the clay to the seale, and stande as a garmente.

15 The vngodlye shalbe disappointed of their lyght, and * the arme of the proude shalbe broken.

16 (d) Camest thou euer into the * ground of the sea, or walkedst in the lowe steppes of the deepe?

17 Haue the gates of death ben opened vnto thee? or hast thou seene the dooores of the shadowe of death?

18 Hast thou also perceiued how broade the earth is? If thou hast knowledge of all this:

19 Then shewe me the waye where lyght dwelleth, & where is the place of darkenesse?

20 That thou shouldest receiue it in the boundes thereof, and knowe the pathes to their houses.

21 Knewest thou aboue thou wast borne howe olde thou shouldest be?

22 (e) Wentest thou euer into the treasures of the snowe, or hast thou seene the secrete places of the hayle?

23 Whiche I haue * prepared against the tyme of trouble, against the time of battaile and warre?

24 By what way is the lighte parted? and into what lande breaketh the east wynde?

25 Who diuideth the waters into diuers chanels? or the way for the lightening and thunder, 26 To cause it to rayne on the earth, where no man is, and in the wyldernesse where none inhabiteth?

27 To satisfie the desolate and wast ground, and to cause the budde of the heerbe to spring foorth?

28 Who is the (h) father of the rayne? or who hath begotten the drops of the dewe?

29 Out of whose wombe came yce? Who hath gendered the * coldnesse of the ayre?

30 Then the waters are * (i) hyd as with a stone, and the compasse about the deepe?

31 Canst thou binde the sweete starres together, or loose the bandes of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth the mourning starre in his time? canst thou also guyde the euening starre with his sonnes?

33 Knowest thou the course of heauen, that thou mayest set vp the ordinance therof vpon the earth?

34 Canst thou lyft vp thy voyce to the cloudes, that they may powre downe a great rayne vppon thee?

35 Canst thou sende the lyghtninges, that they may go their way, saying vnto thee, Loe here are we?

36 Who hath put wisedome in the reynes? or who hath geuen the hart vnderstanding?

37 Who numbreth the cloudes in wisedome? who stilleth the vehement * waters of the heauen?

38 (k) To cause the earth to growe into hardnesse, and the clotters to cleaue fast togeather?

39 (l) Wilt thou hunt the pray for the lion? or fyl the appetite of the lions whelpes?

40 When they couche in their places, and tarrye in the couert to lye in wayte?

41 Who prouideth meate for the Rauen, when his young ones crye vnto God, and flie about for lacke of meate?

The. xxxix. Chapter.

God proceedeth in declaring the ignorance of Iob, in the consyderation of his maruelous woorkes, in beastes and fowles.

1 KNowest thou the time when the wilde goates bring forth their young among the rockes? or (a) layest thou waite when the hyndes vse to calue?

2 Canst thou number the monethes that they go with young? or knowest thou the tyme when they bring forth?

3 They lye downe, they calue their young ones, and they are deliuered of their trauayle and payne:

4 Yet their young ones grow vp, and waxe fat through good feeding with corne: they go forth, and returne not againe vnto them.

5 Who letteth the wylde asse to go free? or who looseth the bondes of the wylde asse?

6 Then I whiche haue geuen the wyldernesse to be their house, and the (b) barraine lande to be their dwelling.

7 He scorneth the multitude of the citie, neither regarded the crying of the driuer.

8 The seeketh the pasture about the mountaynes, and soloweth the greene grasse.

9 Will

* Somme reade, hardes

(i) the yce couereth it, as though it were paued with stone.

* or, Arctu rus.

* or, Bootis.

(k) For so groweth the earth by the want of raine

(l) After he had shewed his maruailes aboue, he cometh to the earthly creatures, as though God would say, The thinges on the cloudes are vnknowen vnto thee, yea eue thinges on earth, thou dust not doe: how muche lesse then durst thou to reache to Gods secrete wisedome?

(a) He cheerfully recifeth these beastes, for they bring foorth their younglinges with greatest paine

(b) Somme reade, Salt places, meaning, barraine ground

(e) If thou canst not rule the Vnicorne, canst thou knowe gods secrets, or appoynt him to doo thy wyl.

9 Wyl the (e) Vnicorne bide thou serue, or abyde styl by thy cribbe?
10 Canst thou binde the reke about the Vnicorne in the fyrowe, to make hym plowe after thee in the balkes?
11 Darest thou trust him because he is strong, or commit thy labour vnto him?
12 Wylt thou beleue him ‖ he wyl bryng home thy * corne, or carry it into thy barne?
13 (Hauest thou) the fayre wynges vnto the Ostrockes, or wynges and feathers vnto the Estritche?
14 (The Estritche) leaueth her egges in the earth, and heateth them in the dust.
15 She remembreth not that they might be troden with feet, or broken with some wild beast.
16 So harde is she vnto her young ones, as though they were not hers, and (d) labour-eth in vayne without any feare.
17 And that because God hath (e) taken wisedome from her, and hath not geuen her vnderstanding.
18 When her time is that she mounteth on high, she careth neyther for the horse, nor the ryder.
19 (f) Hast thou geuen ‖ horse his strength? or learned him to ney courageously?
20 Canst thou make him afrayd as a grashopper? his stately neying is feareful.
21 He paweth the ground (with the hooues of his feete) he reioyceth in his strength, and runneth to meete the harnessed men.
22 He mocketh at feare, and is not afraide, neyther starteth he backe from the sworde.
23 Though the quyuers rattle vppon him, though the speare and sherpe glyster.
24 Yet runneth he in fiercely, beating the ground, he regardeth not the noyse of the trumpettes:
25 But when the trumpettes make mooste noyse, he saith, * Tush, so he smelleth the battaile a farre of, the noyse of the captaines, and the hooting.
26 Commeth it thought thy wisedome that the Goshauke sleeth with her wynges towarde the (g) south?
27 Doeth the Eagle mount vp, and make his nest on high at thy commaundement?
28 He abydeth in stonie rockes, & dwelleth vpon the high toppes of mountaines:
29 From whence he seeketh his pray, and looketh farre about with his eyes.
30 His young ones also sucke vp bloode: where any dead body lyeth, there is he.

(d) The Estriche when she hath hatched her egges, hydeth them in the sande, and by the heate of the same, the young are brought forth, but she leaueth the egges as careleslie, forgetting the place where she put the, and so her labour is vaine.
(e) To the natural reward her part.
(f) Thus in all creatures the glory of gods maiestie is declared.
* Ah, ha he.

(g) That is, see into the regions that are hot whe colde commeth.

The xl. Chapter.

God declareth the weakenesse of Iob, by comparing the same to his owne mighte and the power of Behemoth.

1 MOreouer, the Lorde spake vnto Iob, & 1
2 and saide,
Shal he whom the almyghtie wil chasten, contende with him? Shoulde not he which disputeth with God, geue hym an answeare?
3 Then Iob (a) answeared the Lorde, say-ing,
4 Beholde, I am vyle, what shal I answeare thee? (therefore) I wyl lay my hand vpon my mouth.
5 Once haue I spoken, but I wyl saye no more: yea twyse, but I wil proceede no fur-ther.
6 Then answeared the Lorde vnto Iob out of the whyrle winde, and saide, 7 Gyrde vp thy loynes nowe like a man: I wyl demaunde of thee, and make thou an-sweare.
8 Wylt thou (b) disanull my iudgement? or wylt thou condemne me, that thou mayest be righteous?
9 Is thy * power then like the power of God? maiest thy voice a sounde as his doth?
10 Decke thee selfe nowe with excellencie and maiestie, and arraye thee selfe with (c) beautie and glory.
11 Cast abroad the indignation of thy wrath, and beholde euery one that is proude, and abase him:
12 Looke on euery one that is arrogant, and bring him lowe, and destroye the wicked in their place:
13 Hyde them in the dust together, and co-uer their faces in (d) secrete.
14 Then wyl I confesse vnto thee also, that (e) thine owne right hande shal saue thee.
15 Beholde (the beast) (f) Behemoth, whom I made with thee, which eateth haye as an oxe.
16 Loe nowe his strength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the muscle of his belly.
17 When he wyl, he spreadeth out his tayle like a Cedar tree, the synewes of his stones are laye togethet.
18 His bones are strong as braste, yea, his bones are like stanes of yron.
19 He is the beginning of the wayes of God, he that made him, wyl make his (g) sworde to approche vnto him.
20 Surely the mountaynes bryng him forth grasse, where al the beastes of the field take their pastime.
21 He resteth him in the shade, in the couert of the reede and fennes.
22 The trees couer him with their shadowe, and the wyllowes of the brooke compasse him about.
23 Beholde, he swalloweth vp whole ryuers, and and feareth not, he thynketh that he can swalow up Iordane into his mouth.

24 He is (h) taken with his eyes, and the (snare) thrusteth hym through the nose.

...when he loweth place in the grounde where ... and couereth the same with haye, or ... to it, and falleth into the pyt, and ... thrusteth him through the nose, be... eateth part of hym.

The. xli. Chapter.

God setteth forth the malice, the members, the strength, and the pride of Leuiathan.

1 Canst thou drawe out (a) Leuiathan with an hoke? or bynde his tongue with a corde?

2 Canst thou put a hooke in the nose of hym? or bore his iawe thorough with a nedle?

3 Will he make many supplicacions vnto thee, or flatter thee?

4 Will he make a couenaunt vnto thee? or wylt thou take hym for a seruaunt for euer?

5 Wylt thou take thy pastyme with hym, as with a byrde, wylt thou bynde hym for thy maydens?

6 Shal thy companions make a banquet of hym, or shal he be parted among the marchauntes?

7 Canst thou fil the basket with his skinne? or the fysshers pottes with his head?

8 Lay thyne hande vpon hym, (b) remember the battayle, and doo no more.

9 Beholde, his hope is in vayne: for shal not (one) perish euen at the sight of hym?

10 No (c) man is so fierce that dare stirre hym vp: Who is able to stande before me?

11 Who hath geuen me any thyng afore hand, that I may reward hym agayne: All thynges vnder heauen are myne.

12 I wyl not kepe secret his great strength, his goodly, nor his comely proporcion.

13 Who can discouer the (d) face of his garment? or who shal come to him with a double bryde?

14 Who (e) shal open the doores of his face? for his teeth are terrible rounde about.

15 His scales are as it were strong shyldes, shut vp together as if they were sealed:

16 One is so ioyned to another, that no ayre can come in:

17 One cleaueth so vpon another, and sticketh so togyther, that they can not be sundred.

18 His (f) neesynges make a glysteryng like lyght, & his eyes like the ... of the morning shine.

19 Out of his mouth goe fyre dartes, & sparkes of fyre leape out.

20 And out of his nostrylles there goeth smoke, lyke as out of an whot seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath maketh the coales burne, and the flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his necke there remayneth strength, and sorowe is to labourous for hym.

23 The members of his fleshe are ioyned, and cleaue fast togyther, and can not be moued.

24 His hart is as harde as a stone, euen as fast as the (g) nether myllestone that the Smith setteth vpon.

25 When he maketh hym self, the worthies are afrayde, and feare troubleth them.

26 If any man draweth out a sworde at him, he wyll not resyste, neyther the speare, dartes, nor habergion.

27 He setteth as much by iron, as by a straw, and as much by hasle, as by a rotten sticke.

28 The sharpest not ayway from the arrowe: and as for slyng stones, they are as stubble vnto hym.

29 He counteth the darte as straw, he laugheth hym to scorne that shaketh the speare.

30 (a) Sharpe stones are vnder hym, and he lyeth vpon sharpe thynges, as vpon the soft myre.

31 He maketh the (h) deepe to boyle lyke a pot, and stereth the sea togyther lyke an ointment.

32 He maketh the (i) path to shyne after him, and he maketh the deepe to seeme all hourie.

33 Vpon earth there is no power lyke vnto his: for he is so made that he feareth not.

34 He beholdeth al the high thynges, (k) he is a kyng ouer al the children of pryde.

The. xlii. Chapter.

6. The repentance of Iob. 9. He prayeth for his frendes, 12. and his goodes are restored double vnto hym.

1 Then Iob answeared the Lorde, and sayde,

2 (a) I knowe that thou hast power ouer al thynges, & that there is no thought hyd from thee.

3 For who can kepe his owne counsayle so secrete, but it shalbe knowen? therefore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen the thynges that are to wonderful for me, and passe myne vnderstanding.

4 Then (b) hearken thou, and let me alone, and let me speake: answeare vnto the thynge that I wyl aske thee.

5 I haue heard of thee by the hearyng of the eare, but nowe myne eye seeth thee.

(a) Iob confesseth the omnipotencie of God, & bewayleth his offence that he spake he wyst not what.

(b) Iob desyreth to learne of God.

(c) He sawe not but one word, which is the ... & image ...

(f) For the hardnesse of his skyn is such, that he lyeth vpon it without paine, as in the soft myre.

(h) He spouteth out water in such sort, that the sea seeme to boyle.

(i) With a whyte froth vppon the water.

(k) He despiseth al other beastes & monsters, and is the proudest of all others.

wherefore I geue vnto you seuen bullocks and seuen rammes, and goe to my seruant Iob, and offer vp for your selues a burnt offering, and my seruant Iob shall pray for you: for him will I accept, that I impute not vnto you your folishnesse, in that ye haue not spoken of me the thyng which is right, like as my seruant Iob hath done.

9 So Eliphaz the Themanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the Lord commanded them: the Lord also had respect vnto Iob.

10 And the Lord (y) turned the captiuitie of Iob, when he prayed for his friendes: also the Lord gaue Iob twise as much as he had before.

11 Then there came vnto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that were of his acquaintance (z) afore time, and did eate bread with him in his house, and comforted him, & comforted him ouer all the euill that the Lord had brought vpon him: euery man also gaue him a piece of money, and euery one a golden earing.

12 So the Lord blessed the latter end of Iob more than his beginning: for he had fourteene thousand sheepe, and six thousand camelles: a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 He had seuen sonnes also, and three daughters.

14 The first (daughter) called Iemima, the second Kezia, & the third Kerenhappuch.

15 And in all the lande were no women found so faire as the daughters of Iob: and their father gaue them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this liued Iob an hundreth and fourtie yeeres, and saw his children, and his children's children, euen foure generations.

17 So Iob died old and full of dayes.

(d) Ye haue not spoken of me the thyng which is right, like as my seruant Iob hath done.

(y) Turned the captiuitie of Iob, that is, restored him from his troubles and afflictions.

(z) Which were his familiars.

Beatus vir. Psalm.j.

1 BLessed is that man that hath not walked in the counsel of ỹ vngodlye, nor standeth in the waye of synners, and hath not sytt in the seate of the scornefull.

2 But his delight is in the lawe of the Lorde: and in his lawe wyll he exercise him selfe day and nyght.

3 And he shalbe lyke a tree planted by the water syde: that wyll bryng forth his fruite in due season.

4 His leafe also shall not wither: and looke what so euer he doeth, it shall prospere.

5 As for the vngodlye, it is not so with them: but they are lyke the chaffe which the wynde scattereth awaye (from ỹ face of the earth.)

6 Therefore the vngodly shall not be able to stande in the iudgement: neyther the synners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lorde knoweth the waye of the righteous: and the waye of the vngodly shall perishe.

Quare fremuerunt. Psalm.ij.

1 WHy doo the heathen so furiously rage togeather: and why doo the people imagine a vayne thing?

2 The kinges of the earth stande vp, and the rulers take counsel togeather: against the Lorde, and against his annoynted.

3 Let vs breake their bondes a sunder: and cast away their cordes from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heauen shall laugh them to scorne: the Lorde shall haue them in derision.

5 Then shall he speake vnto them in his wrath: & vexe them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my kyng: vppon my holy hil of Sion.

7 I will preache the lawe, whereof the Lorde hath sayde vnto me: thou art my sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Desyre of me, and I shall geue thee, the heathen for thyne inheritance: and the vttermost partes of ỹ earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rodde of iron: and breake them in peces like a potters vessel.

10 Be wyse nowe therefore, O ye kynges: be learned ye that are iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lorde in feare: and reioyce vnto him with reuerence.

12 Kisse the sonne lest he be angry, and so ye perishe from the right way: yf his wrath be kindled (yea but a litle) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Domine quid. Psalm.iij.

1 LOrde howe are they encreased that trouble me: many are they that ryse agaynst me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soule: there is no helpe for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lorde, art my defender: thou art my worship, & lyfter vp of my head.

4 I did call vpon the Lord with my voyce: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I layde me downe and slept, and rose vp agayne: for the Lorde sustayned me.

6 I will not be afrayde for ten thousandes of people: that haue set them selues against me rounde about.

7 Vp Lorde, and helpe me, O my God: for thou smytest all myne enimies vppon the cheke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto the Lord: and thy blessing is vpon thy people.

Cum inuocarem. Psalm.iiij.

1 HEare me when I call, O God of my righteousnesse: thou hast set me at libertie when I was in trouble, haue mercie vppon me, and heerken vnto my prayer.

2 O ye sonnes of men, howe long wyll ye blaspheme myne honour: and haue such pleasure in vanitie, & seeke after leasinges?

3 Knowe this also, that the Lorde hath chosen him selfe the man that is godly: when I call vpon the Lorde, he will heare me.

4 Stande in awe and synne not: commune with your owne hart, & in your chamber, and be styl.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousnesse, and put your trust in the Lorde.

6 There be many that say: who wyll shew vs any good?

B 7 Lorde lyft thou vp: the lyght of thy countenance vpon vs.

8 Thou hast put gladnesse in my hart: sence the time that their corne & wine and oyle encreassid.

9 I wyl lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lorde only that makest me dwell in safetie.

Verba mea auribus. Psalm. v.

1 POnder my wordes, O Lorde: consyder my meditation.

2 O hearken thou vnto the voyce of my callyng, my king and my God: for vnto thee wyl I make my prayer.

3 My voyce shalt thou heare betimes, O Lorde: early in the mornyng wyll I direct my prayer vnto thee, and wyl looke vp.

4 For thou art the god that hast no pleasure in wickednesse: neyther shall any evyll dwel with thee.

5 Suche as be foolishe shall not stand in thy syght: for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasyng: the lord wyl abhorre both the bloodthirstie and deceiptful man.

B 7 But as for me, I wyl come into thy house, euen vppon the multitude of thy mercie, and in thy feare wyll I worshyp towarde thy hôly temple.

8 Leade me, O Lord, in thy righteousnesse, because of myne enimies: make thy way playne before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulnesse in his mouth: their inward partes are very wickednesse.

10 Their throte is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perishe through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlynesse, for they have rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee reioyce: they shall neuer be grevyng & thanking, because thou defendest them, they that love thy name shalbe joyful in thee.

13 For thou Lorde wylt geue thy blessyng vnto the righteous: and with thy fauourable kindnesse wylt thou defende him, as with a shielde.

Euenyng prayer.

Domine ne in furore. Psalm. vi.

1 O Lorde rebuke me not in thyne indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lorde, for I am weake: O Lorde heale me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soule is also sore troubled: but Lorde how long wylt thou punishe me?

4 Turne thee, O Lorde, and deliuer my soule: O saue me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who wyl geue thee thanckes in the pit?

6 I am werry of my groneyng, euery nyght washe I my bedde: and water my couche with my teares.

7 My beautie is gone for very trouble: and worne away because of all myne enimies. B

8 Away from me all ye that worke vanitie: for the Lorde hath heard the voyce of my weeping.

9 The Lorde hath heard my petition: the Lorde wyl receiue my prayer.

10 All myne enimies shalbe confounded and sore vexed: they shalbe turned backe and put to shame sodenly.

Domine deus meus. Psalm. vii.

1 O Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: saue me from all them that persecute me, and deliuer me. A

2 Lest he deuoure my soule like a Lion, and teare it in peeces: whyle there is none to helpe.

3 O Lorde my God, if I haue done any such thing: or if there be any wickednesse in my handes.

4 If I haue rewarded evyll vnto him that dealt frendly with me: yea I haue deliuered him that without any cause is myne enimie.

5 Then let myne enimie persecute my soule, and take me: yea let him treade my lyfe downe vppon the earth, and lay myne honour in the dust.

6 Stande vp, O Lorde, in thy wrath, and lyft vp thee selfe: because of the indignations of myne enimies, aryse vp for me in the iudgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And so shal the congregation of the peo- B ple. comme about thee: for their sakes therefore lyft vp thee selfe agayne.

8 The Lorde shall iudge the people, geue sentence with me, O Lorde: according to my righteousnesse, and according to the innocencie that is in me.

9 O let the wickednesse of the vngodlye come to an ende: but guide thou the iust.

10 For the righteous God: tryeth the very hartes and raines.

11 My helpe commeth of God: which preserueth them that are true of harte.

12 God is a righteous iudge, stronge and patient: and God is prouoked euery day.

13 If

13 If a man wyl not turne, he will whet his swoorde: he hath bent his bowe, and made it redy.

C 14 He hath prepared for hym the instrumentes of death: he ordreyneth his arrowes agaynst the persecutours.

15 Beholde, he trauayleth with mischiefe: he hath conceiued sorow, and brought forth vngodlynesse.

16 He hath grauen and digged vp a pyt: and is fallen hym selfe into the destruction that he made for other.

17 For his trauayle shal come vpon his owne head: and his wickednesse shal fal vpon his owne pate.

18 I wyl geue thankes vnto the Lord, according to his righteousnesse: and wyl prayse the name of the Lorde the most high.

Dominie dominus noster. Psal. viii.

I 1 O Lorde our gouernour, howe excellent is thy name in all the worlde: thou that hast set thy glory aboue the heauens.

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklinges hast thou ordeyned strength, because of thyne enimies: that thou mightest dyll the enimie and the auenger.

3 For I wyl consyder the heauens, euen the workes of thy fingers: the Moone and the Starres which thou hast ordeyned.

4 What is man that thou art so myndfull of hym: and the sonne of man that thou visitest him.

5 Thou madest him lower then the angels: to crowne him with glory and worshyp.

B 6 Thou madest him to haue dominion of the workes of thy handes: and thou hast put al thinges in subiection vnder his feete.

7 All therpe and oxen: yea, and the beastes of the feelde.

8 The foules of the ayre, and the fyshe of the sea: and whatsoeuer walketh throughe the pathes of the seas.

9 O Lorde our gouernour: howe excellent is thy name in al the worlde!

Confitebor tibi. Psal. ix.

I 1 I Wyl geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, with my whole hart: I wyl speake of al thy marueylous workes.

Beyng pyt.

2 I wyl be glad and reioyce in thee: yea, my songes wil I make of thy name, O thou most highest.

3 Whyle mine enimies are put backe: they shal fal and perishe at thy presence.

4 For thou hast mayntened my right, and my cause: thou dist sit in the throne that iudgest right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for euer and euer.

6 O thou enimie, destructions are come to a perpetual ende: euen as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lorde shal endure for euer: B he hath also prepared his seate for iudgement.

8 For he shal iudge the worlde in righteousnesse: and minister true iudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lorde also wyll be a defence for the oppressed: euen a refuge in due tyme of trouble.

10 And they that knowe thy name wyll put their trust in thee: for thou Lorde hast neuer fayled them that seeke thee.

11 O prayse the Lorde whiche dwelleth in Sion: shewe the people of his doynges.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaynt of the poore.

13 Haue mercy vpon me, O Lorde, consyder the trouble whiche I suffer of them that hate me: thou that lyftest me vp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shewe al thy prayses with- C in the portes of the daughter of Sion: I wil reioyce in thy saluation.

15 The heathen are (un[illegible]) in the pyt that they made: in the same net which they hid priuily, is their owne foote taken.

16 The Lorde is knowen to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the workes of his owne handes.

17 The wicked shalbe turned vnto hel: and al the people that forget God.

18 For the poore shal not alway be forgotten: the patient abydyng of the meeke shall not perysshe for euer.

19 Vp Lorde, and let not man haue the vpper hande: let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.

20 Put them in feare (O Lorde:) that the heathen may knowe them selues to be but men.

Vt quid domine, Psal. x.

I 1 W Herefore standest thou so farre of (O Lord:) and hidest thy face in the needful time of trouble. R

2 The vngodly for his owne lustes doth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the craftie wylynesse that they haue imagined.

3 For the vngodly hath made boast of his owne hartes desyre: and speaketh good of the couetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The prowde is so proude, that he careth not for GOD: neyther is GOD in all his thoughtes.

5 His wayes are alway grieuous: thy iudgementes are farre aboue out of his sight, and therefore defieth he all his enimies.

6 For he hath sayde in his hart, tushe, I shal neuer be cast downe: there shall no harme happen vnto me.

B 7 His mouth is full of cursyng, deceyt and fraude: vnder his tongue is vngodlynesse and vanitie.

8 He sitteth lurking in the corners of the streetes: and priuily in his lurkyng dennes doth he murder the innocent, his eyes are set agaynst the poore.

9 For he lyeth waytyng secretely: euen as a lion lurketh he in his denne, that he may ranushe the poore.

10 He doth ranushe the poore: when he getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth downe and humbleth him selfe: that the congregation of the poore may fall into the handes of his captaynes.

12 He hath sayd in his hart, tushe, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, and he wyl neuer see it.

13 Arise (O Lorde God) and lyft vp thyne handes: forget not the poore.

C 14 Wherefore shoulde the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth say in his hart, tushe, thou God carest not for it?

15 Surely thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest vngodlynesse and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the matter into thy handes: the poore committeth him selfe vnto thee, for thou art the helper of the frendlesse.

17 Breake thou the power of the vngodly and malitious: take away his vngodlinesse, and thou shalt finde none.

18 The Lorde is king for euer and euer: and the heathen are perished out of the lande.

19 Lorde thou hast heard the desyre of the poore: thou preparest their hart, and thine eare heareneth thereto.

20 To helpe the fatherlesse and poore vnto their ryght: that the man of the earth be no more exalted agaynst them.

In domino confido. Psal.xi.

1 IN the Lorde put I my trust: howe say ye then to my soule, that she should flee as a birde vnto the hyl?

2 For loe, the vngodly bende their bowe, and make redy their arrowes within the quiuer: that they may priuily shoote at them which are true of hart.

3 For the foundations wyll be cast downe: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lorde is in his holye temple: the Lordes seate is in heauen.

5 His eyes consyder the poore: and his eye lyddes tryeth the children of menne.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the vngodlye, and him that delighteth in wickednesse dooth his soule abhorre.

7 Vpon the vngodlye he shal rayne snares, fyre, and brimstone, storme, and tempest: this shalbe their portion to drynke.

8 For the righteous Lorde loueth righteousnesse: his countenance wyll beholde the thyng that is iust.

Saluum me fac. Psalm.xii.

1 HElpe me Lorde, for there is not one godly man left: for the faythful are minished from among the children of menne. A Euenyng prayer.

2 They talke of vanitie euery one with his neyghbour: they do but flatter with their lippes, and dissemble in their double hart.

3 The Lorde shall roote out all deceitfull lippes: and the tongue that speaketh proud thinges.

4 Whiche haue sayde, with our tongue wyl we preuayle: we are they that ought to speake, who is Lorde ouer vs?

5 Nowe for the comfortlesse troubles sake of the needie: and because of the deepe sighing of the poore,

6 I wil vp (sayth the Lord:) and wyl helpe euery one from hym that swelleth agaynst B him, and wyl set them at rest.

7 The wordes of the Lorde are pure wordes: euen as the syluer whiche from the earth is tryed and purified seuen tymes in the fyre.

8 Thou shalt keepe them (O Lorde:) thou shalt preserue them from this generation for euer.

9 The vngodly walke on euery syde: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Vsquequo domine. Psal.xiii.

1 HOwe long wilt thou forget me (O A Lorde) for euer: howe long wilt thou hyde thy face from me? Euenyng prayer.

2 Howe long shall I seeke counsayle in my soule, and be so vexed in my hart: how long shal mine enimies triumph ouer me.

3 Consyder and heare me, O Lorde my God: lyghten myne eyes, that I sleepe not in death.

4 Lest

4 Leſt mine enemies ſay, I haue preuayled againſt him: for if I be caſt downe, they that trouble me wyl reioyce at it.
5 But my truſt is in thy mercie: and my hart is ioyful in thy ſaluation.
6 I wyll ſyng of the Lorde, becauſe he hath dealt ſo louingly with me: yea, I wyll prayſe the name of the Lorde moſt higheſt.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſalm.xiiii.

1 THE foole hath ſaide in his harte: there is no God.
2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doinges: there is not one that doth good (no not one.)
3 The Lord looked downe from heauen vp-on the children of men: to ſee if there were any that would vnderſtande and ſeeke after God.
4 But they are al gone out of the way: they are altogether become abominable, there is none that doeth good, no not one.
5 Their throte is an open ſepulchre, with their tongues haue they deceiued: the poy-ſon of Aſpes is vnder their lippes.
6 Their mouth is full of curſyng and bitternes: their feete are ſwift to ſhed blood.
7 Deſtruction and vnhappineſſe is in their wayes, and the way of peace haue they not knowen: there is no feare of God before their eyes.
8 Haue they no knowledge that they are all ſuche woorkers of miſcheefe: eatyng vp my people as it were bread?
9 And call not vpon the Lorde, there were they brought in great feare (euen where no feare was:) for God is in the generaction of the righteous.
10 As for you ye haue made a mocke at the counſayle of the poore: becauſe he putteth his truſt in the Lorde.
11 Who ſhall geue ſaluation vnto Iſrael out of Sion? when the Lorde turneth the cap-tiuitie of his people, then ſhall Iacob re-ioyce, and Iſrael ſhalbe glad.

Domine quis habitabit. Pſalm.xv.

3 He that hath vſed no deceipt in his tongue, not ſlaundered his neighbours.

4 He that ſetteth not by himſelfe, but is of them that feare the Lorde.

5 He that ſweareth vnto his neighbour, and diſappointeth him not: though it were to 6 He that hath not geuen his money vppon

7 Who ſo doeth theſe thinges: ſhall neuer

Conſerua me. Pſalm.xvi.

1 PReſerue me, O God: for in thee haue
I put my truſt.
2 O my ſoule, thou haſt ſaide vnto the Lorde: thou art my God, my goodes are nothing vnto thee.
3 All my delight is vpon the ſaintes that are in the earth: and vppon ſuche as excell in vertue.
4 But they that runne after another God:
ſhal haue great trouble.
5 Their drinke offeringes of blood wyll I not offer: neyther make mention of their names within my lippes.
6 The Lorde him ſelfe is the portion of myne inheritaunce, and of my cup: thou ſhalt maynteyne my lot.
7 The lotte is fallen vnto me in a fayre grounde: yea, I haue a goodly heritage.
8 I wyll thanke the Lorde for geuing me warning: my reynes alſo chaſten me in the nyght ſeaſon.
9 I haue ſet God alwayes before me: for he is on my right hande, therefore I ſhall not fall.
10 Wherefore my hart was glad, and my glorye reioyced: my fleſhe alſo ſhall reſt in hope.
11 For why? thou ſhalt not leaue my ſoule in hell: neyther ſhalt thou ſuffer thyne holy one to ſee corruption.
12 Thou ſhalt ſhewe me the path of lyfe, in thy preſence is the fulneſſe of ioy: and at thy right hande there is pleaſure for evermore.

Exaudi domine iuſtitiam. Pſalm.xvii.

1 HEare the ryght, O Lorde, conſyder my complaynt: and hearken vnto my prayer, that goeth not out of fay-ned lippes.
2 Let my ſentence come forth from thy preſence: and let thyne eyes looke vpon the thing that is equal.
3 Thou haſt proued and viſited myne hart in the nyght ſeaſon, thou haſt tryed me, and ſhalt fynde no wickednes in me: for I am vtterly purpoſed that my mouth ſhall not offende.

4 Because of mens woorkes that are done agaynst the woordes of my lippes: I haue kept me from the wayes of the destroyer.

5 O hold thou vp my goinges in thy paths: that my foote steppes slip not.

6 I haue called vpon thee, O God, for thou shalt heare me: enclyne thyne eare to me, and hearken vnto my woordes.

7 Shewe thy marueylous louyng kyndnesse, thou that art the sauiour of them B whiche put their trust in thee: from such as resyst thy right hande.

8 Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hide me vnder the shadowe of thy wynges.

9 From the vngodly that trouble me: mine enimies compasse me rounde about, to take away my soule.

10 They are enclosed in their owne fat: and their mouth speaketh proude thinges.

11 They lye wayting in our way on euery syde: turnyng their eyes downe to the grounde.

12 Like as a Lion that is greedy of his pray: and as it were a Lions whelpe lurking in secrete places.

13 Vp Lorde, disapoynt him, and cast him downe: deliuer my soule from the vngodly whiche is a sworde of thyne.

14 From the men of thy hande, O Lorde, C from the men, I say, and from the euyll worlde: whiche haue their portion in this lyfe, whose bellies thou fyllest with thy hid treasure.

15 They haue children at their desyre: and leaue the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will beholde thy presence in righteousnesse: and when I awake vp after thy likenesse, I shalbe satisfyed with it.

Diligam te. Psalm. xviii.

A 1 I Wyll loue thee (O Lorde) my strength, the Lorde is my stony rocke and my defence: my sauiour, my God, and my myght, in whom I wyl trust, my buckler, the horne also of my saluation, and my refuge.

Euenyng prayer.

2 I will call vpon the Lorde, whiche is woorthy to be prayed: so shall I be safe from myne enimies.

3 The sorowes of death compassed me: and the ouerflowynges of vngodlynesse made me afrayde.

4 The paynes of hell came about me: the snares of death ouertooke me.

5 In my trouble I wyl call vpon the Lorde: and complaine vnto my God.

6 So shal he heare my voyce out of his (holy) temple: and my complaynt shal come before hym, it shall enter euen into his eares.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the de- B ry fundations also of the hylles shooke, and were remoued, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence: and a consumyng fyre out of his mouth, so that coales were kyndeled at it.

9 He bowed the heauens also, and came downe: and it was darke vnder his feete.

10 He rode vpon the Cherubins, & did flee: he came fleeyng vpon the wynges of the winde.

11 He made darknesse his secrete place: his pauilion rounde about hym, with darke water and thicke cloudes to couer hym.

12 At the brightnesse of his presence his clou- des remooued: haylestones, and coales of fyre.

13 The Lorde also thundred out of heauen, and the hyghest gaue his thunder: hayle- stones and coales of fyre.

14 He sent out his arrowes, and scattered C them: he cast foorth lyghtenynges, and de- stroyed them.

15 The springes of waters were seene, and the fundations of the rounde worlde were discouered at thy chydyng, O Lorde: at the blastyng of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall sende downe from the hygh to fetche me: and shal take me out of many waters.

17 He shal deliuer me from my strongest enimie, and from them whiche hate me: for they are to myghtie for me.

18 They preuented me in the day of my trou- ble: but the Lorde was my vpholder.

19 He brought me foorth also into a place of liberte: he brought me foorth, euen be- cause he had a fauour vnto me.

20 The Lorde shall rewarde me after my ryghteous dealyng: according to the clean- nesse of my handes shall he recompence me.

21 Because I haue kept the wayes of the D Lorde: and haue not forsaken my God as the wicked doeth.

22 For I haue an eye vnto al his lawes: and wyll not caste out his commaundementes from me.

23 I was also vncorrupt before hym: and es- chewed myne owne wickednesse.

24 Therefore shal the Lord reward me after my ryghteous dealyng: and according vnto the cleannesse of my handes in his eye syght.

25 With the holy, thou shalt be holy: and with a perfect man, thou shalt be per- fecte,

26 With the cleane, thou shalt be cleane: and and with the frowarde, thou ſhalt learne frowardneſſe.

27 For thou ſhalt ſaue the people that are in auerſitie: and ſhalt bring downe the high lookes of the proude.

D 28 Thou alſo ſhalt lyght my candle: the Lorde my God ſhal make my darkeneſſe to be light.

29 For in ther I ſhal diſcomfite an hoſt of men: and with the helpe of my God I ſhal leape ouer the wal.

30 The way of God is an vndefiled waye, the woorde of the Lorde alſo is tryed in the fire: he is the defender of al them that put their truſt in him.

31 For who is God, but the Lorde? or who hath any ſtrength, except our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with ſtrength of warre: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feete like Hartes feete: and ſetteth me vp on high.

E 34 He teacheth my handes to fight: and mine armes ſhal breake euen a bowe of ſteele.

35 Thou haſt geuen me the defence of thy ſalnation: thy right hande alſo ſhal holde me vp, and thy louing correction ſhal make me great.

36 Thou ſhalt make roome enough vnder me for to goe: that my footſteppes ſhal not ſlyde.

37 I wyl folowe vppon myne enimies, and ouertake them: neither wyl I turne againe tyl I haue deſtroyed them.

38 I wyl ſmite them, that they ſhal not be able to ſtande: but fal vnder my feete.

39 Thou haſt gyrded me with ſtrength vnto the batayle: thou ſhalt throwe downe mine enimies vnder me.

F 40 Thou haſt made mine enimies alſo to turne their backes vpon me: and I ſhal deſtroye them that hate me.

41 They ſhal crye, but there ſhalbe none to helpe them: yea, euen vnto the Lorde ſhal they crye, but he ſhal not heare them.

42 I wyl beate them as ſmal as the duſt before the wynde: I wyl caſt them out as the clay in the ſtreetes.

43 Thou ſhalt deliuer me from the ſtriuings of the people: and thou ſhalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I haue not knowen: ſhal ſerue me.

45 As ſoone as they heare of me, they ſhal obey me: but the ſtrange children ſhal diſſemble with me.

G 47 The ſtrange children ſhal fayle, and be afraide out of their holdes.

46 The Lorde lyueth, and bleſſed be my ſtrong helper: and praiſed be the God of my ſaluation.

48 Euen the God whiche ſeeth that I be auenged: and ſubdueth the people vnto me.

49 He is he that deliuereth me from my (cruel) enimies, & ſetteth me vp aboue mine aduerſaries: thou ſhalt ryd me from the wicked man.

50 For this cauſe wyl I geue thankes vnto thee (O Lorde) among the Gentiles: and ſing prayſes vnto thy name.

51 Great proſperitie geueth he vnto his king: and ſheweth louing kindneſſe vnto Dauid his anoynted, and vnto his ſeede for euermore.

Celi enarrant. Pſalm. xix.

1 THE heauens declare the glorye of God: and the firmament ſheweth his handy worke. A Mornyng prayer.

2 One day telleth another: and one nyght certifieth another.

3 There is neyther ſpeache nor language: but their voyces are hearde among them.

4 Their ſounde is gone out into al landes: and their woordes into the endes of the worlde.

5 In them hath he ſet a tabernacle for the ſonne: whiche commeth forth as a bryde-groome out of his chamber, and reioyceth as a gyant to runne his courſe.

6 It goeth forth from the vttermoſt parte of the heauen: and runneth about vnto the ende of it againe: and there is nothing hyd from the heate therof.

7 The law of the Lorde is an vndefiled law, B converting the ſoule: the teſtimonie of the Lorde is ſure, and geueth wiſedome vnto the ſimple.

8 The ſtatutes of the Lorde are right, and reioyce the hart: the commaundement of the Lorde is pure, and geueth lyght vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the Lorde is cleane, and endureth for euer: the iudgementes of the Lorde are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be deſired are they then golde, yea, then much fine golde: ſweeter alſo then hony, and the hony combe.

11 Moreouer, by them is thy ſeruant taught: & in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tel how oft he offendeth? O cleanſe thou me from my ſecrete faultes.

13 Keepe thy ſeruant alſo from preſumptuous ſinnes, leſt they get the dominion ouer me: ſo ſhal I be vndefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the wordes of my mouth, and the C meditation of my harte, be alway acceptable in thy ſyght.

15 O

15 O Lorde: my strength and my redeemer.

Dandixit te Dominus. psalm.xx.

1 THe Lord heare thee in the day of trouble: the name of the God of Jacob defende thee.

2 Sende thee helpe from the sanctuarie: and strength thee out of Sion.

3 Remember all thy offeringes: and accept thy burnt sacrifice.

4 Graunt thee thy hartes desire: and fulfyl all thy minde.

5 We wyl reioyce in thy saluation, and triumph in the name of the Lord our God: the Lord perfourme al thy petitions.

6 Nowe know I that the Lord helpeth his anoynted, and wyl heare him from his holy heauen: euen with the wholsome strength of his right hande.

7 Some put their trust in charettes, and some in horses: but we wyl remember the name of the Lorde our God.

8 They are brought downe and fallen: but we are risen and stand vpright.

9 Saue Lord, and heare vs, O king of heauen: when we cal vpon thee.

Domine in virtute. psalm.xxi.

1 THe kyng shal reioyce in thy strength, O Lorde: exceedyng glad shal he be of thy saluation.

2 Thou hast geuen hym his hartes desyre: and hast not denyed hym the request of his lyppes.

3 For thou hast preuent him with the blessynges of goodnesse: and shalt set a crowne of pure golde vpon his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gauest him a long life: euen for euer and euer.

5 His honour is great in thy saluation: glorye and great worshyp shalt thou lay vpon him.

6 For thou shalt geue him euerlasting felicitie: and make him glad with the ioy of thy countenance.

7 And why? because the kyng putteth his trust in the Lorde: and in the mercye of the most highest he shal not mysse.

8 All thine enimies shal feele thy hande: thy right hande shal finde out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery Ouen in time of thy wrath: the Lord shal destroye them in his displeasure, and the fire shal consume them.

10 Their frute shalt thou roote out of the earth: and their seede from among the children of men.

11 For they intended mischefe against thee: and imagined such a deuise as they are not able to perfourme.

12 Therfore shalt thou put them to flight: and the stringes of thy bowe shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted Lorde in thine owne strength: so wyl we syng and prayse thy power.

Deus deus meus. psalm.xxii.

1 MY God my God (looke vpon me) why hast thou forsaken me: and art so farre from my health, and from the wordes of my complaint? Euenyng prayer.

2 O my God, I crye in the day tyme, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.

3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worshyp of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.

5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worme, and no man: a very scorne of men, and the outcast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they shoote out their lippes, and shake their heads, saying,

8 He trusted in God that he would deliuer hym: let hym deliuer hym, if he wyl haue hym.

9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers breastes.

10 I haue ben cast vnto thee euer sence I was borne: thou art my God, euen from my mothers wombe.

11 O go not from me, for trouble is harde at hande: and there is none to helpe me.

12 Many oxen are comme about me: fatte bulles of Basan close me in on euery side.

13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes: as it were a rampyng and roaryng Lyon.

14 I am powred out like water, and al my bones are out of ioynt: my hart also in the myddest of my body, is euen like melting wax.

15 My strength is dryed vp like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummes: and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For (many) dogges are comme about me: and the counsel of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17 They

17 They pearced my handes and my feete:
I may tell all my bones: they stande starynge and lookynge vpon me.
18 They part my garmentes among them:
and cast lottes vpon my vesture.
19 But be not thou farre from me, O Lorde:
thou art my succour, haste the to helpe me.
20 Deliuer my soule from the swearde: my darlyng from the power of the dogge.
21 Saue me from the Lions mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the hornes of the Unicornes.
22 I will declare thy name vnto my brethren:
in the myddes of the congregation wyll I prayse the.
23 O prayse the Lorde ye that feare hym:
magnifie hym all ye of the seede of Iacob, and feare hym all ye of the seede of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the lowe estate of the poore, he hath not hydde his face from him: but when he called vnto him, he heard hym.
25 My prayse is of the in the great congregation: my vowes wyll I performe in the sight of them that feare hym.
26 The poore shal eate and be satisfied: they that seeke after the Lorde, shal prayse him, your hart shal lyue for euer.
27 All the endes of the worlde shal remember them selues, & be turned vnto the Lord:
and all the kynredes of the nations shal worshyp before him.
28 For the kyngdome is the Lordes: and he is the gouernour among the people.
29 All such as be fat vpon earth: haue eaten and worshypped.
30 All they that goe downe to the dust shall kneele before hym: and no man hath quickened his owne soule.
31 My seede shall serue him: they shalbe counted vnto the Lorde for a generation.
32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnes: vnto a people that shalbe borne, whom the Lorde hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. xxiii.

1 THE Lord is my Shepheard: therefore can I lacke nothyng.
2 He shal feede me in a greene pasture: &
leade me forth beside the waters of comforte.
3 He shall conuert my soule: and bring me forth in the pathes of righteousnesse, for his names sake.
4 Yea though I walke through the valley of the shadowe of death, I wyll feare no euyl:
for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staffe comfort me.
5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me, against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oyle, and my cup is full.
6 But thy louing kindnesse and mercie shall folowe me all the dayes of my lyfe: and I wyl dwel in the house of the Lord for euer.

Domini est terra. Psalm. xxiiii.

1 THE earth is the Lordes, and all that therein is: the compasse of the worlde, and they that dwell therein. Morning prayer.
2 For he hath founded it vpon the seas: and prepared it vpon the floodes.
3 Who shall ascende into the hyl of the Lorde: or who shal rise vp in his ho-lie place?
4 Euen he that hath cleane handes, and a pure hart: and hath not lyft vp his minde vnto vanitie, nor sworne to deceyue his neyghbour.
5 He shall receyue the blessyng from the Lorde: and righteousnesse from the God of his saluation.
6 This is the generation of them that seeke hym: euen of them that seeke thy face, O Iacob.
7 Lyft vp your heades, O ye gates, and be ye lyfte vp ye euerlastyng doores: and the kyng of glorie shal come in.
8 Who is the kyng of glorie: it is the Lord strong and mightie, euen the Lord mightie in battayle.
9 Lyft vp your heades, O ye gates, and be ye lyfte vp ye euerlastyng doores: and the kyng of glorie shal come in.
10 Who is the kyng of glorie: euen the Lorde of hostes, he is the kyng of glorie.

Ad te domine. Psalm. xxv.

1 VNTO the, O Lord, wyl I lift vp my soule, my God, I haue put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let myne enimies triumph ouer me.
2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed: but such as transgresse without a cause, shalbe put to confusion.
3 Shewe me thy wayes, O Lord: and teach me thy pathes.
4 Leade me forth in thy trueth and learne me: for thou art the God of my saluation, in thee hath ben my hope al the day long.
5 Cal to remembrance, O Lorde, thy tender mercies: and thy louing kindnesse wher-of they have ben euer of olde.
6 Oh remember not the sinnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercie thynke thou vpon me (O Lorde) for thy goodnesse.

7 Gracious

ℬ 7 Good and ryghtwys is the Lorde: therfore wyl he teache synners in the way.
8 The meeke shal he guyde in iudgement: and suche as be gentle, them shal he learne his way.
9 All the pathes of the Lorde are mercie and trueth: vnto suche as kepe his couenant and his testimonies.
10 For thy names sake, O Lorde: be merciful vnto my synne, for it is great.
11 What man is he that feareth the Lorde: hym shall he teache in the way that he shall chose.
12 His soule shal dwel at ease: and his seede shal inherite the lande.
13 The secrete of the Lorde is among them that feare hym: and he wyl shewe them his couenant.
ℭ 14 Myne eyes are euer lokyng vnto the Lorde: for he shal plucke my feete out of the net.
15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercie vpon me: for I am desolate, and in miserie.
16 The sorowes of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.
17 Loke vpon mine aduersitie and miserie: and forgeue me all my synne.
18 Consyder mine enimies howe many they are: & they beare a tyrannous hate against me.
19 O keepe my soule, and deliuer me: let me not be confounded, for I haue put my trust in thee.
20 Let perfectnesse and ryghteousnesse wayte vpon me: for my hope hath ben in thee.
21 Deliuer Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Iudica me Domine. Psalm. xxvi.

1 BE thou my iudge, O Lorde, for I haue walked innocently: my trust hath ben also in the Lorde, therefore shall I not fall.
2 Examine me, O Lorde, and proue me: trye out my reynes and my hart.
3 For thy louyng kyndenesse is euer before myne eyes: and I wyl walke in thy truth.
4 I haue not vsed with vayne persons: neyther wyl I haue fellowshyp with the dissembler.
5 I haue hated the congregation of the wicked: and wyl not syt among the vngodly.
6 I wyl wasshe my handes in innocencie, O Lorde: and so wyl I go to thyne aulter.
ℬ 7 That I may shewe the voyce of thankesgeuyng: and tell of all thy wonderous woorkes.
8 Lorde, I haue loued the habitation of thy house: and the place where thyne honour dwelleth.
9 O shut not vp my soule with the synners: nor my lyfe with the bloudthyrstie.
10 In whose handes is wicked dealyng: and their ryght hand are ful of gyftes.
11 But as for me, I wyl walke innocently: O Lord deliuer me, & be merciful vnto me.
12 My foote standeth ryght: I wyll praise the Lorde in the congregation.

Dominus illuminatio. Psalm. xxvii.

1 THE Lord is my light, and my sal- Euenyng uation, whom then shal I feare? prayer.
the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shal I be afrayde?
2 When the wicked (euen mine enimies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host of men were layd against me, yet shal not my hart be afrayde: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet wyl I put my trust in hym.
4 One thyng haue I desyred of the Lorde, whiche I wyl persourme: euen that I may dwel in the house of the Lorde al the dayes of my lyfe, to behold the fayre beautie of the Lorde, and to visite his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble he shal hide me in his tabernacle: yea in the secrete place of his dwellyng shal he hyde me, and set me vp vpon a rocke of stone.
6 And now shal he lift vp mine head: aboue myne enimies rounde about me.
7 Therefore wyl I offer in his dwellyng ℬ an oblation with great gladnesse: I wyll syng, and speake prayses vnto the Lorde.
8 Harken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I crye vnto thee: haue mercie vpon me, and heare me.
9 My hart hath talked of thee, seeke ye my face: thy face Lorde wyl I seeke.
10 O hyde not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy seruant away in displeasure.
11 Thou hast ben my succour, leaue me not: neither forsake me, O God of my saluation.
12 When my father and my mother forsake me: the Lorde taketh me vp.
13 Teach me thy way, O Lord: & leade me forth the ryght way, because of myne enimies.
14 Deliuer me not ouer into the wyll of ℭ mine aduersaries: for there are false witnesses risen vp against me, & such as speake wrong.
15 I should vtterly haue fayled: but that I beleeue verily to see the goodnesse of the Lorde in the lande of the lyuing.
16 O tary thou the Lords leisure: be strong, and he shall comfort thyne hart, and put thou thy trust in the Lorde.

Ad te Domine. Pſalm. xxviii.

1 VNto thee wyl I crye, O Lorde my ſtrength: thinke no ſcorne of me, leaſt if thou make as though thou heareſt not, I become like them that goe downe into the pyt.
2 Heare the voyce of my humble petitions when I crye vnto thee: when I holde vp my handes toward the mercie ſeate of thy holy temple.
3 O plucke me not away (neyther deſtroye me) with the vngodly and wicked doers:
which ſpeake freendly to their neighbours,
but imagine miſchefe in their hartes.
4 Reward them accordyng to their deedes:
and accordyng to the wickednes of their owne inuentions, recompence them after the woorke of their handes, pay them that they haue deſerued.
5 For they regarde not in their mynde the woorkes of the Lorde, nor the operation of his handes: therefore ſhal he breake them downe, and not buylde them vp.
6 Praiſed be the Lorde: for he hath hearde
the voyce of my humble petitions.
7 The Lord is my ſtrength and my ſhielde, my hart hath truſted in hym, and I am helpen therefore my hart daunceth for ioy, and in my ſongue wyl I praiſe him.
8 The Lorde is my ſtrength: and he is the wholeſome defence of his annoynted.
9 O ſaue thy people, and geue thy bleſſyng them vp for euer.

Aſſerte Domino. Pſalm. xxix.

1 BRyng vnto the Lorde (O ye myghtie) bryng yong rammes vnto the Lorde:
aſcribe vnto the Lorde worſhyp and 2 Geue the Lorde the honour due vnto his

3 It is the Lord that commaundeth the wa-

4 It is the Lorde that ruleth the ſea, the voyce of the Lorde is mightie in operation:
the voyce of the Lorde is a glorious voyce.
5 The voyce of the Lorde breaketh the Ce-

6 He made them alſo to ſkyp like a Calfe:
Libanus alſo and Syrion like a young Vni-

7 The voyce of the Lord diuideth the flam-

2 O Lorde my God, I cryed vnto thee:
and thou haſt healed me.
3 Thou Lorde haſt brought my ſoule out of hel: thou haſt kept my life from them that goe downe to the pyt.
4 Syng prayſes vnto the Lord (O ye ſaintes of his:) and geue thankes vnto hym for a remembrance of his holynes.
5 For his wrath endureth but the twinck-lyng of an eye, and in his pleaſure is lyfe:
heauines may endure for a nyght, but ioy commeth in the morning.
6 And in my proſperitie I ſaide, I ſhal nenes hadſt made my hyl ſo ſtrong.

7 Thou hyddeſt turne thy face (fro me:) B

8 Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lorde: and gate me vnto my Lorde ryght humbly.
9 What profite is there in my blood: when
I goe downe to the pyt?
10 Shal the duſte geue thankes vnto thee:
or ſhal it declare thy truth?
11 Heare, O Lorde, and haue mercye vpon

12 Thou haſte turned my heauines into

In te Domine ſperaui. Pſalm. xxxi.

1 IN thee, O Lorde, haue I put my truſt: A let me neuer be put to confuſion, deliuer me in thy righteouſnes.
2 Bowe downe thyne eare to me: make haſt to deliuer me.
3 And be thou my ſtrong rocke, and the houſe of defence that thou mayſt ſaue me.
4 For thou art my ſtrong rocke, and my ca-ſtle: be thou alſo my guyde, and leade me for thy names ſake.
5 Drawe me out of the net that they haue laid priuily for me: for thou art my ſtrength.

6 Into thy handes I commend my spirite: for thou hast redemed me, O Lorde, thou God of trueth.

B.7 I haue hated them that holde of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath ben in the Lorde.

8 I wyl be glad, and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou hast consydered my trouble, and hast knowen my soule in aduersities.

9 Thou hast not shut me vp into the hande of the enimie: but hast set my feet in a large roome.

10 Haue mercy vpon me, O Lorde, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heauinesse, yea, my soule, and my bodye.

11 For my life is waren olde with heauinesse: and my yeres with mourning.

12 My strength falleth me, because of mine iniquitie: and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproofe among al mine enimies, but specially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, and they that dyd see me without, conueighed them selues from me.

C 14 I am cleane forgotten as a dead man out of minde: I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I haue heard the blasphemie of the multitude: and feare is on euery side, while they conspyre togeather against me, and take their counsaile to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath ben in thee, O Lorde: I haue saide, thou art my God.

17 My tyme is in thy hande, deliuer me from the hande of mine enimies: and from them that persecute me.

18 Shewe thy seruant the light of thy countenance: and saue me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lorde, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the graue.

20 Let the lying lyppes be put to silence: whiche cruelly, disdainefully, and despitefully speake against the righteous.

D 21 O how plentiful is thy goodnesse which thou hast layde vp for them that feare thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, euen before the sonnes of men.

22 Thou shalt hide them priuily by thine owne presence, from the prouoking of all men: thou shalt keepe them secretely in thy tabernacle, from the strife of tongues.

23 Thankes be to the Lorde: for he hath shewed me marueylous great kindenesse in a strong citie.

24 And when I made haste, I saide: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Neuertheless, thou heardest the voyce of my prayer: when I cryed vnto thee.

26 O loue the Lorde al ye his saintes: for the Lorde preserueth them that are faythful, & plenteously rewardeth the proude doer.

27 Be strong, and he shal stablish your hart: al ye that put your trust in the Lorde.

Beati quorum. Psalm. xxxii.

1 BLessed is he whose vnrighteousnesse is forgeuen: and whose synne is couered. A Euenyng prayer.

2 Blessed is the man vnto whom the Lorde imputeth no synne: & in whose spirite there is no guyle.

3 For while I helde my tongue: my bones consumed awaye, through my dayly complaynyng.

4 For thy hande is heauie vpon me day and night: and my moysture is like the drought in sommer.

5 I wyl knowledge my sinne vnto thee: and mine vnrighteousnesse haue I not hyd.

6 I saide, I wyl confesse my sinnes vnto the Lorde: and so thou forgauest the wickednesse of my sinne.

7 For this shal euery one that is godly, make A his prayer vnto thee, in a time when thou mayest be founde: but in the great water floodes, they shal not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserue me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songues of deliuerance.

9 I wyl enfourme thee, and teache thee in the way wherein thou shalt goe: and I wyl guyde thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule whiche haue no vnderstandyng: whose mouthes must be holden with byt and bridle, least they fal vpon thee.

11 Great plagues remayne for the vngodly: but who so putteth his truste in the Lorde, mercy embraceth him on euery side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and reioyce in the Lorde: and be ioyful, al ye that are true of hart.

Exultate iusti. Psalm. xxxiii.

1 REioyce in the Lorde, O ye righteous: for it becommeth wel the iuste to be thankful. B

2 Prayse the Lord with harpe: sing psalmes vnto hym with the lute, and instrument of tenne strynges.

3 Syng vnto the Lorde a newe songue: syng prayses lustily (vnto him) with a good courage.

4 For the woorde of the Lorde is true: and al his workes are faythfull.
5 He loueth ryghteouſneſſe and iudgement:
the earth is ful of the goodneſſe of the Lord.
6 By the woorde of the Lorde were the hea-uens made: and all the hoſtes of them by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathereth the waters of the ſea together as it were vpon an heape: and layeth vp the deepe as in a treaſure houſe.
8 Let al the earth feare the Lorde: ſtande in awe of hym, al ye that dwel in the worlde.
9 For he ſpake, and it was donne: he commaunded, and it ſtoode faſt.
10 The Lord bringeth the counſayle of the heathen to nought: and maketh the deui-ſes of the people to be of none effect, (and caſteth out the counſayles of princes.)
11 The counſayle of the Lorde ſhall endure for euer: and the thoughts of his hart from generation to generation.
12 Bleſſed are the people whoſe God is the Lorde Iehouah: and bleſſed are the folke that haue choſen hym to be their inherit-aunce.
13 The Lorde looked downe from heauen, and beholde all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling, he conſydereth al them that dwel in the earth.
14 He faſhioneth al the hartes of them: and vnderſtandeth al their workes.
15 There is no kyng that can be ſaued by the multitude of an hoſt: neyther is any mighty man delyuered by much ſtrength.
16 An hoyſe is counted but a vaine thyng to ſaue a man: neyther ſhal he delyuer any man by his great ſtrength.
17 Beholde, the eye of the Lorde is vpon them that feare hym: and vpon them that put their truſt in his mercie.
18 To delyuer their ſoules from death: and to feede them in the tyme of dearth.
19 Our ſoule hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our helpe, and our ſhielde.
20 For our hart ſhal reioyce in hym: becauſe we haue hoped in his holy name.
21 Let thy merciful kindneſſe (O Lord) be vpon vs: lyke as we haue put our truſt in thee.

Benedicam dominum. Pſalm. xxxiiii.

1 I Wyll alwaye geue thankes vnto the Lorde: his prayſe ſhal euer be in my mouth.
2 My ſoule ſhal make her boaſt of the lord:
the humble ſhall heare thereof, and be glad.
3 O prayſe the Lorde with me: and let vs magnifie his name togeather.
4 I ſought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he delyuered me out of al my feare.
5 They had an eye vnto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not aſha-med.
6 Loe, the poore cryeth, and the Lorde heareth hym: yea, and ſaueth hym out of al his troubles.
7 The angel of the Lorde tarrieth rounde about them that feare hym: and delyuereth them.
8 O taſte and ſee howe gratious the Lorde is: bleſſed is the man that truſteth in hym.
9 O feare the Lorde ye that be his ſaintes:
for they that feare hym, lacke nothyng.
10 The Lions doo lacke, and ſuffer hunger:
but they that ſeeke the Lorde, ſhall want no maner of thyng that is good.
11 Come ye children, and hearken vnto me:
I wyl teache you the feare of the Lorde.
12 What man is he that luſteth to lyue, and would faine ſee good dayes: kepe thy tongue from euyl, and thy lyppes that they ſpeake no guyle.
13 Eſchewe euyl, and doo good: ſeke peace,
and enſue it.
14 The eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous: and his eares are open vnto their prayers.
15 The countenance of the Lorde is againſt them that do euyl: to roote out the remembraunce of them from the earth.
16 The ryghteous crye, & the Lorde heareth them: and delyuereth them out of all their troubles.
17 The Lorde is nygh vnto them that are of a contrite hart: and wyl ſaue ſuche as be of an humble ſpirite.
18 Great are the troubles of the ryghteoous: but the Lorde delyuereth hym out of all.
19 He keepeth al his bones: ſo that not one of them is broken.
20 But miſchyefe ſhal ſlay the vngodly:
and they that hate the ryghteous ſhalbe de-ſolate.
21 The Lorde delyuereth the ſoules of his ſeruantes: and all they that put their truſt in him, ſhal not be deſtitute.

Morning prayer.

agaynst them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischefe for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the wynde: and the angel of the Lord scatteryng them.

6 Let their way be darke and slipperie: and let the angel of the Lord persecute them.

B 7 For they haue priuily layde their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pytte for my soule.

8 Let a sodayne destruction come vpon hym vnawares, and his net that he hath layde priuily, catche hym selfe: that he may fall into his owne mischefe.

9 And my soule be ioyful in the Lord: it shal reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shal say, Lorde, who is like vnto the, which deliuerest the poore from hym that is to strong for hym: yea, the poore, and him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth hym.

11 False witnesse dyd ryse vp: they layde to my charge thynges that I knewe not.

12 They rewarded me euyl for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Neuertheles, when they were sicke, I put on sackecloth, and humbled my soule with fastyng: and my prayer shal turne into myne owne bosome.

C 14 I behaued me selfe as though it had ben my frende or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them togeather: yea, the very abiectes came togeather against me vnawares, makyng mowes at me, and ceassed not.

16 With the flatterers were buffe mockers: which gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lorde, howe long wylt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities which they bryng on me, and my darlyng from the Lions.

18 So wyl I geue thee thankes in the great congregation: I will praise thee among muche people.

19 O let not them that are myne enimies triumph ouer me vngodlye: neyther let them wincke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communyng is not for peace: but they imagine deceitful wordes against them that are quiet in the lande.

D 21 They gaped vpo me with their mouthes, and sayd: fye on thee, fye on thee, we sawe it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seene, O Lorde: holde not thy tongue then, goe not farre fro me, O Lorde.

23 Awake and stande vp to iudge my quarrel: auenge thou my cause, my God and my Lorde.

24 Iudge me, O Lorde my God, according to thy righteousnesse: and let them not triumphe ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their hartes, there, there, so would we haue it: neyther let them say, we haue deuoured hym.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame togeather that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke & dishonour, that boast them selues against me.

27 Let them be glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealyng: yea let them say alway, blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shalbe talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy prayse all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psalm. xxxvi.

1 MY hart sheweth me the wickednesse of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes. A

2 For he flatereth hym selfe in his owne syght: vntyll his abominable synne be founde out.

3 The wordes of his mouth are vnryghteous, and ful of deceite: he hath left of to behaue hym selfe wysely, and to doo good.

4 He imagineth mischefe vpon his bed, and hath set hym selfe in no good waye: neyther doth he abhorre any thyng that is euyl.

5 Thy mercie, O Lorde, reacheth vnto the heauen: and thy faythfulnesse vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy righteousnesse standeth lyke the strong mountaynes: thy iudgements are like the great deepe.

7 Thou Lord shalt saue both man and beast, B howe excellent is thy mercie, O God: and the children of men shall put their trust vnder the shadowe of thy wynges.

8 They shalbe satisfied with the plentousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt geue them drynke of thy pleasures, as out of the ryuer.

9 For with thee is the wel of lyfe: and in thy lyght shal we see lyght.

10 O continue forth thy louing kyndnesse vnto them that knowe thee: and thy righteousnesse vnto them that are true of hart.

11 O let not the foote of pryde come against me: and let not the hande of the vngodly cast cast me downe.

22 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednesse: they are cast downe, and shall not be able to stande.

Noli emulari. Psal. xxxvii.

A 1 FRet not thee selfe, because of the vngodly: neyther be thou enuious against the euil doers.

2 For they shall soone be cut downe like the grasse: and be withered euen as the greene herbe.

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lorde, and be doyng good: dwel in the lande, and verely thou shalt be fedde.

4 Delight thou in the Lorde: and he shal geue thee thy hartes desire.

5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, and put thy trust in him: and he shal bryng it to passe.

6 He shal make thy righteousnesse as cleare as the lyght: and thy iust dealyng as the noone day.

B 7 Holde thee styll in the Lorde, and abyde patiently vpon hym: but grieue not thee selfe at him whose way dooth prosper, against the man that dooth after vngodly counsayles.

8 Leaue of from wrath, and let goe displeasure: fret not thee selfe, els shalt thou be moued to doo euyl.

9 Wicked doers shalbe rooted out: and they that patiently abyde the Lorde, those shal inherite the lande.

10 Yet a litle whyle, and the vngodly shalbe cleane gonne: thou shalt looke after his place, and he shalbe away.

11 But the meeke spirited shal possesse the earth: and shalbe refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The vngodly seeketh counsayle against the iust: and gnasheth vpon him with his teeth.

13 The Lorde shal laugh him to scorne: for he hath seene that his day is comming.

C 14 The vngodly haue drawen out the sword, and haue bended their bowes: to cast downe the poore and needy, and to slay such as be of a right conuersation.

15 Their sword shal go through their owne hart: and their bowe shall be broken.

16 A smal thyng that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of the vngodly shalbe broken: and the Lord vpholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lorde knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for euer.

19 They shal not be confounded in the perilous tyme: and in the dayes of dearth they shal haue ynough.

20 As for the vngodly they shal perishe, and the enimies of the Lord shal consume as the fat of lambes: yea euen as the smoke shall they consume away.

21 The vngodly borroweth, and payeth not agayne: but the ryghteous is mercyful and liberal. D

22 Suche as be blessed of God, shal possesse the lande: and they that be cursed of hym shalbe rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good mans goyng: and maketh his way acceptable to him selfe.

24 Though he fal, he shal not be cast away: for the Lord vpholdeth him with his hand.

25 I haue ben young, and now am olde: and yet sawe I neuer the righteous forsaken, nor his seede begging their bread.

26 The righteous is euer mercyful and lendeth: and his seede is blessed.

27 Flee from euyll, and do the thing that is good: and dwel for euermore.

28 For the Lorde loueth the thing that is right: he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preserued for euer.

29 The righteous shalbe punished: as for the seede of the vngodly, it shalbe rooted out. E

30 The righteous shall inherite the lande: and dwel therein for euer.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdome: and his tongue wil be talking of iudgement.

32 The lawe of his God is in his hart: and his goeing shal not slyde.

33 The vngodly seeth the ryghteous: and seeketh occasion to slee hym.

34 The Lorde wyll not leaue hym in his hande: nor condemne hym when he is iudged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and kepe his way, and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the lande: when the vngodly shall perishe, thou shalt see it.

36 I mee selfe haue seene the vngodly in great power: and flourishing lyke a greene bay tree. F

37 And I went by, and lo he was gone: I sought him, but his place could no where be founde.

38 Keepe innocencie, and take heede vnto the thyng that is ryght: for that shal bryng a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressours, they shal perishe together: and the ende of the vngodly is, they shalbe rooted out at the last.

40 But the saluation of the righteous commeth of the Lorde: whiche is also their strength in the tyme of trouble.

41 And the Lorde shal stande by them, and saue them: he shal deliuer them from the vngodly, and shall saue them, because they put their trust in hym.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. xxxviii.

A 1 PVT me not to rebuke (O Lorde) in thine anger: neyther chasten me in thy heauie displeasure.

Morning prayer.

2 For thyne arrowes stycke fast in me: and thy hande presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesshe, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wyckednesses are gone ouer my head: and are lyke a sore burden to heauie for me to beare.

5 My woundes stynke and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and miserie: that I goe mourning all the day long.

B 7 For my loynes are filled with a sore disease: & there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietuesse of my hart.

9 Lorde thou knowest all my desire: and my groning is not hid from thee.

10 My hart panteth, my strength hath fayled me: and the light of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My louers and my neighbours did stande looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsmen stoode a farre of.

12 They also that sought after my life, laide snares for me: and they that went about to do me euil, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceit al the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deafe man, and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, whiche doth not open his mouth.

C 14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofes.

15 For in thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answeare for me, O Lorde my God.

16 I haue required that they (euen myne enimies) shoulde not triumph ouer me: for when my foote slypt, they reioyced greatly agaynst me.

17 And I truely am set in the plague: and my heauinesse is euer in my sight.

18 For I wil confesse my wickednesse: and be sory for my sinne.

19 But mine enimies liue and are mightie: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that rewarde euill for good, are agaynst me: because I folow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lorde my God: be not thou farre from me.

22 Haste thee to helpe me: O Lorde God of my saluation.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. xxxix.

1 I Sayde, I will take heede to my wayes: that I offende not in my tongue.

A

2 I wyll keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle) whyle the vngodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea euen from good wordes, but it was payne and greefe to me.

4 My hart was hot within me, and whyle I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lorde let me knowe mine ende, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certified howe long I haue to liue.

6 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long, and mine age is euen as nothing in respect of thee: and verely euery man liuing is altogeather vanitie.

7 For man walketh in a vaine shadowe, and disquieteth him selfe in vayne: he heapeth vp riches, and can not tel who shal gather them.

B

8 And nowe Lorde what is my hope: truely my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolyshe.

10 I became dumbe & opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauie hande.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beautie to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therefore is but vanitie.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lorde, & with thine eares consyder my calling: holde not thy peace at my teares.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as al my fathers were.

15 Oh spare me a litle, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and be no more seene.

Expectans expectaui. Psal. xl.

1 I Wayted patiently for the Lorde: and he enclined vnto me, and heard my calling.

2 He

3 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the myre and clay: and set my feete vpon the rocks, and ordered my goinges.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: euen a thankesgeuing vnto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and feare: and shal put their trust in the Lorde.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lorde: and turned not vnto the proude, and to such as goe about with lies.

6 O Lorde my God, great are thy wonderous woorkes whiche thou hast done: lyke as be also thy thoughtes whiche are to vs warde, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thee.

B 7 If I woulde declare them, and speake of them: they shoulde be moe then I am able to expresse.

8 Sacrifyce and meate offering thou wouldest not haue: but mine eares thou hast opened.

9 Burnt offeringes and sacrifyces for sinne hast thou not required: then saide I, loe I come.

10 In the volume of the booke it is written of me, that I shoulde fulfyll thy will, O my God: I am content to doo it, yea, thy lawe is within my hart.

11 I haue declared thy righteousnesse in the great congregation: loe, I will not refraine my lippes, O lord, and that thou knowest.

12 I haue not hyd thy righteousnesse within my hart: my talkyng hath benne of thy truth, and of thy saluation.

13 I haue not kept backe thy louing mercy & truth from the great congregation.

C 14 Withdrawe not thou thy mercie from me, O Lorde: let thy louing kindnesse and thy truth alway preserue me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my synnes haue taken suche holde vpon me, that I am not able to looke vp: yea they are moe in number then the heares of myne head, and my hart hath fayled me.

16 O Lorde, let it be thy pleasure to deliuer me: make haste (O Lord) to helpe me.

17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together, that seeke after my soule to destroy it: let them be driuen backwarde, and put to rebuke that wisshe me euyl.

18 Let them be desolate and rewarded with shame, that say vnto me: fye vpon thee, fye vpon thee.

19 Let all those that seeke thee, be ioyful and glad in thee: and let suche as loue thy saluation, say alway, the Lorde be praysed.

20 As for me, I am poore and needy: but the Lorde careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and redeemer: make no long tarying, O my God.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psalm. xli.

A Euenyng prayer.

1 BLessed is he that considereth the poore (and neede:) the Lorde shall deliuer him in the time of trouble.

2 The Lorde preserue him and keepe him alyue, that he may be blessed vpon earth: and deliuer not thou him into the wyl of his enimies.

3 The Lorde comfort him when he lyeth sycke vpon his bed: make thou all his bed in his sickenesse.

4 I sayd, Lorde be mercyful vnto me: heale my soule, for I haue synned agaynst thee.

5 Myne enimies speake euyll of me: when shal he dye, and his name perishe?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanitie: and his hart conceyueth falsehood within him selfe, and when he commeth foorth, he telleth it.

B 7 All myne enimies whisper together against me: euen against me doo they imagine this euill.

8 Let the sentence of guiltinesse procede against hym: and nowe that he lyeth, let him ryse vp no moze.

9 Yea, euen myne owne familyer freende (whom I trusted:) whiche dyd also eate of my bread, hath layde great wayte for me.

10 But be thou merciful vnto me, O Lorde: rayse thou me vp agayne, and I shall reward them.

11 By this I knowe thou fauourest me: that myne enimie dooth not triumphe agaynst me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou vpholdest me: and shalt set me before thy face for euer.

13 Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel: world without ende, Amen.

Quemadmodum. Psalm. xlii.

A

1 LYke as the harte desyreth the water brookes: so longeth my soule after thee, O God.

2 My soule is a thirst for God, yea euen for the liuing God: when shall I come to appeare before the presence of God?

3 My teares haue benne my meate day and nyght: whyle they dayly say vnto me, where is nowe thy God?

4 Now when I thinke therevpon, I powre out my hart by mee selfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them foorth into the house of God.

5 In the voyce of prayse & thankesgeuing: among suche as keepe holy day.

6 Why art thou so full of heauinesse (O my ſoule:) & why art thou ſo vnquieted within me?

B 7 Put thy truſt in God: for I will yet geue him thankes for the helpe of his countenaunce.

8 My God, my ſoule is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee concerning the lande of Jordane, and the litle hill of Hermon.

9 One deepe calleth another, because of the noyſe of the water pipes: all thy billowes and ſtormes are gonne ouer me.

10 The Lorde hath graunted his louyng kindneſſe on the day tyme: and in the night ſeason did I ſing of him, & made my prayer vnto the God of my life.

11 I will ſay vnto the God of my ſtrength, why haſt thou forgotten me: why goe I thus heavyly whyle the enimie oppreſſeth me?

12 My bones are ſmitten a ſunder, as with a ſwoorde: whyle myne enimies (that troubles me) caſt me in the teeth.

13 Namely, whyle they ſay dayly vnto me: where is nowe thy God?

C 14 Why art thou ſo vexed, (O my ſoule:) & why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

15 O put thy truſt in God: for I wyll yet thanke him, which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Iudica me deus. Pſalm.xliii.

A 1 GIue ſentence with me, O God, and defende my cauſe againſt the vngodly people: O deliuer me from the deceiptful and wicked man.

2 For thou art the god of my ſtrength, why haſt thou put me from thee: and why goe I ſo heavyly, whyle the enimie oppreſſeth me?

3 O ſend out thy light and thy trueth, that they may leade me: and bring me vnto thy holy hil, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may goe vnto the aulter of God, euen vnto the God of my ioye & gladneſſe: and vpon the Harpe will I geue thankes vnto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou ſo heauy, O my ſoule: and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

6 O put thy truſt in God: for I wyll yet geue him thankes, whiche is the helpe of my countenaunce and my God.

Deus auribus. Pſalm.xliiii.

Mornyng prayer. A 1 WE haue hearde with our eares, O GOD, our fathers haue tolde vs: what thou haſt done in their time of olde.

2 Howe thou haſt driuen out the heathen with thy hande, and planted them in: how thou haſt deſtroyed the nations, and caſt them out.

3 For they gate not the lande in poſſeſſion through their owne ſwoorde: neither was it their owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy ryght hande and thyne arme, and the light of thy countenaunce: becauſe thou hadeſt a fauour vnto them.

5 Thou art my kyng (O God:) ſende helpe vnto Jacob.

6 Through thee wyll we ouerthrowe our enimies: and in thy name wyll we treade them vnder that ryſe vp againſt vs.

7 For I wyl not truſt in my bowe: it is not my ſwoorde that ſhal helpe me. B

8 But it is thou that ſaueſt vs from our enimie: and putteſt them to confuſion that hate vs.

9 We make our boaſt of God all day long: and wyl prayſe thy name for euer.

10 But nowe thou art farre of, and puttſt vs to confuſion: and goeſt not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makeſt vs to turne our backes vpon our enimies: ſo that they whiche hate vs, ſpoyle our goodes.

12 Thou letteſt vs be eaten vp like ſheepe: and haſt ſcattered vs among the heathen.

13 Thou ſelleſt thy people for nought: and takeſt no money for them.

14 Thou makeſt vs to be rebuked of our C neyghbours: to be laughed to ſcorne, and had in derifyon of them that are rounde about vs.

15 Thou makeſt vs to be a bywoorde among the heathen: & that the people ſhake their heades at vs.

16 My confuſyon is dayly before me: and the ſhame of my face hath couered me.

17 For the voyce of the ſlaunderer and blaſphemer: for the enimie and auenger.

18 And though all this be come vpon vs, yet doo we not forgeat thee: nor behaue our ſelues frowardly in thy couenant.

19 Our hart is not turned backe: neyther our ſteppes gone out of thy way.

20 No not when thou haſt ſmitten vs into the place of Dragons, and couered vs with the ſhadowe of death.

21 If we haue forgotten the name of our god, D and holden vp our handes to any ſtraunge God: ſhall not God ſearche it out? for he knoweth the very ſecretes of the hart.

22 For thy ſake alſo are we kylled all the day long: and are counted as ſheepe appointed to be ſlayne.

23 Vp Lorde, why ſleepeſt thou: awake and be be not absent from vs for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our misery and trouble?

25 For our soule is brought lowe, even vnto the dust: our belly cleaueth vnto the grounde.

26 Arise and helpe vs: and deliuer vs for thy mercies sake.

Eructauit cor meum. Psal. xlv.

1 MY hart is inditing of a good matter: I speake of the thinges whiche I haue made vnto the king.

2 My tongue is the penne: of a redy writer.

3 Thou art fayrer then the children of men: full of grace are thy lippes, because GOD hath blessed thee for ever.

4 Gyde thee with thy sworde vpon thy thigh, O thou most mightie: according to thy worship and renowme.

5 Good lucke haue thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the worde of trueth, of meekenesse, and righteousnesse, & thy right hande shall teache thee terrible thinges.

6 Thine arrowes are very sharpe, and the people shalbe subdued vnto thee: euen in the middes among the kinges enimies.

7 Thy seate (O God) endureth for euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter.

8 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie: wherefore God (euen thy god) hath anoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy felowes.

9 All thy garmentes smel of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cassia: out of the Iuory palaces, wherby they haue made thee glad.

10 Kinges daughters were among thy honourable women: vpon thy right hande did stande the Queene in a vesture of golde (wrought about with diuers colours.)

11 Hearken (O daughter) and consyder, encline thine eare: forget also thyne owne people, and thy fathers house.

12 So shall the kyng haue pleasure in thy beautie: for he is thy Lord (God) & worship thou him.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shalbe there with a gyfte: like as the riche also among the people shal make their supplication before thee.

14 The kinges daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought golde.

15 She shalbe brought vnto the king in rayment of needle worke: the virgins that be her felowes, shal beare her company, and shalbe brought vnto thee.

16 With ioy & gladnes shal they be brought: and shal enter into the kynges palace.

17 In steade of thy fathers thou shalt haue children: whom thou mayest make princes in al landes.

18 I will remember thy name from one generation vnto another: therefore shall the people geue thankes vnto thee world without ende.

Deus noster refugium. Psal. xlvi.

1 GOD is our hope and strength: a very present helpe in trouble. A 2 Therefore will not we feare though the earth be moued: and though the hylles be caried into the middes of the sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage & swell: and though the mountaynes shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The riuers of the flood thereof shal make glad the citie of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the most highest.

5 God is in the middest of her, therefore shall she not be remoued: God shal helpe her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make muche adoo, and the kyngdomes are moued: but GOD hath shewed his voyce, and the earth shal melte away.

7 The Lorde of hostes is with vs: the God of Iacob is our refuge. B

8 O come hither, and beholde the workes of the Lorde: what destruction he hath brought vpon the earth.

9 He maketh warres to ceasse in all the world: he breaketh the bowe, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fyre.

10 Be still then, and knowe that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lorde of hostes is with vs: the God of Iacob is our defence.

Omnes gentes plaudite. Psal. xlvii.

1 O Clap your handes together, (all ye people:) O sing vnto god with the voyce of melodie. A Euenyng prayer.

2 For the Lorde is hygh, and to be feared: he is the great kyng vpon all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people vnder vs: and the nations vnder our feete.

4 He shal choose out an heritage for vs: euen the worship of Iacob whom he loued.

5 God is gone vp with a merry noyse: and the Lorde with the sounde of the trumpe.

6 O sing praises, sing praises vnto (our) god: O sing prayses, sing prayses vnto our kyng.

7 For God is the king of al the earth: sing ye prayses with vnderstandyng.
8 God raigneth ouer the heathen: God sytteth vpon his holy seate.
9 The princes of the people are ioyned vnto the people of the God of Abraham: for God (whiche is very high exalted) doth defende the earth, as it were with a shielde.

Magnus dominus. Psal. xlviii.

A GReat is the Lorde, and highly to be praysed: in the citie of our God, euen vpon his holy hyl.
2 The hyl of Sion is a fayre place, and the ioy of the whole earth: vpon the north side lyeth the citie of the great king, God is wel knowen in her palaces, as a sure refuge.
3 For loe, the kinges of the earth are gathered and gone by together.
4 They marueyled to see suche thinges: they were astonied and sodaynly cast downe.
5 Feare came there vpon them, and sorowe as vpon a woman in her trauayle.
6 Thou shalt breake the shyppes of the sea: through the east winde.
B 7 Lyke as we haue heard, so haue we seene in the citie of the Lord of hostes, in the citie of our God: GOD vpholdeth the same for euer.
8 We wayte for thy louing kyndnesse (O God:) in the middes of thy temple.
9 O God, according to thy name, so is thy prayse vnto the worldes ende: thy right hande is ful of righteousnesse.
10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, & the daughters of Iuda be glad: because of thy iudgementes.
11 Walke about Sion, and go rounde about her: and tell the towres thereof.
12 Marke wel her bulwarkes, set vp her houses: that ye may tel them that come after.
13 For this God is our GOD for euer and euer: he shalbe our guide vnto death.

Audite hec omnes. Psal. xlix.

A1 OHeare ye this al ye people: ponder it with your eares, al ye that dwel in the worlde.
2 High and lowe, riche and poore: one with another.
3 My mouth shal speake of wysedome: and my hart shal muse of vnderstandyng.
4 I wyll encline myne eare to the parable: and shewe my darke speache vpon the Harpe.
5 Wherefore shoulde I feare in the dayes of wickednesse: and when the wyckednesse of my heeles compasseth me rounde about?
6 There be some that put their trust in their goodes: and boast them selues in the multitude of their riches.
7 But no man may deliuer his brother: nor B make agreement vnto God for hym.
8 For it cost more to redeeme their soules: so that he must let that alone for euer.
9 Yea, though he liue long: and see not the graue.
10 For he seeth that wise men also dye, and perishe together: as wel as the ignorant and foolish, and leaue their riches for other.
11 And yet they thinke that their houses shal continue for euer: and that their dwelling places shall endure from one generation to another, and cal the lands after their owne names.
12 Neuerthelesse, man wyl not abyde in honour: seeyng he may be compared vnto the beastes that perish, this is the way of them.
13 This is their foolishnesse: and their posteritie prayse their saying.
14 They lie in the hel like sheepe, death gnaweth vpon them, and the righteous shall haue dominion of them in the morning: their beautie shal consume in the sepulchre, out of their dwelling. C
15 But God shal deliuer my soule from the place of hel: for he shal receiue me.
16 Be not thou afrayde though one be made riche: or yf the glory of his house be encreased.
17 For he shal cary nothing away with him when he dyeth: neyther shal his pompe folowe hym.
18 For whyle he lyued, he counted hym selfe an happy man: and so long as thou doest wel vnto thee selfe, men wyll speake good of thee.
19 He shal folowe the generations of his fathers: and shal neuer see light.
20 Man being in honour, hath no vnderstanding: but is compared vnto the beastes that perishe.

Deus deorum. Psal. l.

A THe Lorde, euen the moste mightie GOD, hath spoken: and called the worlde, from the rysyng vp of the sunne, vnto the goeyng downe thereof. A Morning prayer.
2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beautie.
3 Our God shal come, and shall not keepe silence: there shall goe before hym a consumyng fyre, and a mighty tempest shalbe styred vp round about hym.
4 He shal cal the heathen from aboue: and the earth, that he may iudge his people.

8 I wyl not reproue thee, becauſe of thy ſacrifyces, or for thy burnt offeringes: becauſe they were not alway before me.

9 I wyll take no bullocke out of thy houſe: nor her Goates out of thy foldes.

10 For al the beaſtes of the Foreſt are mine: and ſo are the cattel vppon a thouſande hilles.

11 I knowe all the foules vppon the mountaynes: and the wylde beaſtes of the feelde are in my ſyght.

12 If I be hungry, I wyll not tell thee: for the whole worlde is myne, and al that is therein.

13 Thinkeſt thou that I wyll eate Bulles fleſhe: and drinke the blood of Goates?

17 Whereas thou hateſt to be reformed: and haſt caſt my woordes behynde thee.

18 When thou ſawest a theefe, thou conſentedſt vnto him: and haſt benne partaker with the aduulterers.

19 Thou haſt let thy mouth ſpeake wickedneſſe: and with thy tongue thou haſt ſet forth deceipt.

5 Beholde, I was ſhapen in wickednеſſe: & in ſinne hath my mother conceyued me.

11 Caſt me not away from thy preſence: and take not thy holy ſpirite from me.

12 O geue me the comfort of thy helpe agayne: and ſtablyſhe me with thy free ſpirite.

13 Then ſhall I teache thy wayes vnto the wicked: and ſynners ſhalbe conuerted vnto thee.

Dixit insipiens. Psalm. liii.

A 1 THE foolishe body hath sayde in his hart: there is no God.

Euenyng prayer.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednesse: there is none that doeth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vpon the chyldren of men: to see yf there were any that would vnderstande and seeke after God.

4 But they are al gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without vnderstanding that worke wickednesse: eating vp my people, as if they would eate bread, they haue not called vpon God.

6 They were afrayde where no feare was: for God hath broken the bones of him that beseeched thee, thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

B 7 Oh that the saluation were geuen vnto Israel out of Sion: oh that the lord would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

3 The enimie cryeth so, and the vngodlye commeth on so fast: for they are myndes to doo me some mischeefe, so malitiously are they set against me.

4 My hart is disquieted within me: and the feare of death is fallen vpon me.

5 Fearefulnesse and tremblyng are comme vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

7 Lo, then would I geat me away farre B of: and remayne in the wyldernesse.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormy winde and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues (O Lord) and diuide them: for I haue spyed vnrighteousnesse and strife in the citie.

10 Day and nyght they goe about within the walles thereof: mischeefe also and sorowe are in the myddes of it.

11 Wickednesse is therein: deceipt & guyle goe not out of their streetes.

12 For it is not an open enimie that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could haue borne it.

13 Neither was it myne aduersarie that did magnifye him selfe against me: for then (peraduenture) I would haue hyd me selfe from him.

3 Neuertheless, though I am sometime afrayde: yet put I my trust in thee.

5 Neuertheleſſe, my ſoule wayte thou ſtyll vpon God: for my hope is in him.

6 He truely is my ſtrength and my ſaluation: he is my defence, ſo that I ſhal not fal.

B 7 In God is my health and my glorie: the rocke of my myght, and in God is my truſt.

8 O put your truſt in him alway (ye people:) powre out your hartes before hym, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vayne: the children of men are deceitefull vpon the weyghtes: they are altogether lyghter then vanitie it ſelfe.

10 O truſt not in wrong and robberie, geue not your ſelues vnto vanitie: if riches encreaſe, ſet not your hart vpon them.

11 God ſpake once and twyſe: I haue alſo heard the ſame, that power belongeth vnto God.

12 And that thou Lorde art mercifull: for thou rewardeſt euery man accordyng to his worke.

Deus deus meus. Pſalm.lxiii.

G 1 O God, thou art my God: early wyl I ſeeke thee.

2 My ſoule thirſteth for thee, my fleſh alſo longeth after thee: in a barren and dry lande, where no water is.

3 Thus haue I looked for thee in holineſſe: that I might behold thy power and glory.

4 For thy louing kindeneſſe is better then the life it ſelfe: my lippes ſhal prayſe thee.

5 As long as I liue wyl I magnifie thee on this manner: and lyft vp my handes in thy name.

6 My ſoule ſhalbe ſatisfied euen as it were with marow and fatneſſe: when my mouth prayſeth thee with ioyful lippes.

7 Haue I not remembred thee in my bed: B and thought vpon thee when I was wakyng?

8 Becauſe thou haſt ben my helper: therfore vnder the ſhadow of thy wynges wyl I reioyce.

9 My ſoule hangeth vpon thee: thy ryght hande hath vpholden me.

10 Thoſe alſo that ſeeke the hurt of my ſoule: they ſhal goe vnder the earth.

11 Let them fal vpon the edge of the ſworde: that they may be a portion for Foxes.

12 But the king ſhal reioyce in God: al they alſo that ſweare by him, ſhalbe commended: for ꝑ mouth of them that ſpeake lies, ſhalbe ſtopped.

Exaudi deus. Pſalm.lxiiii.

1 HEare my voyce, O God in my prayer: A preſerue my lyfe from feare of the enimie.

2 Hyde me from the gatheryng togeather of the froward: and from the inſurrection of wicked doers.

3 Whiche haue whet their tongue lyke a ſworde: and ſhoote out their arrowes, euen bytter wordes.

4 That they may priuily ſhoote at hym whiche is perfecte: ſodaynely doo they hyt hym, and feare not.

5 They courage them ſelues in miſcheefe: and commune among them ſelues howe they may laye ſnares, and ſay that no man ſhal ſee them.

6 They imagine wickednelle, and practiſe it: that they kepe ſecret among them ſelues euery man in the deepe of his hart.

7 But God ſhall ſodainely ſhoote at them with a ſwyfte arrowe: that they ſhalbe wounded.

8 Yea their owne tongues ſhal make them fal: inſomuch that who ſo ſeeth them, ſhal laugh them to ſcorne.

9 And al men that ſee it, ſhal ſay, this hath God done: for they ſhal perceyue that it is his worke.

10 The righteous ſhal reioyce in the Lord, and put his truſt in him: and all they that are true of hart ſhalbe glad.

Te decet hymnus. Psalm. lxv.

Euenyng prayer.

1 THou, O God, art prayſed in Sion: and vnto thee ſhal the vow be performed in Hieruſalem.
2 Thou that heareſt the praier: vnto thee ſhal al fleſhe come.
3 My miſdeedes preuayle againſt me: oh be thou merciful vnto our ſinnes.
4 Bleſſed is the man whom thou choſeſt and receiueſt vnto thee: he ſhall dwell in thy court, and ſhalbe ſatisfied with the pleaſures of thy houſe, euen of thy holy temple.
5 Thou ſhalt ſhewe vs wonderful thynges in thy righteouſneſſe, O God of our ſaluation: thou that art the hope of al the endes of the earth, and of them that remayne in the brode ſea.
6 Whiche in his ſtrength ſetteth faſt the mountaynes: and is gyrded about with power.
7 Whiche ſtylleth the ragyng of the ſea, and the noyſe of his waues: and the madneſſe of his people.
8 They alſo that dwell in the vttermoſte partes of the earth, ſhalbe afrayde at thy tokens: thou that makeſt the outgoynges of the morning and euening to prayſe thee.
9 Thou viſiteſt the earth, and bleſſeſt it: thou makeſt it very plenteous.
10 The riuer of God is ful of water: thou prepareſt their corne: for ſo thou prouideſt for the earth.
11 Thou watereſt her forowes, thou ſendeſt rayne into the litle valleys thereof: thou makeſt it ſofte with the droppes of rayne, and bleſſeſt the increaſe of it.
12 Thou crowneſt the yere with thy goodneſſe: and thy clowdes drop fatneſſe.
13 They ſhall drop vpon the dwellynges of the wylderneſſe: and the litle hilles ſhal reioyce on euery ſyde.
14 The foldes ſhalbe ful of ſheepe: the valleyes alſo ſhal ſtande ſo thicke with corne, that they ſhal laugh and ſyng.

Iubilate deo. Psalm. lxvi.

1 O Be ioyful in God all ye landes: ſyng prayſes vnto the honour of his name, make his prayſe to be glorious.
2 Say vnto God, O howe woonderful art thou in thy workes: through the greatneſſe of thy power ſhall thine enimies be founde lyers vnto thee.
3 For al the worlde ſhal worſhyp thee: ſyng of thee, and prayſe thy name.
4 O come hyther, and beholde the workes of God: howe wonderful he is in his doing, towarde the chyldren of men.
5 He turned the ſea into drye lande: ſo that they went through the water on foote, there dyd we reioyce thereof.
6 He ruleth with his power for euer, his eyes beholde the people: and ſuche as wyl not beleeue, ſhall not be able to exalt themſelues.
7 O prayſe our God (ye people:) and make the voyce of his prayſe to be hearde.
8 Whiche holdeth our ſoule in lyfe: and ſuffereth not our feete to ſlyp.
9 For thou (O God) haſt proued vs: thou alſo haſt tryed vs, lyke as ſyluer is tryed.
10 Thou broughteſt vs into the ſnare: and layedſt trouble vpon our loynes.
11 Thou ſuffereſt men to ryde ouer our heades: we went through fyre and water, and thou broughteſt vs out into a wealthie place.
12 I wyl goe into thy houſe with burnt offeringes: and wil pay thee my vowes whiche I promiſed with my lyppes, and ſpake with my mouth when I was in trouble.
13 I wyll offer vnto thee fat burnt ſacrifices, with the incenſe of Rammes: I wyll offer Bullockes and Goates.
14 O come hyther and hearken, all ye that feare God: and I wil tel you what he hath done for my ſoule.
15 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him prayſes with my tongue.
16 If I incline vnto wickedneſſe with my hart: the Lorde wyl not heare me.
17 But God hath hearde me: and conſydered the voyce of my prayer.
18 Prayſed be God, whiche hath not caſt out my prayer: nor turned his mercie from me.

Deus miſereatur. Psalm. lxvii.

1 GOD be merciful vnto vs, and bleſſe vs: and ſhewe vs the light of his countenance, and be merciful vnto vs.
2 That thy way may be knowen vpon earth: thy ſauyng health among al nations.
3 Let the people prayſe thee, O God: yea let al the people prayſe thee.
4 O let the nations reioyce and be glad, for thou ſhalt iudge the folke righteouſly: and gouerne the nations vpon earth.
5 Let the people prayſe thee, O God: let al the people prayſe thee.
6 Then ſhal the earth bryng foorth her encreaſe: and God, euen our owne God, ſhal geue vs his bleſſyng.
7 God ſhal bleſſe vs: and al the endes of the worlde ſhal feare him.

Exurgat

Exurgat Deus. Psalm. lxviii.

1 LEt God arise, & let his enimies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perishe at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merry & ioyful.

4 Sing vnto God, and sing prayses vnto his name: magnifie him that rydeth vpon the heavens, as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his name, yea, & reioyce before him.

5 He is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mynd in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivitie: but letteth the runagates continue in scarsenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wildernesse.

8 The earth shooke, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sendest a gratious rayne vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was weery.

10 Thy congregation shal dwel therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

11 The Lord gave the worde: great was the companie of the preachers.

12 Kynges with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: and they of the houshold diuided the spoyle.

13 Though ye haue lyen among the pottes, yet shal ye be as the winges of a Doue: that is couered with syluer winges, and her feathers like golde.

14 When the almightie scattered kynges for their sake: then were they as white as snowe in Salmon.

15 As the hyl of Basan, so is Gods hyl: euen an high hyl, as the hyl of Basan.

16 Why hoppe ye so, ye high hylles, this is Gods hyl, in the whiche it pleaseth hym to dwel: yea, the Lord wyl abide in it for euer.

17 The charettes of God, are twentie thousande, euen thousandes of angelles: and the Lorde is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast led captivitie captiue, and receyued gyftes for men: yea, euen for thine enimies, that the Lord God might dwel among them.

19 Praised be the Lord daily: euen the God whiche helpeth vs, and poureth his benefites vpon vs.

20 He is our God, euen the God of whom commeth saluation: God is the Lorde, by whom we escape death.

21 God shal wound the head of his enimies: and the heary scalpe of suche a one as goeth on styl in his wickednesse. D

22 The Lorde hath sayde, I wyl bryng my people againe, as I dyd from Basan: mine owne wyl I bryng againe, as I dyd sometime from the deepe of the sea.

23 That thy foote maye be dypped in the blood of thine enimies: and that the tongue of thy dogges may be red through the same.

24 It is wel seene, O God, howe thou goest: howe thou my God and kyng goest in the sanctuarie.

25 The syngers goe before, the minstrelles folowe after: in the myddest are the damosels playing with the tymbrelles.

26 Geue thankes, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the hart.

27 There is litle Beniamin their ruler, and the princes of Iuda their counsaile: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nepthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: stablishe the thyng, O God, that thou hast wrought in vs. E

29 For thy temples sake at Hierusalem: so shal kynges bryng presentes vnto thee.

30 When the company of the spearemen, & multitude of the mightie, are scattered abroade among the beastes of the people (so that they humbly bryng pieces of syluer:) and when he hath scattered the people that delight in warre.

31 Then shal the princes come out of Egypt: the Aethians lande shal soone stretche out her handes vnto God.

32 Syng vnto God, O ye kingdomes of the earth: O syng prayses vnto the Lord.

33 Whiche sytteth in the heavens ouer al from the beginnyng: loe, he doeth send out his voyce, yea, and that a mightie voyce. F

34 Ascribe ye the power to God ouer Israel: his worshyp & strength is in the clowdes.

35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he wyl geue strength and power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Saluum me fac Deus. Psalm. lxix.

1 SAue me, O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule. A Morning prayer.

2 I sticke fast in the deepe mire, where no grounde is: I am come into deepe waters, waters, so that the floodes ranne ouer me.

3 I am weerye of my cryeing, my throte is dryet: my sight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.
4 They that hate me without a cause, are more then the heares of my head: they that are mine enimies, and would destroy me gyltlesse, are mighty.
5 I payde them the thynges that I never tooke: God, thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faultes are not hyd from thee.
6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lorde God of hostes, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee be confounded through me, O Lorde God of Israel.
B 7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.
8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers children.
9 For the zeale of thine house hath euen eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.
10 I wept, and chastened mee selfe with fastyng: and that was turned to my reproofe.
11 I put on a sackecloth also: and they iested vpon me.
12 They that sit in the gate, speake against me: and the drunkardes make songues vpon me.
13 But Lorde, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.
C 14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercye: euen in the trueth of thy saluation.
15 Take me out of the myre, that I synke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.
16 Let not the water floodde drowne me, neyther let the deepe swallowe me vp: and let not the pyt shut her mouth vpon me.
17 Heare me, O Lorde, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.
18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh hast thee, and heare me.
19 Drawe nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enimies.
20 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are al in thy sight.
D 21 Thy rebuke hath broken my hart, I am ful of heauinesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was no man, neither founde I any to comfort me.
22 They gaue me gal to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vineger to drinke.
23 Let their table be made a snare to take them selues withal: and let the things (that shoulde haue ben for their wealthe) be vnto them an occasion of falling.
24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not: & euer bowe thou downe their backes.
25 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathful displeasure take holde of them.
26 Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwel in their tentes.
27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may vexe them whom thou hast wounded.
28 Let them fal from one wickednesse to another: and not comme into thy righteousnesse. E
29 Let them be wyped out of the booke of the lyuing: and not be written among the righteous.
30 As for me, when I am poore, and in heauinesse: thy helpe (O God) shal lyfte me vp.
31 I wyl prayse the name of God with a songue: and magnifie it with thankesgeuyng.
32 This also shal please the Lorde: better then a Bullocke that hath hornes and hoofes.
33 The humble shal consyder this, and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shal lyue.
34 For the Lord heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.
35 Let heauen and earth prayse him: the sea and al that moueth therein.
34 For God wyl saue Sion, and buylde the F cities of Iuda: that menne may dwel there, and haue it in possession.
37 The posteritie also of his seruantes shal inherite it: and they that loue his name, shal dwel therein.

Deus in adiutorium. psalm. lxx.

1 HAst thee, O God, to deliuer me: make I haste to helpe me, O Lorde.
2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe warde, and put to confusion, that wisshe me euyl.
3 Let them (for their rewarde) be soone brought to shame: that crye ouer me, there, there.
4 But let al those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let al suche as delight in thy saluation, saye alwaye, the Lorde be praysed.
5 As for me, I am poore, and in miserie: hast thee vnto me (O God.)

6 Thou

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lorde, make no long tarrying.

In te Domine speraui. Psalm.lxxi.

1 IN thee, O Lorde, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: but ryd me, and delyuer me in thy ryghteousnesse, encline thyne eare vnto me, and saue me.

Morning prayer.

2 Be thou my strong holde (whereunto I may alway resort:) thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Delyuer me, O my God, out of the hande of the vngodly: out of the hande of the vnryghteous and cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I ben holden vp euer sithe I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my prayse shal alway be of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be fylled with thy prayse: (that I may syng of thy glorie) and honor al the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength fayleth me.

9 For mine enimies speake agaynst me, and they that lay wayte for my soule, take their counsayle tograther, saying: God hath forsaken hym, persecute hym, and take hym, for there is none to delyuer hym.

10 Goe not farre fro me, O God: my God, haste thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish, that are agaynst my soule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to do me euyl.

12 As for me, I wyl patiently abyde alway: and wyl prayse thee more and more.

13 My mouth shal dayly speake of thy righteousnesse and saluation: for I knowe no ende thereof.

14 I wyll goe forth in the strength of the Lorde God: and wyl make mention of thy ryghteousnesse onely.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth vp vntil nowe: therfore wyl I tel of thy woonderous woorkes.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in myne old age, when I am gray headed: vntyl I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to al them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousnesse, O God is very high: and great thynges are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 O what great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me, and yet diddest thou turne and refreshe me, yea, and broughtest me from the deepe of the earth agayne.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery syde.

20 Therefore wyll I prayse thee and thy faythfulnesse (O God) playing vppon an instrument of musicke: vnto thee wyll I syng vpon the Harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

21 My lyppes wyl be fayne when I syng vnto thee: and so wyl my soule whom thou hast delyuered.

22 My tongue also shal talke of thy ryghteousnesse al the day long: for they are confounded and brought vnto shame, that seke to doo me euyl.

Deus iudicium. Psalm.lxxii.

1 GIue the kyng thy iudgementes (O God:) and thy ryghteousnesse vnto the kynges sonne.

2 Then shal he iudge the people accordyng vnto ryght: and defende the poore.

3 The mountaines also shal bring peace: & the litle hils ryghteousnes vnto the people.

4 He shall keepe the simple folke by their right: defend the children of the poore, and punishe the wrong doer.

5 They shall feare thee as long as the sunne and moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He shal come downe lyke the rayne into a fleece of wooll: euen as the droppes that water the earth.

7 In his tyme shal the ryghteous florishe: yea, and abundance of peace so long as the moone endureth.

8 His dominion also shalbe from the one sea to the other: and from the flood vnto the worldes ende.

9 They that dwell in the wyldernesse shall kneele before hym: his enimies shal licke the dust.

10 The kinges of Tharsis, and of the Iles, shal geue presentes: the kynges of Arabia, and Saba, shal bring gyftes.

11 All kinges shal fal downe before hym: all nations shal doo hym seruice.

12 For he shal delyuer the poore when he cryeth: the needie also, and hym that hath no helper.

13 He shalbe fauourable to the simple and needie: and shall preserue the soules of the poore.

14 He shall delyuer their soules from falsehood and wrong: and deare shal their bloud be be in his frute.

15 He shal liue, and vnto hym shalbe geuen of the golde of Arabia: prayer shalbe made euer vnto hym, & dayly shal he be praysed.

16 There shalbe an heape of corne in the earth duryng vpon the hylles: his fruite shal shake lyke Libanus, and shalbe greene in the citie, lyke grasse vpon the earth.

17 His name shal endure for euer, his name shal remayne vnder the sunne among the posteritées: whiche shalbe blessed through hym, and all the heathen shal prayse hym.

18 Blessed be the Lorde God, euen the God of Israel: whiche onely doeth wonderous thynges.

19 And blessed be the name of his maiestie for euer: and all the earth shalbe filled with his maiestie. Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Israel. Psalm.lxxiii.

Euenyng prayer.

1 TRuely God is louyng vnto Israel: euen vnto suche as are of a cleane hart.

2 Neuertheles, my frete were almost gone: my treadyngs had welnygh slypt.

3 And why? I was grieued at the wicked: I do also see the vngodly in such prosperitie.

4 For they are in no peryl of death: but are lustie and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune lyke other folke: neyther are they plagued lyke other men.

6 And this is the cause that they be so holden with pryde: and ouerwhelmed with crueltie.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doo euen what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemie: their talkyng is agaynst the most highest.

9 For they stretche forth their mouth vnto the heauen: and their tongue goeth thorowe the worlde.

10 Therfore fall the people vnto them: and thereout sucke they no small aduauntage.

11 Tushe (say they) howe shoulde God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most highest?

12 Lo, these are the vngodly, these prosper in the world, and these haue richesse in possession: and I sayde, then haue I cleansed my hart in vayne, and washed my handes in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I ben punished: and chastened euery morning.

14 Yea and I had almost sayd euen as they: but lo, then should I haue condemned the generation of the children.

15 Then thought I to vnderstande this: but it was to harde for me.

16 Vntyll I went into the sanctuarie of God: then vnderstoode I the ende of these men:

17 Namely, how thou doest set them in slypperie places: and castest them downe, and destroyest them.

18 Oh howe sodaynly doo they consume: perishe, and come to a fearefull end.

19 Yea, euen like as a dreame when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanishe out of the citie.

20 Thus my hart was greeued: and it went euen through my reynes.

21 So foolishe was I and ignoraunt: euen as it were a beast before thee.

22 Neuertheles, I am alway by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hande.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsell: and after that receiue me with glory.

24 Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vppon earth that I desyre in comparison of thee.

25 My flesshe and my hart fayleth: but God is the strength of my hart, and my portion for euer.

26 For lo, they that forsake thee, shall perishe: thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

27 But is it good for me to holde me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speake of all thy woorkes (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vt quid deus. Psalm.lxxiii.

1 O God, wherefore art thou absent from vs so long: why is thy wrath so hot against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 O thinke vpon thy congregation: whom thou hast purchased and redeemed of olde.

3 Thinke vppon the tribe of thyne inheritaunce: and mount Sion, wherin thou hast dwelt.

4 Lyft vp thy feete, that thou mayest vtterly destroy euery enimie: whiche hath done euyl in thy sanctuarie.

5 Thyne aduersaries roare in the myddes of thy congregations: and set vp their banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed tymber afore out of the thicke trees: was knowen to dyng it to an excellent woorke.

7 But nowe they breake downe all the carued worke thereof: with axes & hammers.

8 They haue set fyre vpon thy holy places: and haue defyled the dwelling place of thy name, euen vnto the grounde.

9 Yea, they sayde in their hartes, let vs make make hauocke of them altogeather: thus haue they burnt vp all the houses of God in the lande.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one prophets more: no not one is there among vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O God, howe long shal the aduersarie do this dishonour: howe long shal the enimie blaspheme thy name, for euer?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hande: why pluckest not thou thy right hande out of thy bosome to consume the enimie?

13 For God is my king of olde: the helpe that is done vpon earth, he doth it hym selfe.

C 14 Thou diddest diuide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heades of the dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heades of Leuiathan in peeces: and gauest him to be meate for the people in the wyldernesse.

16 Thou broughtest out fountaynes and waters out of the harde rockes: thou driedst vp mightie waters.

17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sunne.

18 Thou hast set al the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and wynter.

19 Remember this, O Lorde, howe the enimie hath rebuked: and howe the foolyshe people haue blaspheмed thy name.

20 O deliuer not the soule of thy Turtle doue vnto the multitude of the enimies: and forgeat not the congregation of the poore for euer.

21 Looke vpon the couenant: for al the earth is ful of darkenesse and cruell habitations.

22 Oh let not the simple goe awaye ashamed: but let the poore and needie geue prayse vnto thy name.

23 Arise, O God, maynteyne thyne owne cause: remember howe the foolyshe man blaspheмeth thee dayly.

24 Forgeat not the voyce of thyne enimies: the presumption of them that hate thee, encreaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. lxxv.

Morning prayer. A I VNto thee (O GOD) do we geue thankes: yea vnto thee do we geue thankes.

2 Thy name also is so nigh: and that do thy wonderous workes declare.

3 When I receiue the congregation: I shal iudge accordyng vnto ryght.

4 The earth is weake, and al the inhabiters therof: I beare vp the pyllers of it.

5 I sayd vnto the fooles, deale not so madly: and to the vngodly, set not vp your horne.

6 Set not vp your horne on high: & speake not with a stiffe necke.

7 For promotion commeth neyther from the East nor from the West: nor yet from the South. B

8 And why? God is the iudge: he putteth downe one, and setteth vp another.

9 For in the hande of the Lorde there is a cuppe, and the wine is redde: it is ful mixt, and he powreth out of the same.

10 As for the dregges therof: al the vngodly of the earth shal drinke them, and sucke them out.

11 But I wyl talke of the GOD of Jacob: and prayse hym for euer.

12 Al the hornes of the vngodly also wyll I breake: and the hornes of the ryghteous shalbe exalted.

Notus in Iudea. Psal. lxxvi.

1 IN Iurie is GOD knowen: his name is great in Israel, A

2 At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

3 There brake he the arrowes of the bowe: the shielde, the swoorde, and the battayle.

4 Thou art of more honour and might: then the hylles of the robbers.

5 The proude are robbed, they haue slept their sleepe: and al the men (whose handes were mightie) haue founde nothyng.

6 At thy rebuke (O God of Jacob:) both the charret and horse is fallen.

7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and who may stande in thy sight when thou art angry? B

8 Thou diddest cause thy iudgement to be heard from heauen: the earth trembled and was stil.

9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe al the meeke vpon earth.

10 The fiercenesse of man shall turne to thy praise: and the fiercenesse of them shalt thou refrayne.

11 Promise vnto the Lord your God, & kepe it, al ye that be rounde about him: bring presentes vnto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shal refrayne the spirite of princes: and is wonderfull among the kynges of the earth.

Voce mea ad dominum. Psal. lxxvii.

1 I Wil crye vnto God with my voyce, euen vnto God wil I crye with my voyce, and he shal hearken vnto me. A

2 In the time of trouble I sought the Lorde my sore ranne and ceassed not, in the nyght season my soule refused comfort.

3 When I am in heauineſſe I will thinke vpon God: when my hart is vexed, I wyll complayne.
4 Thou holdeſt mine eyes wakyng: I am ſo feeble that I can not ſpeake.
5 I haue conſydered the dayes of olde: and the yeeres that are paſt.
6 I cal to remembrance my ſong: and in the night I commune with mine owne hart, and ſearche out my ſpirites.
ℬ 7 Will the Lorde abſent him ſelfe for euer: and wil he be no more entreated?
8 Is his mercy cleane gone for euer: and is his promiſe come vtterly to an end for euermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gratious: and wyl he ſhut vp his louing kyndneſſe in diſpleaſure?
10 And I ſayde, it is mine owne infirmitie: but I wyl remember the yeeres of the right hande of the moſt higheſt.
11 I will remember the workes of the Lorde: and cal to minde thy wonders of olde time.
12 I wyll thinke alſo of al thy workes: and my talking ſhalbe of thy doyng.
13 Thy way, O God, is holy: who is ſo great a god, as our God?
ℭ 14 Thou art the God that doth wonders: and haſt declared thy power among people.
15 Thou haſt mightily deliuered thy people: euen the ſonnes of Iacob, and Ioſeph.
16 The waters ſawe thee, O God, the waters ſawe thee, and were afraide: the deapthes alſo were troubled.
17 The cloudes powred out water, the ayre thundred: & thine arrowes went abroade.
18 The voyce of thy thunder was hearde rounde about: the lyghtninges ſhone vpon the ground, the earth was moued, and ſhoke withal.
19 Thy way is in the ſea, and thy pathes in the great waters: and thy footeſteppes are not knowen.
20 Thou leddeſt thy people lyke sheepe: by the hande of Moſes and Aaron.

Attendite populo. Pſalm. lxxviii.

א 1 HEare my lawe, O my people: encline your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.
Euenyng prayer.
2 I wyl open my mouth in a parable: I will declare darke ſentences of olde.
3 Which we haue hearde and knowen: and ſuche as our fathers haue tolde vs.
4 That we ſhoulde not hide them from the chyldren of the generations to come: but to ſhewe the honour of the Lorde, his mighty and wonderful workes that he hath done.
5 He made a couenant with Iacob, & gaue Iſrael a lawe: which he commaunded our forefathers to teache their children.
6 That their poſteritie might knowe it: and the children which were yet vnborne.
7 To the intent that when they came vp: ב they might ſhewe their children the ſame.
8 That they might put their truſt in God: and not to forget the workes of GOD, but to keepe his commaundementes.
9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithleſſe and ſtubburne generation: a generation that ſet not their hart aright, and whoſe ſpirite cleaueth not ſtedfaſtly vnto God.
10 Like as the children of Ephraim: which being harneſſed and carying bowes, turned them ſelues backe in the day of battayle.
11 They kept not the couenant of God: and would not walke in his lawe.
12 But forgate what he had done: and the woonderfull worke that he had ſhewed for them.
13 Marueylous thinges dyd he in the ſight of our forefathers in the lande of Egypt: euen in the feelde of Zoan.
14 He diuided the ſea, & let them go through: ג he made the waters to ſtande on a heape.
15 In the day tyme alſo he led them with a cloude: and all the night through with a lyght of fyre.
16 He claue the harde rockes in the wylderneſſe, and gaue them drynke therof, as it had ben out of the great deapth.
17 He brought waters out of the ſtony rocke: ד ſo that it guſhed out lyke the riuers.
18 Yet for al this they ſinned more againſt hym: and prouoked the moſt highest in the wylderneſſe.
19 They tempted God in their hartes: and required meate for their luſt.
20 They ſpake againſt God alſo, ſaying: ה Shal god prepare a table in the wilderneſſe?
21 He ſmote the ſtony rocke in deede that the ו water guſhed out, and the ſtreames flowed withal: but can he geue bread alſo, or prouide fleſhe for this people?
22 When the lord heard this, he was wroth: ſo the fyre was kindled in Iacob, and there came vp heauie diſpleaſure againſt Iſrael.
23 Becauſe they beleeued not in God: and put not their truſt in his helpe.
24 So he commaunded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.
25 He rayned downe Manna alſo vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen.
26 So man dyd eate angelles foode: for he ſent them meate enough.

27 He

27 He cauſed the Eaſt winde to blowe vnder heauen: and thꝛough his power he bꝛought in the Southweaſt winde.
28 He rayned fleſhe vppon them as thicke as E duſt: and feathered fowles like as the ſand of the ſea.
29 He let it fall among their tentes: euen rounde about their habitation.
30 So they did eate and were wel fylled: foꝛ he gaue them their owne deſyre, they were not diſapoynted of their luſt.
31 But whyle the meate was yet in their mouthes, the heauy wꝛath of god came vppon them, and ſlue the welthyeſt of them:
yea and ſmote downe the cholen men that were in Iſrael.
32 But foꝛ al this, they ſinned yet moꝛe: and beleeued not his woonderous woꝛkes.
33 Therefoꝛe their dayes did he conſume in vanitie: and their yeeres in trouble.
34 When he ſlue them, they ſought him: and turned them early, and enquired after god.
35 And they remembꝛed that God was their ſtrength: and that the high God was their redeemer.
36 Neuertheleſſe, they dyd but flatter hym with their mouth: and diſſembled with him in their tongue.
F 37 Foꝛ their hart was not whole with him:
neither continued they ſtedfaſt in his cou-nannt.
38 But he was ſo mercyfull: that he foꝛgaue their miſdeedes, and deſtroyed them not.
39 Yea, many a tyme turned he his wꝛath away: and wouldꝛ not ſuffer his whole diſpleaſure to aryſe.
40 Foꝛ he conſydered that they were but fleſhe: and that they were euen a winde that paſſeth away, & commeth not agayne.
41 Many a time did they pꝛouoke him in the wyldernelle: and greeued him in the deſart.
42 They turned backe and tempted God:
and moued the holy one in Iſrael.
43 They thought not of his hande: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hande of the enimie.
44 Howe he had wꝛought his myꝛacles in Egypt: and his woonders in the feelde of Zoan.
45 He turned their waters into blood: ſo that they might not dꝛinke of the ryuers.
46 He ſent lyce among them, and deuoured them vp: and frogges to deſtroy them.
47 He gaue their fruites vnto the Caterpiller: and their labour vnto the Graſſehopper.
48 He deſtroyed their vines with hayle-ſtones: and their Mulbery trees with the froſte.
49 He ſmote their catayle alſo with hayle-ſtones: and their flockes with hot thunder bolres.
50 He caſt vpon them the furiouſneſſe of his wꝛath, anger, diſpleaſure, and trouble: and ſent euil angels among them.
51 He made away to his indignation, and ſpared not their ſoule from death: but gaue their lyfe ouer to the peſtilence.
52 And ſmote al the fyꝛſt bozne in Egypt: the moſt pꝛincipall and mighteſt in the dwel-lynges of Ham.
53 But as foꝛ his owne people, he led them foꝛth like ſheepe: and caryed them in the wyldernelle lyke a flocke.
54 He bꝛought them out ſafely, that they ſhoulde not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enimies with the ſea.
55 And bꝛought them within the boꝛders of his ſanctuarie: euen to his mountayne which he purchaſed with his right hande.
56 He caſt out the heathen alſo befoꝛe them:
cauſed their lande to be diuided among them foꝛ an heritage, and made the tribes of Iſrael to dwel in their tentes.
57 So they tempted and diſpleaſed the moſt hygh God: and kept not his teſtimonies.
58 But turned their backes, and fell away lyke their foꝛefathers: ſtarting aſyde lyke a bꝛoken bowe.
59 Foꝛ they greeued him with their hill aulters: and pꝛouoked him to diſpleaſure with their images.
60 When God hearde this, he was wꝛoth:
and tooke ſoare diſpleaſure at Iſrael.
61 So that he foꝛſooke the tabernacle in Silo: euen the tent that he hadde pitched among them.
62 He deliuered their power into captiuitie:
and their beautie into the enimies hande.
63 He gaue his people ouer alſo vnto the ſwoꝛde: and was wꝛoth with his inheritance.
64 The fyꝛe conſumed their young men: & their maidens were not geuen to mariage.
65 Their pꝛieſtes were ſlaine with ꝑ ſwoꝛd:
and there were no wydowes to make lamentation.
66 So the loꝛd awaked as one out of ſlepe:
and lyke a Giaunt refreſhed with wine.
67 He ſmote his enimies in the hinder parts:
and put them to a perpetual ſhame.
68 He refuſed the tabernacle of Joſeph:
and choſe not the tribe of Ephraim.
69 But choſe the tribe of Juda: euen the hyl of Sion which he loued.
70 And there he buylded his temple on hygh:
and laid the fundation of it, like the ground whiche he hath made continually.
71 He choſe Dauid alſo his ſeruaunt: and tooke

tooke him away from the ſheepe foldes.
72 As he was folowyng the Ewes great with young ones, he tooke him: that he might feede Jacob his people, and Iſrael his inheritance.
73 So he fed them with a faythfull and true hart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

Deus venerunt. Pſalm.lxxix.

1 A O God, the heathen are comme into thyne inheritaunce: thy holye temple haue they defyled, and made Hieruſalem an heape of ſtones.
Mornyng prayer.
2 The dead bodyes of thy ſeruantes haue they geuen to be meate vnto ꝑ fowles of the ayre: and the fleſhe of thy ſaintes vnto the beaſtes of the lande.
3 Their blood haue they ſhed like water on euery ſyde of Hieruſalem: and there was no man to bury them.
4 We are become an open ſhame to our enimies: a very ſcorne and deriſion vnto them that are round about vs.
5 Lorde how long wylt thou be angry: ſhal thy ielouſie burne lyke fyre for euer?
6 Powre out thyne indignation vppon the heathen that haue not knowen thee: and vppon the kingdomes that haue not called vpon thy name.
B 7 For they haue deuoured Jacob: and layd waſt his dwellyng place.
8 O remember not our olde ſynnes, but haue mercie vppon vs, and that ſoone: for we are come to great miſerie.
9 Helpe vs, O God, of our ſaluation, for the glory of thy name: O deliuer vs, & be merciful vnto our ſinnes for thy names ſake.
10 Wherefore dos the heathen ſay: where is nowe their God?
11 O let the vengeance of thy ſeruantes blood that is ſhedde: be openly ſhewed vppon the heathen in our ſyght.
12 O let the ſorowfull ſyghing of the priſoners come before thee: accordyng to the greatneſſe of thy power preſerue thou thole that are appoynted to dye.
13 And for the blaſphemie wherewith our neighbours haue blaſphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lorde, ſeuen folde into their boſome.
C 14 So we that be thy people and ſheepe of thy paſture, ſhall geue thee thankes for euer: and wyl allway be ſhewyng forth thy prayſe, from generation to generation.

Qui regis Iſrael. Pſalm.lxxx.

A 1 HEare, O thou ſhepheарde of Iſrael, thou that leadeſt Joſeph like a ſheepe: ſhewe thee ſelfe alſo thou that ſitteſt vpon the Cherubims.
2 Before Ephraim, Beniamin, & Manaſſes: ſtirre vp thy ſtrength, and comme and helpe vs.
3 Turne vs agayne, O God: ſhewe the light of thy countenance, and we ſhalbe whole.
4 O Lorde God of hoſtes: howe long wylt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?
5 Thou feedeſt them with the bread of teares: and geueſt them plenteouſneſſe of teares to drinke.
6 Thou haſt made vs a very ſtrife vnto our neighbours: and our enimies laugh vs to ſcorne.
7 Turne vs agayne, thou God of hoſtes: B ſhewe the lyght of thy countenaunce, and we ſhalbe whole.
8 Thou haſt brought a vine out of Egypt: thou haſt caſt out the heathen & planted it.
9 Thou madeſt roome for it: and when it had taken roote, it fylled the lande.
10 The hilles were couered with the ſhadow of it: and the boughes therof were lyke the goodly Cedar trees.
11 She ſtretched out her braunches vnto the ſea: and her boughes vnto the riuer.
12 Why haſt thou then broken downe her hedge: that all they whiche goe by plucke of her grapes.
13 The wylde Boze out of the wood dooth roote it vp: and the wylde beaſtes of the feelde deuoure it.
14 Turne thee agayne thou God of hoaſtes, C looke downe from heauen: beholde, and viſite this vine.
15 And the place of the vineyarde that thy right hande hath planted: and the branche that thou madeſt ſo ſtrong for thee ſelfe.
16 It is burnt with fyre, and cut downe: and they ſhall periſhe at the rebuke of thy countenaunce.
17 Let thy hande be vpon the man of thy right hande: and vppon the ſonne of man whom thou madeſt ſo ſtrong for thyne owne ſelfe.
18 And ſo wyll not we go backe from thee: O let vs liue, and we ſhal cal vpon thy name.
19 Turne vs agayne, O Lorde God of hoſtes: ſhewe the lyght of thy countenance, and we ſhalbe whole.

Exultate deo. Pſalm.lxxxi.

1 SIng we merily vnto God our ſtrength: A make a chearefull noyſe vnto the God of Jacob.

4 For this was made a ſtatute for Iſrael: and a lawe of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordeyned in Joſeph for a teſtimonie: when he came out of the lande of Egypt, and had hearde a ſtrange language.

6 I eaſed his ſhoulder from the burden: and his hands were delyuered from making the pottes.

7 Thou calledſt vpon me in troubles, and I delyuered thee: and hearde thee what tyme the ſtorme fell vpon thee.

8 I proued thee alſo: at the waters of ſtrife.

9 Heare, O my people, & I wyl aſſure thee, O Iſrael: yf thou wilt hearken vnto me.

10 There ſhall no ſtrange God be in thee: neither ſhalt thou worſhyp any other God.

11 I am the Lorde thy God, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I ſhal fyl it.

12 But my people would not heare my voyce: and Iſrael would not obey me.

13 So I gaue them vp vnto theyr owne hartes luſte: and let them folowe their owne imaginations.

14 O that my people would haue hearkened vnto me: for yf Iſrael had walked in my wayes.

15 I ſhould ſoone haue put downe theyr enimies: and turned my hand againſt theyr aduerſaries.

16 The haters of the Lord ſhould haue ben founde lyers: but theyr tyme ſhould haue endured for euer.

17 He ſhould haue fed them alſo with the fyneſt wheat flowre: and with hony out of the ſtony rocke ſhould I haue ſatiſfied thee.

Domine deus. Psalm. lxxxviii.

1 O Lorde God of my salvation, I have A cryed day and nyght before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thyne eare vnto my calling.
2 For my soule is full of trouble: and my lyfe draweth nygh vnto hel.
3 I am counted as one of them that goe downe vnto the pit: and I have ben euen as a man that hath no strength.
4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that be wounded and lye in the graue: which be out of remembrance, and are cut away

5 Thou hast layde me in the lowest pit: in a place of darknesse, and in the deepe.
6 Thyne indignation lyeth hard vpon me:
& thou hast vexed me with al thy stormes.
B 7 Thou hast put away myne acquaintance farre from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.
8 I am so fast in prison: that I cannot geat

9 My syght fayleth for very trouble: Lorde
I have called dayly vppon thee, I have stretched out my handes vnto thee.
10 Doest thou shewe wonders among the dead: or shall the dead ryse vp agayne and prayse thee.
11 Shall thy louyng kyndnesse be shewed struction?

12 Shal thy woonderous worckes be known ten?

13 Vnto thee have I cryed, O Lorde: and early shal my prayer come before thee.
C 14 Lorde, why abhorrest thou my soule: and hydest thou thy face from me?
15 I am in miserie, and lyke vnto him that is at the poynt to dye: (euen from my youth vp) thy terrours have I suffered with a troubled minde.
16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth over me: and the feare of thee hath vndone me.
17 They came rounde about me dayly lyke water: and compassed me togeather on every syde.
18 My louers and freendes hast thou put away from me: and hyd myne acquaintance out of my syght.

Misericordias domini. Psalm. lxxxix.

1 My song shalbe alway of the lo- A Euenyng uyng kyndnesse of the Lorde: prayer.
with my mouth wyll I euer be shewing thy trueth, from one generation to another.
2 For I have sayde, mercie shalbe set vp for ever: thy trueth shalt thou stablishe in the heauens.
3 I have made a couenaunt with my chosen: I have sworne vnto Dauid my ser-uaunt.
4 Thy seede wyll I stablishe for euer: and set vp thy throne from one generation to another.
5 O Lorde, the very heauens shall prayse thy woonderous worckes: and thy trueth in the congregation of the saintes.
6 For who is he among the cloudes: that shalbe compared vnto the Lorde?
7 And what is he among the goddes: that B shalbe like vnto the Lorde?
8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counsayle of the saintes: and to be had in reuerence of all them that are about him.
9 O Lorde God of hoastes, who is lyke vnto thee: thy trueth (most mighty Lorde) is on every syde.
10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillest the waues thereof when they arise.
11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thyne enimies abroade with thy mighty arme.
12 The heauens are thyne, and the earth is thyne: thou hast layde the foundation of the rounde worlde, and al that therein is.
13 Thou hast made the North & the South:
Tabor & Hermon shal reioyce in thy name.
14 Thou hast a migoty arme: strong is thy C hande, and hygh is thy ryght hande.
15 Righteousnesse and equitie is the habitation of thy seate: mercy and trueth shal goe before thy face.
16 Blessed is the people (O Lorde) that can reioyce in thee: they shal walke in the light of thy countenance.
17 Their delight shalbe dayly in thy name:
and in thy righteousnesse shall they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy louyng kyndnesse thou shalt lyft vp our hornes.
19 For the Lorde is our defence: the holye one of Israel is our kyng.
20 Thou spakest sometime in visions vnto thy saintes, and saidest: I have layde helpe vpon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
D 21 I have founde Dauid my servant: with my holy oyle have I annoynted him.
22 My hande shall holde him fast: and my arme shal strengthen him.
23 The enimie shall not be able to doo him violence: the sonne of wickednesse shall not hurt him.
24 I shall smite downe his foes before his face: and plagne them that hate him.
25 My trueth also & my mercy shalbe with him: and in my name shal his horne be exalted.
26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hande in the floodes.
27 He shall call me, thou art my father: my God, and my strong saluation.
E 28 And I will make him my first borne: higher then the kinges of the earth.
29 My mercy will I keepe for him for evermore: and my covenant shall stande fast with him.
30 His seede also will I make to endure for ever: & his throne as the dayes of heaven.
31 But if his children forsake my lawe: and walke not in my iudgementes.
32 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my commaundementes: I will visite their offentes with the rod, and their sinne with scourges.
33 Neuertheless, my louing kindnesse will I not vtterly take from him: nor suffer my trueth to fayle.
34 My couenaunt will I not breake, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lippes: I have sworne once by my holynesse that I will not fayle Dauid.
35 His seede shall endure for ever: and his seate is like as the sunne before me.
36 He shall stande fast for evermore as the moone: as the faithful witnesse in heaven.
37 But thou hast abhorred & forsaken thyne annoynted: and art displeased at him.
38 Thou hast broken the couenant of thy servant: and cast his crowne out of the grounde.
39 Thou hast ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken downe his strong holdes.
40 All they that go by, spoyle him: and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.
41 Thou hast set vp the right hand of his enimies & made all his aduersaries to reioyce.
42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his swoorde: and geuest him not victory in the batayle.

43 Thou hast put out his glory: and cast his throne downe to the grounde.
44 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortned: and couered him with dishonour.
45 Lorde, howe long wilt thou hyde thee selfe for ever: and shall thy wrath burne lyke fyre?
46 Oh remember howe short my tyme is: wherefore hast thou made all menne for nought?
47 What man is he that liueth, and shal not see death: and shall he deliuer his owne soule from the hande of hel?
48 Lorde where are thy olde louyng kyndnesses: whiche thou swarest vnto Dauid in thy trueth?
49 Remember (Lorde) the rebuke that thy seruantes haue: and howe I doo beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.
50 Wherewith thyne enimies haue blasphemed thee, and slaundered the footesteppes of thyne annoynted: praysed be the Lorde for evermore, Amen, Amen.

Domine refugium. Psalm.xc.

1 LOrde thou hast benne our refuge: from one generation to another. Mornyng prayer.
2 Before the mountaynes were brought forth, or euer the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlastyng, and worlde without ende.
3 Thou turnest man to destruction: agayne thou sayest, comme agayne ye children of men.
4 For a thousande yeeres in thy syght, are but as yesterday: seeyng that is past as a watch in the nyght.
5 Awoone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a sleepe: and fade away sodaynly lyke the grasse.
6 In the morning it is greene and groweth vp: but in the euenyng it is cut downe, dryed vp, and wythered.
7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: & are afrayde at thy wrathful indignation.
8 Thou hast set our mysdeedes before thee: and our secrete synnes in the syght of thy countenance.
9 For when thou art angrye, all our dayes are gone: we bring our yeeres to an ende, as it were a tale that is tolde.
10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeres and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourescore yeeres: yet is their strength then but labour and sorowe, so soone passeth it away, and we are gone.
11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath:

for

for euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teache vs to number our dayes: that we may apply our hartes vnto wisedome.

B 13 Turne thee againe (O Lorde) at the last: and be gratious vnto thy seruantes.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercye, and that soone: so shal we reioyce and be glad al the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort vs againe nowe after the tyme that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeres wherein we haue suffered aduersitie.

16 Shewe thy seruantes thy worke: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious maiestie of the Lorde our God be vppon vs: prosper thou the worke of our handes vpon vs, O prosper thou our handy worke.

Qui habitat. psalm.xci.

A 1 WHo so dwelleth vnder the defence of the most high: shal abyde vnder the shadowe of the almightie.

2 I wyl say vnto the Lorde, thou art my hope and my strong holde: my God, in him wyl I trust.

3 For he shal deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: & from the noysome pestilence.

4 He shal defende thee vnder his winges, and thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faythfulnesse & trueth shalbe thy shielde and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraide for any terrour by night: nor for ỳ arow that fleeth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in the darknesse: nor for the sickenesse that destroyeth in the noone day.

B 7 A thousand shal fal beside thee, and tenne thousande at thy right hand: but it shal not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the rewarde of the vngodly.

9 For thou Lorde art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shal no euyll happen vnto thee: neither shal any plague come nygh thy dwelling.

11 For he shal geue his angels charge ouer thee: to kepe thee in al thy wayes.

12 They shal beare thee in their handes: that thou hurt not thy foote against a stone, 13 Thou shalt go vpon the Lion and Adder: the young Lion and the Dragon shalt thou treade vnder thy feete.

C 14 Because he hath set his loue vppon me, therefore shal I deliuer him: I shal set him vp, because he hath knowen my name.

15 He shal cal vppon me, and I wyl heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I wyl deliuer him, and bring him to honour.

16 With long life wyl I satisfie him: and shewe him my saluation.

Bonum est confiteri. psalm.xcii.

A 1 IT is a good thing to geue thankes vnto the Lorde: and to syng prayses vnto thy name, O most highest.

2 To tel of thy louyng kindenesse early in the morning: and of thy trueth in the nyght season.

3 Vppon an instrument of ten stringes, and vppon the Lute: vppon a loude instrument, and vpon the Harpe.

4 For thou Lord hast made me glad thorow thy workes: and I wyl reioyce in geuyng prayse for the operations of thy handes.

5 O Lorde, howe glorious are thy workes: and thy thoughtes are very deepe.

6 An vnwise man dooth not wel consyder this: and a foole dooth not vnderstand it.

7 When the vngodly are greene as ỳ grasse, B & when al the workes of wickednesse do florish: then shal they be destroied for euer, but thou lord art the most highest for euermore.

8 For loe, thine enimies (O Lord) loe thine enimies shal perish: and al the workers of wickednesse shalbe destroyed.

9 But my horne shalbe exalted like the horne of an Unicorne: for I am annoynted with fresh oyle.

10 Myne eye also shal see his lust of mine enimies: and mine eare shal heare his desire of the wicked that rise vp against me.

11 The righteous shal florishe like a Palme tree: and shal spreade abroade like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Suche as be planted in the house of the Lorde: shal florishe in the courtes (of the house) of our God.

13 They shal also bring foorth more fruite in their age: and shalbe fat and wel liking.

14 That they may shew how true the Lord my strength is: and that there is no vnrighteousnesse in him.

Deus vltionum. psalm. xciiii.

A 1 O Lord God to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shewe thee selfe.
2 Aryse thou iudge of the worlde: and rewarde the proude after their deserueing.
3 Lorde, howe long shal the vngodly: howe long shal the vngodly triumph?
4 Howe long shal al wicked doers speake so disdainefully: and make such proud boasting?
5 They smite downe thy people, O Lorde: and trouble thine heritage.
6 They murder the wydowe and the stranger: and put the fatherlesse to death.
B 7 And yet they say, tushe, the Lorde shal not see: neither shal the God of Iacob regarde it.
8 Take heede ye vnwise among the people: O ye fooles, when wyl ye vnderstande?
9 He that planted the eare, shall he not heare: or he that made the eye, shal he not see?
10 Or he that nurtureth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shal he not punishe?
11 The Lord knoweth the thoughtes of man: that they are but vaine.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest (O Lorde:) and teachest him in thy lawe.
13 That thou mayest geue him patience in time of aduersitie: vntyll the pyt be digged vp for the vngodly.
C 14 For the Lorde wyl not faile his people: neither wyl he forsake his inheritance.
15 Vntyl righteousnesse turne againe vnto iudgement: al suche as be true in harte shal folowe it.
16 Who wyl ryse vp with me against the wicked: or who wyl take my parte against the euyl doers?
17 If the Lorde had not helped me: it had not failed but my soule had benne put to silence.
18 But when I said, my foote had slipped: thy mercy (O Lorde) holde me vp.
19 In the multitude of the sorowes that I had in my hart: thy comfortes haue refreshed my soule.
20 Wylt thou haue anything to doo with the scholt of wickednesse: which imagineth mischeefe as a lawe?

21 They gather them together against D the soule of the righteous: and condemne the innocent blood.
22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.
23 He shal recompence them their wickednesse, and destroye them in their owne malice: yea, the Lorde our God shal destroy them.

Venite, exultemus. psalm. xcv.

morning prayer.

1 O Come, let vs sing vnto the Lorde: let A vs hartely reioyce in the strength of our saluation.
2 Let vs comme before his presence with thankesgeuing: and shewe our selues glad in him with psalmes.
3 For the Lorde is a great God: and a great kyng above al Gods.
4 In his hande are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hylles is his also.
5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his handes prepared the dry lande.
6 O come, let vs worshyp and fal downe: and kneele before the Lorde our maker.
7 For he is (the Lorde) our God: and we B are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his handes.
8 To day if ye wyl heare his voyce, harden not your hartes: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wyldernesse.
9 When your fathers tempted me: proued me, and sawe my woorkes.
10 Fourtie yeres long was I grieued with this generation, and said: it is a people that doo erre in their hartes, for they haue not knowen my wayes.
11 Vnto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Cantate Domino. psalm. xcvi.

1 O Syng vnto the Lorde a newe songe: A sing vnto the Lord al the whole earth.
2 Syng vnto the Lord, and praise his name: be telling of his saluation from day to day.
3 Declare his honour vnto the heathen: and his woonders vnto al people.
4 For the Lorde is great, and can not worthily be praysed: he is more to be feared then al Gods.
5 As for the Goddes of the heathen, they be but Idols: but it is the Lord that made the heauens.
6 Glory and worshyp are before him: power and er and honour are in his sanctuarie.

B 7 Ascribe vnto the Lorde (O ye kynredes of the people:) ascribe vnto the Lord worshyp and power.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lorde the honour due vnto his name: bryng presentes, and come into his courtes.

9 O worshyp the Lord in the beautie of holynesse: let the whole earth stande in awe of hym.

10 Tel it out among the heathen that the Lord is kyng: and that it is he which hath made the rounde worlde so fast that it can not be moued, and howe that he shal iudge the people ryghteously.

11 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is.

12 Let the feelde be ioyful, and al that is in it: thē shal al the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lord.

13 For he commeth, for he commeth to iudge the earth: and with ryghteousnesse to iudge the worlde, and the people with his trueth.

Dominus regnauit. Psalm.xcvii.

A 1 THE Lorde is kyng, the earth may be glad thereof: yea the multitude of the Iles may be glad thereof.

2 Cloudes and darknesse are rounde about him: righteousnesse and iudgement are the habitation of his seate.

3 There shal go a fyre before him: & burne vp his enimies on euery syde.

4 His lyghtenynges gaue shyne vnto the worlde: the earth sawe it, and was afraid.

5 The hylles melted lyke waxe at the presence of the Lorde: at the presence of the Lorde of the whole earth.

6 The heauens haue declared his ryghteousnesse: and all the people haue seene his glorie.

B 7 Confounded be al they that worshyp carued images: and that delite in vaine gods, worshyp him al ye gods.

8 Sion hearde of it, and reioyced: and the daughters of Iuda were glad, because of thy iudgementes, O Lorde.

9 For thou Lorde art hygher then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted farre aboue al goddes.

10 O ye that loue the Lorde, see that ye hate the thyng whiche is euyll: the Lorde preserueth the soules of his saintes, he shal delyuer them from the hande of the vngodly.

11 There is sprong vp a lyght for the ryghteous: and ioyful gladnesse for suche as be true harted.

12 Reioyce in the Lorde ye ryghteous: and geue thankes for a remembrance of his holinesse.

A 1 O Sing vnto the Lord a newe song: for he hath donne marueylous thynges. Euenyng prayer.

2 With his owne ryght hande, and with his holy armes hath he gotten him selfe the victorie.

3 The Lorde declared his saluation: his righteousnesse hath he openly shewed in the syght of the heathen.

4 He hath remembred his mercie & trueth towarde the house of Israel: and all the endes of the worlde haue seene the saluation of our God.

5 Shewe your selues ioyful vnto the Lord, all ye landes: syng, reioyce, and geue thankes.

6 Prayse the Lorde vpon the harpe: syng to the harpe with a Psalme of thankes geuyng.

B 7 With Trumpettes also and Shaulmes: O shewe your selues ioyful before the Lord the kyng.

8 Let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is: the round worlde, and they that dwel therein.

9 Let the floodes clap their handes, and let the hilles be ioyful together before the Lorde: for he is come to iudge the earth.

10 With ryghteousnesse shall he iudge the worlde: and the people with equitie.

Dominus regnauit. Psalm.xcix.

A 1 THE Lord is king, be the people neuer so vnpatient: he sytteth betweene the Cherubims, be the earth neuer so vnquiet.

2 The Lorde is great in Sion: and hygh aboue al people.

3 They shal geue thankes vnto thy name: whiche is great, wonderful, and holy.

4 The kynges power loueth iudgement, thou hast prepared equitie: thou hast executed iudgement and righteousnesse in Iacob.

5 O magnifie the Lorde our God: and fal downe before his footestoole, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priestes, and Samuel among suche as cal vpon his name: these called vpon the Lorde, and he heard them.

B 7 He spake vnto them out of the cloudie pillar:

ler: for they kept his testimonies, and the lawe that he gaue them.

8 Thou heardest them (O Lord our God:) thou forgauest them, O God, & punishedst their owne inuentions.

9 O magnifye the Lord our God, and worshyp hym vpon his holy hyl: for the Lorde our God is holy.

Iubilate deo. Psal.C.

1 O Be ioyful in the Lorde al ye landes: serue the Lorde with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lorde he is God, it is he that hath made vs, & not we our selues: we are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.

3 O go your way into his gates with thankesgeuing, & into his courtes with prayse: be thankfull vnto him, and speake good of his name.

4 For the Lorde is gracious, his mercie is euerlastyng: and his trueth endureth from generation to generation.

Misericordiam et iudicium. Psalm.Ci.

1 MY song shalbe of mercie and iudgement: vnto thee, O lord wil I sing.

2 O let me haue vnderstanding: in the way of godlynesse.

3 When wylt thou come vnto me: I wyll walke in my house with a perfect hart.

4 I wyl take no wicked thing in hande, I hate the synnes of vnfaythfulnesse: there shal no suche cleaue vnto me.

5 A frowarde hart shal depart from me: I wyl not knowe a wicked person.

6 Whoso priuily slandereth his neighbour: hym wyl I destroy.

7 Whoso hath also a proud looke, and high stomacke: I wyl not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes looke vnto such as be faithfull in the lande: that they may dwel with me.

9 Whoso leadeth a godly life: he shalbe my seruant.

10 There shal no deceitful person dwell in my house: he that telleth lyes, shall not tarrie in my syght.

11 I shall soone destroy al the vngodly that are in the lande: that I may roote out all wicked doers from the citie of the Lorde.

1 HEare my prayer, O Lorde: and let my crying come vnto thee. Mornyng prayer.

2 Hyde not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I cal, O heare me, & that ryght soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away lyke smoke: and my bones are brent vp as it were a fyrebrande.

4 My hart is smitten downe, and withered lyke grasse: so that I forgeat to eate my bread.

5 For the voyce of my gronyng: my bones wyl scarse cleaue to my flesshe.

6 I am become lyke a Pellican in the wyldernes: & like an owle that is in the desart.

7 I haue watched, and am euen as it were a sparow: that sitteth alone vpon the house toppe. B

8 Myne enimies reuile me al the day long: and they that are mad vpon me, are swoorne togeather agaynst me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drynke with weepyng.

10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My dayes are gone lyke a shadowe: and I am wythered lyke grasse.

12 But thou (O Lord) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout al generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and haue mercie vpon Sion: for it is tyme that thou haue mercie vpon her, yea the tyme is come.

14 And why? thy seruantes thynke vpon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust. C

15 The heathen shal feare thy name, O Lorde: and all the kynges of the earth thy maiestie.

16 When the Lord shal build vp Sion: and when his glorie shal appeare.

17 When he turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: and despiseth not their desyre.

18 This shalbe written for those that come after: and the people whiche shalbe borne, shal prayse the Lorde.

19 For he hath loked downe from his sanctuarie: out of the heauen did the Lorde behold the earth.

20 That he might heare the mourninges of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the children appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion: & his worship at Hierusalem, D

22 When the people are gathered togeather: and the kingdomes also to serue the Lorde.

25 Thou Lorde in the beginning haſt layde the fundation of the earth: and the heauens are the woorke of thy handes.
26 They ſhal periſh, but thou ſhalt endure: they al ſhal waxe olde, as dooth a garment.
27 And as a veſture ſhalt thou change them, and they ſhalbe changed: but thou art the ſame, and thy yeeres ſhal not faile.
28 The children of thy ſeruantes ſhal continue: and their ſeede ſhal ſtande faſt in thy ſight.

4 Which ſaueth thy life from deſtruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and louing kindneſſe.
5 Which ſatisfieth thy mouth with good thinges: making thee young and luſtie as an Eagle.
6 The Lorde executeth righteouſneſſe and iudgement: for al them that are oppreſſed with wrong.
B 7 He ſhewed his wayes vnto Moſes: his woorkes vnto the children of Iſrael.
8 The Lorde is ful of compaſſion and mercy: long ſuffering, and of great goodneſſe.
9 He wyl not alway be chidyng: neyther keepeth he his anger for euer.
10 He hath not dealt with vs after our ſinnes: nor rewarded vs accordyng to our wickednes.

12 Looke howe wyde alſo the Eaſt is from the Weſt: ſo farre hath he ſet our ſynnes from vs.
13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his owne children: euen ſo is the Lorde mercyful vnto them that feare him.
C 14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: he remembreth that we are but duſt.
15 The dayes of man are but as graſſe: for he flouriſheth as a flowre of the feelde.
16 For as ſoone as the wynde goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof ſhal knowe it no more.

9 Thou haſt ſet them their boundes which they ſhal not paſſe: neyther turne againe to couer the earth.
10 He ſendeth the ſpringes into the ryuers: whiche runne among the hylles.
11 Al beaſtes of the feeld drinke therof: and the wylde aſſes quenche their thirſt.
12 Beſide them ſhal the foules of the ayre haue their habitation: and ſyng among the branches.
13 He watereth the hylles from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy woorkes.
14 He bringeth forth graſſe for the cattel: and greene hearbe for the ſeruice of men. C
15 That he may bring foode out of the earth, & wyne that maketh glad the hart of man: and oyle to make him a chereful countenance, and bread to ſtrength mans hart.
16 The trees of the Lorde alſo are full of ſappe: euen the Cedars of Libanus, which he

he hath planted.
17 Wherin the byrdes make their neastes: & the fyre trees are a dwelling for the storke.
18 The high hyls are a refuge for the wylde goates: and so are the stony rockes for the conyes.
19 He appointed the moone for certaine seasons: & the sunne knoweth his going down.
20 Thou makest darkenesse, that it may be night: wherein al the beastes of the forrest doo moone.
D 21 The Lions roaring after their pray: doo seeke their meate at God.
22 The sunne ariseth, and they gest them away together: and laye them downe in their dennes.
23 Man goeth forth vnto his worke, and to his labour: vntyl the euenyng.
24 O Lorde, how manyfolde are thy woorkes: in wisedome hast thou made them al, the earth is ful of thy richesse.
25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherin are thynges creepyng innumerable, both smal and great beastes.
26 There goe the shippes, and there is that Leuiathan: whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.
27 These waite all vppon thee: that thou mayest gene them meate in due season.
E 28 When thou genest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thine hande, they are filled with good.
29 When thou hydest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they dye, & are turned againe to their dust.
30 When thou lettest thy breath goe forth, they shalbe made: and thou shalt renue the face of the earth.
31 The glorious maiestie of the Lorde shal endure for euer: the Lord shal reioyce in his woorkes.
32 The earth shal tremble at the looke of him: if he doo but touch the hylles, they shal smoke.
33 I wyl syng vnto the Lorde as long as I lyue: I wyl prayse my God whyle I haue my beyng.
F 34 And so shal my woordes please him: my ioy shalbe in the Lorde.
35 As for synners, they shalbe consumed out of the earth, and the vngodly shal comme to an ende: prayse thou the Lord, O my soule, prayse the Lorde.

Confitemini Domino. psalm. Cv.

A 1 O Gene thankes vnto the Lord, and cal vpon his name: tel the people what thinges he hath done.
Mornyng prayer.
2 O let your songues be of him, & prayse him: and let your talking be of al his woonderous woorkes.
3 Reioyce in his holy name: let the harte of them reioyce that seeke the Lorde.
4 Seeke the Lorde and his strength: seeke his face euermore.
5 Remember the marueylous woorkes that he hath done: his woonders, and the iudgementes of his mouth.
6 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant: ye children of Iacob his chosen.
7 He is the Lorde our God: his iudgements are in al the worlde. B
8 He hath ben alway myndeful of his couenant and promise: that he made to a thousande generations.
9 Euen the couenant that he made with Abraham: and the othe that he sware vnto Isahac.
10 And appointed the same vnto Iacob for a lawe: and to Israel for an euerlasting testament.
11 Saying, vnto thee wyl I gene the lande of Chanaan: the lot of your inheritance.
12 When there was yet but a fewe of them: and they strangers in the lande.
13 What time as they went from one nation to another: from one kyngdome to another people.
14 He suffered no man to doo them wrong: C but reproued euen kinges for their sakes.
15 Touche not myne annoynted: and do my prophetes no harme.
16 Moreouer, he called for a dearth vpon the land: & destroyed al the prouision of bread.
17 But he had sent a man before them: euen Ioseph whiche was solde to be a bonde seruant.
18 Whose feete they hurt in the stockes: the yron entred into his soule.
19 Untyl the time came that his cause was knowen: the worde of the Lord tryed him.
20 The kyng sent and deliuered hym: the prince of the people let hym goe free.
21 He made him Lord also of his house: and D ruler of al his substance.
22 That he might informe his princes after his wil: & teach his senatours wisdome.
23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Iacob was a stranger in the lande of Ham.
24 And he encreased his people exceedingly: & made them stronger then their enimies.
25 Whose hart turned, so that they hated his people: and dealt vntruely with his seruantes.
26 Then sent he Moses his seruant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and woonders in the lande of Ham.
28 He sent darkenesse, and it was darke: and they they were not obedient vnto his woꝛde.

29 He turned their waters into blood: and ſlue their fyſhe.
30 Their land bꝛought foꝛth frogges: yea euen in their kynges chambers.
31 He ſpake the woꝛde, and there came all maner of flies: & lice in al their quarters.
32 He gaue them hayſtones foꝛ rayne: and flambes of fyꝛe in their lande.
33 He ſmote their vines alſo, and figge trees: and deſtroyed the trees that were in their coaſtes.
34 He ſpake the woꝛd, and the grashoppers came, and caterpyllers innumerable: and dyd eate vp al the graſſe in their lande, and deuoured the fruite of their grounde.
35 He ſmote al the fyꝛſt bozne in their land: euen the cheefe of al their ſtrength.
36 He bꝛought them foꝛth alſo with ſyluer and golde: there was not one feeble perſon among their tribes.
37 Egypt was glad at their departing: foꝛ they were afrayde of them.
38 He ſpꝛead a cloude to be a couering: and fyꝛe to geue lyght in the nyght ſeaſon.
39 At their deſyꝛe he bꝛought Quayles: and he fylled them with the bꝛead of heauen.
40 He opened the rocke of ſtone, and the waters flowed out: ſo that ryuers ranne in the dꝛye places.
41 Foꝛ why? he remembꝛed his holy pꝛomiſe: and Abꝛaham his ſeruant.
42 And he bꝛought foꝛth his people with ioy: and his choſen with gladneſſe.
43 And gaue them the landes of the heathen: and they toke the labours of the people in poſſeſſion.
44 That they might keepe his ſtatutes: and obſerue his lawes.

Confitemini domino. Pſal. lxvi.

1 O Geue thankes vnto the Loꝛd, foꝛ he is gracious: and his mercie endureth foꝛ euer.
2 Who canne expꝛeſſe the noble actes of the Loꝛd: oꝛ ſhewe foꝛth all his pꝛayſe?
3 Bleſſed are they that alway keepe iudgement: and doo ryghteouſneſſe.
4 Remember me, O Loꝛde, accoꝛding to the fauour that thou beareſt vnto thy people: O viſite me with thy ſaluation.
5 That I may ſee the felicitie of thy choſen: and reioyce in the gladneſſe of thy people, & geue thanks with thyne inheritance.
6 We haue ſynned with our fathers: we haue done amiſſe and dealt wickedly.
7 Our fathers regarded not thy woonders in Egypt, neyther kept they thy great goodneſſe in remembꝛance: but were diſobedient at the ſea, euen at the red ſea.
8 Neuertheleſſe, he helped them foꝛ his names ſake: that he myght make his power to be knowen. B
9 He rebuked the redde ſea alſo, and it was dꝛyed vp: ſo he led them thꝛough the depe, as thꝛough a wyldernelle.
10 And he ſaued them from the aduerſaries hande: and deliuered them from the hand of the enimie.
11 As foꝛ thoſe that troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.
12 Then beleeued they his woꝛdes: and ſang pꝛayſe vnto hym.
13 But within a whyle, they foꝛgate his woꝛkes: & would not abyde his counſaile.
14 But luſt came vpon them in the wyldernelſe: and they tempted God in the deſart. C
15 And he gaue them their deſyꝛe: and ſent leannelſe withal into their ſoule.
16 They angred Moſes alſo in the tentes: and Aaron the ſaint of the Loꝛde.
17 So the earth opened, and ſwallowed vp Dathan: and couered the congregation of Abiram.
18 And the fyꝛe was kyndled in their companie: the flame burnt vp the vngodly.
19 They made a Calfe in Hoꝛeb: and woꝛſhypped the moulten image.
20 Thus they turned their glozie: into the ſimilitude of a Calfe that eateth hay.
21 And they foꝛgat God their ſauiour: whiche had done ſo great thynges in Egypt. D
22 Wonderous woꝛkes in the land of Ham: and feareful thynges by the red ſea.
23 So he ſayde he woulde haue deſtroyed them: had not Moſes his choſen ſtand beſoꝛe him in the gappe: to turne away his wꝛathful indignation, leſt he ſhoulde deſtroy thee.
24 Yea they thought ſcoꝛne of that pleaſant land: and gaue no credence vnto his woꝛd.
25 But murmured in their tentes: and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Loꝛd.
26 Then lift he vp his hand againſt them: to ouerthꝛowe them in the wilderneſſe.
27 To caſt out their ſeede among the nations: and to ſcatter them in the landes.
28 They ioyned them ſelues vnto Baal Peoꝛ: and ate the offeringes of the dead.
29 Thus they pꝛouoked him vnto anger with their owne inuentions: & the plague was great among them.
30 Then ſtoode vp Phinees, and pꝛayed: and ſo the plague ceaſſed.
31 And that was counted vnto him foꝛ righteouſnes: amõg al poſteritie ſo foꝛ euermoꝛe.

32 They

32 They angred him also at the waters of stryfe: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.
33 Because they prouoked his spirite: so that he spake vnadvisedly with his lyppes.
F 34 Neyther destroyed they the heathen: as the Lorde commaunded them.
35 But were myngled among the heathen: and learned their workes.
36 Insomuche that they worshypped their idols, whiche turned to their owne decay: yea they offred their sonnes and daughters vnto deuylles.
37 And shed innocent blood, euen the blood of their sonnes & of their daughters, whom they offered vnto the idolles of Chanaan, and the lande was defyled with blood.
38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoorying with their owne inuentions.
39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lorde kyndled agaynst his people: insomuch that he abhorred his owne inheritance.
40 And he gaue them ouer into the hande of the heathen: and they that hated them were lordes ouer them.
G 41 Their enimies oppressed them: and had them in subiection.
42 Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled agaynst him with their owne inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickednesse.
43 Neuertheles, when he sawe their aduersitie: he hearde their complaynt.
44 He thought vpon his couenant, and pitied them according vnto the multitude of his mercies: yea he made all those that had led them away captiue, to pitie them.
45 Deliuer vs (O Lord our God) and gather vs from among the heathen: that we may geue thankes vnto thy holy name, and make our boast of thy prayse.
46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from euerlastyng, and worlde without end: and let al the people say, Amen.

Confitemini domino. Psal. Cvii.

Q 1 O Geue thankes vnto the Lord, for he is gratious: and his mercie endureth for euer.
Mornyng prayer.
2 Let them geue thanks whom the Lorde hath redeemed: and delyuered from the hande of the enimie.
3 And gathered them out of the landes, from the east, and from the west: from the north, and from the south.
4 They went astray in the wyldernesse out of the way: and found no citie to dwel in.
5 Hungrie and thirstie: their soule fainted in them.
6 So they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble: and he delyuered them from their distresse.
7 He led them forth by the right way: that D they might go to ꝑ citie where they dwelt.
8 O that men woulde therefore prayse the Lorde for his goodnesse, & declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.
9 For he satisfieth the emptie soule: and filleth the hungrie soule with goodnesse.
10 Such as sat in darknesse & in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery & iron.
11 Because they rebelled against the wordes of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsayle of the moste hygh.
12 He also brought downe their hart thorowe heauinesse: they fel downe, and there was none to helpe them vp.
13 So when they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he delyuered them out of their distresse.
14 For he brought them out of darknesse, C and out of the shadowe of death: and brake their bondes in sunder.
15 O that men would therefore prayse the Lord for his goodnesse: & declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.
16 For he hath broken the gates of brasse: and smytten the barres of iron in sunder.
17 Foolishe men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickednesse.
18 Their soule abhorred al maner of meate: and they were euen harde at deathes dore.
19 So when they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he delyuered them out of their distresse.
20 He sent his worde and healed them: and they were saued from their destruction.
21 O that men would therefore prayse the D Lord for his goodnesse: & declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.
22 That they would offer vnto him the sacrifice of thankesgiuyng: and tell out his workes with gladnesse.
23 They that goe downe to the sea in ships: and occupie their business in great waters.
24 These men see the workes of the Lord: and his wonders in the deepe.
25 For at his worde the stormie winde ariseth: which lifteth vp the waues thereof.
26 They are carried vp to the heauen, and downe againe to the depe: their soule melteth away, because of the trouble.
27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits end.
28 So when they crye vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he delyuereth them out of their distresse.
29 For he maketh the storme to cease: so that that the wonts therof are fyl.

30 Then are they glad, because they be at rest: and so he bringeth them vnto the hauen where they wolde be.

31 O that men wolde therefore prayse the Lorde for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the chyldren of men.

32 That they wolde exalt hym also in the congregation of the people: and prayse him in the seate of the elders.

33 Whiche turneth the flooddes into a wyldernesse: and dryeth vp the water springes.

34 A fruiteful lande maketh he barrayne: for the wickednesse of them that dwel therein.

F 35 Agayne, he maketh the wyldernesse a standing water: and water springes of a dryе grounde.

36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may builde them a citie to dwel in.

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyardes: to yelde them fruites of increase.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiplie exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

39 And agayne, when they are minished and brought lowe: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though he suffer them to be euyl entreated through tyrantes: and let them wander out of the way in the wyldernesse.

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of miserie: and maketh him houholdes like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous wyll consyder this, and reioyce: and the mouth of al wickednesse shalbe stopped.

43 Who so is wise wil ponder these things: and they shal vnderstande the louing kyndnesse of the Lorde.

Paratum cor meum. Psalm. cviii.

1 O God, my hart is redy (my hart is redy:) I wyl sing and geue prayse with the best member that I haue.

2 Awake thou Lute and Harpe: I mee selfe wyl awake right early.

3 I wyl geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, among the people: I wil sing prayses vnto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is greater then the heauens: and thy trueth reacheth vnto the cloodes.

5 Set vp thee selfe (O God) aboue the heauens: and thy glory aboue al the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: let thy right hande saue them, and heare thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holynesse: I wyl B reioyce therefore and diuide Sichem, and meat out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Iuda is my lawgeuer, Moab is my washpot: ouer Edom wil I cast out my shoe, vpon the Philistines wyl I triumph.

10 Who wyl leade me into the strong citie: and who wil bring me into Edom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken vs, O GOD: and wylt not thou GOD goe forth with our hostes?

12 O helpe vs agaynst the enimie: for vayne is the helpe of man.

13 Through God we shal do great actes: and it is he that shal treade downe our enimies.

Deus laudem. Psal. cix.

1 HOlde not thy tongue, O God of my A prayse: for the mouth of the vngodly, yea and the mouth of the deceipteful is opened vpon me.

2 And they haue spoken agaynst me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with wordes of hatred, & fought against me without a cause.

3 For the loue that I had vnto them, loe, they take nowe my contrary parte: but I geue mee selfe vnto prayer.

4 Thus haue they rewarded me euyll for good: and hatred for my good wyl.

5 Set thou an vngodly man to be ruler ouer hym: and let Satan stande at his right hande.

6 When sentence is geuen vpon hym, let hym be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be fewe: and let another take his office. B

8 Let his chyldren be fatherlesse: and his wyfe a widowe.

9 Let his chyldren be vagabondes, and begge their breade: let them seeke it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath: and let the stranger spoyle his labour.

11 Let there be no man to pitie hym: nor to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse chyldren.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be cleane put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lorde: and let not the sinne of his mother be donne away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lorde: C that he may roote out the memorial of them from of the earth.

15 And that becauſe his mynde was not to do good: but perſecuted the poore helpeleſſe man, that he might ſlea hym that was vexed at the hart.

16 His delite was in curſing, and it ſhal happen vnto him: he loued not bleſſing, therefore ſhal it be farre from hym.

17 He clothed himſelfe with curſing, lyke as with a rayment: and it ſhall come into his bowels lyke water, and lyke oyle into his bones.

18 Let it be vnto him as the cloke that he hath vpon him: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lorde vnto mine enimies: and to thoſe that ſpeake euil agaynſt my ſoule.

20 But deale thou with me (O Lorde God) accordyng vnto thy name: for ſweete is thy mercy.

D 21 O deliuer me, for I am helpeleſſe & poore: and my hart is wounded within me.

22 I goe hence like the ſhadowe that departeth: & am driuen away as the graſſhopper.

23 My knees are weake through faſtyng: my fleſhe is dried vp for want of fatneſſe.

24 I became alſo a rebuke vnto them: they that loked vpon me, ſhaked theyr heades.

25 Helpe me (O Lord my God:) oh ſaue me accordyng to thy mercy.

26 And they ſhal know howe that this is thy hande: and that thou Lorde haſt done it.

27 Though they curſe, yet bleſſe thou: and let them be confounded that riſe vp againſt me, but let thy ſeruant reioyce.

28 Let mine aduerſaries be clothed with ſhame: and let them couer themſelues with theyr owne confuſion, as with a cloke.

29 As for me, I wyll geue great thankes vnto the Lorde with my mouth: and praiſe him among the multitude.

30 For he ſhall ſtande at the ryght hande of the poore: to ſaue his ſoule from vnrighteous iudges.

Dixit dominus. Pſal. Cx.

A Morning prayer.

1 THe Lorde ſayd vnto my Lorde: ſyt thou on my ryght hande, vntyll I make thyne enimies thy foote ſtoole.

2 The Lorde ſhall ſende the rod of thy power out of Sion: be thou ruler euen in the middes among thyne enimies.

3 In the day of thy power ſhall the people offer thee freewil offeringes, with an holy worſhyp: the deawe of thy birth is of the wombe of the morning.

4 The Lorde ſwate, and wil not repent: thou art a prieſt for euer, after the order of Melchiſedech.

5 The Lorde vpon thy ryght hande: ſhall wounde euen kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He ſhalbe iudge among the heathen, he ſhal fyll the places with the dead bodyes: and ſmite in ſunder the heades ouer diuers countreyes.

7 He ſhal drinke of the brooke in the way: therefore ſhal he lift vp his head.

2 The workes of the Lord are great: ſought out of al them that haue pleaſure therin.

3 His worke is worthy to be prayſed, and had in honour: and his righteouſneſſe endureth for euer.

4 The mercyfull and gratious Lorde hath ſo done his maruelous workes: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath geuen meate vnto them that feare hym: he ſhal euer be mindfull of his couenant.

6 He hath ſhewed his people the power of his workes: that he may geue them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The workes of his handes are veritie and iudgement: all his commaundementes are true. B

8 They ſtande faſt for euer and euer: and are done in trueth and equitie.

9 He ſent redemption vnto his people: he hath commaunded his couenant for euer, holy and reuerent is his name.

10 The feare of the Lorde is the begynning of wyſedome: a good vnderſtandyng haue al they that do thereafter, the prayſe of it endureth for euer.

7 He will not be afrayde for any euyll tydynges: for his hart standeth fast and beleeueth in the Lorde.

8 His hart is stablished and will not shrinke: vntyl he see his desire vpon his enimies.

9 He hath dispersed abroade and geuen to the poore: and his righteousnesse remayneth for euer, his horne shalbe exalted with honour.

10 The vngodly shal see it, and it shal greeue him: he shal gnash with his teeth, and consume away, the desire of the vngodly shall perishe.

Laudate pueri. Psalm. C. xiii.

1 PRaise the Lorde (ye seruauntes:) O praysse the name of the Lorde.

2 Blessed be the name of the Lord: from this time forth for euermore.

3 The Lordes name is praysed: from the rysing vp of the sunne, vnto the going downe of the same.

4 The Lorde is high aboue al heathen: and his glory aboue the heauens.

5 Who is lyke vnto the lorde our God, that hath his dwelling so high: and yet humbleth him selfe to beholde the thinges that are in heauen and earth?

6 He taketh vp the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poore out of the myre.

2 Iuda was his sanctuarie: and Israel his dominion.

3 The sea sawe that, and fledde: Iordane was driuen backe.

4 The mountaines skipped lyke rammes: and the litle hilles like young sheepe.

5 What ayleth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Iordane, that thou wast driuen backe?

6 Ye mountaynes that ye skipped lyke rams: and ye litle hilles like young sheepe?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the lorde: at the presence of the God of Iacob.

8 Whiche turned the harde rocke into a standing water: and the flint stone into a springing well.

Non nobis domine. Psalm. C. xv.

1 NOT vnto vs, O Lorde, not vnto vs, but vnto thy name geue the praysse: for thy louyng mercie, and for thy truethes sake. A

2 Wherefore shall the heathen saye: where is nowe their God?

3 As for our God he is in heauen: he hath done what so euer pleased him.

4 Their idols are siluer and golde: euen the woorke of mens handes.

5 They haue mouthes and speake not: eyes haue they, and see not.

6 They haue eares, and heare not: noses haue they, and smel not.

7 They haue handes and handle not, feete haue they, and walke not: neither speake they through their throte.

8 They that make them, are like vnto them: so are al suche as put their trust in them.

9 But thou house of Israel trust thou in the Lorde: he is their succour and defence.

10 Ye house of Aaron put your trust in the Lorde: he is their helper and defender.

11 Ye that feare the Lorde, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lorde hath ben myndfull of vs, and he shal blesse vs: euen he shal blesse the house of Israel, he shal blesse the house of Aaron.

13 He shall blesse them that feare the Lorde: both smal and great.

14 The Lorde shal encrease you more & more: you and your children. C

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lorde: whiche made heauen and earth.

16 Al the whole heauens are the Lordes: the earth hath he geuen to the children of men.

17 The dead praysse not thee, O Lorde: neyther all they that go downe into the silence.

18 But we wyll praysse the lorde: from this tyme forth for euermore. Praysse the Lorde.

2 That he hath enclined his eare vnto me: therefore wyl I call vppon him as long as I lyue.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the paynes of hell gate hold vpon me.

4 I shall fynde trouble and heauynesse, and I shall cal vppon the name of the Lorde: O Lorde, I beseeche thee deliuer my soule.

5 Gracious is the Lorde and righteous: yea our God is mercyfull.

6 The Lorde preſerueth the ſimple: I was in miſerie, and he helped me.
B 7 Turne agayne then vnto thy reſt, O my ſoule: for the Lorde hath rewarded thee.
8 And why? thou haſt delyuered my ſoule from death: myne eyes from teares, and my feete from falling.
9 I wyl walke before the Lorde: in the land of the lyuing.
10 I beleeued, and therefore wyll I ſpeake, but I was ſore troubled: I ſayde in my haſte al men are lyers.
11 What rewarde ſhall I gene vnto the lorde: for al the benefytes that he hath done vnto me?
12 I wyl receiue the cuppe of ſaluation: and call vpon the name of the Lorde.
13 I wyl pay my vowes nowe in the preſence of all his people: ryght deare in the ſight of the Lorde, is the death of his ſaintes.
C 14 Beholde (O Lorde) howe that I am thy ſeruant: I am thy ſeruant and the ſonne of thyne handmayde, thou haſt broken my bones in ſunder.
15 I wyl offer to thee the ſacrifice of thankeſgeuing: and wyll cal vpon the name of the Lorde.
16 I wyl pay my vowes vnto the Lorde in the ſyght of al his people: in the courtes of the Lordes houſe, euen in the middes of thee, O Hieruſalem. Prayſe the Lorde.

Ad te leuaui. psalm. Cxxiii.

A 1 VNto thee lyft I vp mine eyes: O thou

Nisi Dominus. psalm.Cxxvii.

A 1 EXcept the Lord buylde the house: their labour is but lost that buylde it.
2 Except the Lord keepe the citie: the watchman waketh but in vaine.
3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to ryse vp early, and so late take rest, and eate the bread of carefulnesse: for so he geueth his beloued sleepe.
4 Loe children, and the fruit of the wombe: are an heritage and gyft, that commeth of the Lorde.

8 So that they whiche goe by, say not so much as: The Lorde prosper you: we wishe you good lucke in the name of the Lorde.

De profundis. psalm.Cxxx.

1 OVT of the deepe haue I called vnto A thee (O Lorde) Lord heare my voyce.

5 I looke for the Lord, my soule doth waite for him: in his woorde is my trust.
6 My soule fleeth vnto the Lorde: before the morning wateh, I say, before the mornyng watche.

6 Loe, we heard of the same at Ephrata: and found it in the wood.
7 We wyl goe into his tabernacle: and fal B lowe on our knees before his foote stoole.
8 Aryse, O Lorde, into thy resting place: thou, and the arke of thy strength.

1 BY the waters of Babylon we sate downe and wept: when we remembred (thee) O Sion.
2 As for our harpes we hanged them vp: vpon the trees that are therein.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the rooffe of my mouth: yea, if I prefere not Hierusalem in my mynde.
7 Remember the chyldren of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Hierusalem: how they sayde, downe with it, downe with it, euen to the grounde.
8 O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery: yea happie shal he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast serued vs.

1 O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and knowen me: thou knowest my downe sitting and myne vprysing: thou vnderstandest my thoughtes long before. A Morning prayer.
2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spyest out all my wayes.
3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.
4 Thou hast fashioned me behynde and before: and layde thyne hande vpon me.
5 Suche knowledge is to wonderful and excellent for me: I can not attayne vnto it.

6 Whither

6 Whyther shal I go then from thy spirit: or whither shal I go then from thy presence?
ב 7 If I clymbe vp into heauen, thou art there: if I go downe to hell, thou art there also.
8 If I take the wynges of the morninge: and remayne in the vttermost partes of the sea.
9 Euen there also shal thy hande leade me: and thy ryght hande shal holde me.
10 If I say, peraduenture the darkenesse shal couer me: then shal my nyght be turned to day.
11 Yea, the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee, but the nyght is as clere as the day: the darknes & light (to thee) are both alike.
12 For my reynes are thine: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.
13 I wyl geue thankes vnto thee, for I am fearefully and woonderfully made: marueilous are thy woorkes, and that my soule knoweth right wel.

17 Howe deare are thy counsailes vnto me, O god: O how great is the summe of them?
18 If I tell them, they are more in number then the sande: when I wake vp, I am present with thee.
19 Wilt thou not slaye the wicked, O God: depart from me ye blood thirstie men.
20 For they speake vngratiously against thee: and thine enimies take thy name in vayne.

Eripe me Domine. psalm. Cxl.

א 1 DEliuer me, O Lorde, from the euyl man: and preserue me from the wicked man.
2 Whiche imagine mischeefe in their hart: and stirre vp strife al the day long.
3 They haue sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adders poyson is vnder their lyppes.
4 Keepe me, O Lorde, from the handes of the vngodly: preserue me from the wicked menne whiche are purposed to ouerthrowe my goinges.
5 The proude haue layd a snare for me, and spread a net abroade with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.
6 I saide vnto the Lord, thou art my God: heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lorde.
7 O Lorde God, the strength of my health: ב thou hast couered my head in the day of batayle.
8 Let not the vngodly haue his desyre, O Lord: let not his mischeeuous imagination prosper, least they be too proude.
9 Let the mischeefe of their owne lyppes fal vpon the head of them: that compasse me about.
10 Let hot burnyng coales fal vpon them: let them be cast into the fire, and into the pyt, that they neuer rise vp againe.
11 A man ful of woordes shal not prosper vpon the earth: euyl shal hunt the wicked person to ouerthrowe him.
12 Sure I am that the Lorde wyll auenge the poore: and maintayne the cause of the helpelesse.
13 The righteous also shal geue thankes vnto thy name: and the iust shal continue in thy sight.

Domine clamaui. psalm. Cxli.

א 1 LOrd I cal vpon thee, hast thee to helpe me: and consyder my voyce when I cry vnto thee.
2 Let my prayer be set foorth in thy sight, as the incense: and let the lyfting vp of my handes be an euenyng sacrifice.
3 Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth: and keepe the doore of my lyppes.
4 O let not my hart be enclined to any euyl thyng: let me not be occupied in vngodly woorkes, with the men that worke wickednesse, lest I eate of such thinges as pleaseth them.
5 Let the righteous rather smite me frendly: and reproue me.
6 But let not their precious balmes breake mine head: yea I wyl pray yet against their wickednesse.
ב 7 Let their Iudges be ouerthrowen in stony places: that they may heare thy woordes, for they are sweete.
8 Our bones lye scattered before the pyt: like as when one breaketh & heweth wood vpon the earth.
ג 9 But myne eyes looke vnto thee, O Lorde God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule.

10 Keepe

10 Kepe me from the snare which they haue layde for me: and from the trappes of the wicked doers.

Voce mea ad Dominum. psalm. Cxli.

Euenyng prayer.

A 1 I Cryed vnto the Lorde with my voyce: yea, euen vnto the Lord dyd I make my supplication.

2 I powred out my complaintes before him: and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirite was in heauinesse, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked haue they priuily layde a snare for me.

4 I looked also vpon my right hande: and see, there was noman that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.

6 I cryed vnto thee, O Lord, and said: thou art my hope, and my portion in the lande of the lyuing.

B 7 Consyder my complaint: for I am brought very lowe.

8 O deliuer me from my persecutours: for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soule out of prison, that I may geue thankes vnto thy name: whiche thyng if thou wylt graunt me, then shal the righteous resort vnto my company.

Domine exaudi. psalm. Cxliii.

A 1 HEare my prayer, O Lorde, and consyder my desire: hearken vnto me for thy truethand righteousnesse sake.

2 And enter not into iudgement with thy seruant: for in thy sight shal no man lyuing be iustified.

3 For the enimie hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath layde me in the darknesse, as the men that haue ben long dead.

4 Therfore is my spirite vexed within me: and my hart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past, I talke vpon al thy workes: yea, I exercise me in the woorkes of thy handes.

6 I stretch forth my handes vnto thee: my soule gaspeth vnto thee as a thirstie lande.

B 7 Heare me, O Lord, and that soone, for my spirite waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like vnto them that go downe into the pyt.

8 O let me heare thy louing kindenesse betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shewe thou me the way that I should walke in, for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Deliuer me, O Lord, from mine enimies: for I flee vnto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to doo the thyng that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy louyng spirite leade me forth into the land of righteousnesse.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy names sake: and for thy righteousnesse sake bryng my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodnesse slea mine enimies, and destroy al them that vexe my soule: for I am thy seruant.

3 Lorde, what is man that thou hast suche respect vnto him: or the sonne of man that thou so regardest him?

4 Man is like a thyng of nought: his tyme passeth away like a shadowe.

5 Bowe thy heauens, O Lorde, and come downe: touche the mountaynes, and they shal smoke.

6 Cast forth the lightning and teare them: shoote out thine arrowes, & consume them. B

7 Sende downe thine hand from aboue: deliuer me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hande of strange children.

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanitie: & their right hande is a right hand of wickednesse.

9 I wyl syng a newe songue vnto thee, O God: and syng prayses vnto thee vpon a ten stringed lute.

10 Thou that geuest victorie vnto kings: & hast deliuered Dauid thy seruant from the peryl of the swoorde.

11 Saue me and deliuer me from the hande of strange children: whose mouth talketh of vanitie, and their right hande is a right hande of iniquitie.

12 That our sonnes may growe vp as the young plantes: & that our daughters may be as the pollished corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be ful and plenteous with al maner of store: that our sheepe may bring forth thousandes, and ten thousandes in our streetes.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, C that there be no decay: no leading into captiuitie, and no complaining in our streetes.

15 Happy are the people that be in suche a case: yea, blessed are the people whiche haue the Lorde for their God.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shal turne againe to his earth: and then al his thoughtes perishe.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Iacob for his helpe: and whose hope is in the lord his God.

5 Which he made heauen and earth, the sea, and al that therein is: whiche keepeth his promise for euer.

6 Which helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: which feedeth the hungrie.

7 The Lord loseth men out of prison: the B Lorde geueth syght to the blynde.

8 The Lorde helpeth them that are fallen: the Lorde careth for the righteous.

9 The Lorde careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widowe: as for the way of the vngodly, he turneth it vpside downe.

hym in the firmament of his power.

2 Prayſe him in his noble actes: prayſe him acordyng to his exellent greatneſſe.

3 Prayſe hym in the ſounde of the trumpet:
prayſe hym vpon the Lute and harpe.

4 Prayſe hym in the Cymbales and daunces: praiſe him vpon the ſtringes and pipe.

5 Prayſe hym vpon the wel tuned Cymbales: prayſe hym vpon the loude Cymbales.

the Lorde.

¶ The Prouerbes of Solomon.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

I. The power of the worde of God, 7. Of the feare of God and knowledge of his worde, 10. We may not conſent to the entiſinges of ſinners, 20. Wyſdome complayneth that ſhe is contemned, 24. The puniſhment of them that contemne her.

A 1 THE prouerbes of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid king of Iſrael:

2 To learne wyſedome and inſtruction, and to perceiue the wordes of vnderſtanding,

3 To receiue the inſtruction of wiſedome, iuſtice, iudgement, and equitie:

4 To geue wit vnto the ſimple, and that the young men might haue knowledge and vnderſtanding.

5 The wiſe man will geue eare, and will come by more wiſedome, and he that is endued with vnderſtanding, ſhal atteyne vnto (wyſe) counſayles.

6 To vnderſtande a parable, and the interpretation thereof, the wordes of the wiſe, and their darke ſpeaches.

B 7 The feare of the Lorde is the beginning of knowledge: but fooles deſpiſe wiſdome and inſtruction.

Iob.28.b. Eccle.1.c.

Pſal.116.b. 8 My ſonne, heare thy fathers doctrine, and forſake not the * lawe of thy mother:

Prou.9.c. 9 For they ſhalbe an increaſe of grace vnto thy head, and (as) a chayne about thy necke.

* or, inſtruction.

10 My ſonne, if ſinners * entice thee, conſent not vnto them.

* or, leade thee out of the way.

11 If they ſay, Come with vs, let vs lay wayte for blood, and lurke priuily for the innocent without a cauſe,

Pſal. 24. a. 12 Let vs ſwalowe them vp like the graue quicke and whole, as thoſe that goe downe into the pyt:

13 So ſhall we finde all manner of coſtly riches, and fyl our houſes with ſpoyles:

C 14 Caſt in thy lot among vs, and let vs all haue one purſe.

15 My ſonne, walke not thou with them, reſtrayne thy foote from their wayes.

Pſal.14 a. 16 For their feete runne to euill, and are haſtie to ſhed blood.

17 But (as) in vayne the net is layde forth before the birdes eyen:

18 So theſe lay wayte for the blood of them, and lye priuily for their lines:

19 Such (are) the wayes of euery one that is greedie of gaine, who taketh away the lyfe of the owner thereof.

20 Wiſedome crieth without, and putteth Prou.1.a forth her voyce in the ſtreetes:

21 She calleth before the congregation in D
the open gates, and sheweth her wordes through the citie, ſaying,

22 O ye children, howe long will ye loue childiſhneſſe? howe long will the ſcorners delite in ſcorning, and the vnwiſe hate knowledge?

23 O turne you at my correction: loe, I will expreſſe my minde vnto you, and make you vnderſtande my wordes.

24 Becauſe I haue called, and ye refuſed, Eſai.65
I haue ſtretched out my hande, and no man Ier.7.a regarded.

25 But al my counſailes haue ye deſpiſed, and ſet my correction at nought:

26 Therefore will I alſo laugh at your deſtruction, and mocke you, when the thing that ye feare commeth vpon you.

27 Euen when the thing that ye be afrayde of falleth in ſodaynely like a ſtorme, and your miſerie like a tempeſt, yea when trouble and heauineſſe commeth vpon you.

28 Then ſhal they cal vpon me, but I will E not anſweare: they ſhal ſeeke me early, but they ſhal not finde me:

29 And that becauſe they hated knowledge, and did not chooſe the feare of the Lorde, 30 They would none of my counſaile, but deſpiſed al my correction.

31 Therefore ſhal they eate of the fruite of their owne way, and be filled with their owne inuentions.

32 For the turning away of the vnwiſe ſhal ſlay them, and the proſperitie of fooles ſhal deſtroy them.

33 But who ſo heareth vnto me, ſhall Prou.3.a dwel ſafely, and be ſure from any feare of euil.

The.ii. Chapter.

I. Wyſedome exhorteth to obey her. 5. She teacheth the feare of god. 6. She is geuen of God, 10. She preſerueth from wickednes.

1 My

1 My ſonne, if thou wilt receiue my wordes, and lay vp my commaundementes withinthee,
2 That thou wilt encline thine eares vnto wyſedome, apply thyne hart then to vnderſtanding.
3 For if thou cryeſt after wyſedome, and cryeſt for knowledge:
4 If thou ſeekeſt for her as for ſyluer, and ſearcheſt for her as for treaſures:
5 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtande the feare of the Lorde, and fynde the knowledge of God.
6 For the Lorde geueth wyſedome, out of his mouth commeth knowledge and vnderſtanding.
7 He ſtirreth vp health for the righteous: and defendeth them that walke vprightly,
8 That they may keepe the right path: and he preſerueth the way of ſuch as doo ſerue him with godlyneſſe.
9 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtande righteouſneſſe, and iudgement, and equitie, yea and euery good path.
10 When wyſedome entreth into thine hart, and thy ſoule delighteth in knowledge:
11 Then ſhal counſel preſerue thee, and vnderſtanding ſhal keepe thee,
12 That thou mayeſt be deliuered from the euyl way, and from the man that ſpeaketh frowarde thinges:
13 From ſuche as leaue the wayes of righteouſneſſe, to walke in the wayes of darkeneſſe:
14 Whiche reioyce in doing nought, and delight in the wickednes of the euyl:
15 Whoſe wayes are crooked, and they frowarde in their pathes.
16 That thou mayeſt be deliuered alſo from the ſtrange woman, and from her that is not thyne owne, whiche geueth ſweete wordes,
17 Forſaketh the huſbande of her youth, and forgetteth the couenant of her God.
18 For her houſe is enclined vnto death, and her pathes vnto hel.
19 All they that goe in vnto her, comme not agayne, neither take they holde of the way of life.
20 Therefore walke thou in the way of ſuch as be vertuous, and keepe the pathes of the righteous.
21 For the iuſt ſhall dwel in the lande, and they that be perfect, ſhal remayne in it.
22 But the vngodly ſhalbe cut of from the earth: and the wicked doers ſhalbe rooted out of it.

The. iii. Chapter.

1. The woord of God geueth lyfe. 5. Truſt in God, 7. Feare him, 9. Honour hym, 11. Suffer his correction. 22. To them that folowe the woorde of God, al thinges ſhal ſucceede well.

1 My ſonne, forget not thou my lawe, but ſee that thyne harte keepe my commaundementes. A Deut. 11. a.
2 For they ſhal prolong the dayes & yeeres of thy lyfe, and bring thee peace.
3 Let mercie and faythfulneſſe neuer goe from thee: bynde them about thy necke, and write them in the tables of thyne hart:
4 So ſhalt thou fynde fauour and good vnderſtanding in the ſyght of God and men.
5 Put thy truſt in God with al thyne hart: and leane not vnto thyne owne wit.
6 In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and he ſhal order thy goinges.
7 Be not wyſe in thyne owne conceipt: but feare the Lorde, and depart from euil: B Eſai. 5. c.
8 So ſhall thy (a) naual be whole, and thy bones ſtrong. Rom. 12. c. (a) That is, the whole body.
9 Honour the Lord with thy ſubſtance, and with the fyrſtlinges of al thine increaſe: Tobi. 4. b.
10 So ſhal thy barnes be fylled with plenteouſneſſe, and thy preſſes ſhall flowe ouer with ſweete wine. Deut. 26. a. Mala. 4. b.
11 My ſonne, refuſe not the chaſtening of the Lorde, neither faint when thou art corrected of him. Ecod. 23. c. Ecod. 34. c.
12 For whom the Lorde loueth, him he chaſteneth, and yet delighteth in him, euen as a father in his owne ſonne. Hebr. 12. b. Apoc. 3. b.
13 Well is him that fyndeth wyſedome, and getteth vnderſtanding:
14 For the marchandiſe of it, is better then the marchandiſe of ſiluer, and the gayne therof (is better) then golde. C
15 She is more worth then pretious ſtones: and al the thinges that thou canſt deſyre, are not to be compared vnto her. Prou. 8. a.
16 In her ryght hande is long lyfe, and in her leaft hande riches and honour.
17 Her wayes are pleaſant wayes, and all her pathes are peaceable.
18 She is a tree of lyfe to them that lay hold vpon her: and bleſſed is he that keepeth her faſt. Gene. 2. b.
19 With wiſedome hath the Lorde layd the fundation of the earth, and through vnderſtanding hath he ſtabliſhed the heauens.
20 Through his knowledge the deapthes are broken vp, & the cloudes droppe downe the deawe.
21 My ſonne, let not theſe thinges depart from thyne eyes, but keepe wyſedome and vnderſtanding: D
22 So they ſhal be lyfe vnto thy ſoule, and grace vnto thy mouth.
23 Then ſhalt thou walke ſafely in thy way, and thy foote shal not stumble.

Pro.3.b. 24 If thou sleepest, thou shalt not be afrayd: but shalt take rest, and sleepe sweetely.

25 Thou shalt not be afrayde of any sodaine feare, neyther for the violent rushing in of the vngodly when it commeth.

26 For the Lorde shal stande by thy syde, and keepe thy foote that thou be not taken.

27 Withdrawe no good thing from them that haue neede, so long as thyne hande is able to doo it.

28 Say not vnto thy neighbour, Goe thy way and comme agayne, and to morowe wyl I gene thee: where as thou hast nowe to gene him.

29 Intende no hurt agaynst thy neighbour, seeing he hopeth to dwel in rest by thee.

30 Striue not with any man without a cause, where as he hath donne thee no harme.

Pro.3.a. 31 Folowe not a wicked man, and chose none of his wayes:

* or, secrete. 32 For the Lorde abhorreth the frowarde: but his * counsell is among the righteous.

33 The curse of the Lorde is in the house of the vngodly: but he bleseth the dwellings of the righteous.

34 As for the scornefull, doeth he not laugh them to scorne? but he geueth grace vnto the lowly.

35 The wyse shall haue honour in possession: but shame is the promotion that fooles shal haue.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1. Wysedome and her fruites ought to be searched. 14. The way of the wicked must be refused. 20. By the woorde of GOD, the hart, eyes, and course of lyse muste be guyded.

1 HEare O ye children a fatherly instruction, and take good heede, that ye may learne vnderstanding.

2 For I haue geuen you a good doctrine, forsake not ye my lawe.

3 For when I mee selfe was my fathers deare sonne, and tenderly beloued of my mother:

4 He taught me also, and saide vnto me, Let thyne hart receyue my woordes, keepe my commaundementes, and thou shalt liue.

Deut.6.b. 11.c.32.g. 5 Get thee wysedome, and get thee vnderstandyng: forget not the woordes of my mouth, and shrinke not from them.

6 Forsake her not, and she shal preserue thee, loue her, and she shal keepe thee.

7 The cheefe poynt of wysedome, is to possesse wysedome: and before al thy goodes to get thee vnderstanding.

8 Make muche of her, and she shal promote thee, yea if thou embrace her, she shal bring thee vnto honour: Deut.32.d

9 She shall beautifye thy head with manyfolde graces, and garnishe thee with a crowne of glory.

10 Heare my sonne, and receyue my woordes, and the yeeres of thy life shalbe many.

11 I haue shewed thee the way of wysdome, and led thee into the right pathes.

12 So that if thou goest in them, there shall no straightnesse hynder thee: & when thou runnest, thou shalt not fal.

13 Take fast holde of doctrine, and let her not goe: keepe her, for she is thy lyfe.

14 Comme not in the pathe of the vngodly, and walke not in the way of the wicked. C Psalm.1.a and.37.d

15 Abhorre it, and goe not therein, depart a syde, and passe ouer by it.

16 For they sleepe not except they haue done mischeefe: and sleepe is taken from them, vnyl they haue done harme.

17 For they eate the bread of wickednesse, and drinke the wine of robberie.

18 The path of the righteous shineth, as the lyght that is euer brighter and brighter vnto the perfect day.

19 But the way of the vngodly is as the darknesse, they knowe not where they fal.

20 My sonne marke my woordes, and encline thyne eare vnto my sayeinges: Deut.6.i. and.11.i. D

21 Let them not depart from thyne eyes, but keepe them euen in the middes of thyne hart:

22 For they are lyfe vnto those that fynde them, and health vnto al their bodyes.

23 Keepe thyne hart with all diligence, for out of it issueth lyfe.

24 Put away from thee a frowarde mouth, and let the lippes of slaunder be far from thee.

25 Let thyne eyes beholde that thing that is ryght: & let thyne eye lidde looke straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feete, and let all thy wayes be ordered aryght.

27 Turne not asyde neyther to the ryght hande nor to the leaft: but withhold thy foote from euyl. Deut.5.k and.27.d

The.v. Chapter.

3. Whordome forbidden. 9. and prodigalitie. 15. He wylleth a man to lyue on his labour, and to helpe others. 18. To loue his wyfe. 22. The wicked taken in their owne wickednesse.

1 MY sonne geue heede vnto my wysedome, and bowe thyne eare vnto my * prudence: A * or, knowledge.

2 That

2 That thou mayest regarde good counsel, and that thy lyppes may keepe knowledge.
3 For the lyppes of a strange woman are a droppyng hony combe, and her throte is more glistering then oyle:
4 But at the last she is as bitter as wormewood, and as sharpe as a two edged sworde.
5 Her feete goe downe vnto death, and her steppes pearce throughe vnto hel.
6 Perchaunce thou wylt ponder the path of her life: so vnstedfast are her wayes that thou canst not knowe them.
7 Heare me nowe therefore, O ye children, and departe not from the wordes of my mouth.
8 Keepe thy way farre from her, and come not nygh the dooores of her house.
9 That thou geue not thy honour vnto other, and thy yeeres to the cruel:
10 That other men be not filled with thy vertues, and that thy labours come not in a strange house.
11 Yea that thou mourne not at the last, when thou hast spent thy body and lustie youth, and then say, 12 Alas, why hated I nurture? why did my hart despise correction?
13 Wherefore was I not obedient vnto the voyce of my teachers, and hearkened not vnto them that enfourmed me?
14 I was come almost into al misfortune, in the middest of the multitude and congregation.
15 (a) Drinke of the water of thyne owne wel, and of the riuers that run out of thyne owne spring.
16 Let thy welles flowe out abrode, that there may be riuers of waters in the streetes:
17 But let them be only thine owne, and not strangers with thee.
18 Let thy wel be blessed, and be glad with the wife of thy youth.
19 Let her be as the louing Hinde and pleasant Roe: let her breastes alway satisfie thee, and holde thee euer content with her loue.
20 Why wilt thou my sonne haue pleasure in a strange woman, and embrace the bosome of a stranger?
21 For euery mans wayes are open in the sight of the Lord, and he pondereth al their goinges.
22 The wickednesse of the vngodly shall catche him selfe, and with the snares of his owne sinnes shal he be trapped.
23 He shal dye without * amendement, and for his great foolishnesse he shal goe astray.

(a) Content thee selfe with thyne owne wyfe, and defyre not other.

The.vi.Chapter.

1. Instruction for sureties. 6. The slouthfull and sluggishe is stirred to worke. 12. He describeth the nature of the wicked. 16. The thinges that God hateth. 20. To obserue the worde of God. 24. To flee adulterie.

1 My sonne, yf thou be suretie for thy neyghbour, and hast fastened thyne hande for another man.
2 Thou art * bound with thine owne wordes, and taken with thyne owne speache.
3 Therefore my sonne do this, and thou shalt be discharged: When thou art come into thy neighbours danger, goe thy wayes then soone, humble thee selfe, & with thy frendes intreate (thy * creditour.)
4 Let not thine eyes sleepe, nor thyne eye lyddes slumber.
5 Saue thee selfe as a Doe from the hande of the (hunter) and as a birde from the hand of the fowler.
6 Goe to the Emmet thou sluggarde, consyder her wayes, and learne to be wyse:
7 She hath no guide, nor ouerseer, nor ruler,
8 Yet in the sommer she prouideth her meate, and gathereth her foode together in the haruest.
9 How long wylt thou sleepe thou sluggishe man? When wylt thou aryse out of thy sleepe?
10 Yea sleepe on styl a litle, slumber a litle, folde thine handes together yet a litle, that thou mayest sleepe:
11 So shall pouertie come vnto thee as one that trauayleth by the way, and necessitie lyke a weaponed man.
12 An vngodly person, a wicked man, goeth with a frowarde mouth.
13 He wynketh with his eyes, he toucheth with his feete, he teacheth with his fyngers.
14 He is euer imaginyng mischiefe and frowardnesse in his hart, and causeth discorde.
15 Therefore shall his destruction come hastily vpon him, sodaynly shal he be al to broken, and not to be healed.
16 These sixe thinges doth the Lorde hate, and the seuenth he vtterly abhorreth:
17 A proude looke, a lying tongue, handes that shedde innocent blood, 18 An hart that goeth about wicked imaginations, feete that be swift in runnyng to mischiefe, 19 A false witnesse that bryngeth vp lyes, and him that soweth discorde among brethren.

Psal.119.b. 23 For the commaundement is a lanterne, and the lawe a light, yea chastenyng and nurture is the way of lyfe:
Prou.5.a. and.7.a. 24 That they may keepe thee from the euil woman, and from the flatteryng tongue of the strange woman.

27 May a man take fyre in his bosome, and his clothes not be brent?
E 28 Or can one go vpon hot coales, and his feete not be brent?
29 Euen so, whosoeuer goeth in to his neighbours wife and toucheth her, can not be vngyltie.
Sapi. 22.a. 30 Men do not vtterly despise a theefe that stealeth to satisfie his soule when he is hungry:
31 But if he may be gotten, he restoreth agayne seuen tymes as muche, or els he maketh recompence with all the good of his house.
32 But who so committeth aduulterie with a woman, lacketh vnderstandyng: and he that doth it, destroyeth his owne soule.
33 He getteth hym selfe a plague and dishonour, & his reproche shall neuer be put out:
34 For the iealousie and wrath of the man wyl not be entreated,
35 No though thou wouldest offer him great gyftes to make amendes, he wyll not receiue them.

The.vii. Chapter.

I. An exhortation to wisdome, and to the word of God. 5. Which wyl preserue vs from the harlot. 6. Whose manners are described.

A 1 My sonne keepe my wordes, and lay vp my commaundementes by ther.
Deut.6.b. and.11.a. 2 Keepe my commaundementes and my lawe, euen as the apple of thine eye, and thou shalt lyue.

Prou.2.b. and.11.a. 5 That they may keepe thee frō the strange woman, & from the forraine woman, which geueth swete wordes.
6 For at the wyndowe of my house I loked through the windowe,

6 The house of the righteous is full of riches: but in the * fruites of the vngodlye there is * trouble.

7 The lippes of the wyse doo sowe knowledge: but the hart of the foolish do not so.

8 The Lorde abhorreth the sacrifice of the vngodly: but the prayer of the righteous is acceptable vnto hym.

9 The way of the vngodly is an abomination vnto the Lorde: but who so followeth ryghteousnesse, hym he loueth.

10 Correction is greeuous vnto hym that forsaketh the way: and who so hateth correction shal dye.

11 Hel and destruction * are before the lord: howe much more then the harts of the children of men?

12 A scorneful body loueth not one that rebuketh hym: neither wyl he come vnto the wyse.

13 A merie hart maketh a chearfull countenance: but by the sorowe of the hart the mynde is heauie.

14 The hart of him that hath vnderstanding doeth seeke knowledge: but the mouth of fooles is fed with foolishnesse.

15 All the dayes of the poore are * miserable: but a * quiet hart is a continual feast.

16 Better is a litle with the feare of the Lorde: then great treasure, and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dynner of herbes with loue, then a fat Oxe with euyl wyl.

18 An angry man stirreth vp strife: but he that is patient * stylleth discorde.

19 The way of the slouthful man is an hedge of thornes: but the way of the righteous is playne.

20 A wyse sonne maketh a glad father: but a foolishe man despiseth his mother.

21 Foolishnesse is ioy to hym that is destitute of knowledge: but a man of vnderstandyng walketh vprightly.

22 Thoughtes without counsaile shal come to nought: but where as men are that can geue good counsayle, there is stedfastnesse.

23 * A ioyful thing it is to a man when his counsayle is followed: and howe good is a worde spoken in season?

24 The way of life * is on high to the wise, that a man should beware of hel beneath.

25 The Lorde wyl breake downe the house of the proud: but he shal make fast the borders of the widdowe.

26 The Lorde abhorreth the imaginations of the wicked: but the woordes of the pure are pleasant.

27 The greedie couetous man rooteth vp his owne house: but who so hateth rewardes shal lyue.

28 The hart of the righteous studieth his answeare afore: but the wicked mans mouth spueth out mischeefe.

29 The Lord is farre from the vngodly: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The clearenesse of the eye (a) reioyceth the harte: and a good name feedeth the bones.

31 The eare that hearkeneth to the reformation of lyfe, shal dwel among the wyse.

32 He that refuseth to be reformed, despiseth his owne soule: but he that submitteth him selfe to correction, is wyse.

33 The feare of the Lorde is the right science of wysdome: and lowlinesse goeth before honour.

(a) The chearfulnes of the countenance gladdeth other men.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 A Man may wel purpose a thing in his hart: but the answeare of the tongue commeth of the Lorde.

2 A man thinketh al his waies to be cleane, but it is the lord that * iudgeth y mindes.

3 Commit thy workes vnto the Lord: and what thou deuisest it shal prosper.

4 The Lorde hath made all thinges for his owne sake: yea the vngodly for the day of wrath.

5 The Lorde abhorreth all suche as be of a proud hart: and though hand be ioyned in hand, yet they shal not be vnpunished.

6 With mercie and faithfulnesse sinnes be forgeuen: and by the feare of the Lord, euil is eschewed.

7 When a mans waies please the Lorde, he maketh his very enimies to be his freendes.

8 Better it is to haue a litle with righteousnesse, then great rentes wrongfully gotten.

9 A man deuiseth a way in his hart: but it is the Lorde that ordereth his goynges.

10 When the prophecie is in the lyppes of the king, his mouth shal not goe wrong in iudgement.

11 A true weyght & ballance are the Lordes iudgement: all the weyghtes of the bagge are his worke.

12 * Wicked doers are an abomination to the kyng, for a kynges seate shoulde be holden vp with ryghteousnesse.

13 Righteous lippes are pleasant vnto kinges, and them that speaketh the * trueth shal he loue.

32 A patient man is better then one strong: and he that can rule him self, is more worth then he that wynneth a citie.

9 Who so couereth a fault, procureth loue: but he that discloseth it, diuideth very frendes.

10 One reproofe more feareth a wise man, then an hundred stripes dooth a foole.

11 A seditious person seeketh mischeefe, and a cruel messenger shalbe sent against him.

12 It were better to meete a shee beare, robbed of her whelpes, then a foole (trusting) in his foolishnesse.

26 Be not thou one of them that binde their hande vpon promise, and are suretie for * weighty causes:
27 For if thou hast nothing to pay, * they shal take away thy bed from vnder thee.
28 Thou shalt not remoue the ancient lande marke, whiche thy fore elders haue set.
29 Seest thou not that they whiche be diligent in their businesse stand before kynges, and not among the simple people?

The. xxiii. Chapter.

1 When thou sittest to eate with a noble man, consyder diligently what is set before thee. A 2 Measure thyne appetite if it be greedyly set. Ierem. 17.b Eccle. 27.a.
3 Be not desyrous of his dayntie meates, for meate beguileth and deceiueth.
4 Take not ouer great trauaile to be riche, beware of suche a purpose.

6 Eate thou not the bread of hym that hath an (a) euyl eye: neyther desyre thou his dayntie meate. (a) Meaning, the enuious & couetous men.
7 For as though he thought it in his hart, he sayth, eate and drynke: whereas his hart is not with thee.
8 The morselles that thou hast eaten shalt thou parbreake, and loose those sweete wordes. B
9 Tel nothyng into the eares of a foole: for he wil despise the wisedome of thy wordes.
10 Remoue not the olde lande marke, and come not within the feelde of the fatherlesse: Prou. 12.a. Deut. 27.c.
11 For their redeemer is myghtie, euen he shall defende their cause agaynst thee. Prou. 13.b. Eccle. 30.a 12 Apply thine hart vnto correction, & thyne eares to the wordes of knowledge.
13 Withholde not correction from the childe: for if thou beatest him with the rodde, he shal not dye therefor:
14 If thou smite him with the rodde, thou shalt deliuer his soule from (b) hel. C (b) From destruction.
15 My sonne, if thine hart receiue wisdome, my hart also shal reioyce:
16 Yea my raynes shalbe very glad, yf thy lippes speake the thing that is ryght. Prou. 24.a.
17 Let not thine hart be ielous to folowe sinners, but keepe thee styll in the feare of the Lorde al the day long:
18 For verely there is an * ende, and thy patient abydyng shal not be cut of. * or, a reward.
19 My sonne geue eare and be wyse, and set straught thyne hart in the way (of the Lorde.)
20 Keepe not company with winebibbers, and riotous eaters of flesh: Prou. 21.c.
21 For suche as be drunkardes and riotours D shall come to pouertie: and he that is geuen to much sleepe, shal goe with a ragged coate.
22 Geue eare vnto thy father that begate thee, and despise not thy mother when she is olde.
23 Purchase trueth, wysedome, nurture, and vnderstandyng, and sel them not.

24 The father of the ryghteous shall greatly reioyce: and he that begetteth a wyse childe, shal haue ioy of hym.
25 (Do so that) thy father and mother may be glad of thee, and that she that bare thee may reioyce.
26 My sonne gene me thyne hart, and let thyne eyes haue pleasure in my wayes:

35 They haue beaten me (shalt thou say) and I was not sicke, they haue stricken me, and I felt it not, when I am wel wakened, I wyl goe to the drinke agayne.

The.xxiiii.Chapter.

Q 1 BE not thou enuious to folowe wycked
Prou. 23.d. men, and desyre not to be among them:
2 For their hart imagineth to do hurte, and their lyppes talke mischiefe.
3 Through wysedome is an house buylded, and with vnderstandyng is it * set vp:
* or, stablished.
4 Through discretion shall the chambers be fylled with all costlye and pleasant ryches.
5 A wyse man is (euer) strong: yea a man of vnderstanding encreaseth strength:
6 For with discretion muste warres be taken in hande: and where as are many that can geue counsel, there is healthe:
B 7 Wisedome is to hygh a thing for a foole: for he dare not open his mouth in the gate.
8 He that imagineth mischiefe, may wel be called an vngracious person.
9 The wycked thought of the foolishe is sinne: and the scornefull is an abomination vnto men.
(a) Aduersitie doth trye a man what he is. 10 (a) If thou faynt in the day of aduersitie, thy strength is smal.
11 Deliuer thē that are drawen vnto death, and cease not to preserue them that are led to be slayne:
12 If thou wylt say, Beholde I knewe not of it: doth not he that pondereth the hart consyder it? And he that keepeth thy soule, knoweth he it not? Shall he not also recompence euery man accordyng to his workes?
13 My sonne eate thou hony, because it is good, and the hony combe, for it is sweete vnto thy mouth:
14 So (sweete) shall the knowledge of wysedome be vnto thy soule when thou hast founde it: and there shalbe hope, and thy hope shal not be cut of. C
15 Lay no priuie wayte (O wicked man) against the house of the righteous, and spoyle not his resting place.
16 For a iust man falleth seuen tymes, and riseth vp againe: but the vngodly fall into mischiefe. Pſal. 37.d.
17 Reioyce not thou at the fall of thyne enimie, and let not thine hart be glad when he stumbleth: Prou. 17.d.
18 Lest the Lorde when he seeth it be angry, and turne his wrath from hym (vnto thee.)
19 Fret not thee selfe because of the malitious, neyther be emulous at the wicked:
20 For there shalbe no ende (of plagues) to the wycked (man,) and the * candle of the vngodly shalbe put out. * q.d. light. Iob.21.d. Prou.20.c.
21 My sonne feare thou the Lorde and the kyng, and keepe no company with them that flyde backe (from his feare:)
22 For their destruction shal rise sodaynly: and who knoweth the aduersitie that may come * from them both? D * q. of them both. Prou.6.

These are also the sayinges of the wyse.

23 It is not good to haue respect of any person in iudgement.
24 He that sayth to the vngodly, Thou art righteous: him shall the people curse, yea the communaltie shal abhorre hym.
25 But they that rebuke (the vngodly) in them doth God delite, and a riche blessyng shal come vpon them.
26 Euery man shal kisse his lippes that geueth a good answeare.
27 Make redy thy worke that is without, and looke wel vnto that which thou hast in the feelde: and then builde thine house.
28 Be not a false witnesse against thy neighbour, and speake no falshood with thy lippes. C
29 Say not, I wyll handle hym euen as he hath dealt with me: and will reward * euery man accordyng to his deedes. * q.d. man.
30 I went by the feelde of the slouthfull, and and by the vineyarde of the foolishe man:

31 And lo, it was all couered with nettles, and stoode ful of thornes, and the stone wal was broken downe.
32 This I sawe, and considered it well: I looked vpon it, and tooke it for a warnyng.
33 Yea sleepe on still (I saye) a litle, slumber a litle, folde thy handes togeather yet a litle:
34 So shal pouertie comme vnto thee as one that trauayleth by the way, and necessitie like a weaponed man.

The. xxv. Chapter.

These are also parables of Solomon, which the men of Hezekia king of Iuda copied out.

1 IT is the glory of God to keepe a thing secrete: but the kings honour is to search out a thing.
2 The heauen is high, the earth is deepe: and the kinges hart is vnsearcheable.
3 Take the drosse from the siluer, and there shalbe a vessel for the fyner.
4 Take away the vngodly from the kyng, and his seate shalbe stablished with ryghteousnesse.
5 Put not foorth thee selfe in the presence of the king, and * preasse not into the place of great men:
6 For better is it that it be saide vnto thee, Comme vp hyther: then thou to be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thou hast seen with thyne eyes.
7 Be not * hastie to goe to lawe: lest haply thou knowest not what to doo when thy neighbour hath confounded thee.
8 Handle thy matter with thy neighbour himselfe, and discouer not thy secrete to another:
9 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thy infamie doo not ceasse.
10 A worde spoken in due season, is like apples of golde in a graued worcke of siluer.
11 Who so reproueth a wyse man that hath an obedient eare, is as a golden earing, and an ornament of fyne gold.
12 As the colde of snowe in the time of harueste: so is a faythful messenger to them that sende him, for he refreasheth his maisters minde.
13 Who so maketh great boastes * and geueth nothing, is lyke cloudes and wynde without raine.
14 With patience is a prince pacified, and with a soft tongue is * rigorousnesse broken.
15 If thou fyndest hony, eate so muche as is sufficient for thee: lest thou be ouerfull, and barbreake it out againe.
16 Withdrawe thy foote from thy neyghbours house: lest he be weery of thee, and so hate thee.
17 Who so beareth false witnesse agaynst his neighbour, he is * a very club, a sworde, and a sharpe arrowe.
18 The confydence that is put in an vnfaithful man in time of trouble, is like a broken tooth, and a slyding foote.
19 Who so taketh away a mans garment in the colde weather, is * lyke vineger vpon lyme, or lyke him that syngeth songes to an heauy hart.
20 If thyne enimie hunger, feede him, if he thyrste, geue him drinke:
21 For so shalt thou heape coles of fyre vpon his head, and the Lorde shall reward thee.
22 The north winde driueth away the raine: euen so dooth an angry countenance a backbyters tongue.
23 It is better to sytt in a corner vppon the house toppe, then with a brawling woman in a wyde house.
24 Good newes from a strange countrey, are as colde water to a thirstie soule.
25 A ryghteous man fallyng downe before the vngodly, is like a troubled well, and a spring that is corrupted.
26 As it is not good to eate to muche honie: so curiously to searche the glory of heauenly thinges, is not commendable.
27 He that can not rule * him selfe, is lyke a citie whiche is broken downe and hath no walles.

* or, a mantle.

Prou. 21. b.

The. xxvi. Chapter.

1 LYke as smoke is (not meete) in sommer and rayne in harueste: euen so is worshyp vnseemely for a foole.
2 As the birde and the swalowe take their flyght to flee here and there: so the curse that is geuen in vayne, shall not lyght vpon a man.
3 Vnto the horse belongeth a whip, to the asse a bridle: and a rod to the fooles backe.
4 Geue not the foole an answeare after his foolishnesse, lest thou becomme lyke vnto hym.
5 But make the foole an answeare to his foolishnesse, lest he be wyse in his owne conceipt.
6 (As he that) cutteth of (his messengers) feete endamageth him selfe: so doth he that committeth a message to a foole.
7 Like as in a lame man his legges are not equall: euen so is a parable in a fooles mouth.
8 He that setteth a foole in high dignitie, that is euen as if a man would bynde a * stone in a slyng.
9 As is a thorne in the hand of a drunkard:

A

Psal. 32. b.

* or, would bynde a precious stone in an heape of stones.

so is a parable in a fooles mouth.
10 The mighty that fourmed al thinges, rewardeth the fooles and transgressours.
1.Pet.3.d. 11 Lyke as the dogge turneth agayne to his owne vomite: euen so a foole beginneth his foolishnesse agayne afreshe.
12 If thou seest a man that is wyse in his owne conceipt: there is more hope in a foole then in him.
Prou.22.d. 13 The slouthful sayth, There is a Lion in the way, and a Lion in the middest of the streetes.
C
14 Like as the doore turneth about vpon the hynges: euen so doeth the slouthful walter him selfe in his bedde.
Prou.19.c. 15 The slouthful body * thrusteth his hande into his bosome, and it greeueth him to put it agayne to his mouth.
* or, hydeth
16 The sluggarde thinketh him selfe wyser then seuen men * that tell and teache.
* or, that can render a reason.
17 Who so goeth by and medleth with other mens strife: he is lyke one that taketh a dogge by the eares.
18 As he that fayneth him selfe mad, casteth fyrebrandes, deadly arrowes and dartes:
19 So doth a dissembler with his neighbour, and sayth, Am not I in sporte?
20 Where no wood is, there the fyre goeth out: euen so, where the talebearer is taken away, there the strife ceaseth.
21 As coles kindle heate, and wood the fyre: Eccle.23.b.
D
euen so doeth * a brawlyng felowe stirre vp variaunce.
* or, a contentious.
22 A talebearers woords are like * men that strike with hammers, and they pearse the inwarde partes of the body.
* or, as flat tringes.
23 Burnyng lippes and a wicked hart, are like a potharde couered with siluer dysse.
24 An enimie wil dissemble with his lippes, and layeth vp deceipt in his hart.
25 But when he speaketh fayre, beleeue him not, for there are * seuen abominations in his hart.
* or, many.
26 Hatred may be couered by deceipt: but the malice thereof shalbe shewed before the whole congregation.
Eccle.10.b. 27 Who so diggeth vp a pit, shal fal therein: Eccle.28.b. and he that rolleth vp a stone, it wyll returne vpon him.
28 A lying tongue hateth the afflicted: and a flattering mouth wooreketh mischefe.

The.xxvii.Chapter,

A 1 Make not thy boast of to morowe: for Luke.12.c. thou knowest not what a day may Ezech.18.a. bryng forth.
James.4.b. 2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine owne mouth, yea other folkes, and not thyne owne lippes.
3 The stone is heauy, and the sand waighty: but a fooles wrath is heauier then them both.
4 Wrath is a cruel thing, and furiousnesse is a very tempest: but who is able to abide enuie?
5 Open rebuke is better then secrete loue.
6 Faythful are the woundes of a louer: but the kisses of an enimie are * cruel.
* or, deceipteful.
7 He that is full abhorreth an hony combe: but vnto him that is hungry, euery * sowre thing is sweete.
B
* or, bitter.
8 He that oft times flitteth, is like a byrde that forsaketh her nest.
9 Baulme & sweete incense make the harte merry: so sweete is that frendes that geueth counsel from the hart.
10 Thyne owne frende and thy fathers frende see thou forsake not, and goe not into thy brothers house in tyme of thy trouble: for better is a * frende at hande, then a brother farre of.
* or, neighbour.
11 My sonne be wyse, and make me a glad hart, that I may make answeare vnto my rebukers.
12 A wyse man seeing the plague, wyll hyde him selfe: as for fooles they goe on stil and Prou.22. suffer harme.
13 Take his garment that is suretie for a Prou.20.c. stranger, and take a pledge of him for the vnknowen sake.
14 * He that is to hasty to prayse his neyghbour aboue measure, shalbe taken as one that geueth him an euyl report.
C
* or, he that gyueth his frende with a loude voyce vp tymes early in the morning: it shalbe counted to him as a dispayte.
15 A brawling woman and the roofe of the house dropping in a raynie day, may wel be compared togeather:
16 He that stilleth her, stilleth the wind, and stoppeth the smell of the ointment in his hande.
17 Lyke as one iron whetteth another, so doth one man * comfort another.
* or, harpe the countenance of another.
18 Who so keepeth his fygge tree, shall eate the fruites thereof: so he that waiteth vpon his maister, shal comme to honour.
19 Lyke as in one water there appeare diuers faces: euen so diuers men haue diuers hartes.
20 Hel and destruction are neuer full: euen so the eyes of men can neuer be satisfyed. Eccle.14.a. and 17.a.
21 As is the fyning pot for the siluer, and the furnace for golde: so is a man tryed by the mouth of him that prayseth him.
22 Though thou shouldest bray a foole with a pestell in a morter lyke firmentie corne: yet wyl not his foolishnesse goe from him.
D
23 Be thou diligent to knowe the state of thy catayle thee selfe, and looke well to thy flockes.
24 For riches abydeth not alway, and the crowne crowne endureth not for euer.

25 The hay groweth, the grasse commeth vp, and herbes are geathered in the mountaynes.
26 The lambes shall clothe thee, and for the goates thou shalt haue money to thy husbandry.
27 Thou shalt haue goates milke ynough to feede thee, to vpholde thy household, and to sustayne thy maydens.

The.xxviii. Chapter.

A 1 Leuit. 26.c. THe vngodly fleeth when no man pursueth him: but the righteous are bolde as a Lion.
2 For the wickednesse of the land, the prince is oft changed: but through * a man of vnderstandyng and wisedome, a realme endureth long.
3 One poore man oppressing another by violence, is like a raging rayne that destroyeth the * fruite.
4 They that forsake the lawe, prayse the vngodly: but suche as keepe the lawe, are greeued at them.
5 Wicked men vnderstand not iudgement: but they that seeke the Lorde vnderstande all thinges. 1. Cor. 2. b.
6 Better is the poore that walketh in his vprightnesse: then he that peruerteth his wayes, and is ryche. Prou. 19. a.
B 7 * a, feedeth gluttons. Prou. 1. b. Who so keepeth the lawe, is a chylde of vnderstanding: but he that * is a companion of riotous men, shameth his father.
8 He that by vsurie and vniust gaynes geathereth riches: he shal lay them in store for a man that wyl pitie the poore.
9 He that turneth away his eare from hearing the law, his prayer shalbe abominable.
10 Who so causeth the righteous to goe astray by an euil way, shal fal into his owne pyt: but the iust shal haue good thinges in possession:
11 The riche man thynketh him selfe to be wise: but the poore that hath vnderstanding * can perceiue him wel ynough. * a, can see hym. Eccle. 10. a.
12 When righteous men do reioyce, there is great glory: but when the wicked come vp, the man is tryed.

C 14 Wel is him that standeth alway in awe: as for hym that hardeneth his hart, he shall fal into mischiefe.
15 As a roaring Lion and an hungry Beare, so is an vngodly prince ouer the poore people.
16 Where the prince is without vnderstandyng, there is great oppression and wrong: but if he hateth couetousnesse, he shal long raigne.
17 He that by violence sheddeth any mans blood, shalbe a runnagate vnto his graue, and no man shalbe able to succour hym. Gen. 4. d.
18 Who so leadeth an innocent lyfe, shalbe saued: but he that goeth frowardes wayes, shal once haue a fal. Prou. 10. d.

D 21 To haue respect of persons (in iudgement) is not good, for that man will do wrong, yea euen for a peece of bread.
22 He that wyll be ryche all to soone, hath an euil eye: and consydereth not that powertie shal come vpon hym.
23 He that folowing my preceptes reproueth a man, shall fynde more fauour at the last then he that flattereth hym.
24 Who so robbeth his father and mother, and sayth it is no sinne: the same is the companion of a * destroyer. Prou. 15. a. * or, of a murderer.
25 He that is of a proude stomacke styreth vp strife: but he that putteth his truste in the Lorde, shalbe wel fedde.
26 He that trusteth in his owne hart is a foole: but he that dealeth wysely shalbe safe.
27 He that geueth vnto the poore shall not lacke: but he that hideth his eyes from them, shal haue many a curse. 2. Cor. 9. b.
28 When the vngodly are come vp, men are fayne to hide them selues: but when they perysshe, the ryghteous encrease. Prou. 28. b.

The.xxix. Chapter.

A 1 HE that is stifnecked and wyll not be reprooued, shal sodaynely be destroyed * without any helpe. * or, & not be cured.
2 When the ryghteous are in aucthoritie the people do reioyce: but when the wycked beare rule, the people mourne.
3 Who so loueth wysedome, maketh his father a glad man: but he that keepeth compayne with harlots, spendeth away * that he hath. Prou. 5. a. Luke. 15. c. * or, his substance.
4 With (true) iudgement the king stablisheth the lande: but if he be a man that oppresse the people with gatherynges, he turneth it vpside downe.
5 Who so flattereth his neighbour, layeth a net for his feete.
6 The sinne of the wicked is his owne snare: but the righteous doth sing and reioyce.
7 The ryghteous consydereth the cause of B the poore: but the vngodly regardeth no vnderstanding.

8 Scorneful men bring a citie into a snare: but wyse men turne away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foole: whether he be angry or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The bloodthirstie hate the righteous: but the iust (a) seeke his soule.

(a) That is, deliuer his soule: or saue his life.

11 A foole vttereth al his minde at once: but a wyse man keepeth it in tyl afterwarde.

12 If a prince delight in lyes, all his seruantes are vngodly.

13 The poore and the * lender meete together, and the Lorde lighteneth both theyr eyes.

C

* or, truely.

14 The feare of the kyng that * faythfully iudgeth the poore, shall continue sure for euermore.

15 The rodde and correction geueth wisedome, but a childe left to his owne wyll, bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the vngodly are multiplied, wyckednesse encreaseth: but the righteous shal see theyr fall.

17 Nurture thy sonne with correction, and thou shalt be at rest: yea he shall doo thee good at thyne hart.

18 When the worde of God is not preached, the people perysheth: but wel is him that keepeth the lawe.

19 A (stubborne) seruant wyll not be the better for words: for though he vnderstand, yet wil he not regarde them.

20 Seest thou a man that is hastie to speake vnaduisedly? there is more hope in a foole then in him.

D

* or, his sonne.

21 He that delicately bringeth vp his * seruant from a childe, shall make him his maister at length.

22 An angry man stirreth vp stryfe, and he that beareth cuyl wyll in his minde doth muche euyl.

* or, cursyng.

23 * After pride commeth a fal: but a lowly spirite bringeth great worshyp.

24 Who so is partner with a theefe, hateth his owne soule: he heareth * blasphemie, and telleth it not forth.

25 He that feareth men shal haue a fall: but who so putteth his trust in the Lorde, * is without danger.

26 Many there be that seeke the prynces fauour: but euery mans iudgement commeth from the Lorde.

27 The righteous abhorreth the vngodly: and the wicked hateth him that is in the right way.

The. xxx. Chapter.

The pureneſſe of the worde of God, and what we ought to require of GOD, with certaine wonderful things that are in this worlde.

2 SUrely I am more foolish then any man, and haue no mans vnderstanding.

3 I neuer learned wysedome, nor had knowledge of holy thinges.

4 Who hath clymed vp into heauen, and come downe from thence? who hath holden the winde fast in his handes? who hath gathered togeather the waters in a garment? who hath stablished all the endes of the worlde? what is his name, and what is his sonnes name, if thou canst tel?

5 Euery worde of GOD is pure: he is a shielde vnto al them that put theyr trust in him. Pſal. 19.c.

6 Put thou nothing vnto his wordes, lest he reproue thee, and thou be founde a lyer. Deut. 12.a.

10 Accuse not a seruant vnto his maister, lest he speake euil of thee, and thou be hurt.

15 The horse leache hath two daughters, crying, Bring bring hyther, bring hyther. There be three thinges that are neuer satisfied, yea foure thinges sayth neuer hoe:

16 The graue, the barren wombe, and the earth that hath neuer water ynough: as for fyre, it sayth neuer hoe.

17 Who so laugheth his father to scorne, and setteth his mothers commaundement at nought, the rauens of * the valley picke out his eyes: and deuoured be he of the yong Eagles. Exod. 20.b. Deut. 27.c. * or, of the brooke.

18 There

18 There be three thinges which are woonderful to me, yea foure which passe my vnderstanding:
19 The way of an Eagle in the ayre, the way of a serpent vppon a stone, the way of a ship in the middes of the sea, and the way of a man with a young woman.
20 Such is the way also of a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, whiche wypeth her mouth (like as) when she hath eaten, and sayth, as for me I haue donne no wickednesse.
D 21 For three thinges the earth is disquieted, and the fourth may it not abyde:
22 A seruant that beareth rule, a foole that is ful fedde,
23 A spitefull woman when she is maryed, and an handmayd that is heire to her maistresse.
24 There be foure thinges in the earth the whiche are very litle, but in wyledome they exceede the wyse:
Pro.6.a. 25 The Emmets are (but) a weake people, which yet gather their meate in ỹ sommer:
a, bowles 26 The Conies are but a feeble folke, yet make their * boroughes among the rockes:
n, a king. 27 The Grashoppers haue not a * guide, yet goe they foorth togeather by heapes:
E 28 The Spider laboureth with her handes, and is in kinges palaces.
29 There be three thinges that goe well, yea foure are comely in going.
30 A Lion whiche is strongest among beastes, and shunneth not at the syght of any:
31 A Grayhound strong in the hinder partes, a ramme also, and a kyng against whom no man aryseth vp.
32 If thou hast donne foolishly when thou wast in hygh estate, or if thou hast taken euyl counsel, then lay thyne hand vpon thy mouth.
33 Who so chirneth mylke bringeth foorth butter, and he that rubbeth his nose, maketh it bleede: euen so he that forceth wrath, bringeth foorth stryfe.

The.xxxi. Chapter.

2. He exhorteth to chastitie and iustice, 10. and sheweth the conditions of a wyse and woorthy woman.

1 THE woordes of kyng (a) Lamuel, and the lesson that his mother taught him.
a Lamuel signifieth ꝓphesied with him, or with them. For when Solo. had builded the temple to God, & prophesied his honour, God was with him and the Israelites: Neither is it any strange thing in the scriptures, one man to haue many names.
2 What my sonne? what the sonne of my body? and what O my deare beloued sonne?
3 Geue not ouer thy strength and wayes vnto women, whiche are the destruction euen of kinges.
4 O Lamuel, it is not for kinges, it is not (I say) for kinges to drinke wine, nor ꝓpinces strong drinke.
5 Lest they by drinking forgeat the * lawe, and peruert the iudgement of al * poore mens chyldren. * or, ordinaunce.
6 Geue strong drinke vnto suche as are redy to perishe, & wine vnto those that mourne: * or, of all the afflicted 7 That they may drinke it, and forgeat their miserie and aduersitie. children.
8 Be thou an aduocate for the dumbe, (to speake) in the cause of all suche as be succourlesse in this transitory worlde.
9 Open thy mouth, defende the thing that is lawfull and ryght, and the cause of the poore and helpelesse.
10 Who so findeth an honest faythfull woman, she is much more worth then pearles.
B 11 The hart of her husbande may safely trust in her, so that he shall fall into no * pouertie. * or, he shal haue no neede of spoyles: that is, he shal not neede to get his liuyng vnlawfully.
12 She wyll doo him good, and not euyll, all the dayes of her lyfe.
13 She occupieth wooll and flaxe, and laboureth gladly with her handes.
14 She is like a marchantes ship that bryngeth her * vitayles from a farre. * or, bread.
15 She is vp in the nyght season, to prouide meate for her housholde, and foode for her maydens.
C 16 She consydereth lande, and byeth it: and with the fruite of her handes she planteth a vineyarde:
17 She girdeth her loynes with strength, and fortifyeth her armes.
18 And if she perceyueth that her huswyfery dooth good, her candel goeth not out by nyght.
19 She layeth her fyngers to the spindle, and her hande taketh holde of the distaffe:
20 She openeth her handes to the poore, yea she streatcheth foorth her handes to suche as haue neede.
21 She feareth not that the colde of winter shall hurt her household, for al her housholde folkes are clothed with scarlet.
D 22 She maketh her selfe fayre ornamentes, her clothing is whyte sylke and purple.
23 Her husband is much * set by in ỹ gates, when he sytteth among the rulers of the lande. * or, known.
24 She maketh cloth of sylke, and selleth it: and deliuereth girdles vnto the marchant.
25 Strength and honour is her clothyng, and in the latter dayes she shal reioyce.
26 She openeth her mouth with wisedome, and in her tongue is the lawe of grace.
27 She looketh well to the wayes of her household: and eateth not her bread with idlenesse.

28 Her children arise vp and cal her blessed: and her husbande shall * make muche of her.

* or, prayse her.

29 Many daughters (there be that) geather richesse togeather: but thou goest aboue them all.

30 As for fauour it is deceyptfull, and beautie is a vayne thing: but a woman that feareth the Lorde, shalbe praysed.

31 Geue her of the fruite of her handes: and let her owne workes prayse her in the gates.

The ende of the prouerbes of Solomon.

The booke of the preacher, otherwyse called Ecclesiastes, which is Solomon the king.

For Solomon is called in scripture by three sundry names. The one, Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The seconde Idida, that is, beloued of God. The thirde Ecclesiastes, that is a preacher, teaching that true and eternal felicitie consysteth not in any worldly wysedome or abundance of riches, or in carnal pleasure, which all be but vayne and transitory: but he prooueth that true felicitie consysteth in a whole ioyning our selues to God by pure religion, that is, with a syncere fayth and the feare of God, obseruing his commaundementes.

The fyrst Chapter.

2. All thinges in this worlde are full of vanitie and of none indurance.
13. All mens wysedome is but follie and greefe.

A 1 THe wordes of ỹ preacher ỹ son of Dauid kyng of Hierusalem.

(a) He doth not condemne the creatures and gyftes of god as euyll: but the careful seeking of them, and the pride and trust that man hath in worldly thinges.

2 (a) All is but moste vayne vanitie saith the preacher, and al is most vayne (I say) and but plaine vanitie.

3 For what els hath a man of all the labour that he taketh vnder the sunne?

4 One generation passeth away, another commeth: but the earth abydeth styl.

5 The sunne ariseth, the sunne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there ryse vp agayne.

6 The winde goeth towarde the south, and turneth vnto the north, fetcheth his compasse, whirleth about, and goeth forth, and returneth agayne to his circuites from whence he dyd come.

B 7 Al flooddes runne into the sea, and yet is the sea it selfe not fylled: for looke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they comme to flowe agayne.

8 Al thinges are so hard to be knowen, that no man can expresse them: the eye is not satisfyed with syght, the eare is not filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath benne, commeth to passe agayne, and the thing that hath ben donne, shalbe donne agayne: there is no newe thing vnder the sunne.

10 Is there any thing wherof it may be said, Loe, this is newe? for it was long agoe in the times that haue benne before vs.

11 The thing that is past is out of remembraunce: euen so the thinges that are for to comme, shall no more be thought vpon among them that comme after.

12 I mee selfe the preacher was king of Israel at Hierusalem.

13 And did applie my minde to seeke out and searche for the knowledge of al things that are done vnder heauen: (Suche trauayle and labour hath God geuen vnto the children of men, to exercise them selues therein.)

14 Thus haue I considered all these thinges that comme to passe vnder the sunne: and loe, they are al but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

15 (b) The crooked can not be made straight, nor the imperfection of thinges can be numbred.

(b) Man is not able of his owne power to reformme that is amisse, and to ryse vp from sinne, nor to know his imperfection and weakenesse, to do any thing that is good, without the grace of God.

16 I communed with myne owne hart, saying, Loe, I am comme to great estate, and haue gotten more wysedome then all they that haue benne before me in Hierusalem.

17 Yea my harte hadde great experience of wysedome and knowledge: for therevnto I applyed applyed my mynde, that I myght knowe what were wisedome and vnderstandyng, what were errour and foolishnesse: and I perceyued that this was also but a vexation of mynde.

18 For where muche wisedome is, there is also great trauayle and disquietnesse: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

The.ii. Chapter.

1. Pleasures, sumptuous buyldynges, ryches, and possessions are but vanitie. 14. The wise and the foole hath both one ende touching the bodyly death.

1 THen sayd I thus in my hart, Now goe to, (a) I wyl take myne ease, and haue good dates: but loe, that is vanitie also.

2 Insomuche that (b) I sayde vnto the man geuen to laughter, Thou art mad: and to myrth, What doest thou?

3 (c) So I thought in my harte to gene my flesh vnto wyne, and againe to applye my mynd vnto wisedome, and to comprehende foolishnesse: vntyl the time that among al the thynges whiche are vnder the sunne, I myght se what were best for men to doo so long as they lyue vnder heauen.

4 (d) I made gorgeous fayre woorkes: I buylded my house, & planted vineyardes.

5 I made me Orchardes and Gardens of pleasure, planted trees in them of al maner of fruites.

6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene and fruiteful trees withal.

7 I bought seruantes and maydens, and had a great housholde: as for cattel and sheepe, I had more substance of them, then al they that were before me in Hierusalem.

8 I geathered togeather syluer & golde, and the cheefe treasures of kynges and landes: I haue prouided me men syngers and women syngers, and the delightes of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was greater and in more worshyp then al my predecessours in Hierusalem, for wisedome remayned with me.

10 And looke what so euer mine eyes desyred, I let them haue it: and wherein so euer my hart delyghted or had any pleasure, I withheld it not from it: Thus my hart reioyced in al that I dyd, and this was my portion of al my trauayle.

11 But when I consydered al the woorkes that my handes had wrought, and al the labour that I had taken therein: loe, al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde, and nothing of any value vnder the sunne.

12 (e) Then turned I me to consyder wisedome, errour, and foolishnesse, (for what is he among men that myght be compared to me the king in suche woorkes?)

13 And I sawe that wisedome excelleth foolishnesse, as farre as lyght dooth darknesse.

14 For a wise man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darknesse: I perceyued also that they both (f) had one ende.

15 Then thought I in my mynde, if it happen vnto the foole as it doth vnto me, what nedeth me then to labour any more for wisdome? So I confessed within my hart that this also was but vanitie.

16 For the wise are euer as litle in remembrance as the foolishe: for the dayes shal come (g) when al shalbe forgotten: yea, the wise man dyeth as wel as the foole.

17 Thus began I to be weery of my life, in so muche that I coulde away with nothing that is done vnder the sunne: for al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

18 (h) Yea, I was weery of my labour whiche I had taken vnder the sunne, because I should be fayne to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me.

19 (i) And who knoweth whether he shalbe a wise man or a foole? and yet shal he be lorde of al my labours, which I with such wisedome haue taken vnder the sunne: This is also a vayne thyng.

20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from al suche trauaile as I tooke vnder the sunne, 21 For as muche as a man shoulde weery hym selfe with wisedome, with vnderstandyng and opportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer sweat for them: This is also a vaine thing, and great miserie.

22 For what geatteth a man of al the labour and trauayle of his mynde, that he taketh vnder the sunne?

23 But heauinesse, sorow, and disquietnesse al the dayes of his life: insomuche that his hart can not rest in the night: This is also a vayne thing.

24 Is it not better then for a man to eate and drynke, and his soule to be merry in his labour? yea, I saw that this also was a gyft of God.

25 For who wyl eate, or goe more lustily to his woorke then I?

26 And why? God geueth to the man that is good before him, wisedome, vnderstandyng, and gladnesse: but vnto the synner he geueth weerinesse, that he may geather and heape togeather the thyng that afterwarde shalbe geuen vnto him whom it pleaseth God:

(a) God hath appoynted that man shoulde be obedient to godly reason, as to his king: and not to be led with carnal affection.

(b) They both suffer like aduersitie in this worlde: or as touchyng the corruption of the body, they dye both alike.

(c) Meanyng in this world

(d) That he might seeke the true felicitie which is in God.

(e) He rebuketh menne that maketh careful prouidence to enrich their heyres by vnlawful meanes, to their owne damnation, not knowing who or what they shalbe, eyther good or cuyl.

God : This is nowe a vaine thing, yea, a very vnquietnesse and vexation of mynde.

The.iii.Chapter.

I. Al thynges haue theyr tyme. 14. The woorkes of God are perfect, and cause vs to feare hym. 17. God shal iudge both the iust and vniust.

A 1 EVery (a) thing hath a time, yea, al that is vnder the heauen, hath his conuenient season.

(a) Although true felicitie is not to be put in any worldly thing: yet God hath appoynted al necessary thinges to be done in due time, order, & measure.

2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye: there is a tyme to plant, and a tyme to plucke vp the thing that is planted.

3 A time to slay, and a time to make whole: a time to breake downe, and a time to buylde vp.

4 A time to weepe, and a time to laugh : a time to mourne, and a time to daunce.

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together: a time to imbrace, and a time to refraine from imbracyng.

6 A time to wynne, and a time to loose : a time to spare, and a time to spende.

B 7 A time to cut in peeces, and a time to sow together: a time to keepe silence, & a time to speake.

8 A time to loue, and a time to hate : a tyme of warre, and a time of peace.

9 What hath a man els that doth any thing, but weerynesse and labour?

(b) God hath appointed that euery man should diligently trauaile and take paynes in his vocation, to the end he wold haue hym humble and feare God.

10 (b) For as touching the trauaile & carefulnesse whiche God hath geuen vnto men, I see that he hath geuen it them to be exercised in it.

11 All thynges hath he made beautifull in their time, yea, further then this, he hath planted the world in their hartes, that man may not comprehend the woorke that God maketh from the begynnyng to the ende.

12 So I perceyued that in those thinges there is nothing better for a man, then to be merry, & to doo wel as long as he lyueth.

13 For al that a man eateth and dyrnketh, yea, what so euer a man enioyeth of al his labour: that same is a gyft of God.

C 14 I considered also, that what so euer God doeth, it continueth for euer: and that nothing can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, and that God doeth it , to the intent that men should feare him.

15 The thyng that hath ben, is nowe: and the thing that is for to comme, hath ben afore time: for God restoreth againe the thing that was past.

16 Moreouer, I sawe vnder the sunne vngodlynesse in the steede of iudgement, and iniquitie in the steede of righteousnesse.

17 Then thought I in my mynde, God shal separate the righteous from the vngodly: and then shalbe the time and iudgement of al counselles and woorkes.

18 I communed with mine owne hart also concernyng the children of men, howe God hath chosen them, and yet letteth them appeare as though they were beastes.

19 (c) For it happeneth vnto menne, as it doth vnto beastes, euen one condition vnto them both : as the one dyeth, so dyeth the other : yea, they haue both one manner of breath: so that in this, a man hath no preheminence aboue a beast, but are al subdued vnto vanitie.

(c) There is no difference betwixt a man and a beast, as touchyng the body, which of them both dyeth: but the soule of man lyueth immortally, & the body of man riseth vp again by the mightie power of the spirit of god.

20 They goe al vnto one place: for as they be al of dust, so shal they al turne vnto dust againe.

(d) The immortalitie of the soule, is not known by carnal reason or sense: but by the woorde and spirite of God.

21 (d) Who knoweth the spirite of * man that goeth vpwarde, and the breath of the beast that goeth downe to the earth?

* or, of the children of menne.

22 Wherefore I perceyue that there is nothing better for a man, then to be ioyful in his labour, for that is his portion: but who wyl bryng hym to see the thyng that shall come after him?

The.iiii.Chapter.

I. The innocent are oppressed. 4. Mens labours are ful of abuse and vanitie. 9. Mans socictie is necessarie. 13. A young man poore and wyse, is to be preferred before an old king that is a foole.

1 SO I turned me, and considered al the violent wrong that is vnder the sunne: & beholde the teares of suche as were oppressed, and there was no man to comforte them , or that woulde deliuer and defend them from the violence of their oppressours.

2 Wherefore I * iudged those that are dead, to be more happy then those that be a-lyue:

* or, praised

3 (a) Yea, hym that is yet vnborne, to be better at ease then they both: because he seeth not the miserable woorkes that are done vnder the sunne.

(a) He speaketh here according to the iudgment of the flesh, which can not welabide persecution and trouble.

4 (b) Agayne, I sawe that al trauaile and diligence of labour that euery man taketh in hande, was donne of enuie agaynst his neighbour: This is also a vayne thing, and a vexation of mynd.

(b) The more perfect that the worke is, the more it is enuied of the wicked.

5 (c) The foole foldeth his handes together, and eateth vp his owne flesh.

(c) For idlenes destroyeth himself.

6 One handful (sayth he) is better with rest, then both the handes ful with labour and trauayle of mynde.

7 Moreouer, I turned me, and beholde yet another another vanitie vnder the ſunne:

8 There is one man, no moe but him ſelfe alone, hauing neither childe nor brother, yet is there no end of his careful trauayle, his eyes can not be ſatiſfied with riches: (yet ſayth he not) for whom do I take ſuche trauayle? for whoſe pleaſure doo I thus conſume away my lyfe? This is alſo a payne and miſerable thyng.

9 (d) Therefore two are better then one, for they may wel enioy the profite of their labour: for yf one of them fal, his companion helpeth him vp agayne.

10 But woe is hym that is alone, for yf he fal, he hath not another to helpe hym vp.

11 Againe, when two ſleepe together, they are warme: but how can a body be warme alone?

12 One may be ouercome, but two may make reſyſtaunce: a threefolde gable is not lyghtly broken.

13 A poore childe being wyſe, is better then an olde king that doteth, and can not beware in tyme to come.

14 Some one commeth out of priſon, and is made a king, & an other whiche is borne in the kyngdome, commeth vnto powertie.

15 And I perceyued that all men lyuyng vnder the ſunne (e) goe with the ſeconde childe that ſhall ſtande vp in the ſteade of the other.

16 As for the people that haue benne before him, & that come after him, they are innumerable, and they that come (f) after him ſhal not reioyce of him: This is alſo a vayne thyng, and vexation of minde.

17 When thou commeſt into the houſe of God, keepe thy foote and drawe nigh, that God which is at hand may heare, that thou geue not the (g) offeringes of fooles: for they knowe nought but to doo euyl.

(d) Mutual societie is both comfortable and necessary for a mans lyfe.

(e) Men seke rather to please, and to come into fauour with him that shal succede into the place of honour, then with him that doeth occupy the same e-

(f) The people wyl not long please with him that occupieth the place of honour.

(g) We must ioyne our prayer, with workes, & the word of God and not by a rote or custome.

The. v. Chapter.

1. Not to ſpeake lyghtly, cheefely in Gods matters. 6. The couetous can neuer haue ynough.

1 BE (a) not haſtie with thy mouth, and let not thine harte ſpeake any thyng raſhly before God, for God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth: therfore let thy wordes be fewe.

2 For where muche carefulneſſe is, there are many dreames: & where many wordes are, there men may heare fooles.

3 If thou make a vowe vnto God, be not ſlacke to perfourme it: for fooliſh vowes he hath no pleaſure in them: yf thou promiſe any thyng, pay it.

4 (b) For better is it that thou make no vowe, then that thou ſhouldeſt promiſe, and not pay.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to cauſe thy fleſhe for to (c) ſinne, neither ſay thou before the angel, that it is thy ignorance: for then god wyl be angrie at thy voyce, and deſtroy al the worke of thine handes.

6 (d) And why? where as are many dreames, & many wordes, there are alſo diuers vanities, but looke that thou feare God.

7 If thou ſeeſt the poore to be oppreſſed, and wrongfully dealt withal, ſo that equitie & ryght of the lawe is wreſted in the lande, marueyle not thou at ſuche a thyng: for he that is (e) higher then the highest, regardeth, and there be higher then they.

8 (f) The increaſe of the earth vpholdeth al thyng: yea the kyng him ſelfe is maynteyned by husbandrie.

9 He that loueth money, wyl neuer be ſatiſfied with money: and he that loueth riches, ſhalbe without the fruite therof: This is alſo a vayne thyng.

10 Where as much riches is, there are many alſo that ſpende them awaye: and what pleaſure more hath he that poſſeſſeth them, ſauyng that he may looke vpon them with his eyes?

11 A labouring man ſleepeth ſweetely, whether it be little or muche that he eateth: but the abundance of the riche wyll not ſuffer him to ſleepe.

12 (g) Yet is there a ſore plague whiche I haue ſeene vnder the ſunne (namely) riches kept to the hurte of him that hath them in poſſeſſion:

13 For oft times they periſhe with his great miſerie and trouble: and if he haue a childe, it geatteth nothyng.

14 Like as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, ſo goeth he thyther agayne, and carrieth nothing away with him of all his labour.

15 This is a miſerable plague, that he ſhal goe euen as he came away: What helpeth it him then that he hath laboured in the wynde?

16 (h) All the dayes alſo of his lyfe he dyd eate in the darke with great carefulneſſe, ſickneſſe, and ſorowe.

17 Therefore me thinke it a better and fayrer thyng a man to eate and drynke, and to be refreſhed of al his labour that he taketh vnder the ſunne, al the dayes of his lyfe whiche God geueth hym: for this is his portion.

18 For vnto whomſoeuer God geueth riches, goodes, and power, he geueth it hym to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be

(b) We ought to vow thoſe thynges the whiche tendeth to the glory of god, & which are in our power to perfourme.

(c) In promiſing that whiche thou art not able to perfourme. Or by intemperate eating & drinkyng, or by ſaying that you ſinned not voluntarily, but of neceſſitie: making god the authour of ſinne.

(d) Dreames are not to be credited: but God is to be feared.

(e) Meaning, that god wyl redreſſe theſe thinges, and therefore we muſt depend vpon him.

(f) The decay of husbandrie, is the decaye of the prince.

(g) A plague of the couetous man.

(h) That is, in vayne, & without profite.

be refreshed of his labour: this is the gyft of God.

19 For he thynketh not muche howe long he shal lyue, for as muche as God fylleth his hart with gladnesse.

The.vi. Chapter.

The miserable estate of him to whom God hath geuen riches, and not the grace to vse them.

1 THere is yet a plague vnder the sunne, and it is a general thyng among men: when GOD geueth a man riches, goods, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing of al that his hart can desyre, and yet GOD geueth him not leaue to enioy the same, but another man spendeth them: This is a vayne thyng, and a miserable plague.

2 If a man begeat a hundred children, and liue many yeres, so that his dayes are many in number, and yet can not enioye his good, (a) neyther be buryed, as for hym, I say, that vntimely byrth is better then he.

3 For he commeth to nought, and spendeth his tyme in darknesse, and his name is forgotten.

4 Moreouer, he seeth not the sunne, and knoweth not of it: and yet hath he more rest then the other.

5 Yea though he liued two thousand yeres, yet hath he no good lyfe: Come not all to one place?

6 (b) Al the labour that a man taketh, is for him * selfe, and yet his desyre is neuer fylled after his mynde.

7 For what hath the wyse more then the foole? what helpeth it the poore that (c) he knoweth to walke with fooles before the lyuyng?

8 (d) The cleare syght of the eye is better then that the soule should walke after desyres of the lust: Howbeit, this is also a vayne thing, and a disquietnesse of mynde.

9 The thing that hath ben, is named aforne, and knowen that it is euen man hym selfe: neither may he go to lawe with him (e) that is myghtier then he.

10 Many thynges there be that encrease vanitie, and what hath a man els?

11 For who knoweth what is good for man lyuyng in the dayes of his vayne lyfe, whiche is but a shadowe? Or who wyll tell a man what shal happen after him vnder the sunne?

The.vii. Chapter.

Diuers preceptes to folowe that which is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

1 A *Good name is more worth then precious oyntment: and the (a) day of death, is better then the day of birth.

2 (b) It is better to goe into an house of mournyng, then into a banketting house: For there is the ende of all men, and he that is lyuyng, taketh it to hart.

3 (c) Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenance is heauie, the harte is reformed.

4 The hart of the wyse is in the mourning house: but the hart of the foolishe is in the house of myrth.

5 It is better to geue eare to the chastening of a wyse man, then to heare the songue of fooles:

6 For the laughyng of fooles is lyke the (d) crackyng of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vayne thyng.

7 The wyse man hateth wrong dealyng, and abhorreth the hart that coueteth rewardes.

8 Better is it to consyder the ende of a thyng then the begynnyng: the patient of spirite, is better then the hygh mynded.

9 Be not hastily angrie in thy mynde: for wrath resteth in the bosome of fooles.

10 (e) Say not thou, What is the cause that the dayes of the olde time were better then they that be nowe? for that were no wyse question.

11 Wisdome with inheritance is good, yet better is it with them that without care may beholde the sunne:

12 For wisdome defendeth aswel as money, and the excellent knowledge and wisdome geueth life vnto hym that hath it in possession.

13 Consyder the worke of God, howe that no man can make the thing straight, which he maketh crooked.

14 Vse well the tyme of prosperitie, and remember the time of misfortune: for God doeth so temper the one and the other, that a man (f) can fynde nothyng els.

15 Al things haue I consydered in the time of my vanitie: that the (g) iust man perisheth for his ryghteousnesse sake, and the vngodly lyueth in his wickednesse.

16 Therefore be thou neither to righteous nor ouer wyse, that thou perishe not.

17 Be neither to vnrighteous also, nor to foolishe, lest thou dye before thy time.

18 It is good for thee to (h) take holde of this, and not to let that go out of thy hand: For he that feareth God, commeth forth with them al.

19 Wisdome geueth more courage vnto the wyse, then ten myghtie men of the citie.

20 For there is not one iust vpon earth that doeth

(a) The wicked couetous mā by many kinde of offences, wanteth the honor of a christian mans burial, either by murdring him selfe, or by such other kynde of offence.

(b) That is, to death, meanyng, that he is nothing better then the vntymelye fruite.

* or, for his mouth.

(c) That is, that he knoweth how to vse his riches well in the iudgement of the wyse.

(d) It is better to be contente with that that god hath geuen, thē to folow his desyre that neuer wyl be satisfied.

(e) That is, with God, who wyll teache him that he is mortall.

A

(a) Because that this corporal death is the entring in to lyfe euerlastyng.

(b) The house of mournyng put vs in mynde of death, it is to examine and amend our lyues.

(c) The hart of a synner is sooner reformed by an angry contenance, then by a smylyng.

(d) Thornes in the fyre crackleth for a whyle, but they are soone gone out.

(e) Good dayes are not to be esteemed by prosperite, but by vertue and true religion, as the dayes of Christ are better then the former dayes of Moses.

C

(f) That no man can finde fault with gods doing.

(g) Meanyng that the chyldren of tyrantes put the innocent to death, and spare the wicked.

(h) Take heede of their admonitions.

doeth good, and sinneth not.

Deu.30.D. 1.Ioh.1.D. 21 Take no heede vnto euery woorde that is spoken, least thou heare thy seruant curse thee: for thine own hart knoweth that thou thee selfe also hast oft times spoken euyll by other men.

Iob.28.c. 22 All these thynges haue I proued in wisedome, for I thought to be wise, but she went farther from me then she was before: yea, and so deepe, that I myght not reache vnto her.

23 I applyed my mynde also vnto knowledge, and to seeke and searche out science, wisedome, and vnderstandyng, to know the foolishnesse of the vngodly, and the errour of doting fooles.

Prou.7.D. 24 And I founde that a woman is bitterer then death, the which hath cast abroade her hart as a net that menne fishe with, and her handes are chaynes. (i) Who so pleaseth God, shal escape from her, but the synner wyl be taken with her.

(i) A shrewd woman is esteemed onely by the grace of God.

25 Beholde (sayth the preacher) this haue I diligently searched out and proued. One thyng muste be considered with an other, that a man may come by knowledge: which as yet I seeke, and finde it not.

26 Among a thousande men I haue founde one: but (k) not one woman among al.

(k) Solomon being a thousande wines, found not one that was perfect good, and so are most of their wiues.

27 Loe, this onely haue I founde, that God made man iuste and ryght: (l) but they sought many inuentions.

(l) That is, through their owne default.

The.viii.Chapter.

2. To obey princes and magistrates. 27. The woorkes of God passe mans knowledge.

1 WHo is wise? who hath knowledge to make an answeare? A (a) mans wisedome maketh his face to shine: but (b) vnshamefastnesse putteth it out of fauour.

(a) Wisedome maketh a man to be knowen.

(b) Vnshamefastnesse is a token of folishnesse.

2 Keepe the kings commaundement, namely, for the othe that thou haste made vnto God for the same.

3 (b) Be not hastie to go out of his syght, & see thou continue in no euil thing: for what soeuer it pleaseth him, that doeth he.

(b) Be not obstinate.

4 Like as when a king geueth a charge, his commaundement is mighty: euen so, who may say vnto him, What doest thou?

5 Who so keepeth the commaundement, shal feele no harme: but a wyse mans hart discerneth the tyme and iudgement.

6 For euery thing wyl haue opportunitie and iudgement: and this is the thing that maketh menne full of carefulnesse and sorowe.

7 And why? a man knoweth not what is for to come: for who can tel hym when it shalbe?

8 Neither is there any man that hath power ouer the spirite, to keepe styl the spirite, nor to haue any power in the time of death, nor that can make an ende of the battaile, neyther may vngodlynesse deliuer them that meddle with al.

9 All these thynges haue I considered, and applyed my mynde vnto euery woorke that is vnder the sunne, how one man hath lordshyp vppon another to (c) his owne harme.

(c) As cometh often times to tyrantes and wicked rulers.

10 For I haue seene often the vngodly brought to their graues, (d) and yet they haue returned into the citie againe: and (e) came from the place of holy men, whiche in the citie were growen out of memorie, as were those also that lyued wel: This is also a vayne thyng.

(d) That is, the vngodly hath benne praysed after their burial.

(e) That is, the holy mē after their burial growe out of memorie.

11 (f) Because nowe that euyl woorkes are not hastily pounished, the harte of man geueth hym selfe ouer vnto wickednesse.

(f) Where iustice is delayed: there sinne raigneth.

12 Because an euyl person offendeth an hundred times, and God deferreth, geuing him long life: therfore am I sure that it shal goe wel with them that feare God, which haue hym before their eyes.

13 Agayne, as for the vngodly, it shal not be wel with him, neyther shal he prolongue his dayes, but euen as a shadowe: so shal he be that feareth not God.

14 Yet is there a vanitie vpon earth: There be iuste menne vnto whom it happeneth as though they had the woorkes of the vngodly: Agayne, there be vngodly, with whom it goeth as though they had the woorkes of the ryghteous: This haue I called also a vayne thyng.

15 Therefore I commend gladnesse, because a man hath no better thing vnder the sunne, then to eate and drynke, and to be merry: (g) for that shal he haue of his labour al the dayes of his lyfe, whiche God geueth hym vnder the sunne.

(g) This he speaketh in the person of a carnal man.

16 And so I applyed my mynde to learne wisedome, and to knowe the trauayle that is in the worlde, and that of suche a fashion, that I suffered not mine eyes to sleepe neyther day nor nyght.

17 I vnderstoode of al the woorkes of God, but it is not possible for a man to attayne vnto the woorkes that are doone vnder the sunne: and though he bestowe his labour to seeke them out, yet can he not reache vnto them: yea, though a wise man would vndertake to know them, yet shal he not finde them.

The.ix.Chapter.

1. By no outwarde thyng can man know whom God loueth or hateth. 11. No man knoweth his ende. 19. Wisedome excelleth strength.

1 For

21 FOr al these thinges purposed I in my mynd to seeke out: The righteous and wise, yea, and their seruantes al are in the hand of God, (a) and there is no man that knoweth either loue or hate, but al thinges are before them.

(a) By any outwarde thing in this life, no man knoweth whether he is loued or hated of god

2 It happeneth vnto one, as vnto another, it goeth with the righteous, as with the vngodly, (b) with the good and cleane, as with the vncleane: with him that offereth, as with hym that offereth not: like as it goeth with the vertuous, so goeth it also with the synner: as it happeneth vnto the pertured, so happeneth it also to hym that is afrayd to be forsworne.

(b) Prosperitie and aduersitie commeth in this life, as wel to the godly, as to the wicked.

3 Among all thynges that come to passe vnder the sunne, this is a miserie, that it happeneth vnto al alike: This is the cause also, that the hartes of menne are full of wickednesse, and madde foolishnesse is in their hartes, as long as they lyue, vntyl they dye.

4 And why? as long as a man liueth, he hath an hope: for a (c) quicke dog (say they) is better then a dead Lion.

(c) This prouerbe is the saying of the Epicures, the whiche beleueth not the immortalitie of the soule.

5 For they that be lyuing, knowe that they shal dye: but they (d) that be dead, knowe nothyng, neyther deserue they any more, for their memorial is forgotten.

(d) Repentance after this life, is too late, and vnprofitable

6 Also their loue and their hatred, & their enuie is nowe perished, neyther haue they any more parte in the worlde in all that is donne vnder the sunne.

(e) The wicked flatter themselues to be in gods fauour, what so euer they doo, for that they doo as bounde in prosperitie,

7 (e) Go thou thy way then, eate thy bread with ioy, and drinke thy wyne with a glad hart, for thy woorkes please God: Let thy garmentes be alwayes whyte, and let thy head lacke no ointment.

8 Lyue thee selfe to lyue ioyfully with thy wyfe whom thou louest, al the dayes of thy life, whiche is but vaine, that God geueth thee vnder the sunne al the dayes of thy vanitie: for that is thy portion in this life of al thy labour and trauayle that thou takest vnder the sunne.

(f) There is no tyme of woorking, or repentance after this life

9 What so euer thou takest in hande to doo, that do with al thy power: for in the graue that thou goest (f) vnto, there is neyther woorke, counsaile, knowledge, nor wisedome.

(g) Thus the wicked worldlynges are deceiued, attributing to fortune, that whiche is ordered by the secrete prouidence of God, for that the reward accordyng to mens doings is not in this lyfe, but chefely in the lyfe to come.

10 So I turned me vnto other thinges vnder the sunne, and I sawe that in running it helpeth not to be swift, in batayle it helpeth not to be strong, to feedyng, it helpeth not to be wise, to riches, it helpeth not to be a man of muche vnderstanding, to be had in fauour, it helpeth not to be cunning: (g) but that al lyeth in tyme and fortune.

11 For a man knoweth not his tyme: but like as the fyshes are taken with the angle, and as the byrdes are caught with the snare: euen so are menne taken in the perilous time, when it commeth so dayntly vpon them.

12 (h) This wisedome haue I seene also vnder the sunne, and me thought it a great thyng.

(h) A proufe of wickednes.

13 There was a litle citie, and a fewe men within it: so there came a great king and besieged it, and made great bulwarkes against it.

14 And in the citie there was found a poore man, but he was wise, which with his wisdome deliuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any respect to suche a simple man.

15 Then sayd I, Wisedome is better then strength: neuertheles, a simple mans wisdome is despised, and his woordes art not heard.

16 A wise mans counsaile that is * folowed in silence, is farre about the crying of a captaine among fooles.

* or, heard. Genes. 4. 1. Sa. 17. 2. Sa. 21.

17 For wisedome is better then harnesse: but one sinner alone destroyeth much goodnesse.

The. x. Chapter.

1. The difference of foolishnesse and wisedome. 10. A slaunderer is lyke a serpent that can not be charmed. 15. Of foolishe kinges and riotous princes. 16. And of good kynges and princes.

1 A Dead flye dooth corrupt sweete ointment, and maketh it to stinke: euen so oft tymes, he that hath ben had in estimation for wisedome and honour, is abhorred because of a litle foolishnesse.

2 (a) A wise mans hart is vppon his right hande, but a fooles harte vppon his left.

(a) A wise man doeth things with good consideration, but a foole doeth contrary.

3 A foole wyl shewe hym selfe when he goeth by the way, * yet thinketh he that euery man dooth as foolishly as him selfe.

* or, he is a foole.

4 If a principal spirite be geuen thee to beare rule, be not negligent then in thine office: for he that can take cure of hym selfe, auoydeth great offences.

5 Another plague is there whiche I haue seene vnder the sunne, namely, the ignorance that is commonly among princes: in that a foole sytteth in great dignitie, and the (b) riche are set downe beneath.

(b) Riche without wisedome are vnworthy of the earth. Psal. 36. Eccle. 7.

6 I haue seene seruantes ryde vpon horses, and princes goyng vpon * their feete, as it were seruantes.

* or, the earth.

7 But he that digged vp a pyt, shall fall therein him selfe: & who so breaketh downe the the hedge, a serpent shal byte hym.

8 Who so remoueth stones, shal haue trauayle withall: and he that heweth wood, shalbe hurt therewith.

9 When an iron is blunt, and the poynt not sharpened, (c) it must be whet againe, and that with might: euen so doeth wysdome folowe diligence.

10 A backbyter is no better then a serpent that stingeth without hyssyng.

11 The wordes out of a wyse mans mouth are gratious: but the lyppes of a foole wyl destroy hym selfe.

12 The begynnyng of his talkyng is foolishnesse: and the last worde of his mouth is starke madnesse.

13 A foole is ful of wordes, and a man can not tel what shal come to passe: who wyll then warne him of it that shal folowe after hym?

¶ 14 The labour of the (d) foolishe is greeuous vnto them, whyle they know not how to goe into the citie.

15 Woe be vnto thee, O thou lande, whose king (e) is but a childe, and whose princes are early at their banquettes.

16 But wel is thee, O thou land, whose king is come of nobles, and whose princes eate in due season for necessitie, and not for lust.

17 Though slouthfulnesse the balkes fall downe, and though idle handes it raineth in at the house.

18 Meate maketh men to laugh, and wyne maketh them merye: but vnto money are al thynges obedient.

19 (f) Wish the king no euil in thy thought, and speake no hurt of the rich in thy priuie chamber: for a bird of the ayre shal betray thy voyce, and with her fethers shal she bewray thy wordes.

The. xi. Chapter.

1. To be liberal to the poore. 4. Not to doubte of Gods prouidence. 8. Al worldlye prosperitie is but vanitie. 9. God wyl iudge al.

1 LAY (a) thy bread vppon wet faces, & so shalt thou find it after many dayes.

2 (b) Geue part seuen dayes, and also vpon the eight: for thou knowest not what misserie shal come vpon earth.

3 When the cloudes are full, they powre out raine vpon the earth. (c) And whe the tree falleth, whether it be towarde the south or north, in what place so euer it fal, there that haue neede, without respecte of person. state man dyeth, in that shal he be iudged at the iudgement.

4 He that regardeth the wynde, shall not sowe: and he that hath respect vnto the cloudes, shal not reape.

5 Howe lyke as thou knowest not the way of the spirite, nor howe the bones do grow in the wombe of her that is with chylde: euen so thou knowest not the works of god, which is the workemaister of al.

6 Cease not thou therfore with thy handes to sowe thy seede, whether it be in the morning or in the euening: for thou knowest not whether this or that shal prosper, and yf they both take, it is the better.

7 The lyght is sweete, and a pleasant thing is it for the eyes to looke vpon the sunne.

8 If a man liue many yeres, and be glad in them al, let him remember the dayes of darknesse which shal be many, and that foloweth: Al thynges shalbe but vanitie.

9 Be glad then (O thou young man) in thy youth, & let thy hart be merie in thy young dayes, folowe the wayes of thyne owne hart, and the lust of thyne eyes, (d) but be thou sure that God shal bryng thee into iudgement for al these thynges.

The. xii. Chapter.

1. To thinke on God in youth, and not to defer tyl age. 7. The soule returneth to God. 12. Wysdome is the gyfte of God, and consysteth in fearyng hym, and keepyng his commaundementes.

1 PVt away displeasure out of thine hart, and remoue euyll from thy body: for chyldhood and youth is but vanitie.

2 Remember thy maker the sooner in thy youth, or euer the daies of aduersitie come, and or the yeres drawe nygh when thou shalt say, I haue no pleasure in them.

3 Before the sunne, the lyght, the moone, and starres be darkned, and or the cloudes turne agayne after the rayne:

4 (a) When the keepers of the house shall tremble, and when the (b) strong men shal bowe them selues, when the (c) mylners stand stil because they be so few, and when the (d) syght of the wyndowes shall ware dymme:

5 When the (e) doores of the streetes shall be shut, and when the (f) voyce of the mylner shalbe laide downe, when men shal rise vp at the voyce of (g) the byrde, and when all the (h) daughters of musicke shalbe brought lowe:

6 When men shal feare (i) in hygh places, and be afrayde (k) in the streetes, when the (l) Almonde tree shall florishe and be laden with the (m) grashopper, & when al lust

(d) So behaue thee selfe in all worldly affayres, that thou remembrest alwayes the accompt that thou must make to God for the same at the day of iudgement.

7 (p) Or euer the ſiluer lace be taken away, and or the (q) golden wel be broken: Or the (r) pot be broken at the (s) well, & the (t) wheele broken vpon the (v) ciſterne.

8 Then ſhal the duſt be turned againe vnto earth from whence it came, and the ſpirite ſhal returne vnto God who gaue it.

9 All is but vanitie (ſayth the Preacher) all is but playne vanitie.

10 The Preacher was yet more wyſe, and taught y people knowledge, he gaue good heede, ſought out the ground, and ſet forth many parables: his diligence was to finde out acceptable wordes, right ſcripture, and the wordes of trueth.

11 For the wordes of the wyſe are lyke pickes and nayles that goe through, of the (x) authours of gearheerynges (whiche) are geuen of one Shephearde.

12 Therfore beware my ſonne of that doctrine that is beſide this: for to make many bookes, it is an endleſſe worke: & to much ſtudie wearieth the body.

13 Let vs heare the concluſion of al things. Feare God, and kepe his commaundementes: for that toucheth al men. For God ſhal iudge al workes and ſecrete things, whether they be good or euyl.

(x) Authours of gearheerynges he calleth wiſe men, becauſe they gearher the ſayinges of the wyſe ſort of men in their bookes.

¶ The Ballet of Ballets of Solomon, called in Latine, Canticum Canticorum.

The firſt Chapter.

I. The familier talke and myſtical communication of the ſpiritual loue betweene Ieſus Chriſte and his Charche. 6. The domeſticall enimies that perſecute the Churche.

A 1 (a) The Church deſyreth the peace of Chriſte.

THAT (a) he would kyſſe me with the kyſſes of his mouth: for thy loue is more pleaſaunt then wyne, and that becauſe of ỹ good and pleaſaunt ſauour of thy moſte precious baulmes.

(b) Chriſtes mercie is ſet foorth by preachyng.
(c) The maidens, that is, they that are pure in hart.
(d) Blacke, through the ſpottes of ſinne and perdicion.
(e) Fayre, through faith in the blood of Chriſte.

2 (b) Thy name is a ſweete ſmelling ointment when it is ſhed foorth, therefore doo the (c) maydens loue thee.

3 Drawe thou me (vnto thee) we wyll run after thee. The king hath brought me into his priuie chambers: We wyl be glad and reioyce in thee, we thynke more of thy loue then of wyne: they that be righteous loue thee.

4 (d) I am blacke (O ye daughters of Hieruſalem) but yet (e) fayre and wel fauoured, like as the tentes of the Cedarenes, and as the hangynges of Solomon.

5 Maracile not at me that I am (a blacke, for why? the ſunne hath ſhyned vpon me: my mothers children haue ruyl wyl at me, they made me the keper of the vineyardes, but myne owne vineyard haue I not kept.

6 Tel me, O thou whom my ſoule loueth, where thou feedeſt the sheepe, where thou makeſt them reſt at the noone day: for why ſhal I be lyke him that goeth wyong about the flockes of thy companions?

7 If thou knowe not thee ſelfe, (O thou fayreſt among women) then goe thy way foorth after the (f) foote ſteps of the sheepe, and feede thy goates beſyde the Shepheardes tentes.

8 Vnto the hoſt of Pharaos charrets haue I compared thee, O my loue.

9 Thy cheekes and thy necke is beautifull as the turtles, & hanged with ſpanges and goodly ietwelles, a neckbande of golde wyl we make thee, with ſyluer buttons.

10 (g) When the kyng ſytteth at the table, he ſhall ſmell my Nardus: a bundell of Myrrhe is my loue vnto me, he wyl lye betwixt my breſtes: a cluſter of Camphire in the vineyardes of Engaddi is my loue vnto me.

11 Oh how faire art thou my loue, Oh how fayre art thou? thou haſt doues eyes. O howe fayre art thou my beloued, howe wel fauoured knowest art thou?

13 Our bed is decke with flowres, the ceelinges of our houle are of Cedar tree, and our croſſe joyntes of Cypreſſe.

The.ii.Chapter.

3. The churche deſireth to reſt vnder the ſhadowe of Chriſte. 8. She heareth his voyce. 14. She is compared to the doue. 15. And the enimies to the foxes.

1 I Am the roſe of the freelde, and lylie of the valleys.

2 (a) As the lylie among the thornes: ſo is my loue among the daughters.

3 (b) Like as the apple tree among the trees of the wood: ſo is my beloued among the ſonnes.

My delight is to ſyt vnder his ſhadowe, for (c) his fruite is ſweete vnto my throte.

4 He bringeth me into his owne celler, his banner ſpread ouer me, which is his loue.

5 Comfort me with apples, for I am ſicke of loue.

6 His left hande lyeth vnder my head, and his right hande ſhal imbrace me.

7 (d) I charge you (O ye daughters of Hieruſalem) by the Roes & hindes of the freld, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, tyl ſhe be content her ſelfe.

8 Hark thinke I heare the voyce of my beloued: loe, there commeth he hopping vpon the mountaynes, and leaping ouer the litle hylles.

9 My beloued is like a Roe or a young hart: beholde he ſtandeth behinde (e) our wall, he looketh in (f) at the wyndowe, and perpeth thiough the grate.

10 My beloued anſwered and ſayde vnto me, O ſtande vp my loue, my beautiful, and come to thyne owne: (g) for loe the winter is nowe paſt, the rayne is away and gone.

11 (h) The flowres are come vp in the freelde, the tyme of the birdes ſinging is come, and the (i) voyce of the turtle doue is heard in our lande.

12 The figge tree bringeth forth her figges, and the vines beare bloſſomes, and haue a good ſmel.

13 O ſtande vp then, and come my loue, my beautiful, (and come I ſay) O my doue, out of the caues of the rockes, out of the holes of the wal, O let me ſee thy countenance and heare thy voyce: for ſweete is thy voyce, and fayre is thy face.

14 Geat vs (k) the foxes, yea the litle foxes that hurte the vines: for our vines beare bloſſomes.

15 My loue is mine, and I am his, whiche ſeedeth among the lilies vntil the day breake, and tyle the ſhadowes be gone:

16 (l) Come againe, O my beloued, and be lyke a Roe or a young hart vpon the wede mountaynes.

17

(l) The churche prayeth Chriſte to be a preſent helpe alwayes in time of nede

The.iii.Chapter.

1. The churche deſireth to be ioyned inſeparably to Chriſte her huſbande. 6. Her deliuerance out of the wyldernesſe.

1 BY (a) nyght in my bedde I ſought hym whom my ſoule loueth: yea diligently ſought I him, but I founde hym not.

2 I will geat vp (thought I) (b) and goe about the citie, in the wayes in al the ſtreetes wyll I ſeeke hym whom my ſoule loueth: but when I ſought him, I founde him not.

3 The watchmen alſo that goe about the citie founde me (to whom I ſayde) Saw ye not hym whom my ſoule loueth?

4 So when I was a litle paſt them, I founde hym whom my ſoule loueth, I haue gotten holde vpon hym, and wyll not let hym goe, vntyl I bring hym into my mothers houſe, and into her chamber that bare me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, by the Roes and hindes of the feelde, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, tyl ſhe be content her ſelfe. Cant.2.b.

6 Who is this that commeth vp out (c) of the wildernesſe lyke vapours of ſmoke, as it were a ſmell of Myrrhe, Frankencenſe, and al manner ſpices of the Apotecarie?

7 Beholde, about (d) Solomons bedſtede there ſtande threeſcore valiant, of the moſte mightie in Iſrael: they holde ſwordes euery one, and are expert in warre.

...swete thynges.
14 His lippes are like lylies that drop swete smelling Myrre: his handes are like golde rynges, hauing inclosed the precious stone Thersis.
15 His body is as the pure yuorie, decked ouer with Saphires: his legges are as the pilles of Marble set vpon sockettes of golde.
16 His face is as Libanus, and as the beautie of the Cedar trees.
17 The wordes of his mouth are swete, yea he is altogether louely: Suche is my dere, and he is my loue. O ye daughters of Hierusalem, suche a one is my louer.

The.vi. Chapter.

2. The Churche assureth her selfe of the loue of Christe. 9. The prayse of the Churche.
8. She is but one and vndefiled.

1 WHyther is thy loue gone then, O thou fairest among women? whyther is thy loue departed? and we wyll seeke him with thee?
2 (a) My loue is gone downe into his garden vnto the swete smelling beddes, that he may refreshe him selfe in the garden, and gather Lylies.
3 My loue is myne, and I am his, which feedeth among the Lylies.
4 Thou art beautiful, O my loue, as the (e) place Thirza, thou art fayre as Hierusalem, fearefull as an armie of men with their banners.
5 Turne away thyne eyes from me, for they * haue set me on fyre: thy heary lockes are lyke a flocke of Goates hoynt vpon the mount of Gilead.
6 Thy teeth are lyke a flocke of shorne sheepe, whiche goe out of the washing place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitefull among them.
7 Thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thy locks of heare.
8 (b) There are threescore queenes, foure score wiues, and damsels without number.
9 (c) One is my doue, one is my darlyng: she is the only beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When the daughters sawe her, they sayd she was blessed, yea the queenes and wyues praysed her.
10 What is she this that looketh forth as the morning, fayre as the noone, cleare as the sunne, and feareful as an armie of men with their banners?
11 (d) I went downe into the nut garden to see what grew by the brookes, and to looke if the vineyarde flourished, or if the pomegranates were not forth.
12 I knewe not that my soule had made me the charyot of the people that be vnder tribute.
13 Turne agayne, turne agayne, O thou perfect one, turne againe, turne againe, and we wyl looke vpon thee: What wyll ye see in the (e) Sulamite? She is lyke menne of warre singing in a company.

The.vii. Chapter.

1. The beautie of the Churche in all her members. 10. She is assured of Christes loue towardes her.

1 O Howe pleasaunt are thy treadinges with thy shoes thou princes daughter! the ioyntes of thy thighes are like a fayre iewell, whiche is wrought by a cunning workemaister.
2 Thy (a) nauill is lyke a rounde goblet, whiche is neuer without drinke.
3 Thy belly is like a heape of wheate that is set about with Lylies.
4 (c) Thy two brestes are like two twinnes of young Roes.
5 (d) Thy necke is as it were a towre of yuorie: thyne (e) eyes also are like the water poules that are in Hesebon, beside the port of Bath rabbim, thy (f) nose is lyke the tower of Libanus, which looketh towardes Damascus.
6 That head that standeth vppon thee is like Carmel, and the heare of thy head is lyke purple, and like a king dwelling among many water conduites.
7 O howe fairest louely art thou my darling in pleasures!
8 Thy stature is like a (g) Paulme tree, and thy brestes lyke the grapes.
9 I said, I wil climbe vp into the Paulme tree, and take holde of his high branches.
10 Thy brestes also shalbe as the wine clusters, the smel of thy noselethyrles like as the smel of apples.
11 And thy rooffe of thy mouth like the best wine, whiche is meete for my best beloued, pleasant for his lippes, and for his teethe to chawe.
12 I am my beloueds, and he shal turne him vnto me.
13 O comme on my loue, we wyll goe forth into the feelde, and take our lodging in the villages.
14 (h) In the morning wyl we goe see the vineyarde, we wyl see if the vine be sprong forth, if the grapes be growen, and if the pomegranates be shut out.
15 (i) There wyl I geue thee my brestes: the Mandragoras geue their swete smel, and

(e) Sulamite, that is, Hierusalem, the whiche was Shalem, that signifieth peace.

(a) Thy nauel is replenished with the riche knowledge of Gods worde and heauenly desyres.
(b) The Churche is ful of spiritual treasures.
(c) The two testamentes commeth from God, and they be of equal authoritie.
(d) The preachers ought to be pure.
(e) The magistrates must be well instructed in the worde of God.
(f) The iudges of good and euyl.
(g) The Church doth encrease the more it is persecuted.
(h) Christe wyl call them that professe his worde, to accompt what fruite they doo bryng.
(i) God geueth his graces to the faythful the whiche he in his Church.

beſyde our dooꝛes are all maner of pleaſant fruites both newe and olde, whiche I haue kept for thee, O my beloued.

The .viii. Chapter.

2. The Churche wyl be taught by Chriſte. 3. She is vpholden by hym. 6. The vehement loue wherewith Chriſte loueth her. 11. She is the vine that bryngeth foorth fruite to the (piriual Solomon, whiche is Iheſus Chriſt.

8 I (a) O That I might fynde thee without, & kiſſe thee, whom I loue as my brother whiche ſucke my mothers breſtes, and that thou ſhalt not be deſpiſed.

2 I wyll leade thee, and bring thee into my mothers houſe, that thou mighteſt teache me, and that I myght geue thee drinke of the ſpiced wine, and of the ſweete iuyce of my pomegranates.

3 His (b) leafte hand ſhalbe vnder my head, and his right hande ſhal imbrace me.

4 I charge you O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, that ye wake not by my loue, nor touche her, tyl he be content her ſelfe.

5 (What is he this that commeth vp from the wyldernes, & leaneth vpon her loue?) I wake thee vp amonge the apple trees where thy mother conceyued thee, where thy mother (I ſay) brought thee into the worlde.

6 (c) O ſet me as a ſeale vppon thyne hart, and as a ſeale vppon thine armes: for loue is mightie as the death, and iealouſie as the hell.

7 Her coales are coales of fyre, and a very vehement flame (of the Lorde.) So that many waters are not able to quenche loue, neyther may the ſtreames ouerwhelme it: yea yf a man wolde geue all the good of his houſe for loue, he ſhoulde count it nothyng.

8 (d) Our ſiſter is but young, and hath no breſtes: what ſhall we doo for our ſiſter when ſhe ſhalbe ſpoken for?

9 (e) If ſhe be a wall, we ſhall builde a ſyluer bulwarke theruppon: if ſhe be a dooꝛe, we ſhall faſten her with boordes of Cedar trees.

10 I am a wall, and my breſtes like towres, then was I as one that hath founde fauour in his ſyght.

11 Solomon hath a vineyarde at Baalhamon, and this vineyarde deliuered he vnto the keepers, that euery one ſhal the fruite therof ſhoulde geue him a thouſand pecces of ſyluer.

12 My vineyarde whiche is myne, is in my ſyght: thou (O Solomon) muſt haue a (f) thouſande, and the keepers two hundred, whiche keepe the fruite.

13 Thou that dwelleſt in the gardens, O let me heare thy voyce, that my companyons may hearken to the ſame.

14 O geat thee away my loue, and be as a Roe or a young Hart vppon the ſweete ſmelling mountaynes.

(a) The fathers of the olde teſtament deſyreth to ſee the incarnation of Chriſt.

(b) His gratious fauour ſhal preſerue me from diſperation in aduerſitie, and from preſumptiõ in proſperitie.

(c) The Churche deſyreth to be ioyned vnto Chriſt by the ſeale of the holy ghoſt.

(d) The Iewiſh Church ſpeaketh this of the Churche of the gentiles, the whiche wanted both the ſtameyns,

(e) The apoſtles preached to them the vocacion of God to ſaluation,

(f) By this thouſande is ſignified the greateſt perfection, whiche is obteyned by the grace of God, and not by our merites.

¶ The ende of the ballet of ballettes of Solomon, called in Latine, Canticum Canticorum.

¶ The booke of the Prophete Esai.

¶ The first Chapter.

2. The prophete accuseth the sinnes of the people, namely of ingratefulnesse, stubburnesse. 11. faythlesse seruice of God, 24. and sheweth Gods terrible iudgement agaynst them vnlesse they repent.

(a) A reuelation or prophecie.

1 THE (a) vision of Esai the sonne of Amos, which he saw vpon Iuda and Hierusalem, in the dayes of Azia and Ioathan, Achaz and Ezekiah, kynges of Iuda.

a, Iehoas.

2 Heare O heauens, and hearken O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I haue nourished and brought vp children, and they haue done vnfaythfully agaynst me.

3 The oxe hath knowen his owner, and the Asse his maisters cribbe: (but) Israel hath not knowen, my people hath geuen no heede.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquitie, a seede of the wycked, corrupt chyldren: they haue forsaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, they are gone backwarde.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? (for) ye are euer falling away: euery head is diseased, and euery hart heauie.

6 From the sole of the foote vnto the head there is nothing sound in it (but) woundes, blaynes, and putrifying sore: they haue not ben salued, neyther wrapped vp, neyther mollified with the oyntment.

7 Your land is wasted, your cities are burnt vp, strangers deuoure your lande before your face, and it is made desolate, as it were the destruction of enimies (in the ryme of warre.)

8 And the daughter of Sion shalbe left as a cotage in a vineyarde, like a lodge in a garden of Cucumbers, like a besieged citie.

9 Except the Lorde of hostes had left vs a small remnant, we shoulde haue ben as Sodoma, and lyke vnto Gomorra.

10 Heare the worde of the Lorde ye lordes of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the lawe of our God thou people of Gomorra.

11 Why offer ye so many sacrifices vnto me wyl the Lorde say? I am ful of the burnt offerynges of weathers, and of the fatnesse of fedde beastes, (b) I haue no pleasure in the blood of bullockes, lambes, and goates.

(b) God hateth all maner of seruice and workes, see me they neuer so good, & holy, when they be done without fayth & pureneſse of mynde.

12 When ye come to appeare before me, treading in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes?

13 Offer me no mo oblations, for it is but lost labour: incense is an abominable thing vnto me, I may not away with your newe moones, your sabbothes, and solemne meetynges, your solemne assemblies are wicked.

14 I hate your newe moones and appoynted feastes euen from my very hart, they make me weery, I can not abyde them.

15 When ye holde out your handes, I wyll turne mine eyes from you: and though ye make many prayers, yet wyl I heare nothyng at al, seeyng your handes are full of blood.

16 Washe you, make you cleane, put away your euyl thoughtes out of my syght: ceasse from doyng of euyl,

17 Learne to do wel, apply your selues to equitie, deliuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his ryght, let the wyddowes complaint come before you:

18 And then goe to, sayth the Lorde, let vs talke together: though your sinnes be as redde as scarlet, they shalbe as whyte as snowe: and though they were lyke purple, they shalbe as white as wool.

19 If ye be wylling and obedient, ye shal eate the good of the lande:

20 But yf ye be obstinate and rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the swoorde: for the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken (it.)

21 Howe happeneth it then that the faythful citie whiche was ful of equitie, is become (vnfaythful) as a whoore? Righteousnesse dwelt in it, but nowe murderers.

22 Thy syluer is turned to dosse, and thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are wycked and companions of theeues: they loue gyftes altogether, and gape for rewardes: As for thy fatherlesse they helpe hym not to his ryght, neyther wyl they let the wyddowes cause come before them.

24 Therfore ſayth the Lord God of hoſtes, the mightie one of Iſrael: Ah I muſt eaſe me of myne enimies, and auenge me of myne aduerſaries.

25 And I ſhal lay my hande vpon ther, and purely purge away thy droſſe, & take away al thy tinne:

26 And ſet thy iudges agayne as they were ſometime, and thy ſenatours as they were from the beginning: and then thou ſhalt be called the ryghteous citie, the faythful citie.

27 Sion ſhalbe redeemed with equitie, and her conuertes with ryghteouſneſſe.

C 28 But the tranſgreſſours, and the vngodly, and ſuch as forſake the Lorde, ſhal altogether be vtterly deſtroyed.

29 For ye ſhalbe confounded for the trees whiche ye haue deſyred: and ye ſhalbe aſhamed of the gardens that ye haue choſen.

30 For ye ſhalbe as a tree whoſe leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moyſtneſſe.

31 And the very ſtrong one (of your idols) ſhalbe as towe, and the maker of it as a ſparke (of fire) and they ſhal both burne together, and no man quenche them.

The.ii. Chapter.

I. A propheſie of Chriſte and his kyngdome. 12. Pryde, couetouſneſſe, ſuperſtition, and idolatrie are reproued. 17. Gods terrible iudgement agaynſt theſe.

A 1 THE ſelfe ſame worde that Eſai the ſonne of Amos ſawe vpon Juda and Hieruſalem.

2 And (this) ſhal come to paſſe in the latter dayes, The (a) hyl of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe prepared in the heigth of ỹ mountaynes, and ſhalbe higher then the hylles, and all nations ſhal preaſſe vnto hym.

(a) Chriſte, his Churche & his word.

3 And a multitude of people ſhall goe, ſpeakyng (thus one to another,) Come, let vs aſſende to the hyl of the Lorde, to the houſe of the God of Jacob, and he wyll inſtruct vs of his wayes, and we wyll walke in his pathes: for out of Sion ſhal come a lawe, and the worde of the Lorde from Hieruſalem:

4 And ſhal geue ſentence among the heathen, and ſhal reſourme the multitude of people: they ſhal breake their ſwords alſo into mattockes, and their ſpeares to make ſithes: And one people ſhal not lyft vp a weapon agaynſt another, neyther ſhal they learne to fyght from thenceforth.

5 Come ye, O houſe of Jacob, and let vs walke in the lyght of the Lorde:

6 For thou haſt forſaken thy people the houſe of Jacob, (b) becauſe they be repleniſhed (with euils) from the eaſt, and with ſoothſayers lyke the Philiſtines, and in ſtrange chyldren they thynke them ſelues to haue ynough.

(b) The cauſes why God forſaketh his people is, idolatrie, heathenyſhe ſuperſtition, couetouſneſſe, and truſt in other thinges then in god alone.

7 Their lande is full of ſyluer and golde, neyther is there any ende of their treaſure: their lande is alſo ful of hoſſes, and no ende is there of their charrets.

8 Their lande alſo is ful of vayne goddes, and before the worke of their owne handes they haue bowed them ſelues, yea euen before the thyng that their owne fingers haue made.

B

9 There kneeleth the man, there falleth the man downe (before them:) therfore forgeue them not.

10 Get thee into the rocke, and hyde thee in the ground, for feare of the Lord, and for the glory of his maieſtie.

11 The high lookes of man ſhalbe brought lowe, and the hautineſſe of men ſhalbe bowed downe: and the Lorde alone ſhalbe exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the Lorde of hoſtes (ſhalbe) vpon all the proude, loftie, and vpon all that is exalted, and he ſhalbe brought lowe.

13 And vpon al high and ſtout Cedar trees of Libanus, and vpon all the Okes of Baſan.

14 And vpon al the high mountaynes, and C vpon al the high hilles,

15 And vpon euery high towre, and vpon euery fenced wall,

16 And vpon al the ſhippes of Tharſis, and vpon al pyctures of pleaſure.

17 And the pryde of man ſhalbe brought downe, & the loftineſſe of men ſhalbe made lowe, and the Lorde alone ſhalbe exalted in that day.

18 As for the idolles he ſhall vtterly abolyſhe:

19 And they ſhal creepe into holes of ſtone, and into caues of the earth, for feare of the Lorde, and for the glory of his maieſtie, when he ariſeth to deſtroy (the wycked ones of) the earth.

20 In the ſelfe ſame day ſhal man caſt away his goddes of ſiluer, and his goddes of golde into the holes of Powles & Backes, which he neuertheleſſe had made to him ſelfe to honour them.

21 And they ſhall creepe into the clefftes of D the rockes, and into the toppes of the harde ſtones, for feare of the Lorde, and for the glory of his maieſtie, when he ariſeth to to destroy (the wicked ones of) the earth.

22 Cease therefore from man, in whose nostrilles there is breath: for wherein is he to be accompted of?

The. iii. Chapter.

1. The mischeefes that god sendeth on common weales for the contempt of his word. 14. The couetousnesse of rulers reprooued. 16. The proude niceneſſe of women punished to their shame.

1 FOr loe, the Lorde God of hoastes dooth take away from Hierusalem and Juda al maner of stay, all stay of meate and drinke.
2 The captayne and the souldier, the iudge and the prophete, the (a) prudent and the aged man,
3 The captains of fifte and the honourable, the senatour, the cunning artificer, and the eloquent oratour.
4 And I shal geue children to be their princes, and babes shal rule ouer them.
5 And the people shall eche one of them violently oppresse another, and euery one agaynst his neighbour: The boy shall presume agaynst the elder, and the person of lowe degree agaynst the honourable.
6 Yea one shal take a freende of his owne kinrede by the bosome, and say, Thou hast clothyng, thou shalt be our head, and stay this ruine with thy hande.
7 Then shal he sweare and say, I can not helpe you: there is neither meate nor cloathing in my house, make me no ruler of the people.
8 For Hierusalem and Juda must decay: because that both their woordes and counsailes are agaynst the Lorde, to prouoke the presence of his maiestie to anger.
9 Their verye countenaunce bewrayeth them, yea they declare their owne sinnes (them selues) as Sodome, they hide it not: Wo be to their owne soules, for they haue rewarded euyl vnto them selues.
10 Say to the righteous that it shal goe wel with them: for they shall eate the fruite of their owne studies.
11 (But) wo be vnto the wicked, for it shalbe euyl with him: for he shalbe rewarded after his owne woorkes.
12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my people, thy leaders deceyue thee, and corrupt the way of thy footesteppes.
13 The Lord is here to commune of the matter, and standeth to iudge the people.
14 The lord shal enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, (and shal say to them,) It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the spoyle of the poore is in your houses.
15 What meane ye that ye bray (as in a morter) my people, and grinde the faces of the poore, sayth the Lorde God of hoastes?
16 Moreouer, the Lorde hath sayde, Seeing the daughters of Sion are waxen proude, and walke with stretched foorth neckes, and wanton lookes, going and tripping nicely, and tinckling with their feete:
17 Therefore shal the Lorde shaue the heads of the daughters of Sion, and shall discouer their filthinesse.
18 In that day shall the Lorde take away the gorgiousnesse of ỹ attyre about their feete, and the cawles, and the rounde tyres (after the fashion of the Moone,) 19 The sweete perfumes, and the bracelets, and the mufflers, 20 The bonnettes, and the sloppes, and the head bandes, and the tablets, and the earinges,
21 And rynges, and nose iewels,
22 The costly apparell, and the vayles, and the wymples, and the crisping pinnes, 23 And the glasses, and the fyne linnen, and the hoodes, and the lawnes.
24 And in stede of good sinell, there shalbe stinke, and in stede of their girdle a rent, and for wel set heare there shalbe baldnesse, in stede of a stomacher, a sackcloth, and (sunne) burning for beautie.
25 Thy men shal perishe with the swoorde, and thy valiant souldiers in the batayle, (O Hierusalem.)
26 And her gates shal mourne and bewayle: and she beyng desolate, shal syt vppon the grounde.

(a) The prudent, that is, such as can foresee by their prudence things to come.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1. The miserie of the stubburne. 3. A promise of Gods fauour to the residue.

1 IN that day seuen women shal take holde of one man, sayeing: We wyl fynde our selues meate and apparel: onely let vs be called by thy name, to take our shamefull reproofe (from vs.)
2 (a) In that day shal the budde of the lord be beautiful and glorious, and the fruite of the earth shalbe excellent and pleasant for them that are escaped of Israel.
3 Then shal the remnaunt in Sion, and the remnaunt at Hierusalem be called holy: (namely) al suche as are written among the liuyng in Hierusalem.
4 (b) After that the Lord hath washe away the filthynesse of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out from Hierusalem

(a) The incarnation of Christ, is the ioy of the faithfull.
(b) They are saued whose sinnes are remitted and washt away with the blood of Christ.

ſalem in the ſpirite of iudgement, and in the ſpirite of fyre.

5 And vpon all the dwellinges of the hilles of Sion, and vpon her congregations, the Lorde ſhall create a cloude and ſmoke by day, and the ſhining of a flaming fyre by nyght: for all the (c) glory ſhalbe preſerued.

(c) Chriſte wyl preſerue and defende the glory, that is, the faythful in al troubles and temptations.

6 And there ſhalbe a tabernacle for a ſhadowe in the day time from the heate, and a ſafe place and refuge from weather and rayne.

The v. Chapter.

I. Of Chriſte and his vineyarde, 8. with an execration of couetouſneſſe, 11. drunkenneſſe, 19. and contempt of Gods woorde.

A 1 NOw wyll I ſyng my beloued freend, a ſong of my freende touching his vineyarde. My beloued freend hath a vineyarde in a verye fruitefull plenteous grounde.

2 This he hedged, and geathered out the ſtones from it, & planted it with the choyſeſt vine: In the middeſt of it buylded he a towre, alſo made a wine preſſe therein: (a) and he looked that it ſhould bring him grapes, and it brought footh wild grapes.

(a) God looketh to receiue of his people the thankful fruites of fayth, & not the vnpleaſant woorkes of faythleſſe ingratitude.

3 Now O citezin of Hieruſalem, and man of Iuda, iudge, I pray ther, betwixt me and my vinearde.

4 What more coulde haue benne donne for it, that I haue not donne? Wherefore then hath it gruen wyld grapes, where I looked to haue had grapes of it?

5 Wel, now I ſhal tell you how I wyl doo with my vineyarde: I wyl take the hedge from it that it may periſhe, & breake downe the wall thereof, that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I wyl lay it waſte, it ſhal neither be digged nor cut, but beare thornes and bryers: I wyl alſo forbid the cloudes that they ſhal not rayne vpon it.

7 As for the vineyard of the lord of hoaſtes, B it is the houſe of Iſrael: and the man of Iuda, the plant of his pleaſure: Of theſe he looked for equitie, but lee there is oppreſſion for righteouſneſſe, and loe it is a crying.

8 Wo vnto them that ioyne one houſe to another, and bryng one lande ſo nygh vnto another, that there is no more place: Wyll ye be placed alone in the middeſt of the earth?

9 Theſe thinges are in the eares of the lord of hoaſtes: of a trueth great and fayre houſes ſhalbe without any dweller in them.

10 And tenne acres of vines ſhall geue but a quart, and thirtie buſhelles of ſeede ſhall geue but an Epha.

11 Wo be vnto them that ryſe vp early to folowe dronkenneſſe, continuing vntil night, tyl they be ſet on fyre with wine.

12 In their feaſtes are harpes and lutes, tabrettes and pipes, and wyne: but they regarde not the woorke of the Lord, and conſyder not the operation of his handes.

13 Therefore commeth my folke into captiuitie, becauſe they haue no vnderſtanding: (b) their glory is famiſhed with hunger, and their multitude dryed vp with thirſte.

(b) Their glory, their noble, & honorable perſonages.

14 Therefore gapeth hell and openeth her mouth maruelous wyde, that their glory, multitude, and wealth, with ſuche as reioyce in her, may deſcende into it.

15 Thus hath man a fall & is brought lowe, and the high looke of the proude ſhalbe laid downe.

16 But the Lorde of hoaſtes ſhalbe exalted in iudgement, and god that is holy is ſanctifyed in righteouſneſſe.

17 Then ſhall the ſheepe eate as they were wont, and the riche mens waſtes ſhall (c) ſtraungers deuoure.

(c) Gods chyldren, as though they were ſtraungers, miſerably deale withal by the oppreſſion of the couetous, ſhal ſuffer a tyme repoſſeſſe & enioy the landes and goods, which the couetous oppreſſours ſhalbe conſtrayned to forſake and leaue as waſte.

18 Wo be vnto them that drawe wickednes with cordes of vanitie, and ſinne as it were with a cart rope.

19 Whiche vſe to ſpeake on this manner, Let him make ſpeede & haſten his woorke, that we may ſee it: let the counſayle of the holy one of Iſrael come and drawe nigh, that we may knowe it.

20 Wo be vnto them that call euyl good, and good euyll, whiche make darkeneſſe lyght, and light darkneſſe, that make ſowre ſweete, and ſweete ſowre.

21 Wo be vnto them that are wyſe in their owne ſyght, and thinke them ſelues to haue vnderſtandyng.

22 Wo be vnto them that are ſtrong to ſuppe out wine, and expert menne to ſet vp dronkenneſſe.

23 Wo be vnto them that geue ſentence with the vngodly for rewardes, but condempne the iuſt cauſe of the righteous.

24 Therefore lyke as fyre licketh vp the ſtrawe, and as the flame conſumeth the ſtubble: euen ſo their roote ſhalbe as corruption, and their bloſſome ſhal vaniſhe away like duſt: for they haue caſt away the lawe of the Lorde of hoaſtes, and deſpiſed the woorde of the holy one of Iſrael.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lorde kyndled againſt his people, and hath ſtretched footh his hande vppon them, yea he hath ſmytten them: and the hilles dyd tremble, and their carkaſes did lye ſtorne in the open ſtreetes: and in al this the wrath of God hath not cralled, but his hand ſtretched out ſtyl.

of

26 And he ſhal geue a token to a people of a farre countrey, and ſhal hyſſe vnto them from the ende of the earth: and behold, they ſhal come haſtily with ſpeede.

27 There ſhal not be one faynt nor feeble among them, no not a ſluggiſh or ſleepie perſon: there ſhal not one of them put of his girdle from his loynes, nor loose the latchet of his ſhoe.

28 His arowes are ſharpe, and al his bowes bent: his horſe hooſes are as flynt, and his cart wheeles like a whyrle wynde.

29 His crye is as it were of a Lion, and he roareth like Lions whelpes: they ſhal roare and hant the vp the pray, and no man ſhal recouer it, nor geat it from them.

30 In that day he ſhalbe ſo fierce vpon him, as the ragyng of the ſea: then one ſhal beholde the (d) lande, and loe, darkeneſſe and ſorow, and the lyght is darkned in the heauens thereof.

(d) The lande of Iuda ſhalbe ouerwhelmed with miſerable affliction.

The. vi. Chapter.

Eſai ſawe the glory of the Lorde. 9. And was ſent to propheſie the deſolation of Iurie.

1 IN the yere that king Oziah dyed, I ſawe alſo the Lorde ſyttyng vpon an hygh and glorious ſeate, and his trayne fylled the temple.

2 And about him ſtoode Seraphims, whereof one had ſyxe winges, with twayne eche couered his face, with twaine his feete, and with twaine dyd he flee.

3 They cryed alſo eche one to another on this maner: Holy, holy, holy is the Lorde of hoſtes, the whole earth is ful of his glory.

4 And the lyntels of the dooze cheekes moued at his cryeing, and the houſe was ful of ſmoke.

5 Then ſayde I, Woe is me, for I am loſt, in as muche as I am a man of vncleane lyppes, and dwel among people that hath vncleane lyppes alſo: for myne eyes haue ſeene the king the Lorde of hoſtes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me, hauyng a hot cole in his hande, whiche he had taken from the aulter with the tongues,

7 And layde it vpon my mouth, and ſayde, loe, (this) hath touched thy (a) lyppes, and thine vnrighteouſneſſe ſhalbe taken away, and thy ſinne forgeuen.

8 Alſo I hearde the voyce of the Lorde on this maner, Whom ſhal I ſende, and who wyl be our meſſenger? Then I ſayde, Here am I, ſende me.

(a) Gods ſacramentes are not bare ſygnes but with the ſygne and the worde, the inner ſygnifyed, is exhibited to the worthy.

9 And he ſayde, Goe and tel this people: Heare in deede, yet vnderſtande not: ſee playnely, and yet perceyue not.

10 Harden the hart of this people, ſtop their eares, and ſhut their eyes: leſt they ſee with their eyes, heare with their eares, and vnderſtande with their hartes, and conuert, and be healed.

11 Then ſpake I, Lorde, howe long? he anſwered, Until ỹ cities be vtterly waſted without inhabitantes, & the houſes without men, & til the land be alſo vtterly deſolate.

12 For the Lorde ſhal put the menne farre a way, and (there ſhalbe) great waſte in the middeſt of the lande.

13 Yet in it ſhal ſucceede ten kynges, and it ſhal returne, and be afterwarde waſted: (But) as the Teyle tree, and the Oke in the fall of theyr leaues, haue yet the ſappe remaynyng in them, (euen ſo,) the holy ſeede ſhalbe the ſtaye thereof. (b) Chriſte dwelling by fayth in his elect, who ſeme as dead in the ſtormy tymes of this worlde, is to them lyke & ſtay that they periſhe not.

The. vii. Chapter.

The Syrians moone batayle againſt Hieruſalem. 14. A virgin ſhal beare a chylde.

1 IT happened in the tyme of Ahaz the ſonne of Iotham, whiche was the ſonne of Vziah king of Iuda, that Razin the kyng of Syria, and Pecah the ſonne of Remeliah king of Iſrael, went vp toward Hieruſalem to beſiege it: but (Razin) was not able to wynne it. A

2 Nowe when the (a) houſe of Dauid heard wooyde thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was confederate togeather, his harte quaked, yea, and the hartes alſo of his people, like as when the trees of the wood are moued with the wynde. (a) Dauids houſe, that is, Ahaz.

3 Then ſayde God vnto Eſai, Goe meete Ahaz, thou, and thy ſonne Seare Iaſub, at the head of the ouer poole, in the foote path by the Fullers grounde.

4 And ſay vnto hym, Take heede vnto thee ſelfe, and be ſtyl, feare not, neyther be fayntharted: for theſe two tailes, that is, for theſe two ſmokyng fyrebrandes, the wrath and furiouſneſſe of Razin the Syrian, and Romelies ſonne:

5 Becauſe that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies ſonne, haue wickedly conſpyred againſt thee,

6 Saying, We wyl goe vp againſt Iuda, vexe them, and byring them vnder vs, and ſet a kyng there, euen the ſonne of Tabeel:

7 Thus ſayth the Lorde God thereto, It ſhal not ſo goe forth, neyther ſo come to paſſe.

8 For the head citie of the Syrians is Damaſcus, maſcus, but the head of Damaſcus is Razin: and after three ſcore and fiue yeres, ſhal Ephraim be no more a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but ꝯ head of Samaria is Romelies ſonne: if ye beleue not, ſurely ye ſhal not be eſtabliſhed.

The Epiſtle on the annunciation of Mary.

10 Moreouer, God ſpake againe vnto Ahaz, ſaying,

11 Require to thee ſelfe a token of the Lord thy God, whether it be towarde the depth beneath, or toward the height aboue.

12 Then ſaide Ahaz, I wyl require none, neither wyl I tempt the Lorde.

13 Then ſpake the prophete and ſweared, Then heare ye of the houſe of Dauid: Is it not ynough for you that ye be greeuous vnto men, but ye muſt greeue my God alſo?

¶ 14 Therefore the Lorde him ſelfe ſhal geue you a token: Behold, a virgin ſhal conceiue and beare a ſonne, and ſhal cal his name Emmanuel.

15 Butter and hony ſhal he eate, vntyl he knowe to refuſe the euyl, and chooſe the good.

16 For or euer the childe come to knowledge to eſchew the euyl, and chooſe the good, the lande that thou ſo abhorreſt, ſhalbe deſolate of both her kinges.

17 The Lorde alſo ſhall ſende a time vppon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers houſe, ſuche as neuer came ſince the tyme that Ephraim departed from Iuda, namely, through the king of the Aſſyrians.

18 For at the ſame time ſhal the Lorde hyſſe for the flyes that are about the water of Egypte, and for the bees in the Aſſyrians lande.

19 Theſe ſhal come, and ſhal light al in the deſolate valleyes, in the holes of ſtones, and vpon al thornie and buſhie places.

(b) The heare of the head, & the beard, the princes, and men of auctoritie. the feete, the common ſort of people.

20 At the ſame time ſhal the Lord ſhaue the (b) heare of the head, and the feete, and the beard cleane of, with the raſour that he ſhal hyre beyonde the waters: namely, with the king of the Aſſyrians.

21 At the ſame time ſhall a man nouriſhe a young cowe, and two ſheepe.

22 Then becauſe of the abundance of milke that they geue, he ſhal eate butter: ſo that euery one whiche remayneth in the lande, ſhal eate butter and hony.

23 At the ſame time al vineyardes wherin there ſhalbe a thouſande vines, worthy a thouſande ſyluerlynges, ſhalbe turned to bryers and thornes.

24 They ſhal come into the lande with arrowes and bowes, becauſe al the lande ſhal become bryers and thornes.

25 As for al hylles that ſhalbe digged with the mattocke, there ſhal not comme vppon them any feare of bryers and thornes: but the cattel ſhalbe driuen thither, & the ſheepe ſhal feede there.

The. viii. Chapter.

The delyuerance of the lande by Emmanuel, 14. The ſtone of offence, at whiche many ſhal ſtumble.

1 MOreouer, the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and write in it as men dooth with a pen, Shake haſtie ſpeede to rob, and haſte to the ſpoyle. A

2 And I called vnto me faythful witneſſes to recorde, Uriah the prieſt, and Zacharias the ſonne of Barachias.

3 After that, went I vnto the prophetiſſe, & ſhe conceiued, and bare a ſonne: Then ſaid the Lorde to me, Geue him his name, A ſpeedy robber, An haſtie ſpoyler.

4 For why? or euer the childe ſhal haue knowledge to crye my father and mother, ſhal the riches of Damaſcus, and the ſpoile of Samaria be taken away before the king of the Aſſyrians.

5 The Lord ſpake alſo vnto me agayne, ſaying,

6 For ſo muche as this people refuſeth the ſyl running water of Silo, and put their delight in Razin and Romelies ſonne:

7 Behold, the Lorde ſhal bring mighty and great floodes of water vpon them, namely, the king of the Aſſyrians with all his power, which ſhal climbe vp vpon al his floods, and runne ouer al his bankes, B

8 And ſhal breake in vppon Iuda, he ſhall flowe and paſſe through, tyl he come vp to the necke therof: he ſhal fil alſo the wyldernes of thy lande with his wynges, O Emmanuel.

(a) Many policie and deuice without God, preuayleth not.

9 Breake downe, O ye people, (a) and ye ſhalbe broken downe, hearken to, al ye of farre countreys, muſter you, and you ſhalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you ſhalbe tourne in peeces.

10 Take your counſaile tograther, yet ſhal your counſaile come to nought: determine the matter, yet ſhal it not proſper: for God is with vs.

(b) Affiance is to be put in God, and not in mans policie or helpe.

11 For the Lord ſpake thus to me in a mightie propheſie, (b) and warned me that I ſhoulde not walke in the way of this people, ſayeing,

12 Ye ſhal not ſpeake (woordes) of conſpiracie in al thinges when this people ſhal ſay conſpiracie: feare them not, neyther be afrayde of them:

13 But ſanctifie the Lorde of hoſtes, let hym hym be your feare and dread.

14 For he ſhalbe the holy place to flee to, and ſtone to tumble at, the rocke to fal vpon, a ſnare and net to both the houſes of Iſrael, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

15 And many among them ſhal ſtumble, and fal, and be broken, yea they ſhalbe ſnared and taken.

(c) The word of Chriſt

16 (c) Binde vp the teſtimonie, ſeale the lawe in my diſciples.

17 And I wyl wayte vppon the Lorde that hydeth his face from the houſe of Iacob, and I wyl looke for hym.

18 But loe, as for me and the children which the Lord hath geuen me, we are to be a token and a wonder in Iſrael from the Lord of hoſtes whiche dwelleth vpon the hyll of Sion.

19 And yf they ſay vnto you, Aſke counſell at the ſoothſayers, witches, charmers, and conſurers: (then make them this anſweare,) Is there a people any where that aſketh not counſel at his God? ſhould men runne vnto the dead for the lyuyng?

(d) We muſt thinke gods made what a folow, for in nomore without gods were there any lyght.

20 Geat thee to the (d) lawe, the teſtimonie: and if they ſpeake not after this word, there is no lyght in them.

21 And they ſhal wander through this land hardly beſtrad and hungrie, and when they ſuffer hunger, they wyl be out of patience, and curſe their king and their God, and ſhal looke vpward and downeward to the earth.

D

22 And behold, there is trouble and darkneſſe, dymneſſe is rounde about hym, and he ſhalbe driuen into darkneſſe.

23 Neuertheleſſe, the darkneſſe ſhall not be ſuche as was in her vexation, when at the firſt he lyghtly afflicted the land of Zabulon, and the lande of Nephthali, and afterwarde dyd more greuouſly afflicte her by the way of the ſea beyonde Iordane in Galilee of the heathen.

The. ix. Chapter.

He prophecieth of Chriſtes nativitie and dominion.

1 THE people that walked in darkneſſe haue ſeene a great lyght: As for them that dwel in the lande of the ſhadowe of death, vppon them hath the lyght ſhyned.

2 Thou haſt multiplied the people, and not increaſed their ioy: they reioyce before thee, euen as men make merrie in harueſt, and they be ioyful, as men that doo diuide the ſpoyle (after the victorie.)

3 For thou haſt broken the yoke of his burden, the ſtaffe of his ſhoulder, and the rodde of his oppreſſour, as in the day of Madian.

4 And truely euery batayle that the warrier maketh, is done with confuſed noyſe, and defyling their garmentes with blood, (but this batayle) ſhalbe with burnyng and conſumyng of fyre.

(a) Chriſte his kingdome and his names. or, and his name ſhalbe called. D, and (the holy ghoſt) ſhal cal his name

5 For vnto vs a (a) childe is borne, and vnto vs a ſonne is geuen, vppon his ſhoulder doeth the rule lye, and he is called with his owne name, Monderful, the geuer of counſel, the mightie God, the euerlaſtyng father, the prince of peace.

6 He ſhal make no ende to encreaſe the rule and peace, & ſhall ſyt vpon the ſeate of Dauid, and in his kyngdome, to order the ſame, and to eſtabliſhe it with equitie and ryghteouſneſſe from henceforth for euermore: This ſhall the zeale of the Lorde of hoſtes byyng to paſſe.

7 The Lorde ſent a worde into Iacob, the B ſame is come into Iſrael.

8 And all the people of Ephraim ſhall knowe, and they that dwell in Samaria that ſay with pryde and hygh ſtomackes (on this manner,)

9 The tyle worke is fallen downe, but we wyl buylde it vp with ſquared ſtones: the Mulberie tymber is broken, but we wyll ſet it vp agayne with Cedar.

10 But the Lorde ſhal ſtrengthen the enimies of Razin, and ioyne his aduerſaries togeather agaynſt him.

11 The Syrians before, & the Philiſtines behind, and ſhal deuoure Iſrael with open mouth: After al this, is not the wrath of the Lorde ceaſſed, but yet his hand is ſtretched out ſtyl.

12 For the people turneth not vnto him that chaſtiſeth them, neyther doo they ſeke the Lorde of hoſtes.

13 Therefore hath the Lorde rooted out of Iſrael both head and tayle, bough and reede in one day.

14 By the head, is vnderſtand the ſenatour C and honourable man, and by the tayle, the prophete that preached lyes.

15 For the guydes of this people are deceyuers, and thoſe that be gouerned are vterly loſt.

16 Therefore ſhall the Lorde haue no pleaſure in their young men, neyther haue pitie of their fatherleſſe and wyddowes: for they are altogeather hypocrites and wicked, and all their mouthes ſpeake folie: After all this, is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande is ſtretched out ſtyll.

17 For vngodlyneſſe burneth as a fyre, and ſhal ſhall it deuoure briers and thornes, and ſhal burne as in the thicket of wood, and (the wicked) aduaunce them ſelues, as the ſmoke is carried vp.

18 Through the wrath of the Lord of hoſtes is the land ful of darkneſſe, and the people be conſumed as it were with fyre: no man doeth ſpare his brother.

19 But he robbeth on the ryght hande, and doeth famiſhe, he eateth on the left hande, and he ſhall not haue ynough: euery man ſhal eate the fleſhe of his owne arme.

20 Manaſſes (ſhall eate) Ephraim, and Ephraim Manaſſes, & they both togeather ſhall eate Iuda: After all this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande is ſtretched out ſtyl.

The.x. Chapter.

1. He threateneth the oppreſſours of the poore. 12. And propheciеth againſt Sennacherib.

1 WOe be vnto them that make vnrighteous lawes, and that cauſeth their actuaries to wryte greeuouſneſſe,

2 Wherthrough the poze are put from their right, and my ſeely people robbed of iudgement, that widdowes may be their pray, and that they may rob the fatherleſſe.

3 What wyll ye doo in the tyme of viſitation, and when deſtruction ſhall come from farre? to whom wyll ye runne foz helpe? and where wyl ye leaue your glozie?

4 That when I withdrawe my hande, ye come not among the priſoners, noz lye among the dead? After all this doeth not the wrath of the Lorde ceaſſe, but yet is his hande ſtretched out ſtyl.

5 O Aſſur which art the ſtaffe of my wrath, in whoſe hande is the rodde of mine indignation,

6 I wyll ſende him among theſe hypocritiſhe people: among the people that haue deſerued my diſtauour wyl I ſende hym: that he vtterly rob them, ſpoyle them, and treade them downe lyke the myre in the ſtreete.

7 Howbeit, his meaning is not ſo, neyther thynketh his hart on this faſhion: but he imagineth howe he may roote out and deſtroy muche people.

8 For he ſayth, Are not my princes all kynges?

9 Is not Chalno as eaſie to wyn, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquer Hamath then Arphad? oz is it lyghter to ouercome Damaſcus, then Samaria?

10 (As who ſay) I were able to winne the kingdomes of the idolaters & their gods, but not Hieruſalem and Samaria.

11 Shall I not doo vnto Hieruſalem and her images, as I did vnto Samaria and her idolles?

12 Wherefoze it ſhall come to paſſe, that aſſoone as the Lozd hath performed his whole worke vppon the hyll of Sion and Hieruſalem, then wyl I viſite the fruite of the ſtoute harte of the kyng of Syria, with his proude lookes.

13 For he ſaydeth thus in his owne conceite. This doo I through my wyſdome: foz I am wyſe, I am he that remooue the landes of the people, I rob their treaſure, and haue pulled downe the inhabitantes lyke a baliant man.

14 My hande hath founde out the ſtrength of the people as it were a neſt: and lyke as C egges that were layde here and there are geathered togeather, ſo doo I geather all countreyes, and there was none (ſo bolde) as to mooue the wyng, that dare open his mouth, oz once whyſper.

15 Shall the axe boaſte it ſelfe againſt hym that heweth therewith? oz ſhall the ſawe make any braggyng againſt hym that ruleth it? That were euen like as yf the rod did exalt it ſelfe againſt him that beareth it, oz as though the ſtaffe ſhoulde magnifie it ſelfe (as who ſay) it were no wood.

16 Therefoze ſhal the Lozd the god of hoſtes ſende among his fatlynges leanneſſe, and burne vp his glozie as it were with a fyre.

17 And the lyght of Iſrael ſhalbe that fyre, and his holy one ſhal be the flambe: and it ſhall kyndle and burne vp as thornes and briers in one day.

18 Yea al the glozie of his woodes & fieldes ſhalbe conſumed with body and ſoule, and they ſhalbe as an hoſt of men, whoſe ſtandarde bearer fayleth.

19 The trees alſo of his wood whiche remaine, ſhalbe of ſuch a number, that a child may tel them.

20 After that day, ſhal the remnant of Iſrael, and ſuche as are eſcaped out of the houſe of Jacob, ſeeke no more comfoze at hym that ſmote them: but vnfaignedly ſhal they truſt vnto the Lozde, the holy one of Iſrael.

21 The remnaunt, euen the poſteritie of D Jacob, ſhal conuert vnto God the myghtie one.

22 For though thy people, O Iſrael, be as the ſande of the ſea, yet ſhal the remnaunt vfthem conuert vnto him: the decreed conſumption ouerflowerh with righteouſneſſe.

23 And therfoze the Lozde of hoſtes ſhal perfectly fulfyl the thing that he hath determined inherit in the myddest of the whole worlde.

24 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde God of hostes, Thou my people that dwellest in Sion, be not afrayd for the king of the Assyrians, he shal smite thee with a rod, and shal lyft vp his staffe against thee, as the Egyptians dyd sometime.
25 But very soone after shal my wrath and indignation be fulfilled in the destruction of them:
26 Moreouer, the Lorde of hostes shal stirre vp a scourge for him, like as was the slaughter of Madian vpon the rocke Oreb, and as the destruction of the Egyptians, when he lyfted vp his rodde vpon the sea.
27 Then shal his burden be taken from thy shoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, yea the same yoke shalbe destroyed because of the vnction.
28 He shal come to Aiath, and goe thorough towarde Migron, at Michmas shal he lay vp his harneis.
29 They shal goe ouer the foorde, Geba shalbe their resting place, Rhama shalbe afraide, Gibea Saul shal flee away.
30 Lyft vp thy voyce, O daughter Gallim, geue eare to Laisa, thou poore Anathoth.
31 Madmena shal tremble for feare, but the citizens of Gabim are manly.
32 Yet shal he remayne at Nob that day: after that, shal he lift vp his hand against the mount of the daughter Sion, the hil of Hierusalem.
33 But see, the Lorde God of hostes shall breake downe the bough with feare, he shal hewe downe the proude, and set the high minded.
34 The thickettes also of the wood shal he roote out with yron, and Libanus shal haue a fal through the mightie.

The. xi. Chapter.

1. He prophesieth of the nativitie of Christe, and of his people. 6. Of the remnant of Israel. 10. And of the fayth of the heathen and Gentiles.

1 AND there shal come a spryng foorth of the (a) stemme of Jesse, and a young shoote shal growe out of his roote.
2 The spirite of the Lorde shal rest vpon him, the spirite of wisdome and vnderstanding, the spirite of counsaile and strength, the spirite of knowledge, and of the feare of the Lorde,
3 And shal make him of deepe iudgement in the feare of God: for he shal not geue sentence after the thing that shalbe brought before his eyes, neyther reproue after the hearyng of his eares:
4 But with righteousnesse shal he iudge the poore, and with equitie shal he reproue the simple of the worlde, and he shal smyte the world with the rodde of his (b) mouth, and with the breath of his mouth shal he slaye the vngodly.
5 Rightcousnesse shalbe the gyrdle of his loynes, and faythfulnesse the gyrdyng vp of his reynes.
6 The woolfe shall dwel with the lambe, & the leoparde shal lye downe by the goate, bullockes, lions, and cattaile, shal keepe company together, so that a litle childe shal leade them.
7 The cowe and the beare shal feede together, & their young ones shal lye together: the lion shal eate strawe like the oxe or the cowe.
8 The childe whyle he sucketh, shal haue a desyre to the serpentes neast, and when he is weaned, he shal put his hande into the Cockatrice denne.
9 No man shal doo euyl vnto another, no man shal destroy another in al the hyl of my holynesse: for the earth shalbe full of the knowledge of the Lorde: euen as the sea floweth ouer with water.
10 And in that day shal the Gentiles enquire after the roote of Jesse, whiche shalbe set vp for a token vnto the people, and his rest shalbe glorious. * or, Isai.
11 At the same tyme shal the Lorde take in hande againe to recoure the remnant of his people, whiche shalbe leaft alyue, from the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, Moabians, Elamites, Chaldees, Antiochians, and from the Ilandes of the sea.
12 And he shal set vp a token among the Gentiles, & gather together the dispearsed of Israel, yea, and the outcastes of Juda, from the foure corners of the worlde.
13 The hatred of Ephraim also, and enimies of Juda shalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim shal beare none enyl wyl to Juda, and Juda shal not vexe Ephraim.
14 But they both together shal flee vpon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the West, and spoyle them together: shal dwel toward the East: the Idumites and the Moabites shal come vnder their handes, and the Amonites shalbe obedient vnto them.
15 The Lorde also shal cleane the tongues (c) of the Egyptians sea, and with his myghtie wynde shal he lyft vp his hande ouer Nilus, and shal smyte his seuen streames, and make men goe ouer dryc shod.
16 And thus shal there be a way for his people that remaineth, from the Assyrians, like as it happened to the Israelites, what

(a) Christe shalbe borne of the kinde of Iesse. * Esai.

(b) The armour of Christe and of his kyngdome.

(c) The tong, that is the arme of the sea that hindereth the passage.

time they departed out of the lande of Egypt.

The.xii. Chapter.

The songue of the churche for the obteyning of the victorie, and ouercommyng of the worlde.

C 1 AND in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I wyl prayse thee, for thou wast displeased at me: but refraine thou from thy wrath, and comfort me.

2 Beholde, God is my saluation, in whom I wyl trust, and not be afrayde: for the Lord God is my strength and (my) songue, he also is become my saluation.

3 Therefore with ioy shal ye drawe water out of the welles of saluation:

4 And then shal ye say, Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, cal vppon his name, declare his woorkes among the people, keepe them in remembrance, for his name is excellent.

5 Syng prayses vnto the Lorde, for he hath donne great thinges, as it is knowen in al the worlde.

6 Crye out, and syng, thou that dwellest in Sion: for great is the holy one of Israel in the myddest of thee.

The.xiii. Chapter.

He prophesieth the destruction of Babylon, the captiuitie, and the commyng agayne of the people.

A 1 THis is the (a) burden of Babylon, whiche Esai the sonne of Amos dyd see.

(a) Burden, that is, the prophesie,

2 Lyft vp the banner vpon the hygh hyl, cal vnto them, waggr your handes, that they may gos into the gates of the princes.

3 I haue cõmaunded my sanctified, I haue also called my valiant ones, toyng in my honour to execute my wrath.

4 There is a noyse of a multitude in the mountaynes, lyke as of a great people, a rushyng as though the kyngdomes of the nations came together: the Lord of hostes musstereth his armie to battayle.

5 They comme out of a farre countrey from the ende of the heauen, euen the Lorde hym selfe, with the instrumẽts of his wrath, to destroy the whole lande.

6 Howlme ye, for the day of the Lorde is at hande, and shal comme as a destroyer from the almightie.

B 7 Therefore shall all handes be letten downe, and all mens hartes shall melte away.

8 They shal stand in feare, carefulnesse, and sorowe shal come vpon them, and they shall haue payne as a woman that trauayleth with chyld: one shalbe abashed of another, and their faces shal burne like the flame of fire.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord shal come terribly, and ful of indignation, furie, & wrath, to make the land wast, and to roote out the synners therof.

10 For the starres and planettes of heauen shal not geue her light, the sunne shalbe darkened in the rysyng, and the moone shal not shine with her light.

11 And I wyl visite the wickednesse of the worlde, and the sinnes of the vngodly. The hygh stomakes of the proude wyl I take away, and wyl laye downe the boastyng of the tyrant.

12 I wyl make a man dearer then fine golde, and a man to be more wooyth then a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I wyl shake the heauens, and the earth shall remooue out of her place in the wrath of the Lorde of hostes, and in the day of his feareful indignation.

14 And (Babylon) shalbe as an hunted or chased Doe, and as a sheepe that no man taketh vp: euery man shal turne to his own people, and flee eche one into his owne lande. C

15 Who so is founde, shalbe shot through: and who so taketh their parte, shalbe destroyed with the swoorde.

16 Their children shalbe slaine before their eyes: their house spoyled, and their wyues rauished.

17 For loe, I shal bryng vp the Medes against them, which shal not regard syluer, nor be desyrous of golde:

18 With bowes shal they destroy the young menne, and haue no pitie on women with chylde, and their faces shal not spare the chyldren.

19 And Babylon that glory of kingdomes, and beautie of the Chaldees honour shalbe destroyed, euen as God destroyed Sodome and Gomer.

20 It shal not endure for euer, neyther shal there be any more dwelling there, from generation to generation: the Arabians shal pitch no tentes there, neyther shal the shepheardes make there foldes there any more.

21 But fearful wylde beastes shal lye there, D and the houses shalbe ful of great Dwles, Estriches shal dwell there, and Apes shal daunce there.

22 Wylde beastes shal crye in the palaces, & dragons shalbe in the pleasant houses: and as for Babylons tyme, it is at hande, and her dayes shal not be prolonged.

The

The xiiii. Chapter.

1. The returne of the people from captiuitie, the prosperitie of the people of God, and affliction of their enimies.
13. The pride of Babylon.

1 BVT the Lord wyl be merciful vnto Jacob, and wyll yet choose Israel agayne, & set them in their owne lande, strangers shal cleaue and geat them to the house of Jacob.

2 The people shal take them, & carrie them home to their owne lande: and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the lande of the Lorde, that they may be seruantes and handmaidens: and they shal take those prisoners, whose captiues they had ben before, and rule those that had oppressed them.

3 When the Lorde nowe shall bryng thee to rest from thy trauayle, feare, and harde bondage that thou wast laden withal:

4 Then shalt thou vse this mockage vppon the kyng of Babylon, and say, Howe happeneth it that the oppressour ceaseth of? Is the golden tribute come to an ende?

5 The Lorde hath broken the scepter of the vngodly, and the rodde of the lordly.

6 Whiche (rod) in anger smyteth the people with continuall strokes, and in wrath raigneth ouer the nations persecuted without compassion.

7 And therefore the whole worlde is powe at rest and quietnesse, and men syng for ioy.

8 Yea euen the Fyre trees, and Cedars of Libanus, reioyce at thy fal, saying, Nowe that thou art layde downe, there come no mo vp to hewe downe vs.

9 Hel also beneath trembleth to meete thee at thy comming, and for thy sake hath raysed his dead, all myghtie men, and princes of the earth, all kynges of the earth stande vp from their seates,

10 That they may al answeare and speake vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? Art thou become lyke vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pride is laid downe into the pyt, and so is the melodie of thy instruments. Wormes be laid vnder thee, and wormes be thy couerynge.

12 Howe art thou fallen from heauen, O Lucifer, thou faire morning childe? Howe hast thou gotten a fal, euen to the grounde, whiche dydst weaken the nations?

13 For thou saydest in thine harte, I wyll climbe vp into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God, I wyl syt also vppon the mount of the congregation towarde the north.

14 I wyl climbe vp aboue the cloudes, and wyl be lyke the highest of al.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to the deepe of hel, to the sydes of the lake.

16 They that see thee, shal narowly looke vpō thee, & thinke in them selues (saying,) Is this the man that brought al landes in feare, and made the kyngdomes afrayde?

17 (Is this he) that made the world in a maner waste, & laid the cities to the grounde, whiche let not his prisoners goe out?

18 The kinges of the nations lye euery one in his owne house with worshyp.

19 And thou art cast out of thy graue like a fylthie abominable braunche, like as dead mens rayment that are shot through with the swoorde, and goe downe to the stones of the deepe, as a dead coarse that is troden vnder feete.

20 Thou art not buried with them, euen because that thou hast wasted thy land, and destroyed thy people: the generation of the wicked shalbe out of memorie for euer.

21 Let there a way be sought to destroy their children that be in their fathers wickednesse, that they come not vp agayne to possesse the lande, and fyl the world ful of enimies. D

22 I wyl stande vp agaynst them, sayth the Lord of hostes, and roote out the name and remnant, sonne, and sonnes sonne of Babylon, sayth the Lorde.

23 I wyl geue it to the Otters, & wyl make water puddels of it, & I wyl sweepe them out with the beesome of destruction, sayth the Lorde hostes.

24 The Lord of hostes hath sworne an oth, saying, It shal come to passe as I haue determined, and shalbe fulfylled as I haue deuised.

25 So that the Assyrian shal I destroy in my lande, and vpon my mountaynes wyll I treade him vnder foote, wherthrough his yoke shal come from them, and his burden shalbe taken from their shoulder.

26 This deuise hath God taken through the whole world, and this his hand is stretched out ouer al people.

27 For yf the Lorde of hostes determine a thyng, who is able to disanul it? And yf he stretche foorth his hande, who may turne it agayne?

28 The same yeere that kyng Ahaz dyed, E was this burden:

29 Reioyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rod of him that beateth thee is broken: for out of the serpentes roote there shal come an Adder, and his fruite shalbe a fyerie flieyng worme.

30 But the fyrst borne of the poore shal be fed: and the simple shal dwel in safetie: thy roote also wyl I destroy with hunger, & it shal thal slay the remnant.

31 Mourne thou port, weepe thou citie, for, O whole land of Palestina, thou art laide waste: for there shall come from the north a smoke, that not one alone may abyde at home in his tymes.

32 What shal one then answeare the messengers of the Gentiles? For the Lorde hath stablished Sion, and the poore of his people that be therein, shal put their trust in it.

The. xv. Chapter.

A prophecie against Moab.

1 THis is the burden vpon Moab: Ar of Moab was destroyed and ouerthrowen in the nyght season, Kir also in Moab was destroyed and perished in the nyght.

2 Moab went vp to the idols house, euen to Dibon to the high places to weepe: for Nebo and Moab shal mourne for Medba. All their heades were balde, & al their beardes shauen.

3 In her stretes are they girded about with sackcloth: in all the tops of her houses and streetes shalbe nothing but mourning and weepyng.

4 Hesbon and Eleale shal crye, that their voyce shalbe heard vnto Jahaz: and therfore the armed souldiers also of Moab shal bleate out and crye for very sorowe of their myndes.

5 Woe shall my hart be for Moabs sake, they shal flee vnto the citie of Zoar, which is like a fayre young bullocke of three yeres olde, for they shall all go vp to Luith weepyng: euen so by the way toward Horonaim they shall make lamentation for their vtter destruction.

B 6 For the waters of Nimrim shalbe dryed vp, by reason whereof the graste is withered, the heardes destroyed, and the greene thynges gonne.

7 Therefore the goodes that remayneth in Moab, and the riches therof, they shal carrie to the brooke of wyllowes.

8 For the crye went ouer the whole land of Moab, vnto Eglaim, & vnto Beer Elim was there nothyng but mournyng.

9 Because the waters of Dimon were full of blood, I wyl adde more vpon Dimon: Lions vpon the remnant of the lande, and on them that are escaped from Moab.

The. xvi. Chapter.

The destruction of Moab.

1 SEnde the Lorde of the worlde a lambe from the rocke that lieth toward the desart, vnto the hil of the daughter Sion.

2 For as for the daughters of Moab they shalbe as a (a) trembling birde that is put out of her nest: for they shall carrie them vnto Arnon.

3 Gather your counsayle, come together in iudgement, cover vs with your shadowe in the midway, as the night doeth hide the chaffe, and betray not them that are fled.

4 Let my persecuted people dwell among you, Moab be thou their refuge against the destroyer: for the aduersarie is brought to nought, the robber is vndone, the tyraunt is wasted out of the lande.

5 And in mercie shal the seate be prepared, and he shall sye vpon it in the truth in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudgyng and seeking iudgement, and making haste vnto righteousnesse.

6 We haue heard of the pryde of Moab, he is very proud, presumptuous, arrogant, and full of indignation, and vayne are his lyes.

7 Therfore shal Moab make lamentation B because of the Moabites (that shalbe slaine) yea they shall wayle together: because of the fundations of the citie that is made of bricke shal ye complayne, euen ye lame people that are left onely behynde.

8 For the vines of Hesbon are cut downe: as for the vine of Sibma, the lordes of the heathen haue broken downe her principall branches, they are come euen vnto Jazer, they went on wandering vnto the wyldernesse, her goodly branches were thrawen downe as they went ouer the sea.

9 Therefore wyl I mourne for Jazer, and for the vine of Sibma, I wyll powre my teares vpon thee, O Hesbon and Eleale: for the crye of thine enimies is fallen vpon thy Sommer fruites, and vpon thy haruest.

10 The myrth & cheare is taken away out of the plentifull fielde, and in the vineyardes there shalbe no ioy nor gladnesse: the treader shal treade out no wine in their pressis, the songue of their merrie cheare haue I layde downe.

11 (b) Wherefore my bowels shall rumble like an Harpe for Moabs sake, and myne inwarde partes for the cities sake that is made of bricke.

12 And it shal come to passe, that when it is seene that Moab shalbe made weerie of his hyll chappelles, he shall come to his temple to pray, (c) but he shall not be able.

13 So then, this is the saying that the Lord hath spoken concernyng Moab sithe that tyme.

14 But nowe the Lorde hath spoken, saying, In

(a) The remisse and obstinate deliuerers of timely reproofe, moued by the preaching of Gods worde, shal repent when it is to late.

(b) The superstitious idolaters haue most truste in one idol and in some one place their another, all in vayne.

(c) Not be able through weerinesse, or it shal not profite him

In thoſe yeeres, whiche ſhalbe as the yeeres of an hyred ſeruant, ſhal the glory of Moab be turned into contempt throughout al his multitude, whiche is very great: and that whiche remayneth, ſhalbe very ſmall and feeble.

The.xvii. Chapter.

A propheſie agaynſt Damaſcus.

1 THis is the burden vpon Damaſcus: beholde, Damaſcus is taken away to be no more a citie, but ſhalbe an heape of broken ſtones.

2 The waſte cities of Aroer ſhalbe folded for cattell whiche ſhal lye there, and there ſhalbe none to fray them away.

3 Ephraim alſo ſhal no more be ſtrong, and Damaſcus ſhall no longer be a kyngdome, and the remnant of Syria ſhalbe as the glory of the chyldren of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

4 And in that day it ſhall come to paſſe, that the glory of Iacob ſhalbe made very thinne, and the fatneſſe of his flesshe ſhal waxe leane.

5 And he ſhalbe as one that gathereth vp corne in harueſt, euen like him whoſe arme reapeth the eares of corne: he ſhalbe alſo lyke him that gathereth eares of corne in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Some gathering in deede ſhall there be left in it, euen as in the ſhaking of an olyue tree there remayne two or three berries in the top of the vppermoſt bowe, and foure or fiue in the bode fruiteful branches therof, ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael.

B 7 Then ſhall man turne agayne to his maker, and his eyes ſhal haue reſpect to the holy one of Iſrael.

8 As for the aulters whiche are his owne handy worke, he ſhal not regarde them, and the thinges that his fingers hath made, as groues and images, thoſe ſhall he not caſt his eyes vnto.

9 In that day ſhal theyr ſtrong cities be as the forſaken ſhrubbes and branches, which they left becauſe of the chyldren of Iſrael, and the lande ſhalbe deſolate.

10 Becauſe thou haſt forgotten the God of thy ſaluation, and haſt not ben myndfull of thy ſtrong rocke: therefore ſhalt thou ſet pleaſant plantes, & ſhalt graffe the branche of another mans vine.

11 In that day ſhalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the morning ſhalt thou make thy ſeede to floryſh: the harueſt ſhalbe gone in the day of inheritance, and there ſhalbe ſorowe without hope of comfort.

12 Woe ſhalbe to the multitude of moche people, whiche ſhall make a ſounde lyke to the noyſe of the ſea, and the violence of the nations, whiche ſhal rage lyke the ruſhyng in of many waters.

13 Euen like many waters ſhal the people rage, God ſhal rebuke hym, and he ſhal flee farre of, he ſhalbe chaſed away lyke as drye ſtrawe vpon the mountaynes before the winde, and like a thyng that turneth before the ſtorme.

14 At euen beholde there is trouble, and or euer it be morning loe it is gone: this is the portion of them that oppreſſe vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

The.xviii. Chapter.

I. An exhortation to the Ethiopians and the countreys nygh adioyning to them. 7. The vocation of the Gentiles.

1 O That land that trusteth vnder the ſhadowe of wynges, (that lande) which is A beyonde the waters of Ethiopia,

2 Sendyng meſſengers by the ſea, euen in veſſels of reedes ouer the water. Goe you hence ye ſpeedy meſſengers, to a nation that is ſcattered abroade, and robbed of that they had, a fearefull people from theyr beginning hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe lande the floodes haue ſpoyled.

3 All the inhabiters of the worlde, and inwellers of the earth looke vp when he ſetteth vp a token in the mountaynes, & hearken when he bloweth with the trumpe.

4 For ſo the Lord ſayde vnto me (as for me) I will take my reſt, and loke vpon the matter in my habitations, lyke a fayre heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of harueſt.

5 For afore the harueſt when the branche is growen, there ſhal come ripe fruite of the floure: and he ſhal cut downe the increaſe with ſithes, and the branches ſhall he take away with hookes.

6 Thus ſhal they be left together vnto the foules of the mountaynes, & to the beaſtes of the earth: for in ſommer the byrdes ſhal remayne vpon it, and euery beaſt of the land ſhalbe vpon it in winter.

7 In that time ſhal there a preſent be brought B vnto the Lorde of hoſtes, euen a people that is ſcattered abrode and robbed of that they had, that ſame people which haue ben fearful from theyr beginning hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe land the floodes haue ſpoyled, to the place of the name of the Lorde of hoſtes, euen to the mount Sion.

The.xix. Chapter.

I. He propheſieth agaynſt Egypt, 18. and the vocation of the Gentiles to Chriſte.

A 1 THE burden of Egypt. Beholde, the Lorde rydeth vpon a ſwift cloude, and ſhal come into Egypt, and the idolles of Egypt ſhall tremble at the preſence of him, and the hart of Egypt ſhall quake in the middeſt of her.

2 And I will ſet the Egyptians one againſt another, ſo that one brother ſhall fyght againſt another, and one neighbour agaynſt another, citie againſt citie, and realme agaynſt realme.

3 The mynde alſo of Egypt ſhalbe cleane without counſayle within it ſelfe, and the deuice that they take wyll I deſtroy: and they ſhal ſeeke counſayle at idols and at ſorcerers, at workers with ſpirites, and at ſoothſayers.

4 And the Egyptians wyl I geue ouer into the hande of a maruelous cruel lorde, and a myghtie kyng ſhal haue dominion ouer them, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes.

5 The waters of the ſea ſhall fayle, and the riuer ſhal decreaſe and be dryed vp.

6 The waters ſhalbe drawen out, the riuers of Egypt ſhalbe emptied and dried vp, the reedes and flagges ſhalbe cut downe.

B 7 The graſſe in the riuer and by the riuers banke, and all that groweth by the ryuer, ſhal wither away, & be brought to nought.

8 The fiſhers alſo ſhal mourne, and al they that caſt angle into the water ſhal make lamentation, and they that lay foorth their net beſide the waters ſhalbe rooted out.

9 Moreouer, they that worke in flaxe and make fine workes ſhalbe confounded, and ſo ſhal they that weaue open workes.

10 For their open workes ſhall euen be deſtroyed, and al they that make pondes and ſluces for fyſhe ſhal come to nought.

11 But you fooliſhe princes of Zoan, ye wyſe counſaylers of Pharao, whoſe wit is turned to fooliſhneſſe, howe ſay ye vnto Pharao, I am come of wiſe men and of ancient kinges?

12 Where are thy wyſe men? Let them tell thee if they can, what the Lorde of hoſtes hath deuiſed vpon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceiued, they haue deceiued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the chiefe ſtay thereof.

C 14 In the middeſt of it hath the Lord powred the ſpirite of wrekedneſſe: and they haue deceiued Egypt in euery worke thereof, euen as a drunken man ſtaggereth in his vomite.

15 Neyther ſhal the (a) head or tayle, the branche or reede be able to do any worke in Egypt.

16 In that day ſhal Egypt be lyke vnto women: it ſhalbe afrayde and ſtande in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoſtes whiche he ſhaketh ouer it.

17 And Egypt ſhalbe afrayde of the lande of Iuda: ſo that euery one that maketh mention of it ſhalbe afrayde thereat, becauſe of the counſayle of the Lorde of hoſtes whiche he deuiſed for it.

18 In that day ſhal fiue cities in the lande of Egypt ſpeake the language of Chanaan, and ſweare by the Lord of hoſtes: the citie of deſolation ſhalbe called one of them.

19 In that day ſhall the aulter of the Lorde be in the middeſt of the land of Egypt, and this title beſyde it, Vnto the Lorde.

20 And it ſhalbe a token and a witneſſe vnto the Lord of hoſtes in the lande of Egypt: for they ſhal crye vnto the Lord, becauſe of ſuche as trouble them, and he ſhall ſende them a ſauiour and a great man to deliuer them.

21 And the Lord ſhalbe knowen in Egypt, and the Egyptians ſhal knowe the Lorde D in that day, and do ſacrifice and oblation: yea they ſhal vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and performe it.

22 The Lorde alſo ſhall ſmyte Egypt ſore, and heale them againe: and they ſhalbe conuerted vnto the Lord, and he ſhalbe entreated of them, and ſhal heale them.

23 In that day ſhal there be a common way out of Egypt into Aſſyria, and Aſſyria ſhall come into Egypt, and Egypt into Aſſyria: ſo that the Egyptians and the Aſſyrians ſhal ſerue the Lorde together.

24 In that day ſhal the nation of Iſrael be the thirde with Egypt and Aſſyria: and they ſhalbe bleſſed in the myddeſt of the lande, 25 Whiche lande the Lorde of hoſtes hath bleſſed, ſayeng, Bleſſed is my people of Egypt, Aſſur alſo is the worke of my handes, and Iſrael is mine inheritance.

(a) By the head and branche are ment the honorable and chiefeſt of the lande: by the tayle and reede, the multitude & lower ſorte of people.

The.xx. Chapter.

Agaynſt Egypt and Ethiopia.

A 1 IN the yeere that Tharthan came vnto Aſdod, when Sargon the kyng of Aſſyria had ſent him, and had fought againſt Aſdod, and taken it:

2 At the ſame tyme ſpake the Lorde by the hand of Elai the ſonne of Amos, ſaying, Go and take of the ſackcloth from thy loynes, and put of thy ſhoe from thy foote. And he did ſo, walkyng naked and barefoote.

3 And

3 And the Lorde saide, Like as my seruaunt Esai hath walked naked and barefoote, for a signe and woonder three yeeres vpon Egypt and Ethiopia:

4 Euen so shall the king of Assyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia chyldren and olde men naked and barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great shame of Egypt.

5 They shalbe brought in feare also, and be ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt wherein they are wont to glory.

6 And they that dwel in the same Ile shal say in that day, Beholde, suche is our hope, whyther shal we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the king of Assyria: and howe shal we escape?

The.xxi.Chapter.

Against Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

1 THe burden of the (a) waste sea. Euen as the stormie weather passeth through at the noone day from the wildernesse, so shal it comme from the terrible lande.

2 A greeuous vision was shewed vnto me: let one deceytful offendour comme against another, and one destroyer against another: vp Elam, lay siege thou of Media, all their groning haue I layde downe.

3 Therefore are my loynes filled with sorowe, heauinesse hath taken hold vpon me, as the panges of a woman that is trauayling: it made me stoupe when I hearde it, and it vexed me when I sawe it.

4 My hart panted, fearfulnesse came vpon me: the night of my voluptuousnesse hath he turned against me into feare.

5 Whyle they garnished the table, the watchman looked: and whyle I was eating and drinkyng, it was sayd, Vp ye captaynes, take you to your shielde.

6 For thus hath the Lorde saide vnto me, Goe and set a watchman to tel what he seeth.

7 And he sawe a charret whiche two horsemen sate vpon, with the caryage of an asse, and the caryage of a cammel: so he looked, and tooke diligent heede.

8 And he cryed, A lion, my Lorde, I stande continually vppon the watch towre in the day tyme, and am appoynted to keepe my watche euery night.

9 And beholde, here commeth a charret of men with two horsemen, and he answeared and saide, Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, and al the images of her goddes hath he smitten downe vnto the grounde.

10 Thou art he whom I must threshe, and thou belongest to my corne floure: this that I hearde of the Lorde of hoastes the GOD of Israel, haue I shewed vnto you.

11 The burden of Duma. He calleth to me out of Seir: Watchman what hast thou espyed by night, watchman what hast thou espyed by night?

12 The watchman sayde, The morning commeth, and so doth the night: if ye wyl aske me any question, then aske it: returne and comme agayne.

13 The burden concernyng Arabia. In the woodes of Arabia shal ye tary al night, euen in the streetes of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitours of the lande of Thema brought foorth water to him that was thirstie, they preuented him that was fled away with their bread.

15 For because of swoordes they are become fugitiue, euen for the drawen swoorde, and for the bent bowe, and because of the greeuousnesse of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, there is yet a yeere, according to the yeeres of an hyred seruant, and al the glory of Cedar shal fayle.

17 And the number of them that shal escape from the bowes, shalbe minished by the mighty chyldren of Cedar: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

(a) The wast sea is Babylon or Chaldee.

The.xxii.Chapter.

A prophesie against Hierusalem.

1 THe burden of the (a) valley of vision. What hast thou to doo here, that thou clymest to the house toppes?

2 Thou that art ful of tumultuousnesse, thou troublesome and proude citie: thy slayne men are neyther put to death with the swoorde, nor dead in batayle.

3 All thy captiues are fugitiue together, the archers haue taken them prisoners: al they I say that are founde in thee, are in captiuitie together, and they also that fledde farre of.

4 Therefore sayde I, Let me alone, and I wyl make lamentation: ye shal not be able to comfort me, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, and of destruction, that the Lord the GOD of hoastes wyll bryng to passe in the valley of vision, breaking downe the citie, and crying vnto mountaynes.

6 Elam bare the quiuer with a charret of footemen and horsemen, and the citie of Kir shewed the shield open.

7 The cheefe valley also was full of charrettes, and the horsemen set their faces directly towarde the gate.

8 And in that day did the enimie take away the couer of Juda, & then didſt thou looke towarde the (b) armour of the houſe of the foreſt.

(b) The armouric that Solomon made and furniſhed with munition. 1.king.7.

9 Ye haue ſeene alſo the broken places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye gathered togeather the waters of the lower poole.

10 As for the houſes of Hieruſalem ye haue numbred them, and the houſes haue ye broken downe, to make the wal ſtrong.

11 A pit alſo haue ye made betweene the two walles for the waters of the olde poole, (c) and haue not regarded the maker thereof, nyther had reſpect vnto him that faſhioned it long agoe.

(c) The Lord dooth not forbyd to make prouiſion of ſure defence againſt the enimies, ſo that our truſt be put in him, and not in our fortreſſes and ſtrong holdes.

12 And in that day dyd the Lorde GOD of hoaſtes call men vnto weeping and mourning, to baldneſſe and girding about with ſackecloth.

13 And behold, they haue ioy and gladneſſe, ſlaying oxen, and killyng ſheepe, eatyng fleſhe, and drinking wine: let vs eate and drinke, for to morowe we ſhal dye.

14 And it came to the eares of the Lorde of hoaſtes, This iniquitie ſhal not be purged from you tyll ye dye, ſayth the Lorde God of hoaſtes.

C

15 Thus ſayth the lord God of hoaſtes, Get ye vnto yonder treaſurer, euen vnto Sebna, which is the ruler of the houſe.

16 What haſt thou to doo heere? and whom haſt thou heere? that thou ſhouldeſt here hewe thee out a ſepulchre, as it were one that heweth him out a ſepulchre on high, or that graueth an habitation for him ſelfe on an harde rocke?

Eſai.36.a.

17 Beholde, O thou man, the Lorde ſhall carye thee away into captiuitie, and ſhal ſurely couer thee with confuſion.

18 The Lord ſhall turne thee ouer lyke a ball with his handes (and ſhall ſende thee) into a farre countrey: there ſhalt thou dye, and there in ſteede of the charrets of thy pompe ſhal the houſe of the Lord haue confuſion.

19 I wyl driue thee from thy place, and out of thy dwelling ſhal he ouerthrowe thee.

20 And in that day ſhall I call my ſeruant Eliakim the ſonne of Helkia:

D

21 And with thy garmentes wyll I clothe him, and with thy girdle wyl I ſtrength him: thy power alſo wyll I commit into his hande, and he ſhalbe a father of ſuche as dwel in Hieruſalem, and in the houſe of Juda.

22 And the key of the houſe of Dauid wyl I lay vpon his ſhoulder: ſo that he ſhall open and no man ſhut, he ſhal ſhut and no man open.

Iob.12.b. Apoc.3.b.

23 And I wyl faſten him as a nayle in a ſure place, and he ſhalbe the glorious ſeate of his fathers houſe.

24 Moreouer, al generations and poſteritie ſhal hang vppon him all the glorye of their fathers houſe, al veſſels both great and ſmal, and al inſtrumentes of meaſure and muſicke.

25 In that day, ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes, ſhal the nayle that is faſtened in the ſure place, depart and be broken, and fall: and the burden that was vppon it ſhalbe pluckt away, for ſo the Lorde hath ſpoken.

The. xxiii. Chapter.

1. A propheecie againſt Tyrus, 17. and a promiſe that it ſhalbe reſtored againe.

1 THe burden of Tyre. Mourne ye ſhips of Tharſis, for there commeth ſuche deſtruction, that ye ſhal not haue an houſe to enter into, and that there ſhalbe no trafike out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague. Eſech.27.d.

2 Be ſtyl ye that dwel in the Ile, the marchantes of Sidon, and ſuche as paſſe ouer the ſea haue made thee plenteous.

3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Nilus, and the fruites of the riuer were her victualles, ſo that it became a common mart of nations.

4 Be aſhamed thou Zidon: for the (a) ſea, euen the ſtrength of the ſea hath ſpoken, ſayeing, I haue not trauayled nor brought forth children, nor nouriſhed vp young men, or brought vp virgins.

(a) By the ſea and the ſtrength of the ſea, is meant Tyre.

5 When tydinges commeth to the Egyptians, they ſhalbe ſory for the rumour of Tyre.

6 Get you to Tharſis, mourne you that dwel in the Ile.

7 Is not this that glorious citie of yours, whiche hath benne of olde antiquitie? her owne feete ſhal cary her foorth to be a ſiourner into a farre country. B

8 Who hath deuiſed this againſt Tyre that (b) croweth her ſelfe? whoſe marchantes are princes, and whoſe factours are honorable in the worlde.

(b) That croweth her ſelfe, that is, which doeth boaſt her ſelfe to be as it were the Queene of all cities on the ſea coaſt.

9 Euen the Lorde of hoaſtes hath deuiſed this, to put downe the pride of al ſuche as be glorious, and to minifie all them that be prouude vpon the earth.

10 Get thee out of thy lande like a flood vnto the daughter of Tharſis, for thou haſt no more ſtrength.

11 He that ſmote the kingdomes togeather, holdeth out his hande ouer the ſea: euen the Lord him ſelfe hath geuen a commaunpement agaynst the same common place of marchandise, that they shal vtterly destroy the myght therof.

12 And he sayd, Make no more thy boast O virgin thou daughter Zidon, thou shalt be brought downe: vp, gat thee ouer vnto Cittim, where neuertheles thou shalt haue no rest.

13 Beholde, this people came not of the Chaldees, but Assur made them strong with great shyppes: they set vp the strong holdes therof, and destroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay.

14 Mourne ye shyppes of Tharsis, for your strength is brought downe.

15 And in that day shal Tyre be forgotten seuentie yeeres, according to the yeeres of one kyng: and after the ende of seuentie yeeres shal Tyre sing as dooth an harlot.

16 Take an harpe, and goe about the citie thou harlot that hast benne forgotten, make sweete melodie, sing mo songes, that thou mayest be had in remembrance.

17 And after the ende of the seuentie yeeres shal the Lorde visite Tyre, and she shal conuert vnto her reward, and shal commit fornicatiō with al the kyngdomes of the earth that are in the worlde.

18 Their occupying also and their rewarde shalbe holy vnto the Lorde: their gaynes shal not be layde vp nor kept in store, but it shalbe theirs that dwel before the Lorde, that they may eate ynough and haue clothyng sufficient.

The .xxiiii. Chapter.

A prophecie of tribulation to come vpon the worlde because of sinne.

1 BEholde, the Lorde maketh the earth waste and emptie, he turneth it vpside downe, and scattereth abrode the inhabitours therof.

2 And the priest shalbe as the people, and the maister as the seruant, the mistresse lyke the mayde, the seller lyke the byer, he that lendeth vpon vsurie, like him that borowerth vpon vsurie, the creditour as the detour.

3 The land shalbe cleane wasted, and vtterly spoyled: for so the Lorde hath spoken.

4 The earth is sory and consumeth away, the worlde is feeble & perisheth, the proude people of the earth are come to nought.

5 The earth also is become vnprofitable vnder the inhabiters therof, which haue transgressed the lawes, changed the ordinance, broken the euerlasting couenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse consumed the earth, and they that dwel therin are fallen into trespasse: Wherefore the inhabiters of the earth are perished with drought, and fewe men are left behinde.

7 The wine sayleth, the vine hath no might, al they that haue ben merry of hart are come to mourning. B

8 The myrth of tabrets is layde downe, the noyse of suche as haue made mery is ceassed, the ioy at the harpe is at an ende.

9 They shall drinke no more wine with myrth, strong drinke shalbe bytter to them that drynke it.

10 The citie of vanitie is broken downe, euery house is shut vp, that no man may come in.

11 In the streetes is there a crying because of wine, all cheare is vanished away, the myrth of the lande is gone.

12 In the citie is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 For in the middes of the lande, euen among the people, it shall come to passe as at the shakyng of Olines, and as the grapes are when the wine haruest is done.

14 They shal lyft vp their voyce, and make a mery noyse: and in magnifying of the Lorde shal they crye out of the west. C

15 Wherefore prayse ye the Lorde in the valleys, euen the name of the Lorde God of Israel in the Iles of the sea.

16 From the vttermost part of the earth haue we heard prayses and mirth, because of the righteous: and I sayde, I knowe a thing in secrete, I knowe a thing in secrete, woe is me: the transgressours haue offended, the transgressours haue greuously offended.

17 Fearefulnesse, the pyt, & the snare are vpon thee, O thou that dwellest on the earth.

18 It wyl come to passe, that whosoeuer escapeth the fearefull noyse, shall fal into the pit, and he that commeth vp out of the pyt, shalbe taken with the snare: for the wyndowes from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth are moued.

19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a sore ruine, the earth quaketh exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reele to and fro lyke a drunkarde, and shalbe remoued like a tent, and the iniquitie therof shalbe heauie vpon it, it shal fal, and not ryse vp agayne.

21 And in that day shal the Lorde visite the host about that is on high, and the kynges of the worlde that are vpon the earth.

22 And they shalbe geathered together as they that be in prison, and they shalbe shut vp inwarde, and after many dayes shal they be visited.

23 The moone shalbe abashed, and the sunne

The.xxv.Chapter.

A thankeſgeuyng to God for his woorkes.

¶ 1 THOV art my Lorde my God, I wyl magnifie thee, I wyl geue thankes vnto thy name, for thou haſt brought wōderfull thinges to paſſe, accordyng to thyne olde counſels truely and faythfully.

Eſai.26.a. 2 Thou haſt made a citie a heape of ſtones, and brought a ſtrong towne into decay: the habitation of ſtrangers haſt thou made to be no citie, neyther ſhall it be builded any more.

3 Therefore ſhal the mightie people geue glory vnto thee, the citie of the valiant heathen ſhal feare thee.

4 For thou haſt ben a ſtrength vnto the poore, and a ſuccour for the needie in his trouble, a refuge agaynſt cuyll weather, a ſhadowe agaynſt the heate: for the blaſt of raging men is like a ſtorme that caſteth downe a wall.

5 Lyke as the heate in a drye place waſteth al thynges: ſo ſhalt thou ſuppreſſe the noyſe of aliantes, the heate (is abated) with the ſhadowe of the cloude (euen ſo ſhal God) aſſwage the noyſe of the cruel tyrantes.

10 For in this mountayne ſhall the hande of the Lorde ceaſſe, and Moab ſhalbe threſhed vnder him, euen as ſtrawe is troden to doung on the doungh yl.

4 Put ye your truſt alway in the Lorde: for in the Lord God there is ſtrength for euermore.

5 For he hath brought downe the high minded citizens: as for the proude citie he hath brought it lowe, euen to the ground ſhall he caſt it downe, and bryng it vnto duſt. Eſai.25.a.

6 The foote, euen the foote of the poore, and the ſteppes of ſuche as be in neceſſitie ſhall treade it downe.

7 The path of equitie wylt thou graunt vnto the iuſt (O thou moſt ryghteous) thou ſhalt order the path of hym that is ryghteous. ¶ Prou.6.a. Ierr.10.b.

8 Yea in the way of thy iudgements, O lord, haue we put our truſt in thee: thy name alſo and the remembrance of thee, is the thyng that our ſoule longeth for.

9 My ſoule hath longed for thee all the night, and with my ſpirite whiche is within me will I ſeeke thee early in the morning: for when thy iudgementes are in the earth, the inhabitours of the worlde ſhall learne ryghteouſneſſe. Pſal.63.a. and.143.a.

10 Shall the vngodlye man be fauoured, whiche hath not learned ryghteouſneſſe, but doth wickedly in the earth, where nothyng ought to be done but that whiche is righteous? he ſhal not ſee the glory of the Lorde.

11 Lord, when thy hande is lift vp to ſtrike, they ſee it not, but they ſhal ſee it, and be confounded with the zeale of the people, and the fyre that conſumeth thyne enimies ſhal deuoure them.

12 Lorde vnto vs thou ſhalt proude peace: for thou alſo haſt wrought all our woorkes in vs. Phil.2.a.

13 O Lorde our God, other lordes beſydes thee haue had rule ouer vs: but we wil be mindful only of thee, and of thy name.

14 The dead wyl not lyue, they that be out of lyfe wyl not ryſe agayne, therefore haſt ¶ thou

Num.3.b. 18 We haue benne with childe and suffered payne, as though we had brought foorth winde: for there is no saluation in the earth, neyther doo the inhabiters of the worlde submit themselues.

1.Cor.6.b. 19 Thy dead men shal liue, euen as my body shall they rise againe: awake and syng ye that dwel in dust, for thy dewes is euen as the dewe of herbes, and the earth shal cast out them that be vnder her.

The. xxvii. Chapter.

A prophesie of the comming of Christ, and destruction of idolatrie.

A I (a) By Leuiathan the power of Sathan in the first is meant the kyngdome of Satan, and the mighty tyrannes of the worlde, enimies to Christ, and persecutours of his relig. &c. By God calling his swerde his strength, because therby he winneth men, and maketh them vnto his seruice.

IN that day the Lorde with his soare, great, and mighty sworde, shal visite (a) Leuiathan the fugitiue serpent, euen Leuiathan that crooked serpent, and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day see that ye sing of the congregation, whiche is the vineyarde that bryngeth foorth the best wine:

3 Euen I the Lord doo keepe it, in due seasons shall I water it: and lest the enimie doo it any harme, I wyll both nyght and day preserue it.

4 There is no displeasure in me, els when the vineyarde bryngeth me foorth byers and thornes, I would goe through it by warre, and burne it vp togeather.

5 Let it take holde of my (b) strength, and it shalbe at one with me, euen at one shall it be with me.

6 The dayes are comming that Iacob shal take roote, Israel shalbe greene and florishe, and the worlde shalbe fylled with fruite.

7 Hath he smitten him as soare as he dyd the other that smote him? Or is he slayne with so soare a slaughter as they that slue hym?

8 Thou wylt pounishe it in the braunches, yet not beyond measure: for in the day that the east winde bloweth soare, it taketh away the fruites.

9 By this meanes therefore shal the iniquitie of Iacob be purged, and this is all the fruite (namely) the (c) taking away of his sinne, if he make al the stones of the aulter of idols as chalke stones that are beaten in sunder, that their groues and images rise not vp agayns.

(c) GOD vseth afflictions, as meanes to cal to men repentance, wherevpon foloweth forgeuenesse of sinnes.

10 Els shal the strong citie be desolate, and the habitation forsaken and left like a wildernesse: there shall the Calfe feede, and there shall he lye, and eate vp the grasses therof.

11 When the braunches of it are drye they are broken of, and the women come and set them on fyre: for it is a people of no vnderstandyng, and therefore he that made them shall not fauour them, and he that created them shal geue them no grace. Deut.32.b.

12 And in that day shall the Lorde make a threshing from the middes of the riuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye children of Israel shalbe gathered togeather one to another.

13 In that day shall the great trumpe be blowen, so that they whiche were lost in the lande of Assyria, and they that were banished in the lande of Egypt, shal come and worship the Lorde in the holy mount of Hierusalem.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

I. Agaynst the pride of Ephraim, 9. and agaynst false priestes and preachers.

1 WO be vnto the crowne of pryde, euen vnto the drunken people of Ephraim, whose great pompe is as a floure that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of such as be in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine. A Oste.3.a.

2 Beholde, there commeth a vehement and soare day from the Lorde, lyke an vnmeasurable hayle and perillous tempest, euen lyke the force of mighty & horrible waters that violently beareth downe al thinges. Pat.16.c.

3 The crowne of the pride of the drunken Ephraemites shalbe troden vnder foote.

4 So that the floure of his fairenesse and beautie whiche is in the head of the valley of fatnesse, shall fade away as dooth an vntymely ripe fygge before harueste: whiche when a man espyeth, he looketh vpon it, & whyle it is yet in his hande he eateth it vp.

6 In that day ſhall the Lorde of hoaſtes be the crowne of glory and diamonds of beautie vnto the reſidue of his people.

7 He wyl be alſo a ſpirite of perfect knowledge to him that ſitteth in iudgement, and ſtrength vnto them that turne away the batayle to the gate (of the enimies.)

B 7 But they are out of the way by reaſon of wine, yea farre out of the way are they thorowe ſtrong drinke: the prieſt alſo and the prophete are gonne aſtray by the meanes of ſtrong drinke, they are dronken with wine, they goe amiſſe thzough ſtrong drinke, they fayle in prophelying, and ſtumble in iudgement. Eſai.3.c.

8 For al tables are full of vomit and filthyneſſe, that no place is cleane.

9 Whom then ſhal ſuche one teache knowledge? and whom ſhal he make to vnderſtande the thing that he heareth? for they are as ignozant as young chyldzen that are taken from the milke, and are weaned.

10 For they that be ſucke, muſt take after one leſſon, another leſſon, after one commaundement, another commaundement, for one rule, another rule, after one inſtruction, another inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle. Eſai.10.a. Mat.23.a.

11 For he that ſpeaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vſeth rudeneſſe of ſpeache, and a ſtraunge language.

12 If any man ſay vnto them, Loe, this is the reſt wherewith ye may eaſe him that is theery, this is the refreaſhing: they wyll not hearken.

13 Therefore ſhal the wozde of the Lorde be vnto them leſſon vpon leſſon, commaundement vppon commaundement, rule vpon rule, inſtruction vpon inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle: that they may goe on and fal backwarde, be bruiſed, tangled, and ſnared. I.Cor.14.c.

C 14 Wherefore heare the wozde of the Lord ye mockers, ye that haue rule of this people whiche is at Hieruſalem.

15 Becauſe ye haue ſayde, We haue made a couenant with death, and with hel are we at agreement: and though there goe foorth a ſoare plague, it ſhall not comme vnto vs, for we haue made falſhood our refuge, and vnder vanitie are we hyd.

(a) Who ſo through faith dooth ſtay him ſelfe vpon Chriſt, in haſty going forward, ſhal not fal: that is, ſhal not fayle of that he hopeth to obtayne.

16 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I lay in Sion for a fundation a ſtone, euen a tryed ſtone, a pretious corner ſtone, a ſure fundation: who ſo beleueth, let him not be to (a) haſtie.

17 Iudgement alſo wil I lay to the rule, and ryghteouſneſſe to the ballance, ſo that the (b) hayle ſhall ſweepe away as a bzoome your vaine confydence, and the ſtinie place of your refuge ſhal the waters runne ouer. (b) The goſpel is compared to hayle and flooder, for that it breaketh downe and caryeth awaye idolatrie and ſuperſtition, wherin men do truſt in vayne.

18 And thus the couenant that ye made with death, ſhalbe diſanulled, and your agreement that ye made with hel ſhal not ſtand, yea when the ſoare plagne goeth foorth, ye ſhalbe troden downe vnder it.

19 From the tyme that it goeth foorth it ſhal take you away: for early in the mornyng euery day, yea both day and night ſhall it goe thzough, and when the noyſe thereof is perceyued, it ſhal gender vexation.

20 For the bedde is narowe and not large, and the couering ſo ſmall that a man can not winde him ſelfe (vnder it.)

21 For the Lorde ſhal ſtand as in mount Perazim, and ſhalbe wzoth lyke as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may doo his wooꝛke, his ſtrange wooꝛke, and bring to paſſe his acte, his ſtrange acte. D

22 Nowe therfore ſee that ye be no mockers, leſt your pounyſhment encreaſe: for I heard of the Lord of hoaſtes, that there ſhal come a ſhort ende vpon the whole earth.

23 Heare ye then, and hearken vnto my voyce, conſyder and ponder my ſpeache.

24 Doth not the huſbandman plowe all the day, and openeth and breaketh the clottes of his grounde, that he may ſowe?

25 When he hath made it playne, wyl he not ſpreade abzoade the fitches, and ſowe commin, and caſt in wheate by meaſure, and the appoynted barlye & rye in their place?

26 God wyl inſtruct him to haue diſcretion, euen his God wyl teache him.

27 For fitches ſhal not be threaſhed with an harrowe, neyther ſhal a cart wheele be bzought thzough the cõmin: but the fitches are beaten out with a ſtaffe, and commin with a rodde.

28 But the ſeede that bread is made of is threaſhed, though it be not alway a threaſhing, and the cart wheele muſt be bzought ouer it, leſt he grinde it with his teeth. E

29 This alſo commeth of the Lorde of hoaſtes, whiche wooꝛketh with woonderful wyſedome, and bzyngeth excellent wooꝛkes to paſſe.

The.xxix.Chapter.

I. A propheſie agaynſt Hieruſalem, and agaynſt the vayne traditions of men.

1 WO vnto thee, O Ariel, Ariel, thou cytie that Dauid dwelt in: Goe on from yeere to yeere, & let the lambes be ſlayne. A 2.Sam.5.

2 I wyl lay ſiege vnto Ariel, ſo that there ſhalbe heauineſſe and ſozowe in it: and it ſhalbe shalbe vnto me euen an aulter of slaughter.

3 I wyl beſiege thee round about, and fight against thee through a bulwarke, and wyl reare vp ditches against thee.
4 Thou shalt be brought downe, and shalt speake out of the grounde, and thy speache shal goe lowe out of the dust:
5 Thy voyce also shal come out of ꝑ ground like the voyce of a witche, and thy talkyng shal whyspер out of the dust:
6 Moreouer, the noyse of the strange enimies shalbe like thynne dust, and the multitude of tyrantes shalbe as dryе strawe that cannot tarrye: euen sodaynely and in haste shal their blast goe.
B 7 Thou shalt be visited of the Lorde of hostes, with thunder, earthquake, and with a great noyse, with stormе and tempest, and with the flame of a consumyng fire.
8 And the multitude of al nations that fight against Ariel, shalbe as a dreame seene by night: euen so shal they be that make warre against it, and strong holdes to ouercome it, and that lay any siege vnto it.
9 In conclusion, it shalbe euen as when an hungry man dreameth that he is eating, & when he awaketh, his soule is emptie, or as when a thirstie man dreameth that he is drinking, when he awaketh he is yet faint, and his soule hath appetite: euen so shal the multitude of al nations be that fighteth against mount Sion.
10 Ponder these thinges once in your mindes, and woonder: Blynded are they themselues, and the blynde guydes of other, they are dronken, but not with wyne: they are vnstable: but not through strong drinke.
11 For the Lorde hath couered you with a slumbryng spirite, & hath closed your eyes: your prophetes also and rulers that should see, them hath he couered.
12 And the vision of al the prophetes is become vnto you as the woordes of a booke that is sealed vp, whiche menne deliuer to one that is learned, sayeing, Reade thou in it: and he sayth, I canne not, for it is sealed.
13 And the booke is geuen to hym that is not learned, sayeing, Reade thou in it: and he sayth, I am not learned.
14 Therfore thus hath ꝑ Lord sayd, For as muche as this people when they be in trouble doo honour me with their mouth, and with their lyppes, but their harte is farre from me, and the feare whiche they haue vnto me, proceedeth of a commaundement that is taught of men:
15 Therefore wyl I doo marueyles among this people, euen marueylous thinges (I saye) and a woonder: for the wysedome of their wyse menne shal perish, and the vnderstandyng of their wyttye men shall hyde it selfe.
16 Woe vnto them that keepe secrete their thoughtes, to hide their counsayle from the Lorde, and to doo their woorkes in darkenesse, sayeing, Who seeth vs, and who knoweth vs?
17 Doubtlesse your destruction is in reputation as the Potters claye: and doth the woorke say of hym that made it, He made not me? And doeth an earthen vessel say of him that fashioned it, He had no vnderstandyng?
18 Is it not hard at hand that Libanus shalbe turned into a lowe feeld, and that the lowe feelde shalbe taken as the wood?
19 And in that day shal deafe men heare the woordes of the booke, and the eyes of the blynde shal see euen out of the cloude, and out of darknesse.
20 The meeke spirited also shalbe merry in the Lorde, and the poore among them that be lowly shal reioyce in the holy one of Israel:
21 For he that dyd violence is brought to D nought, and the scornful man is consumed, and they rooted out that made hast early to vnrygh teousnesse,
22 Making a man to sinne in the word, and that rooke hym in a snare, whiche reproued them in the open place, and they that haue turned ꝑ cause of the ryghteous to nought.
23 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde to the house of Iacob, euen thus sayth he that redeemed Abraham, Iacob shal not nowe be confounded, nor his face pale.
24 But when he seeth his children ꝑ woorke of my handes in the myddes of hym, they shal sanctifie my name, and prayse the holy one of Iacob, and feare the GOD of Israel.
25 They also that haue ben of an erroneous spirite, shal come to vnderstandyng, & they that haue benne scorneful, shal learne doctrine.

Esai.47.b. Eccle.23.d. Ezech.9.c.

Esai.14.a.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1. Agaynst them that forsake the counsayle of God, and cleaue to the counsaile of men. 3. The prophete also threateneth the remnant of the people that after the destruction of Hierusalem went into Egypt.

1 ALas for those disobedient children, ꝑ sayth the Lorde, that they wyl take counsayle, and not of me, that they wyl take a secrete aduice, and not out of my spirite, and therefore adde they sinne vnto sinne.

Esai.8.b.

2 Euen

3 Euen they that walke to goo downe into Egypt, and haue aſked no queſtion at my mouth, but ſeeke ſtrength in the might of Pharao, and truſte in the ſhadowe of Egypt.

3 Therefore ſhal the ſtrength of Pharao be your confuſion, and the truſt in the ſhadow of Egypt your ſhame.

4 For his captaines were at Zoan, and his ambaſſadours came vnto Hanes.

2.king.18.d Ieremi.17.b Ezech.29.a 5 They were aſhamed of the people that could doo them no good, and that might not helpe them, nor ſhewe them any profite, but were their confuſion and rebuke.

6 The burden of the beaſtes of the South. In a lande of trouble and anguiſhe, from whence ſhal come the young and old Lion, the Viper, and fierce ſerpent that fleeth againſt them that vpon coltes beare their riches, and vpon Camels their treaſures, to a people that can doo them no good.

B 7 For vayne and nothing worth ſhal the helpe of the Egyptians be: therefore haue I cryed vnto Hieruſalem, they ſhall haue ſtrength ynough, if they wyl ſettle their myndes in quietneſſe.

Eſai.8.a. 8 Nowe therefore goe thy way, and write this before them in a table, and note it in a booke: that it may finally remaine and be kept ſtyl for euer.

Eſai.1.d. 9 For this is an obſtinate people, and diſſembling children, children that refuſe to heare the lawe of the Lord.

10 For they ſay vnto the ſeers, See not: and to them that be cleare of iudgement, Looke not out right things for vs: but ſpeake fayre woordes vnto vs, looke out errours, 11 Get you out of this way, departe out of this path, and turne the holy one of Iſrael from vs.

12 Wherefore thus ſayth the holy one of Iſrael, Becauſe your harte s riſe againſt this woord, and becauſe you truſt in wrong dealyng and peruerſe iudgement, and put your confidence therein:

13 Therefore ſhal ye haue this miſcheefe for your deſtruction and fall, like as an high wal that falleth becauſe of ſomme ryfte or blaſt, whole breaking commeth ſodainely.

C 14 And the hurte thereof is like an earthen Pſalm.2.b. veſſel whiche breaketh without helpe, ſo that in the burſting of it, there is not found one sheuer to fetche fire in, or to take water withal out of the pyt.

Exod.14.c. 15 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, euen the holy one of Iſrael, In repentance, and in reſt ſhal ye be ſafe, in quietneſſe and ſure confidence ſhalbe your ſtrength, but ye haue had no lyſt thereto.

16 For ye haue ſaid, No, but we wyl eſcape through horſes, therefore ſhal ye flee: and we wyl get vs vp vpon ſwift beaſtes, and therefore ſhall your perſecutours be ſwifter.

17 A thouſande ſhal flee at the rebuke of one, Leuit.26.d. and at the rebuke of fiue ſhal ye all flee, tyll Ioſua.23.d. ye be leaft as a ſhyp maſte vppon the toppe of a mountayne, and as a beakon vppon an hyl.

18 Therefore doeth the Lorde cauſe you to Roma.12.d. wayte, that he may haue mercie vpon you, to the intent that he may haue the preeminence when he is gratious vnto you: for the Lorde is the God of iudgement, Bleſſed are al they that hope in him.

19 If the people remaine in Sion, and at Hieruſalem, thou ſhalt not be in heauineſſe: but at the voyce of thy complaynt ſhall he haue mercy vpon thee, and when he heareth it, he ſhal geue thee an anſweare.

20 And though the Lord geue you the bread of trouble, and the water of aduerſitie, thy rayne ſhalbe no more ſo ſcant, but thyne eyes ſhal ſee thy rayne, 21 Yea, and thine eare ſhal heare the talkyng of him that doth ſpeake behinde thee: D Deut.4.d. This is the way, walke ye in it, turne not aſide neyther to the right hande, nor to the leaft.

22 Ye ſhal deſtroy alſo the couering of your ſyluer images, and the decking of your golden Idolles, euen as fylthineſſe ſhalt thou put them away, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto it, Geat thee hence.

23 Then ſhal God geue rayne vnto thy ſeede that thou ſhalt ſow the ground withal, and bread of the encreaſe of the earth, whiche ſhalbe fat and very plenteous: in that day alſo ſhal thy catayle be fedde in large paſtures.

24 The oxen likewiſe, and the young aſſes that eare the grounde, ſhal eate cleane prouender, whiche is purged with the wynde and the fanne.

25 Finally, vppon euery high mountayne & 2.Pet.1.b. hyll ſhall there be ryuers and ſtreames of waters, in the day of the great ſlaughter when the towres fal.

26 Moreouer, the light of the moone ſhalbe as the lyght of the ſunne, and the ſunne lyght ſhalbe ſeuen folde, and haue as muche ſhyne as in ſeuen dayes beſide, when the Lorde byndeth vp the ſore of his people, and healeth the ſtroke of their wounde.

27 Beholde, the name of the Lord commeth from farre, and his preſence is ſo hot, that no man is able to abide: his lyppes are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a conſumyng fyre.

28 His

28 his breath is a vehement flood of water that reacheth vp to the necke: that he may syft awaye the heathen in the syue of vanitie, and his breath is a bridle of error in the iawes of the people.

29 And ye shal syng lyke as in the nyght when the holy solemnitie begynneth, and ye shal haue gladnesse of hart, lyke as when one commeth with a pype vnto the hyll of the Lorde, and to the moste myghtie one of Israel.

30 And the Lorde shall cause his glorious voyce to be heard, and shal declare his stretched out arme with a terrible countenaunce, and with a flame of a consumyng fyre, with noysome lyghtenyng, with a shower, and with haylestones.

Esai.10.a. 31 For through the voyce of the Lorde shal Assur be destroyed, whiche smote other men with the rod.

32 And it shal come to passe, that whither so euer he goeth, the rod shal cleaue vnto him, whiche the Lorde shal laye vpon him, with Tabrets and Harpes: and with great warre shal he fyght agaynst his host.

Esai.33.b. 33 For the fyre of hell is ordeyned from the begynnyng, yea euen for the kyng is it prepared: this hath the Lord set in the deepe, and made it wyde, the burnyng wherof is fyre and muche wood: the breath of the Lord which is like a riuer of brimstone, doth kyndle it.

The.xxxi. Chapter.

He curseth them that forsake God, and seeke for the helpe of men.

1 WOE be vnto them that goe downe into Egypt for helpe, and trust in horses, & put their confidence in charrettes because they be many, and in horsemen, because they be lustie and strong: but they regard not the holy one of Israel, and they aske no question at the Lorde.

2 And he neuertheles is wyse, and wyll plague the wicked, and goeth not from his worde, he wyl aryse agaynst the housholde of the frowarde, and agaynst the helpe of euyl doers.

3 Nowe the Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesh, and not spirite: and as soone as the Lorde stretcheth out his hande, then shal the helper fal, and he that shoulde haue ben helped, and they shal altogeather be destroyed.

Esa. 4 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vnto me, 49.b. Like as the lion and lions whelpe roareth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afrayd though the multitude of sheepeheardes crye out vpon him, neither abashed for all the heape of them: so shal the Lorde of hostes come downe to fyght for mount Sion, and defend his hyl.

5 Lyke as the byrdes flutter about theyr Deut.32. neastes: so shal the Lorde of hostes keepe, saue, defende, and deliuer Hierusalem.

6 Therfore, O ye children of Israel, turne agayne vnto him whom you haue oft times forsaken.

7 For in that day euery man shal cast out B his idols of syluer, and his idols of golde, Esai.2.c. which ye haue made with your owne handes vnto your sinne.

8 Assur also shalbe slayne with the swoorde, Esai.37.c. not with a mans swoorde, neyther shal the swoorde of any man deuour him, and he shal flee from the slaughter, & his chosen young men shalbe discomfited.

9 He shal go for feare to his strong holdes, and his princes shal flee from his standard, sayth the Lorde, whose fyre is in Sion, and his furnace in Hierusalem.

The.xxxii. Chapter.

The conditions of good rulers and officers.

1 BEholde, a kyng shal gouerne after the A rule of righteousnesse, and the princes shal rule accordyng vnto the ballance of equitie.

2 And that man shalbe vntomen as a defence for the winde, and as a refuge for the tempest, lyke as a ryuer of water in a thirstie place, and the shadowe of a great rocke in a drye lande.

3 The eyes of the seing shal not be dimme, and the eares of them that heare shal take diligent heede.

4 The hart of the vnwyse shal atteyne to knowledge, and the vnperfecte tongue shal speake playnely and distinctly.

5 Then shal the foolishe nigard be no more called gentle, nor the churle liberal.

6 But the nigard wyl speake nigardly, and his hart wyl worke euyl, and play the hypocrite, & imagine abominations agaynst God, to make the hungrie leane, & to withholde drynke from the thirstie.

7 The weapons of the churlishe are euyll, B he deuiseth noysome deuises, that he may beguile the poore with deceitfull wordes, yea euen there as he shoulde geue sentence with the poore.

8 But the liberal person imagineth honest Pro.17.b. thynges, and commeth vp for liberalitie vnto promotion.

9 Vp ye riche and idle women, hearken vnto my voyce, ye careles daughters marke my wordes.

10 Many

10 Many yeares & dayes ſhal ye be vexed in feare, O ye careleſſe women: for the vintage ſhal fayle, and the harueſt ſhal not come.

11 Be aſhamed, you that liue in abundance, tremble you that liue careleſſe, caſt of your rayment, make your ſelues bare, and put ſackcloth about you.

12 For as the infantes weepe when their mothers teates are dryed vp: ſo ſhall you weepe for your fayre feeldes, and fruitefull vineyardes.

13 My peoples feelde ſhall bryng thornes and thyſtles: and ſo ſhal it be in euery houſe of voluptuouſneſſe, and in euery citie that reioyceth.

C 14 The palaces alſo ſhalbe broken, and the greatly occupied cities deſolate: The towres and bulwarkes ſhal become dennes for euermore, where wylde aſſes take their pleaſure, and theepe their paſture.

15 Vnto the time that the ſpirite be powred vpon vs from aboue, and that the wyldernes be a fruitful feelde, and the plenteous feelde be reckoned for a wood.

16 Then ſhal equitie dwel in the deſart, and ryghteouſneſſe in a fruitefull lande.

Rom.5.a. Ierem.33. 17 And the worke of righteouſneſſe ſhalbe peace, and her fruite reſt and quietneſſe for euer.

18 And my people ſhal dwel in the Innes of peace, and in ſure dwellynges, in ſafe places of comfort.

19 And when the hayle falleth, it ſhall fall in the wood, and the citie ſhalbe ſet lowe in the valley.

20 O howe happie ſhal ye be when ye ſhal ſafely ſow your ſeede beſide al waters, and driue thither the feete of your oxen & aſſes.

The.xxxiii. Chapter.

I. Threatning againſt the Aſſyrians.
20. A deſtruction of them that ſhal ſee the Lorde.

A I WOE to thee that deſtroyeſt whē thou waſt not deſtroyed, thou breakeſt the league, where as none hath broken it with thee: for when thou ſhalt leaue deſtroying, thou thee ſelfe ſhalt be deſtroyed: and when thou ceaſſeſt from breakyng the league, then ſhal they breake it to thee.

Exod.21.b. Leuit.24.d Deut.11.c. Math.7.a. 2 O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, we haue put our whole truſt in thee: be an arme to ſuche earlie, and our health in the tyme of tronble.

Pſalm.9.b. 3 At that conſuſe noyſe the people fled, & at thyne exaltyng the heathen were ſcattered.

4 And the ſpoyles ſhalbe gathered, which ſhalbe yours, as are the gatherynge of Bruthus, and the multitude goyng to it ſhalbe as Locuſtes runnyng to and fro.

5 The Lorde is exalted, for it is he that dwelleth on high, he hath filled Sion with iudgement and ryghteouſneſſe.

6 And a ſure ſtablishing of the times, ſhalbe ſtrength, health, wiſdome, & knowledge: and the very feare of the Lorde ſhalbe the treaſure of it.

7 Behold the meſſengers ſhal crie without: B and the embaſſadours of peace ſhall weepe bytterly.

8 Their ſtreetes are waſte, there walketh no man therein: God hath broken the appointment, the cities are caſt away, and men are nothyng regarded.

9 The deſolate earth is in heauineſſe, Libanus is ſhamed and hewen downe, Saron is lyke a wyldernes, Baſan and Charmel are ſpoyled of their fruites.

10 And therefore ſayth the Lorde, I wyl vp nowe, nowe wyl I be aduaunced, nowe wyl I be exalted.

11 Ye ſhal conceiue ſtubble, & beare ſtrawe: Iſam.5.a. and your ſpirite ſhalbe the fyre, that it may conſume you.

12 And the people ſhalbe burnt lyke lyme, and as thornes burnt that are hewen of, and caſt in the fyre.

13 Nowe hearken to, ye that are farre of, howe I haue done, and conſyder my power ye that are at hande.

14 The ſinners at Sion are afraide, a ſo- C dayne fearefulneſſe is come vpon the hypocrites: What is he among vs, ſay they, that ſhal dwel by ỹ conſuming fyre? Which of vs may abyde the euerlaſtyng heate?

15 He that leadeth a godly lyfe, & ſpeaketh Pſal.14. the trueth, he that abhorreth gaines by vi- and.23.a. olence and deceite, he that kepeth his hand that he touche no reward, whiche ſtoppeth his eares that he heare no counſaile againſt the innocent blood, whiche holdeth downe his eyes that he ſee no euyl:

16 He it is that ſhal dwel on hygh, whoſe ſafegarde ſhalbe in a bulwarke of rockes: to him ſhalbe geuen meate, and his waters ſhal not fayle.

17 Thine eyes ſhal ſee the king in his glorie, euen the king of the farre countreyes ſhall they ſee.

18 Thine hart ſtudied for feare, thynkyng I.Cap.L. thus, What ſhal then become of the ſcribe? of the receiuer of our money? what of him that taxed our fayreſt houſes?

19 There ſhalt thou not ſee a cruel people of a ſtrange tongue, to haue ſo defuſed a language that it may not be vnderſtanded, neither ſo ſtrange a ſpeache but it ſhalbe perceyued.

20 Looke

20 Looke vppon Sion, the head citie of our solemne feastes: thine eyes shal see Hierusalem that glorious habitation, the tabernacle that neuer shal remoue, whose nayles shal neuer be taken out for euer without end, whose cordes euery one shal neuer corrupt.

D 21 For the glorious maiestie of the Lord shal there be present among vs, as a place where fayre broad ryuers & streames are, through the whiche, shal neither Galley rowe, nor great shyp saile.

Iudi. 4. c. 22 For the Lorde is our iudge, the Lorde is our lawe geuer, the Lord is our king, and he him selfe shalbe our sauiour.

23 Thy tackling is loosed, therefore it can not make fast the mast, nor spread the sayle: then there is dealed great spoyle, yea, lame men runne after the pray.

24 There lyeth no man that sayth, I am sicke: but al euyl is taken away from the people that dwell there.

The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

The last destruction of the synagogue, in which the kyngdome and priesthood of the people was translated to the Church and congregation of Christe.

A 1 COme ye heathen, & heare, take heede, you people: hearken thou earth, and al that is therein, thou rounde compasse, and al that dwelleth therupon.

2 For the Lord is angry with al people, and his displeasure is kindeled against all the multitude of them, he hath destroyed them, and deliuered them to the slaughter.

3 So that their slaine shalbe caste out, and their bodyes shal stinke, that euen the very hylles shalbe wet with the blood of them.

4 Al the starres of heauen shal waste, and the heauens shal fold together like a roule, and al the starres thereof shal fal, lyke as the leaues fall from the vines and frygge trees.

5 For my swoorde shalbe bathed in heauen, and shal immediatly come downe to iudgement vppon Idumea, and vppon the people whiche I haue cursed.

6 And the Lords swoord shalbe ful of blood, and be rustie with the fatnesse and blood of lambes and goates, with the fatnesse of the kydneyes of weathers: For the Lorde shal kyl a great offeryng in Bozra, and a great slaughter in the lande of Idumea.

7 There shal the Unicornes fal with them, and the Bulles with the Oxenes, & their lande shalbe throughly soked with blood, and their grounde corrupt with fatnesse.

8 For it is the (a) day of Gods vengeance, and the yeere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion.

9 And his floodes shalbe turned to pitche, and his earth to brymstone, and therwith shal the lande be kindeled.

10 So that it shal not be quenched day nor nyght, but smoke euermore, and so forth lye waste: and no man shal goe through it for euer.

11 But Pelicanes, Stozkes, great Owles, and Rauens, shal haue it in possession, and dwel therein: for God shal spreade out the lyne of desolation vpon it, and the stones of emptinesse.

12 Her nobles shall call, and there is no kyngdome: and all her princes shalbe nothing.

13 Thornes shall growe in their palaces, nettles and thystles in their strong holdes, that the Dragons maye haue their pleasure therein, and that they may be a courte for Estriches.

C 14 There shal strange vsures and monsterous beastes meete one another, and the wylde keepe company together, there shal the Lamia lye and haue her lodgyng.

15 There shal the Owle make her neast, buylde, be there at home, and bryng forth her young ones: there shal the Kytes come together, eche one to his like.

16 Seeke through the booke of the Lorde, and reade it: there shal none of these things be leaft out, there shal not one for such like fayle: for his mouth commaundeth, & that same doth his spirite gather together, for fulfyl.

17 He hath cast the lot for them, and to those beastes hath his hande diuided it by the lyne: therefore shal they possesse it for euer, from generation to generation shal they dwell therein.

The. xxxv. Chapter.

Of the tyme and kyngdome of Christe.

1 BUt (a) the desart and wyldernesse shal reioyce, the waste grounde shalbe glad, and flozishe as the Lylie.

2 She shal flozish pleasantly, and be ioyful, and euer be geuyng thankes more & more: For the glory of Libanus, the beautie of Charmel and Saron, shalbe geuen her: These shal moue the honour of the Lorde, and the maiestie of our God.

3 And therefore (b) strength the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees.

4 Say vnto them that are of a fearful hart, Be of good cheare, and feare not, beholde, your God commeth to take vengeance, and

B 7 The drye ground shal turne to riuers, and the thirstie to springes of water: whereas dragons dwelt afore, there shal grow sweet flowres and greene rushes.

8 There shalbe foote pathes, and common streetes, this shalbe called the holy way, no vncleane person shal goe through it, for the Lorde him selfe shal go with them that way, and the wayfarer not ignorant shall not erre.

9 There shalbe no Lion, and no rauishyng beastes shal come therein, nor be there, but men redeemed shal goe there free and safe.

10 And the redeemed of the Lorde, I say, shal conuert, and come to Sion with thankesgeuing: euerlastyng ioye shal they haue, pleasure and gladnesse shalbe among them, and as for al sorowe and heauinesse, it shal banishe.

The. xxxvi. Chapter.

Hierusalem is besieged by Sennacherib, in the tyme of kyng Ezekias.

A 1 IN the fourteenth yeere of king Ezekias,

2.king. 18.c. 2.Chr. 32.a Esai. 7.b. .b. 10.a. 7.b. & 32.a came Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians downe, to laye syege vnto all the strong cities of Iuda, to conquer them.

2 And the kyng of the Assyrians sent Rabsakeh from Lachis towarde Hierusalem, against Ezekias, with an exceedyng host, whiche set hym by the conduite of the ouer poole, in the way that goeth through the Fullers lande.

3 And so there came forth vnto him Eliakim, Helkias sonne, the cheefe ouer the houshold, Sobna the scribe, and Joah Asaphs sonne the secretarie:

Esai. 22.

4 And Rabsakeh saide vnto them, Tel Ezekia that the great king sayth thus vnto hym, What presumption is this that thou trustest vnto?

5 I saide surely that thou trustest in vayne woordes, when counsaile and strength are necessarie to batayle: but nowe whereto trustest thou, that thou rebellest against me?

2 kinc. 18.b 6 Loe, thou puttest thy trust in a broken staffe of reede, (I meane) Egypt, whiche he that leaneth vpon, it goeth into his hande, and thrusteth it throughe: so is Pharao the king of Egypte, vnto all them that truste in him.

7 But if thou wouldest say vnto me, We trust in the Lorde our God: Is not he that God whose high places and aulters Ezekia tooke downe, and commaunded Juda and Hierusalem to woorshyp onely before this aulter?

8 Nowe therfore deliuer hostages, that thou rebel no more against my lorde the king of the Assyrians, and I wyll geue thee two thousande horses, if thou be able to set men vpon them.

9 Howe darest thou resist the power of the smallest prince that my Lorde hath? howe darest thou trust in the charettes and horsemen of Egypt?

10 Moreouer, thinkest thou that I am come vp hyther to destroy this lande without the Lordes wyl? The Lorde said vnto me, Goe vp against this lande, and destroy it.

11 Then saide Eliakim, Sobna, and Joah, vnto Rabsakeh, Speake to vs thy seruantes, we pray thee, in the Syrians language, for we vnderstand it wel, and speake not to vs in the Iewes tongue, lest the folke heare whiche lyeth vpon the wal.

12 Then answeared Rabsakeh, Hath my maister sent me to speake this onely to thy maister and thee? hath he not sent me to them also that lye vppon the wal? that they may be compelled to eate their own doung, and drinke their owne stale with you?

13 And Rabsakeh stoode styffe, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes tongue, & said, Now take heede howe the great kyng of the Assyrians geueth you warning, 14 Thus saith the king, Let not Ezekia deceiue you, for he shal not be able to deliuer you.

15 Moreouer, let not Ezekia comfort you in the Lorde, when he sayth, The Lord without doubt shal defend vs, and shal not geue ouer this citie into the handes of the king of the Assyrians.

16 Hearken not to Ezekia, for thus sayth the kyng of Assyria, Obteyne my fauour, encline to me, so may euery man enioye his vineyardes and figge trees, and drinke the water of his Cesterne:

17 Vntil the tyme that I come me selfe, and bring you into a land that is like your own, wherein is wheate and wine, which is both sowen with seede, and planted with vineyardes.

Esai. 10.c. 18 Let not Ezekia deceyue you, when he sayth vnto you, The Lorde shal deliuer vs: nyght the Gods of the Gentiles kepe euery mans lande from the power of the kyng of of the Assyrians?

19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defend Samaria out of my hand?
20 Of which of al the gods of these landes hath deliuered their countrey out of my power? Is the Lorde in deede able to deliuer Hierusalem from my hande?
21 Unto this Ezekias messengers helde their tongues, & answered not one worde: for the kyng had charged them that they shoulde geue hym no answere.
22 So came Eliakim Helkias sonne the chefe ouer the houshold, Sobna the scribe, and Joah Asaphes sonne the secretary, vnto Ezekia with rent clothes, and told hym the wordes of Rabsakeh.

The .xxxvii. Chapter.

1. Ezekia humbleth hym selfe before the Lorde. 35. The armie of Sennacherib is slaine of the angel of the Lord. 38. and he him selfe is killed of his owne sonnes.

1 When Ezekia heard that, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth, & went into the temple of the Lorde.
4.Reg.19.a
2 But he sent Eliakim the chefe ouer the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, with the eldest priestes, clothed in sacke, vnto the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos,
Esai.3.a. 3 And they said vnto him, thus saith Ezekia, This is the day of trouble, of plague, and of blasphemie: for the chyldren are come to the place of byrth, but there is no power to bryng them forth.
4 The Lorde thy God (no doubt) hath wel considered the wordes of Rabsakeh, whom his lorde kyng of the Assyrians hath sent to defie and blaspheme the liuing God, with suche wordes as the Lorde thy God hath heard right wel: and therefore lift vp thy prayer for the remnant that yet are left.
5 So the seruants of the kyng Ezekia came to Esai.
6 And Esai gaue them this answere, Say thus vnto your lord, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afrayd of the wordes that thou hast heard, wherwith the king of the Assyrians seruants haue blasphemed me.
B 7 Behold, I will raise vp a wynde against hym, and he shal heare a rumour, and he shal go againe into his countrey, there wyl I destroy him with the swoorde in his owne lande.
Esai.37.c. 8 Now when Rabsakeh returned, he found the kyng of Assyria laying siege to Libnas: for he had vnderstanding that he was departed from Lachis.
9 And there came a rumor that Tharakas king of Ethiopia was come forth to warre against him: and when the kyng of Assyria hearde that, he sent other messengers to kyng Ezekia with this commaundement.
10 Say thus to Ezekia king of Juda, Let not thy God deceiue thee in whom thou hopest, and sayest, Hierusalem shal not be geuen into the handes of the kyng of Assyria.
11 For loe, thou knowest well howe the kynges of Assyria haue handeled al the landes that they haue subuerted: and hopest thou to escape?
12 Were the people of the Gentiles whom my progenitours conquered, deliuered at any time through their gods? (As namely) Golan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden, whiche were at Thalassar? I.Kin.17.a.
13 Where is the kyng of Hemath, and the kyng of Arphad, and the kyng of the citie Sepharuaim, Ena, and Ana?
14 Nowe when Ezekia had receyued the C letter of the messengers, and read it, he went vp into the house of the Lorde, and opened the letter before the Lorde.
15 And Ezekia prayed vnto the Lorde (on this maner.)
16 O Lorde of hostes, thou God of Israel, which dwellest vpon Cherubim, thou art the God that onely is God of all the kyngdomes of the worlde, for thou onely hast created heauen and earth. Exod.25.c. Gene.1.a. Baruc.1.c.
17 Encline thine eare Lord, & consyder, open thine eyes Lord, and see, and ponder al the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent his embassage to blaspheme the liuing God.
18 It is true, O Lord, that the kings of Assyria haue conquered al kingdomes & landes, 19 And cast their gods in the fyre: for those were no goddes, but the woorkes of mens handes, of wood, or stone, therefore haue they destroyed them.
20 Nowe therefore deliuer vs, O Lord our God, from the hands of Sennacherib, that al the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onely art the Lorde.
21 Then Esai the sonne of Amos sent vnto D Ezekia, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Whereas thou hast made thy prayer vnto me as touching Sennacherib the kyng of Assyria, 22 This is the answere that the Lord hath geuen concerning him: Despised art thou and mocked, O daughter Sion, he hath shaken his head at thee, O daughter of Hierusalem.
23 But thou Sennacherib, whom hast thou defied & blaspheme? Against whom hast thou Zacha.2.b. Mat.25.b. Actes.9.c.

thou lyfteſt vp thy voyce, and exalteſt thy proude lookes? euen agaynſt the holy one of Iſrael.

24 Thou with thy ſeruantes haſt blaſphemed the Lorde, and thus holdeſt thou of thee ſelfe: I wyl couer the hygh mountaines and ſydes of Libanus with my horſemen, and there wyll I cut downe the hygh Cedar trees, and the fayreſt Fyrre trees: I wyl vp into the heyght of it, and into the cheefeſt of his tymber woodes.

25 If there be no water, I wyl graue and drinke: and as for waters of defence, I wyl dryue them vp with the feete of myne hoſt.

26 Yea, haſt thou not hearde what I haue taken in hand and brought to paſſe of olde time? That ſame wyll I doo nowe alſo, & waſte, deſtroy, and bryng ſtrong cities vnto heapes of ſtones.

27 For their inhabiters ſhalbe lyke lame men brought in feare and confounded: they ſhalbe like graſſe and greene hoardes in the feelde, like the hay vpon houſe toppes, that wytherith before it be growen vp.

C 28 I knowe thy wayes, thy goyng foorth, and thy commyng home, yea and thy madneſſe agaynſt me.

29 Therefore thy furiouſneſſe agaynſt me, and thy pryde is come before me, I wyl put my ryng in thy noſe, and my brydle byt in thy lawes of thee, and turne thee about, euen the ſame way that thou cameſt.

30 I wil geue thee alſo this token (O Ezekia) this yere ſhalt thou eate ſuche as groweth of it ſelfe, and the ſeconde yere that which ſpryngeth agayne of the ſame, and in the thirde yeare ye ſhal ſowe and reape, yea ye ſhal plant vineyardes, and enioy the fruites therof.

31 And ſuch of the houſe of Iuda as are eſcaped, ſhal come together, & the remnant ſhal take roote beneath, and bryng foorth fruite about.

32 For the eſcaped ſhal goe out of Hieruſalem, & the remnant from the mount Sion: and this ſhal the zeale of the Lord of hoſtes bryng to paſſe.

33 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord, concerning the king of the Aſſyrians, he ſhal not come into this citie, and ſhall ſhoote no arrowe into it, there ſhal no ſhielde hurt it, neyther ſhal they caſt dikes about it.

F 34 The ſame way he came he ſhal returne, and not come at this citie, ſaith the Lord.

2.Reg.19.g Eccle.48.d Eſai.31.b. 2.Mac.15.d

35 And I wyl kepe and ſaue this citie (ſaith he) for mine owne, and for my ſeruant Dauids ſake.

36 Thus the angel of the Lord went forth, and ſlue of the Aſſyrians hoſt, an hundreth ſcore ſcape and fyue thouſande: and when men aroſe vp early in the morning, behold they were ſlayne, and al lay ful of dead bodyes.

37 So Sennacherib the kyng of the Aſſyrians brake vp, and dwelt at Niniue.

38 Afterwarde it chaunced as he prayed in the temple of Nelroch his God, that Adramalech and Sarazer his owne ſonnes ſlue him with the ſworde, and fled into the land of Armenia: and Aſarhaddon his ſonne raigned in his ſtede.

The .xxxviii. Chapter.

I. Ezekia is ſicke vnto death. 5. but is yet reuiued by the Lorde, and lyueth fyftiene yeres after. 10. For whiche benefite he geueth thankes.

1 ABout this tyme was Ezekia ſicke vnto death, and the Prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amos, came vnto him, and ſayde, Thus commaundeth the Lord, Set thine houſe in order, for thou muſt die, and ſhalt not eſcape. A 2.Reg.20.a 2.Par.32.a

2 Then Ezekia turned his face toward the wal, and prayed vnto the Lorde:

3 And ſayde, Remember, O Lorde, I beſeeche thee, that I haue walked before thee in trueth and a ſtedfaſt hart, and haue done the thyng that is pleaſant to thee. And Ezekia wept ſore.

4 Then ſayde God vnto Eſai,

5 Goe, and ſpeake vnto Ezekia, The Lord God of Dauid thy father ſendeth thee this worde, I haue hearde thy prayer, and conſydered thy teares: beholde, I wyl put fyftiene yeres more vnto thy lyfe, Iona.3.

6 And deliuer thee and thy citie alſo from the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria: for I wil defende the citie.

7 And take thee this token of the Lord, that he wyl doo it as he hath ſpoken. B 2.Reg.20.

8 Beholde, I wyl returne the ſhadowe of Ahaz dyal that nowe is layde out with the ſunne, and bring it ten degrees backward. So the ſunne turned ten degrees backward, the which he was deſcended afore. Iohn.11.c

9 A thankeſgeuyng whiche Ezekia kyng of Iuda wrote, when he had ben ſicke, and was recouered.

10 I thought I ſhoulde haue gonne to the gates of hel, when mine age was hortned, and haue wanted the reſidue of my yeres.

11 I ſpake within mee ſelfe, I wyl neuer viſite the Lorde (the Lorde I ſay) in this lyfe: I wyll neuer ſee man among the dwellers of the worlde.

12 Mine age is folden together, and taken away from me lyke a ſhepheardes cotage, I haue hewen of my life (by my ſinnes) like

as

as a weauer cutteth of his webbe: he wyll with pynyng sickneſſe make an ende of me, yea, he wyl make an ende of me in one day.
13 I thought I wouldе haue lyued vntil the morowe, but he bruſed my bones like a Lion: and in one day thou wilt make an ende of me.
14 Then chattered I like a Swallowe, and lyke a Crane, and mourned lyke a Doue,
I lyfte vp myne eyes into the height: O
Lorde (ſayde I) my ſickneſſe keepeth me downe, eaſe thou me.
15 What ſhal I ſay? the Lord hath made a promiſe to me, yea, and he hym ſelfe hath performed it: I wyl therfore ſo long as I lyue remember this bitternеſſe of my lyfe.
16 O Lord, to all thoſe that ſhal lіue hereafter, yea to all men that it be knowen, that euen in thoſe yeeres I haue a ioyful life, and that it was thou that cauſedſt me to ſleepe, agayne thou haſt geuen lyfe to me.
17 Beholde, bitter as gall was my penſiue-neſſe, ſo ſore longed I for health, and it was thy pleaſure to deliuer my lyfe from the filthy pyt: for thou it is (O Lorde) that haſt caſt al my ſinnes behinde thy backe.
18 For hel prayſeth not thee, death doth not magnifie thee: they that goe downe into the graue prayſe not thy trueth:
19 But the liuing, yea the liuing knowledge thee, as I do this day: the father telleth his children of thy faythfulneſſe.
20 To heale me it is the Lordes worke, and we wyl ſyng my ſongnes in the houſe of the Lorde al the dayes of our life.
21 And Eſai ſaid, Take a plaſter of figges, and lay it vpon the ſore, ſo ſhal it be whole.
22 Then ſayde Ezekia, O what a myracle is this, that I ſhal goe vp into the houſe of the Lorde.

The. xxxix. Chapter.

Ezekia is reproued of Eſai, becauſe he ſhe-wed his treaſure vnto the Embaſſadours of Babylon.

1 AT the ſametime Merodach Baladans ſonne king of Babylon ſent letters and preſentes to Ezekia: for he vnderſtoode that he had ben ſicke, and was reco-uered agayne.
2 And Ezekia was glad therof, and ſhewed them the houſe of his treaſures of ſiluer and golde, of ſpices, and oyles, and all that was in cubbordes and treaſure houſes: there was not one thyng in Ezekias houſe, and ſo throughout all his kyngdome, but he let them ſee it.
3 Then came Eſai the prophet to king Eze-kia, and ſayde vnto hym, What haue the men ſayde, and from whence came they vnto thee? Ezekia anſwered, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon,
4 Eſai ſayde, What haue they looked vpon in thy houſe? Ezekia anſwered, Al that is in my houſe haue they ſeene, & there is nothing in my treaſure but I ſhewed it them.
5 Then ſaid Eſai vnto Ezekia, Underſtand
the worde of the Lorde of hoſtes:
6 Behold, the time wil come that euery thing which is in thine houſe, and al that thy pro-genitours haue layde vp in ſtore vntill this day, ſhalbe caried to Babylon, and nothing left behinde, thus ſayth the Lorde.
7 Yea and part of thy ſonnes that ſhal come of thee, and whom thou ſhalt begeat, ſhalbe caried hence, and become gelded chamberlaynes in the kyng of Babylons court.
8 Then ſayde Ezekia to Eſai, Good is the worde of God whiche thou haſt tolde me.
He ſayde moreouer, For there ſhalbe peace and faythfulneſſe in my tyme.

The. xl. Chapter.

3. The commyng of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt. 9. The preparation of the Apoſtles. 11. The calling of the Genriles.

1 COmfort my people, (O ye prophetes) comfort my people, ſayth your God.
2 Comfore Hieruſalem at the hart, and tel her that her trauayle is at an ende, that her offence is pardoned, that ſhe hath receiued at the Lordes hande ſufficient correction for al her ſinnes.
3 A voyce crieth in wilderneſſe: Prepare the way of the Lord, make ſtraight the path of our God in the deſart.
4 Al valleys ſhalbe exalted, & euery mountayne and hil layd lowe: what ſo is crooked ſhalbe made ſtraight, and the rough ſhalbe made playne.
5 For the glory of the Lorde ſhal appeare, for al fleſhe ſhal at once ſee that the mouth of the Lorde hath ſpoken it.
6 The ſame voyce ſpake, Mowe crye. And the prophete anſwered, What ſhal I cry?
That al fleſhe is graſſe, & that al the good-lyneſſe therof is as the floure of the feelde.
7 The graſſe is withered, the floure falleth away, for the breath of the Lorde bloweth vpon ther: of a trueth the people are graſſe.
8 The graſſe withereth, and the floure fa-deth away: yet the worde of our God endu-reth for euer.
9 Get vp vnto the hygh hyl, O Sion, thou that bringeſt good tidinges, lyft vp thy voyce with power, O thou preacher Hieruſalem, lift it vp without feare, and ſay vnto the cities of Iuda, Beholde your God.

11 He ſhal feede his flocke like an heardman, he ſhall geather the lambes togeather with his arme, and cary them in his boſome, and ſhal kindly entreate thoſe that beare young.

12 Who hath meaſured the waters in his fiſt? who hath meaſured heauen with his ſpan, and hath comprehended all the earth of the worlde in three meaſures? who hath wayed the mountaynes and hilles in a ballance?

Eſai.44.d. 22 It is he that ſitteth vpon the circle of the worlde, whoſe inhabiters are (in compariſon of hym) but as graſſhoppers: he ſpreadeth out the heauens as a couerynge, he ſtretcheth them out as a tent to dwel in.

23 He bringeth princes to nothing, and the iudges of the earth as though they were not.

24 So that of them it may be ſayde, They be not planted nor ſowen agayne, neyther theyr ſtocks rooted agayne in the earth: for alſoone as he bloweth vpon them, they wyther and fade away like the ſtrawe in a whirle winde.

27 Howe may then Jacob thinke, or may Iſrael ſay, My wayes are hidde from the Lorde, and my GOD knoweth not of my iudgementes?

28 Knoweſt thou not, or haſt thou not heard E that the euerlaſtyng God, the Lord whiche made al the corners of the earth, is neyther weerie nor faynt? and that his wyſedome can not be comprehended?

29 It is he that geueth ſtrength vnto the weery, and power vnto the faynt.

30 Chyldren are weerie and faynt, and the ſtrong men fal:

31 But vnto them that haue theyr truſt in Jere.17.b. the Lord, ſhal ſtrength be encreaſed: Egles wynges ſhal growe vpon them, when they runne they ſhall not fal, and when they goe they ſhal not be weery.

1 BE ſtil you (a) Iſlandes, and hearken vnto me: let the people lay theyr ſtrength togeather, let them come hyther, and then ſhewe theyr cauſe: we wyl goe to the lawe togeather.

2 Who rayſed vp the (b) iuſt man from the eaſt, and called him to goe foorth? who caſt downe the people, and ſubdued the kynges before hym? that he may throwe them all to the grounde with his ſworde, and ſcatter them like ſtubble with his bowe.

3 He foloweth vpon them, and goeth ſafely him ſelfe, and that in a way where before his foote had not troden.

4 Who hath made and created theſe things? euen he that called the generations from the beginning, euen I the Lorde which am the firſt, and with the laſt.

5 The Iſles ſawe and dyd feare, and the endes of the earth were abaſhed, drewe nygh, and came hyther.

6 Euery man helped his neyghbour, and ſayde to his brother, Be ſtrong.

7 The carpenter comforted the goldſmyth, B and the goldſmith the hammerman, ſaying, Sowder wil do very wel in it: and they faſtened it with nayles, that it ſhould not be moued.

8 But thou Iſrael art my ſeruant, thou Jacob whom I haue choſen, thou art the ſeede of Abraham my beloued.

(a) By the Iſlandes, God meaneth the gentiles, who be reproued for their idolatry.

(b) By the iuſt man, is ment Abraham, who being called out of Vr of the Chaldeans, who being inſtructed by fayth, became the father of many nations, whom God alwaye defended as gayneſtal his enimies.

9 Thou

9 Thou art he whom I led from the endes of the earth: for I called thee euen from among the glorious men of it, and sayde vnto thee, Thou art my seruant, I haue chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Be not afrayde, for I am with thee: Melt not away as waxe, for I am thy GOD, to strength thee, helpe thee, and kepe thee with the right hande of my righteousnesse. Psal.44.b.

11 Beholde, al they that resist thee shall come to confusion and shame, and thyne aduersaries shalbe destroyed & brought to nought.

12 So that who so seeketh after them, shall not fynde them, thy destroyers shal perish: and so shall they that vndertake to make batelle against thee be as that is not, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the Lorde thy God wyll strengthen thy right hande, euen I that say vnto thee, Feare not, I wyl helpe thee.

C 14 Be not afrayde, thou litle wormе Iacob, and thou despised Israel: for I wyl helpe thee, sayth the Lord, and the holy one of Israel thy redeemer.

15 Beholde, I wyl make thee a treading cart and a newe flayle, that thou mayest threshe and grinde the mountaynes, and bring the hilles to powder.

16 Thou shalt fanne them, and the winde shal cary them away, and the whirle wind shal scatter them: but thou shalt reioyce in the Lorde, and shalt delight in the holy one of Israel. Psal.22.f.

17 When the thirstie and poore seeke water and fynde none, and when their tongue is dryed of thirst, I geue it them, saith the lord, I the God of Israel forsake them not.

18 I bring foorth floodes in the hilles, and welles in the playne feeldes: I turne the wildernesse to riuers, and the dryе land to conduites of water. Esai.35.b. 44.a.

19 I plant in the waste grounde trees of Cedar, Bore, Myrte, and Olines, and in the drie I set Firre trees, Elmes, and Hawthornes together.

20 At this doo I, that they altogether may see and marke, perceyue with their hartes, and consyder that the hande of the Lorde maketh these things, and that the holy one of Israel bringeth them to passe.

D 21 Stande at your cause, sayth the Lord, and bring foorth your strongest grounde, sayth the king of Iacob.

22 Let them bring foorth their goddes, and let their goddes tel vs what shall chaunce hereafter, yea let them shewe vs the things that are past what they be, let them declare them vnto vs, that we may take them to hart, and knowe them hereafter.

23 Either shewe vs thinges for to come, and tel vs what shalbe donne hereafter, so shall we knowe that ye are goddes: doo some thing either good or bad, so wyll we both knowledge the same, and tel it out.

24 Beholde, ye are goddes of nought, and your making is of nought: yea abominable is the man that hath chosen you.

25 Neuertheless, I haue waked vp one from the north, and he shal come from the east, he shal call vpon my name, and shall treade vpon princes as vpon clay, and as the potter treadeth downe the myre. Esai.43.a. Cyrus.

26 Who declareth this from the beginning, and we wyll knowe him: or from the olde times, and we wyll confesse and say that he is righteous? but there is none that sheweth or declareth any thing, there is none also that heareth your woordes.

27 The fyrst is he that shal say to Sion, Beholde, behold they are present: and to Hierusalem it selfe wyl I geue an euangelist.

E 28 But when I consyder there is not a man among them, nor any that can geue counsayle, nor that when I examine them that can answeare one woorde.

29 Lo wicked are they, and vayne, with the thinges also that they take in hande, yea their images are but wind & vaine things.

The comming of Christe.

1 BEholde, this is my seruant vpon whom I leane, my elect in whom my soule is pacified: I haue geuen my spirite vpon him, that he may shewe foorth iudgement among the Gentiles. A Mat.3.b. 12.a.17.a.

2 He shal not be an out cryer, nor lyft vp his voyce, his voyce shal not be heard in the streetes.

3 And a broosed reede shall he not breake, & the smoking flaxe shal he not quenche: but faithfully & truely shal he geue iudgement.

4 He shal not be pensiue nor careful, that he may restore righteousnesse vnto the earth: & the gentiles also shal looke for his lawes.

5 For thus sayth God the Lorde vnto him, euen he that made the heauens and spread them abroade, and set forth the earth with her encreasle, which geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and spirite to them that dwel therein, Esai.40.c. and 44.a.

6 I the Lorde haue called thee in righteousnesse, and wyl holde thee by the hande, and wyl also defende thee, and geue thee for a couenant of the people, to be the lyght of the gentiles. Esai.49.c. Luke.2.c.

7 That thou mayest open the eyes of the blinde, let out the prisoners from their bondes, and them that sit in darknesse out of the dungeon house. B Zach.9.b.

8 Euen I am the Lord, & this is my name: and my glory wyll I geue to none other, neither myne honour to grauen images.
9 Beholde, olde thinges are come to paſſe, and newe thinges doo I declare, and or euer they comme I tell you of them.
10 Sing vnto the Lorde a newe ſong of thankeſgeuing, & lowe out his prayſe from the ende of the worlde: they that be vppon the ſea, and all that is therein prayſe him, the Iſles and they that dwel in them.
11 Let the wyldernesſe with the cities lyft vp her voyce, the townes alſo that they of Cedar dwel in: let them be glad that ſytte vppon rockes of ſtone, and let them crye downe from the high mountaines, 12 Aſcribing glory vnto the Lorde, and magnifying him among the Gentiles.
13 The Lorde ſhall comme forth like a Giaunt, & take a ſtomacke to him like a frethe man of warre: he ſhal roare and crye, and ouercome his enimies.
14 I haue long holden my peace (ſayth the Lorde) (a) I haue benne ſtil and refrained mee ſelfe, but nowe I wyll crie like a trauayling woman, and at once wyl I deſtroy and deuoure.
15 I wyl make waſte both mountayne and hil, and drye vp euery greene thing that groweth thereon: I wyl dryue vp the fludes to become Ilandes, & drinke vp the riuers.
16 I will bring the blinde into a ſtreete that they knowe not, and leade them into a foote-path that they are ignorant in: I ſhal make darkneſſe light before them, and the thing that is crooked to be ſtraight: Theſe thinges haue I donne vnto them, and not forſaken them.
17 They are fallen backe, yea and let them be aſhamed earneſtly that hope in idols, and ſay to the moulten images, Ye are our goddes.
18 Heare O ye deafe men, and harken your eyes to ſee, O ye blinde.
19 Who is blinde but my ſeruant? or ſo deafe as (b) my meſſenger whom I ſent vnto them? for who is ſo blinde as the perfect man, and ſo blinde as the Lordes ſeruant?
20 Thou haſt ſeene muche, and keepeſt nothing: the eares are open, & no man heareth.
21 The Lorde is merciſull vnto them for his righteouſneſſe ſake, that his worde might be magnifyed and prayſed:
22 (c) But the people them ſelues is robbed and troden vnder the foote, chained in dungeons, and they al, I ſay, are ſhut into priſon houſes: they be caryed away captiue, and no man dooth looſe them: they be troden vnder foote, and no man dooth labour to bring them agayne.
23 But who is he among you that pondreth this, that conſydereth it, and taketh it for a warning in time to comme?
24 Who gaue Iacob to be troden vnder foote, and Iſrael to be ſpoyled? Dyd not the Lorde? Becauſe we haue ſinned againſt him, & haue had no delight to walke in his wayes, neither ben obedient vnto his law:
25 Therefore he hath powred vpon him his wrathfull diſpleaſure and ſtrong batayle, and hath fyred him on euery ſyde, yet wyl he not vnderſtande: he burneth him vp, yet ſinketh it not into his hart.

(a) Chriſte for a time deferreth, as it were with paine, to deliuer his elect from the tyranny of antichriſt, but at the time appointed he wyll enforce him ſelfe, as a woman in her trauayle, to deliuer his people.
(b) By the ſeruant, meſſenger, and the perfect man, he meaneth the Iewes and their prieſts, who ought of al other people to haue had knowledge, and ſo haue ſerued God perfectly.
(c) A greeuous ſentence againſt thoſe that wyl not behold the light when it ſhineth, nor beleeue gods woord when it is preached.

9 All caruers of images are but vayne, and the carued image that they loue can do no good: they muſt beare recorde them ſelues, that ſeeyng they can neyther ſee nor vnderſtande, they ſhalbe confounded.

12 The ſmyth maketh an axe, and tempereth it with hotte coales, and faſhioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with al the ſtrength of his armes, yea ſometyme he is faynt for very hunger, and ſo thyrſtie that he hath no more power.
13 The Carpenter or image caruer taketh meaſure of the tymber, and ſyngeth forth

14 Moreouer, he goeth out to hewe Cedar trees, he bringeth home Elmes and Okes, and taking a holde courage, he ſeeketh out the beſt timber of the wood: he hym ſelfe hath planted a Pine tree, whiche the rayne hath ſwelled, 15 Whiche wood ſerueth for men to burne: Of this he taketh and warmeth hym ſelfe withal, he maketh a fyre of it to bake bread, and maketh alſo a god thereof to honour it, and a grauen image to kneele before it.

16 One peece he burneth in the fyre, with another he roſteth fleſhe, that he may eate roſt his belly full: with the thirde he warmeth hym ſelfe, and ſayth, Aha, I am well warmed, I haue ben at the fyre.

17 And of the reſidue he maketh hym a god, and a grauen image for hym ſelfe: he kneeleth before it, he worſhyppeth it, he prayeth vnto it, and ſayth, Deliuer me, for thou art my God.

Eſai. 42. b. 18 Yet men neyther conſyder nor vnderſtand, becauſe their eyes be ſtopped that they can not ſee, and their hartes that they can not perceiue.

19 They ponder not in their myndes, for they haue neyther knowledge nor vnderſtanding to thinke thus, I haue burnt one peece in the fyre, I haue baked bread with the coales thereof, I haue roſted fleſhe withall and eaten it: and I wyl nowe of the reſidue make an abominable idol, and fall downe before a rotten peece of wood.

20 Thus doth he but loſe his labour, and his hart which is deceiued, doth turne him aſyde, ſo that none of them can haue a free conſcience to thinke, Do not I erre?

The woorde of the Lorde against Babylon.

1 BVT as for thee, O daughter, thou virgin Babylon, syt thou downe in the dust, syt vppon the grounde, there is no throne, O thou daughter of Chaldea, for thou shalt no more be called tender and pleasant.

Exech.16.c. 3 Thy filthynesse shalbe discouered, and thy punishe shalbe seene: for I wyl auenge me of thee, and wil shew no mercie to thee, as I doo to other men.

4 Our redeemer is called the Lorde of hoostes, the holy one of Israel.

5 Sit stil, holde thy tongue, geat thee into some darke corner, O daughter Chaldea: for thou shalt no more be called ladye of kyngdomes.

6 I was so wroth with my people, that I punished myne inheritance, and gaue them into thy power, neuertheles, thou shewedst them no mercie, but euen the very aged of them dedyedst thou oppresse right sore with thy yoke.

12 Nowe goe to thy coniurers, and to the multitude of thy witches with whom thou hast wearyed thee selfe from thy youth, if they may helpe thee or strength thee.

13 Thou hast hitherto had many counsailes of them: So let the heauen gasers, and the beholders of starres, and moone prophets, comme on nowe and deliuer thee, yea and let them helpe when these selue thinges shal come vpon thee.

15 I euen selfe alone, euen I haue talde you this, I wil cal him, and bring him forth, and he shal make his iourney prosperous.

16 Come to me, and heare this: haue I spoken any thing darkely sithes the beginning? From the time that this thing beganneth, I am there: Nowe therefore the Lorde God and his spirite hath sent me.

17 And thus saith the Lorde God thy redeemer, the holy one of Israel, I am the Lorde thy God which teache thee profitable thinges, and leade thee the way that thou shouldest goe.

18 O that thou haddest regarded my commaundementes, then had thy wealthinesse ben as the water streame, and thy righteousnesse as the waues flowing in the sea:

19 Thy seede also had ben like as the sande in the sea, & the fruite of thy body like the gravel stones therof: His name should not be rooted out, nor destroyed before me.

The.li. Chapter.

Consolation and comfort is promised vnto the faythful.

1 HEarken vnto me ye that hold of righteousnesse, and ye that seeke the Lord: take heede to the stone whereout ye are hewen, and to the grave whereout ye are digged.

2 Consyder Abraham your father, & Sara that bare you, howe that I called him alone, and blessed him, and encreased him.

3 Therfore shal the Lorde comforte Sion, and repayre all her decay, makyng her desert as a paradise, and her wyldernesse as the garden of the Lorde: Myrth and ioy shalbe founde therr, thankesgeuyng, and the voyce of prayse.

4 Haue respect vnto me then, O my people both high and lowe, and lay thine eare vnto me: for a lawe and an ordinance shal goe forth from me to lighten the Gentiles.

5 It is hard by that my healthe & my righteousnesse shal goe forth, and the people shal be ordered with myne arme: the Ilandes (that is the Gentiles) shall hope in me, and put their trust in myne arme.

6 Lyft vp your eyes cowarde heauen, and looke vpon the earth beneathe: for the heauens shall vanishe away lyke smoke, and the earth shall waxe olde lyke a garment, and they that dwel therein shall perishe in like maner: but my saluation shal endure for euer, and my righteousnesse shall not cease.

7 Hearken vnto me, ye that haue knowledge in righteousnesse, thou people that bearest my lawe in thyne hart: feare not the reuylynges of men, be not afrayd of their blasphemies.

8 For wormes and mothes shal eate them vp lyke cloth and wool: but my righteousnesse shall endure for euer, and my sauyng health from generation to generation.

9 Wake vp, wake vp, & be strong. O thou arme of the Lorde, wake vp, lyke as in tyme past, euer, and sence the world began.

19 Both these thynges are happened vnto thee, but who is sorie for it? yea destruction, waistyng, hunger, and swoorde, but who wyl comfort thee?

20 Thy sonnes lye comfortlesse at the head of euery streete lyke a taken venison, and are full of the terrible wrath of the Lorde, and punishment of thy God.

The.lviii.Chapter.

1. The Lord (by the mouth of the Prophet) reproueth the people for their fastinges, 5. whiche were ful of hypocrisie.

CRye nowe as loud as thou canst, leaue not of, lift vp thy voyce lyke a trumpet, and shewe my people their offences, and the house of Iacob their sinnes. A Ezech.3.c. Jere.29.a.

2 For they seeke me dayly, and wyl knowe my wayes, euen as it were a people that did right, and had not forsaken the statutes of their God: they aske of me concernyng right iudgement, & wil be nigh vnto God. Mat.9.d.

3 Wherefore fast we (say they) & thou seest it not? we put our lyues to straytenesse, and thou regardest it not? Wherefore fast we (say they) & thou seest it not? we put our lyues to straytenesse, and thou regardest it not?

4 Behold, when ye fast, your lust remaineth styl, for ye doo no lesse violence to your detters: for, ye fast to stryfe and debate, and to smyte with your fyste without mercye: nowe ye shal not fast thus, that your voyce myght be heard aboue. Esai.1.b.

5 Thynke ye this fast pleaseth me, that a man shoulde chasten hym selfe for a day? and to hang downe his head lyke a bulrushe, and to lie vpon the earth in an hearie cloth? Shoulde that be called fastyng, or a day that pleaseth the Lorde? Zach.7.a. Deut.15.a.

6 Doeth not this fastyng rather please me, That thou lose the wicked bandes, that thou take of the ouer heauie burdens, that thou let the oppressed goe free, and breake al maner of yoke?

7 To deale thy bread to the hungry, and to bryng the poore wandryng home into thy house? when thou seest the naked that thou couer him, and hide not thee selfe from thine owne flesh? B Ezech.18.b. Math.15.c.

8 Then shal thy lyght breake forth as the morning, and thy health florithe rypht shortly: righteousnesse shal goe before thee, and the glorie of the lord shal imbrace thee. Luke.11.b.

The. lx. Chapter.

1. A consolation and comfort to Hierusalem.
4. The church is gathered together among the Gentiles by preaching of the Gospell,
16. and aboundeth with all good thynges.

ARise vp betymes, and be bright (O Hierusalem) for thy light commeth, and the glory of the Lorde is risen vp vpon thee.

2 For lo, while the vnrighteousnesse shalbe couered the earth and the people, the Lord shall shewe thee light, and his glory shalbe seene in thee.

3 The gentiles shall come to thy light, and kinges to the brightnesse that springeth forth vpon thee.

4 Lift vp thine eyes, and looke rounde about thee: all these gather them selues and come to thee, thy sonnes shal come vnto thee from farre, and thy daughters shal be brought vpon the shulders of the nurses.

5 Then thou shalt see this and be glorious, thou shalt maruele exceedingly, and thine hart shalbe opened: when the abundance of the sea shalbe conuerted vnto thee (that is) when the ryches of the gentiles shall come vnto thee.

6 The multitude of Camels shal couer thee, the Dromedaries of Madian and Epha: all they of Saba shall come, bringing golde and incense, and shewing the prayse of the Lorde.

7 All the cattel of Cedar shalbe gathered vnto thee, the rammes of Nabaioth shall serue thee, to be offered acceptably vpon myne auter, and the house of my glory wyl I garnysshe.

8 But what are these that flee here lyke the cloudes, and as the doues flieyng to theyr windowes?

9 The Iles also shal waite for me, and specially the shyps of Tharsis, that they may bring thy sonnes from farre, and theyr syluer and theyr golde with them, vnto the name of the Lorde thy God, vnto the holy one of Israel that hath glorified thee.

10 Strangers shall builde vp thy walles, and theyr kinges shall do their seruice: for when I was angry, I smote thee, and of my mercy I pitied thee.

11 Thy gates shal stande open thy. both day and nyght, and neuer be shut, that the host of the Gentiles may come, and that their kinges may be brought vnto thee. Apoc. 21. b.

12 For euery people and kingdome that serueth not thee shal perishe, and be destroyed with vtter destruction.

13 The glory of Libanus shall come vnto thee, the Fyrre trees, Boxes, and Cedars together, to garnysshe the place of my sanctuarie: for I wyll glorifie the place of my feete.

14 Moreouer those shal come kneeling vnto thee that haue vexed thee, and al they that dispise thee shall fall downe at thy feete: thou shalt be called the citie of the Lorde, Sion (the citie) of the holy one of Israel. C

15 Because thou hast ben forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee: I wyl make thee glorious for euer and euer, and ioyful through out all posterities.

16 Thou shalt suckle the mylke of the Gentiles, and kinges breastes shal geeue thee: and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde am thy sauiour and redeemer, the mighty one of Iacob. Esai. 49. c.

17 For brasse, wil I geue thee golde, and for yron, siluer: for wood, brasse: and for stones, yron: I will turne thine oppressours into peace, and thine exactions into righteousnesse.

18 Violence & robbery shal neuer be heard of in thy lande, neyther harme and destruction within thy borders: thy walles shalbe called health, & thy gates the prayse of god.

19 The sunne shall neuer be thy day light, and the light of the moone shall neuer shine vnto thee: but the Lorde hym selfe shalbe thyne euerlasting light, and thy God shalbe thy glorye. Apoc. 21. a.

20 Thy sunne shall neuer goe downe, and thy moone shal not be hyde for the Lord hym selfe shalbe thine euerlasting light, and thy sorowful dayes shalbe ended. Apoc. 22. b.

21 The people shalbe al righteous and possesse the lande euer, the floure of my planting, the worke of my handes wherein I wyl reioyce.

22 The youngest and least shall growe into a thousande, and the simplest into a strong people: I the Lorde shal hastely bring this thinge to passe in his tyme.

The Bridle of the Mediterranean Sea.

63.1 WHat is he this that commeth from Edom, with redde coloured clothes from Bosra? He is honourably arayed, and commeth in mightily with his power: I am he that teacheth righteousnesse, and am of power to helpe.

2 Wherefore then is thy clothyng red, and thy rayment like his that treadeth in the wine presse?

3 I haue troden the presse me selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me: thus wyl I treade them downe in my wyath, and tet my feete vpon them in mine indignation, and their blood shal be sprong vpon my clothes, and so wil I staine al my rayment.

Eſai.34.b. 4 For the day of vengeance is assigned in my hart, and the yeere when my people shalbe deliuered, is come.

5 I looked about me, & there was no man to shewe me any helpe, I marueyled that no man holde me vp: then I helpe me by myne owne arme, and my feruentnesse sustayned me.

6 And thus wyl I treade downe the people in my wyath, and bathe them in my displeasure, and vppon the earth wyl I laye their strength.

D 7 I wyl declare the goodnesse of the Lorde, yea and the praise of the Lord for al that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, which he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and according to the multitude of his louing kindnesse.

Exod.3.a Eſai.12.a.

Exod.23. Iud.2.c.

10 But after they prouoked him to wrath and vexed his holy spirite, he was their enimie, and fought against them him selfe.

14 As a tame beast goeth in the feilde, and the spirit of God geueth him rest: thus (O God) hast thou led thy people, to make thee selfe a glorious name withal.

15 Looke downe then from heauen, and beholde from the dwellyng place of thy sanctuarie and thy glory: howe is it that thy gelousie, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louing kindnesse wyl not be intreated of vs? Deut.26.b. Baruc.2.c

Exech.20.d

Rom.11.b.

8 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde, Like as when wine is founde in the cluſter, and one ſayth, Loſe it not, for there is bleſſyng therein: euen ſo wyl I doo alſo for my ſeruantes ſakes, that I wyl not deſtroye them al.

2.King.13.c. Rom.9.c.

9 But I wyll take a ſeede out of Jacob, and out of Iudea one, to take poſſeſſion of my hyl: My choſen ſhal poſſeſſe it, and my ſeruantes ſhal dwel there.

10 Saron ſhalbe a ſheepefolde, and the valley of Achor ſhall serue the ſhelfing for the catayle of my people that ſeeke after me.

Joſu.7.

11 But as for you, ye are they that haue forſaken the Lorde, and forgotten my holy hill: ye haue ſet vp an aulter vnto Jupiter, and geuen riche drinke offeringes vnto the planets:

Phon.1.c. Jere.7.b.

12 Therefore wyll I number you to the ſwoorde, that ye ſhalbe deſtroyed altogether: for that when I called, no man gaue me anſweare, when I ſpake, ye hearkened not vnto me, but dyd wickednes before myne eyes, and choſe the thinges that pleaſed me not.

13 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, my ſeruantes ſhal eate, but ye ſhall haue hunger: beholde, my ſeruantes ſhall drinke, but ye ſhal ſuffer thirſte: beholde, my ſeruantes ſhalbe merry, but ye ſhalbe confounded:

14 Beholde, my ſeruantes ſhal reioyce for very quietneſſe of hart, but ye ſhal crye for ſorowe of hart, and complaine for vexation of minde.

C

15 Your name ſhal ye leaue accurſed among my choſen: for God the Lorde ſhal ſlay you, and cal his ſeruantes by another name.

16 Who ſo reioyceth vpon earth, ſhal reioyce in the true God, and who ſo ſweareth vpon earth, ſhal ſweare in the true God: for the olde afflictions ſhalbe forgotten, and taken away out of my ſyght.

Jere.4.b. 1.Co.1.c. 2.Co.11.a.

17 For loe, I ſhal make a newe heauen and a newe earth: and as for the olde, they ſhall neuer be thought vpon, nor kept in mind:

2.Pet.3.b. Apoc.21.a

18 (But the Lorde ſayth,) Be glad, and euermore reioyce for the thinges that I ſhal doo: for why? beholde, I wyl make a ioyfull Hieruſalem, and his people ioyful.

19 Yea, I my ſelfe wyl reioyce with Hieruſalem, and be gladde with my people: and the voyce of weeping and wayling ſhal not be hearde in her from thence forth.

20 There ſhal neyther be chylde nor olde man that haue not their ful dayes: but when the chylde commeth to an hundred yeeres old it ſhal dye, and if he that is an hundred yeeres of age doo wrong, he ſhalbe curſed.

Apoc.21.d

21 They

Deu.28.c. 22 They shall builde houses and dwell in them, they shal plant vineyardes and eate the fruite of them.

22 They shal not builde, & another possesse, they shal not plant, & another eate: but the lyfe of my people shalbe lyke a tree, and mine elect shal enioy styl the worke of theyr handes.

Gen.3.b. Iere.17.b. Gal.1.a. 23 They shal not labour in vayne, nor begeat with trouble: for they are the byrth blessed seede of the Lorde, and theyr fruites with them.

24 And it shalbe that or euer they cal, I wil answeare them, while they are yet but thinking howe to speake, I wyl heare them.

Esai.11.c. 25 The woolfe and the lambe shal feede togeather, and the lion shal eate hay lyke the bullocke, but earth shalbe the serpentes meate: there shal no man hurt nor slay another in al my holy hyl, saith the Lorde.

The.lxvi. Chapter.

1. God dwelleth not in temples made by mans hande. 3. He despiseth sacrifices done without mercy and fayth. 5. God comforteth them that are troubled for his sake. 23. Among the Christen the Sabboth is continually.

A 1 THUS sayth the Lord, Heauen is my seate, and the earth is my footestoole: Where shal nowe the house stand that ye wil builde vnto me? And where shalbe the place that I wyl dwel in?

2 As for these thynges my hande hath made them al, and they are al created, sayth the Lorde: which of them shal I then regarde? Euen him that is poore and of a lowlye troubled spirite, and standeth in awe of my wordes.

3 For who so slayeth an oxe (for me doth me so great dishonour) as he that kylleth a man: he that killeth a sheepe for me, knetcheth a dogge: he that bringeth me meate offeringes, offereth swines blood: who so maketh me a memorial of incense, prayseth the thyng that is vnryght: Yet take they suche wayes in hande, and theyr soule delyghteth in these abominations.

4 Therefore wyl I also haue pleasure in laughing them to scorne, and the thyng that they feare wil I bring vpon them: for when I called, no man gaue answeare, when I spake, they would not heare: but dyd wyckednesse before myne eyes, and choose the thinges that displeased me.

5 Heare the worde of God al ye that feare the thyng which he speaketh: your brethren that hate you & cast you out for my names sake, say, The Lorde is hevnous agaynst vs: but your shal see him in ioy, when they shalbe confounded.

Zach.14. 6 Then shalbe hearde a great noyse from the citie and the temple, the voyce of the Lorde that wyll rewarde and recompence his enimies:

B 7 Lyke as when a wyfe byrngeth foorth a man chylde, or euer she suffer the payne of the birth and anguishe of the trauayle.

8 Who euer heard or sawe suche thynges? doth the grounde beare in one day? or are the peole borne all at once, as Sion trauayled in childbirth and bare her sonnes?

Gen.16.a. 29.f.g.30.a 9 For thus sayth the Lorde, am I he that maketh other to beare, and beare not mee selfe? Am not I he that beareth and maketh barren, sayth thy God?

Math.5.a 10 Reioyce with Hierusalem, and be glad with her al ye that loue her, be ioyful with her al ye that mourne for her.

11 For ye shal sucke comfort out of her breastes, and be satisfied: ye shal taste and haue delyght in the byghtnesse of her glory.

12 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl let peace into her like a water floodde, and the glory of the Heathen like a flowing streame: then shal ye sucke, ye shalbe borne vpon her sydes, and be ioyfull vpon her knees.

13 For lyke as a childe is comforted of his mother: so shal I comfort you, and ye shalbe comforted in Hierusalem.

C Psalm.17.d Ezech.37.a 14 And when ye see this, your hart shall reioyce, and your bones shal florysshe lyke an herbe: Thus shal the hande of the Lord be knowen among his seruantes, and his indignation among his enimies.

15 For beholde, the Lorde shal come with fyre, and his charret shalbe lyke a whyrle winde: that he may recompence his vengeance in his wrath, and his indignation with the flame of fyre.

16 For the Lorde shall iudge al flesshe with the fire and with his sworde, and there shalbe a great number slayne of the Lorde.

17 Suche as haue made them selues holy and cleane in the gardens, and those that haue eaten swines flesshe, mice, and other abominations, shalbe taken away togeather, saith the Lorde.

18 For I do knowe their workes and thoughtes, and I wyll come to gether all people and tongues: then they shall come and see my glory.

19 Unto them shal I geue a token, and sende certayne of them that be deliuered among the Gentiles, into Cicilia, Affrica, and Lydia, where men can handle bowes, into Italie, and also Greeke lande: the Iles farre of that haue not heard speake of me, and Esai.49.a 52.a.60.a. and.65.a.

and haue not ſeene my glory, ſhall preache my prayſe among the Gentiles, 20 And ſhal bring al your brethren for an offering vnto the Lord out of al the people, vpon horſes, charrets, and horſlitters, vpon mules and cartes, to Hieruſalem my holy hyl, ſayth the Lorde: lyke as the chyldren of Iſrael bring the offering in cleane veſſelles to the houſe of the Lorde.

Eſai.61.a. 21 And I ſhal take out certayne of them for to be prieſtes and Leuites, ſayth the Lorde.

1.Pet.2.b. Rom.12.a. 22 For like as the newe heauen and the newe earth which I wil make, ſhalbe faſt ſtabliſhed by me, ſayth the Lorde: ſo ſhal your ſeede and your name continue.

23 And it ſhal come to paſſe, that from moone to his moone, from ſabboth to his ſabboth, al fleſhe ſhal come to worſhip before me, ſayth the Lorde.

24 And they ſhal goe forth and looke vpon the carions of them that haue tranſgreſſed againſt me: for their wormes ſhal not dye, neyther ſhal their fyre be quenched, and all fleſhe ſhal abhorre them. Iſai.66.a.

¶ The ende of the booke of the prophete Eſai.

¶ The booke of the prophete Ieremie.

The firſt Chapter.

1. The ſtocke of Ieremie, and in what tyme he propheſied. 6. He excuſeth him ſelfe and would refuſe the office of a prophete becauſe he is young and vnexpert. 8. He is taught of the Lorde, and becommeth bolde.

1 THeſe are the ſermons of Ieremie the ſonne of Helkiah the prieſt, one of them that dwelt at Anathoth in the land of Beniamin, Iere.11.a.

2 When the Lord had firſt ſpoken with him in the tyme of Joſiah the ſonne of Amon kyng of Juda, in the thirtienth yeere of his raigne:

2.Kin.25.a Iere.39.a. 3 And ſo during vnto the tyme of Jehoakim the ſonne of Joſiah king of Juda, and vntil the eleuenth yeere of Zedekiah the ſonne of Joſiah king of Juda were ended, when Hieruſalem was taken, euen in the fyfth moneth.

4 The worde of the Lorde ſpake thus vnto me.

Eſai.44.a. and.46.a. Pſal.70.a. 5 Before I faſhioned thee in thy mothers wombe, I did knowe thee: and or euer thou waſt borne, I ſanctified thee, and ordeyned thee to be a prophete vnto the people.

Exod.4.c. Actes.9.c. 6 Then ſayde I, O Lorde God, I can not ſpeake, for I am yet but young.

Matth.10.c. 1.Cor.3.a. 7 And the Lord anſwered me thus, Say not ſo, I am to young: for thou ſhalt goe to al that I ſhal ſende thee vnto, and whatſoeuer I commaunde thee, that ſhalt thou ſpeake.

8 Be not afrayde of their faces: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, ſayth the Lord. Pſal.6.a. Iere.15.a.

9 And with that the Lord ſtretched out his hand and touched my mouth: and the ſame Lorde ſayde vnto me, Beholde, I put my wordes in thy mouth.

10 And beholde, this day do I ſet thee ouer the people & kingdomes, that thou mayeſt roote out, and breake of, deſtroy, and make waſte, and that thou mayeſt buylde vp and plant.

11 After this, the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſaying, Jeremie, what ſeeſt thou? And I ſaid, I (a) ſee a rodde of an Almonde tree.

(a) God ſheweth to Ieremie the deſtruction of the Iewes by the Babylonians at hande.

12 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me, Thou haſt ſeene right, for I wyl make haſte ſpedily vpon my worde to performe it.

Job.41.b.

13 It happened afterwarde that the Lorde ſpake to me agayne, and ſayde, What ſeeſt thou? And I ſaid, I do ſee a ſeething pot, looking from out of the north.

C Iere.14.b. and.25.b. Abac.1.b.

14 Then ſayd the Lord vnto me, Out of the north ſhal come a plague vpon al the dwellers of the lande.

15 For loe, I wyl cal al the kynredes of the kyngdomes of the north, ſayth the Lorde, and they ſhal come, and euery one ſhall ſet his ſeate in the gates of Hieruſalem, and in al their walles rounde about, and in all cities of Juda.

16 And through them ſhall I declare my iudgement vpon al the wickednes of thoſe men that haue forſaken me, that haue burnt burnt incense vnto strange goddes, and worshipped ẏ workes of their owne hands.

17 And therefore girde vp thy loines, aryse, and tell them al that I geue thee in commaundement: Feare them not, lest I destroy thee before them.

18 For beholde, this day doo I make thee a strong fenced towne, an iron piller, and a brasen wal against the whole land, against the kinges & mighty men of Iuda, agaynst the priestes and people of the lande.

19 They shall fyght against thee, but they shal not be able to ouercomme thee: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the Lord.

The.ii. Chapter.

2. God rehearseth his benefites donne vnto the Iewes. 8. Agaynst priestes & prophets or preachers that cõdemne and despise god. 12. The Iewes are destroyed because they forsoke God, and because they ran a whore hunting after idolles.

1 MOreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

2 Goe thy way, crye in the eares of Hierusalem, and say, Thus saith the lord: I remember thee, the kindnesse of thy youth, and the loue of thy despousyng, in that thou folowedst me thorough the wyldernesse, in an vntilled lande.

3 Israel was an halowed thing vnto the Lorde, and was his fyrst fruites: al they that deuoure Israel shall offende, misfortune shal fal vpon them, sayth the Lord.

4 Heare therefore the woorde of the Lorde, O thou house of Iacob, and all the generations of the house of Israel.

5 Thus sayth the Lord, What vnfaythfulnesse founde your fathers in me, that they went so farre away fro me, falling to lightenesse, and being so vaine?

6 They thought not in their harts, Where is the Lorde that brought vs out of the land of Egypt, that led vs thorough the wyldernesse, thorough a desart and rough land, thorowe a dyre and deadly lande, yea a lande that no man had gonne thorough, & wherein no man had dwelt?

7 And when I had brought you into a pleasant fertile lande, that ye myght enioy the fruites & all the commodities of the same: ye went foorth and defyled my lande, and brought myne heritage to abomination.

8 The priestes them selues said not, Where is the Lorde? They that had the lawe in their handes knewe me not, the shepheards offended agaynst me, the prophetes dyd prophesie in Baal, and folowed suche thinges, as shal bring them no profyte.

9 Wherefore I am constrained, sayth the Lord, yet agayne to contende in iudgement with you, and with your childers children.

10 Goe into the Iles of Cethim, and looke wel: send vnto Cedar, take diligent heede, and see whether such things be done there.

11 Whether the Gentiles them selues haue changed their gods, whiche yet are no gods in deede? but my people hath changed their (a) honour for a thing that may not helpe them.

12 Be astonished, O ye heauens, be afrayde and abashed at such a thing, saith the lord.

13 For my people hath done two euyls: they haue forsaken me the well of the water of lyfe, and digged them pittes, yea vile and broken pittes that can holde no water.

14 Is Israel a bonde seruant, or one of the householde? why is he then so spoyled?

15 They roare and crye vpon him as lions, they haue made his lande waste: his cities are so burnt vp, that there is no man dwelling in them:

16 Yea the children of Noph and Taphnes shal cracke their crowne.

17 Commeth not this vnto thee because thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, euen when he led thee by the way?

18 And what hast thou nowe to doo in the streete of Egypt, to drinke water out of (b) Nilus? eyther what maketh thou in the way to Assyria, to drinke water of the flud?

19 Thyne owne wickednesse shall reproue thee, and thy turnyng away shal condemne thee: that thou mayest knowe and vnderstande howe euyll and hurtfull a thing it is that thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, and hast not feared me, sayth the Lord god of hoastes.

20 I haue euer broken thy yoke of olde, and burst thy bondes, yet sayest thou, I wyll no more transgresse: but lyke an harlot thou runnest about vppon all high hilles, and among al grene trees.

21 Whereas I planted thee a noble vine, and wholy a right seede: howe art thou turned then into a bitter vnfruitefull and strange grape?

22 (Yea and what so soare) that though thou washe thee selfe with Nitrus, and make thee selfe to sauour with that sweete smelling hearbe of Borith: yet in my sight thou art stayned with thy wickednesse, sayth the Lorde thy God.

23 How sayest thou now, I am not vncleane, and I haue not folowed Baalim? Looke vppon thyne owne wayes in the valleyes what thou hast donne? Thou art lyke a swyft dromedarie that goeth easyly her way.

24 And thy wantonnesse is like a wylde

(a) Honour that is, the faythful and euerliuing god in whom only they ought to glory.

(b) God reproueth the people for that they sought remedies, whiche are ment by the water of Nilus: and the flud against their euils, among the Egyptians and Assyrians, whes as their only remedie had ben to haue reconciled them selues vnto the Lord with faithful repentance.

Aſſe that vſeth the wyldernesſe, and that ſnuffeth and blowteth at her wyl: who can tame her? Al they that ſeeke her, ſhal not fayle but fynde her in her moneth.

25 Keepe thy foote from nakednesſe, and thy throte from thirſte, and thou thynkeſt in thee ſelfe, Tushe, I wyll take no ſorowe, for I haue loued the (c) ſtrangers, & them wil I folowe.

(c) The propertie of idolaters is, not only to contempne the voyce of the preacher cal-lyng them to repentance: but ſhameleſſely to prooue the loue of ſtrangers and the folowyng of them, that is, the woorſhipping of ſtockes and ſtones, and ſeruing of god agaynſt his woorde after theyr owne deuiſes.

26 Like as a theefe that is taken with the deede commeth to ſhame: euen ſo is the houſe of Iſrael come to confuſion, the common people, their kinges and rulers, their prieſtes and prophetes.

27 For they ſay to a ſtocke, Thou art my father: and to a ſtone, Thou haſt begotten me: yea they haue turned their backe vpon me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble, when they ſay, Stande vp and helpe vs:

28 (I ſhall anſweare them) Where are nowe thy goddes that thou haſt made thee? byd them ſtande vp, and helpe thee in the tyme of thy neede: for looke howe many cities thou haſt, O Iuda, ſo many goddes haſt thou alſo.

29 Wherefore then wyl ye goe to lawe with me? ſeeyng ye all are ſinners agaynſt me, ſayth the Lorde.

30 It is but loſt labour that I ſmyte your chyldren, for they receyue not my correction: your owne ſwoorde deſtroyeth your prophetes like a deuouring Lion.

2.Chr.24.b 31 O generation, hearken vnto the woorde of the Lorde: Am I become a wyldernesſe vnto the people of Iſrael? or a lande that hath no lyght? wherefore ſayth my people then, We are Lordes, we wyl comme no more vnto thee?

32 Dooth a maide forgeat her rayment, or a bryde her ſtomacher? but my people hath forgotten me a very long whyle.

33 Why beautifyeſt thou thy wayes ſo highly, to obtayne fauour therethrough? therefore alſo haſt thou taught wickednesſe thorowe thy wayes.

34 Vppon thy winges is founde the blood of poore and innocent people, whom thou dydſt not fynde in corners and holes: but thou ſlueſt the Prophetes for reproouing al theſe thinges.

Deut.28.b. Iere.7.a. Eze.20.d. Pſal.105.c.

35 Yet dareſt thou ſay, I am (without ſinne and) giltleſſe, Tushe, his wrath can not comme vppon me: beholde, I wyll reaſon with thee, because thou dareſt ſay, I haue not offended.

36 Why gaddeſt thou ſo muche hyther and thyther, to change thy wayes? for thou ſhalt be confounded aſwell of Egypt as thou waſt of the Aſſyrians.

37 Yea, thou ſhalt goe thy way from them, and ſmite thyne handes togeather vppon thy head, because the Lorde ſhal bryng that confydence and hope of thyne to nought, and thou ſhalt not proſper withal.

The.iii. Chapter.

1. God beyng mercyful, calleth to repentance his people whiche he had forſaken for their whordome with idols. 20. He exhorteth Iſrael vnto repentance, promyſing them ſheepheardes that ſhoulde haue the true knowledge of God. 23. The returne of Iſrael vnto God, confeſsing their offence.

1 COmmonly when a man putteth awey his wyfe, and ſhe goeth from him and maryeth with another, then the queſtion is, Shoulde he returne vnto her any more after that? (Is not that lande then defyled and vncleane?) But as for thee thou haſt played the harlot with many louers, yet turne agayne to me, ſayth the Lord. A Deut.24.4. Deut.3.a.

2 Lyft vp thine eyes to the high places, and looke where thou haſt not benne defyled: Thou haſt wayted for them in the ſtreetes, & as a murderer in the wyldernesſe, though thy whoredome and ſhameful blaſphemies is the lande defyled.

3 This is the cauſe that the rayne and euening deawe hath ceaſſed: thou haſt gotten thee an whores forehead, and wylt not be aſhamed. 2.king.17.a

4 Wylt thou not hereafter ſay vnto me, O my father, thou art he that haſt brought me vp, and led me from my youth?

5 Wyll God continue his wrath for euer? wyl he keepe our faultes in memorie to the ende? Neuertheleſſe, thou ſpeakeſt ſuche woordes, but thou art euer dooyng wooſſe and wooſſe to the vttermoſt of thy power.

6 The Lorde ſaide alſo vnto me in the time of Ioſuah the king, Haſt thou ſeene what that rebellion Iſrael hath done? howe ſhe hath runne vp vppon al the hilles, and among al thicke trees, and there played the harlot? Iere.1.a. Iere.2.a. 2.king.17.b

7 Haſt thou ſeene alſo when ſhe had done all this, howe I ſaide vnto her, that ſhe ſhould turne againe vnto me, and yet ſhe is not returned? Iuda that vnfaythfull ſyſter of hers alſo ſawe this: 3

8 Namely, that after I had well ſeene the adulterie of the ſhrinking harlot Iſrael, I put her away, & gaue her a byl of diuorcement: for all this, her vnfaythful ſyſter Iuda was not aſhamed, but went backe and played the whore. Ezech.23.b 2.king.17.a

9 Yea and the wantonneſſe of her whoredome hath defyled the whole lande: for ſhe hath hath committed fornication with stockes and stones.

Hie.5.a 10 Neuertheleſſe, her vnfaythful ſiſter Iuda is not returned vnto me againe with her whole hart, but faignedly, ſaith the Lorde.

Ezech.16.c 11 And the Lorde ſaide vnto me, The backſlyder Iſrael, is more righteous then the vnfaithful Iuda.

12 And therefore goe preache theſe woordes towarde the North, and ſay, Thou diſobedient Iſrael, turne againe, ſaith the Lorde, Pſal.103.a and I wyl not bring my wrath vppon you: for I am merciful, ſaith the Lorde, and I wyll not alway beare diſpleaſure againſt thee:

13 But on this condition, that thou knowe thy great blaſphemie, namely, that thou haſte vnfaythfully forſaken the Lorde thy God, and haſt made thee ſelfe partaker of ſtrange Goddes vnder all greene trees, and Ierem.3.b haſt had no wil to heare my voyce, ſaith the Ezech.18.a Lorde.

¶ 14 O ye diſobedient children, turne againe, ſaith the Lorde, and I wyl be maryed with you: for I wyl take one out of the citie, and two out of one generatiō from among you, and bring you into Sion, 15 And wyll geue you heardmen after mine owne mind, which ſhal feede you with learning and wiſedome.

16 Moreouer, when ye be encreaſed and multiplied in the land, then ſaith the Lord, There ſhall no more boaſt be made of the arke of the Lordes Teſtament: no man ſhal thinke vpon it, neither ſhal any man make mention of it: for from thencefoorth it ſhal neither be viſited, neither ſhal ſuch thing be done any more.

Eſai.4.c 17 Then ſhal Hieruſalem be called the Lordes ſeate, and all heathen ſhalbe gathered vnto it for the name of the Lordes ſake which ſhalbe ſet at Hieruſalem: and from that time forth they ſhal folow no more the imagination of their owne frowarde hart.

Hoſea.3.b 18 Then thoſe that be of the houſe of Iuda ſhal goe into the houſe of Iſrael, and they ſhall come together out of the North, into the ſame lande that I haue geuen your fathers.

19 I haue thought thus, Howe ſhal I take thee among my children, and geue a pleaſant land for thine heritage, yea, a goodly hoſt of the heathen? And I ſaid, Call me father, and ſhrinke not from me.

20 Truely, like as a woman fayleth her huſbande, ſo are ye vnfaythful vnto me, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord.

Ioan.31.c 21 The voyce of the children of Iſrael was heard on high, weeping and waylyng: for that they haue defiled their way, and forgotten God their Lorde.

22 O ye diſobedient children, Turne againe, and ſo ſhal ye heale your backeturninges. Loe, we come vnto thee, for thou art the Lorde our God.

23 Truely in vaine is health hoped for from Deut.13.a the hylles, be they neuer ſo many: but the Actes.4.a health of Iſrael ſtandeth onely vppon God our Lorde.

The.iiii.Chapter.

2. The true repentance or returnyng to God, 4. He exhorteth to the circumciſion of the hart. 5. The deſtruction of Iurie is propheſied for the malice of their hartes.

1 O Iſrael, if thou wylt turne thee, then A turne vnto me, ſaith the Lorde, and if thou wylt put away thine abominations out of my ſyght, thou ſhalt not be mooued,

2 And ſhalt ſweare, The Lorde lyueth in Ie.5.a.12.a trueth, in equitie, and righteouſneſſe, and al people ſhalbe fortunable and joyfull in hym.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde to all Iuda and Hieruſalem, Plowe your lande, and ſowe not among the thornes.

4 Be circumciſed in the Lorde, and cut a- Ierem.6.b way the foreſkinne of your hartes, al ye of and.11.a Iuda, and al the indwellers of Hieruſalem: that mine indignation breake not out like fire, and kindle, ſo that no man maye quenche it, becauſe of the wickednesſe of your imaginations.

5 Preache in Iuda and Hieruſalem, crye Eſai.58.a out and ſpeake, blowe the trumpettes in the lande, crye, that euery man may heare, and ſay, Geather you together, and we wyll goe into ſtrong cities.

6 Set vp the token in Sion, ſpeede you, and Ierem.1.b make no tarrying: for I wyll bryng a great plague, and a great deſtruction from the North.

7 For the ſpoyler of the Gentiles is broken B vp from his place as a lion out of his den, that he may make thy lande waſte, and deſtroye the cities, ſo that no man may dwell therein.

8 Wherefore gyrde your ſelues about with ſackcloth, mourne and weepe: for the fearefull wrath of the Lorde is not withdrawen from vs.

9 At the ſame time, ſaith the Lorde, The hart of the kyng and of the princes ſhalbe gone, the prieſtes ſhalbe aſtonished, and the prophetes ſhalbe ſore afraide.

10 Then ſaide I, O Lorde God, haſt thou then deceiued this people and Hieruſalem, Deut.23.a ſaying, Ye ſhall haue peace, and nowe the ſwoorde goeth through their liues?

11 Then ſhall it be ſaide to the people and Jerem.1.b Hieruſalem, A ſtrong wynde in the high places of the wyldernesse commeth through the way of my people, but neither to fanne nor to cleanſe.

12 After that ſhall there comme vnto me a ſtrong wynde from thoſe places, and then wyl I alſo geue ſentence vpon them.

13 For loe, he ariſeth like a cloude, and his charettes are like a ſtormie wynde, his horſes Lamen.4.a. are ſwifter then the Eagle: Woe vnto Dan.7.a. vs, for we are deſtroyed.

C 14 O Hieruſalem, waſhe thine harte from Pſalm.51.a wickednesse, that thou mayeſt be helped: Eſai.1.c. how long ſhal thy vaine thoughtes remaine with thee?

15 For a voyce from Dan, and from the hyl of Ephraim ſpeaketh out, and telleth of a deſtruction.

16 Remember the heathen, and geue Hieruſalem warning, and preache vnto her, that watchers ouer her are comming from farre countreyes, they haue cryed out againſt the Iaeha.8.c cities of Iuda.

17 And they haue beſet her about in euery place, like as the watchmen in the feelde: for they haue prouoked me to wrath, ſaith the Lorde.

1.king.18.d. 18 Thy wayes and thy thoughtes haue Jerem. 2.c. brought thee vnto this, ſuche is thine owne and.14.d. wickednesse and diſobedience: and becauſe it is a bytter thing, it hath ſtriken thee to the hart.

19 Ah my belly, ah my belly, ſhalt thou crye, howe is my hart ſo ſore? my hart panteth within me, I cannot be ſtyll, for I haue hearde the crying of the trumpettes, and peales of warre.

20 They crye murder vpon murder, the whole lande ſhal periſhe: Immediately my tentes were deſtroyed, and my hangynges in the twinckling of an eye.

D 21 How long ſhal I ſee the tokens of warre, and heare the noyſe of the trumpets?

Eſai.5.b. 22 (Neuertheleſſe, this ſhal come vpon them,) Baruc.3.b. becauſe my people is become fooliſhe, and Dieu.4.b. hath not knowen me: they are the children of fooliſhneſſe, and without any diſcretion: to doo euyl they haue wyt ynough: but to doo wel they haue no wiſedome.

23 I haue looked vpon the earth, and ſee it was waſte and voyde: I looked towarde heauen, and it had no ſhyne.

24 I beheld the mountaines, and loe, they trembled, and al the hylles were in a feare.

25 I looked about me, and there was no bodye: and all the byrdes of the ayre were away.

26 I marked wel, and the plowed feelde was become waſt, yea, al their cities were broken downe at the preſence of the Lorde, and indignation of his wrath.

27 For thus hath the Lorde ſayde, The whole lande ſhalbe deſolate, yet wyl I not then haue donne.

28 And therfore ſhal the earth mourne, and C the heauen be ſory aboue: for the thing that I haue ſpoken to the prophetes, purpoſed, and taken vpon me to doo, ſhal not repent me, and I wyl not goe from it.

29 The whole land ſhal flee for the noyſe of horſmen and bowmen, they ſhal runne into dennes, into woodes, and clymbe vp the ſtony rockes: al the cities ſhalbe voyde, and no man dwelling therein.

30 What wylt thou nowe doo, thou bryng Jerm.22 deſtroyed? For though thou clotheſt thee 2.king.9.f ſelfe with Scarlet, and deckeſt thee with golde, though thou paynteſt thy face with colours nowe, yet ſhalt thou trymme thee ſelfe in vaine: For thoſe that hyther to haue ben thy louers, ſhal abhorre thee, and goe about to ſlay thee.

31 For I heare a noyſe like as it were of a woman trauailing, & one labouring of her firſt childe, euen the voyce of the daughter Sion, that caſteth out her armes, and ſoweth, ſaying, Ah, woe is me, how ſore vexed and faynt is my hart for feare of the murderers?

The.v. Chapter.

1. In Iurie is there no righteous or faythful man founde, eyther amongſt the people, or the rulers, for whoſe ſake the Lorde ſhould ſpare the citie. 15. Wherefore Iurie is deſtroyed of the Aſſyrians.

1 L Oke through Hieruſalem, beholde, & ſee, ſeke through her ſtreetes alſo within, if ye can finde one man that dooth equal and right, or ſeeketh for the truth, and I ſhal ſpare the citie, ſaith the Lorde.

2 For though they can ſay, The Lorde liueth: yet they ſweare to deceyue.

3 Wheras thou (O Lord) lookeſt only vpon fayth & trueth: Thou haſt ſcourged them, but they tooke no repentance, thou haſt corrected them for amendment, but they refuſed refused thy correctiõ, they made their faces harder then a stone, and would not amend.

4 Therfore I thought in mee selfe, Peraduenture they are so simple and foolish, that they vnderstande nothing of the Lordes way, and iudgementes of their God.

Deut.17.b. 5 Therefore wyll I goe vnto their heades and rulers, and talke with them, if they knowe the way of the Lord, & iudgementes of their God: But these (in lyke maner) haue broken the yoke, and burst the bondes in sunder.

Deut.32.b. 6 Wherefore a Lion out of the wood hath hurt them, & a Woolfe in the euening shal destroy them, the Leopard doth lie lurking by their cities, to teare in peeces al them that come thereout: for their offences are multiplied, and their departing away is encreased.

Hoseh.1.d. B 7 Shoulde I then for all this haue mercie vpon thee? Thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no gods: and albeit that I fed them to the ful, yet they fal to adulterie, and haunt harlots houses.

Ezech.22.b 8 In the desyre of vncleanly lust they are become lyke vnto stoned horse, euery man neigheth at his neighbours wyfe.

Iere.5.a. 9 Shoulde I not correcte this, sayth the Lorde? shoulde I not be auenged of euery people that is lyke vnto this?

10 Climbe vp vpon their wals, beate them downe, and (a) destroy them not vtterly: take away their battlements, because they are not the Lordes.

11 For vnfaithfully hath the house of Israel and Iuda forsaken me, sayth the Lorde.

12 They haue denyed the Lord, and sayde, It is not he (that lookech vpon vs) neyther shal no misfortune come vpon vs, we shall see neyther sworde nor hunger.

13 As for the warning of the prophetes, it is but wynde, yea there is not the worde of God in them: suche thynges shal happen vnto them selues

14 Wherefore, thus sayth the Lord God of hostes, Because ye speake suche woordes, behold, the woordes that are in thy mouth wil I turne to fyre, and make the people to be wood, that the fyre may consume them.

15 Lo, I wil bring a people vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, sayth the Lorde, a myghtie people, an olde people, a people whose speache thou knowest not, neyther vnderstandest what they say.

16 Their arrowes are lyke vnto a yawning graue, yea they them selues be very Giantes.

17 This people shal eate vp thy fruite and thy meate, yea they shal deuour thy sonnes and thy daughters, thy sheepe and thy bullockes, they shal eate vp thy grapes and figges: As for thy strong & wel defenced cities wherin thou didst trust, they shal bring to pouertie, and that through the sworde.

18 Neuertheles, I wyl not then haue done with you, sayth the Lorde. Iere.16.b.

19 But if they say, Wherefore doth the Lord our God al this vnto vs? Then answeare them, Because that like as ye haue forsaken me, and serued strange gods in your land, euen so shal ye serue strangers out of your lande. Deut.28.g.

20 Preache this vnto the house of Iacob, and crye it out in Iuda, and say thus, 21 Heare this, thou foolishe and vndiscreete people, Ye haue eyes, but ye see not, eares haue ye, but ye heare not. D Esai.6.b. Iohn.9.d.

22 Feare ye not me, saith the Lorde? wyl ye not tremble at my presence? whiche binde the sea with the sand by a continual decree, so that it can not passe his boundes: for though it rage, yet can it doo nothing, and though the waues therof doo swel, yet may they not goe ouer. Iob.26.b. and.18.a.

23 But this people hath a false and obstinate hart, they are departed & gone away from me.

24 They thinke not in their hartes, O let vs feare the Lord our God, who geueth vs raine early and late when neede is, whiche keepeth euer styl the haruest for vs yeerely. Esai.69.a.

25 Neuertheles, your misdedes haue turned these from you, and your sinnes haue robbed you of good thinges.

26 For among my people are found wicked persons, that priuily lay snares and waite for men, to take them, and destroy them.

27 And lyke as a net is ful of byrdes, so are their houses full of that whiche they haue gotten with falshood and deceite: Hereof commeth their great substance and riches.

28 Hereof are they fat and wealthie, and are more mischeeuous then any other: they minister not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherlesse cause, yea and they prosper: yet they iudge not the poore accordyng to equitie. E Esai.1.c.

29 Shoulde I not punishe these thynges, sayth the Lorde? shoulde not I be auenged of al suche people as these be? Jerem.5.b and.9.a.

30 Horrible and greeuous thinges are done in the lande.

31 The Prophetes teach falsly, & the preachers receiue gifts, & my people hath pleasure therein: what wil come thereof at the last? Oseē.7.a. Roma.1.a.

1 Come

A 1 COme out of Hieruſalem, ye ſtrong
2.Sa.14.a. chyldren of Beniamin, blowe vp the trumpets ye Thecuites, ſet vp a token vnto Bethcaran: for a plague and a great miſerie appeareth out from ꝓ north.
2 I will liken the daughter Sion to a faire and tender woman, and to her ſhal come the (a) ſhepheardes with their flockes.
a) The ſhep-heardes with their flocks, that is, the princes and captaynes with their armies.
3 Their tentes ſhal they pitch round about her, and euery one ſhal feede in his place.
4 Make batalle agaynſt her (ſhal they ſay,) aryſe, let vs goe vp by nyght: Alas the day goeth away, and the nyght ſhadowes fal downe.
5 Aryſe, let vs goe vp by night, and deſtroy her ſtrong holdes.
6 For thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes commaunded, Hewe downe her trees, and ſet vp bulwarkes agaynſt Hieruſalem: for the tyme is come that this citie muſt be puniſhed, for in her is al malitiouſneſſe.
B 7 Lyke as a conduite ſpowteth out waters, ſo ſhe ſpowteth out her wickednelle: Rob-berie and vnrighteouſneſſe is heard in her, ſorowe and woundes are euer there in my ſyght.
8 Amend thee (O Hieruſalem) leſt I with-drawe my hart from thee, and make thee deſolate, and thy lande alſo, that no man dwel in it.
9 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, The reſidue of Iſrael ſhalbe geathered as the remnant of grapes: and therefore turne thyne hande agayne into the bal ket, lyke the grape geatherer.
Ieremi.4.a. and.9.d. Ieremi.5.c. and.20.b. 10 But vnto whom ſhal I ſpeake? whom ſhal I warne that he maye take heede?
Their eares are ſo vncircumciſed, that they may not heare: beholde, they take the worde of God but for a ſcorne, and haue no luſt therero.
11 And therefore I am ſo ful of thine indignation, O Lorde, that I may ſuffer no longer, but ſhed it out vpon the chyldren that are without, and vpon al young men:
yea the man muſt be taken priſoner with the wyfe, and the aged with the creeple.
12 Their houſes with their landes & wynes ſhalbe turned into ſtrangers: for I wyll ſtretch out mine hand vpon the inhabiters of this lande, ſayth the Lorde.
13 For from the leaſt to the moſt they hang al vpon couetouſnes, and from the prophet vnto the prieſt they goe about falſhood and lyes.
C 14 And beſyde that, they heale the hurt of paſt ſhame, & therefore they ſhal fal among ſite them, they ſhalbe brought downe, ſaith

the Lorde.
16 Thus ſaith the Lord, Go into the ſtretes, conſyder and make inquiſition for the olde way, and if it be the good and right way, then goe therein, that ye may fynde reſt for your ſoules: but they ſay, We wyll not walke therein.
17 Moreouer, I wyl ſet watchmen ouer you, and therfore take heede vnto the voyce of the trumpet: but they ſay, We wyll not take heede.
18 Heare therefore ye Gentiles, & thou congregation ſhalt knowe what I haue deui-ſed for them.
19 Heare thou earth alſo: Beholde, I wyl Iere.19.a.

lyng with childe.
25 Let no man goe forth into the feeld, let no man come vpon the high ſtreete: for the ſworde and feare of the enimie is on euery ſyde.
26 Wherefore gyrd a ſackcloth about thee,
O thou daughter of my people, ſprynkle thee ſelfe with aſhes: mourne and weepe bitterly, as vpon thine only beloued ſonne, for the diſtroyer ſhall ſodaynely fall vpon vs.
27 Thee haue I ſet for a ſtrong towre, (O my people, to ſeeke out and to trye their 27 And thou shalt now speake all these wordes vnto them, but they wyl not heare thee: thou shalt crye vpon them, but they wyl not answeare thee.

The. viii. Chapter.

1. The destruction of the Iewes. 4. The Lorde moueth the people to amendement, rekeying vp their sinnes. 20. He reprehenderh the lying doctrine of the prophetes and priestes.

C 1 AT the same time, saith the Lorde, the bones of the kinges of Iuda, the bones of his princes, the bones of the preachers and prophetes, yea, and the bones of the citizens of Hierusalem, shalbe brought out of their graues, Deut. 4.d. 2 And laid against the Sunne, the Moone, and al the heauenly host, whom they loued, whom they serued, whom they came after, Luke. 24.a whom they sought and worshipped: they shal neither be gathered together nor buried, but shal lye as doung vpon the earth.

3 And al they that remayne of this wicked generation, shal desire rather to dye then to liue, wher soeuer they remaine, and wheras I scatter them, saith the Lord of hostes.

4 Thus shalt thou say vnto the also, Thus saith the Lorde, Doo men fal, so that they arise not vp again? or if Israel repent, wyl not God turne again to them?

5 Wherefore then is this people of Hierusalem gone so farre backe, that they turne not again? They are euer the longer the more obstinate, and wyl not be conuerted.

6 For I haue looked and considered, but there is no man that speaketh a good word, there is no man that taketh repentance for his sinne, that wil so much say, What haue I done? but euery man turneth to his owne course, like a fierce horse headlong to the battaile.

7 The Storke in the ayre knoweth his appointed time, the Turtle Doue, the Swallowe, and the Crane, consyder the tyme of their trauaile: but my people wil not know the time of the punishment of the Lorde. B Eſai. 1.a

8 Howe dare ye say then, We are wise, we haue the law of the Lord among vs? Truely in vaine hath he prepared his penne, and vainely haue the writers written it.

9 Therefore shall the wise be confounded, they shalbe afrayd and taken: for lo, they haue cast out the woorde of the Lorde, what wisedome can then be among them? Deut. 9.a Eſai. 30.a

10 Wherefore I wyl geue their wiues vnto aliantes, and their feeldes to destroyers: For from the lowest vnto the highest they folowe fylthie lucre, and from the prophete vnto the priest they deale al with lyes. Ezech. 13.a

12 Fye for shame, howe abominable thinges doo they, and yet they be not ashamed, yea, they knowe of no shame: Wherefore in the time of their visitation, they shal fal among the dead bodyes, and be ouerthrowen, saith the Lorde. Jerem. 7.a

13 Moreouer, I wil consume them in deede (saith the Lorde) so that there shall not be one grape vpon the vine, neither one fygge vpon the fygge tree, and the leaues shalbe pluckt of, and the thing that I haue geuen them, shalbe taken from them.

14 Why prolong we the time, let vs gather our selues togeather, and go into the strong citie, there shal we be in rest: for the Lorde our God hath put vs to silence, and geuen C ye water myxt with gal to drynke, becaus we haue synned agaynst hym.

15 We looked for peace, and we fare not the better, we wayted for the tyme of health, and lo, here is nothyng but trouble.

16 The noyse of his horses is heard from Dan, the whole lande is afrayde at the neyghyng of his strong horses: for they are come in, and haue deuoured the land with al that is in it, the cities, and thos that dwel therein.

17 Moreouer, I wyl send Cockatrices and Serpentes among you (whiche wyl not be charmed) and they shal byte you, sayth the Lorde.

18 I wolde haue had comforte agaynst sorowe: but sorowe is come vpon me, and heauinesse vexeth my hart.

19 For lo, the voyce of the crying of my people is heard (for feare of them that come) from a farre countrey: Is not the Lord in Sion? Is not her king in her? Wherefore then haue they greeued me (shal the Lorde say) with their images and foolishe strange fashions of a forraigne god?

20 The harueste is gone, the sommer hath ended, and we are not holped.

21 I am sore vexed becaus of the hurt of my people, I am heauie and abashed:

22 Is there not triacle at Gilead? Is there no Phisition there? why then is not the health of my people recouered?

The.ix. Chapter.

1. The complaynt and bewaylyng of the Prophet, 3. the malice of the people. 24. In the knowledge of God ought we onely to reioyce. 26. The vncircumcision of the hart.

1 O Who wyll geue my head water ynough, and a well of teares for myne eyes, that I may weepe night & day for the slaughter of my people?

2 Wolde God that I had a cotage somewhere far from folke, that I might leaue my people, and goe from them, for they be al aduiterers, and a shrynkyng sort.

3 They bende their tongues lyke bowes to shoote out lyes, they waxe strong vppon earth: As for the trueth, they may nothing away withal in the worlde, for they goe from one wickednesse to another, and wyll not knowe me, sayth the Lorde.

4 Yea, one must keepe him selfe from another, no man may safely trust his owne brother: for one brother vndermineth another, one neighbour beguileth another.

5 Yea one dissembleth with another, and they deale with no trueth: They haue practised their tongues to lye, and taken great paynes to doo mischefe.

6 Thou sittest in the myddes of a deceitful people, whiche for very dissembling falsehood wyl not knowe me, sayth the Lord.

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, I wyl melt them, and trie them: for what shoulde I els doo to my people? B

8 Their tongues are lyke sharpe arrowes to speake deceite: with their mouth they speake peaceably to their neighbour: but priuily they lay wayte for him. Pro.18.a. Psal.18.a.

9 Shoulde I not punishe them for these thynges, sayth the Lord? or should I not be auenged of any such people as this? Ierr.5.b.

10 Vpon the mountaynes wyl I take vp a lamentation, and a sorowfull crye, and a mourning vpon the fayre places of the wildernesse: namely, howe they are so brent vp, that no man goeth there any more, yea, a man shal not heare one beast crye there: byrdes and cattel are al gone from thence.

11 I wyl make Hierusalem also an heape of stones, and a denne of venemous wormes: and I wyll make the cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shal dwel therin. Psal.79.a. Mich.3.c.

12 What man is so wyse as to vnderstande this? or to whom hath the Lorde spoken by mouth, that he may shewe this, and say, O thou lande, why perishest thou so? wherefore art thou so brent vp, and like a wildernesse that no man goeth through?

13 Yea, the Lorde him selfe tolde the same vnto them that forsooke his lawe, and kept not the thing that he gaue them in commaundement, neyther lyued thereafter: C

14 But followed the wickednesse of their owne hartes, and serued strange gods, as their forefathers taught them. Deut.29.a Iosu.24.c.

15 Therefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, Beholde, I wyll feede this people with wormewood, and geue them gal to drynke.

16 I wyl scatter them also among the heathen, whom neyther they, nor their fathers haue knowen: and I wyl sende a sworde among them to persecute them, vntyll I bryng them to nought. Deut.28.b Ier.23.c. Deut.28.c.

17 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beware of the vengeance that hangeth ouer you, & cal for mournyng wyues, and sende for wyse women, that they come shortly, 18 And sing a mourning song of vs, that the teares may fal out of our eyes, and that our eye lyddes may gushe out of water.

19 For there is a lamentable noyse heard of Sion? O howe are we so sore destroyed? O howe are we so pitifully confounded? We must must forsake our owne naturall countrey, and we are thus out of our owne lodgings.

20 Yet heare the worde of the Lord, (O ye women) & let your eares regarde the wordes of his mouth: that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, and that every one may teache her neyghbour to make lamentation.

21 (Namely thus) Death is climbing up in at our windowes, he is come into our houses, to destroy the childe beside the doore, and the young man in the streete.

Jerem.7.b. and.8.b. 22 But tel thou playnely, Thus sayth the Lorde, The dead bodies of men shal lye vpon the grounde as the doung vpon the fielde, and as the handful after the mower, and there shalbe no man to take them vp.

Eſai.55.c. 1.Cor.1.b. 2.Cor.11.a. Mat.9.b. and.12.a. Dete.6.b. 23 Thus sayth the Lorde, Let not the wyse man reioyce in his wisdome, nor the strong man in his strength, neyther the rich man in his riches.

24 But who so wyl reioyce, let him reioyce in this, that he vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which do mercie, equitie, and ryghteousnesse vppon the earth: therefore have I pleasure in suche thynges, sayth the Lorde.

25 Beholde, the tyme commeth (sayth the Lord) that I wil visite al them whose foreskin is vncircumcised, & the circumcised, Ferr.25.c. Jere.4.b. and.6.b. Roma.2.c. 26 The Egyptians, the Jewes, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the shaven Madianites that dwell in the wyldernesse: for al the Gentiles are al vncircumcised in the hert, but all the house of Israel are vncircumcised in the part.

Eſai.47.b. 2 Thus sayth the Lord, Ye shal not learne after the maner of the heathen, and ye shal not be afrayde for the tokens of heauen: for the heathen are afrayde of suche.

Eſai.44.b. 3 For al the customes & lawes of the Gentiles are nothing but vanitie: They hewe downe a tree in the wood with the handes of the workeman, & fashion it with the axe.

4 They couer it over with golde or syluer, they fasten it with nayles and hammers, that it moue not.

5 It standeth as tyghte as the Palme tree, it can neyther speake, nor goe one foote, but must be borne: be not ye afrayde of suche, for they can doo neyther good nor euyl.

Baruc.6.c. 2.Reg.17.c. Apoc.14.b. 6 But there is none like vnto thee, O Lord, thou great is the name of thy power.

7 Who would not feare thee, O king of the Gentiles? for thine is the dominion: for among al the wyse men of the Gentiles, & in al their kyngdomes, there is none that may be lykened vnto thee.

8 They are altogether dyted and vnwise in this one thyng: (a) wood is the teaching of vanitie.

9 Silver is brought out of Tharsis, and beaten to plates, and golde from Ophir, a worke that is made with the hande of the craftes man, and they are clothed with yelow sylke and (scarlet:) al these are the workes of cunnyng men.

10 But the Lord is a true God, a liuing God, and an euerlastyng kyng: at his be wroth, the earth shaketh, al the Gentiles may not abyde his indignation.

11 (As for (their gods) thus shall you say to them, They are no goddes that made neyther heauen nor earth, therefore shal they perishe from the earth, and from al thinges vnderheauen.

12 But (as for our God) he made the earth with his power, and with his wysedome dooth he order the whole compasse of the worlde, with his discretion hath he spred out the heauens.

Pſal.134. 13 At his voyce the waters gathered together in the ayre, he dyaweth vp the cloudes from the vttermost partes of the earth, he turneth lyghtenyng to rayne, and bringeth foorth the wyndes out of their creatures.

14 His wyfe becometh al men fooles, & confoundeth the caruers of images: for that they cast is but a dayne thyng, and hath no lyfe.

Eſai.13. Dan.14.b. Jere.51. 15 The dayne craftesmen with their workes that they in their vanitie haue made, shal perishe one with another in tyme of visitation.

16 Neuertheleſſe, Jacobs portion is not suche: but it is he that hath made al thinges, and Israel is the rodde of his inheritance: the Lorde of hoſtes is his name.

17 Gether vp thy wares out of the lande, thou that art in the strong place.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl now throwe as with a stone slyng the inhabiters of this lande at this once, and I wyl bryng trouble vpon them, that they shal proue true the wordes that I haue spoken by the prophetes.

19 Alas howe am I hurt? alas howe painful are my sourges with me? for I consider this sorowe by mine selfe, and I must suffer it.

(a) By wood is meant al kind of matter wherout images were wont to be made, which although they be garnished with gold and syluer, and clothed in purple and silke, and set vp (as some men say) to be by means better yet teache they nothing but faith the prophet, but vanitie.

20 My

20 My tabernacle is destroyed, and all my cordes are broken, my children are gone fro me, & can no where be found: Now haue I none to spreade out my tent, nor to set vp my hangynges.

D 21 (b) For the heardmen are become foolishe, and they haue not sought the Lord: therfore haue they dealt vnwisely with their cattel, and al are scattered abroade.

22 Beholde, the noyse is harde at hande, and great sedition out of the north, to make the cities of Iuda a wildernesse, & a dwellyng place for dragons.

23 Nowe I knowe (O Lorde) that it is not in mans power to order his owne wayes, or to rule his owne steppes and goynges.

24 Therefore chasten thou me, O Lorde, but with fauour, and not in thy wrath, lest thou bring me vtterly to nought.

25 Powre out thyne indignation vpon the Gentiles that knowe thee not, and vpon the people that cal not vpon thy name, and that because they haue consumed, deuoured, and destroyed Iacob, and haue made his habitation waste.

The.xi. Chapter.

I. A curse to them that obey not the wordes of Gods promise. 10. The people of Iuda following the steppes of their fathers, worshippeth strange gods. 15. The Lord saith that he wyl not heare the Iewes, and forbiddeth also Ieremie to pray for them.

¶ 1 This is a sermon whiche the Lord commaunded Ieremie for to preache, saying,

2 Heare the wordes of this couenant, and speake vnto the men of Iuda, and to al them that dwel at Hierusalem,

3 And say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Cursed be euery one that is not obedient vnto the wordes of this couenant,

4 Which I commaunded vnto your fathers, what time as I brought them out of Egypt from the iron furnace, saying, Be obedient vnto my voyce, and do according to al that I commaunde you, so shal ye be my people, and I wil be your God:

5 And wyl keepe my promise that I haue sworne vnto your fathers, (namely) that I would geue them a lande whiche floweth with mylke and hony, as ye see it is come to passe vnto this day. Then answered I and sayde, Amen: let it be euen so Lord as thou sayest.

6 Then the Lorde sayde vnto me agayne, Preache this in the cities of Iuda, & round about Hierusalem, & say, Heare the wordes of this couenant, and keepe them.

7 For I haue diligently exhorted your fathers, euer since the time that I brought them out of the lande of Egypt vnto this day, I gaue them warning betymes, saying, Hearken vnto my voyce. B

8 Neuertheless they would not obey me, nor encline their eares vnto me: but folowed the wicked imaginations of their owne hartes, and therefore I haue brought vpon them al the wordes of this couenant that I gaue them to keepe, whiche they (notwithstanding) haue not kept. Iere.13.b.

9 And the Lorde said vnto me, It is founde out that whole Israel and al these cities of Hierusalem are gone backe.

10 They haue turned them selues to the blasphemies of their forefathers, whiche had no lust to heare my wordes: Euen likewise also haue these folowed strange gods, and worshipped them: The house of Israel and Iuda haue broken my couenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therfore thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I wyl sende a plague vpon them, which they shal not be able to escape: and they shal crye vnto me, and I wyl not heare them.

12 Then shal the townes of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem goe and call vpon their gods vnto whom they made their oblations: but they shal not be able to helpe them in time of their trouble. Zach.7.b. Deut.35.c.

13 For as many cities as thou hast, O Iuda, so many gods hast thou had also, and looke howe many streetes there be in ther, (O Hierusalem) so many shameful aulters haue ye set vp, aulters (I say) to offer vpon them vnto Baal. Iere.2.b.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, C byd neither prayse nor prayer for them: for though they crye vnto me in their trouble, yet wyl I not heare them. Iere.7.b. and.15.a.

15 What part hath my beloued in my house, seing he hath wrought abomination, seruing many gods? The holy flesshe offeringes in the temple are gone from thee (O Iuda) and thou when thou hast doon euil, makest thy boast of it. Aggæ.2.b.

16 The Lord called thee a greene olive tree, a faire one, a fruitefull one, a goodly one: but with great clamour hath the enimie set fyre vpon it, and the branches of it are destroyed. Iere.17.b. Matth.7.b. Rom.11.c.

17 For the Lord of hostes that planted thee, hath deuised a plague for thee (O thou house of Israel and Iuda) for the euil that ye haue done to prouoke him to wrath, in that ye did seruice to Baal.

18 This (O Lorde) haue I learned of thee, and vnderstand it: for thou hast shewed me their imaginations.

Eſai.53.b. 19 But I am as a meeke lambe, an oxe that is caried away to be ſlayne, not knowyng that they had deuiſed ſuch a counſel againſt me, (ſaying,) We wyll deſtroy his meate with wood, and dyue him out of the lande of the liuing, that his name ſhal neuer be thought vpon.

Jere.18.b.

Jere.20.a. and.17.b. 20 Therefore I wil beſeche thee mowe (O Lord of hoſtes) thou righteous iudge, thou that trieſt the reynes and the hartes, let me ſee thee auenged of them: for vnto thee haue I committed my cauſe.

D 21 The Lorde therefore ſpake thus of the Eſai.30.D. citizens of Anathoth that ſought to ſlay Amos.7.D. me, ſaying, Preache not vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, or els thou ſhalt dye of our handes:

22 Thus (I ſay) ſpake the Lorde of hoſtes, Beholde I wil viſite you, your young men ſhal periſhe with the ſworde, your ſonnes and your daughters ſhal vtterly dye of hunger, 23 So that none ſhal remayne: for vpon the citizens of Anathoth wil I bring a plague, euen the yeere of their viſitation.

17 But yf they wil not obey, then wyll I Deut.11.b. roote out the ſame folke, and deſtroy them, ſayth the Lorde.

The. xiii. Chapter.

I. The deſtruction of the Iewes is prefigured, and their ſparcing abroade. II. Why Iſrael was receiued to be the people of God, and why they were forſaken.

1 Thus

1 Thus sayth the Lorde vnto me, Goe thy way, and gerat thee a linnen girdle, and girde it about thy loines, let it not be wet.

2 Then I got me a girdle, according to the commaundement of the Lorde, and put it about my loynes.

3 After this, the seconde time the Lorde spake vnto me agayne,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast prepared, and put about thee, and gerat thee vp, and goe vnto Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rocke.

5 So went I, and hyd it at Euphrates, as the Lord commaunded me.

6 And it happened long after this, that the Lorde spake vnto me, Vp, and gerat thee to Euphrates, & fetch the girdle from thence, whiche I commaunded thee to hide there.

7 Then went I to Euphrates, and digged vp, & tooke the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and beholde, the girdle was corrupt, so that it was profytable for nothing.

8 Then came the Lorde vnto me,

9 Thus sayth the Lorde, Euen so wyll I corrupt the pryde of Iuda, and the hygh minde of Hierusalem.

Iere.7.c. 11.14.18.c. 18.19.c. 10 This people is a wicked people, they wil not heare my woorde, they folowe the wicked imaginations of their owne hart, and hang vpon strange goddes, them they serue and worshyp, and therefore they shalbe as this girdle that serueth for nothing.

11 For as straightly as a girdle lyeth vppon a mans loynes, so straytly dyd I bynde the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Iuda vnto me, saith the Lord: that they might be my people, that they might haue a glorious name, that they might be in honour: but they would not obey me.

12 Therfore lay this riddle before them, and say, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Euery pot shalbe fylled with wine. And they shall say vnto thee, Thinkest thou we know not that euery pot shalbe fylled with wine?

Deu.4.c. 28.26.b. Iere.30.b. 13 Then shalt thou say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I shal fyl all the inhabitours of this lande with drunkennesse, the kinges that syt vppon Dauids stoole, the prieste and prophetes, with al that dwel at Hierusalem.

14 And I wyll set them one agaynst another, C yea the fathers agaynst the sonnes, sayth the Lorde, I wyl not pardon them, I wyll not spare them, nor haue pitie vpon them: but destroy them.

15 Heare, geue eare, take not disdayne at it: for it is the Lorde him selfe that speaketh.

16 Honour the Lord your God or he take his light from you, and or euer your feete stumble in darknesse at the hill: lest when you looke for the light, he turne it into the shadowe and darknesse of death.

17 But if ye wil not heare me that geue you secrete warning, I wyl mourne from my whole hart for your stubbernesse: Piteously wyll I weepe, and the teares shal gushe out of mine eyes, for the lordes flocke shalbe caryed away captiue. Iere.31.c. Lamen.1.a.

18 Tell the king and the queene, Humble your selues, syt you downe lowe, for your dignitie shalbe throwen downe, and the crowne of your glory shall fall from your head.

19 The cities towarde the south shalbe shut vp, and no man shal open them: al Iuda shalbe caryed away captiue, so that none shal remayne.

20 Lyft vp your eyes, and beholde them that come from the north: where is the flocke, (O thou lande) that was geuen thee? and where are thy fatte and ryche sheepe? Iere.19.a. Esai.13.b. D

21 To whom wylt thou make thy mone when the enimie shall come vpon thee? for thou hast taught them thee selfe, and made them maisters ouer thee: Shal not sorowe come vpon thee as on a woman trauayling with childe?

22 And yf thou wouldest then saye in thyne hart, Wherefore come these thinges vppon me? Euen for the multitude of thy blasphemies shall thy hynder partes and thy feete be discouered. Iere.15.b.

23 May a man of Inde change his skinne, and the cat of the mountayne her spottes? so, may ye that be exercised in euyll, doo good?

24 Therefore wil I scatter them like as the stubble that is taken away with the south winde.

25 This shalbe your portion, and the portion of your measure wherewith ye shalbe rewarded of me, sayth the Lorde, because ye haue forgotten me, and put your trust in deceiptful thinges.

26 Therefore shall I turne thy clothes ouer thy head, and discouer thy shame. Ose.2.b.

27 Thy aduteries, thy neyghynges, thy shamefull whoredome on the hilles in the feeldes, & thy abominations haue I seene: Wo be vnto thee (O Hierusalem) wylt thou neuer be cleansed any more? or when shal that be?

their propheters alſo and prieſtes ſhalbe led into an vnknowen lande.

Doeſt thou ſo abhorre Sion? Wherefore haſt thou ſo plagued vs, that we can be healed no more? We looked for peace, and Ier.8.c.
there commeth no good, for the tyme of health, and loe here is nothing but trouble.

20 We knowledge (O Lorde) al our miſ-we haue offended thee.

(a) The temple at Hieruſalem is called the ſeat of Gods honor, becauſe he had appoynted that place where in ſpecially to be honored, & there to ſhewe the tokens of his honorable preſence.

The.xv. Chapter.

1. The Lorde wyll not heare Moſes and Samuel yf they pray for the people, but wyll wrappe them in many miſeries. 6. The cauſe of ſuche great miſeries.

1 Thus ſpake the Lord vnto me, Though A Moſes and Samuel ſtoode before me, yet haue I no hart to this people, bidde them away, that they may get out of my ſight.

2 And

2 And yf they say vnto thee, Whyther shal we goe? then tel them, the Lord geueth you this answeare, Some vnto death, some to the swoorde, some to hunger, some into captiuitie.

3 For I wil bring foure plagues vpon them, sayth the Lorde, The swoord shal slay them, the dogges shall teare them in peeces, the foules of the ayre and beastes of the earth shal eate them vp, and destroy them.

4 I wyl scatter them about also in al kingdomes and landes to be plagued, because of Manasses the sonne of Ezekia kyng of Iuda, for the thynges that he did in Hierusalem.

5 Who shal then haue pitie vpon thee, O Hierusalem? who shalbe sory for thee? Or who shall make intercession to obteyne peace for thee?

6 Seeyng thou goest from me, and turnest backwarde, sayth the Lorde, therfore I did stretche out my hande against thee to destroy thee, & I haue ben sory for thee so long that I am weery.

7 I haue scattered them abrode with the fanne of euery syde of the lande, I haue wasted my people and destroyed them, yet they haue had no lust to turne from theyr owne wayes.

8 I haue made theyr widowes mo in number then the sandes of the sea, vpon the mothers of theyr children dyd I bring a destroyer in the noone day: sodaynly and vnawares dyd I sende a feare vpon theyr cities.

9 She that hath borne seuen children, hath none, her hart is full of sorowe: the sunne doth fayle her in the cleare day, she is confounded and fayntly for very beastinesse: As for those that remayne, I wyl deliuer them vnto the swoorde before theyr enimies, sayth the Lorde.

10 O mother, alas that thou euer dyddest beare me, a brawler & rebuker of the whole lande: though I neuer lent nor receiued vpon vsurie, yet all men speake euyl vpon me.

11 And the Lord answeared me, Verely thy (a) remnant shal haue wealth: Come not I to thee when thou art in trouble, & helpe thee when thyne enimie oppresseth thee?

12 Doth one iron hurt another? or one mettal that commeth from the north another?

13 As for thy riches and treasure, I wyll geue them out into a pray: not for money, but because of al thy sinnes that thou hast done in al thy coastes.

14 And I wyll bring thee with thyne enimies into a lande that thou knowest not: for the fyre that is kyndled in myne indignation shal burne you vp.

15 O Lorde thou knowest, therefore remember me, and visite me, reuenge me of my persecutours, take me not from this life in the tyme of thy anger: thou knowest that for thy sake I suffer rebuke.

16 When I had founde thy woordes I dyd eate them vp greedyly, they haue made my hart ioyful and glad: for thy name was (b) called vpon me, O Lorde God of hostes.

17 I dwel not among the scorners, neyther is my delight therein: but I dwel alone because of thy hande, for thou hast filled me with bytternesse.

18 Shal beastinesse endure for euer? Are my plagues then so great that they may neuer be healed? Wylt thou be as one that is false, and as a water that faileth, and can not continue?

19 Upon these woordes, thus sayth the Lorde vnto me, If thou wylt turne agayne, I shal set thee in my seruice, and if thou wylt take out the thynges that is pretious from the vyle, thou shalt be euen as myne owne mouth: they shal conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them.

20 And so shal I make thee a strong brasen wal agaynst this people, they shal fyght agaynst thee, but they shal not preuayle: for I mee selfe wyl be with thee, to helpe thee and deliuer thee, sayth the Lorde.

21 And I wyl ryd thee out of the handes of the wicked, and deliuer thee out of the handes of tyrantes.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1. He prophesieth the miserie of the Iewes. 2. He sheweth that the worshipping of images and the contempt of Gods lawe, is cause of theyr miserie. 13. He prophesieth the captiuitie of Babylon, and theyr deliuerance from thence agayne. 19. The callyng of the Gentiles.

1 THus sayth the Lorde vnto me,
2 Thou shalt take thee no wyfe, nor begeat chyldren in this place.
3 For of the chyldren that are borne in this place, of theyr mothers that haue borne them, and of theyr fathers that haue begotten them in this land, thus sayth the Lord,
4 They shal dye an horrible death, no man shal weepe for them, nor burie them, but they shal lye as dounge vpon the earth: they shal perishe through the swoord and hunger, and theyr bodies shalbe meate for the foules of the ayre, and beastes of the earth.
5 For thus sayth the Lorde, Go not thou into the house of mournyng, nor come to mourne and weepe for them: for I haue taken my peace from this people, ſayth the Lorde, yea my fauour and my mercies.

6 And in this lande (that they dye olde and young,) and ſhal not be buried: no man ſhall beweepe them, no man ſhal clippe or ſhaue hym ſelfe for them.

B 7 They ſhal not wring theyr hands in mourning wiſe on their dead, one to comfort another: one ſhal not offer another the cuppe of conſolation to forget theyr beautneſſe for theyr father and mother.

1. Cor. 15.b. 8 Thou ſhalt not goe into theyr feaſt houſe, to ſit downe to eate or drinke with them:

9 For thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I ſhal take away out of this place the voyce of myrth and gladneſſe, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, yea and that in your dayes, that ye may ſee it.

Ierr. 7.d. and. 25.b.

10 Nowe when thou ſheweſt this people al theſe wordes, and they ſay vnto thee, Wherfore hath the Lorde deuiſed all this great plague for vs? or what is the offence and ſinne that we haue done againſt the Lorde our God?

Ierr. 5.d.

11 Then make thou them this anſweare, Becauſe your fathers haue forſaken me, ſaith the Lorde, and haue walked after ſtrange gods, whom they honoured and worſhipped: but me haue they forſaken, and haue not kept my lawe.

Deut. 4.d. Ierr. 7.b.

12 And ye with your hamefull blaſphemies haue exceeded the wickednes of your fathers: for euery one of you hath folowed the frowarde and euil imaginations of his owne hart, and is not obedient vnto me.

Ierr. 7.d.

13 Therfore wil I caſt you out of this land, into a lande that ye and your fathers know not: and there ſhal ye ſerue ſtrange goddes day and night, there wyl I ſhewe you no fauour.

Deut. 28.c.

C 14 Beholde therefore, ſayth the Lorde, the dayes are come that it ſhal no more be ſaid, The Lorde lyueth whiche brought the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:

Ierr. 23.b.

15 But it ſhalbe ſayde, The Lorde lyueth that brought the chyldren of Iſrael from the north, and from al landes where he had ſcattered them: for I wyll bring them agayne into the lande that I gaue their fathers.

16 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wil ſende out many fyſhers to take them, and after that wyl I ſende out many hunters, to hunt them out from all mountaynes and hylles, and out of the caues of ſtone.

Math. 4.c.

17 For mine eyes beholde al theyr wayes, and they can not be hid from my face: neither can their wicked deedes be kept cloſe out of my ſyght.

18 But firſt wyl I ſufficiently reward their ſhameful blaſphemies and ſinnes, becauſe they haue defiled my lande (a) with theyr ſtinking carions and their abominations, wherewith they haue fylled mine heritage.

(a) Gods ſeruice deuiſed according to his worde ſauoureth ſweetely, that is pleaſeth God: but gods ſeruice and worſhip without his worde, doth ſauour lyke carion, that is, it abhoreth. It much diſpleaſeth God.

19 O Lord my ſtrength, my power & refuge in time of trouble: the Gentiles ſhal come vnto thee from the endes of the worlde, and ſay, Verily our fathers haue cleaued vnto lyes, their idols are but vayne and vnprofitable.

20 Howe can a man make thoſe his gods, whiche are not able to be gods?

21 And therefore I wyll once teache them, ſaith the Lord, I wil ſhewe them my hande and my power, and they ſhall knowe that my name is the Lorde.

The. xvii. Chapter.

I. The frowardneſſe of the Iewes. 5. Curſed be thoſe that put theyr confidence in man, and thoſe bleſſed that truſt in GOD. 9. Mans hart is wycked. 10. GOD is the ſearcher of the hart. 13. The lyuyng waters are forſaken. 21. The halowyng of the Sabboth is commaunded.

1 YOur ſinne (O ye of the tribe of Iuda) is g written in the table of your harts, and grauen ſo vpon the edges of your aulters with a penne of iron, and with an Adamant clawe:

2 That as the fathers thynke vpon theyr chyldren, ſo thynke you alſo vpon your aulters, woodes, thycke trees, hygh hylles, mountaynes, and feeldes.

3 Wherefore, O my mount that ſtandeth in the feelde, I wil make al thy ſubſtance and treaſure to be ſpoyled, for the great ſinne that thou haſt done vpon thy hygh places throughout al the coaſtes of thy lande.

Iere. 15.a. and. 20.b.

4 Thou ſhalt be caſt out alſo from the heritage that I gaue thee: and I wyll ſubdue thee vnder the beaute bondage of thine enimies, in a lande that ye knowe not: for ye haue minſtred fyre to myne indignation, whiche ſhal burne euermore.

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Curſed be the man that putteth his truſt in man, and that taketh fleſhe for his arme, and he whoſe hart departeth from the Lorde.

Pſal. 40.a. Pſal. 118.a. Iere. 46.c. and. 48.a. Ezech. 33.d.

6 He ſhalbe lyke the heath that groweth in wyldernes: As for the good thyng that is for to come, he ſhal not ſee it, but dwell in a dyre place of the wyldernes, in a ſalt and and vnoccupied lande.

B 7 O blessed is the man that putteth his trust in the Lorde, and whose hope is in the Lorde him selfe.

8 For he shalbe as a tree that is planted by the waters syde, whiche spreadeth out the roote vnto moystnesse, whom the heate can not harme when it commeth, but his leafe shalbe greene: And though there growe but litle fruite because of drouth, yet is he not careful, but he neuer leaueth of to bring foorth fruite.

9 Among al thinges, man hath the most deceiptfull and stubburne hart: Who shall then knowe it?

10 Euen I the Lorde searche out the ground of the hart, and trye the reynes, and reward euery man according to his wayes, and according to the fruite of his woorkes.

11 The Partriche maketh a nest of egges, whiche she layed not: he commeth by ryches, but not rightfoully, in the middest of his lyfe must he leaue them behynde hym, and at the last be found a very foole.

12 But thou (O Lord) whose throne is most glorious, excellent, and of most antiquitie, which dwellest in the place of our holy rest:

13 Thou art the comfort of Israel, all they that forsake thee shalbe confounded, all they that do depart from thee shalbe writtē in earth: for they haue forsaken the Lorde the very conduite of the waters of lyfe.

C 14 Heale me, O Lorde, and I shalbe whole: saue thou me, and I shalbe saued: for thou art my prayse.

15 Beholde, these men say vnto me, Where is the woord of the Lorde? let it come now.

16 Whereas I neuertheleſſe obediently folowed thee as a sheephearde, and haue not vncalled taken this office vppon me, this knowest thou well: my woordes also were right before thee.

17 Be not thou terrible vnto me, O Lorde: for thou art he in whom I hope when I am in peryl.

18 Let my persecutours be confounded, but not me: let them be afrayde, and not me: Thou shalt bring vppon them the tyme of plague, and shalt destroy them right sore.

19 Thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, Goe and stande vnder the gate where through the people and the kynges of Juda go out and in, yea vnder all the gates of Hierusalem.

20 And say vnto them, Heare the woorde of the Lorde ye kinges of Juda, and all thou people of Juda, and all the citizens of Hierusalem that go through this gate, D 21 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, Take heede for your lyues that ye cary no burden vppon you in the sabboth, to bring it thorowe the gates of Hierusalem. Exod. 23. B. Deut. 5. b.

22 Ye shall beare no burden also out of your houses in the Sabboth, you shall doo no labour therein: but halowe the Sabboth, as I commaunded your fathers. Exod. 20. B.

23 Howbeit they obeyed me not, neyther hearkened they vnto me: but were obstinate and stubburne, and neyther obeyed me, nay receyued my correction.

24 Neuertheleſſe, if ye wyll heare me, sayth the Lorde, and beare no burden into the Citie through this gate vppon the sabboth, if ye wyll halowe the sabboth, so that ye do no woorke therein:

25 Then shall there goe through the gates of this citie kynges and princes that shall syt vpon the throne of Dauid, they shalbe carryed vpon charets, and ryde vppon horses, both they and their princes: yea whole Juda, & al the citizens of Hierusalem shal goe here through, and this citie shal euer be inhabited.

26 There shal come men also from the cities of Juda, from about Hierusalem, & from the lande of Beniamin, from the playne feeldes, from the mountaynes, & from the wyldernesse, which shal bring whole burnt offerynges, sacrifyces, oblations, & incense, and offer vp thankesgeuing in the house of the Lorde.

27 But if ye wyl not be obedient vnto me to halowe the sabboth, so that ye wyll beare your burdens through the gates of Hierusalem vpon the sabboth: then shall I set fyre vpon the gates of Hierusalem, and it shall burne vp the houses of Hierusalem, and no man shalbe able to quenche it.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1. God sheweth by the example of a potter that it is in his power to destroy the despysers of his woorde, and to helpe them againe when they amende. 18. The conspiracie of the Iewes againſt Ieremie. 19. His prayer againſt his aduersaries.

I THis is another communication that God had with Ieremie, sayeing, A 2 Aryse and goe downe into the potters house, and there shall I tel thee more of my mynde.

3 Howe when I came to the potters house, I founde hym making his woorke vppon a wheele.

4 The vessell that the potter made of clay brake among his handes: So he began a newe, and made another vessell according to his mynde.

5 Then sayde the Lorde thus vnto me,

Eſai.45.b. Iere.19.c. Rom.9.c.

6 May not I doo with you as this potter doeth, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord? Beholde ye houſe of Iſrael, ye are in my hande, euen as the clay is in the potters hande.

7 When I take in hande to roote out, to deſtroy, or to waſte away any people or kingdome:

9 Againe, when I take in hande to builde or to plant a people or a kingdome:

10 If the ſame people doo euyll before me, and heare not my voyce, I repent of the good that I haue deuiſed for them.

11 Speake nowe therefore vnto whole Iuda, & to them that dwel at Hieruſalem, Thus ſaith the Lorde, Beholde, I am deuiſyng a plague for you, and am taking a thing in hande againſt you: therefore let euery man turne from his euil way, and take vpon you the thing that is good and right.

12 But they ſaide, No more of this, we wyll folowe our owne imaginations, and doo euery man accoyding to the wylfulneſſe of his owne minde.

13 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde, Aſke among the heathen yf any man haue heard ſuche horrible thinges, as the maiden Iſrael hath donne?

C

(a) It is extreme madneſſe to forſake God the only freſhe ſpring of pure pleaſant waters, who is nygh at hande, and to goe far of to ſeeke fowle & ſylthy puddels, wherin there is nothing but vncleane and ſtinking water. Iere.19.b. and.49.c. Iere.11.b.

14 (a) Wyll a man forſake the ſnowe of Libanus, whiche commeth from the rocke of the feelde? Or ſhal the colde flowing waters that commeth from another place be forſaken?

15 But my people hath forgotten me, they haue made ſacrifyce in vayne, and their prophetes make them fall in their wayes from the auncient pathes, and to goe into a way not vſed to be troden (of iuſt men.)

16 Wherethrough they haue brought their lande into an euerlaſtyng wylderneſſe and ſcorne: ſo that who ſo euer trauayleth therby ſhalbe abaſhed, and wagge their heades.

17 With an eaſt winde wyll I ſcatter them before their enimies: and when their deſtruction commeth, I wyl turne my backe vpon them, but not my face.

18 Then ſaide they, Comme, let vs imagine ſome thing againſt this Ieremie: for the prieſtes ſhall not be deſtitute of the lawe, neyther ſhal the wyſe men be deſtitute of counſaile, nor the prophetes deſtitute of the woorde of God: Comme, and let vs ſmite him with the tongue, and let vs not marke al his woordes.

19 Conſyder me, O Lorde, and heare the voyce of myne enimies.

20 Shal they recompence euyl for good? for they haue digged a pit for my ſoule: Remember howe that I ſtoode before ther to ſpeake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them. Pſal.109.c. Iere.10.b.

21 Therefore let their children dye of hunger, and let them be oppreſſed with the ſwoord: Let their wiues be robbed of their children and become wydowes, let their huſbandes be ſlaine, let their young menne be killed with the ſwoorde in the feelde. Pſal.109.b Lamen.3.l. D

22 Let the noyſe be hearde out of their houſes when thou bringeſt the murderer ſodainely vppon them: for they haue digged a pitte to take me, and laide ſnares for my feete.

23 Yet Lord thou knoweſt all their counſaile that they haue deuiſed to ſlay me, forgeue not their wickednelle, and let not their ſinnes be put out of thy ſight, but let them be iudged before thee as gilte: this doo thou vnto them in the time of thyne indignation. Iere.11.b.

The.xix.Chapter.

I. He propheſieth the deſtruction of Hieruſalem, for the contempt and deſpyſing of the woorde of God.

1 Thus ſaith the Lorde, Goe thy way and buye thee an earthen pitcher, and bring foorth the ſenatours and cheefe prieſtes,

2 Vnto the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, whiche lyeth without the eaſt gate, and ſhewe them there the woordes that I ſhal tel ther, 13 Syng vnto the Lorde, and prayſe hym, for he hath deliuered the ſoule of the oppreſſed from the hande of the violent.

(c) The moſt godly menne are ſom mes times caryed away with the vnruly rage of immoderate affection, albeit in this propheſie, the cauſe of this immoderate zeale was, for that he ſawe his trauaile to ſaue the people to be in vaine, Gods woorde contemned, and al godlyneſſe ſcornefully deſpiſed.

14 Curſed be the day wherin I was borne, vnhappy be the day wherein my mother brought me forth.

15 Curſed be the man that brought my father the tydinges to make hym glad, ſaying, Thou haſt begotten a ſonne:

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities (c) which the lord turned vpſide down, and repented not: let him heare crying in the morning, and at noone day lamentable howling.

17 Why ſlewſt thou not me aſſoone as I came out of my mothers wombe? or that my mother had ben my graue her ſelfe, that the byrth might not haue come out, but remained ſtyl in her?

18 Wherfore came I forth of my mothers wombe? to haue experience of labour and ſorowe, and to leade my life with ſhame?

The .xxi. Chapter.

He propheſieth that Zedekias ſhalbe taken, and the citie burned.

1 THeſe are the woords that the Lord ſpake vnto Ieremie, what time as kyng Zedekias ſent vnto hym Phaſhur the ſonne of Melchias, and Sophonias the ſonne of Maaſias prieſt, ſaying, Iob.10.c.

2 Aſke counſaile at the Lord, (we pray thee) on our behalfe, for Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon beſiegeth vs: if the Lorde peraduenture wyl deale with vs according to his marueilous power, & take him from vs.

3 Then ſpake Ieremie, Geue Zedekias this anſwere:

4 Thus ſaith the Lorde God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl turne backe the weapons that ye haue in your handes, wherewith ye fight againſt the king of Babylon and the Chaldees, which beſiege you rounde about the walles, and I wyl bryng them togeather into the myddeſt of this citie.

5 And I mee ſelfe wyll fyght againſt you with an outſtretched hande, and with a mightie arme, in great diſpleaſure and terrible wrath:

6 And wyl ſmyte them that dwel in this citie, yea, both menne and cattel ſhal dye of a great peſtilence.

B 7 But after this, (ſaith the Lorde) I ſhall deliuer Zedekias kyng of Iuda, and his ſeruantes, his people, and ſuche as are eſcaped in the citie, from the peſtilence, ſwoord, and hunger, into the power of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon, yea, into the handes of their enimies, into the handes of thoſe that ſeke vpon their liues, which ſhal ſmite them with the ſwoorde, they ſhal not ſpare them, they ſhall haue no mercy vpon them.

Ieremi.31.a.

8 And vnto this people thou ſhalt ſay, Thus ſaith the Lorde, Beholde, I laye before you the way of life and death. Deut.30.c. Ieremi.27.a and.38.a.

9 Who ſo abideth in the citie, ſhal perish either with the ſwoorde, with hunger, or peſtilence: but who ſo goeth out to holde on the Chaldees part that beſiege it, he ſhall ſaue his life, and ſhal winne his ſoule for a pray.

10 For I haue ſet my face againſt this citie (ſaith the Lorde) to plague it, and to doo it no good: it muſt be geuen into the hande of the king of Babylon, and be brent with fire. Ieremi.32.d

11 And vnto the houſe of the kyng of Iuda, ſay thus, Heare the woorde of the Lorde: Eſai.1.c.

12 O thou houſe of Dauid, thus ſayth the Lorde, Miniſter righteouſneſſe, and that ſoone, deliuer the oppreſſed from violent power, or euer my terrible wrath breake out like a fire, and burne, ſo that no man may quenche it, becauſe of the wickednes of your imaginations. Ieremi.22.d Zachar.7.b. Ieremi.4.a.

13 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl come vppon thee that dwelleſt in the valleyes, rockes, and feeldes, and ſay, Tuſhe, who wyl make vs afrayde? or who wyl come into our houſes? Ieremi.48.a. Deut.32.c. Ieremi.c.h. 12.a.13.b. and.23.c. Sophon.1.c.

14 For I wyl viſite you, ſaith the Lorde, becauſe of the wickednes of your inuentions, and wyll kindle ſuche a fire in your wood, as ſhal conſume all that is about you.

The .xxii. Chapter.

2. He exhorteth the kyng of Iuda to iudgment and righteouſneſſe. 9. Why Hieruſalem is brought into captiuitie. 11. The death of Sellum the ſonne of Ioſias is propheſied.

1 THus ſayth the Lorde, Goe downe into the houſe of the kyng of Iuda, & ſpeake there theſe woordes,

2 And ſay, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, thou kyng of Iuda, that ſitteſt in the kingly ſeate of Dauid, thou, and thy ſeruants, and thy people, that goeth in and out at their gates.

3 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, Keepe equitie and righteouſneſſe, deliuer the oppreſſed from the power of the violent. doo not greeue nor oppreſſe the ſtranger, the fatherleſſe, nor the widowe, and ſhed no innocent bloud in this place. Eſai.1.c. Ieremi.21.d. Zach.7.c.

4 And

4 And yf ye kepe these thynges faythfully, then shal there come in at the doore of this house, kynges, to syt vppon Dauids seate, they shalbe carried in charrettes, and ryde vpon horses, both they, and their seruants, and their people.

5 But yf ye wyll not be obedient vnto these commaundementes, I sweare by myne owne selfe, sayth the Lord, that this house shalbe waste.

6 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vpon the kynges of Iuda, Thou Gilead art vnto me the head of Libanus: shall I not make thee so waste as the cities that no man dwel in?

7 I wyll prepare a destroyer with his weapons for thee, to hewe downe thy especiall Cedar trees, and to cast them in the fyre.

8 And all the people that goe by this citie, shal speake one to another, Wherfore hath the Lorde done thus vnto this noble citie?

9 Then shal it be answered, Because they haue broken the couenant of the Lord their God, and haue worshipped & serued strange goddes.

10 Mourne not ouer the dead, and be not woe for him: but be sorie for him that departeth away, for he commeth not againe, and seeth his native countrey no more.

11 For thus sayth the Lorde as touchyng Sellum the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, whiche reigned after his father, When he is carried out of this place, he shall neuer come hyther agayne.

12 For he shall dye in the place whereunto he is led captiue, and shal see this lande no more.

13 Woe vnto him that buildeth his house with vnrighteousnesse, and his parlours with the good that he hath gotten by violence, whiche neuer recompenceth his neighbours labour, nor payeth hym his hyre:

14 Who thinketh in him selfe, I wil build me a wide house and gorgeous parlours, who causeth windowes to be hewen therein, and the seelynges and toppes maketh be of Cedar, and paynteth them with Sinoper.

15 Thinkest thou to reigne nowe that thou hast inclosed thee selfe with Cedar? Dyd not thy father eate and drynke and prosper wel, as long as he dealt with equitie and righteousnesse?

16 Yea when he helped the oppressed and poore to their right, then prospered he wel, from whence came this, but onely because he knewe me, sayth the Lorde?

17 Neuertheles, as for thine eyes & thine hart they looke vpon couetousnesse, to shed innocent blood, to do wrong and violence.

18 And therfore thus saith the Lord against Ioachim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, They shal not mourne for him (as they vse to doo) Alas brother, alas syster: neyther shall they say vnto him, Alas syr, alas for that noble prince. 2.Kin.22. and.23.a. and.24.a. Iere.36.b.

19 But as an asse shal he be buried, corrupt, and be cast without the gates of Hierusalem.

20 Climbe vp the hyl of Libanus, (O thou daughter Sion) lifte vp thy voyce vpon Basan, crye from al partes: for al thy louers are destroyed.

21 I gaue thee warnyng whyle thou wast yet in prosperitie: but thou saydest, I wyl not heare: And this maner hast thou vsed from thy youth, that thou wouldest neuer heare my voyce.

22 Al thy shepherdes shalbe driuen with the winde, and thy darlinges shalbe carried away into captiuitie: then shalt thou be brought to shame and confusion, because of al thy wickednesse.

23 Thou that dwellest vpon Libanus, and makest thy nest in the Cedar trees, O how litle shalt thou be regarded when thy sorowe and panges come vpon thee, as vpon a woman trauailing with childe? Esai.13.b. and.21.a. Iere.12.b. and.21.a. 2.Kin.24.b

24 As truely as I lyue, sayth the Lorde, though * Cononias the sonne of Iehoiakim kyng of Iuda were the signet of my right hande, yet wyl I plucke hym of. * or, Iechonias.

25 And I wyll geue thee into the hande of them that seke thy lyfe, and into the power of them that thou fearest, euen into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Moreouer, I wyl sende thee and thy mother that bare thee into a strange lande where ye were not borne, and there shalye dye.

27 But as for the lande that ye wyll desyre to returne vnto, ye shal neuer come at it agayne.

28 This man Cononias shalbe lyke an image robbed and torne in peeces, and like a vessel wherin there is no pleasure: Wherfore both he and his seede shalbe sent away, and cast into a lande that they knowe not.

29 O thou earth, earth, earth, heare the woorde of the Lorde.

30 Thus sayth the Lord, Write this man destitute of children: for no prosperitie shal this man haue al his dayes, neyther shall any of his seede be so happie as to syt vpon the seate of Dauid, and to beare rule any more in Iuda.

The. xxiii. Chapter.

1. He ſpeaketh againſt euyl Curates that make hauocke of the flocke of the Lorde. 5. The comming of the true ſhepheaſde Chriſt is propheſied. 9. Againſt falſe prophetes. 32. The miracles of falſe prophetes.

A 1 WOe vnto the shepheardes that deſtroy
Ezech.34.a and ſcatter my flocke, ſayth the Lord.
2 Wherfore this is the ſaying of the Lorde God of Iſrael concernyng the ſhepheardes that feede my people, Ye ſcatter & thruſt out my flocke, & loke not vpon them: therfore mowe wyl I viſite the wickednesse of your imaginations, ſayth the Lorde.
3 And I wyl geather together the remnant of my flocke from al landes that I had driuen them vnto, and wil bring them againe to their foldes, that they may growe and encreaſe.
4 I wyl ſet ſhepheardes alſo ouer them, whiche ſhal feede them: they ſhal no more feare and dread, & there ſhal none of them be loſt, ſayth the Lorde.

The Epiſtle on the. xx. ſunday after trinitie.

B 5 Beholde, the tyme commeth, ſayth the Lorde, that I wyl raiſe vp the righteous braunche of Dauid, whiche kyng ſhal beare rule, and be ſhal proſper with wyſedome, and ſhall ſet vp equitie and righteouſneſſe againe in the earth.
Iere.33.c. Eſai.11.a. Deut.33.c. 6 In his tyme ſhall Iuda be ſaued, and Iſrael ſhall dwell without feare: and this is the name that they ſhal cal him, The Lord our righteouſneſſe.
1.Cor.1.b. Iere.16.c.
B 7 And therefore behold the time commeth, ſayth the Lord, that it ſhalbe no more ſayd, The Lord liueth which brought the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:
8 But, the Lord liueth, which brought forth and led the ſeede of the houſe of Iſrael out of the north lande, and from al countreyes where I had ſcattered them: and they ſhal dwel in their owne lande againe.
9 My hart breaketh in my body, becauſe of the (falſe) prophetes, al my bones ſhake, I am become lyke a dronken man that by the reaſon of wyne can take no reſt, for very feare of the Lorde, and his holy wordes, Iere.14.a. 10 Becauſe the lande is ful of aduulterers, and though ſwearyng it mourneth, & the pleaſant paſtures of the deſart are dried vp: yea the way that men take is wicked, their power is not hing right.
11 For the prophetes and the prieſtes them ſelues are polluted hypocrites, and their wickednesse haue I foumde in my houſe, ſayth the Lorde.
12 Wherfore their way ſhalbe ſlypperie in the darkeneſſe, wherein they may ſtacker and fal: for I wyl bring a plague vppon them, euen the yere of their viſitation, ſaith the Lorde.
13 I haue ſeene folliſe among the prophetes of Samaria that preached for Baal, and deceiued my people of Iſrael.
14 I haue ſeene alſo among the prophetes of Hieruſalem, foule aduulteris, & preſumptuous lyes: they take the moſte harmfull men by the hande, flattering them, ſo that they can not returne from their wickednes, al theſe with their citizens are vnto me as Sodome, & as the inhabiters of Gomorr. C
15 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes concernyng theſe prophetes, Beholde, I wyll feede them with wormewood, and make them drynke the water of gal: for from the prophetes of Hieruſalem is hypocriſie come into al the land. Iere.9.b.
16 And therfore the Lorde of hoſtes geueth you this warning, Heare not the wordes of the prophetes that preach vnto you, and deceiue you, truely they teache you banitie: for they ſpeake the meanyng of their owne hart, and not out of the mouth of the Lorde. Iere.27.b. and.29.b.
17 They ſay vnto them that deſpiſe me, The Lorde hath ſpoken it, tuſhe, ye ſhall proſper right wel: and vnto all them that walke after the luſt of their owne hart, they ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhal no miſchefe happen you. Iere.12.a. and.14.b. Soph.1.c.
18 For who hath ſytten in the counſayle of the Lorde, that he hath heard and vnderſtande what he is about to doo? who hath marked his deuice, and heard it?
19 Behold the ſtormie weather of the Lord (that is) his indignation ſhall goe forth, and a violent whirlewinde ſhal fal downe vpon the head of the vngodly. Iere.30.b
20 And the wrath of the Lord ſhal not turne agayne, vntyl he perfourme and fulfyl the thoughts of his hart: and in the latter dayes ye ſhal knowe this meanyng.
21 I haue not ſent theſe prophetes, (ſayth the Lorde) and yet they ranne, I haue not ſpoken to them, and yet they preached. Iere.14.a. D
22 But if they had continued in my counſel, they had opened to my people my wordes, and they had turned my people from their euyl wayes, & wicked imaginations.
23 Am I then God that ſeeth but the thing whiche is nygh at hande, and not that is farre of, ſayth the Lorde?
24 May any man hyde him ſelfe ſo, that I ſhal not ſee him, ſayth the Lord? doo not I fulfyl heauen and earth, ſayth the Lorde? Pſal.139.a Eccl.8.b. Pſal.139.a
25 I haue heard wel ynough what the prophetes ſay that preache lyes in my name, ſaying, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed. Amos.9.a Eſai.7.a. Acts.7.c. and.17.b.
26 Howe long wyl this continue in the prophetes prophetes hart to tel lyes, and preache the craftie subtilties of their owne hart?

27 Whose purpose is with the dreames that euery one tell, to make my people forgeat my name, as their fathers dyd when Baal came vp.

28 The prophet that hath a dreame, let him tell it, and he that vnderstandeth my word, let him shewe it faythfully: for what hath chaffe and wheate to do togeather, saith the Lord?

29 Is not my woorde like a fire, saith the Lorde? and like an hammer that breaketh the harde stone?

30 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I wyll vppon the prophetes that steale my word priuily from euery man.

31 Beholde, here am I, saith the Lorde, against the prophets that make tongues tender to speake, and to say, The Lorde hath saide it.

32 Beholde, here am I, saith the Lorde, against those prophetes that dare prophesie lying dreames, and deceiue my people with their vanities and inconstant deuices, yet I neuer sent nor commaunded them: they shal do this people no good at al, saith the Lord.

33 If this people, eyther any prophete or priest, aske thee, and say, What is the (a) burden of the Lord? Thou shalt say vnto them, What burden? I wyll forsake you, saith the Lorde.

34 And the prophete, priest, or people, that vseth this terme, The burden of the Lord: him wyl I visite, and his house also.

35 But thus shall ye say euery one to another, and euery man to his brother, What answeare hath the Lorde geuen? or what is the Lordes commaundement?

36 And as for the burden of the Lord, ye shal speake no more of it, for euery mans owne woorde is his burden: because ye haue altered the wordes of the liuing God, the Lord of hostes our God.

37 Thus shal euery man say to the prophetes, What answeare hath the Lorde geuen thee? or what saith the Lorde?

38 And not once to name the burden of the Lord. Therefore thus saith the Lorde, For as much as ye haue vsed this terme, (The burden of the Lorde) where as I not withstanding sent vnto you, and forbade you to speake of the Lordes burden:

39 Beholde, therefore I wyl take you vp as a burden, and wil cast you farre off from my presence, yea, and the citie also that I gaue you and your fathers:

40 And wyl bring you to an euerlasting confusion, and into a shame that shal neuer be forgotten.

(a) The wicked maliciousness of hers were so hardened against the Lorde, that they vsed shamefully to scoffe at Gods threatnings, prophesying in mocks sort, calling them Gods burde, or burden.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1. The vision of the two pannyers of figges, 5. The first vision signifieth, that part of the people should be brought agayne from captiuitie. 8. The second, that Zedekias and the rest of the people shoulde be destroyed.

1 THe Lorde shewed me a vision: beholde, there stoode two maundes of figges before the temple of the lord, after that Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon had led away captiue Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim kyng of Iuda, the mighty men also of Iuda, with the workmaisters and cunning men of Hierusalem, vnto Babylon. A 2.kin.24.d.

2 In the one maund were very good figges, euen like those that be first ripe: in the other maund were very noughtie figges, whiche might not be eaten, they were so euyl.

3 Then said the Lorde vnto me, What seest thou, Ieremie? I sayde, figges, whereof some be very good, and some so euyl, that no man may eate them. Deut.9.d.

4 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, after this manner:

5 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Like as thou knowest the good figges: so shall I know the men led away, whom I haue sent out of this place, into the land of the Chaldees for their profite:

6 And I wyll set mine eyes vppon them for the best, for I wyll bring them agayne into this lande, I wyl buylde them vp, and not breake them downe, I wyl plant them, and not roote them out.

7 And I wyll geue them an harte to knowe howe that I am the Lorde: they shalbe my people, and I wyl be their God: for they shal returne vnto me with their whole hart. B Deut.29.a. Iere. 30.b. and.31.b.

8 And like as thou knowest the noughtie figges whiche may not be eaten, they are so euyl: euen so wyl I, saith the Lorde, cause Zedekias the king of Iuda, yea, and all his princes, and the residue of Hierusalem that remayne ouer in this lande, and them also that dwell in Egypt, to be vexed and plagued in kyngdomes and landes. and.32.e. Iere.29.c.

9 And I wyll make them to be a reproofe, a common bye woord, a laughing stocke and shame in all the places where I shal scatter them. Psal.79.a. Baruch.3.a

10 I wyl sende the sword, hunger, and pestilence among them, vntyll I haue cleane consumed them out of the land that I gaue vnto them and their fathers.

The. xxv. Chapter.

Ieremie propheseth that they shalbe in captiuitie threescore and ten yeeres, because they contemned and despised the woorde of God.

1 A Ser-

A 1 A Sermon that was geuen vnto Ieremie vpon all the people of Iuda, in the fourth yere of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda (that was in the first yere of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylō,)

2 Whiche sermon Ieremie the prophete made vnto al the people of Iuda, and to all the inhabitters of Hierusalem, on this manner, Ierem. 39.c and.35.c. and.38.a. 3 From the thirteenth yere of Iosias the sonne of Ammon king of Iuda, vnto this present day, (that is euen twentie and three yeres) the worde of the Lorde hath ben committed vnto me, and so haue I spoken vnto you, I haue risen vp early, I haue geuen you warning in season: but ye woulde not heare me.

2.Chr. 36.c 4 Though the Lorde hath sent his seruantes all the prophetes vnto you in season: yet

2.king.7. woulde ye not obey, ye woulde not encline your eares to heare.

5 He said, Turne againe euery man from his euyl way, and from your wicked imaginations, and so shall ye dwell for euer in the lande that the Lorde promised you and your forefathers.

6 And goe not after strange Goddes, serue them not, worshyp them not, and anger me not with the workes of your owne handes, then wyl I not pounishe you.

B 7 Neuertheleſſe, ye woulde not heare me, saith the Lord, but haue prouoked me to anger with the workes of your handes, to your Ierem. 1.b. great harme.

8 Wherefore thus saith the Lorde of hostes, Because ye haue not hearkened vnto my woordes,

9 Loe, I wyl sende out, and call for all the people that dwel in the North, saith the Esai. 10.a. Ierem. 17. Lorde, and wyl prepare Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon my seruant, and wyl bryng them vpon this lande, and vppon al that dwel therein, and vpon all the people that are about them, and wyl vtterly roote them out: I will make them amazed, a mockage, and a continual desart.

Ierem. 8.b. and.16.b. 10 Moreouer, I will take from them the voyce of gladnesse and solace, the voyce of the bridegroome, and the bryde, the noyse of the mylstones, and the light of the candelsticks.

11 And this whole lande shal become a wylderne, & astonished: and these nations shal serue the king of Babylon three score yeres

2.Chr.36.d and ten.

1.Esd.1.a. Ierem.5.c. and.29.b. Dani.9.a. Zachar.1.b. 12 When the three score and ten yeres are expired, I wyl visite al the wickednesse of the kyng of Babylon and his people, saith the Lorde, yea, & the lande of the Chaldees, and wyl make it a perpetual wylderneſſe,

13 And wyl fulfyl al my woordes vpon that lande which I haue deuised against it: yea, al that is written in this booke, which Ieremie hath prophesied of al people, 14 So that they also shalbe subdued vnto C diuers nations and great kinges: for I wyl Iob.34.d. recompence them according to their deedes and woorkes of their owne handes.

15 For thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken vnto me, Take this wine cup of indignation fro my hande, that thou mayest cause al people to whom I sende thee for to drinke of it:

16 That when they haue dronken therof, they may be mad, and out of their wittes, Esai.51.a. when the sword commeth that I wyl sende Psal.75.b. among them.

17 Then tooke I the cup from the Lordes hand, and made al people to drinke therof, vnto whom the Lorde had sent me:

18 But first the citie of Hierusalem, and all the cities of Iuda, their kinges and princes, to make them desolate, amazed, despised, and hyssed at, and cursed, according as it is come to passe this day.

19 Yea, and Pharao the kyng of Egypt, his seruantes, his princes, and his people altogether one with another:

20 And all kynges of the lande of Hus, all kynges of the Philistines lande, Ascalon, Azah, Accaron, and the remnant of Asdod,

21 The Edomites, the Moabites, and the D Ammonites,

22 Al the kynges of Tyrus and Sidon, the kynges of the Iles that are beyonde the sea,

23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, and all them that dwel in the vttermost partes of the world,

24 Al the kinges of Arabia, and (generally) al the kinges that dwel in the desart,

25 Al the kinges of Zimri, al the kinges of Elam, al the kinges of the Medes, 26 Al the kynges towarde the North, whether they be farre or nigh, euery one against his neighbour, yea, and al the kyngdomes that are vppon the whole earth: and the king of Sesach shall drynke also after them.

27 Therefore say thou vnto them, This is the commaundement of the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Drinke, and be dronken: spewe, and fal, that ye neuer arise, and that through the swoorde whiche I wyl sende among you.

28 But if they wyl not receyue the cuppe of E thy hand, and drinke it, then tel them, thus doth the lord of hostes threaten you, Drinke it you shal, and that shortly.

29 For loe, I begyn to plague the citie that Ier. 49. my name is geuen vnto, thinke ye then that Ezech. 9. I wyll leaue you vnpounished? ye shal 1. Pet. 4.

not goe quite: for why? I cal for a swoorde vpon al the inhabiters of the earth, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

30 Therfore tel them al these woordes, and say vnto them, The Lorde shal crye from aboue, and his voyce shalbe hearde from his holy habitation, with a great noyse shal he crye from his court regal: he shall geue a great voyce lyke the grape gatherers, and the sounde therof shalbe heard vnto the endes of the worlde.

31 For the Lorde hath a iudgement to geue vpon al people, and wyl holde his court of iustice with all flesshe, and wyl delyuer the vngodly to the swoorde, sayth the Lorde.

32 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, a miserable plague shal goe from one people to another, and a great stormie water shal aryse from al the ends of the earth.

33 And the same day shal the Lord him selfe slay them from one ende of the earth to an other: there shal no more be made for any of them, none gathered vp, none buried: but shal lye as doung vpon the grounde.

34 Mourne, O ye shepheardes, and crye, sprynkle your selues with ashes, O ye rammes of the flocke: for the tyme of your slaughter and breache is fulfylled, and ye shall fall lyke vesselles that were muche set by.

35 The shepheardes shal haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke shal not escape.

36 Then shal the shepheards crye horribly, and the rammes of the flocke shal mourne: for the Lord hath consumed their pasture, 37 And their best feeldes lye dead, because of the horrible wrath of the Lorde.

38 They haue forsaken their foldes lyke as a Lion: for their lande is waste, because of the spoylers furious cruelitie, and of his fearefull indignation.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

1. Ieremie moueth the people to amendement. 7. He is taken of the prophetes and priestes, and brought to iudgement. 23. Urias the prophet is kylled of Iehoiakim, contrary to the wyl of God.

1 IN the beginnyng of the raigne of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, came this woorde from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus sayth the Lorde, Stande in the court of the Lordes house, and speake vnto all them (whiche out of the citie of Iuda) come to doo woorshyp in the Lordes house, al the woordes that I commaunde the to speake vnto them: kepe not one woorde backe.

3 (If peraduenture they wyl hearken and turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may also repent of the plague which I haue determined to bring vppon them, because of their wicked inuentions.)

4 And after this manner shalt thou speake vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, If ye wyl not obey me, to walke in my lawes whiche I haue geuen you,

5 And to heare the woordes of my seruants the prophetes whom I sent vnto you, rysyng vp tymely, and styl sendyng, yet you haue not hearkened:

6 Then wyl I do to this house, as I did vnto Silo, and wyl make this citie to be abhorred of al the people of the earth.

7 And the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people hearde Ieremie preache these woordes in the house of the Lorde.

8 Nowe when he had spoken out all the woordes that the Lorde commaunded hym to preach vnto the people, then the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people tooke holde vpon hym, and sayde, Thou shalt dye:

9 Howe darest thou be so bolde as to say in the name of the Lorde, It shall happen to this house as it did vnto Silo, and this citie shalbe so waste, that no man may dwell therein?

10 And when al the people were gathered about Ieremie in the house of the Lorde, the princes of Iuda hearde of this rumor, and they came soone out of the kynges palace into the house of the Lorde, and sate them downe before the newe doore of the Lorde.

11 Then spake the priestes and the prophetes vnto the rulers, and to al the people these woordes, This man is woorthie to dye: for he hath preached against this citie, as ye your selues haue heard with your eares.

12 Then sayde Ieremie vnto the rulers, and to al the people, The Lorde hath sent me to preache against this house, and against this citie, al the woordes that ye haue heard.

13 Therfore amende your wayes, and your auoydementes, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God, so shall the Lorde repent of the plague that he hath denised against you.

14 Nowe as for me, I am in your handes, doo with me as you thynke expedient and good:

15 But this shal ye knowe, if ye put me to death, ye shal make your selues, this citie, and al the inhabitantes therof, guilte of innocent nocent blood: for this is of a truethe, that the Lorde hath sent me vnto you, to speake all these wordes in your eares.

16 Then sayd the rulers and the people vnto the priestes and prophetes, This man may not be condemned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the Lorde our God.

Mich.1.a. 17 The elders also of the lande stoode vp, and sayde thus vnto all the people, Mich.3.c. 18 Micheas the Morasthite, whiche was a prophete vnder Ezekias kyng of Juda, spake to all the people of Juda, Thus saith the Lorde of hostes, Sion shalbe plowed lyke a feelde, Hierusalem shalbe an heape of stones, and the hyll of the Lordes house shalbe turned to an hygh wood.

Jonas.3.b. 19 Dyd Ezekias the kyng of Juda, and all the people of Juda put him to death for this? No verely, but rather feared the Lord, and made their prayer vnto him, for the which cause also the Lord (a) repented of the plague that he had denised agaynst them: should we then doo suche a shamefull deede agaynst our soules?

(a) In the deuine nature there is no suche affections or chargeableneſſe: but God is sayde after the maner of men to repent, whē he doth not execute that he had denounced, or doth defer the plague whiche he had threatened.

20 There was a prophete that preached stiffly in the name of the Lord, called Urias, the sonne of Semaiah of Kiriathiarim: this man also preached agaynst this citie, and agaynst this lande, accordyng to all as Jeremie sayth.

21 Now when Jehoakim the king, with all the estates and princes had heard his wordes, the king went about to slay him: when Urias perceiued that, he was afrayde, and fled, and departed into Egypt.

22 Then Jehoakim the king sent seruants into the lande of Egypt (namely) Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, and certayne men with hym into Egypt:

23 Whiche fet thed Urias out of Egypt, & brought hym vnto kyng Jehoakim, that slue him with the swoorde, and cast his dead body into the common peoples grane.

24 But Ahikam the sonne of Saphan helped Jeremie, that he came not into the handes of the people to be slayne.

The.xxvii. Chapter.

1. Jeremie at the commaundement of the Lorde, sendeth bondes to the kyng of Juda, and to the other kynges that were nygh, wherby they are monished to become subiectes vnto Nabuchodonosor. 9. He warneth the people, and the kynges, and rulers, that they beleeue not false prophetes.

IN the beginning of the reuigne of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, came this word vnto Jeremie from the Lorde, whiche spake thus vnto me.

2 Make thee bondes and chaynes, and put them about thy necke,

3 And sende them to the kyng of Edom, to the kyng of Moab, to the kyng of Ammon, to the kyng of Tyrus, and to the kyng of Sidon, and that by the messengers whiche shall come to Hierusalem, vnto Zedekiah the kyng of Juda:

4 And bydde them say vnto their maisters, Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Speake thus vnto your maisters: Deut.10.a.

5 I am he that made the earth, the men, and the cataile that are vpon the grounde, with my great power and stretched out arme, and haue geuen it to whom it pleased me.

6 And nowe wyll I deliuer all these landes into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon my seruant: the beastes also of the feeld wil I geue him, to doo him seruice. Ecclu.30.a. Judi.11.b. Jere.27.a. Dani.4.a. Jere.25.b.

7 And all the people shal serue hym, and his sonne, and his children children, vntyl the tyme of the same lande be come, and his time also: yea many people & great kynges shal serue hym. Jere.27.b. ead.25.b.

8 Moreouer, that people & kingdome which wyl not serue Nabuchodonosor, and that wyl not put their necckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon: the same people wyl I visite with the swoorde, with hunger and pestilence, vntil I haue consumed them in his handes, sayth the Lorde.

9 And therfore folowe not your prophetes, soothsayers, expounders of dreames, charmers, and witches, which say vnto you, Ye shal not serue the kyng of Babylon. Jere.27.c. ead.29.b.

10 For they preache you lyes, to bryng you farre from your lande, and that I myght cast you out, and destroy you.

11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and serue hym, those wyl I let remayne styll in their owne lande, saith the Lorde, and they shal occupie it, and dwel therein. Jere.38.c.

12 All these thynges colde I Zedekiah the kyng of Juda, and sayde, Put your neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and serue him and his people, that ye may lyue.

13 Why wylt thou and thy people perishe with the swoorde, with hunger, with pestilence, lyke as the Lorde hath denised for al people that wyl not serue the kyng of Babylon? Jere.27.b. ead.38.b.

14 Therefore geue no eare vnto their prophetes that tell you, Ye shal not serue the kyng of Babylon: for they preach you lyes. C

15 Neyther haue I sent them, saith the Lorde: howholdeth they are holde falsely to prophesie in my name, that I might the sooner dryue you out, and that ye might perysshe with your prophesiers.

16 I speake to the priestes also, and to all this people thus sayth the Lord, Heare not the wordes of your prophetes that preache vnto you, and say, Behold the vessels of the Lordes house shal shortly be brought hither agayne from Babylon, for they prophesie lyes vnto you.

17 Heare them not, but serue the kyng of Babylon, that ye may liue: wherefore wyll ye make this citie to be destroyed.

18 But yf they be true prophetes in very deede, and yf the worde of the Lorde be committed vnto them, then let them pray the Lord of hostes, that the remnant of the ornamentes whiche are in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the kyng of Iuda, and at Hierusalem, be not caried to Babylon also.

19 For thus hath the Lorde of hostes spoken concerning the pillers, the lauer, the seate, and the residue of the ornamentes that yet remayne in the citie,

20 Which Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon tooke not when he caried away Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim king of Iuda, with al the power of Iuda and Hierusalem, vnto Babylon captiue.

21 Yea thus hath the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel spoken as touching the residue of the ornamentes of the Lordes house, of the kyng of Iuda his house, and of Hierusalem:

22 They shalbe caried vnto Babylon, and there shall they remayne vncyll I visite them, saith the lord: then will I bring them hyther agayne.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1. The false prophesie of Hananias the prophete. 12. Ieremie sheweth that the prophesie of Hananias is false, by the example of the other prophetes.

28 AND it came to passe the same yeere, euen in the beginning of the reigne of Zedekiah kyng of Iuda, in the fourth yeere, the fifth moneth, that Hananias the sonne of Assur the prophet of Gibeon, spake to me in the house of the Lorde, in the presence of the priestes, and of al the people, and sayde,

2 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, I haue broken the yoke of the kyng of Babylon,

3 And after two yeeres wil I bring agayne into this place all the ornamentes of the Lordes house, that Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon caryed away from this place vnto Babylon,

4 Yea I wyll bring againe Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim the king of Iuda hym selfe, with all the prisoners of Iuda that are caried vnto Babylon, euen into this place, sayth the Lorde: for I will breake the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the prophete Ieremie gaue answere vnto the prophete Hananias before all the priestes, and before al the people that were present in the house of the Lord.

6 And the prophete Ieremie sayde, Amen, the Lorde do that, and graunt the thyng whiche thou hast prophesied, that he may bring againe al the ornamentes of the lords house, and restore al the prisoners from Babylon into this place.

7 Neuertheleste hearken thou also what I wyll say, that thou and al the people may heare.

8 The prophetes that were before vs in time past, whiche prophesied of warre, or trouble, or pestilence, 9 Eyther of peace vpon many nations and great kyngdomes, were proued by this (yf God hath sent them in very deede) when the thing came to passe whiche the prophete tolde before.

10 And Hananias the prophete tooke the chayne from the prophete Ieremies necke, and brake it.

11 And with that said Hananias that all the people might heare, Thus hath the Lorde spoken, Euen so wyll I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon from the necke of al nations, yea and that within this two yeere. And so the prophet Ieremie went his way.

12 Nowe after that Hananias the prophete had taken the chaine from the prophete Ieremies necke, and broken it, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete Ieremie, saying, 13 Go and tel Hananias these wordes, Thus sayth the Lord, Thou hast broke the chaine of wood, but in steade of wood thou shalt make chaynes of iron.

14 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, I wyl put a yoke of iron vpon the necke of al this people, that they may serue Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, yea and so shal they do: and I wyll geue hym the beastes of the fielde.

15 Then sayde the prophete Ieremie vnto the prophete Hananias, Heare me Hananias, The Lorde hath not sent thee, but thou bringest this people into a false beleefe.

16 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Be-holde I wyl sende thee out of the land, and within a yeere thou shalt dye, because thou hast falsly spoken agaynst the Lorde.

17 So Hananias dyed the same yeere in the seuenth moneth.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1. The Epistle of Ieremie sent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10. He prophesieth their returne from the captiuitie after seuentie yeeres.

¶ I THese are the wordes of the booke that Ieremie the prophets sent from Hierusalem vnto the prisoners, the senatours, priestes, prophetes, and all the people, whom Nabuchodonosor had led from Hierusalem vnto Babylon,

2 After that tyme that kyng Iechonias and his queene, his chamberlaynes, the princes of Iuda and Hierusalem, the workemaisters of Hierusalem, were departed thyther.

3 Whiche booke Elasah the sonne of Saphan, and Gamariah the sonne of Helkia dyd beare, whom Zedekias the kyng of Iuda sent vnto Babylon to Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon: these were the wordes of Ieremies booke.

4 Thus hath the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel spoken vnto al the prysoners that were led from Hierusalem to Babylon:

Ierr.35.b. 5 Buylde you houses to dwell therin, plant you gardens that you may enioy the fruites therof.

Gene.1.b. and.9.a. 6 Take you wiues to beare you sonnes and daughters, prouide wiues for your sonnes, and husbandes for your daughters, that they may beare sonnes and daughters, and that ye may multiplie there, and decrease not.

B 7 Seeke after the peace and prosperitie of the citie wherein ye be prysoners, and pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace therof shal your peace be.

Baruc.1.a. 1.Tim.2.a.

Ierr.33.c. and.27.b 8 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the god of Israel, Let not these prophets and soothsayers that be among you deceiue you, and beleeue not your owne dreames:

Ierr.14.b. 9 For why? they preache you lyes in my name, and I haue not sent them, sayth the Lorde.

1.Chr.26.b Ierr.22.b. 1.Esd.1.b. 10 But thus sayth the Lord, When ye haue fulfilled seuentie yeeres at Babylon, I wyl bring you home, and of mine owne goodnesse I will cary you hither agayne into this place.

11 For I knowe what I haue deuised for you, saith the Lorde: my thoughtes are to greue you peace, and not trouble, and to geue you an ende as you wishe and hope to haue.

12 Ye shall crye vnto me, ye shal goe and cal vpon me, and I wyl heare you. Deut.4.d. and.30.d.

13 Ye shal seeke me and fynde me, yea if so be that you seeke me with your whole hart. Iohn.7.a.

14 I will be founde of you, sayth the Lorde, C and will deliuer you out of prison, and gather you togeather agayne out of al places wherein I haue scattered you, sayth the Lorde, and will bring you agayne to the same place from whence I caused you to be caried away captiue.

15 But where as ye say that God hath reysed you vp prophetes at Babylon, 16 Thus hath the Lorde spoken to the king 2.king.24.a that sitteth in the throne of Dauid, and to all the people that dwell in the citie, (and) to your brethren that are not gone with you into captiuitie:

17 Thus (I say) speaketh the Lord of hostes, Ierr.24.b. Beholde, I wyl sende a sworde, hunger, and pestilence vpon them, and wyl make them like vntimely figges that may not be eaten for bytternesse:

18 And I wil persecute them with the sworde, with hunger, and pestilence, I wyl deliuer them vp to be vexed of all kingdomes, to be cursed, abhorred, laughed to scorne, and put to confusion of all the people among whom I haue scattered them:

19 And that because they haue not ben obedient vnto my commaundementes, sayth Ierr.35.d. and.44.d. the Lorde, whiche I sent vnto them by my seruantes the prophetes: I stoode vp early and sent vnto them, but they would not heare, sayth the Lorde.

20 Heare therfore the worde of the Lorde al ye prisoners whom I sent from Hierusalem to Babylon,

21 Thus hath the Lorde of hostes the God D of Israel spoken of Ahab the sonne of Cholaiah, & of Zedekias the sonne of Maasiah, which prophesie lyes vnto you in my name, Beholde, I wyll deliuer them into the hande of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, that he may slay them before your eyes,

22 And all the prysoners of Iuda that are in Babylon shal take this terme of cursing, and say, Nowe God do vnto thee as he did vnto Zedekias and Ahab, whom the kyng of Babylon rosted in the fyre, 23 Because they sinned shamefully in Israel: for they haue not only defiled their neighbours wyues, but also preached lying wordes in my name, which I haue not commaunded them: this I testifie and affirme, sayth the Lorde.

24 But

24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto him:
25 Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Because thou hast sent letters in thyne owne name vnto all the people that is at Hierusalem, and to Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, yea and sent them to al the priestes, sayeing,
C 26 The Lord hath ordeyned thee to be priest in the steade of Iehoiada the priest, that thou shouldest be cheefe in the house of the Lorde ouer all prophetes and preachers, and that thou mightest set them vppon the pyllory, or in the stockes:
27 Howe happeneth it then that thou hast not reproued Ieremie of Anathoth, whiche neuer leaueth of his prophesying?
28 And beside al this, he hath sent vs worde vnto Babylon, and tolde vs playnely that our captiuitie shal long endure, that we shoulde buylde vs houses to dwel therein, and to plant vs gardens, that we may enioy the fruites thereof.
29 Which letter Sophonias the priest read, and let Ieremie the prophete heare it.
30 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, sayeing,
31 Sende worde to al them that be in captiuitie, on this maner, Thus hath the Lorde spoken concernyng Semeiah the Nehelamite: Because that Semeiah hath prophesied vnto you without my commission, and brought you into a false hope:
32 Therefore thus the Lorde doth certifie you, Beholde, I wyll visite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his seede, so that none of his shal remayne among this people, and none of them shall see the good that I wyl doo for my people, sayth the Lorde: for he hath preached falsely of the Lorde.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1. The returne of the people from Babylon. 5. God by his chastening sheweth that the people is synfull. 16. The destruction of the enemies of Israel.

1 THese are the woordes that the Lorde sheweth vnto Ieremie, sayeing,
2 Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Write vp diligently all the woordes that I haue spoken vnto thee in a booke.
3 For lo, the tyme commeth, sayth the lord, that I wyll bryng agayne the pryseners of my people of Israel & Iuda, sayth the lord: for I wyll restore them vnto the lande that I gaue to their fathers, and they shall haue it in possession.
4 Agayne, these woordes spake the Lorde concerning Israel and Iuda, 5 Thus sayth the Lorde, We haue heard a terrible crye, feare, and disquietnesse.
6 For what els doth this signifie that I see? (Namely) that al strong menne smyte euery man his hande vppon his loynes, as a woman in the payne of her trauayle? Who euer sawe a man trauayle with chylde? Enquyre thereafter and see, yea, all theyr faces are maruerylous pale.
7 Alas for this day, which is so dreadful that none may be lykened vnto it, and alas for the tyme of Iacobs trouble, from the whiche he shal yet be delyuered.
8 For in that day, sayth the Lord of hoastes, I wyl take his yoke from of thy necke, and breake thy bondes, and straungers shall no more haue dominion ouer him:
9 But they shall doo seruice vnto God their Lorde, and to Dauid their kyng whom I wyl rayse vp vnto them.
10 And as for thee, O my seruaunt Iacob, feare not, sayth the lord, and be not afrayd, O Israel: for lo, I wyl helpe thee also from farre, and thy seede from the lande of their captiuitie: and Iacob shall turne agayne, be shalbe in rest, and haue a prosperous lyfe, and no man shall make him afrayde:
11 For I am with thee to helpe thee, sayth the Lorde: and though I shal destroy al the people among whom I haue scattered thee, yet wyl I not destroy thee, but correct thee, and that with discretion: for I wyl not vtterly destroy thee.
12 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde, Thy brysynges are perylous, and thy woundes redy to cast thee into sickenesse.
13 There is no man to meddle with thy cause, or to lay a plaster vppon thee, or to bynde vp thy woundes to heale thee.
14 Al thy louers haue forgotten thee, and care nothyng for thee: for I haue geuen thee a cruel stroke, and chastened thee roughly, and that for the multitude of thy misdeedes: for thy synnes haue had the ouer hande.
15 Why makest thou mone for thy harme? In deede thou art sore wounded and in ieopardie: but for the multitude of thy misdeedes and sinnes I haue donne this vnto thee.
16 And therefore al they that deuoure thee, shalbe deuoured, and all thyne enemies shalbe led into captiuitie: al they that make thee waste, shalbe wasted them selues, and all those that rob thee, wyl I make also to be robbed.
17 For I wyl geue thee thy health agayne, and make thy woundes whole, sayeth the Lord, because they trusted ther, as one cast away and despysed: Sion (sayde they) is the whom no man regardeth.

Num. 24. d. 18 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wil bring againe ꝑ captiuitie of Jacobs tentes, and defende his dwelling place: the citie shalbe builded in her olde estate, and the houses shal haue their right fundation.

19 And out of them shall goe thankelgeuing and the voyce of ioy: I wyll multiplye them, and they shal not be fewe, I wyl endue them with honour, and no man shall subdue them.

20 Their children shalbe as aforetime, and their congregation shall continue in my syght: and al those that vexe them wyll I visite.

Mich. 5. a. 21 A captayne also shall commne of them, and a prince shall spring out from the middest of them, him wyl I chalenge to me: for he shall comme vnto me: for what is he that geueth ouer his hart to come vnto me, sayth the Lorde?

John. 6. c. 22 Ye shalbe my people also, and I wylbe your God.

Jere. 23. b. 24. b. 31. k. Jere. 23. c. and. 25. b. 23 Beholde, on the other syde shal the wrath of the Lorde breake out as a stormie water, as a mighty whirle winde, and shal fal vpon the heades of the vngodly.

Jere. 23. c. 24 The terrible displeasure of the Lord shal not leane of, vntyl he haue donne and performed the intent of his hart, which in the latter dayes ye shal vnderstande.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

1. He prophesieth that the people of Israel shalbe restored agayne vnto their prosperitie. 18. To be turned from sinne, is the gyft of God. 27. The birth of Christe is prophesied.

A 1 AT the same time, sayth the Lord, shall I be the God of al the generations of Israel, and they shalbe my people:

Num. 13. c. 2 Thus sayth the Lorde, The people of Israel which escaped in the wyldernesse from the swoorde, founde grace to comme into their rest.

John. 6. b. 3 Euen so shal the Lorde now also appeare vnto me from farre, (and say) I loue thee with an euerlastyng loue, therefore by my mercie I haue drawen thee vnto me.

4 I wyl repayre thee againe, O thou daughter of Israel, that thou mayest be fast and sure: thou shalt take thy tabrets againe, and goe forth with them that leade the daunce:

5 Thou shalt plant vines agayne vppon the hilles of Samaria, and the grape gatherers shal plant, and commonly eate of it.

6 For the dayes shal come when the watchmen vpon the mount of Ephraim shal crie, Arise, let vs goe vp vnto Sion to our Lorde God.

B 7 For thus sayth the Lorde, Reioyce with gladnesse because of Jacob, crie vnto the head of the Gentiles, speake out, syng and say, O Lorde saue thy people the remnant of Israel. Esai. 24.

8 Beholde, I wyl bryng them agayne from out of the north lande, and gather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blinde & lame that are among them, with the women that be great with childe, and suche as be also deliuered: and the compasse of them that comme agayne shalbe great.

9 They shal come weeping, and with merciful pitie wyl I bryng them hyther agayne: I wyl leade them to the riuers of water in a straighte way where they shall not stumble: for I am Israels father, and Ephraim is my fyrst borne.

10 Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye gentiles, preache in the Iles that lye farre of, and say, He that hath scattered Israel, shal gather him togethter agayne, and shal keepe him as a shepheard doth his flocke. Deut. 24. Gen. 47. a.

11 For the Lorde hath redeemed Jacob, and ryd him from the hande of the violent.

12 And they shal come and reioyce vppon the hyl of Sion, and shal haue plentousnesse of goodes, whiche the Lorde shal geue them, (Namely) wheate, wine, oile, young sheepe, and calues: and their soule shalbe as a wel watered garden, for they shall no more be hungry.

13 Then shal the maid reioyce in the daunce, yea both young and olde folkes: for I wyl turne their sorowe into gladnesse, and wyl comfort them from their sorowes, & make them ioyful.

C 14 I wyl powre plentousnesse vppon the bartes of the priestes, and my people shalbe satisfyed with my goodnesse, sayth the Lorde.

15 Thus sayth the Lorde, The voyce of heauinesse, weeping, and lamentation was hearde on high, euen of Rachel mourning for her children, and wouldе not be comforted because they were not. Jere. 31. Matth. 2.

16 But nowe, sayth the Lord, Leaue of from weeping and crying, withholde thyne eyes from teares: for thy labour shalbe rewarded, sayth the Lorde, and they shal comme agayne out of the lande of their enimies.

17 Yea euen thy posteritie shall haue consolation in this, sayth the Lorde, that thy children shal comme agayne into their owne lande.

18 Yoyce-

18 Moreouer I hearde Ephraim that was led away captiue complayne on this manner, O Lorde thou hast correct me, and thy chastening haue I receiued as an vntamed calfe, conuert thou me, and I shalbe conuerted: for thou art my Lorde God.

19 Yea assoone as thou turnest me, I shall repourme mee selfe, & when I vnderstande, I shal smite vpon my thigh, for verely I haue committed shamefull thinges: for I haue borne the reproofe and confusion of my youth.

20 Vpon this complaynt I thought thus by mee selfe, Is not Ephraim my deare sonne? Is he not the childe with whom I haue had al my myrth and pastime? For since the tyme that I first communed with hym, I haue hym euer in remembrance: therefore my hart driueth me vnto hym, gladly and louingly wyll I haue mercy vpon him, sayth the Lorde.

D 21 Make thee selfe markes, set vp heapes of stone, set thyne hart vpon the way that thou diddest walke, and turne agayne, O thou daughter of Israel, turne agayne to these cities of thyne.

22 Howe long wilt thou goe astray, O thou thinking daughter? for the Lord wil worke a newe thing vpon earth: A woman shall compasse a man.

23 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, It wil come thereto, that when I haue brought Iuda out of captiuitie, these wordes shalbe hearde in the lande and in his cities, The Lorde blesse thee, O thou dwelling place of rightcousnesse, O thou holy hyl.

24 And there shal dwel Iuda and al her cities, the shepheardes and husbandmen:

25 For I will feede the hungry soule, and refreshe al sayne hartes.

26 When I hearde this, I came agayne to mee selfe, I sawe like as I had ben waked out of a sweete sleepe.

27 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, The dayes come that I wyll sowe the house of Israel and the house of Iuda with men and with cattel.

E 28 Yea it shal come thereto, that lyke as I haue gone about in times past to roote them out, to scatter them, to breake them downe, to destroy them, and chasten them: euen so wyll I also goe diligently about to buylde them vp agayne, and to plant them, sayth the Lorde.

29 Then shal it no more be sayde, The fathers haue eaten a soure grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge:

30 For euery one shal dye for his owne misdedes: so that who so eateth a soure grape, his teeth shalbe set on edge.

31 Beholde, the dayes wyl come, sayth the Lorde, that I wyl make a newe couenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda: Heb. 8. b.

32 Not after the couenant that I made with their fathers, when I tooke them by the hande and led them out of the lande of Egypt, whiche couenant they brake, yea euen when I as an husband had rule ouer them, sayth the Lorde. Heb. 10. b.

33 But this shalbe the couenant that I wyll make with the house of Israel after those dayes sayth the Lorde, I wyll plant my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, and wryte it in their harres, and wyll be their God, and they shalbe my people. Esai. 51. b. Iere. 24. b. and. 30. b.

34 And from thencefoorth shal no man teache his neyghbour or his brother, and say, Knowe the Lorde: but they shal al knowe me from the lowest vnto the highest, sayth the Lorde: for I wyll forgeue their myssededes, and wyll neuer remember their sinnes any more.

35 Thus sayth the Lorde whiche gaue the F sunne to be a lyght for the day, & the moone and the starres to shine in the night, which mooueth the sea, so that the flooddes thereof ware fierce, his name is the Lorde of hostes, Gene. 1. b.

36 Lyke as this ordinance shall neuer be taken out of my sight, sayth the Lorde, so shal the seede of Israel neuer ceasse, but alway be a people before me.

37 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde, Lyke as the heauen aboue can not be measured, and as the fundations of the earth beneath may not be sought out: so wil I also cast out the whole seede of Israel for that they haue committed, sayth the Lorde. Rom. 11. a.

38 Beholde the dayes come, saith the Lorde, that the citie of the Lorde shalbe enlarged, from the towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wall. 2. Esd. 3. a. Zach. 14. b.

39 From thence shall the ryght measure be taken before her vnto the hyl top of Gareb, and shal come about Goath. Iere. 19. b.

40 And the whole valley of the dead carkasses, and of the asshes, and al the feeldes, vnto the brooke of Cedron, and vnto the corner of the horse gate towarde the east, it shalbe holy vnto the Lorde, and shal neuer be broken, nor cast downe any more.

The. xxxii. Chapter.

I. Ieremie is cast into prison, because he prophecied that the citie shoulde be taken of the kyng of Babylon.

A 1 Theſe woꝛdes ſpake the Loꝛde vnto Ieremie in the tenth yeere of Zedekias kyng of Juda, whiche was the eyghtienth yeere of Naburhozonoſoz,

2 What tyme as the kyng of Babylons hoſt layde ſiege vnto Hieruſalem: but Ieremie the pꝛophete lay bounde in the court of the pꝛiſon, whiche was in the kyng of Judats houſe,

3 Where Zedekias the kyng of Juda cauſed hym to be layde, becauſe he had pꝛophecied on this manner, Thus ſaith the Loꝛde, Beholde, I wil deliuer this citie into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhall take it. Ierr. 34. a. 38. a. c. 39.

4 As foꝛ Zedekias the kyng of Juda, he ſhal not be able to eſcape the Chaldees: but ſurely he ſhall come into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhal ſpeake with him mouth to mouth, and one of them ſhall looke another in the face.

5 And Zedekias ſhalbe caꝛped vnto Babylon, and there ſhal he be vntyl the tyme that I viſite him, ſayth the Loꝛde: but yf thou takeſt in hande to fight againſt the Chaldees, thou ſhalt not pꝛoſper.

6 And Ieremie ſayde, Thus hath the Loꝛd ſpoken vnto me,

B 7 Beholde, Hananeel the ſonne of Sellum thine vncles ſonne ſhal come vnto thee, and require thee to redeeme the lande that lyeth in Anathoth vnto thee ſelfe: foꝛ by reaſon of kynrede it is thy right to redeeme it, and buye it out.

8 And Hananeel myne vncles ſonne came to me in the courte of the pꝛiſon, accoꝛding to the woꝛde of the Loꝛde, and ſayde vnto me, Buye my land I pꝛay thee that lyeth in Anathoth in the countrey of Beniamin, foꝛ by heritage thou haſt ryght to looſe it out foꝛ thee ſelfe, therefoꝛe redeeme it. Then I pꝛeceiued that this was the commaundement of the Loꝛde: Leuit. 25. d Num. 24. a. and 36. a. Ruth. 4. a.

9 And ſo I bought the land from Hananeel of Anathoth mine vncles ſonne, and weigh-ed him there the money, euen ſeuen ſicles, and tenne ſiluer pence:

10 And I wꝛyt it in a booke, and ſealed it, and tooke witneſſes, and weighed hym there the money vpon the weightes.

11 So I tooke the euidence with the copye when it was oꝛderly ſealed.

12 And I gaue the euidence to Baruch the ſonne of Neriah the ſonne of Maaſiah, in the ſight of Hananeel my coſyn, and in the pꝛeſence of the witneſſes that be named in the euidence, and befoꝛe al the Iewes that were there by in the court of the pꝛiſon.

13 I charged Baruch alſo befoꝛe them, ſaying,

14 The Loꝛd of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael commaundeth (thee) to take this ſeald euidence with the copie, and to lay it in an earthen veſſel, that it may long continue. C

15 Foꝛ the Loꝛd of hoſtes the God of Iſrael hath determined, that houſes, feeldes, and vineyardes ſhalbe poſſeſſed agayne in this lande.

16 Nowe when I had deliuered the euidence vnto Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, I beſought the Loꝛde, ſaying,

17 O Loꝛde God, it is thou that haſt made heauen and earth with thy great power and high arme, and there is nothyng hyd from thee. Gene. 1. a. Ier. 10. b

18 Thou ſheweſt mercy vpon thouſandes, thou recompenſeſt the wyckednes of the fathers into the boſome of the children that come after them. Exod. 34. a.

19 Thou art the great and mighty GOD, whoſe name is the Loꝛde of hoſtes, great in counſel, and excellent in woꝛke, thyne eyes looke vpon all the waꝛyes of mens children, to rewarde euery one after his way, and accoꝛding to the fruites of his inuentions. Rom. 2. a. Exod. 7. a. Deut. 8. f. Chapit.

20 Thou haſt done great tokens and wonders in the lande of Egypt, as we ſee this day, vpon the people of Iſrael, and vpon thoſe men, to make thy name great, as it is come to paſſe this day.

21 Thou haſt brought thy people of Iſrael out of the land of Egypt, with tokens, with wonders, with a myghty hande, with a ſtretched out arme, and with great terri-bleneſſe: D

22 And haſt geuen them this lande, lyke as thou haddeſt pꝛomiſed vnto their fathers (namely) that thou wouldeſt geue them a lande that floweth with mylke and hony.

23 Nowe when they came therein and poſ-ſeſſed it, they folowed not thy voyce, and walked not in thy lawe: but al that thou commaundedſt them to do, that haue they not done, & therefoꝛe comſt all theſe plagues vpon them. Iudg. 2. 4. 6. 2. Eſdr. 5. b

24 Beholde, there are bulwarkes made nowe agaynſt this citie to take it, and it ſhalbe wonne of the Chaldees that beſiege it with ſwoꝛd, with hunger, and death: and looke what thou haſt ſpoken, that ſame ſhal come vpon them, foꝛ lo al thynges are preſent vn-to thee.

25 Yet ſayeſt thou vnto me, O Loꝛd God, and commaundeſt me that I ſhal buye a peece of land vnto mee ſelfe foꝛ money, and take witneſſes therto: and yet in the meane ſeaſon the citie is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Then came the woꝛde of the Loꝛd vnto Ieremie, ſaying, 37 Beholde, I am the Lorde God of al flesh: is there any thing then to harde for me?

28 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I shal deliuer this citie into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, they shal take it:

29 For the Chaldees shall come and winne this citie, and set fyre vpon it, and burne it, with the goodlyest houses, in whose parlours they haue made sacrifyce vnto Baal, and powred drinke offeringes vnto strange gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Iuda haue only ben doing wickednesse before me from their youth vp, they haue ben only prouoking me to wrath with the workes of their owne handes, sayth the Lorde.

31 For what hath this citie ben els, but a prouoking of my wrath euer since the day that they builded it, vnto this houre wherin I cast it out of my syght?

32 Because of the great blasphemies of the children of Israel and Iuda, whiche they haue done to prouoke me, yea, they, their kynges, their princes, their priestes, their prophetes, the men of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem:

33 When I stood vp early and taught them, and instructed them, they turned their backes to me, and not their faces, 34 They would not heare to be reformed and correct: but set their idols in the house that is halowed to my name, to defyle it.

35 They haue builded hye places for Baal in the valley of the children of Hennom, to cause their sonnes and daughters to passe through (fyre) in the honour of Moloch, whiche I neuer commaunded them: neyther came it euer in my thought to make Iuda sinne with suche abomination.

36 And nowe therefore thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoke concerning this citie, which as ye your selues confesse, shalbe deliuered into the hande of the king of Babylon, (when it is wonne) with the sworde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

37 Beholde, I wyl gather them together from al landes, wherein I haue scattered them in my wrath, in fearfull and great displeasure, and wil bring them againe vnto this place, where they shal dwell safelye:

38 And they shalbe my people, and I wil be their God.

39 And I wyll gene them one hart and one way, that they may feare me all the dayes of their lyfe: that they and their children after them may prosper.

40 And I wyll set vp an euerlastyng couenaunt with them, (namely) that I wyll neuer ceasse to do them good, and that I wyl put my feare in their hartes, so that they shal not runne away from me.

41 Yea, I wyll haue a lust and pleasure to do them good, and faythfully to plant them in this lande with my whole hart, and with my whole soule.

42 For thus sayth the Lord, Lyke as I haue brought all this great plague vppon this people: euen so wyl I also bryng vpon them al the good that I haue promised them.

43 And menne shal haue their possessions in this lande, whereof ye say now that it shall neither be inhabited of the people, nor of cattel, but be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees:

44 Yea, lande shalbe bought for money, and euidences made thereupon, and sealed before witnesses in the countrey of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalem, in the cities of Iuda, in the cities that are vppon the mountaynes, & them that lye beneath, yea, & in the cities that are in the south: for I wil bring their prysoners hyther agayne, saith the Lorde.

The. xxxiii. Chapter.

1. The prophete is monyshed of the Lorde to pray for the deliueraunce of the people, whiche the Lorde promyseth. 8. God forgeueth sinnes, and doeth graciously to the people for his owne renowme. 15. Of the byrth of Christe.

1 MOreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie agayne when he was yet bounde in the court of the prison.

A Ier. 20. and. 32. a.

2 Thus saith the Lord, who made Hierusalem, who fashioned the same to establishe it, whose name is the Lorde,

3 Crye vnto me, and I wyl answeare, and shewe thee great and hye thynges which were vnknowen vnto thee.

Deut. 4. c. 1. Sam. 7. b.

4 Thus (I say) speaketh the Lorde God of Israel, concerning the houses of this citie, and the houses of the kinges of Iuda that are broken thrugh the ordinaunce and the sworde.

5 The inhabitours of this citie haue come to fyght agaynst the Chaldees, and they are fylled with the dead carkasses of men, whom I haue slayne in my wrath and displeasure, when I turned my face from this citie, because of al her wickednesse.

6 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, I wyl repayre and heale their woundes, and make them whole: I wyl open them the large treaſure of peace and trueth,

7 And wyl returne the captiuitie of Iuda and Iſrael, and wyl ſet them vp agayne as they were before:

Ierr. 44. d. 8 From al miſdeedes wherein they offended againſt me, I wyl cleanſe them: and al their blaſphemies whiche they haue donne againſt me, when they regarded me not, I wyl forgeue them.

9 And this ſhal geat me a name, a prayſe and honour among all the people of the earth, whiche ſhal heare all the good that I wyl ſhewe vnto them, yea, they ſhalbe afrayde and aſtonyed at all the good deedes and benefites that I wyl doo for them.

10 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde, In this place (whereof ye ſay that it ſhalbe a wyldernelle, wherein neyther people nor cattayle ſhal dwel) in lyke maner in the cities of Iuda and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem (whiche alſo ſhalbe ſo voyde, that neyther people nor cattel ſhal dwel there,)

Pſal. 108. a 1. Mac. 4. d. 11 Shal the voyce of gladneſſe be heard agayne, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, the voyce of them that ſhal ſyng, Prayſe the Lorde of hoaſtes, for he is louyng, and his mercie endureth for euer: and the voyce of them that offer vp gyftes in the houſe of the Lorde: for I wyll reſtore the captiuitie of this lande as it was afore, ſayth the Lorde.

12 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes, It ſhall come yet thereto, that in this lande whiche is voyde from men and cattel, and in al the cities of the lande, there ſhalbe ſet vp shepheardes cottages to reſt their flockes.

13 In the cities vpon the mountaynes, and in the cities that lye vppon the playne, and in the cities of the South, in the lande of Beniamin, and rounde about Hieruſalem, and in the cities of Iuda, ſhall the sheepe paſſe agayne vnder the hande of him that telleth them, ſayth the Lorde.

C Ierr. 23. c.

14 Beholde, the tyme commeth ſayeth the Lorde, that I wyl performe that good thing whiche I haue promyſed vnto the houſe of Iſrael, & vnto the houſe of Iuda.

15 In thoſe dayes, and at the ſame tyme I wyl bryng forth vnto Dauid the braunch of righteouſneſſe, and he ſhal do equitie and righteouſneſſe in the lande.

16 In thoſe dayes ſhal Iuda be ſaued, and Hieruſalem ſhal dwel ſafe: and this ſhalbe her name, (a) God our righteouſneſſe.

17 For thus the Lord promyſeth, Dauid ſhal neuer want one to ſyt vppon the throne of the houſe of Iſrael:

18 Neyther ſhall the prieſtes and Leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offerynges, to kindle the meate offerynges, and to prepare the ſacrifyces.

19 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie after this manner, 20 Thus ſayeth the Lorde, May the couenaunt whiche I haue made with day and nyght be broken, that there ſhould not be day and night in due ſeaſon?

21 Then may my couenaunt alſo be broken whiche I made with Dauid my ſeruaunt, and ſo he not to haue a ſonne to raigne in his throne: ſo wil I multiplie the ſeede of Dauid my ſeruaunt, and the Leuites my miniſters.

23 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came to Ieremie, ſayeing, 24 Conſydereſt thou not what this people ſpeaketh? Two kynredes (ſay they) hadde the Lorde choſen, and thoſe ſame two hath he caſt away: for ſo they haue deſpyſed my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.

25 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, If I haue made no couenaunt with day & night, and geuen no ſtatute vnto heauen & earth:

26 Then wyl I alſo caſt away the ſeede of Iacob and Dauid my ſeruaunt, ſo that I wil take no prince out of his ſeede to rule the poſteritie of Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob: but yet I wyl turne agayne their captiuitie, and be merciful vnto them.

(a) This name hath God geuen to Chriſte, & doth properly belong to himalone, but here it is attributed vnto the Church, for that God the father hath eſpouſed Chriſt his ſonne vnto the Church, and hath endowed her with al that is his.

The.xxxiiii. Chapter.

2. He threatneth that the citie, and the kyng Zedekias alſo ſhalbe geuen into the handes of the kyng of Babylon.

1 THeſe are the woordes whiche the Lord ſpake vnto Ieremie, what tyme as Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, and al his hoaſt, and al the kyngdomes that were vnder his power, and al his people, fought againſt Hieruſalem and all the cities thereof. Ier. 32. d.

2 Thus ſaith the Lorde God of Iſrael, Go and ſpeake to Zedekias the kyng of Iuda, and tell him, the Lorde ſendeth thee this woorde, Beholde, I wyll deliuer this citie into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, & he ſhal burne it with fyre. 2. kyng. 25. Ier. 32. d. and. 39. d.

3 And thou ſhalt not eſcape his handes, but ſhalt be taken priſoner, and deliuered into his power: Thou ſhalt looke the kyng of Babylon in the face, and he ſhal ſpeake to thee mouth to mouth, & then ſhalt thou goe to Babylon.

4 Yet heare the woorde of the Lorde, O Zedekias thou king of Iuda, thus saith the Lorde vnto thee, Thou shalt not be slayne with the swoorde,

5 But shalt dye in peace: And as thy forefathers the kinges thy (a) progenitours were brent, so shalt thou be brent also, and in thy mourning they shal say, O Lorde: for thus haue I determined, saith the Lord.

6 Then saide Ieremie the prophete al these woordes vnto Zedekias kyng of Iuda in Hierusalem, 7 What time as the king of Babylons host besieged Hierusalem, and the remnant of the cities (namely) Lachis, & Azecah, which yet remayned of the strong defenced cities of Iuda.

8 These are the woordes that the Lord spake vnto Ieremie the prophete, when Zedekias was agreed with all the people at Hierusalem, that there shoulde be proclaymed a libertie:

9 So that euery man shoulde let his seruant and handmayde goe free, Hebrue, and Hebruesse, and no Iewe holde his brother as a bondman.

10 Nowe as they had consented, al the princes and al the people which had geathered vnto this agrement, that euery man should set at libertie his bondseruant and bondwoman, and no longer to hold them bound: euen so they were obedient, and let them go free:

11 But afterward they repented, and tooke againe the seruantes & handmaydens whom they had let goe free, and so made them bonde againe.

12 For whiche cause the woord of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie from the Lord him self, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, I made a couenant with your fathers, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,

14 When seuen yeeres are out, euery man shal let his bought seruant an Hebrue goe free, if he haue serued him sixe yeeres: but your fathers obeyed me not, and hearkened not vnto me.

15 As for you, ye were nowe turned, and did ryght before me, in that ye proclaimed euery man to let his neyghbour goe free, and in that ye made a couenant before me in the temple that beareth my name.

16 But yet ye turned your selues againe, & blasphemed my name, in this that euery man hath required his seruant and handmayde againe whom ye had let goe quite and free, and compelled them to serue you againe, and to be bondmenne and bondwomen.

17 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Ye haue not obeied me, euery man to proclaime freedome vnto his brother and neighbour: wherfore I wyll call you vnto freedome, saith the Lorde, euen vnto the swoorde, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and wil make you to be plagued in all kyngdomes of the earth.

18 Yea, those men that haue broken my couenant, and not kept the woordes of the appointment whiche they made before me when they hewed the Calfe in two, and when they went through the two halfes thereof, Gene. 15. b.

19 The princes of Iuda, the princes of Hierusalem, the gelded men, the priestes, and all the people of the lande whiche went through the two sides of the Calfe:

20 Those men wyll I geue into the power of their enimies, & into the handes of them that folow vpon their lyues: and their dead bodyes shalbe meate for the foules of the ayre, and beastes of the feelde. Psal. 79. a. Ierem. 7. d.

21 As for Zedekias the kyng of Iuda, and his princes, I wyll deliuer them into the power of their enimies, and of them that desyre to slay them, and into the hand of the kyng of Babylons host, whiche is nowe departed from you. D Ierem. 37. c

22 But through my commaundement (saith the Lord) they shal come againe before this citie, they shal fight agaynst it, wynne it, and burne it: Moreouer, I wyll laye the cities of Iuda so wast, that no man shal dwel therein.

The. xxxv. Chapter.

He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and therby confoundeth the pride of the Iewes.

1 THE woordes whiche the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie in the raigne of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, are these: A

2 Go vnto the house of the Rechabites, and cal them out, and bryng them to the house of the Lorde, into some commodious place, and geue them wyne to drinke. 2. king. 10. c

3 Then tooke I Iazaniah the sonne of Ieremie, the sonne of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and al his sonnes, and the whole household of the Rechabites,

4 And brought them into the house of the Lorde, into the closet of the children of Hanan the sonne of Igedaliah the man of god, which was by the closet of the princes,

5 And before the ſonnes of the kinred of the Rechabites, I ſet pottes ful of wyne, and cuppes, & layd vnto them, Drinke wine:

6 But they ſaid, We will drinke no wine: for Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab our father commaunded vs, ſaying, Ye and your ſonnes ſhall neuer drinke wine, buylde houſes, ſowe no ſeede, plant no vines,

B Ierr. 29. b. 7 Yea, ye ſhal haue no vineyardes: but for al your time ye ſhall dwell in tentes, that ye may liue long in the lande wherein ye be ſtrangers.

8 Thus haue we obeyed the commaundement of Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab our father in al that he hath charged vs, and ſo we drinke no wine al our life long, we, nor our wyues, our ſonnes and our daughters,

9 Neither buyld we any houſe to dwel therein: we haue alſo among vs neyther vineyardes, nor corne lande to ſowe:

10 But we dwel in tentes, we obey, and do accordyng vnto al that Ionadab our father commaunded vs.

11 But now that Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon came vp into the land, we ſaid, Come, let vs goe to Hieruſalem, that we may eſcape the hoſte of the Chaldees and the Aſſyrians: and ſo we dwel now at Hieruſalem.

12 Then came the woorde of the Lord vnto Ieremie, ſaying, 13 Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Goe and tel the men of Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem, Wyl ye not be reformed to obey my woordes, ſaith the Lorde?

C Ierem. 18. a and. 25. a. 14 The woordes which Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab commaunded his ſonnes, that they ſhoulde drinke no wine, are fait ſurely kept, for vnto this day they drinke no wine, but obey their fathers commaundement: but as for me, I haue ſtand vp early, I haue ſpoken vnto you, & geuen you earneſt warnyng, and yet haue ye not ben obedient vnto me.

15 Yea, I haue ſent my ſeruantes al the prophetes vnto you, I roſe vp early, and ſent you woorde, ſaying, O turne you nowe euery man from his wicked way, amende your lyues, and goe not after ſtrange Goddes to woorſhyp them, that ye may continue in the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto you and your fathers: but ye woulde neyther heare me, nor folowe me.

16 The chyldren of Ionadab Rechabs ſonne, haue ſtedfaſtly kept their fathers commaundement that he gaue them: but this people is not obedient vnto me.

17 And therefore thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyll bryng vpon Iuda, and vpon euery one that dwelleth in Hieruſalem, al the trouble that I haue deuiſed againſt them: For I haue ſpoken vnto them, but they woulde not folowe, I haue called vnto them, neuertheleſſ they woulde geue me no anſwearе.

Deut. 12. Eſai. 45. b. Ierem. 7. b.

18 Ieremie alſo ſpake vnto the houſholde of the Rechabites, Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, For as muche as ye haue obeyed the commaundement of Ionadab your father, & kept al his preceptes, and done accordyng to all that he hath bydden:

19 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab ſhall not fayle, but haue one out of his ſtocke to ſtande alway before me. Ierem. 35.

The. xxxvi. Chapter.

Baruch wryteth (as Ieremie endyteth) the booke of the curſes ageynſt Iuda and Iſrael.

1 IN the fourth yere of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias the king of Iuda, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, ſayeng, A

2 Take a booke, and write therein all the woordes that I haue ſpoken to thee againſt Iſrael, againſt Iuda, and againſt all the people, from the tyme that I beganne to ſpeake vnto thee in the raigne of Ioſias, vnto this day:

3 That when the houſe of Iuda heareth of the plague which I haue deuiſed for them, they may peraduenture turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may forgeue their offences and ſinnes.

4 Then dyd Ieremie cal Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in the booke at the mouth of Ieremie, al the woordes of the Lorde whiche he had ſpoken vnto hym.

5 And Ieremie commaunded Baruch, ſayeng, I am in priſon, ſo that I may not come into the houſe of the Lorde.

6 Therefore goe thou thither, and reade the booke that thou haſt written at my mouth, (namely) the woordes of the Lord, and reade them in the Lords houſe vpon the (a) faſting day, that the people, whole Iuda, and al they that comme out of the cities, maye heare.

7 Peraduenture they wyl pray meekely before the face of the Lorde, and turne euery one from his wicked way: for great is the wrath and diſpleaſure that the Lorde hath taken againſt this people.

Ierem. 32. a. Ierem. 45. b. (a) When Iehoakim the king of Iuda heard that the king of Babylon ſonne was come mying to beſiege Hieruſalem, he appointed a faſt vnto the people, commanding them to reſort vnto the temple at the tyme appoynted, and there to make their humble prayers vnto God for peace and his fauour, & the maner of gods people was, in al their diſtreſes to faſt & pray in ſack cloth & aſhes in ſigne of repentance.

8 So

8 So Baruch the sonne of Neriah dyd accordyng to al that Ieremie the prophete commaunded hym, readyng the wordes of the Lorde out of the booke in the Lordes house.

9 And this was donne in the fyfth yeere of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iude, in the ninth moneth, when it was commaunded that al the people of Hierusalem shoulde fast before the Lorde, and they also that were come from the cities of Iuda vnto Hierusalem.

10 Then read Baruch the wordes of Ieremie out of the boke within the house of the Lord, out of the treasurie of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan the scribe, which is beside the hygher lott of the newe doore of the Lordes house, that al the people myght heare.

11 Nowe when Micheas the sonne of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan, heard al the wordes of the Lorde out of the booke, 12 he went downe to the kynges palace, into the scribes chaumber, for there all the princes were set, Elisama the scribe, Daliah the sonne of Semei, Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, Gamariah the sonne of Saphan, Zedekias the sonne of Hananias, with al the princes.

13 And Micheas told them al the wordes that he heard Baruch reade out of the booke before the people.

C 14 Then al the princes sent Iehudi the sonne of Nathaniah the sonne of Selemiah, the son of Chusi, vnto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the booke wherout thou hast read before al the people, & come. So Baruch the sonne of Neriah tooke the booke in his hande, and came vnto them.

15 And they said vnto him, Syt downe and reade the booke, that we may heare also. So Baruch read, that they myght heare.

16 Nowe when they had heard al the wordes, they were abashed one vpon another, and sayd vnto Baruch, We wil certifie the kyng of all these wordes.

17 And they examined Baruch, saying, Tel vs, howe dydst thou wryte al these wordes out of his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He spake al these wordes vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them in the booke.

19 Then sayd the princes vnto Baruch, Go thy way, hyde thee with Ieremie, so that no man knowe where ye be.

20 And they went in to the king to the court (but they kept the booke in the chamber of Elisama the scribe) and tolde the kyng al the wordes, that he myght heare.

D 21 So the kyng sent Iehudi to fet hym the booke: whiche he brought out of Elisama the scribes chamber, and Iehudi read in it, that the kyng and al the princes which were about hym myght heare.

22 Nowe the king sate in the winter house (for it was in the ninth moneth) and there was a fyre before hym.

23 And whē Iehudi had read three or foure leaues therof, he cut the booke in peeces with a penknife, and cast it into the fire vpon the harth, vntyl the booke was al brent in the fyre vpon the harth. 1. Mach. 3. c

24 Yet no man was abashed therof, nor rent his clothes, neyther the kyng him selfe nor his seruauntes, though they heard al these wordes.

25 Neuertheless, Elnathan, Dalaiah, and Gamariah besought ỹ kyng that he would not burne the booke: notwithstanding the king would not heare them, 26 But commaunded Ierahmel the sonne of Amelech, Saraiah the sonne of Ezriel, and Selemiah the sonne of Abdeel, to laye handes vpon Baruch the scribe, and vpon Ieremie the prophete: but the Lorde kept them out of syght.

27 Nowe after that the kyng had brent the booke, and the sermons whiche Baruch wrote at the mouth of Ieremie, the word of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie, saying,

28 Take another booke, and wryte in it al the former sayd sermons that were wrytten in the first booke whiche Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda hath brent. E

29 And tell Iehoakim the king of Iuda, thus sayth the Lorde, Thou hast brent the booke, and thoughtest within thee selfe, Why hast thou wrytten therein, that the kyng of Babylon shal come, and make this lande waste, so that he shal make both people and catayle to be out of it? 2. Kin. 24. b Ierem. 22. c

30 Therfore thus the Lord sayth of Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda, There shal none of his generation syt vpon the throne of Dauid, his dead coarse shalbe cast out, that the heate of the day, and the frost of the night may come vpon hym.

31 And I wyl visite the wickednes of him, of his seede, and of his seruauntes: Moreouer, al the euil that I haue promised them, though they heard me not, wyll I bryng vpon them, vpon the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and vpon al Iuda.

32 Then tooke Ieremie another booke, and gaue it Baruch the scribe the sonne of Neriah, which wrote therin out of the mouth of Ieremie, al the sermons that were in the first boke which Iehoakim ỹ king of Iuda dyd burne: & there were added vnto them many moe sermons, lyke vnto the former.

The. xxxvii. Chapter.

I. Zedekias ſuccedeth Conaniah, 3. he ſendeth vnto Ieremie to pray for hym.

א 1 ZEdekias the ſonne of Ioſiah, whiche was made kyng through Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, raigned in the land of Iuda, in the ſtrade of * Conaniah the ſonne of Iehoakim.

2.King.24.

* or Iechonia.

2 But neyther he, nor his ſeruantes, nor the people in his land, would obey the wordes of the Lord which he ſpake by the prophete Ieremie.

Ierr.31.a.

3 Neuertheleſſe, Zedekias the king ſent Iehucal the ſonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the ſonne of Maaſiah the prieſt, to the prophet Ieremie, ſaying, O pray thou vnto the Lorde our God for vs.

4 Nowe Ieremie walked free among the people at that time, and was not put in priſon as yet.

Ezech.17.b. 5 Pharaos hoſt alſo was come out of Egypt: whiche when the Chaldees whiche beſieged Hieruſalem perceiued, they departed from thence.

6 Then came the worde of the Lord vnto the prophete Ieremie, ſaying, ב 7 Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, This anſweare ſhal ye gene to the king of Iuda, that ſent you vnto me for counſayle: Behold, Pharaos hoſt whiche is come forth to helpe you, ſhal returne into Egypt into his owne lande.

Ierr.46.a.

8 But the Chaldees ſhal come agayne, and fyght agaynſt this citie, wynne it, and ſet fyre vpon it.

9 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Deceyue not your owne minds, thinking on this maner, Tuſhe, the Chaldees goe nowe their way from vs: No, they ſhall not goe their way.

10 For though ye had ſlaine the whole hoſt of the Chaldees that beſiege you, and that none remained of them but wounded men, yet ſhould they ſtande vp, and ſet fyre vpon this citie.

11 Nowe when the hoſt of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hieruſalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Ieremie went out of Hieruſalem toward the lande of Beniamin, to geat hym from among the people.

13 And when he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a porter called Ieriah, the ſonne of Selemiah, the ſonne of Hananiah, which fel vpon him, and tooke him, ſaying, Thy mynde is to runne to the Chaldees.

Ierr.28.b.

ג 14 Then ſaid Ieremie, It is not ſo, I go not to the Chaldees: Neuertheleſſe, Ieriah would not beleeue him, but brought Ieremie bounde before the princes.

15 Wherfore the princes were angry with Ieremie, and ſmote him, and layde him in priſon in the houſe of Ionathan the ſcribe: for they had made that houſe the priſon.

16 Thus was Ieremie put in a dungeon & priſon, and ſo laye there a long tyme.

17 Then Zedekias the kyng ſent for hym, and called him, and aſked him quietly in his owne houſe, ſaying, Thinkeſt thou this buſineſſe (that nowe is in hand) commeth of the Lorde? Ieremie anſweared, Yea that it doeth: and thou (ſaide he) ſhalt be deliuered into the kyng of Babylons power. Ierr.38.a.

18 Moreouer, Ieremie ſayde vnto king Zedekias, What haue I offended agaynſt thee, agaynſt thy ſeruantes, or agaynſt this people, that ye haue put me in priſon?

19 Where are your prophetes whiche haue prophecied vnto you, and ſayde, That the kyng of Babylon ſhoulde not come agaynſt you and this lande? Ierr.28.a.

20 And therefore heare nowe, O my Lorde the kyng, let my prayer be accepted before thee, and ſend me no more into the houſe of Ionathan the ſcribe, that I dye not there.

21 Then Zedekias commaunded to put Ieremie in the fore entrie of the priſon, and daily to be geuen him a cake of bread of the bakers ſtreete, vntil al the bread in the citie was eaten vp: Thus Ieremie remayned in the fore entrie of the priſon.

The. xxxviii. Chapter.

I. By the motion of the rulers, Ieremie is put into a dungeon.

ג 1 SAphatiah the ſonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the ſonne of Phaſhur, Iucal the ſonne of Selemiah, & Phaſhur the ſonne of Melchia, perceiued the wordes that Ieremie had ſpoken vnto al the people, namely on this maner,

2 Thus ſayth the Lord, Who ſo remaineth in this citie, ſhall perithe eyther with the ſworde, with hunger, or peſtilence: but who ſo falleth vnto the Chaldees ſhal eſcape, wynning his ſoule for a pray, and ſhal lyue. Ierr.21.b. and.37.a.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde, This citie no doubt muſt be delyuered into the power of the kyng of Babylon, and he alſo ſhall wynne it. Ierr.21.c.

4 Then ſayde the princes vnto the kyng, Sir, we beſeech you let this man be put to death: for thus he diſcourageth the handes of the ſouldiers that be in this citie, and the handes of al the people, when he ſpeaketh ſuche wordes vnto them: This man laboureth not for peace of the people, but miſchefe.

5 Zede-

5 Zedekias the king answeared, and saide, Loe, he is in your handes: for the king may nay you nothing.

6 Then tooke they Ieremie, and caste him into the dungeon of Melchiah the sonne of Amelech, that dwelt in the fore entry of the prison, and they let downe Ieremie with cordes into a dungeon where there was no water, but myre: So Ieremie stacke fast in the myre.

7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Mozian, beyng a chamberlaine in the kinges court, understood that they had cast Ieremie into the dungeon,

8 He went out of the kinges house, and spake to the king, which then sate vnder the port of Beniamin, these woordes,

9 My Lord the kyng, wherras these menne meddle with Ieremie the prophete, they do him wrong, (namely) in that they haue put him in prison, there to dye for hunger: for there is no more bread in the citie.

10 Then the king commaunded Abedmelech the Mozian, and saide, Take from hence thirtie men, whom thou wylt, and drawe vp Ieremie the prophete out of the dungeon before he dye.

11 So Abedmelech tooke the menne with him, and went to the house of the kyng, and there vnder the treasury he gate old ragges and worne cloutes, and let them downe by a corde into the dungeon to Ieremie.

12 And Abedmelech the Mozian said vnto the prophete Ieremie, O put these ragges and cloutes vnder thine arme holes, betwixt them and the cordes: and Ieremie dyd so.

13 So they drawe vp Ieremie with cordes, and toke him out of the dungeon: and he remayned in the fore entrie of the prison.

C 14 Then Zedekias the king sent, and cansed Ieremie the prophet to be called vnto him, into the thirde entrie that is in the house of the Lorde, and the king said vnto Ieremie, I will aske thee some what, but hide nothing from me.

15 Then Ieremie answeared Zedekias, If I be plaine vnto thee, thou wylt cause me to suffer death: If I gene thee counsaile, thou wylt not folowe me.

16 So the king swore an othe secretly to Ieremie, sayeing, As the Lorde lyueth that made vs these soules, I wyl not slaye thee, nor gene thee into the handes of them that seeke after thy life.

17 Then saide Ieremie vnto Zedekias, Thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, If cals be that thou wylt goe forth vnto the king of Babylons princes, thou halt saue thy lyfe, and this citie shall not be brent, yea, both thou and thy housholde shal escape with your lyues.

18 But if thou wylt not go forth to the king of Babylons princes, then shal this citie be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees, which shal set fire vppon it, and thou shalt not be able to escape them.

19 And Zedekias saide vnto Ieremie, I am afraide for the Iewes that are fledde vnto the Chaldees, lest I come into their handes, and so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremie answeared, No, they shall not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord, I beseech thee, which I speake vnto thee, so shalt thou be wel, and saue thy life:

21 But if thou wylt not goe forth, the Lord D hath tolde me this plainely, 22 Beholde, all the women that are leaft in the king of Iudaes house, shalbe led forth vnto the king of Babylons princes: and they shall say, Thou art deceiued, and the menne in whom thou dyddest put thy trust haue gotten thee vnder, and set thy feet fast in the myre, and gone their way from thee.

23 Therefore all thy wyues with thy children shal they leade forth vnto the Chaldees, and thou shalt not escape their handes, but shalt be the kyng of Babylons prisoner, and this citie shalt thou cause to be burnt.

24 Then saide Zedekias vnto Ieremie, Looke that no body know of these woordes, and thou shalt not dye.

25 But if the princes perceiue that I haue talked with thee, and come vnto thee, sayeing, O speake, what saide the king to thee, hyde it not from vs, and we wyll not put thee to death, tel vs, (we pray thee) what saide the king vnto thee?

26 Se thou geue them this answeare; I haue humbly beseought the king that he wyl let me lye no more in Iehonathans house, that I dye not there.

27 Then came al the princes vnto Ieremie, and asked hym: and he tolde them after the manner as the kyng bade hym. Then they held their peace, and let him alone: for they perceiued nothing.

28 So Ieremie abode styl in the fore entrie Ierem. 39.c of the prison, vntyll the day that Hierusalem was wonne.

The. xxxix. Chapter.

1. Nabuchodonosor besegeth Hierusalem. 4. Zedekias fleeth. 5. He is taken of the Chaldees. 6. His sonnes are slayne. 7. His eyes are thrust out.

1 NOwe when the citie of Hierusalem Ierem. 32.a was taken (for in the nienth yeere of 2. King. 22.a Zedekias

Zedekias kyng of Juda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, and al his host, and besieged Hierusalem, and fought against it,

2 And in the eleuenth yeere of Zedekias, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, he brake into the citie.)

3 Then al the princes of the kyng of Babylon came in, and sate them down vnder the porte: Nergegel, Sarezer, Samgarnebo, Barsachim, Rabsaris, Nergegel, Sarezer, Rabmag, with all the other princes of the kyng of Babylon.

Jerem.34.a 4 And when Zedekias the kyng of Juda, with his souldiers, sawe them, then they fled, and departed out of the citie by night, through the kynges garden, and through the porte that is betwene the two walles, and so the kyng went towarde the wyldernesse:

5 But the Chaldees host folowed hym after them, and tooke Zedekias in the feelde of Hiericho, and brought him prisoner to Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon vnto Reblath, that lyeth in the land of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon him.

6 So the kyng of Babylon caused the chyldre of Zedekias, and al the nobles of Juda, to be slaine before his face at Reblath,

B 7 And made Zedekias eyes to be put out, 2.king.25.b and bounde him with two chaynes, and Jerr.32.b. sent him to Babylon.

8 Moreouer, the Chaldees burnt vp the kinges palace, with the other houses of the people, and brake downe the walles of Hierusalem.

9 As for the remnant of the people that were in the citie, and such as were come to him, and what so euer was leaft of the common sort, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine carryed them to Babylon.

10 But Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne let the rascal people, and those that had nothing, dwel stil in the lande of Juda, and gaue them vineyardes and corne feeldes at the same tyme.

11 Nabuchodonosor also the kyng of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine a charge concerning Jeremie, saying, 12 Take and cherisshe him, and make much of him, see thou doo him no harme, but entreate him after his owne desire.

13 So Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, Nabuzarban, Rabsares, Nergegel, Sarezer, Rabmag, and al the kyng of Babylons lordes sent for Jeremie,

C 14 And caused him to be fet out of the Jerr.38.d. prison entrie of the prison, and committed him vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne Jerr.40.b. of Saphan, that he should carie him home: and so he dwelt among the people.

15 Nowe when Jeremie laye yet bounde in the prison entrie of the prison, the worde of the Lorde came vnto him, saying,

16 Goe and tell Abedmelech the Mohan, Thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Beholde, the cruel & sharpe plague that I haue deuised for this citie, wyl I bring vpon them, and thou shalt see it:

17 But I wyl deliuer thee in that day, saith the Lorde, and thou shalt not come in the handes of those men whom thou fearest:

18 For doubtlesse I wyl saue thee, so that thou shalt not perish with the swoorde: but thy life shalbe saued, and that because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lorde.

The.xl. Chapter.

1. Jeremie hath licence to goe whyther he wyll. 4. Iohanan prophesieth death vnto Gedaliah.

1 This is the woorde that the Lord spake A vnto Jeremie, when Nabuzaradan the Jerra.43. cheefe captayne had let hym goe free Jose.18.c from Ramath, whyther he had leade him bounde among all the prisoners that were carryed from Hierusalem and Juda, vnto Babylon.

2 The cheefe captaine called for Jeremie, and sayde vnto hym, The Lorde thy God spake mightely before of the miserie vpon this place.

3 Now the Lorde hath sent it, and performed it as he hath promised: for ye haue sinned against the Lord, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce, therefore commeth this plague vpon you.

4 Beholde, I loose the bandes from thy handes this day: if thou wylt nowe goe with me vnto Babylon, vp thy, for I wil see to thee, and prouide for thee: but if thou wylt not go with me to Babylon, then remaine here: Gen.13. Beholde, all the lande is at thy wyl, loke Deu.12. where thou thinkest conuenient and good for thee to abide, there dwel.

5 For as yet he was not gone backe againe to Gedaliah: therefore he sayd to hym, Goe backe to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Saphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made gouernour ouer the cities 2.king.25. of Juda, and dwell with hym among the people, or remayne where so euer it pleaseth thee. So the cheefe captayne gaue hym his expences, with a reward, and let hym goe.

6 Then went Jeremie vnto Gedaliah Jerr.39. the sonne of Ahikam, to Mispa, and dwelt there with him among the people that were leaft

2. Ismael kylleth Gedaliah guyleſully, and many other with hym. 11. Iohanan foloweth after Ismael.

1 BVT in the ſeuenth moneth, it happened that Ismael the ſonne of Nathaniah the ſonne of Elisama, one of the kynges blood came, & the greateſt about the kyng, and ten men with hym, vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam to Mispa, and they dyd eate togeather in Mispa. A 2. Kin. 24. a

2 And Ismael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with thoſe tenne men that were with hym, ſtart vp, & ſmote Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſame of Saphan with the ſworde, and ſlue hym, whom the kyng of Babylon had made a gouernour of the lande.

3 Ismael alſo ſlue all the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Mispa, and al the Chaldees that he founde there waytyng vppon hym, and thoſe that were able to fyght he ſlue with hym.

4 The next day after that he had ſlayne Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:

5 And there came fourtayne men from Sichem, from Silo, & Samaria, to the number of fourſcore, whiche had ſhaven their beardes, rent their clothes, and were all hewſe, hyngyng meate offrynges and incenſe in their hands, to offer it in the houſe of the Lorde.

6 And Ismael the ſonne of Nathaniah went forth of Mispa weepyng, to meete them: Nowe when he met them, he ſayde, Goe your way to Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam. Eccle. 12c.

7 And when they came in the myddeſt of the citie, Ismael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with them that were with hym, ſlue them euen at the myddeſt of the pyt. B

8 Among theſe fourſcore men there were ten that ſaid vnto Ismael, Oh ſlay vs not, for we haue yet a great treaſure in the feld, of wheate, barley, oyle, and honie: So he ſpared them, and ſlue them not with their brethren.

9 Nowe the pit wherein Ismael dyd caſte the dead bodies of the men whom he ſlue becauſe of Gedaliah, had kyng Asa caused to be made for feare of Baaſa the kyng of Israel, and the ſame pyt dyd Ismael fyll with ſlayne men. 2. Kin. 25. c.

10 As for the remnant of the people, the kynges daughters, and al the people that were left at Mispa, vpon whom Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam gouernour, Ismael the ſonne of Nathaniah caſt them away priſoners towarde the Ammonites. 2. Kin. 25. c.

11 But

11 But when Iohanan the sonne of Careah, and al they whiche hod ben captaynes ouer the kynges host with him, heard of al the wickednesse that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had done:

Gene.13.c. 1.Sa.30.b 12 They tooke their companions, and went out for to fyght with Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, and foupde hym by the great waters that are at Gibeon.

13 Now when al the people whom Ismael leyde captiue, sawe Iohanan the sonne of Careah, and all the other captaynes of the host, they were glad.

C 14 So all the people that Ismael had carried away from Mispa, were brought a gayne: and when they returned, they came to Iohanan the sonne of Careah.

15 But Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah fled from Iohanan with eyght companions, & went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Iohanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaines of the host that were with hym, tooke all the remnant of the people, whom Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had slayne Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, whom they also had reserued from hym, hyghryng men, women, and chyldren, and gelded men, whom they brought again from Gibeon,

17 And went from thence, and sate them downe at Gerath Chamaam, which lieth beside Bethlehem, that they myght go into Egypt for feare of the Chaldees:

Ierr.12.c.

18 Of whom they were afrayde, because that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had slaine Gedaliah Ahicams sonne, whom the kyng of Babylon had made gouernour in the lande.

Ierr.40.a.

The.xlii.Chapter.

1. The captaynes aske counsayle at Ieremie what they ought to doo. 19. Ieremie admoniseth the remnant of the people not to goo into Egypt.

Q1 SO all the captaynes of Iohanan the sonne of Careah, Iezaniah the sonne of Osiah, came, with all the people from the least vnto the moste,

2 And sayde vnto Ieremie the prophete, O heare our petition, that thou maist pray for vs vnto the Lorde thy God, (Namely) for al the remnant, whereof there be fewe of vs left of many, as thou seest vs:

Ierr.21.a. and.37.a.

3 That the Lorde thy God may shewe vs a way to goe in, and tel vs what we shoulde doo.

4 Then Ieremie the prophete sayde vnto them, I haue heard you, beholde, I will pray vnto God your Lorde as ye haue requested me: and looke what answeare the Lorde geueth, I shal certifie you thereof, & kepe nothing backe from you.

5 And they sayde vnto Ieremie, The Lorde be a true and faithful witnesse betwixt vs, that we wyl doo al that the Lorde thy God commaundeth vs. Iosue.2.c.

6 Whether it be good or euyl, we wyl hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, to whom we sende thee, that we may prosper when we haue folowed the voyce of the Lord our God.

7 And after ten dayes came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie. D

8 Then called he Iohanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the people that were with him, yea and all the people from the least to the moste,

9 And sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent me to lay forth your prayers before hym:

10 If you wyll dwell in this lande, I wyll builde you vp, and not breake you downe, I wyl plante you, and not roote you out: for I (a) repent as concerning the trouble that I haue done to you. Ierr.24.b (a) God repenteth nothing of but that he doeth not professe the vengeaunce in wrath accordyng to the deserte of this people.

11 Feare not the king of Babylon, of whom ye stande in awe, O be not afrayde of him, sayth the Lorde, for I wyl be with you to helpe you, and delyuer you from his hand.

12 I wyl pardon you, I wyll haue mercie vpon you, and cause hym to pitie you, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande.

13 Neuerthelesse, if ye purpose not to dwel in this lande, nor to folowe the voyce of the Lorde your God:

14 But wyl say thus, We wyl not dwell here, but goe into Egypt, where we shal neyther see warre, heare the noyse of the trumpe, nor suffer hunger, there wyll we dwel: C

15 Wherefore heare nowe the woorde of the Lorde, O ye remnant of Iuda, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, If ye be wholly purposed to goe into Egypt, and to dwel there as strangers, Ier.17.a.

16 The swoord that ye feared shal ouertake you in Egypt: and the hunger wherof ye be afrayd, shal hang vpon you, and folowe you into Egypt, and there shal ye dye. Ier.41.c.

17 And all they that of set purpose vndertake to goe into Egypt to soiourne there, shal perishe with the swoorde, with hunger, and pestilence, not one of them shal remaine, there shall none escape the plague that I wyl bryng vpon them.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Lyke as my wrath & indignation is kindled against the inhabiters of Hierusalem: so shal my displeasure be kindled led agaynst you also if ye goe into Egypt, & there ye shalbe reuiled, abhorred, brought to shame and confusion, & as for this place ye shal neuer see it more.

19 The Lorde forbiddeth you (O ye remnant of Iuda) that ye shall not goe into Egypt: and forgeat not that I haue warned you earnestly this day.

D 20 For ye haue dissembled with me: for ye sent me vnto the Lord your God, and sayd, Iere.42.a. O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs, and looke what answeare the Lorde our GOD geueth thee, that bring vs agayne, and we wyl do therafter:

21 Nowe haue I shewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the whiche cause he hath sent me to you.

Iere.38.a. 22 Nowe therefore be ye sure that ye shall perishe with the swoorde, with hunger, and pestilence, euen in the same place where your lust is to goe and dwel.

The.xliii.Chapter.

I. Iohanan caryeth the remnant of the people into Egypt, contrary to the mynde of Ieremie. 8. Ieremie prophecieth the destruction of Egypt.

AND Nowe when Ieremie had ended al the woordes of the Lorde his GOD vnto the people, which to declare the Lord their GOD had sent hym to them, euen al these woordes (I say,)

2 Azariah the sonne of Olaiah, and Iohanan the sonne of Careah, with al the stubburne persons, sayde vnto Ieremie, Thou lyest, the Lorde our God hath not sent thee to speake vnto vs, that we shoulde not goe into Egypt and dwell there: Iere.24.a.

3 But Baruch the sonne of Neriah prouoketh thee agaynst vs, that he myght bring vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they might slay vs, and cary vs away prisoners vnto Babylon.

4 So Iohanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaines of the host, and all the people folowed not the commaundement of the Lorde, (namely) to dwel in the lande of Iuda:

5 But Iohanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the host caried away al the remnant of Iuda, that were come togeather agayne from all the heathen, among whom they had ben scattered, to dwell in the lande of Iuda, Iere.41.a.

6 Men, women, children, the kinges daughters, all those that Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne had left with Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, the sonne of Saphan: they caryed away also the prophete Ieremie, and Baruch the sonne of Neriah,

7 And so came into Egypt: for they were B not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Thaphnis:

8 And in Thaphnis the woorde of the Lorde happened vnto Ieremie, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hande, & hyde them in the bycke wall vnder the doore of Pharaos house in Thaphnis, that all the men of Iuda may see,

10 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord Iere.46.c. of hostes the God of Israel, Beholde, I wil sende and cal for Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon my seruant, & wyl set his seate vpon these stones that I haue hyd, and he shal spreade his tent ouer them.

11 And when he commeth, he shal smite the lande of Egypt, some with slaughter, some with banishment, and some with the swoorde.

12 He shall set fyre vpon the temple of the Egyptians goddes, and burne them vp, and take them selues prysoners: moreouer, he shal aray hym selfe with the lande of Egypt, lyke as a shepheard putteth on his coate, and shal depart his way from thence in peace.

13 The pillers also of the temple of the sunne that is in Egypt shal he breake in peeces, and burne the temples of the Egyptians goddes.

The.xliiii.Chapter.

I. He reproueth the people for their idolatry. 15. They that set light by the threatnyng of the Lorde are chastened.

1 THis is the woorde that was shewed to B Ieremie concerning al the Iewes whiche dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the lande of Pathures.

2 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the GOD of Israel, Ye haue seene al the miserie that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem, and vpon al the cities of Iuda: so that this day they are desolate, and no man dwelling therein,

3 And that because of the great blasphemies whiche they committed to prouoke me vnto anger, in that they went backe to do sacrifice and woorshyp vnto strange goddes, whom neither they nor ye, nor your fathers haue knowen.

4 Howbeit I sent vnto them my seruantes al the prophetes, I rose vp early, I sent vnto them and gaue them warnyng, O do no suche abominable thynges, and thynges Iere.25.a. and.29.a.

that I hate.

5 But they wouldē not folowe nor hearken, to turne from theyr wickednesse, and to do no more sacrifice vnto strange goddes.

6 Wherefore mine indignation and wrath was kindled, and it burnt vp the cities of Juda, with the streetes of Hierusalem, so that they were made waste and desolate, as it is come to passe this day.

7 Nowe therefore, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Howe happeneth it that ye do so great euyll vnto your owne soules, thus to destroy the men and women, children and babes of Juda, so that none of you is left?

8 Because ye prouoke me to wrath with the workes of your owne handes, when ye offer vnto strange goddes in the lande of Egypt where as ye be gone to dwell, that ye myght vtterly perysshe, and that ye myght be reuiled, and shamefully intreated of all nations?

9 Or haue ye nowe forgotten the wickednesse of your forefathers, the wickednesse of the kinges of Juda and their wiues, the wyckednesse that ye your selues and your wyues haue done in the lande of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem?

10 Yet are ye not sory this day, ye feare not, neyther walke ye in my lawe, and in my commaundementes that I haue geuen vnto you and your forefathers.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, I am stedfastly aduised and determined to punishe you, and to roote out al Juda.

12 As for the remnant of Juda that purposely went into Egypt there to dwell, I wyll take them, and they shal al be destroyed, in the lande of Egypt shal they perishe, beyng consumed with the swoorde and with hunger: for from the least vnto the most, they shal perishe with the swoorde and with hunger: Moreouer, they shalbe reuiled, abhorred, shamed, and confounded.

Ezech. 39. a. 13 For I wyll visite them that dwel in Egypt, as I haue visited Hierusalem, with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

14 So that none of the remnant of Juda whiche are gone to dwel in Egypt, shalbe left to come agayne into the lande of Juda, although they thinke to come thyther agayne and to dwel there: for none shall come agayne but suche as are fled away.

15 Then all the men whiche knewe that their wiues had offered vnto strange gods, and a great sort of wyues that stoode there, yea and all the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the citie of Phathures, answered Jeremie, and sayde,

16 As for the woordes that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we wyll in no wise heare them:

17 But whatsoeuer goeth out of our owne mouth, that wyl we do, we wil do sacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the queene of heauen, lyke as we and our forefathers, our kynges and our heades haue done in the cities of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem: for then had we plenteousnesse of victualles, then were we in prosperitie, and no misfortune came vpon vs: Jer. 7. b. 1. Bach. 1.

18 But synce we left to offer and to do sacrifice vnto the queene of heauen, we haue had scarcenesse of al thynges, and perishe with the swoorde and hunger.

19 (Last of al) when we (women) dyd sacrifice and offered vnto the queene of heauen: did we make her cakes, and powre vnto her drinke offerinages, to do her seruice without our husbandes wylles?

20 Then sayd Jeremie vnto all the people, to the men, to the women, and to all the folke whiche had geuen hym that answere,

21 Dyd not the Lorde remember the sacrifices that ye, your forefathers, your kynges and rulers, which al the people haue offered in the cities of Juda, in the streetes of Hierusalem? and hath he not considered this in his minde? D

22 In so muche that the Lorde myght no longer suffer the wickednesse of your inuentions, and the abominable thynges whiche ye dyd: Is not your lande desolate and voyde, yea and abhorred, so that no man dwelleth therein any more, as it is come to passe this day? Eſai. 1. a.

23 Did not al this happen vnto you, because ye made suche sacrifice, and sinned agaynst the Lord? Ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinances and statutes: yea this is the cause that al myssortune happened vnto you, as it is come to passe this day. 1. Kin. 9. Jer. 22. 9. and 44. Baruch. 2.

24 Moreouer, Jeremie spake vnto all the people, and to all the women, Heare the woorde of the Lorde all Juda that be in the lande of Egypt, 25 Thus saith the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, Ye and your wyues haue spoken with your owne mouth the thyng that ye haue fulfilled in deede, yea thus haue ye sayde, We will not fayle but performe the vowes that we haue vowed, we wyll do sacrifice, and poure out drynke offerynges to the queene of heauen: Purposely wyl ye set vp your owne meanynges, & performe your vowes. Jer. 44.

26 And therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde

Iere.22.d.

Iere.42.d.

Iere.21.b.

Lorde al Iuda that dwel in the lande of Egypt: Beholde, I haue swoone by my great name, sayth the Lorde, that my name shal not be rehearsed throughe any mans mouth of Iuda in al the lande of Egypt, to saye, The Lord God liueth.

27 For I will watch to plague them, and not for their wealth: and al the men of Iuda that be in the lande of Egypt shall perysshe with the swoorde, and with hunger, vntyll they be vtterly destroyed.

28 Neuertheles, those that fledde away for the swoorde, shal come agayne out of Egypt into the lande of Iuda, but there shalbe very fewe of them: and al the remnaunt of Iuda that are gonne into Egypt there to dwel, shal knowe whose woordes shalbe founde true, theirs, or myne.

29 Take this for a token, that I wyl visite you in this place, saith the Lorde, and that ye may knowe howe that I without doubt wyl performe my purpose vppon you, to punnisshe you.

4.king.25.a

30 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, I wyl deliuer Pharao Hophrea king of Egypt, into the handes of his enemies that seeke after his lyfe: euen as I gaue Zedekias the kyng of Iuda into the handes of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon his enemie, whiche sought after his lyfe.

The.xlv. Chapter.

Baruch is reproued of Ieremie.

Iere.36.a.

1 THese are the woordes that Ieremie the Prophete spake vnto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, after that he hadde written these Sermons in a booke at the mouth of Ieremie, in the fourth yere of Ioakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, sayeing,

2 Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel vnto ther, O Baruch:

3 Inlomuche as thou thoughtest thus (when thou wast writing) Wo is me, the Lord hath geuen me payne for my trauayle, I haue wearied my selfe with sighing, and haue founde no rest:

4 Therfore tel him, O Ieremie, that ỹ Lord sayth thus: Beholde, the thing that I haue baylded, wyl I breake downe agayne, and roote out the thing that I haue planted, yea, this whole lande:

5 And seekest thou yet promotion? (looke not for it, and) despyse it not, for I wyl bring a miserable plague vpon al flesshe, sayeth the Lorde: but thy lyfe wyl I geue thee for a pray, in all places whyther so euer thou goest.

The.xlvi. Chapter.

1. He propheseeth the destruction of Egypt.
27. Deliuerance is promised to Israel.

1 HEre folowe the woordes of the Lorde to the Prophete Ieremie, whiche he spake agaynst (al) the gentiles. a

2 These woordes folowing preached he to the Egyptians, concerning the host of Pharao Necho king of Egypt, when he was in Charchamis beside the water of Euphrates, what tyme as Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon slue him, in the fourth yere of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda. Esai.19.a. and.20.a. Ezech.29.a 30.and.31.a 2.kyn.24.b. Iere.36.a.

3 Make redy buckler and sheelde, and goe forth to fyght.

4 Harnesse your horses, and set your selues vppon them, set your sallets fast on, bryng forth speares, scoure your swoords, and put on your brest plates.

5 But alas, how happeneth it that I see yon so afrayde? why thinke ye backe? Their worthies are slayne, yea, they runne so fast away that none of them looketh behynde him: fearefulnesse is fallen vppon euery one of them, saith the Lorde.

6 The lightest of foote shall not flee away, and the worthies shal not escape: towarde the North by the water of Euphrates they did stumble and fal.

7 But what is he this that swelleth vp as it were a floodde, roaryng and ragyng lyke the streames of water? b

8 It is Egypt that ryseth vp lyke the flood, and casteth out the waters with so great noyse: And he sayde, I wyll goe vp and wyl couer the earth, I wyl destroy the citie with them that are therein.

9 Goe ye vp ye horses, rome forth ye charettes, come forth worthies, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.

10 But this day of the Lorde God of hoastes is a day of vengeance, that he may auenge him of his enimies: The swoorde shall deuoure, it shalbe satisfied & bathed in their blood, for the Lorde God of hoastes shall haue a slayne offering towarde the North, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Goe vp vnto Gilead, and bring triacle, O virgin, thou daughter of Egypt: but in vayne shalt thou goe to surgerie, for thy wounde shal not be stopped.

12 The heathen haue heard of thy shame, and the lande is full of thy confusion: for one strong man did stumble vpon another, and they are fallen both togeather.

13 These are the woordes that the Lorde ſpake to the prophete Jeremie, concerning the commyng of Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, whiche was ſent to deſtroy the lande of Egypt:

C 14 Preache out thyough the lande of Egypt, and cauſe it to be proclaymed at Migdol, Noph, and Taphnis, and ſay, Stande ſtil, make thee redy, for the ſwoꝛd ſhal conſume thee roundde about.

15 Howe happeneth it that thy mighty woꝛthies are fallen? why ſtoode they not faſt? euen becauſe the Lorde thruſt them downe.

16 The ſlaughter was great, for one fel euer ſtyl vppon another: and they ſayde, Up, let vs goe agayne to our owne people, and to our owne naturall countrey, from the cruel ſwoꝛde.

17 There dyd crye euen there, Pharao the king of Egypt is a king of troubleſomnes: he hath ouerpaſt the appoynted tyme.

18 As I liue (ſayth the kyng whoſe name is the Lorde of hoaſtes) ſo ſurely as Thabor ſtandeth among the mountaines, & Charmel in the ſea: euen ſo aſſuredly ſhall this miſcheefe come vpon Egypt.) Eſai. 48. b.

19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make redy thy geare to flit: for Noph ſhalbe voyde and deſolate, ſo that no man ſhall dwell therein.

20 The lande of Egypt is lyke a goodly fayre Calfe: but deſtruction ſhal come out of the Noꝛth, (I ſay) it commeth.

D 21 Her waged ſouldiers that be with her are like fat Calues, they alſo ſhal flee away togeather and not abyde: for the day of their ſlaughter, and the time of their viſitation ſhal come vpon them.

22 The cry of them ſhal make a noyſe as the hiſſing of ſerpentes: for they ſhal enter in with their hoaſtes, and comme agaynſt her with axes, as it were hewers downe of wood.

(a) Her wood, that is, the whole multitude of the people, which was lyke a great wood.

23 And they ſhall cut downe her (a) wood, ſayth the Lorde, they ſhalbe innumerable: for they ſhalbe moe in number then the graſſhoppers, ſo that no man ſhalbe able to tel them.

24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the handes of the people of the Noꝛth.

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl viſite that reſtleſſe people of Alexandria, Pharao, and Egypt, yea both their gods and their kinges, euen Pharao and all them that put their truſt in hym:

26 Yea, I wyl deliuer them into the handes of thoſe that ſeeke after their lyues, (namely) into the power of Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, and into the power of his ſeruauntes: and after al theſe thinges, it ſhalbe inhabited as aforetyme, ſayth the Lorde.

27 Be not thou afrayde, O my ſeruaunt Jacob, feare not thou, O Iſrael: for loe, I wil helpe thee from farre, and thy ſeede from the lande of their captiuitie: Jacob alſo ſhal come agayne and be in reſte, he ſhall proſper, and no man ſhal do him harme.

28 Feare thou not (O Jacob my ſeruaunt) ſayth the Lorde, for I am with thee, and wyll deſtroy all nations among whom I haue ſcattered thee: neuertheleſſe I wil not conſume thee, but chaſten thee and correct thee, yea, and that with diſcretion, neyther wil I vtterly deſtroy thee.

The.xlvii. Chapter.

The woorde of the Lorde agaynſt the Philiſtines.

A 1 Theſe are the woꝛdes that the Lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie ỹ prophete againſt the Philiſtines, before that Pharao ſmote the citie of Azah.

2 Thus ſayth the Lord, Beholde, there ſhal waters aryſe out of the Noꝛth, and ſhall growe to a great floodde, running ouer and couering the lande and all that is therein, the cities, and them that dwell therein: and the men ſhal cry, and al they that dwel in the lande ſhal mourne.

3 At the noyſe and ſtampyng of their ſtrong barbed hoꝛſes, at the ſhaking of their charets, and at the rumblyng of the wheles: the fathers ſhal not looke to their children, ſo feeble and weery ſhal their handes be,

4 At the ſame tyme when he ſhalbe there to deſtroy the whole lande of the Philiſtines, he ſhall make waſte both Tyrus, Sidon, and the reſidue of their ayde: for the Lorde wyl deſtroy the Philiſtines, the remnant of the Ile of * Caphtoꝛ. * q. Capthoꝛi.

5 Baldneſſe is come vpon Azah, Aſcalon is put to ſylence, with the reſte of their valeys: Howe long wylt thou teare thee ſelfe?

B 6 O thou ſwoꝛde of the Lorde, howe long wilt thou not ceaſſe? Turne agayne into thy ſheath, reſt, and leaue of.

7 But howe can it ceaſſe, when the Lorde him ſelfe hath geuen it a charge agaynſt Aſcalon, and rayſed it vp agaynſt the citis of the ſea coaſt?

The.xlviii. Chapter.

The woorde of the Lorde agaynſt the Moabites.

1 Thus

48 1 THus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel against Moab, Wo be to the citie of Nebo, for it is layde waste, brought to confusion, and Kiriathaim is taken: Misgab is brought to shame and afrayde.
Eſai.15.a. am.16.a. Ezech.25.b. Soph.2.b.

2 Moab can boast no more of Hesbon, for they haue deuised a mischiefe against it: Come (shal they say) let vs roote them out, that they may be no more a nation, thou also shalt be destroyed, O Madmena, and the sworde shal persecute thee.

3 A voyce shal crye from Horonaim: Great wastyng and destruction shall come vpon them.

4 Moab is made desolate, her lytle ones haue cryed out.

5 For at the going vp vnto Luith he arose with lamentation & mourning, and downe towarde Horonaim they heard a cruel and deadly crye:

6 Geat you away, saue your lyues, and be lyke vnto the heath in the wyldernesse.

B 7 For because thou hast trusted in thyne owne workes and treasure, thou shalt be taken: Chamos with his priestes and princes shal goe away into captiuitie.
Eſai.46. Ier.17.b. Ezech.25.d

8 The destroyer shall come vpon al cities, none shall escape: The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the feeldes shalbe layde waste, lyke as the Lorde hath spoken.

9 Geue wynges vnto Moab, that she geat her away speedily: for her cities shalbe made so desolate, that no man shall dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doth the worke of the Lorde fraudulently, and cursed be he that keepeth backe his sworde from shedding of blood.

Ier.47.b. 11 Moab hath euer ben ryche and careleſſe from her youth vp, she hath ben styl setled vpon lyes, she was neuer yet put out of one vessell into another, (that is) she neuer went away into captiuitie, therefore her taste remayneth, and her sauour is not yet changed.

12 But lo, the time commeth, saith the lord, that I shall sende her trussers to trusse her vp, which shal remoue her from her dwelling, and emptie her vessels, and breake her wine pottes.

Ier.12.a. 13 And Moab shalbe ashamed of Chamos, lyke as Israel was ashamed of Bethel wherein she put her trust.

14 Wherefore do ye thinke thus, We are mightie and strong men of warre?

15 Moab is destroyed, and her cities brente vp, her chosen young men be slayne, sayth the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

16 The destruction of Moab commeth on a pace, and her fal is at hande.

17 Al ye neighbours mourne for her, and all ye that knowe her name, say, O howe happeneth it that the strong staffe and the goodly rodde is thus broken?

18 And thou daughter Dibon, come downe from thy glory, and sit in thirst: for he that destroyeth Moab, shal come vp to thee also, and breake downe thy strong holdes.

19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, geat thee to the streete, and loke about thee, aske them that are fledde and escaped, and say, What thyng is happened.

20 Oh Moab is confounded and ouercome: mourne and crye, tell it out at Arnon that Moab is destroyed,

D 21 For iudgement shal come vpon the playne land (namely) vpon Holon, and Iahzah, and vpon Mephaath,

22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, and Beth Diblathaim,

23 Vpon Kiriathaim, and vpon Beth Gamul, vpon Beth Maon, 24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and al the cities in the lande of Moab, whether they lye farre or neare.

25 The horne of Moab is smitten downe, and her arme broken, sayth the Lorde.

26 Make her dronken, for she magnified her selfe aboue the Lord, that men may clappe their handes at her vomite, and that she also may be laughed to scorne.

27 Diddest not thou laugh Israel to scorne, as though he had ben taken (with theft) among theeues? for so often as thou makest mention of him, thou skippest for ioy.

E 28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities and dwel in rockes of stone, and become lyke doues that make their nestes in holes.

29 As for Moabs pride we haue heard of it, she is very high minded, I knowe her stoutnesse, her boasting, her arrogancie, and the pryde of her stomacke, (sayth the Lorde.)
Eſai.16.b. Ier.49.c.

30 I knowe (sayth the Lorde) her indignation, she doth not right, her workes are lies, and they haue not dealt truely.

31 Therefore wyl I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs sake: my hart shall lament the men of Kirehares.

32 O thou vineyarde of Sabamah, I wyl weepe for thee as for Iazer: thy vine branches shal come ouer the sea vnto the sea of Iazer, the destroyer shall breake into thy harueſt and grape gatheryng.

33 Myrth and cheare shalbe taken away from the fertile feelde, and from the lande of Moab: there shalbe no sweete wine in the presse, the treader shal haue no stomache to crye, yea there shalbe none to crye vnto

hym,

34 Whiche afterwarde were heard from Heſbon to Eleale, and Jahaz, whiche lyfted vp theyr voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim, that bullocke of three yeere old: the waters alſo of Nemrim ſhalbe dryed vp.

F 35 Moreouer, I wyll make Moab ceaſſe ſayth the Lorde, from the offerynges and cenſyng that ſhe hath made vnto her Gods in high places.

36 Wherefore my hart mourneth for Moab lyke a crowde playing an heauie ſong, and for the mens ſake of Kirchares my hart mourneth alſo, euen as a pype that pypeth a doleful ſong: for theyr riches which they haue geathered, ſhalbe deſtroyed.

37 Al heades ſhalbe ſhauen, and al beardes clipped of, al handes bounde, and al loynes gyrded about with ſackcloth.

Eſai. 15. d.

38 Upon all the houſe toppes and ſtreetes of Moab there ſhalbe lamentable mournyng, for I will breake Moab like an vnprofitable veſſel, ſayth the Lorde.

39 O howe is ſhe deſtroyed? O howe mourneth ſhe? O howe doth Moab hang downe her head and is aſhamed? Thus ſhal Moab be a laughyng ſtocke, and had in deriſion of al them that be rounde about her?

40 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, the enimie ſhal come fleeyng as an Eagle, and ſpreade his wynges vpon Moab.

Deut. 28. c. Iere. 49. d.

G 41 They ſhal take the cities, and winne the ſtrong holdes: then the myghtie mens hartes in Moab ſhalbe lyke the hart of a woman trauayling with chylde.

42 And Moab ſhalbe made ſo deſolate that ſhe ſhall no more be a people, becauſe ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe agaynſt the Lorde.

Eſai. 24. c.

43 Feare, pit, and ſnare ſhal come vpon thee, O Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

44 Who ſo eſcapeth the feare, ſhal fal into the pit, and who ſo geatteth out of the pyt, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: for I wyll bryng a yeere of viſitation vpon Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

45 They that are able to flee, ſhall ſtande vnder the ſhadowe of Heſbon, for there ſhal goe a fyre out of Heſbon, and a flame from Sion, and ſhal burne vp that proude people of Moab, and the toppe of thoſe ſeditious children.

46 Woe be vnto thee, O Moab, thou people of Chamos ſhalt periſhe: yea thy ſonnes and daughters ſhalbe ledde away captiue.

47 Yet at the laſt wyl I bryng Moab out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lord. Thus farre is of the plagnt of Moab.

The .xlix. Chapter.

1. The worde of the Lord agaynſt the Ammonites, 7. agaynſt Idumea, 13. Damaſcus, 28. Cedar, 34. Elam.

1 AS concernyng the Ammonites, thus the Lord ſayth, Hath Iſrael no chyldren? or is he without any heyre? Why hath your king then taken Gad in? Wherfore doth his people dwel in his cities?

A Ezech. 21. d. and. 25. a. Amos. 1. a.

2 Beholde therfore, the time commeth, ſaith the lord, that I wil bryng a noyſe of warre into Rabath of the Ammonites, & it ſhalbe layde on a deſolate heape, and her cities brent vp, and the Iſraelites ſhalbe Lordes ouer thoſe that had them in poſſeſſion afore, ſayth the Lorde.

3 Heſbon ſhall mourne, for Ai ſhalbe rooted out of the grounde (ſayth the Lorde) the citie of Rabath ſhal crye out, and girde them ſelues with ſackcloth, they ſhall mourne and runne about the walles, for theyr kyng ſhalbe led away priſoner, yea his prieſtes and princes with hym.

4 Wherfore gloryeſt thou in the (a) valleys? thy valley hath flowed away, O thou rebellious daughter, and thynkeſt thou that thou art ſo ſafe by reaſon of thy treaſure, that no man ſhal come to thee?

(a) The plentifulneſſe of the fertile, ſtrong ſituation of the place, and theyre great wealth, cauſeth the Ammonites to be a reckleſſe wanton people, to blaſpheme the Lord, to annoy his people, & to be without all feare of enimies.

5 Beholde, I wyl bryng a feare vpon thee, ſayth the Lord God of hoſtes, from al thoſe that be about thee, ſo that ye ſhalbe ſcattred euery man from another, & no man ſhal gather them togeather agayne that be fled.

6 But after that I wyll bryng the Ammonites alſo out of captiuitie agayne, ſaith the Lorde.

Eſai. 21. b. Ezech. 25. b. and. 35. b.

7 Upon the Edomites hath the Lorde of hoſtes ſpoken on this manner, Is there no more wyſedome in Theman? Is there no more good counſayle among his people? Is their wyſedome then turned cleane to nought?

8 Geat you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe, O ye citizens of Dedan: for I wyl bryng deſtruction vpon Eſau, yea and the day of his viſitation.

9 If the grape geatherers come vpon thee, ſhoulde they not leaue ſome grapes? If the night robbers come vpon thee, ſhoulde they not take ſo much as they thought were ynough?

10 But I will make Eſau bare, and diſcouer his ſecretes, ſo that he ſhal not be able to hyde them: his ſeede ſhalbe waſted away, yea his brethren and his neyghbours, and he hym ſelfe ſhal not be left behynde.

11 Thou ſhalt leaue thy fatherleſſe chyldren behinde thee, and I wyll keepe them, and thy thy wydowes shall take their comfort in me.

12 For thus hath the Lorde spoken, Behold, they that men thought were vnmeete to drinke of the cuppe, haue drunken with the fyrst: and thinkest thou then to be free? No, no, thou shalt neither be quit nor free: but thou must drinke also.

Ier.25.b. Ezech.9.b. 1.Pet.4.c.

13 For why? I haue swoorne by mee selfe, sayeth the Lorde, that Bozrah shal become a wyldernesse, an open shame, a laughing stocke, and cursyng, and al her cities shalbe a continual desart.

14 For I am perfectly informed of the Lorde, that he hath sent a message al redy vnto the heathen: Gather you together, and goe forth agaynst her, make you redy to batayle.

C

15 For loe, I will make thee but smal among the heathen, & litle regarded among men.

Abd.1.a.

16 Thy hie stomacke, and the pryde of thy hart hath deceyued thee, because thou dwelst in the holes of stony rockes, and hast the high mountaynes in possession: Neuertheles, though thy nest were as high as the Egles, yet I will cast thee downe, saith the Lorde.

Esai.48.b. Ier.48.b.

17 Moreouer, Idumea shalbe a wyldernesse, who so goeth by it, shalbe abashed, & woonder at al her miserable plagues.

Ier.18.b. 19.b. 50.b. Apoc.19.c.

18 Like as Sodome, Gomor, and the cities that lay there about were turned vpsyde downe, sayth the Lorde: so shall no body dwel in Idumea, and no man shal haue his habitation there.

18 Behold, like as the lion, so shal a destroyer comme vp from the pleasant medowes of Iordane, vnto ỹ strong dwelling place, and when I haue made him quiet, I will make him to flee from her, and al chosen men wyl I set in aray agaynst her: who is lyke vnto me? what is he that wyl strive with me? what shepheard may stande in my handes?

20 Therefore heare the counsel of the Lorde that he hath taken vppon Idumea, and his purpose that he hath deuised vpon the citizens of Theman: the least of the flocke shal fraye them, and looke what fayre habitation they haue, they shal make it waste, and them selues also.

Iob.37.b.

21 At the noyse of their fall the earth shall quake, the crie of their voyce shalbe heard vnto the red sea.

22 Beholde, the enimie shal comme and flee vp hyther like as it were an Egle, and spread his winges vpon Bozrah: then shal the hartes of the woorthies in Edom be as the hart of a woman trauayling of chylde.

23 Vpon Damascus, Hemath, and Arphad, shal come confusion: for they shal heare euil tydinges, they shalbe tossed to and fro lyke the sea that can not stand stil. Esai.17.a. Amos.1.a.

24 Damascus shalbe soare afrayde, and shal flee: trembling commeth vpon her, sorowe and payne shal ouertake her, as a woman trauayling of childe.

25 But howe happeneth it that the famous citie, the citie of my ioy, is not spared?

26 Her young men shal fal in the streetes, and al her menne of warre shalbe taken away in that time, sayth the Lord of hoastes.

27 I wyl kindle a fyre in the walles of Damascus, whiche shal consume the palace of Benhadad.

28 As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hazor, whom Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon smote, the Lord hath spoken thus vpon them: Aryse, and goe vp vnto Cedar, and destroy the people towarde the east. Esai.21.c.

29 Their tentes and their flockes shall they take away, yea their hangynges and their vessels, their Cammels also shal they carie away with them: they shall crye to them, feare is on euery syde.

30 Flee, goe you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwel there, O ye inhabitours of Hazor, sayth the Lorde: for Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon hath holden a counsayle concerning you, and concluded his deuice against you.

31 Aryse and goe you vp against yonder riche and careles people, saith the Lorde, which haue neither gates nor doore barres, but dwel alone.

32 Their Cammels shalbe a pray, and the droues of their cattel driuen away: Moreouer, those wyl I scatter towarde all the windes, and to the farthest partes of the worlde, yea from al the sydes thereof wyll I bring their destruction, saith the Lorde.

33 Hazor also shalbe a dwelling for dragons, and an euerlasting wilderneſſe, so that no body shal dwel there, and no man shal haue there his habitation.

34 These are the woordes that the Lorde spake to the Prophete Ieremie concerning Elam, in the beginning of the raigne of Zedekias king of Iuda. Ezech.32.a Daniel.8.a.

35 Thus sayth the Lord of hoastes, Behold, I wil breake the bowe of Elam, their principal strength.

36 And vpon Elam I wyll bring the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, & wyl scatter them agaynst the same foure windes: and there shalbe no people, but some of Elam shal flee vnto them.

37 For I wyl cause Elam to be afrayde of their enimies, and of them that ſeeke their lyues, & wyl bryng vpon them a miſcheefe, euen my wrath, ſayth the Lord: And I wyl perſecute them with the ſwoorde, ſo long tyl I haue brought them to nought.

38 I wyl ſet my throne in Elam, I wyl deſtroy both the king & princes from thence, ſaith the Lorde: but in proceſſe of time I wyl bring Elam out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde.

fal, and her walles ſhal comme downe, for it ſhalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, yea

I haue viſited the king of the Aſſyrians, in: downe with them, and ſmyte them vppon the backes, ſayth the Lorde, doo accodyng to all that I haue commaunded

22 There is gonne about the lande a crye of a ſlaughter and great murder (namely on this manner,)

23 Howe happeneth it that the hammer of the

the whole worlde is thus broken and bruyſed in ſunder? howe chaunceth it that Babylon is become a wylderneſſe among the heathen (on this manner?)

24 I mee ſelfe haue layde a ſnare for thee, & thou art taken vnawares, thou art trapped and ſnared: for why? thou haſt contended againſt the Lorde.

25 The Lorde hath opened his houſe of ordinance, and brought forth the weapons of his wrath: for the thing that is donne in the land of the Chaldees, it is the Lorde of hoſtes worke.

26 Come againſt her, for this is her ende, breake vp her cheſtes, threſh her as ye threſh corne, deſtroy her, that nothing ſhalbe left.

27 Slay al their mightie ſouldiers, and put them to death: wo be vnto them, for the day and time of their viſitation is at hand.

¶ 28 (Me thinke) I heare (already) a crye of them that be fledde and eſcaped out of the land of Babylon, which ſhewe in Sion the vengeance of the Lord our God, the vengeance of his temple, (yea a voyce of them that crye againſt Babylon,)

29 Cal vp al the archers againſt Babylon, pitche your tentes rounde about her, that none eſcape, recompence her as ſhe hath deſerued, and according as ſhe hath donne, ſo deale with her againe: for ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe againſt the Lorde, againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

30 Therefore ſhal her young men fal downe in the ſtreetes, and all her menne of warre ſhalbe rooted out in that daye, ſayth the Lorde.

31 Beholde, I ſpeake vnto thee, O thou proude, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, for thy day ſhal come, euen the time of thy viſitation.

32 And the proude ſhal ſtumble and fal, and no man ſhal helpe him vp, I wyll burne vp his cities with fire, and it ſhall conſume all that is rounde about him.

33 Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, The children of Iſrael and Iuda ſuffer violence together, al they that haue them in captiuitie keepe them faſte, and wyll not let them goe.

¶ 34 But their auenger & redeemer is mighty, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, he ſhall mayntayne their cauſe, he ſhall make the lande ſhake, and iudge them that dwell therin (one with another.)

35 The ſwoorde ſhall come vpon the Chaldees, ſaith the Lord, vpon them that dwell in Babylon, vpon their princes, and vpon their wiſe men.

36 The ſwoorde vpon their ſoothſayers, as for thoſe they ſhal become fooles: the ſwoorde vpon their worthyes, ſo that they ſhal ſtand in feare.

37 The ſwoorde vpon their horſemen and charettes, and vpon all the common people that dwel among them, ſo that they ſhal all become like women: the ſwoorde vpon their treaſure, ſo that it ſhalbe ſtollen away.

38 A drought vpon their waters, ſo that they ſhalbe dryed vp: for the lande worſhypperh Images, and delighteth wonderfully in Idolles.

39 Therefore ſhal wylde beaſtes, Lamia, and Catte of mountaynes, and Eſtriches dwel therein: for there ſhal neuer man dwel there, neither ſhall any man haue his habitation there for euermore.

40 Like as God deſtroyed Sodome and Gomor, with the cities that laye there about, ſaith the Lorde: ſo ſhall no man dwel there alſo, neyther ſhall any man haue there his habitation. Gene. 19.

41 Beholde, there ſhal come a people from the North with a great bonde of men, and many kynges ſhal ſtande vp from the endes of the earth. Ieremi. 50. b Deut. 28. c.

42 They beare bowes and bucklers, cruell are they and vnmercyful: their voyce roareth like the ragyng ſea, they ryde vppon horſes, and come weaponed to fight againſt thee, O Babylon.

43 As ſoone as the king of Babylon heare tel of them, his handes ſhal waxe feeble, ſorowe and heauineſſe ſhall come vppon hym as a woman trauaylyng with chylde. G

44 Beholde, like as the Lion commeth vp from the ſwellyng of Iordan, vnto the dennes of Ethan, ſo wyll I driue them forth, & make them runne agaynſt her: but whom ſhall I chooſe out and ordeyne to ſuche a thyng? for who is like me? or who wyll ſtryue with me? or what herphearde may ſtande againſt me? Ieremi. 49. c

45 Therefore heare the counſell that the Lorde hath geuen vppon Babylon, and the deuice that he hath taken vpon the lande of the Chaldees, The leaſt among the people ſhal drawe them out, and looke what pleaſant houſes they haue, they ſhall laye them waſte.

46 The noyſe at the wynnyng of Babylon ſhal moone the earth, and the crye ſhalbe heard among the Gentiles.

Ieremi. 25.b and. 50.a.

1 THus hath the Lorde ſaide, Beholde, I wyl raiſe vp a perilous wynde againſt Babylon, and her citizens that beare euyl wyl againſt me.

2 I wyl ſend alſo into Babylon fanners, to fanne her out, and to deſtroye her lande: for in the day of her trouble they ſhalbe about her on euery ſide.

3 Moreouer (the Lorde wyl ſay) vnto the bowmen, and to them that aduaunce them ſelues in their armour: ye ſhal not ſpare her young men, kyll downe al her hoſt.

4 Thus the ſlaine ſhal fal downe in the land of the Chaldees, and the wounded in the ſtreetes.

5 As for Iſrael and Iuda, they ſhal not be forſaken of their God, of the Lord of hoſtes, yea, (a) for y holy one of Iſraels ſake, haue the Chaldees filled their land ful of ſinne.

(a) For the holy one of Iſraels ſake, that is, for the greeuous affliction and great iniurie done to gods people, which he reputeth as done vnto hym ſelfe.

6 Flee away from Babylon, euery man ſaue his life, that ye be not rooted out with her wickednes: for the time of the Lordes vengeance is come, yea, he ſhal reward her againe.

Eſai. 48. b. Ierem. 25. c Eſai. 21. b. Apoc. 18. a.

7 Babylon hath ben in the Lordes hande a golden cuppe, that maketh al landes dronken: of her wyne haue al people dronken, therefore are they out of their wyttes.

8 But ſodainely is Babylon fallen and deſtroyed: mourne for her, bring plaſters for her woundes, if ſhe may peraduenture be healed againe.

9 We woulde haue made Babylon whole, ſay they, but ſhe is not recouered: therefore wyl we let her alone, and goe euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is comme into heauen, and is gone vp into the cloudes.

(b) How ſoeuer the Iewes had deſerued to be plagued at Gods hande, yet had the Chaldees no cauſe on their partes why to deale ſo cruelly with them, and ſo God declareth their righteouſneſſe in reſpect to the Chaldees, by pouniſhyng them, and delyueryng his people.

10 The Lorde hath brought forth our (b) righteouſneſſe, and therefore come on, we wyl ſhewe in Sion the worcke of the Lorde our God.

11 Make ſharpe the arowes, and multiplie your ſhieldes: for the Lord ſhal raiſe vp the ſpirite of the kyng of the Medes, whiche hath already a deſire to deſtroy Babylon: this ſhalbe the vengeance of the Lorde, and the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babylon, make your watche ſtrong, ſet your watchmen in aray, yea, bold vpiuy watches, and yet for al that ſhal the Lorde goe forth with his deuice whiche he hath taken vpon them that dwel in Babylon.

13 O thou that dwelleſt by the great waters, O thou that haſt ſo great treaſure and riches, thine end is come, and the reckening of thy wranninges.

C

14 The Lorde of hoſtes hath ſworne by him ſelfe, that he wyll ouerwhelme thee with men like grashoppers in number, whiche with a courage ſhal crye alarum alarum againſt thee:

Amos. 6. c. Iere. 22. a.

15 Yea, euen the Lorde of hoſtes that with his power made the earth, with his wiſdome prepared the rounde woorld, and with his diſcretion ſpread out the heauens.

Ieremi. 51. b

16 Aſſoone as he letteth his voyce be heard, the waters in the ayre waxe fierce: he draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth, he turneth the lightninges to rayne, he bringeth the wyndes out of their ſecrete places.

17 (If they be eſteemed) by their wiſedome, al menne are become fooles: confounded be al the caſters of Images, for the thyng that they make is but deceyte, and hath no breath.

Eſai. 44. c. Baruch. 6. a

18 Vaine is it, and an erronious worke, and in the time of viſitation it ſhal periſhe.

19 The portion of Iacob is none ſuche: but he that made al thinges, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, he is the rod of his inheritance.

20 (c) Thou haſt benne mine hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in peeces, and with thee haue I deſtroyed kingdomes.

(c) Thou haſt ben. This God ſpeaketh vnto Babylon.

21 Through thee haue I beaten to powder horſe and horſmen, yea, the charettes, and ſuche as ſate vpon them.

D

22 Throwe thee I haue broken man and woman, old and young, bacheler and mayden.

23 Through thee I haue deſtroyed the ſheepeheard and his flocke, the huſbandman and his cattell, the princes and the rulers.

24 Therefore wyll I rewarde the citie of Babylon, and al the inhabitantes of Chaldea, with al the euyl which they haue done vnto Sion, yea, that ye your ſelues ſhall ſee it, ſayth the Lorde.

25 Behold, I come vpon thee thou noyſome (d) hyl, ſayth the Lorde, thou that deſtroyeſt al landes, I wyll ſtretche out my hande ouer thee, and caſt thee downe from the ſlonie rockes, and wyl make thee a burnt hyl.

(d) Babylon is called an hil, although it ſtoode in a lowe place, and no hyls about it: for that her walles and hyghe dynges were ſo great and hygh as mountaines.

26 So that neyther corner ſtones ſhalbe taken any more out of thee: but waſte and deſolate ſhalt thou lye for euermore, ſayth the Lorde.

27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpetters among the heathen, prouoke the nations againſt her, cal the kyngdomes of Ararat, Menni, and Aſcanez, againſt her, ſet the prince againſt her, bring as great a ſort of terrible hoſtes againſt her, as if they were graſhoppers.

28 Prepare againſt them the people of the Medes,

Medes, with their kinges, princes, and al their cheefe rulers, yea and the whole land that is vnder hym.

29 The land also shal shake and be afrayd, when the deuice of the Lord shal come forth against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon so waste, that no man shal dwel any more therein.

30 The worthies of Babylon shal leaue the batayle, & keepe them selues in strong holdes, their strength hath fayled them, they shalbe lyke women, their dwellyng places shalbe burnt vp, their barres shalbe broken.

31 One pursuant shal meete another, yea, one Poste shall come by another, to bryng the kyng of Babylon tydynges that his citie is taken on euery syde, 32 The foordes occupied, the fennes burnt vp, and the souldiers sore afrayde.

33 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, (c) The daughter of Babylon hath ben in her tyme lyke as a threshyng flooze, but shortly shal her haruest come.

(c) The complaint of Gods people

34 Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon hath deuoured and destroyed me, he hath made me an emptie vessel, he swalowed me vp lyke a dragon, and fylled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 My substaunce wherof he hath spoyled me, and the thing that was left me whiche he hath carried away, crie out against Babylon, sayth the daughter that dwelleth in Sion, yea and my blood also against the Chaldees, sayth Hierusalem.

36 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl defend thy cause, and auenge thee, I wyl drynke vp her sea, and drye vp her water springes.

Esai.13. 37 Babylon shal become an heape of stones, a dwellyng place for dragons, a fearefulnesse and woonderyng, and no man shall dwel there.

38 They shal roare together lyke Lions, and as the young Lions when they be angrie, so shal they bende them selues.

39 In their heate I wyl geue them a dynner, and they shalbe dronken for ioy: then shall they sleepe an euerlastyng sleepe, and neuer wake, sayth the Lorde.

40 I wyll carrie them downe to be slayne like Sheepe, lyke Weathers, and Goates:

6 41 O howe was Sesach wonne? O howe was the glorie of the whole lande taken? howe happeneth it that Babylon is so woondred at among the heathen?

42 The sea is ryen ouer Babylon, & hath couered her with her great waues.

43 Her cities are layde waste, the land lieth vnbuilded and voyde, it is a lande where no man dwelleth, and where no man trauayleth through.

44 Moreouer, I wyll visite Bel at Babylon, and the thyng that he hath swalowed vp, that same shall I plucke out of his mouth: the Gentiles also shal runne no more vnto hym, yea and the walles of Babylon shal fal. Ierr.1.a. Esai.46.a Dani.14.b

45 O my people, come out of Babylon, that euery man may saue his lyfe from the feareful wrath of the Lorde. Esai.52.b. 2.Cor.6.c.

46 Be not faynt harted, and feare not at euery rumour that shalbe heard in the land: for euery yere bringeth newe tidings, and in the yere folowyng newe tydinges, and robbing in the lande, & lord vpon lord.

47 And loe, the tyme commeth, that I wil visite the images of Babylon, & the whole land shalbe confounded, yea and her slayne shal lye in the myddest of her.

48 Heauen and earth with al that is therein shal reioyce ouer Babylon, when the destroyers shal come vpon her from the north, sayth the Lorde.

49 Lyke as Babylon hath beaten downe and slayne many out of Israel, so shal there fal many, and be slaine in al her kingdome. Ierr.50.a.

50 Ye that haue escaped the swoorde, haste you, stande not styl, remember the Lorde a farre of, and thynke vpon Hierusalem.

51 For we are ashamed to heare the blasphemies, our faces were couered with shame, because the strange aliantes came into the sanctuarie of the Lorde.

52 Wherfore beholde, sayth the Lorde, the time commeth that I wyl visite the images of Babylon, & through the whole land they shal mourne and fal.

53 Though Babylon clymed vp into heauen, and kept her power on hygh, yet shall I sende her destroyers, sayth the Lorde. Ierr.49.b.

54 A piteous crye (shalbe heard) from Babylon, and a great miserie from the lande of the Chaldees:

55 When the Lorde destroyeth Babylon, and when he driueth out the high stomacke and proude boasting, wherewith they haue ben as furious as the waues of the great water flooddes, & made great crakes with their woordes:

56 For the destroyers shal come vpon her, euen vpon Babylon, whiche shal take their woorthies, and breake their bowes: for the God of recompence, euen the Lord shal sufficiently recompence them,

57 Yea (sayth the Lorde) I wyl make their princes, their wise men, their cheefe rulers, their nobles, & their woorthies dronken, so that they shall sleepe an euerlasting sleepe,

and

and neuer wake: thus ſaith the king, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

58 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, The thicke wal of Babylon ſhalbe broken, and her hygh gates ſhalbe burnt vp, and the thing that the Gentiles and the people haue wrought with great trauayle and labour ſhal come to nought, and be conſumed in the fyre.

59 This is the charge that Ieremie the prophete gaue vnto Saraiah the ſonne of Neriah the ſonne of Maaſiah, when he went towarde Babylon with Zedekias the kyng of Juda, in the fourth yeere of his raigne: nowe this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Ieremie wrote in a booke al the miſerie that ſhoulde come vpon Babylon, yea and al theſe ſermons that be wrytten agaynſt Babylon,

61 And gaue Saraiah this charge, When thou commeſt vnto Babylon, ſee that thou reade theſe woordes, 62 And ſay, O Lord, thou art determined to roote out this place, ſo that neyther people nor cattell ſhall dwell there any more, but to lye waſte for euer.

63 And when thou haſt read out the booke, bynde a ſtone to it, and caſte it in the mydſt of Euphrates, 64 And ſay, Euen thus ſhal Babylon ſinke, and he thynſt downe with the burden of trouble that I wyl bryng vpon her: ſo that ſhe ſhal neuer come vp agayne. Thus farre are the preachynges of Ieremie.

to Reblath, vnto the kyng of Babylon in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon hym.

10 The kyng of Babylon alſo cauſed Zedekias ſonnes to be ſlaine before his face, yea and put al the princes of Juda to death at Reblath.

11 Moreouer, he put out the eyes of Zedekias, and cauſed him to be bounde with two chaynes, to be carried vnto Babylon, and let him lye in priſon tyl he dyed.

12 Now the tenth day of the fyfth moneth, in the nientienth yeere of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, and the kyng of Babylons ſeruauntes came vnto Hieruſalem, 13 And burnt vp the houſe of the Lorde: he burnt vp alſo the kings palace, al the houſes, and al the gorgeous buildinges in Hieruſalem.

14 And the whole hoſt of the Chaldees that C were with the cheefe captayne, brake downe al the walles of Hieruſalem rounde about.

15 As for the poore people, and ſuche folke as was yet left in the citie, which alſo were fallen to the kyng of Babylon, yea and what people as yet remained, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine carried them away priſoners.

16 But the poore people of the countrey dyd Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne leaue in the lande, to occupie the vineyardes and feeldes.

17 The Chaldees alſo brake the braſen pil- Ierr. 52. a.
lers that were in the houſe of the Lord, yea the ſeate and the braſen lauer that was in the houſe of the Lorde, and carried all the mettal of them vnto Babylon.

18 They tooke away alſo the chaldernes, Exod. 27. b.
ſhouels, fleſhhookes, ſpyncklers, ſpoones, and all the braſen veſſelles that was occupied in the ſeruice,

19 With the baſons, coleyarnes, ſpynckl-ers, pottes, candlesticckes, spoones, and cuppes, whereof some were of golde, and some of syluer.

20 The cheefe captaine tooke also the two pyllers, the lauer, the twelue brasen bullockes that stoode vnder the state whiche kyng Solomon had made in the house of the Lorde: and all the vesselles conteyned so much metal, that it might not be wayed.

21 For euery pyller was eighteene cubites high, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites, and foure fyngers thicke, and rounde.

22 Nowe vpon the rope were brasen knops, and euery knop was fiue cubites high, and vpon the knoppes were hoopes, and pomegranates round about of cleane brasse.

23 After this maner were both the pyllers fashioned with the pomegranates, whereof there were an hundred, nientie, & fyue, whiche hanged vpon the hoopes rounde about.

24 The cheefe captaine also tooke Saraiah the high priest, and Sophoniah that was cheefe next him, and the three keepers of the doore.

25 He tooke out of the citie a chamberlaine, whiche was captaine of the souldiers, and seuen men that were the kinges seruantes, which were found in the citie: and Sopher a captaine that vsed to muster the men of warre, with three score men of the countrey that were taken in the citie:

26 These Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine tooke, and carryed them to the kyng of Babylon, vnto Reblath:

27 And the kyng of Babylon caused them to be put to death at Reblath in the land of Hemath: and thus Iuda was led away captiue out of his owne lande.

28 This is the summe of the people whom Nabuchodonosor led away captiue: In the seuenth yeere of his raigne, he caryed away of the Iewes, three thousande, twentie and three, 29 In the eighteenth yeere, Nabuchodonosor carryed away from Hierusalem, eyght hundred, thirtie, and two persons.

30 In the three and twentieth yeere of Nabuchodonosor, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine tooke away seuen hundred, fourtie, and fiue Iewes prisoners. The whole summe of the prisoners is foure thousande, and syxe hundred.

31 In the thirtie and seuenth yere after that Iehoakim the king of Iuda was carryed away, in the fine and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon (the same yeere that he raigned) gaue Iehoakim the king of Iuda his pardon, and let him out of prison, 32 And spake louingly to him, and set his throne aboue the thrones of the other kings that were with hym in Babylon.

33 He changed also the clothes of his prison, yea, and dyd eate with hym all his life long.

34 And he had a continuall lyuyng geuen hym of the kyng of Babylon, euery day a certaine thing allowed him all the dayes of his life, vntyl he dyed.

The ende of the booke of the prophete Ieremie.

¶ The Lamentations of the prophete Ieremie.

The first Chapter.

It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie, and Hierusalem destroyed, that Ieremie the prophete sate weepyng, and sorowfully bewayled Hierusalem, and sighyng and howlyng with an heauie and wofull harr, sayde,

1 Alas) howe sytteth the citie so desolate, that sometyme was full of people? howe is she become like a wydowe whiche was great among nations? howe is she brought vnder tribute, that ruled landes?

2 She weepeth sore in the nyght, so that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among all her louers, there is none that geueth her any comfort, yea, her next freendes transgresse agaynst her, and are become her enimies.

3 Iuda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the heathen, she kyndeth no rest, all they that persecuted her, tooke her in strayght places, (where she coulde not escape.)

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because no

no man commeth no more to the solemne feastes: al her gates are desolate, her preistes make lamentation, her maydens are carefull, and she her selfe is in great heavynesse.

Jerem. 52.c. 5 Her enimies have benne rulers over her, and her enimies have prospered, because the Lorde hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: her children are led away captive before their enimies.

6 All the beautie of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become like hartes that finde no pasture, they are driven away before their enimie, so that they have no more power.

B 7 Now Hierusalem remembred in the time of her miserie and bare estate, al her joy and pleasure that she hath had in times past, seeing her people is brought downe under the power of their enimies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enimies stand looking at her, and laugh her Sabboth dayes to scorne.

8 Hierusalem hath sinned greevously, therefore is she come in decay: al they that had her in honour, despise her, for they have seene her filthynesse, yea, she sygheth, and is * ashamed of her selfe.

* or, and is turned backwarde.

9 Her skyrtes are defiled, she remembred not her last ende, therfore is her fal so wonderful, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lorde consyder my trouble, for mine enimie hath the upper hande.

10 The enimie hath put his hande to al the precious thinges that she had, yea, euen before her eyes came the heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, whom thou (neuertheles) hast forbydden to come within thy congregation.

Deut. 23.c. 11 Al her people seeke their bread with heavinesse, and looke what precious thing euery man hath, that geveth he for meate to save his life: consyder, O lord, and see howe vyle I am become.

2.king. 6.c. Lamen. 2.c. 12 Have ye no regarde al ye that goe forebye, beholde and see if there be any sorowe like unto mine, wherewith the Lorde hath troubled me in the daye of his fearefull wrath.

13 From above hath he sent downe a fyre into my bones, and it burneth them cruelly: he hath laid a net for my feete, & throwen me wyde open, he hath made me desolate, so that I must ever be mourneyng.

Jerem. 3.c. Lamen. 2.c. 14 The (a) yoke of my transgressions is bounde fast to his hande, they are wrapped (or wreathen) and come up about my necke: he hath caused my strength to faile, the lord hath delivered me into those handes wherout I can not quite my selfe.

(a) The bondage thorow sinne is most greevous, which therefore is called the yoke of sinnes, fastened in or to Gods hande, because by no meanes it can be shaken of or remitted, but only of Gods special grace & mercy.

15 The Lorde hath destroyed all the mightie menne that were in me, he hath proclaymed an appoynted tyme to slaughter al my best men: the Lorde hath troden downe the daughter of Juda, like as it were in a wine presse.

16 Therefore doo I weepe, and myne eyes gushe out of water: for the comforte that should quicken me, is farre fro me: my children are driven away, for why? the enimie hath gotten the upper hande.

17 Sion casteth out her handes, and there is no man to comfort her: the Lorde hath layd the enimies rounde about Jacob, and Hierusalem is become abomination in the myddest of them.

Dan. 9.d. 18 The Lorde is righteous, for I have provoked his countenance unto anger, O take heede al ye people, and consyder my heavinesse, my maydens and my young men are ledde away into captivitie.

19 I called for my lovers, but they begyled me, for my preistes and counsaylours, but they perished, euen whyle they sought for meate to save their lyves.

Lamen. 1.a. 20 Consyder (O Lorde) howe I am troubled, my woombe is disquieted, my hart turneth about in me, and I am full of heavinesse, because I rebelled stubburnly: the swoord hurteth me without, and within I am like unto death.

D 21 They heare my mourneyng, but there is none that wyl comfort me: al mine enimies have hearde of my trouble, and are gladde therof, because thou hast done it, and thou hast brought forth the tyme whiche thou calledst, whē they also shalbe like unto me.

22 Let all their wickednesse come before thee, and do thou to them as thou hast done unto me for al my trespasses: for my sorowe is very great, and my hart is heavie.

The. iii. Chapter.

I Lamen. 1.b. 1 ALas) howe hath the Lorde darkened the daughter of Sion in his wrath? as for the honour of Israel, he hath cast it downe from heaven unto the earth, and he remembred not his own (a) footstoole when he was angry?

(a) By the foote stoole, is meant the temple of Hierusalem.

2 The Lorde hath cast out all the habitations of Jacob without any favour, all the strong places of the daughter of Juda hath he broken in his wrath, and throwen them downe to the grounde, her kyngdome and her princes hath he prophaned.

(b) By the horne, that is, the power or strength.

3 In the wrath of his indignation he hath broken al the (b) horne of Israel, he hath withdrawen his right hand from ỹ enimie, yea, a flambe of fyre is kyndeled in Jacob, and and hath consumed vp al rounde about.

4 He hath bent his bowe lyke an enimie, he hath fastened his ryght hande as an aduersarie, and euery thyng that was pleasaunt to se, he hath slayne: he hath powred out his wrath lyke a fyre into the tabernacle of the daughter of Sion.

5 The Lorde is become lyke as it were an enimie, he hath deuoured Israel and all his palaces, ye al his strong holdes hath he destroyed, and fylled the daughter of Iuda with much sorowe and heauinesse.

Iere.7.b. 6 His tabernacle as a garden hath he destroyed, his solemne meetynges hath he put downe, the Lorde hath brought it to passe, that the hygh solemne feastes & sabbothes in Sion are cleane forgotten: in his heauie displeasure hath he despised the kyng and priestes.

37 The Lord hath forsaken his owne aulter, and hath abhorred his owne sanctuarie, and hath geuen the walles of their towres into the handes of their enimie: their enimies made a noyse in the house of the Lord, as it had ben a solemne feast day.

8 The Lorde thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter of Sion, he spread out his lyne, and dyd not in his hande tyll he had destroyed them: therefore mourne the turrettes, and the broken walles fal downe together.

9 Her gates are sunke downe to the ground, her barres are broken and smitten in sunder, her king & princes (are carried away) to the Gentiles: they haue not the lawe, neyther her prophets haue any vision from the Lorde.

Iere.52.b.

10 The senatours of the daughter Sion syt vpon the grounde in silence, they haue strawed ashes vpon their heades, and gyrded them selues with sackcloth, the maydens of Hierusalem hang downe their heades to the grounde.

Lam.1.a.

11 Myne eyes doo fayle through weeppyng, my bowelles doo swel, my lyuer is powred vpon the earth, for the great hurt of the daughter of my people, seeyng the children and babes dyd sowne in the streetes of the citie.

12 They haue said to their mothers, Where is * bread and drynke? When they fell downe as wounded in the streetes of the citie, and when they died in their mothers bosome.

* Or, wheat & wyne.

13 What shall I take to witnesse agaynst thee, or what shal I like to ther, O daughter Hierusalem? To whom shal I compare thee, O thou daughter Sion, to comfort thee withal? thy hart is lyke a mayne sea, who may heale thee?

14 Thy (c) prophets haue looked out vaine and foolishe thinges for thee, they haue not shewed thee of thy wickednes, to kepe thee from captiuitie: but they haue seene out for thee * burdens of vanitie and banishment.

15 Al they that goe by the way, clap their handes at thee, hissyng and waggyng their heades vpon the daughter Hierusalem (and say,) Is this the citie that men cal so faire, (and) the ioy of the whole earth?

16 Al thyne enimies gape vpon thee, they hisse and grynde their teethe, saying, Let vs deuoure, for the tyme that we looked for is come, we haue founde and seene it.

17 The Lord hath fulfylled the thyng that he was purposed to doo, and performed his woorde that he had * deuised long ago: he hath destroyed and not spared, he hath caused thine aduersarie to triumphe ouer thee, and set vp the horne of thyne enimie.

18 Their hart cried vnto the Lord, O thou * citie of the daughter Sion, let thy teares runne downe lyke a ryuer day and nyght, rest not, and let not the apple of thyne eye leaue of.

19 Stande vp, crye in the nyght in the beginning of the watch, powre out thine hart lyke water before the Lorde: lyft vp thyne handes towardes him, for the lyues of thy young chyldren that dye of hunger in the streetes.

20 Behold, O Lord, and consyder to whom thou hast donne thus: shal the women then eate their owne fruite, euen chyldren of a spanne long? shall the priestes and prophetes be slayne in the sanctuarie of the Lorde?

21 Young and olde lye through the streetes vpon the grounde, my maydens and young men are slaine with the sword, whom thou in the day of thy wrathful indignation hast put to death, yea euen thou hast put them to death, and not spared them.

22 My * terrours that are round about me hast thou called as it were to a feast day, so that in the day of the Lordes wrath none escaped, neither was any left behind: those that I haue brought vp & nourished, hath myne enimie destroyed.

* Or, enimies, whom I feared.

The.iii. Chapter.

1 I Am the man that through the rod of his wrath haue experience of misery.

2 He droue me forth, & led me, yea into darkenesse, but not into lyght.

3 Surely agaynst me is he turned, he turneth his hande dayly (agaynst me.)

4 My.

(c) Ieremy.5.b. The false prophetes tooke vpon them the name of seers, whiche was proper to the true prophetes: but their vayne burdens, that is their false prophecies brought the people vnder the greeuous burden of affliction and banishment.

* Or, dayne prophecies.

* Or, commaunded. Deut 4.c.

* Or, O thou wal.

4 My flesshe and my skynne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he bruysed.
5 He hath buylded agaynst me, and closed me in with gal and trauayle.
6 He hath set me in darknesse, as they that be dead (for) euer.
7 He hath hedged me in, that I can not get out, and he hath layde heauie lynkes vpon me.
8 Though I crie and cal piteously, yet heareth he not my prayer.
9 He hath stopped vp my wayes with squared stones, and made my pathes crooked.
10 He layeth wayte for me (lyke) a Beare, and (as) a Lion in a hole.
11 He hath marred my wayes, and broken me in peeces, he hath layde me waste.
12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marke to * shoote at.

* or, for the arowe.

13 The arrowes of his quiuer hath he shot, euen into my reynes.
14 I am laughed to scorne of al my people, they make songes vpon me al the day long.
15 He hath fylled me with bytternesse, and made me drunken with woormewood.
16 He hath smitten my teeth in peeces with stones, and rouled me in the dust.
17 My soule departed from peace: I forgeat al good thynges.
18 And I sayde, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lorde.
19 O remember yet my miserie & my trouble, the woormewood, and the gal.
20 Yea in remembryng my soule doeth styl remember them, & is humbled within me.
21 I consyder these thynges in my hart, and I geat hope agayne.
22 (Namely) it is of the Lordes mercies that we are not vtterly consumed, for truely his pitiful compassion hath not ceassed.
23 Newe mercies shal the Lord shewe vpon thee earlie in the day springing, (O Lord) great is thy faythfulnesse.
24 The Lord is my portion, sayth my soule, therefore wyl I hope in hym.
25 O howe good is the Lorde vnto them that put their trust in hym, and to the soule that seeketh after hym.
26 The good man with stylnesse and patience tarrieth for the health of the Lorde.
27 Good is it for a man to take the yoke vpon him from his youth vp.
28 He sytteth alone, he holdeth hym styll, because he hath taken ((the Lordes yoke) vpon hym.
29 He layeth his * face vpon the earth, yf there happen to be any hope.

* or, mouth

30 He offereth his cheeke to the smyter, he wyl be content with reproches.
31 For the Lorde wyll not forsake for euer,
32 But though he punishe, yet according to the multitude of his mercies he recreiueth to grace agayne. 1. Sam. 2. b
33 For he doeth not plague wyllyngly, nor afflicte the chyldren of men, 34 To treade all the prisoners of the earth vnder his feete,
35 To decline the iudgement of man before the moste hygh,
36 To condemne a man in his cause: "the Lorde hath not pleasure in suche thynges. "the Lord seeth it not.
37 What is he then that sayeth and it commeth to passe, and the Lorde commaundeth it not?
38 Out of the mouth of the most high, goeth not euil and good?
39 Wherefore then mourneth the lyuyng man? let him mourne for his owne synne.
40 Let vs looke wel vpon our wayes, and remember our selues, and turne agayne to the Lorde. f Iob. 31. b. Psal. 14. a 41 Let vs lyfte our hartes with our handes vnto God (that is) in the heauens.
42 We haue synned and rebelled, (therfore) hast thou not spared.
43 Thou hast couered vs in thy wrath, and persecuted vs: thou hast slayne without any fauour.
44 Thou hast hid thee selfe in a cloud, that our prayers shoulde not goe through. Eccl. 35. b
45 Thou hast made vs as the offcorayng and refuse in the myddest of the people.
46 Al our enimies gape vpon vs.
47 Feare and a snare is come vpon vs, yea, desolation and destruction. Lamen. 3. b 48 Whole riuers of water gush out of mine eyes for the hurt of the daughter of my people.
49 Mine eye runneth, and can not ceasse, for there is no rest, 50 Til the Lord looke downe from heauen and consyder.
51 Myne eyes breaketh my hart because of al the daughters of my citie. g
52 Myne enimies hunted me out sharply like a birde, yea and that without a cause.
53 They haue shut vp my life in a dungeon, and cast stones vpon me.
54 The waters flowed ouer my head: then thought I (nowe) am I vndone.
55 I called vpon thy name, O Lorde, out of the deepe pyt.
56 Thou hast heard my voyce, withdrawe not thine eare from my syghyng & crying.
57 Thou drewest nigh vnto me when I called vpon thee: and hast sayde, Feare not.
58 Thou (O Lorde) hast maintayned the cause of my soule, & hast redeemed my lyfe.
59 O Lorde thou hast seene my wrong, take thou my cause vpon thee.

60 Thou

60 Thou hast seene al their vengeance, and al their deuises against me.
61 Thou hast heard their despiteful woꝛdes, O Loꝛde, yea and al their imaginations against me:
62 The lippes of them that rise against me, and their deuises that they take against me al the day long.
63 Beholde (also) their sytting downe and their rising vp, (nowe) I am their song.
64 Rewarde them, O Loꝛde, according to the woꝛkes of their handes.
65 Geue them * an obstinate hart, euen thy curse. * Or, hyding of hart.
66 Persecute them, O Loꝛde, with thyne indignation, and roote them out from vnder the heauen.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1 O howe is the golde become so dimme? the moste fine golde so changed? and the stones of the sanctuarie are scattered in the cozner of euery streete?
2 The children of Sion that were alway in honour, and * clothed with the moste precious golde: howe are they now become like the earthen vesselles, the woꝛke of the potters hande. * Or, compared to.
3 The dragons geue their young ones sucke with bare breastes: but the daughter of my people is cruell, lyke the Estriches in the wyldernesse.
4 The tongues of the sucking childe cleaue to the roofe of their mouthes foꝛ very thirst: the young children aske bread, but there is no man that geueth it them.
5 They that were wont to fare delicately perish in the streetes: they that (afore) were brought vp in purple, make (now) much of dounge.
6 The sinne of the daughter of my people, is become greater then the (a) wickednesse of Sodome, that sodaynely was destroyed, and * not taken with handes. (a) Gen. 19. * Or, layde.
7 Her "abstayners were whyter then the snowe oꝛ mylke, their colour was freashe, rudde as coꝛal, their beautie lyke the Sapphire. " Or, Nazarites.
8 (But nowe) their faces be very blacke, insomuch that thou shouldest not know them in the streetes: their skynne cleaueth to their bones, it is withered and become like a drie stocke.
9 They that be slayne with the swoꝛde, are happier then suche as dye of hunger, foꝛ these perishe away as they were strycken through foꝛ the (lacke) of the fruites of the fielde.
10 The women which (of nature) are pitiful, haue sodden their owne children with their handes, that they might be their meate in the (miserable) destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 The Loꝛde hath performed his heauie wraeth, he hath poured out the fiersnesse of his displeasure: he hath kyndled a fyre in Sion, whiche hath consumed the fundations thereof.
12 Neyther the kynges of the earth, noꝛ all the inhabitours of the woꝛlde, would haue beleeued that the enimie and aduersarie shoulde haue come in at the gates of Hierusalem. Lamen. 2. a.
13 (Whiche neuertheleſſe is come to passe) foꝛ the sinne of her pꝛophetes, and foꝛ the wickednesse of her pꝛiestes, that haue shed innocentes blood in the middest of her.
14 As blinde men went they stumbling in the streetes, and stayned them selues with blood, (so that the heathen) would not touch their garmentes. C Gene. 9. a.
15 But they cryed vnto them, Flee ye polluted, away, geat you hence, touche not: foꝛ they are vncleane, and be remoued, yea they haue sayde among the heathen, They shal no moꝛe dwel there.
16 The * countenance of the Loꝛde hath banished them, and shall neuer looke moꝛe vpon them: foꝛ they (them selues) neyther * regarded the pꝛiestes, noꝛ pitied their elders. * Or, the wrath. * Or, reuerenced.
17 Wherefoꝛe our eyes fayled vs, whyles we yet looked foꝛ our vayne helpe, seeing we euer wayted vpon a people that coulde do vs no good.
18 They lay so sharpe waite foꝛ vs, that we can not goe safe vpon the streetes, foꝛ our ende is at hande, our dayes are fulfylled, our ende is come.
19 Our persecutours are swyfter then the Egles of the * ayre: they followed vpon vs euer the mountaynes, and layde wayte foꝛ vs in the wyldernesse. * Or, heauen. * Or, nose thyrlles.
20 The (very) breath (b) of our * mouth (euen) the annoynted of the Loꝛd (him selfe) was taken in their net, of whom we sayde, Vnder his shadowe we shalbe preserued aliue among the heathen. (b) The breath, that is, the lyfe, meanyng the kyng, who is called the lyfe of the people, foꝛ that the people are lyke an headlesse body that hath no lyfe in it, when they be left without a kyng oꝛ gouernour.
21 And thou, O daughter Edom that dwellest in the lande of Uz, be glad and reioyce, foꝛ the cuppe shall come vnto thee also, thou shalt be dronken, and * discouer thy nakednesse. * Or, thou shalt vomite.
22 Thy sinnes are fully punished, O thou daughter Sion, he wyll no moꝛe carye thee away into captiuitie: but thy wickednesse, O daughter Edom, shal he visite, and wyl discouer thy sinnes.

The.xlix. Chapter.

The prayer of Ieremie.

א 1 CAll to remembrance, (O Lorde) what is come vpon vs, consyder and see our * confusion.

* or, reproche.

2 Our inheritance is turned to the strangers, (and) our houses to the aliantes.

3 We are vnderlings without fathers, and our mothers are as wydowes.

4 We haue drunken our water for money, and our wood haue we by sale.

5 Our neckes are vnder persecution, we are weery, and haue no rest.

6 (Aforetyme) we yelded our selues to the Egyptians (and nowe) to the Assyrians, only that we might haue bread ynough.

ב 7 Our fathers (which nowe are gone) haue sinned, and we muste beare theyr wickednesse.

Ierem. 31. c. Ezech. 18. a.

8 Seruants haue the rule of vs, and no man deliuereth vs out of their handes.

* or, bread. * or, sword.

9 We must gett our * lyuing with the peryl of our liues, because of the * drouth of the wildernesse.

10 Our skinne is made blacke lyke as an ouen, for very sore hunger.

11 They rauished the wiues in Sion, and the maydens in the cities of Iuda.

12 The princes are hanged vp with theyr (enimies) hand, they haue not honoured the olde sage mens faces, 13 They haue taken young men to grinde, and the boyes fainted vnder the (burdens) of wood.

14 The elders haue ceassed from the gates, and the young men from theyr songes. ג

15 The ioy of our hart is gone, our * melodious meetyng is turned into mourning. * or, our banket.

16 The * garland of our head is fallen: alas that euer we sinned. * or, crowne.

17 Therefore our hart is full of heauinesse, and for these thinges our eyes are dymme. Ierem. 31. d.

18 Because of the hyll of Sion that is destroyed: (insomuche that) the foxes runne vpon it.

19 But thou, O Lorde, remaynest for euer, and thy seate woilde without ende.

20 Wherfore wylt thou styl forget vs, and forsake vs so long?

21 O Lorde, turne thou vs vnto thee, and (so) shal we be turned, renue our dayes as in olde times:

22 But thou hast banished vs vtterly, and hast ben exceedingly displeased at vs.

(a) After the Iubilee, in whiche yeere the booke of the lawe was found, which was the. 18. yeere of Iosias, so that. 25 yeeres after this booke was founde, Iechonias was led away captiue with Ezechiel (and many of the people) who the fift yeere after sawe these visions.

א 1 IT came to passe in the (a) thyrtieth yeere in ỹ fourth (moneth) in ỹ fyfth dayof the moneth, that (I beyng in the middes of the captiuitie, by the ryuer Chebar) the heauens were opened, and I sawe visions of God:

2 In the fifth (day) of the moneth, whiche was the fifth yeere of kyng Ioakims captiuitie,

3 The worde of the Lorde came to Ezechiel the priest, the sonne of Buzi, in the lande of the Chaldeans by the ryuer Chebar, where the hand of the Lorde was vpon hym.

4 And I looked, and behold a stormie wind came out of the north, a great cloude, and a fyre folowyng it selfe (in the cloude) and a brightnesse rounde about it, and owt of the middes therof as the colour of Amber out of the middes of the fyre.

(b) Which were foure Cherubins that represented the glory of God, as Ezech. 1.

5 And out of the middes therof, the likenesse of foure (b) beastes (appeared) and this was their fourme: They had ỹ likenes of a man.

6 And

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one of them had foure winges.

7 Their feete were straighte feete, and the soles of their feete like the sole of calues feete, and they glistred as the appearance of brasse burnished.

8 From vnder their winges vppon all the foure * corners they had mens handes: and they foure had their faces & their winges.

9 Their winges were ioyned one to another: when they went, they looked not backe, but euery one went straight forward.

10 But (touching) the similitude of their faces, they foure had the (e) face of a man, and the face of a lion on the ryght syde, and they foure had the face of an Oxe on the left syde, they foure also had the face of an Eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their winges were spread out aboue, (so that) two (winges) of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two (wynges) couered (euery one of) their bodies.

12 Euery one went straight forwarde: (d) whyther as the spirite led them, thyther they went, and returned not in their going.

13 And the fashion of the beastes, their appearance was like coales of fyre, burnyng like the appearance of torches, it ranne among the beastes, and the fyre gaue a glister, and out of the fyre there went lightnyng.

14 And the beastes ranne, and returned like lightning.

15 When I had consydered the beastes, beholde a wheele vpon the earth nygh to the beastes, to * euery of the foure before his face.

16 The fashion and woorke of the wheeles was like the colour of (e) Tharsis, and they foure had one fashion, and their fashion and their woorke (was) as though it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.

17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sydes: they turned not when they went.

18 They had (f) ringes, and height, and were fearefull to beholde: and their ringes were full of eyes rounde about them foure.

19 When the beastes went, the wheeles went also by them: and when the beastes were lyft vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyft vp.

20 Whyther soeuer the spirite (was) to goe, they went, and thyther (was) the spirite of the wheeles to goe, and the wheeles were lyft vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.

21 When the beastes went, they went, and when they stoode, they stoode, and when they were lyfted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyfted vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.

22 And the similitude of the firmament vppon the heades of the beastes, was like the colour of christal woonderfull, spread ouer their heades aboue. D

23 And vnder the firmament their winges were straighte (foorth) one towardes another, euery one had two couering them, and (g) euery one had two couering them, (euen) their bodies.

24 And when they went, I hearde the noyse of their winges, like the noise of many waters as the voyce of the almighty, the voyce of speache as the noyse of an hoast: when the stoode, they let downe their winges.

25 And there was a voyce from the firmament that was ouer their heades, when they stood, and had let downe their wings.

26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was the fashion of a throne like a Saphire stone: and vpon the similitude of the throne by appearance, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it.

27 And I sawe as the appearance of Amber (and) as the similitude of fyre round about within, from the appearance of his loynes vpwarde: and from the appearance of his loynes and downewarde I sawe as the lykenesse of fyre, and brightnesse rounde about it.

28 As the likenesse of a bowe that is in a cloude in the day of rayne, so was the appearance of the brightnesse rounde about: this was the appearance of the similitude of the glory of the Lorde, and when I sawe it, I (h) fel vpon my face, and heard one vnto the voyce of one (i) that spake.

(g) He noteth two maner of couerings, the one with wings, stretched vpward to couer their faces, & the other with the neather winges to couer their bodyes.

(h) Considering the maiestie of god, and the weaknesse of flesh.

(i) That is, the lorde.

The ii. Chapter.

The prophete is sent to cal the people from their errour.

1 AND then sayde he vnto me, Stand vp vpon thy feete (O thou sonne of man) and I wyl talke with thee. A

2 And the spirite entred into me when he had spoken vnto me, and set me vppon my feete, so that I heard him that spake vnto me.

3 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, I sende thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious people, whiche haue rebelled against me, both they and their forefathers haue wickedly behaued them selues against me, euen vnto this very day.

4 For they are children of * harde face, and

* Or, impudent.

and ſtiffe hart, I doo ſend thee vnto them, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God.

5 And whether they wyl heare or refuſe (for they are a rebellious houſe) yet they may knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

6 And thou ſonne of man feare them not, neither be afrayde of their woordes, for "bryers and thornes are with thee, and thou doeſt dwell among ſcorpions: feare not their words, nor be abaſhed at their lokes, for they are a rebellious houſe.

" or, rebelles.

7 And thou ſhalt ſpeake my woordes vnto them, whether they wyl heare or refuſe, for they are rebellious.

8 Therfore thou ſonne of man, • obey thou al thinges that I ſay vnto thee, and be not thou rebellious lyke the rebellious houſe: open thy mouth, and (a) eate that I geue thee.

• or, heare.

(a) That is, print in thy memorie, or receyue in thyne hart al my words, as Ezech. 3. b

9 And I looked, and beholde a hande was ſent vnto me, and loe, in it was a roule of a booke.

10 And he opened it before me, and it was written within and without, and there was written therein (b) lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

(b) That is, gods iudgementes a. gaynſt the wicked.

The. iii. Chapter.

1. The prophete beyng feede with the woorde of God, and with the conſtant boldneſſe of the ſpirite, is ſent vnto the people that were in captiuitie. 17. The office of true preachers.

3 1 AFter this ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, eate what ſo euer thou fyndeſt, eate this roule, and goe thy way, and ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he fedde me with this roule.

3 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thy belly ſhall eate, and thy bowels ſhalt thou fyll with this roule that I geue thee: then did I eate, and it was in my mouth as ſweete as hony.

4 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, goe, great thee vnto the houſe of Iſrael, and declare my woordes vnto them.

Pſal. 19. b.

5 For not to a people of "proſounde lippes and harde language art thou ſent, but vnto the houſe of Iſrael:

" ſtrange ſpeache.

6 Not to many nations of a ſtrange ſpeache and hard languages, whoſe woordes thou vnderſtandeſt not: certainely yf I had ſent thee vnto them, they woulde haue hearkened vnto thee.

7 But the houſe of Iſrael wyl not hearken vnto thee, for they wyll not hearken vnto me: For al the houſe of Iſrael haue ſtiffe foreheades, and ſtubborne hartes.

8 Beholde therefore, I haue made thy face ſtrong againſt their faces, and thy forehead ſtrong againſt their foreheades.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flint ſtone haue I made thy forehead: thou ſhalt not feare them, nor be abaſhed at their lookes: for they are a rebellious houſe.

10 He ſayd moreouer vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, al my woordes that I ſhal ſpeake vnto thee receyue in thyne hart, and hearken with thyne eares.

11 And goe, great thee to the captiuitie, to the children of thy people, & thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto them, and ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God: but ſurely they wyll not heare, neither will they leaue of.

12 With that the ſpirite tooke me vp, and I hearde behinde me a voyce of a great ruſhing, (to wit,) Bleſſed be the glory of Iehouah from his place.

13 (I hearde) alſo the noyſe of the winges of the beaſtes ioyning one with another, and the ratling of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noyſe of great ruſhing.

14 Nowe when the ſpirite lyft me vp and tooke me away, I went in bitternes and furie of my ſpirite: but the hande of the Lorde vpon me was ſtrong.

15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I ſate where they ſate, and I remayned there ſeuen dayes aſtoniſhed among them.

16 And when the ſeuen dayes were expired, the Lorde ſayde vnto me, 17 Thou ſonne of man, I haue made thee Ezech. 33. watchman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therefore thou ſhalt heare the woorde at my mouth, and geue them warning from me.

18 When I ſhal ſay vnto the wicked, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and thou geueſt not him warning, nor ſpeakeſt to admoniſhe the wicked of his euill way, & ſo to liue: then ſhal the ſame vngodly man die in his owne vnrighteouſneſſe, but his blood will I require of thyne hande.

19 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou geue warning vnto the wicked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlyneſſe & from his wicked way: he ſhal dye in his owne wickednes, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

20 Agayne, if a righteous man turne from his righteouſneſſe, and doo the thing that is euyll, I wyll lay a ſtumblyng blocke before him: and he ſhall dye, becauſe thou haſt not geuen him warning, dye ſhal he in his owne ſinne, ſo that his righteouſneſſe which he hath done ſhal not be thought vpon: but his blood wyl I require at thyne hande.

21 For-

21 Neuertheleſſe yf thou admoniſhe that righteous man, that the righteous ſinne not, and ſo the righteous do not ſinne: then ſhalt he lyue, becauſe he hath receiued thy warnyng, and thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

22 And the hande of the Lorde was there vpon me, and he ſayde vnto me, * Stande vp, and goe into the feelde, that I may there talke with thee.

23 So when I had riſen vp, and gone forth into the feelde, beholde, the (a) glory of the Lorde ſtoode there, lyke the glory whiche
I ſawe by the riuer Chebar: then fell I downe vpon my face.

24 And the ſpirite came into me, which ſet me vp vpon my feete, and ſpake vnto me, and ſayde vnto me, * Goe thy way, and ſhut thee ſelfe in thy houſe.

25 Beholde, O thou ſonne of man, * they haue prepared bandes againſt thee, & they will binde thee with them, and thou ſhalt not goe out among them.

26 And I wyl make thy tongue (b) cleaue to the roofe of thy mouth, that thou ſhalt be dumbe, & not be as a reproouer vnto them:
for they are a rebellious houſe.

27 But when I ſpeake vnto thee, I wil open thy mouth, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Who ſo heareth, let him heare, who ſo leaueth of, let him leaue: for they are a rebellious houſe.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1. The ſiege of the citie of Hieruſalem is ſignified. 9. The long continuance of the captiuitie of Iſrael. 16. A hunger is propheſied to come in the captiuitie.

1 THOV ſonne of man, take thee a tyle ſtone, and lay it before thee, and portray vpon it the citie Hieruſalem,

2 And lay ſiege againſt it, and builde a fort againſt it, and caſt a mount againſt it: ſet the campe alſo againſt it, and lay engins of warre againſt it rounde about.

3 Moreouer, take an iron panne, and ſet it betwyxt thee and the citie for an iron wall, then ſet thy face toward it to beſiege it, and make an aſſault againſt it: this ſhalbe a token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

4 But thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon thy left ſyde, and lay the ſinne (a) of the houſe of Iſrael vpon it: (according) to the number of the dayes that thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon it, thou ſhalt beare their iniquitie.

5 For I haue layde vpon thee the yeeres of their iniquitie, according to the number of the dayes (euen) three hundred and ninetie dayes, ſo ſhalt thou beare the iniquitie of the houſe of Iſrael.

6 When thou haſt fulfylled theſe dayes, (lye downe againe) and ſleepe vpon thy (b) right ſide, and beare the ſinnes of the houſe of Iuda: fourtie dayes haue I appointed thee, (c) a day for a yeere, (euen) a day for a yeere.

7 Therefore ſet nowe thy face towarde the ſiege of Hieruſalem, and diſcouer thyne arme, that thou mayeſt propheſie againſt it.

8 Beholde, I wil lay * chaynes vpon thee, that thou ſhalt not turne thee from one ſide to another, tyl thou haſt ended the dayes of thy beſiegyng.

9 Wherefore take vnto thee wheate, barly, beanes, tinſels, millet, and fitches, and put theſe together in a veſſel, and make thee loaues of breade therof, according to the number of the dayes * that thou muſt lye vpon thy ſide, that thou mayeſt haue bread to eate for three hundred and ninetie dayes.

10 And thy meate that thou eateſt (ſhalbe) by weight, (namely) twentie ſicles euery day: and from time to time ſhalt thou eate therof.

11 Thou ſhalt drinke alſo water by meaſure, (namely) the ſyxth (part) of an hin: from tyme to tyme ſhalt thou drynke.

12 Barley cakes ſhalt thou eate, and them ſhalt thou bake in (d) mans doung before their eyes.

13 And with that ſayde the Lorde, Euen thus ſhal the children of Iſrael eate their defiled bread among the Gentiles whyther I wyl caſt them.

14 Then ſayde I, Oh Lorde God, beholde, my ſoule was yet neuer ſtayned, for fro my youth vp vnto this houre, I did neuer eate of a dead carkaſſe, or of that whiche was ſlaine of wilde beaſtes, neyther came there euer any vncleane fleſhe in my mouth.

15 (Whereunto) he anſwered me, Lo I will graunt thee (e) cowcakes in ſtede of mans doung, and thou ſhalt make thy bread with them.

16 And he ſayde vnto me, Beholde thou ſonne of man, I wyl breake the (f) ſtaffe of bread in Hieruſalem, and they ſhall eate their bread with weyght and with care, and their water in meaſure and aſtonyſhment ſhal they drinke, 17 That they hauyng a lacke of bread and water, may be aſtonied one at another, and be conſumed in their iniquitie.

The. v. Chapter.

1. The ſigne of the heares, by which is ſignified the deſtruction of the people. 6. The cauſes of the anger of God towarde the people.

(a) Meaning the viſion of the Cherubim and the wheeles.

(b) VVhiche declared Ioſuah, who had nowe frō the time of Ioſuah ſlept in their ſinnes fourtie yeeres.

* Or, that thou muſt ſleepe.

(b) To wyt, of that citie which he had purtrayed vpon the brick, Chap. 4. by the tyre he meaneth famine & pestilence, wherwith one part perished during the siege of Nabuchodonosor: by the sworde, those that were slayne when Zedekias fledde, those that were caried away captiue: & by the scattring into the wind, those that fled into Egypt, and into other partes after the citie was taken.

(c) Because ye haue encreased the number of your idols, & superstitions; more then the gentiles.

5 1 AND thou sonne of man, take thee then a sharpe knife (namely) a barbers rasour, take that to thee, and cause it to (a) passe vpon thy head & vpon thy bearde: then take thee weyght of scales and diuide (the heares.)

2 Thou shalt burne with fire the third part in the middes of the (b) citie when the dayes of the siege are fulfilled, and thou shalt take the other thirde part and smite about it with a knife, and the last thirde part thou shalt scatter in the wynde, and I wyl draw out a swoorde after them.

3 Thou shalt also take therof a fewe in number, and binde them in thy lap.

4 Of them yet shalt thou take, & cast them into the middest of the fire, and burne them in the fyre: therof shall a fyre come forth into al the house of Israel.

5 Moreouer, thus saith the lord God, This same is Hierusalem, whiche I set in the middes of nations and countreyes rounde about her.

6 But she hath changed my iudgementes into wickednesse more then the nations, and my statutes more then the countreys that are rounde about her: for they haue refused my iudgementes and my statutes, and haue not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lorde GOD, For your (c) multiplying more then the Gentiles that dwel rounde about you, and because ye haue not walked in my lawes, neyther haue ye kept myne ordinances, no, ye haue not done accordyng to the iudgementes of the nations that are round about you:

8 Therfore thus saith the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I wyll also (some) against thee, I myne selfe I say: for in the middest of thee wyl I execute iudgement in the sight of the heathen.

9 And I wyll do in thee as I neuer dyd (before) and as I wil neuer do the lyke from that tyme forth, and that because of al thyne abominations.

10 For in the middest of thee the fathers shal eate their owne sonnes, and the sonnes shal eate their owne fathers, and I wyll execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnant of thee wyll I scatter into al the windes.

11 Wherfore, as truely as I lyue, saith the Lord God, Surely seeing thou hast defiled my sanctuary with al maner of abominations, and with al shamefull offences:

12 For this cause wyll I also destroy thee, myne eye shal not spare thee, neyther wyll I haue any pitie.

13 One thirde part of thee shall dye of the pestilence, and shalbe consumed of hunger in the middest of thee, another thirde part shalbe slayne downe rounde about thee with the swoorde, the other thirde part (namely) wyl I scatter about towarde al the windes, & drawe out a swoorde after them.

14 Thus wyll myne indignation be performed, & I will cause my wrath to cease among them, and I wyl be (d) comforted: so that when I haue fulfylled myne anger against them, they shal knowe that I the Lorde with a feruent iealousie haue spoken it.

15 Moreouer, I wyl make thee waste, and a reproche among al the heathen that dwell about thee, in the sight of all them that go by thee.

16 So thou shalt be a reproche and shame, a chastisement and a wondring vnto the nations that are rounde about thee, when I shal execute iudgementes in thee, in anger and in wrath, and in sharpe rebukes, I the Lorde haue spoken it.

17 When I shall shoote among them the perilous (e) dartes of hunger, whiche shalbe for their destruction, therefore shall I shoote them, because I wyll destroy you, I wyl encrease hunger vpon you, and wyll breake your staffe of bread.

18 Plagues wyll I sende vpon you, yea and wycked beastes also to spoyle thee, pestilence and bloodshedding shal come vpon thee, and the swoorde wyll I bryng ouer thee: I the Lorde haue spoken it.

The. vi. Chapter.

1. He sheweth that the people shalbe plagued for the sinne of idolatrie.

6 1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face to the mountaynes of Israel, and prophesie against them,

3 And say, Heare the woorde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaynes of Israel, Thus hath the Lord God spoken to the (a) mountaynes, hylles, riuers, and dales, Beholde (euen I) wyl bryng a swoorde vpon you, and I will destroy your high places.

4 Your aulters shalbe destroyed, and your images of the sunne shalbe broken downe, your slayne men wyll I cast downe before your idols.

5 And the dead carcalles of the children of Israel wyll I cast before their idolles, your bones will I scatter rounde about your aulters.

shalbe desolate, and the high places layde waste, so that your aulters shalbe made waste and desolate, your idols shalbe broken • and abolished, and your images of the sunne shalbe cut downe, & your workes quite taken away.

7 The slaine shal fal among you: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

8 Yet wyl I leaue a remnant, that you may haue (some) that shal escape the sword among the nations, when ye shalbe scattered through the countreys.

9 And they that escape of you shall thinke vpon me among the heathen where they shalbe in captiuitie, because I haue benne • broken: for their whoryshe hart whiche hath departed from me, and for their eyes that haue gone a whoryng after their idols: and • they shalbe abhorred before their owne eyes for the enyls whiche they haue committed in al their abominations.

10 And they shal know that I am the Lord, and that I haue not sayde in vayne, that I would doo this euyl vnto them.

11 Thus sayth the Lorde God, • (b) Smite thyne handes togeather, and stampe with thy feete, and say, Alo wooth all the abominations and wickednesses of the house of Israel: for they shal fall with the sword, with hunger, and with pestilence.

12 Who so is farre of, shall dye of the pestilence, he that is nighat hande shal perishe with the swoorde, and the remnant that are besieged shal dye of hunger: thus wyl I satisfye my wrathful displeasure vpon them.

13 And so shal ye know that I am the Lord, when their slaine men shalbe among their idols rounde about their aulters, vpon euery hygh hil, and toppes of mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree, and vnder euery thicke oke, (eoen) in the places where they dyd offer sweete sauour to all their idols.

14 I wyl stretche mine hand out vpon them, and wyl make the lande waste and desolat, (c) from the wyldernesse vnto Diblath, through al their habitations: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The.vii.Chapter.

2. The ende of al the lande of Israel shal sodaynly comme. 20. The cause of the destruction thereof. 23. The prophete is commanded to shewe the summe of the euyls that are at hande.

1 THe woord of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

2 And thou sonne of man, thus sayeth the Lorde God, An ende is comme vnto the lande of Israel: yea verily the ende commeth vpon the fours corners of the lande.

3 Nowe shal the ende come vppon thee: for I wyl sende my wrath vppon thee, and wyl • pounishe thee according to thy wayes, and • reward thee after al thyne abominations.

4 Myne eye shall not spare thee, neyther wyll I haue pitie, but • reward thee according vnto thy wayes, and declare thyne abominations: then shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Behold, one euyl shal comme after another:

6 The ende is here, the ende (I say) is come, it watcheth for thee: beholde it is comme (already.)

7 The (a) mornyng is comme vnto thee that dwellest in the lande, the tyme is at hande, the day of trouble is harde by, and not the (b) sounding agayns of the mountaynes.

8 Nowe I wyl shortly powre out my fore displeasure ouer thee, and fulfyl my wrath vppon thee: I wyll iudge thee after thy wayes, and recompence thee al thyne abominations.

9 Myne eye shall not spare, neyther wyl I haue pitie, but • reward thee after thy wayes, and thyne abominations shalbe in the middest of thee: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde that smiteth.

10 Beholde the day, beholde it is comme, the mornyng is gonne forth, the rodde (c) flowrisheth, pryde hath budded.

12 The time commeth, the day draweth nie: who so byeth, let him not reioyce, he that selleth, let him not be sory: for wyth wrath is vpon al the multitude thereof.

13 So that the seller shal not come agayne to the thing that is solde, although their life be (d) yet with the lyuyng: for when the prophesie was preached vnto al the people, none returned, no man shall (e) strengthen him selfe in the iniquitie of his lyfe.

The.viii.Chapter.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Ieconias, ſo that there was fourteene monethes betwixt the firſt viſyon and this.

2. An appearance of the ſimilitude of God. 3. Ezechiel is brought to Hieruſalem in the ſpirite. 6. The Lorde ſheweth the idolatries of the houſe of Iſrael, and cheefely of the prieſtes.

1 AND it was in the (a) firſt yeere, in the firſt (moneth,) in the fifth (day) of the moneth, I ſate in my houſe, and the elders of Iuda ſate before me, and the hande of the Lorde God fel there vpon me.

2 Then I beheld, and lo (there was) a likeneſſe as the appearance of fyre: from the appearance of his loynes downwarde, fyre: and from his loynes vpwarde as the appearance of bryghtneſſe, like (the colour of) amber.

3 And he ſtreatched out the likeneſſe of an hande, and tooke me by an hearie locke of my head, and the ſpirite lift me vp betwixt earth and heauen, and (b) brought me in a Deuine viſion to Hieruſalem, into the entry of the inner (c) gate that lyeth towarde the northe, where remained the * image of (d) emulation (and) of gayne.

(b) This was in the ſpirit, and not in body.

(c) The porch or court where the people aſſembled.

* or, idol.

(d) Of whom Iaroua, for cauſe of diſpleaſel pleaſed gyuyng cauſe it was ſet vp and woo thereof for gayne & increaſe of their offrings for the prieſtes, and of their carel and inſtance for the people.

4 And beholde, the glorye of the God of Iſrael (was) in the ſame place, (euen) as I had ſeene it afore in the feelde.

5 And he ſaid vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, lyft vp thyne eyes nowe towarde the north: then lyft I vp myne eyes towarde the north, and beholde northwarde at the gate of the (c) aulter this * image of emulation (was) in the entrye.

(e) That was in the court where the people had marke to ſhut out to God.

* or, idol.

6 And he ſaide furthermore vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, ſeeſt thou not what theſe doe (namely) the great abominations that the houſe of Iſrael commit in this place, to driue me from my ſanctuarie? But turne thee about, and thou ſhalt ſee yet greater abominations.

7 And with that brought he me to the court gate, and when I looked, beholde there was a hole in the wal.

8 Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, digge nowe in the wall: and when I digged in the wal, beholde (there was) a doore.

9 And he ſayde vnto me, Goe thy way in, and looke what wicked abominations they doo heere.

10 So I went in and ſawe, and beholde, (there were) al manner of creeping thinges, (f) and abominable beaſtes, and all the idols of the houſe of Iſrael paynted vpon the wal rounde about.

(f) which were forbidden in the Law. Leuit.

11 There ſtood alſo before the images thereof one and tenne menne of the auncientes of the houſe of Iſrael, and in the middeſt of them ſtoode Iaazaniah the ſonne of Saphan, with euery man his cenſer in his handes, and the ſmoke of the incenſe aſſended as a cloude.

* or, idol.

12 Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, haſt thou ſeene what the auncientes of the houſe of Iſrael doo * ſecretly, euery one in the (g) chamber of his imagerie? for they ſay, The Lorde ſeeth vs not, the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 And he sayde vnto me, Turne thee yet agayne, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they doo.

14 And with that he brought me to the doore of the gate of the Lordes house toward the North, and behold there sate women mourning for (h) Thammuz.

15 Then sayde he vnto me, Hast thou seene this, thou sonne of man? Turne thee yet about, and thou shalt see greater abominations then these are.

16 And so he brought me into the inwarde court of the Lords house, and behold, at the doore of the Lords house, betwixt the porch and the aulter, there were about twentie and fiue men that turned their backes vpon the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the East, and these worshipped the sunne eastwarde.

17 And he sayde vnto me, Hast thou seene (this) thou sonne of man? Thinketh the house of Iuda that it is but a trifle to doo these abominations whiche they doo here? for they haue filled the lande ful of wickednesse, and haue returned to prouoke me (to anger,) and lo, (i) they are putting the * braunches to their nosis.

18 Therefore wyll I also doo something in my wrathful displeasure, so that myne eye shal not spare them, neither wyl I haue pitie: yea, and though they crye in mine eares with a loude voyce, yet wyll I not heare them.

(h) The Iewes crie, this was a peculiar of the ladies, who after his death was once a yeere mourned for in the night, only of women. Saint Hierome expoundeth it for Adonis, Venus louer. Other thinke it was Osyris or Mithes the Egyptians.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. The destruction of the citie. 4. They that shalbe saued, are marked. 8. A complaynt of the prophete for the destruction of the people.

1 HE cried also with a loude voyce in mine eares, saying, Draw neare ye (a) visitations of the citie, euery man with a destroying weapon in his hande.

2 And behold, then came there (b) sixe men out of the strete of the vpper gate towarde the North, and euery man a slaughter weapon in his hande: There was one amongest them that hadde on him lynnen rayment, and a writers (c) inckhorne by his syde: these went in, and stoode beside the brasen aulter.

3 And the glorye of the God of Israel was gone from the Cherub whereupon it was, to the doore of the house: and he called to the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and the writers inckhorne by his syde.

4 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Go thorowe the myddest of the citie, euen thorowe the middest of Hierusalem, and set a marke vppon the foreheades of them that mourne and * are sory for al the abominations that be done therein.

5 And to the other he sayde, that I myght heare, Goe ye after hym through the citie, and smyte, let your eye spare none, neyther haue ye any pitie:

6 Kyl and destroy both old men and young, maydens, chyldren, and women: but as for all those that haue the marke vppon them, see that ye touch them not, and begyn at my sanctuarie. Then they began at the auncient men which were before the house.

7 And he said vnto them, Defile ye the temple, fyl the courtes with the slaine, then goe your way forth. So they went out, and slue downe through the citie.

8 Nowe when they had done the slaughter, and I yet escaped, I fell downe vppon my face, and cryed, saying, Ah Lorde God, wilt thou then destroye all the residue of Israel, in powryng out thy wrath vppon Hierusalem?

9 Then sayde he vnto me, The wickednesse of the house of Israel and Iuda is exceedyng great, so that the land is ful of blood, and the citie full of rebuke (from God:) for they say, The Lorde hath forsaken the earth, and the Lorde seeth it not.

10 As touching me also, myne eye shall not spare them, neyther wyl I haue pitie: but wyl recompence their wayes vppon their heades.

11 And behold, the man that had the lynnen rayment vppon hym, and the writers inckhorne by his side, reported the matter, and sayd, As thou hast commaunded me, so haue I done.

The. x. Chapter.

Of the man that tooke hot burnyng coales out of the myddle of the wheeles of the Cherubims.

1 AND as I looked, beholde, in the firmament that was aboue the head of the (a) Cherubims, as it were a Saphire stone (made) like the similitude of a throne, was seene ouer them.

2 Then spake he to hym that had the lynnen raiment vpon him, and said, * Creepe in betweene the wheeles that are vnder the Cherub, and take thine hande full of hot coales out from betweene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer the citie. And he * crept crept in, that I myght ſee.

8 (Nowe the Cherubims ſtoode vppon the right ſide of the houſe when the man went in, and the cloude filled the inner court.

4 And the glorye of the Lorde remoued from the Cherubims, and came vppon the dooze of the houſe: ſo that the temple was filled with a cloude, and the court was ful of the ſhyne of the Lozdes glorye.

5 Yea, and the ſounde of the Cherubims winges was heardе into the foze court, like as it had benne the voyce of the almightie God when he ſpeaketh.)

6 Nowe when he had bydden the man that was clothed in lynnen, ſayeing, Take fire from the myddeſt of the wheeles, and from the myddeſt of the Cherubims: he went & ſtoode beſide the wheeles.

B 7 Then one Cherub reached foꝛth his hand from betweene the Cherubims, vnto the fire that was betweene the Cherubims, & tooke therof, and gaue it into the handes of him that had on the linnen raiment: which tooke it, and went out.

8 And vnder the winges of the Cherubims there appeared the lykeneſſe of a mans hande.

Exech. 1. c. 9 I looked alſo, and beholde, foure wheeles beſide the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another by another Cherub, and the wheeles were to looke vppon after the faſhion of the pꝛetious ſtone Tharſis.

10 As touching their appearance, (they were al foure of one faſhion,) as if one wheele had ben in another.

11 When they went foꝛth, they went vpon their foure ſides, not turning backe in their goyng: foꝛ which way the (head of the) firſt looked, after it they went, ſo that they turned not backe in their goyng.

Exech. 1. c. 12 And their whole bodyes, their backes, their handes, and wynges, yea, and the wheeles alſo were ful of eyes rounde about the foure wheeles.

13 And to the wheeles, he cryed to them in my hearing, O wheele.

C 14 Euery one of them had foure faces, ſo that the face of the firſt was the face of a Cherub, and the face of the ſeconde the face of a man, and of the thirde the face of a Lion, and of the fourth the face of an Eagle.

Exech. 1. a. 15 And the Cherubims were lifted vp: this is the beaſt that I ſawe at the water of Chebar.

16 Nowe when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges to mount vp from the earth, the ſame wheeles alſo turned not from beſides them.

17 (Shortly) when they ſtoode, theſe ſtoode alſo, and when they were lyfted vp, the (wheeles) lyft vp them ſelues alſo with them: foꝛ the (b) ſpirite of the beaſt was in the (wheeles.)

(b) There was one conſent betweene the Cherubims and the wheeles.

18 Then the glorye of the Lorde departed from about the dooze of the temple, and remained vpon the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims ſlackered with their wynges, and lyft them ſelues vp from the earth in my ſyght: when they went, the wheeles were beſides them, and they ſtood at the dooze of the eaſt gate of the houſe of the Lorde: ſo the glorye of the God of Iſrael was vpon them on high.

20 This is the (c) beaſt that I ſawe vnder the God of Iſrael by the ryuer Chebar, & I perceiued that it was the Cherubims.

(c) That is, the whole body of the foure beaſts or Cherubims.

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure winges, and vnder their wynges the likeneſſe of mens handes.

22 The ſimilitude of their countenances, were the very ſame countenances which I ſaw at the riuer Chebar, and the ſelfe ſame appearances: euery one in his goeing went ſtraight foꝛewarde.

The. xi. Chapter.

1. Who they were that ſeduced the people of Iſrael. 5. Againſt theſe he propheſieth, ſhewyng them howe they ſhalbe diſperſed abroade.

1 MOꝛeouer, the ſpirite lyft me vp, and bꝛought me vnto the eaſt gate of the Lozdes houſe, which lyeth eaſtwarꝺ: & behold, at the entrie of the gate (were) fiue and twentie menne, among whom I ſawe Iaazaniah the ſonne of Azur, and Phelti-ah the ſonne of Banaiahu, the rulers of the people.

2 Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, theſe menne imagine miſchiefe, and a wicked counſaile take they in this citie,

3 Saying, It is not neare, let vs buyld houſes: this (Hieruſalem) is the (a) caldron, and we be the fleſhe.

4 Therefoꝛe ſhalt thou pꝛopheſie againſt them: yea pꝛopheſie, O ſonne of man.

5 And with that fell the ſpirite of the Lorde vpon me, and ſayd vnto me, Speake, thus ſayth the Lorde, On this manner haue ye ſpoken (O ye houſe of Iſrael) and I know the imaginations of your hartes.

6 Many one haue ye murdered in this citie, and fylled the ſtreetes ful of the ſlayne:

7 Therefoꝛe thus ſaith the Lord God, The ſlayne men that ye haue laid in the myddeſt of the (citie) are the (b) fleſhe, and this citie is the caldron: but I wyl bꝛyng you out of it.

(a) We ſhal not be pulled out of Hieruſalem, as the houſe of our death come, as the fleſhe is not taken out of the caldron, till it be ſod.

(b) Contrary to their mocking concluſion he ſheweth what ſhall chance to them in the citie, that is, an cauſe of the dead bodyes that haue ben murdered therein, ſhal lye as the fleſhe in the caldron.

8 Ye haue feared the swoorde, & I wyl bring a swoorde ouer you, sayth the Lorde God.

9 And I wyl bring you out of the myddest thereof, and delyuer you into the handes of strangers, and wil execute iudgementes among you.

(f) that is, a Rabath. Ezec.25.5

10 Ye shal fal by the swoorde, in the borders of (c) Israel wyl I iudge you, and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

11 This citie shal not be your caldron, neyther shal ye be the flesshe in the myddest thereof: but in the borders of Israel wyll I punyshe you,

12 That ye may knowe that I am the Lord, in whose commaundementes ye haue not walked, nor kept my lawes, but haue done after the customes of the Heathen that lye rounde about you.

(d) It seemed this noble man died of some terrible death, and therefore the prophet feared some hard iudgement of God to take the rest of the people.

13 Nowe when I prophecied, (d) Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiahu dyed: then fell I downe vpon my face, & cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Ah Lorde God, wylt thou then vtterly destroy all the remnant in Israel?

14 And so the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me on this maner, 15 Thou sonne of man, thy brethren (euen) thy brethren, the men of thy kynrede, and al the house of Israel, wholly (are they) vnto whom the inhabitantes of Hierusalem haue sayde: (e) Withdrawe ye farre from the Lorde, for the land is geuen vs in possession.

16 Therfore (tel them) thus saith the Lord God, Although I send them far of among the Gentiles, and scatter them among the nations, yet wyll I be to them as a little (f) sanctuarie in the landes where they shal come.

17 Tel them also, Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyll gather you agayne out of the nations, and bring you from the countreys where ye be scattered, and I wyl geue you the lande of Israel agayne.

18 And they shal come thyther, & they shal take away al their idols, and al their abominations from thence.

19 And I wyl geue them one hart, & I wyl put a newe spirite within their bowelles: that stonie hart wyl I take out of their bodie, and geue them a fleshly hart, 20 That they may walke in my commaundementes, and keepe mine ordinances, and doo them, that they may be my people, and I their God.

21 But to the hart of their idols and their abominatiõs their hart goeth, their wayes wyl I bring vpon their owne heades, sayth the Lorde God.

22 After this dyd the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges, and the wheeles beside them, and the glorie of the God of Israel was vpon them on high. Ezech.10.8

23 So the glorie of the Lord went vp from the myddest of the citie, and stoode vpon the mount of the citie toward the east.

24 And the spirite tooke me vp, and brought me agayne to Chaldea to the captiuitie in a vision by the spirite of God: then the vision that I had seene went vp from me.

25 So I spake vnto the (g) captines al the woorde of the Lord which he had shewed me. (g) those that were led away captiues with Ieconias.

The.xii. Chapter.

I. The parable of the captiuitie. 10. The exposition of the parable, by whiche the taking of kyng Zedekias is signified.

1 THe woord of the Lord came vnto me, saying, A

2 Thou sonne of man, thou dwellest in the middest of a rebellious house, which haue eyes to see, and yet see not, eares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, (O thou sonne of man) "prepare thee instrumentes to flyt with, and remoue on the day tyme that they may see, yea (euen) in their syght shalt thou goe from thy place to another place, if peraduenture they wyl consyder that they be a rebellious house. " make thee vessels to go into captiuitie.

4 Thou shalt bring foorth thyne instrumentes as stuffe to flyt with by the day time in their sight, & thou thee selfe shalt goe forth also at euenyng before their eyes, as they that goe forth to flyt.

5 Dyg through the wal in their syght, and cary out therby.

6 In their syght shalt thou beare vpon thy shoulders, and cary it forth in the darke: hyde thy face, that thou see not the earth, for I haue made thee a (a) shewe token vnto the house of Israel. (a) That as thou doest, so shal they doo, & therfore in thee they shal see their owne plagoe and punishment.

7 And I dyd so as I was commaunded, I brought forth my stuffe by day, as the stuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and in the euenyng I dygged through the wal with my handes, and brought it forth in the darke, and bare it vpon my shoulder in their syght.

8 And in the mornyng came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

9 Thou sonne of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, sayde vnto thee, (b) What doest thou? (b) Doo not they deride and mocke thy doings? or, prophecie.

10 Then tel them, thus saith the Lord God, This burden toucheth the prince at Hierusalem, & al the house of Israel that dwel among among them.

11 Tel them, I am your ſhewe token, lyke as I haue done, ſo ſhall it be done vnto them, they ſhal goe into bondage and captiuitie.

12 The prince that is among them ſhal loade his ſhoulders in the darke, and geat hym away, they ſhal breake downe the wal, to carry through by it: he ſhal couer his face, that he ſee not the grounde with his eyes.

(c) When the kyng ſhall thinke to eſcape by fleeing I wil take him in my net, as .xxxii. 37.c.&.38.a

13 My net wyl I (c) ſpread out vpon him, and he ſhalbe caught in my "net, and I wyl bryng hym to Babylon in the lande of the Chaldees, whiche he ſhal not ſee, and yet ſhal he dye there.

14 As for al his helpers and al his bandes that be about him, I wyll ſcatter them towarde all the wyndes, and drawe out a ſwoorde after them.

15 So when I haue ſcattered them among the heathen, & ſtrawed them in the landes, they ſhal knowe that I am the Lord.

Ezech.11.c. 16 But I wyl leaue a litle number of them from the ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence, to tell all their abominations among the heathen where they come, that they maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

17 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying, 18 Thou ſonne of man, with a fearful trembling eate thy bread, with vnquietneſſe and ſorowe drynke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the land ſpeake thou, Thus ſayth the Lorde God vpon them that dwell in Hieruſalem, and vpon the lande of Iſrael, They ſhal eate their bread with ſorowe, and drynke their water with deſolation, yea the lande after plentifulneſſe ſhalbe layde waſte for the wickedneſſe of al them that dwel therein.

20 And the cities that nowe be wel inhabited, ſhalbe voyde, and the lande deſolate, that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

D 21 Yet came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me agayne, ſaying, 22 Thou ſonne of man, what maner of prouerbe is that whiche ye vſe in the lande of Iſrael, ſaying, (d) The dayes are ſlacke in commyng, and al viſions fayle?

(d) Becauſe they did not ſee the prophecies accompliſhed, they cõtemned them as though they neuer ſhould be fulfylled.

23 Tel them therfore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl make that prouerbe to ceaſſe, and they ſhall no more vſe it as a prouerbe in Iſrael: but ſay vnto them, The dayes are at hande, and the effect of euery viſion.

24 There ſhall no viſion be any more in vayne, neyther any flatterynge deuination within the houſe of Iſrael:

25 For I the Lorde ſpeake it, and what ſoeuer I ſhal ſpeake, it ſhalbe perfourmed, and not be ſlacke in commyng any more, yea euen in your dayes, O rebellious houſe, wyl I ſpeake the thyng, and bryng it to paſſe, ſayth the Lorde God.

26 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

27 Beholde thou ſonne of man, the houſe of Iſrael ſaith (on this maner,) The viſion that he ſeeth, it wyl be many a day or it come to paſſe: it is farre of yet the tyme that he prophecieth of.

28 Therefore ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lord God, Al my woordes ſhal no more be delayed, looke what I ſpeake, that ſame ſhal come to paſſe, ſaith the Lorde God. Ezech.11.a 2.Pet.3.a

The.xiii.Chapter.

The woorde of the Lorde againſt falſe Prophetes, whiche reache the people the counſelles of their owne hartes,

1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying, §

2 Thou ſonne of man, prophecie againſt thoſe prophets of Iſrael, which prophecie, and ſay vnto them that prophecie out of their owne hartes, Heare the woorde of the Lorde. Ier.23.a

3 Thus ſaith the Lorde God, Woe be vnto thoſe fooliſhe prophetes that folowe their owne ſpirite, and haue ſeene not hyng.

4 O Iſrael, thy prophetes are like the foxes in (a) deſart places.

(a) Which be delyte in the ruines, and holes called dennes. Cant.2.c.

5 For ye haue not ſtande vp in the gappes, nor made a hedge for the houſe of Iſrael, to ſtande in the batayle in the day of the Lorde.

6 They haue ſeene vanitie and lying deuination, ſaying, The Lorde ſayth it: and the Lord hath not ſent them, and they haue made (men) hope that they would confyrme the woorde.

7 Haue ye not ſeene vayne viſions, and ſpoken falſe prophecies, when ye ſay, The lord hath ſpoken it, whereas I neuer ſayde it? B

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord God, Becauſe ye haue ſpoken vanitie, and haue ſeene lyes: therefore beholde I am againſt you, ſayth the Lorde God:

(b) Which ſtable ſignifyed did ſay that che is called the building of a wal of another ſide prophets would ſtrame the ſame, then be had vnder ſame vnſauery on our ground to beare hys

9 Myne hande ſhalbe vpon the prophetes that ſee vanities and deuine lyes: they ſhal not be in the counſel of my people, nor written in the booke of the houſe of Iſrael, neyther ſhal they come in the lande of Iſrael, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde God:

10 And that for becauſe they haue deceiued my people, and tolde them of peace, where no peace was: one ſetteth vp a (b) wal, and they daube it with vntempered clay.

11 Therefore tell them whiche daube with vntempe-vntempred morter, that it shal fal: for there shal come a great showre of rayne, I wyll sende haylestones to cause it to fall, and a great stormie of wynde shal breake it.

12 And lo, when the wal is fallen, shal it not then be saide vnto you, Where is nowe your morter that ye dawbed withal?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I wyl cause a stormie wynde to breake out in my wrathfull displeasure, so that in myne anger there shall come a mightie showre of rayne, and haylestones in my wrath to destroye it.

14 As for the wal that ye haue daubed with vntempred morter, I wyl breake it downe, and make it euen with the grounde, so that the fundation therof shalbe discouered, and it shal fal: yea, and ye your selues shall perish in the myddes therof, and ye shal know that I am the Lorde.

15 Thus wyl I perfourme my wrath vpon this wal, and vpon them that haue daubed it with (c) vntempred morter, and then wil I say vnto you, The wal is gonne, and the daubers of it.

16 (To wyt) the prophetes of Israel, which prophesie vpon Hierusalem, and looke out visions of peace for it, whereas no peace is, saith the Lorde God.

17 Wherefore, O thou sonne of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, whiche prophesie out of their owne hartes, and prophesie against them:

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Wo be vnto them that sowe (d) pyllowes vnder al arme holes, and put kerchifes vpon the heades of every stature, to hunt soules. Wyl ye hunt the soules of my people, and geue lyfe to the soules that (comme) vnto you?

19 And wyll ye pollute me to my people for handfulles of barley, & for peeces of bread, to kyl the soules of them that dye not, and promise (e) life to them that line not, in lying to my people that heareth your lyes?

20 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon your pyllowes wherwith ye hunt the soules to (f) make them flee, & I wyl teare them from your armes, and wyl let the soules goe (euen) the soules that ye hunt to make them flee.

21 Your kerchifes also wyll I teare in peces, and deliuer my people out of your handes, so that they shall come no more in your handes to be hunted: and ye shal know that I am the Lorde.

22 Seeyng that with your lyes ye discomfite the hart of the righteous, whom I haue not discomforted againe, for so muche as ye encourage the hande of the wicked, so that he maye not turne from his wicked way, in promisyng him life:

23 Therefore shall ye see no more vanitie, neyther shal ye deuine deuinations, for I wyll deliuer my people out of your hande, that ye maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

The.xliii. Chapter.

The Lorde denyeth his woord to the people for their sinnes sake.

1 THere resorted vnto me certayne of the elders of Israel, and sate downe by me.

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

3 Thou sonne of man, these men haue set vp their Idolles in their hartes, and put the stumblyng blocke of iniquitie before their face, shoulde I then answeare them at their request?

4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, thus saith the Lord God, Euery man of the house of Israel that setteth vp his Idols in his hart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the prophet: vnto that man wil I the Lorde mee selfe geue answeare when he commeth, according to the (a) multitude of his Idolles.

5 That the house of Israel maye be snared in their (b) owne hartes, because they be cleane gonne from me all of them through their Idolles.

6 Wherefore tell the house of Israel, Thus sayth the Lorde God, Returne, and cause (c) to returne from your Idolles, and turne your faces from all your abominations.

7 For euery man, whether he be of the house of Israel, or a stranger that sojourneth in Israel, whiche departeth from me, and setteth vp his Idols in his hart, & putteth the stumblyng blocke of his wickednesse before his face, and commeth to a prophete for to aske counsayle at me, through hym: vnto that man wyl I the Lorde geue answeare by myne owne selfe:

8 I wyl set my face against that man, and wyl make him to be an example (for other) yea, and a common byworde, and wil roote hym out of my people, that ye maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

9 And if that prophete be deceyued when he telleth a thing, then I the Lord mee selfe haue deceiued that prophet, and wil stretch out my hande vpon hym, to destroy him out of my people of Israel: 2. kin. 22. c.

10 And

(a) As his abomination hath deserued, that is, he shalbe led with lyes, accordyng as he delyted therein.

(b) That is, conuince them by their owne consciences.

(c) All suche as by your example haue declined from God.

10 And they shalbe punished for their wickednesse, accordyng to the sinne of him that asketh shal the sinne of the prophete be:

11 That the house of Israel may wander no more from me, neither be any more defiled in al their transgressions: but that they may be my people, and I their God, sayth the Lord God.

12 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

13 Thou sonne of man, when the lande sinneth against me by committing a trespasse, I wyl stretche out my hande vppon it, and breake their staffe of bread, and send dearth vpon them, to destroy man and beast from of it.

Ezech. 4.b. and.5.b.

14 And though Noe, Daniel, and Iob, these three men were among them: yet shal they in their righteousnesse deliuer but their owne soules, saith the Lorde God.

Ier. 15.a.

15 If I bring noysome beastes into the land, and they spoyle it, and it be so desolate that no man may passe thorowe it for beastes, 16 If these three men were also in the myddest thereof: as truely as I liue, saith the Lorde God, they shall saue neyther sonnes nor daughters, but be only deliuered them selues: and as for the lande, it shalbe waste.

17 Or if I bring a swoorde vpon the lande, and say, Swoorde go thorough this lande, so that I slay downe man and beast in it, 18 And if these three men were * therein: as truely as I lyue, saith the Lorde God, they shal deliuer neither sonnes nor daughters, but onely be * saued them selues.

* or, in the myddest thereof.
* or, delyuered.

19 If I sende a pestilence into this lande, and powre out my sore indignation vpon it in blood, so that I roote out of it both man and beast, 20 And if Noe, Daniel, and Iob * were therein: as truely as I lyue, saith the Lord God, they shall deliuer neither sonne nor daughter, but * saue their owne soules in their righteousnesse.

* or, in the middest of it.
* or, deliuer

21 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde God, Howe muche more when I sende my foure * troublous plagues vppon Hierusalem, the swoorde, hunger, perilous beastes, and pestilence, to destroy man & beast out of it?

* or, foure sore iudgements,

22 Beholde, there shalbe a remnant saued therein, which shal bring forth their sonnes and daughters: behold, they shal come forth vnto you, and ye shal see their way, & their enterprise, and ye shalbe comforted concerning the euyll that I haue brought vppon Hierusalem, (euen) concerning al that I haue brought vpon it.

23 They shall comfort you when ye shal see their way and woorkes, and ye shal knowe howe that it is not without a cause that I haue done al against Hierusalem as I wyl, saith the Lorde God.

The.xv. Chapter.

As the vnprofitable wood of the vine tree is cast into the fire, so saith he that Hierusalem shalbe brent.

1 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, what commeth of the vine tree more then of euery other tree, and of the wylde vine among other trees of the forest?

3 Doo menne take wood of it to make any woorke withal? or wyl men take a pynne of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Beholde, it is cast in the fire to be brent, the fire consumeth both the endes of it, the myddes of it is brent: is it meete then for any woorke?

5 Seeyng then that it was meete for no woorke beyng whole, much lesse may there any thing be made of it when the fyre hath consumed and brent it.

6 And therefore thus saith the Lorde God, As the vine tree (that is) among the trees of the forest, which I haue geuen to the fire to be consumed, so wyl I geue the inhabitantes of Hierusalem.

7 And I wyl set my face against them, they shal goe out from the fire, and yet the (a) fire shal consume them: then shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I set my face against them,

(a) Though they escape one danger, yet another shal take them.

8 And when I make the land wast, because they haue so sore offended, sayth the Lorde God.

The.xvi. Chapter.

2. The prophete declareth the benefites of God toward Hierusalem. 60. Mercy is promised to the repentant.

1 Again the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, shewe Hierusalem their abominations,

3 And say, thus sayth the Lorde God vnto Hierusalem, Thy habitation and kynrede is of the lande of (a) Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother a Hittite.

(a) These were first in the land of Abraham, but their abominations, and false religion, the abominations of the wicked Chanaanites, & their children did the more of their ouerthrow, Esa. 1.a.

4 In the day of thy birth, (b) when thou wast borne, the stryng of thy nauel was not cut of, thou wast not bathed in water to make thee cleane, thou wast not salted with salt, nor swadled in cloutes.

(b) When thou first broughtest thee forth of the land of Egypt, I called thee in this land to be my church.

5 No * or, to salte

5 No eye pitied thee to do any of these thinges vnto thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee: but thou wast vtterly cast out vpon the fielde, in contempt of thy person in the day of thy byrth.

6 Then came I by thee, and sawe thee defyled in thyne owne blood, and I said vnto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Lyue, (euen) when thou wast in thy blood, I said vnto thee, Lyue.

7 I caused thee to multiplie as the budde of the fielde, thou art growen vp and waxen great, thou hast gotten a maruelous pleasant beautie, thy breastes are fashioned, thy heare is goodly growen, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Nowe when I went by thee, and looked vpon thee, beholde thy time was come, yea (euen) the tyme to woo thee: then spread I my clothes ouer thee to couer thy (c) dishonestie, yea I made an othe vnto thee, and contracted mee selfe vnto thee (sayth the Lorde God) and so thou becamest myne owne.

9 Then washed I thee with water, and pourged thy blood from thee, & I annoynted thee with oyle.

10 I clothed thee with broydred woorke, & shodde thee with Badgers skynne, and I gyrded thee about with fyne lynnen, and couered thee with silke.

11 I decked thee with costly apparel, I put bracelets vpon thy handes, a chayne about thy necke, 12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and earerynges vpon thyne eares, and a beautiful crowne vpon thyne head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with golde and syluer, and thy raiment was of fine linnen, and of silke, and of broydred woorke: thou didst eate fyne floure, honie, & oyle, marueilous beautiful wast thou, and thou didst luckily prosper into a kyngdome.

14 And thy name was spread among the heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfect through my beautie whiche I put vpon thee, sayth the Lorde God.

15 But thou hast put thy confidence in thine owne beautie, & played the harlot, because of thy renowme, and hast (d) powred out thy fornications with euery one that went by, thou wast his.

16 Thou dyddst take thy garmentes, and decke thy hygh places with (e) diuers colours, and played the harlot thereupon, (f) "they come not, and it shal not be.

17 The goodly iewels which I gaue thee of myne owne golde & syluer, hast thou taken and made thee mens images thereof, and committed whoredome with them.

18 Thy broydred garmentes hast thou taken, and decked them therewith: myne oyle and incense hast thou set before them.

19 My meate whiche I gaue thee, as fyne floure, oyle, and honie, to feede thee withall, that hast thou set before them for a sweete sauour: and thus it was, sayth the Lorde God.

20 Thou hast taken thyne owne sonnes and daughters whom thou hast begotten vnto me, and these hast thou offered vp vnto them to be (g) deuoured: is this but a smal whoredome of thine?

(g) Meaning by fire, reade Leuit. 18. d. 2. Reg. 23. b D

21 And thou hast slaine my children, and deliuered them, to cause them to passe (thorowe the fyre) for them.

22 And yet in al thyne abominations and whoredomes, thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, howe naked and bare thou wast at that time, and wast defyled in thyne owne blood.

23 After al these thy wickednesses (woe, woe vnto thee, sayth the Lorde God,)

24 Thou hast built vnto thee an high place, and hast made thee an high place in euery streete.

25 Thou hast buylt thine high place at euery "head of the way, thou hast made thy beautie to be abhorred, thou hast opened thy feete to euery one that came by, and multiplied thy whoredome.

" corner of the streete.

26 Thou hast committed fornication with the (h) Egyptians thy neighbours which were great in fleshe, and thus hast thou increased thine whoredome to anger me.

(h) He noteth the great impietie of this people, who first fallyng from God to seeke helpe at strange nations, did also at length embrace their idolatry, thinking thereby to make their amitie more sure.

27 Beholde, I dyd stretche out my hande ouer thee, and dyd minishe thine ordinarie (foode) and deliuered thee ouer into the willes of them that hate thee, (euen) to the daughters of the Philistines, whiche are ashamed of thine abominable wayes.

28 Thou hast played the whoore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable: yea thou hast (I say) with them played the harlot, and yet hadst thou not yenough.

29 Thus hast thou furthermore multiplied thy fornication from the lande of Chanaan vnto the Chaldees, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 Howe weake is thyne hart, sayth the Lord God, seeing thou dost al these, (euen) the woorkes of a presumptuous whoorishe woman?

31 Buylding thy hygh places at the head of euery way, and makest thy hygh places in euery streete: thou hast not ben as another whoore that holdeth scorne of a rewarde:

32 But as a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, and taketh other in stede of her husband.

33 Gyftes

33 Giftes are geuen to al other whores: but thou geuest rewardes vnto al thy louers, and rewardest them to come vnto thee on euery syde for thy fornication.

F 34 It is come to passe with thee in thy whoredomes contrary to the vse of other women, yea there hath no such fornication ben committed after thee: seeing that thou geuest gyftes vnto other, and no reward is geuen thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 Therfore heare the woorde of the Lord, O thou harlot.

(i) That is, banished out thy money vpon images to thy shame.

36 Thus sayth the Lord God, Because thou hast (i) powred out * thy brasse, and discouered thy filthinesse through thy fornications with thy louers, and with al the idols of thyne abominations, and in the blood of thy children whom thou hast geuen them:

* or, thy neather partes.

37 Beholde therfore, I wyl gather togeather al thy (k) louers with whom thou hast taken pleasure, yea and al them whom thou hast loued, and euery one that thou hatest: I wyl (I say) gather them togeather rounde about agaynst thee, and wyll discouer thy shame before them, that they may see al thy filthynesse.

(k) Egyptiãs, Assyrians, and Chaldeans, whom thou tokest to be thy louers, shal come and destroy thee. Ezech. 23. b.

38 Moreouer, (l) I will iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke and a murderer, and recompence thee thine owne blood in wrath and ielousie.

(l) I wyll iudge thee to death as the adulterers & murderers.

39 I wyl geue thee ouer into their handes, and they shal destroy thy hygh place, and breake downe thy hygh places, they shal stryp thee also out of thy clothes: thy faire iewelles shal they take from thee, and so leaue thee naked and bare.

40 Yea they shal bring a companie vpon thee, which shal stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swordes,

G 41 They shall burne vp thy houses with fyre, and punishe thee in the syght of many women: thus wyl I make thee ceasse from playing the harlot, so that thou shalt geue out no more rewardes.

2. Kin. 25. d

42 So wil I make my wrath towarde thee to rest, and my ielousie shall departe from thee, and I wyll ceasse, and be angrie no more.

43 Seeyng thou remembrest not the dayes of thy youth, but hast fretted me in al these thynges: beholde, therefore I wyll bring thine owne wayes vpon thy head, saith the Lorde God, so that (m) thou shalt not commit (any more) mischefe vpon all thyne abominations.

(m) Of al the heynous offences, this shalbe the last, or God wyl punish thee, so that thou shalt neuer sinne more.

44 Beholde, al they that vse common prouerbes, shal vse this prouerbe also agaynst thee, saying, Suche a (n) mother, suche a daughter.

(n) As were the Chanaanites & the Hittites, and other your predecessours, so are you their successours.

45 Thou art cuil thy mothers owne daughter, that hane cast of her husband, and her children: yea thou art the syster of thy (o) systers, whiche forsooke their husbandes and their children, your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

(o) That is, of Samaria and Sodom.

46 Thine eldest syster is Samaria, she and her (p) daughters that dwel vpon thy left hande: but thy yonger syster that dwelleth on thy ryght hande is Sodoma and her daughters.

(p) That is her cities.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abominations, as a litle and a litle: but in all thy wayes thou hast ben more corrupt then they.

(q) He alleageth their foure vices, pryd, excesse, idlenesse, & contempt of the poore, as foure principal causes of such abomination, wherefore they were so horribly punished. Genes. 13. d

48 As truely as I liue, saith the Lord God, Sodoma thy syster, with her daughters, hane not donne as thou hast donne and thy daughters.

49 Behold, the synnes of thy syster Sodoma, were these, (q) Pryde, fulnesse of meat, and abundance of idlenesse, these thynges had she and her daughters: beside that, they strengthed not the hande of the poore and needie.

(r) Which were stamped the Calues in Bethel and Dan. 1. Kin. 12. d

50 But they were hautie, and committed abomination before me, therefore I tooke them away as I sawe good.

(s) Thou art so wicked, that in respect of thee Sodom & Samaria were iuste.

51 Neyther hath (r) Samaria donne halfe of thy sinnes, yea thou hast exceeded them in thine abominations, and hast (s) iustified thy systers in al thyne abominations whiche thou hast done.

(t) Iudged & condemned. (u) In that thou hast shewed thy selfe worse then they, and yet thoughtest to escape punishment.

52 Therefore thou whiche dyst condemne thy syster, beare thyne owne shame, for thyne owne offences that thou hast committed more abominable then they dyd, whiche in deede are more ryghteous then thou art, be thou (I say) ashamed, & beare the shameful rebuke, seeyng that thou hast iustified thy systers.

(x) Whom you worshiped as your mother, call her your mother in law.

53 Therefore I wyl bring againe their captiuitie, the captiuitie of Sodom and her daughters, and the captiuitie of Samaria and her daughters, and the captiuitie of thy captiuities among (x) them, 54 That thou mayest take thine owne confusion vpon thee, and be ashamed of al that thou hast donne, in that thou hast (y) comforted them.

(y) that is by her example in sinning.

55 And thy syster Sodom & her daughters shal returne to their former state, Samaria also and her daughters shall returne to their former state, when thou & thy daughters shal returne to your former state.

(z) that is, thou wast brought vp in the Philistims.

56 For thy syster Sodom was not (z) heard of by thy report in the day of thy pride,

57 Before thy wickednesse was (y) discouered according to the time of the reproch of the daughters of Aram, & of al the daughters all the Philistines rounde about her, whiche despise thee in al sydes.

58 Thou hast borne thy wickednesse and thine abominacion, sayth the Lorde.

59 For thus sayth the Lorde God, I myght (by ryght) deale with thee as thou hast done, whiche hast despised the (a) othe in breaking the couenant:

60 Neuertheles, I wyl remember my couenant with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I wyl establyshe vnto thee an euerlastyng couenant.

61 Then shalt thou remember thy wayes, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receiue thy sisters, (both) thy elder and thy yonger: and I wyl geue them vnto thee for daughters, but not by thy couenaunt.

62 And I wyl establishe my couenant with thee, that thou mayest know that I am the Lorde.

63 That thou mayest thinke vpon it, and be (aa) ashamed, and neuer open thy mouth any more for shame of thine shame, when I am pacified towarde thee for al that thou hast done, sayth the Lorde God.

The. xvii. Chapter.

The parable of the two Eagles.

1 THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, put forth a parable, and speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel,

3 And say, thus saith the Lorde God, There came a great (a) Egle with great wingges, yea with a mygthie long body, and ful of feathers of diuers colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, and tooke the highest branche of a Cedar tree,

4 And brake of the top of his twiggets, and caried it into the lande of (b) marchantes, and set it in a citie of marchantes.

5 He tooke also of the (c) seede of the lande, and planted it in a fruitefull grounde, he brought it vnto great waters, and set it in an open frenche.

6 Then did it growe, and was a (d) spreading vine, but (e) lowe of stature, whose branches turned towarde it, & the rootes of it were vnder it: thus there came of it a vine, and it brought fourth branches, and shot forth buddes.

7 But there was another (f) Egle, a great one, whiche had great wingges and many feathers: and behold the rootes of this vine turned towardes it, and spread out her branches towardes it, that she myght water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted vpon a good soyle beside great waters, so that it shuld haue brought out branches, and beare fruite, and haue ben a goodly vine.

9 Speake thou therefore, thus saith the Lorde God, Shal this vine prosper? shal (g) he not put vp the rootes therof, and destroy the fruite therof, and cause them to dry? al the leaues of her bud shal wither without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the rootes therof.

10 Beholde, it was planted: Shal it prosper therefore? Shal it not be dryed vp and withered? when the (h) east wynde shall touche it, it shall wyther in the trenches where it grewe.

11 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

12 Speake nowe to the rebellious house, knowe ye not what these thynges (do signifie?) Tel them, beholde the kyng of Babylon is come to Hierusalem, and hath taken the king therof, and the princes therof, and hath led them with him to Babylon.

13 He tooke of the kinges seede, and made a couenant with him, and tooke an othe of him: the princes of the lande tooke he with him also,

14 That the kingdome might be in subiection, and not lift vp it selfe, but keepe the couenant, and stande to it.

15 But he rebelled against him, and sent his ambassadours into Egypt, that he myght haue horses and muche people: Shoulde he prosper? shal he escape that doth such thynges? or shal he breake the couenant and escape free?

16 As truely as I liue, saith the Lord God, he shall dye in Babylon in the place where the kyng dwelleth that made him kyng, whose othe he hath despised, and whose couenant he hath broken.

17 Neyther shal Pharao with his great host and multitude of people mayntayne him in the warre, whē they haue cast vp mounties, and buylt a fort to destroy many persons.

18 For seeyng he hath despised the othe, and broken the couenant, (whereas he yet gaue his (i) hande thereupon) and done all these thynges, he shal not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, As truely as I liue, I wyl bryng vpon ofte that he hath despised, and my couenant that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 I wyl spreade my net vpon him, and he shalbe caught in my net: and I wyl bryng him to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with him there, for the trespasse whiche he

23 (Namely) vpon the high hil of Israel wil I plant it, that it may bring forth boughes, and geue fruite, and be an excellent Cedar: and vnder it shall remaine al birdes, and euery fowle shal remaine vnder the shadow of the branches thereof.

24 And al the trees of the fielde shal knowe that I the Lorde haue brought downe the hygh tree, and exalted the lowe tree, that I haue dried vp the greene tree, and made the dyre tree to flourishe, (euen) I the Lord that spake it, haue also brought it to passe.

The. xviii. Chapter.

4. He sheweth that euery man shal beare his owne sinne. 21. To him that amendeth, is saluation promised.

A 1 The worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 What meane ye by this common prouerbe that ye vse in the lande of Israel, saying, The (a) fathers haue eaten sowre grapes, and the chyldrens teeth are set on edge.

3 As truely as I liue, sayth the Lord God, ye shal vse this bywoorde no more in Israel.

4 Beholde, al soules are myne: lyke as the soule of the father is mine, so is the soule of the sonne mine also: the soule that sinneth, shal dye it selfe.

5 But if a man be iust, and do that whiche is lawful and right:

6 And hath not (b) eaten vpon the hylles, he hath not lift his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neyther hath defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath come neare a (c) woman remoued:

7 Neither hath oppressed any man, but hath restored to the debter his pledge: he that hath not spoyled any by violence, hath geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath clothed the naked:

8 And hath not geuen forth vpon vsurie, neyther taken any increase, he hath withdrawen his hande from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betwene man and man:

9 And hath walked in my statutes, and kept my iudgementes to deale truely: this is a ryghteous man, he shall surely lyue, sayth the Lorde God.

10 If he be owne great a sonne that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and do any one of these thinges:

11 Though he do not al these thynges, but eyther hath eaten vpon the hylles, or defiled his neighbours wife:

12 Or hath oppressed the poore and needie, or spoyled by violence, or hath not restored the pledge, or hath lift vp his eyes vnto the idols, or hath committed abomination:

13 Or hath geuen forth vpon vsurie, or hath taken increase: Shal this man liue? he shal not liue: Seeyng he hath done all these abominations he shall dye the death, his blood shalbe vpon him.

14 Now if this man gear a sonne also, that seeth al his fathers sinnes which he hath done, and feareth, neyther doth suche like: C

15 (Namely) that hath not eaten vpon the hilles, neither hath lift vp his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor defiled his neighbours wife:

16 Neyther hath oppressed any, nor hath withholden the pledge, neither hath spoyled by violence: (but) hath geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath couered the naked with a garment:

17 Neyther hath withdrawen his hande from the afflicted, nor receiued vsurie nor increase, (but) hath executed my iudgementes, and walked in my statutes: this man shall not dye in his fathers sinne, but shal liue without fayle.

18 As for his father, because he hath cruelly oppressed and spoyled his brother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, loe he dyeth in his owne sinne.

19 And yet say ye, Wherefore then shoulde not this sonne beare his fathers sinne? Because the sonne hath done iudgement and righteousnesse, he hath kept al my statutes, and done them: therefore shall he liue in deede.

20 The same soule that sinneth shal dye, the sonne shal not beare the fathers iniquitie, neither shal the father beare the sonnes iniquitie: the righteousnesse of the ryghteous shalbe vpon him, and the wickednesse of the wicked shalbe vpon him selfe also. Deut. 24.c. 2. Kin. 14.c. 2. Chr. 25.d

21 But if the vngodly will turne away from D al his sinnes that he hath done, and keepe all my statutes, and do the thyng that is iudgement and ryght, doubtlesse he shall lyue, and not dye.

22 As for all his sinnes that he hath done, they shall not be mentioned vnto him: but in his ryghteousnesse that he hath done he

All the righteousnesse that he hath donne shal not be remembred, but in his transgression that he hath committed, in his sinne that he hath sinned, in them he shal dye.

25 And yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not (d) indifferent. Heare therefore ye house of Israel, is not my way equal? or are not your wayes rather vnequal?

(d) Ye prouoke the Lorde with your children.

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquitie, and dyeth in the same: in his iniquitie whiche he hath committed shal he dye.

¶ 27 Againe, when the wicked turneth away from his wickednesse that he hath donne, and dooth iudgement and right, he shall saue his soule alyue.

"Euery one that turneth away from his sinne shall liue.

28 Because he "seeth and turneth away from al his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shal surely liue, and not dye.

29 And yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lorde is not equal. Are not my wayes equal, O ye house of Israel? are not your wayes rather vnequal?

30 Therefore I wyl iudge you, euery man according to his wayes, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God, returne and bring agayne others from al your wickednesse, so iniquitie shal not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you all your transgressions whereby ye haue transgressed, and make you a newe hart and a newe spirite: for why wyl ye die, O ye house of Israel?

32 Seeing I haue no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, sayth the Lorde God, "bring agayne your selues then, and ye shal liue.

"Cause them to turne from their sinne.

The. xix. Chapter.

2. The captiuitie of Iehoas and Iehoiakim is signifyed by the lions whelpes, and by the lion.

1 THou also take vp a lamentation for the (a) princes of Israel,

2 And say, Wherefore lay thy mother that Lioneesse among ỹ lions? she nourished her young ones among the lions whelpes.

3 One of her whelpes she brought vp, and it became a lion, it learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

4 The (b) heathen heard of him, & caught him in their snare, and brought him in "hookes vnto the lande of Egypt.

5 Now when she sawe that she had wayted, and her hope was lost, she tooke another (c) of her whelpes, and made him a lion.

6 Whiche went among the lions, and became a fierce Lion, learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

7 He "destroyed their palaces, and made their cities waste, insomuch that the whole lande, and euery thing therein, were vtterly desolate thyough the voyce of his roaring.

8 Then set the (d) heathen together on euery syde of the countreys agaynst him, laide their nettes for him, and tooke him in their pit.

9 So they put him in prison in chaines, and brought him to the kyng of Babylon: they put him in holdes, that his voyce shoulde no more be heard vpon the mountaynes of Israel.

10 As for thy (e) mother, she is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she brought foorth fruit and branches by the abundant waters.

11 And she had strong roddes for the scepters of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted on high among the branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucke vp in wrath, cast out vpon the grounde, the east winde dryed vp her fruite (her branches) were broken of and wythered, (as for) the roddes of her strength, the fyre consumed them.

13 And nowe she is planted in the wyldernesse, in a drie and thirstie grounde.

14 And there is a fyre gonne out of the rodde of her branches, it hath deuoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rodde for a scepter to rule: This is a lamentation, and shalbe for a lamentation.

(d) Nabuchodonosor with his great armie, whiche was geathered of diuers nations.

The. xx. Chapter.

The Lorde denyeth that he wyl answeare them when they pray, for the offence of vnkindnesse whiche he here obiecteth.

1 IN the (a) seuenth yeere, the tenth day of the fifth moneth, certayne of the elders of Israel came for to aske counsayle at the Lorde, and sate downe before me.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Ieconias.

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, sayeing,

3 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto the elders of Israel, & say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Are ye come to enquire of me? As truely as I liue, I wyl not be ſought of you, ſayth the Lorde God.

4 Wylt thou iudge them ſonne of man, wylt thou iudge (them?) cauſe them to vnderſtande the abominations of their fathers.

5 And tel them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, In the day when I chooſe Iſrael, and (b) lyft vp mine hande vnto the ſeede of the houſe of Iacob, and was knowen vnto them in the lande of Egypt, yea when I lyft vp myne hande ouer them, and ſayde, I am the Lorde your God:

6 Euen in the day that I lyft vp myne hand vnto them, to bryng them out of the lande of Egypt, into a land that I had prouided for them, whiche floweth with milke and hony, and is pleaſant among al other landes:

7 Then ſaide I vnto them, Caſt away euery man the abominations of his eyes, and defyle not your ſelues with the idols of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 But they rebelled againſt me, and would not hearken vnto me, they dyd not caſt away euery man the abominations of his eyes, neither dyd they forſake the idoles of Egypt: then I ſayde, I would powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accompliſhe my wrath vpon them, yea euen in the middeſt of the lande of Egypt.

9 And I wrought for my names ſake, that it ſhoulde not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifeſtly knowen, in bringing them forth of the lande of Egypt.

10 Nowe when I had cauſed them to goe out of the lande of Egypt, & brought them into the wylderneſſe:

11 I gaue them my ſtatutes, and ſhewed them my iudgementes: whiche who ſo doeth, ſhal liue in them.

12 I gaue them alſo my Sabboth dayes to be a token betwixt me and them, and therby to knowe that I am the Lorde whiche halowe them.

Rom.10.a. Galat.3.b. Leuit.18.a.

Exod.20.b 13 And yet the houſe of Iſrael rebelled againſt me in the wylderneſſe, they woulde not walke in my ſtatutes, they haue caſt away my iudgementes, which who ſo dooth, ſhal liue in them, and my Sabboth dayes haue they greatly polluted: then I ſaid I would powre out myne indignation vpon them, and conſume them in the wylderneſſe.

14 And I wrought for my names ſake, leſt it ſhoulde be defyled before the heathen, in whoſe ſyght I brought them out.

Num.14.b. 15 Yet neuertheleſſe I lyft vp my hand vnto them in the wylderneſſe, that I would not bring them into the lande whiche I gaue them, that floweth with milke and hony, and is a pleaſure of al landes:

16 And that becauſe they caſt away my iudgementes, and walked not in my ſtatutes, but haue defyled my Sabbothes: for their hart was gonne after their idols.

17 Neuertheleſſe myne eye ſpared them, ſo that I woulde not deſtroy them, nor conſume them in the wylderneſſe.

18 Moreouer, I ſayde vnto their ſonnes in the wylderneſſe, Walke not in the ſtatutes of your (c) fathers, kepe not their iudgementes, and defyle not your ſelues with their idols.

19 I am the Lorde your God, walke in my ſtatutes, kepe my iudgementes, and doo them.

20 Halowe my Sabbothes, for they are a token betwixt me and you: that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde your God.

21 Notwithſtanding, their ſonnes rebelled againſt me alſo, they walked not in my ſtatutes, they kept not my iudgementes to fulfyll them, whiche he that dooth, ſhal liue in them, they prophaned my Sabboth dayes, and I ſayde I woulde powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accompliſhe my wrath vpon them in the wylderneſſe.

22 Neuertheleſſe, I withdrewe my hande, and wrought for my names ſake, leſt it ſhoulde be defyled in the ſyght of the heathen, before whom I had brought them forth.

23 I lyft vp my hande to them alſo in the wylderneſſe, that I woulde ſcatter them among the heathen, and ſtrawe them among the nations:

24 Becauſe they had not kept my iudgementes, but caſt aſyde my ſtatutes, & broken my Sabbothes, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

25 Wherefore I (d) gaue them alſo ſtatutes that were not good, and iudgementes wherein they ſhould not liue.

26 And I defyled them in their owne gifts, in that they (e) cauſed all that openeth the wombe to paſſe, that I might deſtroy them, that they might knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

27 Therefore ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael thou ſonne of man, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Yet in this alſo your fathers haue blaſphemed me, and greeuouſly tranſgreſſed againſt me:

28 For after I had brought them into the lande, for the whiche I lyfted vp my hand to geue it vnto them, when they ſawe euery hygh hyll, and all thicke trees, they offered there

(b) This was a maner of ſwearing whiche was obſerued in takyng an othe of al antiquitie, & is yet in diuers countreys vſed.

(c) Whereby the holy ghoſt confuteth them that ſay, they wyl follow the religion and cuſtomes of their fathers and not meaſure their doyngs by Gods worde, whether they be approuable thereby or no.

(d) Becauſe they would not obey my lawes, I gaue them vp to them ſelues, that they ſhould obey their owne fantaſies, as verſe. 39. Rom.1.d.

there their sacrifices, & there they presented there offering of (a) anger, there also they made their sweete sauours, and powred out their wine offeringes.

29 And I sayde vnto them, What is that high place whereunto ye resort? & the name of it is called (b) Bamah vnto this day.

30 Wherefore speake vnto the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, Are ye not defiled in the wayes of your fathers, and commyt ye not whoredome after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your giftes, and make your sonnes to passe through the fyre, you are polluted with al your idolles vnto this day: shal I answere you when I am asked,
O house of Israel? As I lyue, sayth the Lorde GOD, I wyll not be sought of you.

32 And (that whiche) commeth into your minde shal not be at al, which you say, We wyl be as the Gentiles, as the kynredes of countreys to serue wood and stone.

33 As truely as I liue, sayth the Lord God,
I wyll rule you with a myghtie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you.

34 And I wil bring you from the people, and gather you out of the countreys wherein ye are scattered, with a myghtie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out.

35 And I will bring you into the (i) wildernesse of the people, and there I (k) wyl be iudged with you face to face.

36 Lyke as I pleaded with your fathers in the wildernesse of Egypt: so wyl I pleade with you also, sayth the Lord God.

37 I wil cause you to passe vnder the rodde, and I wyl bring you into the bonde of the couenant.

38 And I wil purge out of you the rebels, and them that transgresse against me, and bring them out of the lande of their habitation: as for the lande of Israel they shall not come in it, that you may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus sayth the Lord God, Go you and serue euery man his idols, seeing that ye obey not me: and pollute no more my holy name with your gyftes and your idols.

40 For vpon my holy hil, euen vpon the high hyl of Israel, sayth the Lorde God, shall al
the house of Israel, & al that is in the lande worship me: and in the same place wyll I fauour them, and there wil I require your heaue offeringes, & the firstlinges of your oblations, with al your holy thinges.

41 I will accept your sweete sauour, when I bring you from the nations, and gather you together out of the landes wherein ye haue ben scattered, that I may be halowed in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shal knowe that I am the Lord, when I shal bring you into the lande of Israel, into the lande for the whiche I lyft vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers.

43 There shall ye cal to remembrance your owne wayes, and all your workes wherein ye haue ben defiled, and ye shalbe cutte of in your (l) owne sight for al your wickednesse that ye haue done.

44 And ye shal knowe that I am the Lord,
when I deale with you for my names sake, and not after your wycked wayes, nor according to your corrupt workes, O ye house of Israel, sayth the Lorde God.

45 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

46 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde the way of (m) Themanah, and drop (thy worde) towarde the (n) south, and prophecie towarde the forrest of the south fielde,

47 And say to the forrest of the south,
Heare the worde of the Lorde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl kindle a fyre in thee, that shall consume all the (o) greene trees, with al the dry: the continual flame shal not be quenched, and euery face from the south to the north shalbe burnt therein.

48 And al fleshe shal see that I the lord haue kindled it, and it shal not be quenched.

49 Then sayde I, Ah Lorde God, they say of me, Doth not he speake (p) parables?

The. xxi. Chapter.

3. He threatneth the sworde, that is to say, destruction to the citie of Hierusalem.

1 THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward Hierusalem, and (a) drop (thy worde) towarde the holy places, and prophesie a-gaynst the lande of Israel.

3 Say to the lande of Israel, thus sayth the Lord, Beholde, I am against thee, and wil drawe my sworde out of the sheath, and cut of from thee both the (b) ryghteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I wil cut of from thee both the righteous and the wycked, therefore shall my sworde goe out of his sheath against all fleshe from the (c) south to the north,

5 That al fleshe may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue drawen my sworde out of the sheath, and it shal not be put in againe.

(l) Your owne consciences shal condemne you as worthy to be cut of from the earth.
(m) To wyt, the south.
(n) That is, toward Hierusalem and Iuda, whiche was south from Babylon.
(o) That is, both strong and weake in Hierusalem.
(p) Because the people sayd that the prophete spake darkly, therefore he desireth the Lorde to geue them a playne declaration thereof.

A
(a) As doctrine is compared to rayne, euen so here wordes are compared to droppes.
(b) That is, such as seme to haue an outwarde shewe of ryghteousnesse by obseruation of the ceremonies of the lawe.
(c) Meaning through all the lande.

6 Mourne therefore, O thou ſonne of man, yea (euen) with the (a) breaking of thy reines, mourne bitterly in their preſence.

7 And if they ſay vnto thee, Wherefore mourneſt thou? thou ſhalt anſwere, For the tidinges that commeth: At whiche hart muſte, all hands ſhalbe letten downe, all ſtomakes ſhal faynt, and al knees ſhal goe as water: beholde it commeth, and ſhalbe brought to paſſe, ſaith the Lord God.

8 Agayne, the woꝛd of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

9 Thou ſonne of man, propheſie & ſpeake, Thus ſaith the Lorde GOD: Say, ſpeake, the ſwoꝛde, the ſwoꝛde is ſharpened and will furbiſhed.

10 Sharpened is it to make a great ſlaughter, and furbiſhed that it may glitter: Shal we then make mirth? It contemneth the (c) rod of my ſonne (as) (f) al other trees.

11 He hath geuen it to be furbiſhed, to holde it in the hande: this ſwoꝛde is ſharpened, and furbiſhed, to geue it into the hande of the (g) ſlayer.

12 Crye and howle ſonne of man, for it commeth vpon my people (it commeth) vpon al the princes of Iſrael: the terroures of the ſwoꝛde ſhalbe vpon my people, ſmite therfore thou vpon thy thigh.

13 Becauſe it is a tryal, and what yf (h) it contemne the rod? it ſhalbe no moꝛe, ſayth the Lorde God.

14 Propheſie thou ſonne of man, and ſmite thy (i) handes togeather, and let the ſwoꝛd be doubled thryſe, (euen) the ſwoꝛde of the great ſlaughter, entring into theyr priuie chambers,

15 To make them faynt at the hartes, and to multiplie theyr falles, in all theyr gates haue I geuen the terroure of the ſwoꝛde: Ah it is made bꝛight, and dreſſed foꝛ the ſlaughter.

16 Geat thee (k) one way oꝛ other, eyther vpon the right hande oꝛ vpon the left, whitherſoeuer thy face tarneth.

17 I will ſmite my handes togeather alſo, and make my wꝛathful indignation to reſt: euen I the Lorde haue ſayde it.

18 The woꝛde of the Lorde came yet vnto me agayne, ſaying, 19 Thou ſonne of man, appoynt thee two (l) wayes, that the ſwoꝛde of the kyng of Babylon may come: both theſe wayes ſhal goe out of one land, and chooſe thee a place, at the head of the cities wayes chooſe it.

20 Appoynt a way that the ſwoꝛde may come toward Rabbath of the Ammonites, and towarde (m) Iuda in the defenced Hieruſalem.

21 Foꝛ the kyng of Babylon ſtoode at the (n) parting of the wayes, at the head of the two wayes, conſulting by diuination, he made his arꝛowes bꝛight, conſulted with images, and looked in the liuer.

22 At his ryght hande was the ſoothſaying foꝛ Hieruſalem, to appoynte captaynes, to open (their) mouth to the ſlaughter, and to lift vp theyr voyce with the alarum, to ſet battayle rammes againſt the gates, to caſt a bulwarke (and) to builde a foꝛt.

23 And it ſhalbe vnto them as a falſe diuination in their ſight, foꝛ the (o) othes made vnto them: but (p) he wyll call to remembrance their iniquitie, to the intent they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord GOD, Becauſe ye haue made your iniquitie to be remembred in diſcouering your tranſgreſſions, ſo that in all your woꝛkes your ſinnes might appeare, becauſe ye are come to remembrance, ye ſhalbe taken by hande.

25 O thou ſtanckefull wicked (q) prince of Iſrael, whoſe day is come, euen when wickedneſſe ſhal haue an ende, 26 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, I will take away the (r) Diademe, & put of the crowne: this ſhalbe no moꝛe the ſame, I wyl exalt the humble, and abaſe him that is high.

27 Ouerthꝛowen, ouerthꝛowen, ouerthꝛowen will I put (s) it, and it ſhal not be, vntil he come to whom the iudgement belongeth, and to whom I haue geuen it.

28 And thou, O ſonne of man, propheſie and ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lorde God to the children of Ammon, and to theyr blaſphemie, ſpeake thou, The ſwoꝛde, the ſwoꝛde is drawen foꝛth alreddy to ſlaughter, & furbiſhed to conſume becauſe of the glittering:

29 Whiles they ſee vnto thee vanitie, and diuine a lye vnto thee, to put thee with the neckes of the wicked that be ſlayne, whoſe day is come when theyr iniquitie ſhal haue an ende.

30 Shoulde I cauſe it to returne into his ſheath? In the place where thou waſt created, in the lande of thine habitation wyll I iudge thee:

31 And I will powꝛe mine indignation vpon thee, and will blowe vpon thee in the fyre of my wꝛath, and deliuer thee into the handes of deſperate people, whiche are ſkilfull to deſtroy.

32 Thou ſhalt feede the fyre, and thy blood ſhalbe ſhed in the middeſt of the land: thou ſhalt be put out of remembrance, foꝛ I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

21 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, and saide,

2 Thou sonne of man, wilt thou not (a) iudge, wylt thou not iudge this bloody citie? wylt thou not shewe her al her abominations?

3 And tel them, thus saith the Lorde God. The citie shedeth blood in the middest of it, that her (b) time may come, and maketh idolles (c) against her selfe, to defyle her selfe.

4 Thou hast made thee selfe giltie in the blood that thou hast shed, and defyled thee in the idolles whiche thou hast made: thou hast caused thy dayes to drawe nigh, and made the tyme of thy yeeres to come: therefore wyll I make thee a reproche among the heathen, and to be a mocking in al landes.

5 Whether they be nygh or farre from ther, they shall laugh thee to scorne, thou that hast gotten ther so foule a name, and art ful of trouble.

6 Beholde the rulers of Israel, euery one in thee (according) to his power to shedde blood.

7 In thee haue they despised father & mother, in thee haue they oppressed the stranger, in thee haue they vexed the wydowe and the fatherlesse.

8 Thou hast despised my holy thinges, and defyled my Sabboothes.

9 Tale tellers are there in thee to shed blood, in thee are suche as eate vpon the hylles, and in the middest of thee they commit abomination.

10 In thee, they discouered their fathers shame, in thee they haue humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 Euery man hath dealt shamefully with his neighbours wyfe, and abominably defyled his daughter in lawe, in thee hath euery man forced his owne syster, euen his fathers daughter.

12 Yea gyftes haue bene receyued in thee to shed blood, thou hast taken vsurie and increase, thou hast oppressed thy neighbours by extortion, and forgotten me, saith the Lorde God.

13 Beholde, I haue (d) smitten my handes vpon thy couetousnesse that thou hast vsed, and vpon the blood whiche hath ben (shed) in the middest of thee.

14 Is thy hart able to endure? or may thy handes be strengthened in the dayes that I shal haue to doo with thee? Euen I the Lorde that speake it, wyl bring it also to passe.

16 Yea and thou shalt be taken (f) away in the ritance in the sight of the heathen, that thou mayest know that I am the Lorde.

17 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is vnto me as drosse: all they are brasse, tinne, iron, and lead in the middest of the furnace, euen drosse of syluer are they.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Forasmuche as ye all are turned into drosse, therefore beholde I wyl bring you together vnto Hierusalem.

20 Like as they geather syluer, brasse, iron, tinne, and lead into the middest of the furnace, and the fyre is blowne there vnder to melt them: euen so wyll I geather you in myne anger and in my wrath, and let you remayne (there) and cause you to (g) melt.

21 I wil bring you together, and blow the fyre of my wrath vppon you, and ye shalbe molten in the middest thereof.

22 Like as the syluer is molten in the middest of the furnace, so shal ye also be molten therein, that ye may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue powred my wrath vppon you.

23 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

24 Thou sonne of man, tel her, Thou art an vncleane lande, whiche is not (h) rayned vpon in the day of wrath.

25 There is a (i) conspiracie of her prophetes in the middest thereof: as a roring lion rauening his pray they deuoure soules, they haue taken the riche and precious thinges, they haue made her many wydowes in the middest thereof.

26 Her priestes haue broken my lawe, and defyled my holy thinges, they put no difference betweene the holy and vnholy, neyther discerne they betweene the cleane and vncleane: they turne their eyes from my Sabboothes, & I am defiled among them.

27 Thy rulers in the middest of thee are like wolues rauening the pray, to shed blood, and destroy soules for their owne couetous lucre.

28 As for her (k) Prophetes, they daube with vntempered morter, they see vanities, and deuine lies vnto them, saying, The Lorde sayth so: whereas the Lorde hath not spoken.

29 The people in the lande vsed wicked extortion and robberie, they vexe the poore and needie, & oppresse the stranger against right.

4. Of the fornication, that is to ſay, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hieruſalem, vnder the name of Aholah and Aholibah.

1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, there were two women the daughters of (a) one mother.

3 And they committed fornication in (b) Egypt, they played the harlottes in their youthe: there were their breſtes preſſed, and there they bruſed the teates of their virginitie.

4 The (c) names of them (were) Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her ſiſter, and they were myne, and they bare ſonnes & daughters: thus (were) their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hieruſalem Aholibah.

5 Aholah played the harlot (d) when ſhe was mine, and ſhe was let on fyre with her louers the Aſſyrians her neighbours:

6 Whiche were clothed with blewe ſylke, (both) captaines and pyinces, they were all pleaſant young men, and horſemen rydyng vpon horſes.

7 Thus ſhe committed her whoredome with them (being) al choſen men of Aſſhur, and with al on whom ſhe doted, and defiled her ſelfe with al their idols.

8 Neither leaft ſhe the fornication that ſhe vſed with the Egyptians: for in her youth they (e) lay with her, they bruſed the breſtes of her maydenhead, and powred their whoredome vpon her.

9 Wherfore I deliuered her into the handes of her louers (euen) into the handes of the Aſſyrians vpon whom ſhe doted.

10 Theſe diſcouered her ſhame, tooke her ſonnes and daughters, and ſlue her with the ſwoord, an euyl name had ſhe among women: for they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her ſiſter Aholibah ſaw this, and deſtroyed her ſelfe with inordinate loue more then ſhe, and with her fornications, more then her ſiſter with her fornications.

12 She doted vpon the Aſſyrians captaynes and pyinces her neighbours, clothed with all manner of gorgeous apparel, horſemen rydyng vppon horſes, being al pleaſant young men.

13 Then I ſawe that ſhe was defyled, and they tooke both one way.

14 But ſhe encreaſed ſtill in whoredome: for when ſhe ſawe men painted vpon the wall, the (f) images of the Chaldees painted with vermilion,

15 And girded with girdles vppon their loynes, & with dyed attyre vpon their heades, looking all lyke pyinces, after the maner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the lande where they were borne.

16 As ſoone as ſhe ſawe them, ſhe burnt in loue vpon them, and ſent meſſengers vnto them into the lande of the Chaldees.

17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bedde of loue, they defyled her with their whoredome: and ſo was ſhe polluted with them, and her luſt was abated from them.

18 And ſhe diſcouered her whoredome, and diſcloſed her ſhame: then my hart forſooke her, lyke as my hart was gonne from her ſiſter alſo.

19 Neuertheleſſe, ſhe encreaſed her whoredome more, and remembred the dayes of her youth, wherein ſhe had played the harlot in the lande of Egypt.

20 She burnt in luſt vppon their lechers, whoſe fleſhe was lyke the fleſhe of aſſes, and their iſſue like the iſſue of horſes.

21 Thus thou haſt called to remembrance the lyghtyneſſe of thy youth, when thy teates were bruſed by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus ſaith the Lorde God, I wyll raiſe vp thy louers againſt thee from whom thy hart is departed, and gather them together againſt thee on euery ſyde.

23 (Namely) the Babylonians and al the Chaldees, "rulers, wealthie and mighty men, with al the Aſſyrians, al pleaſant young men, captaynes and pyinces, al valiant and renowmed rydyng vpon horſes.

24 Theſe ſhal comme vppon thee with charrettes, weapons, and wheeles, and great multitude of people, with buckler, ſhielde, and helmet they ſhall beſet thee on euery ſyde: " I will geue iudgement before them, yee they them ſelues ſhall iudge thee accoyding to their owne iudgement.

25 I will lay myne indignation vppon thee, ſo that they ſhall deale cruelly with thee: they ſhal cut of thy nose and thyne eares, and thy remnannt ſhal fal by the ſwoorde, they ſhal carry away thy ſonnes and daughters, and the reſidue ſhalbe deuoured by the fyre.

26 They ſhall ſtrip thee out of thy clothes, and

(a) Meaning Iſrael and Iuda, whiche came both out of one familie.

(b) They became idolaters after the maner of the Egyptians.

(c) Aholah ſignifieth a manſion or dwelling in her ſelfe, meaning Samaria, which was the royal citie of Iſrael, and Aholibah ſignifyeth, My manſion in her, whereby is ment Hieruſalem, where gods temple was.

(d) Or, vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernance, and named the people of god: they became idolaters, for ſoke god, & put their truſt in the Aſſyrians.

(e) The holy ghoſt vſeth theſe termes which ſeeme ſtrange to chaſte eares, to cauſe this wicked vice of idolatrie ſo to be hahorred, that vneth any ſhould abide to heare the name therof mentioned.

(f) This declareth that no woorder are able ſufficiently to expreſſe the rage of idolaters, and therefore the holy ghoſt here compareth them to thoſe which in their raging loue & lyghty luſte dote vppon the images and payntinges of them after whom they luſt.

" 23, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa.

" 24, I will leaue the puniſhment vnto them.

and take away thy fayre iewels.

27 Thus wyll I make thy wickednesse to ceasse from thee, and thy fornication out of the lande of Egypt: so that thou shalt turne thine eyes no more after them, and cast thy mynd no more vpon Egypt.

28 For thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl deliuer thee into the handes of them whom thou hatest, yea, euen into the hands of them from whom thine hart is departed.

29 And they shal deale hatefully with thee, and take away al thy (g) labour, and leaue thee naked and bare, and the shame of thy fornications (h) shalbe discouered, both thy wickednesse and thy whoredome.

30 I wyll doo these thinges vnto thee, because thou hast gonne a whooring after the heathen, & becausse thou art polluted with their Idolles.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therfore wyl I geue her cup into thine hande.

32 Thus saith the Lorde God, Thou shalt drinke of thy systers cup deepe and large, thou shalt be laughed to scorne, and had in derision, because it conteyneth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with (i) drunkennesse and sorowe (euen) with the cup of destruction and desolation, with the cuppe of thy syster Samaria.

34 Thou shalt drinke it, and sucke it out, and thou shalt breake the shardes therof, and teare thine owne breastes: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, For as much as thou hast forgotten me, and cast me aside behinde thy backe, so beare nowe thine owne wickednesse and whoredome.

36 The Lord sayd moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, wylt thou not iudge Aholah, and Aholibah? shewe them their abominations.

37 (Namely) that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their handes: and with their Idols haue they committed aduulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes whom they bare vnto me, to passe (by the fyre) to be their (k) meate.

38 Yea, and this haue they donne vnto me also, they haue defiled my sanctuarie in the same day, and haue prophaned my Sabbothes.

39 For when they had slaine their children for their idols, they came the same day into my sanctuarie to defile it: and lo, thus haue they done in the myddest of mine house.

40 And howe muche more (is it) that they sent for men to come from (l) farre, vnto whom a messenger was sent, and loe, they came? for whom thou diddest washe thee selfe, and paynted thine eyes, and deckedst thee with ornaments.

41 Thou satest vpon a stately bed, and a (m) table spread before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oyle.

42 And a noyse of a merry company at * it, and with the men, beside the multitude of the people, were brought men of Saba out of the desart, whiche gaue them bracelettes vpon their handes, and beautiful crownes vpon their heades.

43 And I sayd vnto her that was worne in her adulteries, Nowe shal her fornications come to an ende, and she also.

44 And they went in to her as they go vnto a common harlot: euen so went they to Aholah and Aholibah, those wicked women.

45 And the righteous men they shall iudge them after the maner of harlots, and after the maner of murderers: for they are harlottes, and blood is in their handes.

46 Wherefore thus saith the Lorde God, I wyll bryng a great multitude of people vpon them, and geue them to be scattered and spoyled.

47 And the multitude shal stone them with stones, & cut them downe with their swoordes, they shal slaye their sonnes and daughters, and burne vp their houses with fire.

48 Thus wyl I cause wickednesse to ceasse out of the lande, that al (n) women may be taught not to doo after your wickednesse.

49 And so they shal lay your wickednesse vpon your owne selues, & the sinnes of your Idols shal ye beare: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

He proueth the fyring of Hierusalem by a parable of a seethyng pot.

(a) Of Iechonias captiuitie, and of the raigne of Zedekias. 2. king. 25. 8

(b) Called Tebeth, conteynyng part of December and part of Ianuarie, in which moneth and day Nabuchodonosor besieged Hierusalem.

1 IN the (a) ninth yeere, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the (b) moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

2 O thou sonne of man, write thee the name of this day, yea, euen of this present day: for the kyng of Babylon set hym selfe against Hierusalem this selfe same day.

3 And shew the rebellious house a parable, and speake vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Prepare a (c) pot, set it on, and powre water into it.

4 Gather the (d) peeces therof into it, euery good peece, the thygh and the shoulder, and fyl it with the cheefe bones.

5 Take one of the best sheepe, * and burne also bones vnder it: let it boyle wel, and let the the bones therof ſeeth wyl therein.

6 Wherfor thus ſaith the Lord God on this maner, Wo be vnto the bloodthirſty citie, to the pot whoſe ſcumme is therein, & whoſe ſcumme is not gone out of it: bring it out (e) peece by peece, let no(f) lot fal vpon it.

(a) Signifying they ſhoulde not be deſtroyed al at once, but by litle and litle

7 For her blood is in the middeſt of it, vpon a bigh drye( ) ſtone hath ſhe powred it, and not vpon the ground, that it might be couered with duſt:

(f) Spare no ſtate or condition.

8 That it might cauſe wrath to aryſe, and take vengeance: I haue ſet her blood vpon a bigh(dry) rocke, that it ſhould not be couered.

(g) The citie ſhewed her cruelnes to al the worlde, and was not aſhamed thereof, neither yet hyd it.

9 Wherefore thus ſaith the Lorde God, O wo be vnto the bloodthirſty citie, for whom euen I mee ſelfe wyl make a great fire,

10 And heape on muche wood, and (h) kindle the fire, and ſeeth the fleſhe, and * ſpice the pot, ſo that the very bones ſhalbe brent.

(h) Meanyng that the citie ſhoulde be vtterly deſtroyed, and that he wold geue the enimies an appetite thereunto.

* or, caſte in ſpice.

11 Moreouer, I will ſet the pot emptie vpon the coales, ſo that the braſſe therof may be hot and burne, and the fylthyneſſe of it may be molten in it, and the ſcumme of it ſhalbe conſumed.

* or, lyes.

12 She hath werried her ſelfe with * labour, yet her great ſcumme is not gonne of her, in the fire her ſcumme (muſt be conſumed.)

13 In thy filthineſſe is wickednes: becauſe I (i) would haue purged thee, and thou waſt not purged from thy fylthyneſſe, thou ſhalt not be purged any more, tyll I haue cauſed myne indignation to reſt in thee.

(i) I laboured by ſendyng my prophete to cal thee to repentance, but thou wouldeſt not.

14 Euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it: yea, it is come thereto already that I wyll doo it, I wyl not go backe, I wyll not ſpare, I wyl not repent: but accoyding to thy wayes and imaginations ſhal they (k) iudge thee, ſaith the Lorde God.

(k) That is, the Babylonians.

15 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

16 Thou ſonne of man, beholde, I wyl take awaye from thee the (l) pleaſure of thyne eyes with a plague, yet ſhalt thou neyther mourne nor weepe, neyther ſhall thy teares runne downe.

(l) Meanyng his wyfe, in whom he delighted, as, verſe, xviii.

17 Mourne in ſilence, make no mournyng of the dead, bynde the tyre of thy head vpon thee, and put on thy ſhoes vppon thy feete, couer not thy lyppes, and (m) eate no mans bread.

(m) For mourners were wont to eate bread ſent vnto them by their neighbours in tyme of mournyng.

18 So I ſpake vnto the people betymes in the morning, and at euen my wyfe dyed: then vpon the next morow I dyd as I was commanded.

19 And the people ſaid vnto me, Wylt thou not tel vs what this ſignifieth towarde vs, that thou dooeſt ſo?

20 I anſwered them, The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

21 Tel the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, I wil pollute my ſanctuarie, euen the glory of your power, the pleaſure of your eyes, & your harts delite: and your ſonnes and daughters whom ye haue left, ſhal fal through the ſworde. D

22 Like as I haue done, ſo ſhall ye doo alſo: ye ſhal not couer your lyppes, ye ſhall eate no mans bread.

23 And your tyre (ſhalbe) vppon your heades, and your ſhoes vppon your feete: ye ſhal neyther mourne nor weepe, but ye ſhall ppns away in your iniquities, and mourne one towardes another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is vnto you the token: accoyding to al that he hath done, ye ſhal doo: when it commeth, then ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Alſo, thou ſonne of man, ſhall it not be in the day when I take from them their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleaſure of their eyes, and the (n) lyfting vp of their ſoules, their ſonnes and their daughters?

(n) Their harts delite.

26 In that day ſhall come one that is eſcaped, vnto thee, (o) (and bryng it) to the hearing of (thyne) eares.

(o) That is, bryng thee tydinges of the deſtruction of Ieruſalem.

27 In that day ſhal thy mouth be opened to hym whiche is eſcaped, that thou mayeſt ſpeake, and be no more dumbe: yea, thou ſhalt be their ſhewe token, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxv. Chapter.

I The woorde of the Lorde vppon the ſonnes of Ammon, which reioyced at the fall of Hieruſalem. 8. Againſt Moab and Seir, againſt Idumea, againſt the Philiſtines.

1 The woord of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde the Ammonites, and propheſie vpon them.

3 And ſay vnto the Ammonites, Heare the woord of the Lord God, thus ſaith the Lord God, For ſo much as thou ſayeſt (a) Haha ouer my ſanctuarie becauſe it was polluted, and ouer the lande of Iſrael becauſe it was deſolate, and ouer the houſe of Iuda becauſe they went into captiuitie:

(a) Becauſe ye reioyced where the enimie deſtroyed my citie and temple.

4 Beholde therefore, I wyll deliuer thee to the people of the (b) Eaſt, that they may haue thee in poſſeſſion: they ſhal ſettle their (c) palaces in thee, and make their dwellynges in thee, they ſhal eate thy fruite, and drinke vp thy mylke.

(b) That is, to the Babylonians.

(c) They ſhal chaſe thee away & make thy goodly houſes to dwel in.

5 As for (d) Rabbath, I wyl make of it a stable for Camels, and of the Ammonites a sheepefolde: and ye shal know that I am the Lorde.

6 For thus saith the Lord God, Inasmuche as thou hast clapped with thyne handes, and stamped with thy feete, yea and reioyced ouer the lande of Israel with all thy "despite in hart:

7 Beholde therefore, I wyl stretche out my hand ouer thee, and deliuer thee to be spoyled of the heathen, and roote thee out from among the people, and cause thee to perish out of the landes, yea I wyll make thee to be destroyed, that thou mayest knowe that I am the Lorde.

8 Thus saith the Lord God, For so muche as Moab and Seir doo say, Beholde, the house of Iuda is lyke as al Gentiles be:

9 Therefore beholde I wyll open the syde of Moab from the cities, from his cities (I say) of his frontires, the pleasures of the countrey (as namely) Bethiesimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathiarim:

10 (e) Unto the children of the east, against the Ammonites, and wyl geue it into possession, so that the Ammonites shal nomore be had in remembraunce among the Heathen.

11 And I wyl execute iudgementes vpon Moab: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

12 Thus saith the Lorde God, For that Edom hath done in auenging reuengement vpon the house of Iuda, and hath done great offence, and auenged him selfe vpon them:

13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I wyl reache out myne hande vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, I wyl make it desolate from Theman, and Dedanah shal fal by the swoorde.

14 And I wyll execute my reuengement vpon Edom by the hande of my people Israel, they shal doo in Edom accordyng to my wrath and indignation, so that they shal knowe my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lorde God, For that the Philistines did in vengeance, (namely) in auengyng reuengement, with a "despitefull hart to destroy it for the olde enmitie:

16 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I wyl stretche out my hande ouer the Philistines, and destroy the (f) Cerethites, and cause all the remnant of the sea coast to perishe:

17 A great vengeaunce wyll I take vppon them, with punishments of my wrath, that they may know that I am the Lord, when I shal lay my vengeaunce vpon them.

The.xxvi. Chapter.

1. He propheciech that Tyrus shalbe ouerthrowen, because it reioyced at the destruction of Hierusalem.

1 AND it came to passe in the (a) eleuenth yere, the fyrst day of the moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, because that Tyre hath spoken vpon Hierusalem, Haha, the gates of the people is broken, (b) it is turned vnto me, for nowe that she is destroyed I shalbe (c) fylled:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, O Tyre, I wyl vpon thee, I wyl rayse vp many nations againste thee, lyke as when the sea aryseth with his wawes.

4 They shal breake the wals of Tyre, and cast downe her towres, I wyll scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rocke.

5 She shalbe for a spreadyng of nettes in the sea, for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God, and she shalbe for a spoyle to the nations.

6 Her (d) daughters that are in the feelde shalbe slayne with the swoorde, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

7 For thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I wyl bring vpon Tyrus Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon from the north, a kyng of kinges, with horses, charrets, horsemen, with a multitude, and mucke people.

8 Thy daughters that are in the feeld shal he slay with the swoorde: but against thee he shal make bulwarkes, and cast a mount against thee, and lift vp his speare against thee.

9 He shal set engins of warre before hym against thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towres.

10 The dust of his horses shal couer thee they shalbe so many, thy walles shal shake at the noyse of the horsemen, wheeles, and chariots, when he shal enter into thy gates, as into the entrie of a citie broken downe.

11 With the hoofes of his horses shall he treade downe al thy streetes, he shal slay the people with the swoorde, and the pyllers of thy strength shal fal downe to the grounde.

12 They shal rob thy riches, and spoyle thy marchandise, thy walles shal they breake downe, and destroy thy houses of pleasure, thy stones, thy tymber, and dust shal they cast into the myddest of the water. Ierr.7.b.

23 Haran, Chenne, and Eden, the marchantes of Seba, Assyria, and Chelmad, were doers with thee.

24 These were thy marchantes in all sortes (of thynges,) in raiment of blewe sylke, and of broydred woorke, and in Coffers for the riche apparel, whiche were trussed with cordes, and * Cedar woode among thy marchandize.

25 The shippes of Tharsis were the chiefe of thyne occupying: thus thou wast replenished & in great worshipp euen in the myddes of the sea.

26 Thy * rowers haue brought thee into great waters, the (i) east wynde hath broken thee in the myddes of the sea.

27 Thy riches, and thy fayres, thy marchandize, thy mariners, and shipmaisters, thy calkers, and the occuppers of thy marchandize, and all the men of warre that are in thee, and all the multitude that is in the myddes of thee, shall fall in the myddes of the sea, in the day of thy fal.

28 The (k) suburbes shal shake at the loude cry of thy shipmen.

29 All the handle the oze, mariners, and all shipmaisters of the sea, shal come downe from their ships, and stand vpon the lande.

30 And they shall cause their voyce to be harde against thee, and shal crye bytterly, and shal caste duste vpon their heades, and wallowe in the ashes.

31 They shall (l) make them selues bauldye for thee, and gyrde them with sackecloth, and they shal weepe for thee with sorowful hert, and bytter mourning.

32 And they shall take vp a lamentation for thee in their mourning, and lament ouer thee: (What citie) is like Tyrus, so destroyed in the myddes of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth of the seas, thou filledst many people: the kinges of the earth hast thou made rich, through the multitude of thy riches and marchandize.

34 When thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depethes of the waters, thy marchandize, and all thy multitude that was in the myddes of thee, shal fall.

35 All the inhabitantes of the Iles shalbe astonied at thee, and al their kynges shalbe sore afrayde, and troubled in their countenance.

36 The marchantes of the nations shal hisse at thee: thou shalt be a terrour, and shalt (m) neuer be any more.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

The woorde of God agaynst the kyng of Tyrus for his pryde.

1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, Tel the prince of Tyre, thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast a proude hart, and hast said, I am a (a) God, I syt in the seate of God, in the myddest of the sea: whereas thou art but a man, & not God, (b) though thou set thine hart as the hart of God.

3 Behold, thou thinkest thee self wiser then (c) Daniel, that there is no secretes hydde from thee.

4 With thy wisdome and thine vnderstandyng thou hast gotten thee great wealthynesse, and gathered treasure of syluer and golde.

5 With thy great wisedome and occuppying hast thou encreased thy * power, and because of thy great riches thy hart is proud.

6 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, For so muche as thou hast set thine hart as the hart of God:

7 Behold, I wyll bryng strangers vppon thee, euen the terrible nations, they shall drawe out their swoordes vpon the beautie of thy wisedome, and shal defile thy glorie.

8 They shall caste thee downe to the pyt, so that thou shalt dye the death of them that be slayne in the myddest of the sea.

9 Wylt thou say then before them that slay thee, I am a God? whereas thou art but a man, and not God, in the handes of them that slay thee.

10 Thou shalt dye the death of the (d) vncircumcised in the handes of the strangers: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God.

11 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

12 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vppon the kyng of Tyre, and say vnto him, thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest vp the summe, (e) ful of wisdome and perfite beautie.

13 Thou hast ben in the pleasant garden of God, thou art decked with all maner of precious stones, with Rubie, Topas, Diamond, Thurkis, Onyx, Jaspis, Saphyr, Emerald, Carbuncle, and golde: the workmanship of thy timbrelles, and of thy pipes (that 15 From the tyme of thy creation thou hast benne perfite in thy wayes, tyl wickednesse was founde in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchandise they haue filled the myddes of thee with crueltie, and thou hast sinned: I wyl caste thee as prophane out of the (g) mount of God, and I wyll destroy thee, O couering Cherub, from the myddes of the stones of fire.

17 Thy hart was proud in thy beautie, and through thy brightnesse thou hast destroyed thy wisedome: I wyl caste thee downe to the ground, I wyl lay thee before kinges, that they may beholde thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy (h) sanctification with the great wickednes of thine vnrighteous occupying: I wyll bring a fire from the myddest of thee, to consume thee, and wyll make thee to ashes vppon the earth, in the sight of all them that looke vpon thee.

19 All they that haue ben acquainted with thee among the heathen, shalbe abashed at thee: thou hast ben a terrour, & neuer shalt thou be any more.

20 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

D 21 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against Sidon, and prophesie vpon it, 22 And speake, Thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, O Sidon, I wyl vppon thee, and I wyll be glorified in thy myddest of thee: that it may be knowen howe that I am the Lorde, when I shall haue executed iudgementes in her, and shalbe sanctified in her.

23 For I wyll sende pestilence and bloodshedding into her streetes, and the slaine shal fall in the myddes of her by the swoorde (comming) vpon her on euery side: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

24 They shalbe no more a pricking thorne vnto the house of Israel, nor a greeuous thorne of all that are round about them, and despised them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God, When I gather the household of Israel together again from the nations among whom they be scattered, then shall I be sanctified in them in the syght of the Gentiles, and they shall dwell in the lande that I gaue to my seruant Iacob.

26 They shal dwel with confidence therin, buylde houses, and plant vineyardes, yea, with confidence shall they dwell therin when I haue executed iudgementes vppon all those that despise them rounde about: and then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde their God.

The.xxix. Chapter.

He prophesieth against Pharao, and of the desolation of Egypt, with the sparklyng & broade of the Egyptians.

1 IN the (i) tenth yeere, vppon the twelfth day of the tenth moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against Pharao the king of Egypt, prophesie against him, and against the whole lande of Egypt.

3 Speake, and tel him, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, O Pharao, thou kyng of Egypt, I wyll vppon thee thou great (k) Dragon that lyeth in the myddes of his ryuers, (thou that sayest, The ryuer is myne, I haue made it for mee selfe.

4 I wyl put (l) hookes in thy chawes, and hang the fishe in thy ryuers vppon thy skales: after that, I wyl draw thee out of the myddest of thy ryuers, yea, and all the fishe of thy ryuers shal hang vpon thy skales.

5 I will leaue thee in the wyldernesse (both) thee and all the fishe of thy ryuers: thou shalt fal vppon the open fielde, thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I haue geuen thee for meate to the beastes of the fielde, and to the fowles of the aire.

6 That all they which dwel in Egypt, may knowe that I am the Lorde, because they haue benne a staffe of reede to the house of Israel.

7 When they tooke holde of thee with their hande, thou brakest and rentest all their shoulder: and when they leaned vppon thee, thou brakest and madest all their lognes to stand vpright.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyll bring a swoorde vpon thee, and destroy out of thee both man and beast.

9 Yea, the lande of Egypt shalbe desolate and waste, & they shal knowe that I am the Lorde, because he saith, The riuer is mine, I haue selfe made it.

10 Beholde therefore, I wil vppon thee, and vppon thy ryuers, I wyl make the lande of Egypt vtterly waste and desolate, from the towre of Seuene, vnto the borders of Ethiopia.

13 I wyl make the lande of Egypt to be desolate among other waste countreyes, and her cities destroyed fourtie yeeres among other destroyed cities: and I wyll scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them through the countreyes.

46.1. 14 Agayne, thus saith the Lord God, When the fourtie yeeres are expired, I wyll gather the Egyptians togeather agayne out of the nations among whom they were scattered.

15 And I wyl bryng the captiuitie of Egypt agayne, & cause them to returne into the lande of Pathros, the lande of their habitation, and they shalbe there a (d) final kyngdome.

16 Yea it shalbe the smallest among other kyngdomes, neyther shal it exalte it selfe any moze aboue the nations: for I wyll so minishe them, that they shall no moze rule the nations.

17 And they shal be no moze vnto the house of Israel a cruse, which bringeth their iniquite to remembraunce, when they shall looke after them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

18 In the (e) twentie and seuenth yeere, the first day of the first moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

19 Thou sonne of man, Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon caused his armie to serue a great seruice agaynst Tyre: euery head was made balde, and euery shoulder pilde, yet had neither he nor his armie any wages for Tyrus for the seruice whiche he serued agaynst it.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl geue the lande of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, and spoyle her spoyles, and take her pray to pay his host their wages withal.

21 For the "worke whiche he wrought about it, I haue geuen hym the lande of Egypt, because they wrought for me, saith the Lorde God.

22 In that day I wyl cause the horne of the house of Israel to budde foorth, and I wyl geue thee the openyng of thy mouth in the middes of them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxx. Chapter.

The destruction of Egypt, and of his cities is bewayled.

1 The worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, prophecie, & speake, Thus saith the Lorde God, Howle, woe worth this day:

3 For the day is neare, the day of the Lord is at hande, the "darke day, the tyme of the nations shalbe. " a cloudie day.

4 And the swoorde shal come vpon Egypt: and feare shalbe in Ethiopia when the slayne shal fal in Egypt: and they shall take away her multitude, and her fundations shalbe broken downe.

5 Yea Ethiopia, Libya, and Lydia, al their common people, and Chub, and al that be confederate vnto them, shal fal with them through the swoorde.

6 Thus saith the Lord, The mayntayners of the lande of Egypt shal fal, the pride of her power shal come downe, euen from the towre of (a) Seneeth shall they fall downe in it with the swoorde, saith the Lorde God. (a) Whiche was a strong citie of Egypt.

7 Among other desolate countreyes they shalbe made desolate, among other waste cities they shalbe wasted.

8 And they shal know that I am the Lord, when I haue set a fyre in Egypt, and when al her helpers shalbe destroyed.

9 In that day shal messengers goe forth from me in shyppes, to make the careleſſe Moriens afrayde, and feare shal come vpon them, according to the day of Egypt: for loe it commeth.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, I wyl cause the multitude of Egypt to ceasse by ye hand of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon.

11 He, & his people with him, the terrible nations shalbe brought to destroy the land: they shall drawe out their swoordes vppon Egypt, and fyl the land ful of slayne men.

12 I wyl make their ryuers dry, and sel the lande into the handes of wicked (people:) the lande and al that is therein I wyl destroy through the hande of strangers: euen I the Lorde haue sayde it.

13 Thus saith the Lorde God, I wyll destroy the idols, and bring the images of (b) Noph to an ende: there shall no moze be a prince of Egypt, and a feareſulneſſe wyll I sende into the Egyptians lande. (b) Called also Memphis, or Alkaira.

14 As for Pathros I wil make it desolate, and kyndle a fyre in (c) Zoan, and I wyll execute iudgementes in (d) No. (c) Or Thaphnis. (d) Which is supposed of diuers to be the citie of Alexandria.

15 And I wyl powre out my wrathful indignation vpon Sin the strength of Egypt, and I wyl destroy the multitude of No.

18 At Tehaphnices the day shalbe (e) darke, when I breake there the dartes of Egypt, and when the pompe of her power shall ceasse in her, a clowde shal couer her, and her daughters shal go into captiuitie.

19 Thus wyl I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, & they shal know howe that I am the Lorde.

20 And in the (f) eleuenth yere, vpon the seuenth day of the fyrst moneth, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 21 Thou sonne of man, I haue (g) broken the arme of Pharao king of Egypt: and lo, it shal not be bounde vp to be healed, to put a rollar to bynde it, to make it strong to holde the swoorde.

22 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon Pharao king of Egypt, and breake his arme that was strong, but is broken: and I wyll cause the swoord to fal out of his hande.

23 As for the Egyptians I wyll scatter them among the nations, and straue them in the landes about.

24 Agayne, I wyll strengthen the armes of the king of Babylon, and geue my swoorde into his hande, but I wyll breake Pharaos armes, and he shal grone the groninges of a deadly wounded man before him.

25 Yea, I wyll strengthen the kyng of Babylons armes, & the armes of Pharao shall fal downe: and they shal know that I am the Lorde, when I shal (h) geue my swoorde into the hand of the king of Babylon, that he may stretche it out vpon the landes of Egypt.

(h) Whereby we see that tyrauntes haue no power of them selues, neither can do any more harme then god appoynteth, and when he wyl they must ceasse.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and straue them in the landes about: and they shal know that I am the Lorde.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

I. A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharao with the prosperitie of the Assyrians.

10. He prophecieth a lyke destruction to them both.

1 MOreouer, in the (a) eleuenth yeere, the fyrst day of the thirde moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

(a) Of Zedekias raigne, or Ieconias captiuitie.

2 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, & to all his people. Whom art thou (b) lyke in thy greatnesse?

(b) Meaning that he was not lyke in strength to the kyng of the Assyrians, whom the Babylonians ouercame.

3 Beholde, Assur is a Cedar in Libanon, with fayre branches, and with thicke shadowing boughes of a hyghe nature, and his toppe was among the thicke bowes.

4 The waters made him great, with the deepe set him vp on hygh, with the riuers running rounde about his planters, and sent out her (c) litle riuers vnto all the trees of the fielde.

(c) Many other nations which were vnder their domination.

5 Therefore was he hyger then all the trees of the fielde, and his boughes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of the waters which he sent out.

6 All foules of the ayre made their nestes in his branches, vnder his boughes did all the beastes of the fielde bring forth their young, and vnder his shadowe dwelt all mygthie nations.

7 Beautiful was he in his greatnesse, and in the length of his branches: for his rote stoode beside great waters.

8 No Cedar tree might (d) hyde him in the gardein of God, there was no Fyre trees lyke his branches, the Chestnutte trees were not lyke the boughes of him: al the trees in the garden of God might not be compared vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him fayre with the multitude of his branches: in somuche that all the trees in the pleasant garden of God had enuie at him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, For so much as he hath lyfte vp him self so high, and hath shot vp his top among the thicke boughes, and his hart is lyft vp in his height:

11 I haue therefore deliuered him into the handes of the (e) mightiest among the heathen: he that handle him, (for) in his wickednesse haue I cast him away.

12 And strangers haue destroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and haue left him vp on the mountaines, & vpon al valleys haue his boughes fallen, & his boughes are (f) broken by all the ryuers of the lande: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadowe, and haue forsaken him.

13 Vpon his ruine shal al the foules of the ayre remayne, and al the beastes of the fielde shalbe vpon his branches.

14 So that none of al the trees by the waters shalbe exalted in their height, ne shoote vp their toppes among the thicke boughes, neyther shal their trees stande in their height, as many of them as drynke water: for they are al deliuered vnto death in the nether partes of the earth, in the middes of the children of men, among them that goe downe to the pyt.

15 Thus sayth the Lorde God, In the day when he went downe to the graue, I caused a lamentation to be made, I (g) couered the deepe for him, I restrayned the floodes floodes therof, and the great waters were stayed, I caused Libanus to mourne for him, and all the trees of the feelde fayntede.

16 I made the heathen shake at the sounde of his fall, when I cast him downe to hell with them that descende into the pyt: all the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Libanus, all that (h) drinke waters, shalbe (i) comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hel with him unto them that be slayne with the swoorde, whiche were his arme, (and) dwelt under his shadowe in the middest of the nations.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Eden unto the neather partes of the earth: in the middest of the uncircumcised shalt thou sleepe with them that are slayne with the swoorde: This is Pharao and all his multitude, sayth the Lorde God.

The .xxxii. Chapter.

The prophete is commaunded to bewaile Pharao kyng of Egypt. 12. He prophesieth that destruction shal come vnto Egypt thorowe the kyng of Babylon.

1 IN the (a) twelfth yere, the first day of the twelfth moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came unto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, take up a lamentation upon Pharao the king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art (b) like a lion of the heathen, and as a whale fyshe in the sea: thou drawest out thy riuers, thou (c) troublest the waters with thy feete, and stampest in their riuers,

3 Thus saith the Lorde God, I will spread my net over thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee come up into my net.

4 For I will leave thee upon the lande, and cast thee upon the open feelde, and I will cause al the foules of the ayre to remayne upon ther, and fyl al the beastes of the feeld with thee.

5 Thy flesshe wyl I lay upon the hylles, and fyl the valleys with thy (d) highnesse.

6 I wil (e) water thine ouerflowing lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaynes, and the riuers shalbe ful of thee.

7 When thou art put out, I wyll cover the heauen, and make his starres dimme: I wil spreade a cloude over the sunne, and the moone shal not geue her lyght.

8 Al the lightes of heauen wil I make darke for thee: & bring darknesse upon thy lande, sayth the Lorde.

9 I wyl styre up to anger the hartes of many people, when I bryng thy destruction among the heathen, and upon the countreys whiche thou knowest not.

10 Yea I wyll make many people amased at thee, and their kinges shalbe astonyshed with feare for thee, when I shall make my swoorde to glitter agaynst their faces: and they shalbe afrayde at euery moment euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lorde God, The king of Babylons swoorde shal come upon thee:

12 With the swoordes of the myghtie wyl I smite downe thy multitude: they al shalbe terrible nations, and they shal destroy the (f) pompe of Egypt, and the multitude thereof shalbe consumed.

13 I wyl destroy also all the beastes thereof from the great waters sydes, neyther shall the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hooues of beastes trouble them.

14 Then wyll I make their waters (g) deepe, and cause their riuers to runne lyke (h) oyle, sayth the Lorde.

15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the countrey with al that is therin shalbe laid waste, and when I smite all them whiche dwell in it, then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mourning when they shall lament her, The daughters of the nations shal lament her, they shal make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer al the people thereof, sayth the Lorde.

17 In the twelfth yeere, the fiftienth day of the moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde unto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, & (i) cast them downe, euen them and the daughters of the famous nations, to the neather partes of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pyt.

19 Whom doest thou passe in (k) beautie? go downe & sleepe with the uncircumcised.

20 Among those that be slayne with the swoorde shal they lye, to the swoorde is (l) she alredy deliuered: draw her downe, and al her multitude.

21 The (m) mightie worthies shal speake to her out of the midst of hel, & to her helpers: they are gone downe & sleepe (with) the uncircumcised that be slaine with the swoorde.

22 Assur is there also with al his company, and their graues rounde about him, which were slaine and fel al with the swoorde:

23 Whose graues are made in the syde of the pit, and his multitude are round about his graue, (to wit) al the slayne and fallen by the swoorde, whiche cause a feare (to be)

(f) This came to passe in lesse then fourtie yeres after the prophesie.

(g) The inhabitantes of Egypt shalbe so cleane destroyed, that there shal remayne none to drawe the waters out of the riuers to water their groundes as before, where by it shalbe the deeper in his channel.

(h) That is, cleare & vntroubled with feete passyng thorowe the fordes.

(i) That is, propheste that they shalbe cast downe. Thus the Lord geueth power both to plante & to destroy by his word.

in the lande of the liuing.

24 There is Elam alſo, with al his people rounde about his graue, whiche al beyng ſlaine and fallen with the ſwoꝛde, are gone dowme vncircumciſed vnder ẏ earth, which neuertheleſſe ſometyme bꝛought feare into the lande of the (n) liuing: they beare their owne ſhame, with the other that be gone dowme to the graue.

(n) They which beyng aliue, were a terrour to al the world, now beyng dead, are deſpiſed both of the lyuyng & the dead.

25 They haue made his bed in the middeſt of the ſlayne, with al his multitude, theyꝛ graues are rounde about hym: al theſe vncircumciſed ſlaine by the ſwoꝛde, although they cauſed theyꝛ feare in the lande of the liuyng, yet haue they bozne theyꝛ ſhame with them that goe dowme to the pyt, they are layde in the middeſt of them that are ſlayne.

26 There is (o) Meſech alſo and Tubal, and their people, and their graues rounde about hym: theſe all vncircumciſed were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, becauſe afoꝛetime they made the lande of the liuing afrayde.

(p) VVhiche dyed not by cruel death: but by the courſe of nature, and are honourably buried with theyr coate armour, and ſignes of honour.

27 They ſhal not lye with the (p) valiant (whiche are) fallen of the vncircumciſed, whiche are gone downe to the graue with theyꝛ weapons of warre, and haue layde their ſwoꝛdes vnder their heades: but their iniquitie ſhalbe vpon their bones, becauſe the terrour of their mightie (was) in the lande of the liuing.

28 Yea, and among the vncircumciſed ſhalt thou be deſtroyed, & ſleepe with them that periſhed thꝛough the ſwoꝛde.

29 There is Edom with her kynges and pꝛinces alſo, which with their ſtrength are layde by them that were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛd: yea among the vncircumciſed ſhall they ſleepe, and with them which are gone downe into the pyt.

(q) That is, the kynges of Babylon.

30 Moꝛeouer, there be al the pꝛinces of the (q) noꝛth, with al the Sidonians, whiche are gone downe with the ſlaine: with theyꝛ feare and ſtrength they are come to confuſion, and lye there vncircumciſed among thoſe that be ſlaine with the ſwoꝛde, and beare their owne ſhame with them that be gone dowme to the pyt.

(r) Lyke as the wycked reioyce, whē they ſee others partakers of theyr miſeries.

31 Pharao ſhal ſee them, and be (r) comfoꝛted ouer al his multitude: Pharao and al his armie (ſhalbe) ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, ſayth the Lozde God,

(s) I wilmake the Egyptiās afraid of me, as they haue cauſed other to feare them

32 Foꝛ I haue geuen my feare (s) in the land of the liuing: but Pharao and al his people ſhalbe laide among the vncircumciſed, and among them that be ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, ſayth the Lozde God.

The. xxxiii. Chapter.

He ſetteth out the office of the gouernours and miniſters, 14. He ſtrengtheneth them that diſpayre, and boldeneth them with the promiſe of mercy.

1 AGayne, the woꝛde of the Lozd came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake to the children of thy people, and tel them, When I ſende a ſwoꝛd vpon a lande, if the people of the land take a man of theyꝛ coaſtes, and ſet him to be theyꝛ (a) watchman:

(a) He ſheweth that the people ought continually to haue gouernours & teachers, whiche may haue a care ouer them, & to warne them euer of the dāgers which are at hande.

3 Yf when he ſeeth the ſwoꝛde come vpon the lande, he ſhall blowe the trumpet and warne the people:

4 Then he that heareth the noyſe of the trumpet and wyl not be warned, and the ſwoꝛde come & take him away, his blood ſhalbe vpon his owne head.

5 Foꝛ he hearde the ſounde of the trumpet, and wouldе not be warned, therefoꝛe his blood be vpon hym: but he that receiueth warning, he ſhal ſaue his lyfe.

6 Agayne yf the watchman ſee the ſwoꝛde come, and blowe not the trumpet, ſo that the people is not warned, yf the ſwoꝛde come then, and take any man from among them: the ſame ſhalbe (b) taken away in his owne ſinne, but his blood wil I require at the watchmans hande.

(b) Signifying that the wicked ſhall not eſcape puniſhment, thoughthe watchman be negligēt, but yf the watchman blowe the trumpet, and then he wyl not obey, he ſhal deſerue double puniſhment, Cap. 3.6.

7 And thou, O ſonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therefoꝛe thou ſhalt heare the woꝛde at (c) my mouth, and thou ſhalt warne them from me.

(c) VVhiche teacheth that he that receiueth not his charge and watch woꝛde at the Lordes mouth, is a ſpye, and not a true watchman.

8 If I ſay vnto the wycked, Thou wicked, thou ſhalt ſurely dye: and thou ſpeakeſt not to admonyſhe the wycked of his way: that wicked man ſhal dye in his owne ſinne, but his blood wyl I require at thy hande.

9 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou warne the wicked of his way to turne from it, and he yet will not be turned from his way: then ſhall he die in his iniquitie, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

(d) Thus the wicked mē they heare of Gods iudgementes for their ſinnes, diſpayre of his mercyes, & murmur

10 Therefoꝛe, O thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, yea ſay thus, Yf our offences and ſinnes lye vpon vs, and we be conſumed in them (d) howe ſhoulde we then liue?

11 Tel them, as truely I liue, ſayth the Lozd God, I haue no pleaſure in the death of the wicked, but muche rather that the wicked turne from his way, and liue: Turne you, turne you from your wycked wayes, foꝛ why wyl ye dye, O ye of the houſe of Iſrael?

12 Therefoꝛe thou ſonne of man, tell the children of thy people, The righteouſneſſe of of the righteous shall not saue him in the day of his iniquitie: agayne, the wickednesse of the wicked shal not ouerthrow him for it in the day that he returneth from his wickednesse: neyther shall the righteous live for (c) it in the day that he sinneth.

13 If I say vnto the righteous, He shal surely liue: and so he trust to his owne righteousnesse, and doo sinne: then shall his righteousnesse be no more thought vppon, but in his wickednesse that he hath donne, in it he shal dye.

14 Agayne, if I say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely dye: and so he turne from his sinnes, and (f) doo the thing that is lawful and right, 15 Insomuche that the same wicked man geueth the pledge agayne, restoreth that he had taken away by robberie, walketh in the commaundementes of lyfe, and dooth none iniquitie: then shal he surely liue, and not dye.

19 None of the sinnes that he hath committed shalbe mentioned vnto him: for insomuche as he dooth nowe the thing that is lawful and right, he shal liue.

17 And yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lorde is not equall: but their owne way is rather vnequal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousnesse, and dooth the thing that is wicked, he shal die therein.

19 But if the wicked turne from his wickednesse, dooing the thing that is lawful and right, he shal liue therefore.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I wyl iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

21 In the twelfth yeere, the fifth day of the tenth moneth of our (g) captiuitie, one whiche was escaped out of Hierusalem came vnto me, & sayd, The citie is smitten.

22 Nowe the (h) hande of the Lorde had ben vpon me the euening afore this man which was escaped came vnto me, and had (i) opened my mouth vntyl the morning that he came to me: yea my mouth was opened, so that I was no more dumbe.

23 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, and saide,

24 Thou sonne of man, these that dwel in the wasted lande of Israel talke and say, (k) Abraham was but one (man) and he had the lande in possession: nowe are we many, and the lande is geuen vs to possesse also.

25 And therefore tel them, thus sayth the Lorde God, In the blood haue ye eaten, your eyes haue ye lyft vp to idols, and haue shed blood: shal ye then haue the lande in possession?

26 Ye (l) leane vppon your swoordes, ye woorke abominations, euery one defyleth his neighbours wyfe: and shal ye possesse the lande?

27 Say thou thus vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, As truely as I liue, they that are in the desolate places shal fall by the swoorde, and him that is in the open feeld, wyl I geue vnto the beastes to be deuoured: and they that be in the strong holdes and dennes shal dye of the pestilence.

28 For I wil make the lande so desolate and waste, that the pompe of her strength shal ceasse: the mountaynes of Israel shalbe so waste, that no man shal trauaile thereby. Ezech. 7. c.

29 Then shal they know that I am the Lord, when I make the land desolate and waste, because of al their abominations that they haue wrought.

30 And thou sonne of man, the children of thy people that talke of thee by the waters and in the doores of their houses, & speake one to another, euery one to his brother, sayeing, Comme I pray you, let vs heare what word is gonne foorth from the Lord:

31 They come vnto thee as the people vseth to come, and my people sit before thee and heare thy woordes, but they doo not thereafter: for in their mouthes they make a (m) iest of them, and their hart goeth after their couetousnesse.

32 And lo, thou art vnto them as a (n) lesting song of one that hath a pleasant voyce and can sing wel: for they heare thy woordes, but doo them not.

33 When this commeth to passe (loe it commeth) then shal they know that there hath ben a prophete among them.

(b) Namely, his righteousnesse. (c) Hereby he condemneth al them that dispute, whiche prouoke to euyl & mischeef, and yet declare not them selues by their fruites: that is in obeying gods commaundementes, and by godlyfe. (f) When the prophete wished euery one with Ieremie, (g) Was endued with the spirite of prophesie, as Cap. xvii. a. (h) Where by is signified that the mouthes of god can not speake vyl god powre them owt, and open their mouthes. (i) Thus the vnbeliefulnesse of them selues were not worthy to enioye gods promise then the fauoures of god, to whom they were made: and wouldde thinke god who is perfect vnfaythfulnesse, though they wolde not be bounde to him. (l) As they that are redy stil to shed blood. (m) This declareth that we ought to heare gods worde with such zeale & affection, that we shoulde not only delighe therein to heare it preached, but also in al pointes obey it: els we abuse the worde to our owne condempnation, and make of the ministers as though they were iestes to serue mens fantasies. (n) Or a song of pastime & pleasure.

The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

Agaynst sheapheardes that despyse the flocke of Christ, and seeke their owne gayne.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

2 Thou sonne of man, prophesie agaynst the shepheardes of Israel, prophesie and speake vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God vnto the sheepheardes, Wo be vnto ỹ (a) sheapheards of Israel that fede them selues: shoulde not the shepheardes fede the flockes?

3 Ye eate vp the fatte, ye clothe you with the wool, the best fedde doo ye slay: but the flocke doo ye not fede.

4 The weake haue ye not strengthened, the sicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde togeather, the driuen away

(a) By the sheapheardes he meaneth the king, the magistrates, priestes, and prophetes.

haue ye not brought again, the loſt haue ye not ſought: but with force & cruelnie haue ye ruled them.

(b) For lacke of good gouernment & doctrine they periſhe.

5 They are ſcattered without a ſheepheard, yea al the beaſtes of the feelde (b) deuoure them, and they goe aſtray.

6 My ſheepe go wandring vppon al mountaynes, and vpon euery hygh hyl, yea my flocke is ſcattered thrugh all the face of the earth, and there is no man that ſeeketh or ſearcheth (after them.)

7 Therefore, O ye ſheepheardes, heare the woorde of the Lorde.

8 As truely as I liue, ſayth the Lord God, forasmuche as my ſheepe are robbed and deuoured of al the wylde beaſtes of the feelde, hauing no ſheephearde, and ſeeing that my ſheepheardes ſeeke not my sheepe, but the ſhepheardes feede them ſelues, and feede not my ſheepe.

9 Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye ſhepheardes,

10 Thus ſaith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon the ſhepheardes, and require my ſheepe from their handes, and make them ceaſſe from feeding of the ſheepe, yea the ſhepheards ſhal feede them ſelues no more: for I wyl (c) deliuer my ſheepe out of their mouthes, ſo that they ſhall not deuoure them after this.

(c) By deſtroying the couetous hirelinges, and reſtoring true ſhepheards.

11 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I, (euen) I wyl looke to my ſheepe mee ſelfe, and ſeeke them out.

12 Lyke as a ſhepheарde when he hath bene among the flocke, ſeeketh after the ſheepe that are ſcattered abroade: euen ſo wyll I ſeeke after my ſheepe, and deliuer them out of all places where they haue benne ſcattered in the (d) cloudie and darke day.

(d) In the day of their affliction and miſerie: and this promiſe is to comfort the Church in al daungers.

13 I wyll bryng them out from the people, and geather them togeather out of the landes, I wyll bryng them into their owne lande, and feede them vppon the mountaynes of Iſrael by the riuers, and in al the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I wyll feede them in right good paſtures, and vppon the hygh mountaynes of Iſrael ſhall their foldes be: there ſhal they lye in a good folde, and in a fat paſture ſhall they feede, euen vppon the mountaines of Iſrael.

15 I wyll feede my ſheepe, and bring them to their reſt, ſayth the Lorde God.

(e) That is, by putting difference betweene the good and bad, and ſo geue to eyther as they deſerue.

16 Suche as be loſt, wyll I ſeeke: ſuch as are driuen away, wyl I bryng againe: ſuch as be broken, wyl I bynd vp: ſuche as be weake, wyl I make ſtrong: ſuch as be fat and ſtrong, thoſe wil I roote out, and feede them with (e) iudgement.

17 And as for you, O my ſheepe, ſayth the Lord god, I will iudge betweene cattel & cattel, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a ſmall thing to you to haue eaten vp the good (f) paſture, and to treade downe the reſidue of your paſture with your feete alſo? to drinke the deepe waters, and to trouble the reſt alſo with your feete?

(f) By good paſture and deepe waters is meant the pure word of god, and the adminiſtration of iuſtice: which they did not diſcharge the power tyl they had corrupti.

19 Thus my ſheepe muſt be fayne to eate the thing that ye haue troden downe with your feete, and to drinke it that ye with your feete haue defyled.

20 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God vnto them, Beholde, I (euen) I wyll iudge betweene the fatte cattel and the leane cattel, 21 For ſomuch as with ſyde and ſhoulder ye haue ſhoued, and with your hornes haue puſhed all the weake, tyl ye haue ſcattered them abroade.

22 I wyl ſaue my ſheepe, ſo that they ſhall no more be ſpoyled, yea I wyll iudge betweene cattel and cattel.

23 I wyl ſet vp ouer them a ſhepheарde, and he ſhall feede them, euen my ſeruant (g) Dauid, he ſhal feede them, and be ſhalbe their sheapheарde.

(g) Meaning Chriſte, of whom Dauid was figure, as Oſee. 3.

24 And I the Lorde wyl be their God, and my ſeruant Dauid ſhalbe their prince: euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

(h) This is clearely ſpoken vnder Chriſt the ſhepe ſhoulde be truely deſcribed from Gods ſeruice and hellowed to be fatly preſerued in the Church where they ſhoulde not haue perilles.

25 Moreouer, I wyl make a couenant of peace with them, and cauſe cuyl beaſtes to ceaſſe out of the lande: ſo that they may dwel (h) ſafely in the wyldernes, and ſleepe in the woodes.

26 And I wyll ſet them (as) a bleſſing round about my hyll, and I wyl cauſe raine to come downe in due ſeaſon, (and) there ſhalbe raine of bleſſing.

27 And the tree of the feelde ſhall yeelde her fruite, and the earth ſhal geue her encrease: they ſhalbe ſafe in their lande, and ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I haue broken the bondes of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the handes of thoſe that ſerued them ſelues of them.

28 They ſhall no more be ſpoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beaſtes of the lande: but ſafely ſhal they dwel, and no man ſhal fray them.

29 And I will rayſe vp for them a (i) plant of renowme, and they ſhalbe no more "clunged with hunger in the lande, neither beare the reproche of the heathen any more.

(i) That is, the rod that ſhal come out of the roote of Iſai.

" or, cleane of hunger. Ezech.

30 Thus ſhall they vnderſtande that I the Lorde their God am with them, and that they, euen the houſe of Iſrael, are my people, ſayth the Lorde God:

31 And ye my ſheepe, the ſheepe of my paſture, ſhue, are men: and I am your God, ſaith the Lorde God.

The .xxxv. Chapter.

The deſtruction that ſhall come on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, becauſe they troubled the people of the Lorde.

1 MOreouer the woꝛd of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

3 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde the mount (a) Seir, prophecie againſt it,

3 And ſay vnto it, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O thou mount Seir, I wil vpon thee, I will reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waſte and deſolate thy I make thee.

4 Thy cities will I lay waſte, and thou ſhalt lye voyde, that thou mayeſt know how that I am the Lorde,

5 Forasmuch as thou beareſt an olde enmitie, and haſt put the children of Iſrael to flight by the force of the ſwoꝛde, in the tyme of their calamitie, (when they) iniquitie had an ende.

6 Therefoꝛe as truely as I liue, ſayth the Lorde God, I will prepare thee vnto bloode, yea blood ſhal folow vpon thee, except thou (b) hate blood, euen blood ſhall perſecute thee.

7 Thus will I make the mount Seir deſolate and waſte, & cutte out from it hym that paſſeth out, and him that returneth:

8 His mountaines wil I fil with his ſlayne men, thy hilles, valleys, and al thy riuers, the ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde ſhall fall in them.

9 I will make thee a perpetual wilderneſſe, ſo that thy cities ſhal not (c) returne: that ye may knowe that I am the Lord.

10 And becauſe thou haſt ſayde, (d) Both theſe nations, and both theſe landes muſt be mine, and we will haue them in poſſeſſion, whereas the Lorde was there:

11 Therefoꝛe as truely as I liue, ſayth the Lord God, I will euen do accoꝛdyng to thy (e) wyath, and accoꝛdyng to thine enuiyng which thou haſt vſed in thy hatred againſt them: and I will make mee ſelfe (f) knowen amongſt them when I haue iudged thee.

12 Yea and thou ſhalt knowe that I the lord haue heaꝛde al thy blaſphemies, whiche thou haſt ſpoken againſt the mountaynes of Iſrael, ſaying, They are made waſte, and geuen vs to deuour.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your boaſtes againſt me, yea and multiplied your woꝛdes againſt me, which I haue heaꝛde.

14 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, To the ioy of al the woꝛlde wil I make thee waſte.

15 And like as thou waſt glad becauſe the heritage of the houſe of Iſrael was deſtroyed, euen ſo wil I do vnto thee, thou ſhalt be deſtroyed, O mount Seir, and al Idumea wholly, and they ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde.

The .xxxvi. Chapter.

2. He promyſeth to deliuer Iſrael from the Gentiles, 22. The benefites done vnto the Iewes, are to be aſcribed to the mercy of God, not vnto their deſeruynges.

1 THou ſonne of man, prophecie vnto the mountaynes of Iſrael, and ſpeake, Heare the woꝛde of the Lorde, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael. & Ezech. 6. a.

2 Thus ſayth the Lord God, Becauſe your (a) enimie hath ſaid vnto you aha, the (b) high places of the woꝛlde are nowe become ours in poſſeſſion:

3 Prophecie therefoꝛe and ſpeake, thus ſaith the Lorde God, Foꝛ becauſe that they haue made you deſolate, and ſwalowed you vp on euery ſide, that ye might be a poſſeſſion vnto the reſidue of the Gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the (c) lippes and tongues of men, and to the repꝛoche of the people:

4 Therefoꝛe heare the woꝛde of the Lorde GOD, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lord God to the mountaynes and hylles, to the riuers & valleys, to the waſte and deſolate places, and to the cities that are foꝛſaken, whiche are ſpoyled and had in deriſion on euery ſyde, among the reſidue of the heathen:

5 Therefoꝛe thus ſaith the Lord God, Surely in the fire of my ielouſie haue I ſpoken againſt the reſidue of the Gentiles, and againſt al Edom, which haue (d) appointed my lande foꝛ theyꝛ poſſeſſion, which alſo reioyced frō their whole hart with a deſpiteful ſtomacke, to caſt it out foꝛ a pray.

6 Prophecie therefoꝛe vpon the lande of Iſrael, and ſpeake vnto the mountaynes and hylles, to the riuers and dales, thus ſayth the Lord God, Beholde this haue I ſpoken in my ielouſie and terrible wyath, becauſe ye haue boꝛne the (e) ſhame of the heathen:

7 Therefoꝛe thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I haue (f) lift vp my hande, ſurely the heathen that are about you, ſhall beare theyꝛ ſhame.

8 But you, O mountaines of Iſrael, ye ſhal (g) ſhoote out your branches, & bring foꝛth your fruite to my people of Iſrael: foꝛ they are at hande to come.

(a) That is, the Idumeans.
(b) That is, the hylly countreys of Iuda.
(c) Ye are made a matter of talke and deriſion to al the worlde.
(d) They appointed with them ſelues to haue it, and therfore came with Nabuchodonoſor againſt Hieruſalē for this purpoſe.
(e) Becauſe ye haue ben a laughyng ſtocke vnto them.
(f) By making a ſolemne othe. Cap. 20. 2.
(g) God declareth his mercies and goodneſſe towarde his Churche, who ſtyl preſerueth his, euen when he deſtroieth his enimies.

9 Beholde, I come vnto you, and vnto you will I turne, that ye may be tilled and ſo-wen.
10 I will multiply men vpon you (euen) al the houſe of Iſrael wholly, the cities ſhalbe inhabited, and the decayed places ſhalbe repayred agayne.
11 And I will multiplie vpon you man and beaſt, which ſhal encreaſe and bring fruite:
and I will cauſe you to dwel after your old eſtate, and be better (h) vnto you then at the beginning: and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.
12 Yea I will cauſe men to walke vpon (i) you, (euen) my people Iſrael, and they ſhal poſſeſſe (k) thee, and thou ſhalt be their inheritance, & thou ſhalt no more henceforth deprive them of (men.)
13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Forſomuche as they ſay vnto you, Thou art an (l) eater vp of men, and a waſter of thy people:
14 Therefore thou ſhalt eate no more men, neyther deſtroy thy people any more, ſayth
the Lorde God:
15 Neyther will I cauſe men to heare in thee
the ſhame of the heathen any more: neyther ſhalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, nor cauſe thy folke to fall any more, ſayth the Lorde God.
16 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,
17 O thou ſonne of man, when the houſe of Iſrael dwelt vpon their owne grounde, they defiled them ſelues with their owne wayes and imaginations, ſo that in my ſyght their way was like the vncleanneſſe of a removed woman.
18 Wherefore I powred my wrathful diſpleaſure vpon them, becauſe of the blood that they had ſhed in the lande, and becauſe of their idols wherewith they had defiled it:
19 I ſcattered them alſo among the heathen, ſo that they were ſtrawed about in the landes: according to their wayes, & after their owne inuentions, ſo did I iudge them.
20 And when they entred vnto the heathen whither they went, they polluted my holy name, when they ſayde of them, Theſe are the people of God, and are gone out of his lande.
21 Then ſpared I my holy (m) name, which the houſe of Iſrael had diſhonoured among the Gentiles where they came.
22 Therefore tel the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſaith the Lorde God, I (n) do not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for my holy names ſake, whiche ye diſhonoured among the heathen where ye came.
23 Therfore I will halowe my great name agayne, whiche among the gentiles is polluted, for ye your ſelues haue diſhonoured it among them: and the gentiles ſhal know that I am the Lorde, ſayth the Lorde God, when I ſhalbe ſanctified in you before your eyes.
24 As for you, I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you together out of al countreys, and bring you agayne into your owne lande.
25 Then will I ſprincle cleane (o) water vpon you, and ye ſhalbe cleane: yea from all your vncleanneſſe and from all your idols ſhal I cleanſe you.
26 A newe hart alſo will I geue you, and a new ſpirit will I put into you: as for that ſtony hart I will take it out of your fleſhe, and geue you a fleſhy hart.
27 I will geue my ſpirite among you, and cauſe you to walke in my commaundements, and ye ſhal kepe my iudgementes, and do them.
28 And ſo ye ſhall dwell in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: and ye ſhalbe my people, and I will be your God.
29 I will deliuer you from al your vncleanneſſe, I will cal for the (p) corne, and will encreaſe it, and lay no famine vpon you.
30 I will multiplie the fruites of the trees and the increaſe of the feelde, ſo that ye ſhal receiue no more reproche of hunger among the heathen.
31 Then ſhal ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your imaginations which were not good: ſo that ye ſhalbe (q) irkſome in your owne eyes for your ſinnes and abomi-nations.
32 But I will not do this for your ſakes, ſaith the Lord God, be ye ſure of it: therefore, O ye houſe of Iſrael, be aſhamed and confounded of your owne wayes.
33 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lorde GOD,
What time as I ſhall cleanſe you from all your iniquities, then will I make the cities to be inhabited againe, and the places that be decayed, ſhalbe repayred.
34 The deſolate lande ſhalbe tilled againe, which afore time lay waſte in the ſight of al them that went by.
35 And they ſhal ſay, This waſte lande was like the garden of Eden: and theſe waſte and deſolate and ruinous cities (were) ſtrong (and) inhabited.
36 Then the reſidue of the heathen that lye rounde about you, ſhal knowe that I the Lorde (r) repayre that was broken downe, & plant againe that that was made waſte:
euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it, and wyl do it in deede.
37 Thus ſaith the Lord God, I will yet for this be ſought of the houſe of Iſrael to do it

(h) VVhiche was accomplished vnder Chriſte, to whom all theſe temporal deliuerances dyd direct them.
(i) That is, vpon the mountaynes of Iuda.
(k) You, changing the number.
(l) Thus the enimies imputed as the reproche of the lande, which God dyd for the ſinnes of the people, according to his iuſt iudgmentes.
(m) And therfore woulde not ſuffer my name to be had in contempt, as the heathen woulde haue reproched me, yf I had ſuffered my churche to periſhe.
(n) This excludeth from mens dignitie & meane to deſerue any thing by, ſeeyng that god referreth the whole to him ſelfe, & that only for the glory of his holy name.
(o) That is his ſpirite, whereby he reformeth the hart, and regenerateth his. Eſai. 44.
(p) Vnder the abundance of temporall benefites, he concludeth the ſpirituall graces.
(q) Ye ſhal come to true repentance, and thynke your ſelues vnworthy to be of the number of Gods creatures, for your ingratitude againſt him.
(r) He declareth that it ought not to be referred to the ſoyle or fertilitie of the earth that any countrey is riche and in bundance, but only Gods mercies: as his plagues & curſes declare when he maketh it barren.

them, I wyll multiplie them as a flocke of men.

38 Like as the holy flocke, and the flocke of Hierusalem are in the dyeth solempne feastes, so shal also the wasted cities be fylled with flockes of men: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxxvii. Chapter.

He prophesieth the bringing agayne of the people beyng in captiuitie. 16. He shewe eth the vnion of the ten tribes with the two.

1 THe hande of the Lorde was vppon me, and caryed me out in the spirite of the Lord, and set me downe in the middest of a playne feelde that was ful of (a) bones.

2 And he led me round about by them, and beholde there was very many in the open feelde, and lo (they were) very dyie.

3 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thinkest thou these bones may liue agayne? I answeared, O Lorde God, thou knowest.

4 And he saide vnto me, Prophesie thou vpon these bones, and speake vnto them: Ye dyie bones heare the woord of the lord,

5 Thus sayth the Lorde God vnto these bones, Beholde, I wyl cause breath to enter into you, that ye may liue.

6 I wyl geue you sinowes, and make flesthe growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with skinne, and so geue you breath, that ye may liue, and knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 So I prophesied as I was commaunded: and as I was prophesying, there was a noyse, and loe a great motion, so that the bones came neare together, bone to his bone.

8 Nowe when I had looked, beholde they had sinowes, and flesthe growe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with skinne: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, prophesie thou towarde the winde, prophesie and speake to the winde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Comme, O thou * ayre from the foure windes, and * blowe vpon these slayne, that they may liue.

10 So I prophesied as he had commaunded me: then came the breath into them, and they receyued lyfe, and stood vp vpon their feete, a maruelous great armie.

11 Moreouer he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: beholde they say, Our bones are dryed vp, our hope is gonne, and we are cleane cut of.

12 Therefore prophesie thou, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl open your graues, O my people, and cause you to comme vp out of your sepulchres, and bring you into the lande of Israel agayne.

13 So shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I open your graues, O my people, and bring you (b) out of your sepulchres.

14 My spirite also wyl I put in you, and ye shal liue, I wil set you againe in your owne lande: and ye shal knowe that I the Lorde haue sayde it, and fulfylled it in deed, saith the Lorde.

15 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

16 Thou sonne of man, take one sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Iuda and to the children of Israel his companyons. Then take another sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Ioseph the "sticke of Ephraim, and to al the housholde of Israel his companions.

17 And (c) ioyne them one to another into one sticke: and they shalbe as one in thy hande.

18 Nowe if the children of thy people speake vnto thee, sayeing, Wylt thou not shewe vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answeare, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wil take the (d) "sticke of Ioseph, whiche is in the hande of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his felowes, and wil put them with him, (euen) with the sticke of Iuda, and make them one "sticke, and they shalbe one in my hande.

20 And the sticks whereupon thou writest, shalt thou haue in thy hande, that they may see.

21 And thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyll take the children of Israel from among the heathen vnto whom they be gonne, and wyl gather them togeather on euery syde, and bring them agayne into their owne lande.

22 Yea I wyll make one people of them in the lande vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and one kyng shalbe kyng to them all: they shal no more be two peoples, neither be diuided from hence forth into two kingdomes.

23 They shal also defyle them selues no more with their idols and abominations, and al their wicked doinges: I wyl sane them out of al their dwelling places wherin they haue sinned, and wyll so cleanse them, that they shalbe my people, and I wylbe their God.

24 Dauid my seruant shalbe their king, and they all shall haue one shepheard: they shall walke in my iudgementes, and my

The.xxxviii. Chapter.

He propheſieth that Cog and Magog ſhall come with an appoynted hoaſt into the land of promiſe.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face agaynſt (a) Gog, the land of Magog, whiche is the cheefe prince of Meſech and Tubal, and propheſie againſt him,

3 And ſay, thus ſayth the Lorde God: O Gog, thou cheefe prince of Meſech & Tubal, beholde I wyl vpon thee:

4 And I wyl turne "thee backe, and put hookes in thy chawes, I wyl bring thee foorth and all thyne hoaſt, both horſe and horſemen, al armed with all ſortes of armour, a great multitude with ſpeares and ſhieldes, al handling ſwoordes.

5 They of (b) Paras, of Chuth, and Phut, with them (euen) all (hauyng) ſhieldes and helmets, 6 Gomer and all his hoaſtes, the houſe of Togarma out of the northe quarters and al his hoſtes, yea and muche people with thee.

7 Therefore prepare thee, ſet thee ſelfe in aray with al the people that are come vnto thee by heapes, and be thou their defence.

8 After many dayes thou ſhalt be viſited, and in the latter yeeres thou ſhalt comme into the lande that hath benne turned (and toll) with the ſwoorde, and gathered together agayne out of many people vppon the mountaynes of Iſrael, which haue ben alwayes (ſubiect) to waſte: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwel al ſafe.

9 Thou ſhalt aſſende and comme vp like a ſtorme, as a cloude to couer the lande ſhalt thou be: thou with al thyne hoaſtes, and a great multitude of people with thee.

10 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lorde God, At the ſame tyme ſhal thinges comme into thy minde, ſo that thou ſhalt thinke (c) euyl thoughtes,

11 And ſay, I wyl vp to the lande of (d) vnwalled villages, I wyl goe to them that be at reſt, whiche dwell ſafely, al dwelling without walles, they haue neyther barres nor gates:

12 To ſpoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hande vppon the deſolate places that are (nowe) inhabited, and vpon that people that is geathered together from among the heathen, whiche haue gotten catel & goods, and dwell in the middes of the lande.

13 Then ſhal Saba & Dedan, and the marchantes of Tharſis with al their lions, ſay vnto thee, (e) Art thou comme to ſpoyle a pray? haſt thou geathered thy people together to take a bootie, to take away ſiluer and gold, to cary away catel and good, and to haue a great pray?

14 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, thou ſhalt propheſie and ſay vnto Gog, thus ſayth the Lorde God: In that day when my people Iſrael (f) dwelleth ſafe, ſhalt thou not knowe it?

15 And thou ſhalt come from thy place out of the northe partes, thou and muche people with thee, whiche ryde al vppon horſes, (euen) a great multitude and a mighty armie.

16 Yea thou ſhalt comme vpon my people of Iſrael, as a cloude to couer the lande: this ſhal comme to paſſe in the (g) later dayes, and I wyl bryng thee vp into my lande, that the heathen may knowe me, when I ſhalbe (h) ſanctifyed in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Art thou not he of whom I haue ſpoken in olde tyme by the handes of my ſeruantes the propheetes of Iſrael, whiche propheſied in thoſe dayes and yeeres, that I ſhoulde bryng thee vpon them?

18 At the ſame tyme when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God, ſhal myne indignation ryſe in my wrath:

19 For in my ielouſie & fyre of my wrath haue I ſpoken it, ſurely at that time there ſhalbe a great ſhaking in ye lande of Iſrael.

The. xxxix. Chapter.

1. He sheweth the destruction of Gog and Magog, 13. The graue of Gog and his host.

1 THerfore, O thou sonne of man, prophesie against Gog, and speake, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, O Gog, thou chiefe prince of Mesech and Tubal, I wyl vpon thee.

2 And I wyl * turne thee about, and I * wyll (a) prouoke thee forewarde, and cause thee to come vp from the North partes, and bring thee vp to the mountaines of Israel.

3 And as for thy bowe, I wyl smite it out of thy left hande, and cause thine arrowes to fal out of thy right hande.

4 Thou, with al thine host, & all the people that is with thee, shal fall vppon the mountaines of Israel: then wyl I geue thee vnto the (b) flockes of byrdes, (euen) to al feathered foules and beastes of the fielde, to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fal vpon the open fielde: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among those that sit so carelesse in the Iles wil I sende a fire, and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 I wyl make also the name of my holynesse to be knowen among my people of Israel, & I wyl not let them pollute my holy name any more: but the very heathen also shal knowe that I am the Lord, the holy one of Israel.

8 Beholde, it is (c) come, and it is donne, saith the Lorde God: this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 They that dwel in the cities of Israel, shal goe forth, and (d) set fire vpon the weapons, and burne them, shieldes and speares, bowes and arrowes, * handstaues, and swoordes, and they shal burne them with fire seuen yeere.

10 So that they shal ete no wood from the fielde, neither hewe downe any out of the wood: for with weapons shal they make their fire, they shall rob those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, saith the Lord God.

11 At the same tyme wyl I geue vnto Gog a place to be buried in Israel, euen the valley wherethrough men goe toward the East sea: those that transaile thereby, shal (e) stop their noses: there shal Gog and al his multitude be buryed: and it shalbe called the valley of the * multitude of Gog.

12 Seuen monethes long shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they maye cleanse the lande.

13 Yea, al the people of the lande shal burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 They shall choose out men to goe continually throughe the lande, to (f) burye as they passe through those that remaine vpon the grounde, to cleanse it: after the ende of seuen monethes shall they make their searche.

15 And the transaylers that passe throughe the lande, where they see a mans bone, they shal set vp a token by it, tyll the dead buryers haue buried it also in the valley of the * multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie shalbe called (g) Hamonah: thus shal they make the land cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus sayth the Lorde God, Speake vnto al feathered foules, yea, and to all the beastes of the fielde, Assemble you togeather, and come, geather you rounde about to my (h) sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, (euen) a great sacrifice vpon the mountaines of Israel, that ye may eate flesh, and drinke blood.

18 Ye shal eate the flesh of the valiant, and drinke the blood of the princes of the lande, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be al fedde at Basan.

19 Ye shal eate the fat your belly full, and drinke blood tyl ye be dronken of my sacrifice, whiche I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Ye shal fil you at my table with horses & * horsemen, with the valiant, and men of warre, saith the Lorde God.

21 I wyl set my glory also among the Gentiles, that al the heathen may see my iudgement that I haue executed, and my hande whiche I haue layde vpon them.

22 And the house of Israel shal knowe that I am the Lorde their God, from that day, and so forewarde.

23 And the heathen ſhal know, that whereas the houſe of Iſrael was led into captiuitie, it was for their(i) wickednesse ſake, becauſe they offended me: for the which cauſe I hydde my face from them, and deliuered them into the handes of their enimies, that they might al be ſlaine with the ſworde.

24 Accoyding to their vncleanneſſe, and accoyding to their tranſgreſſions haue I done vnto them, and hyd my face from them.

25 Therfore thus ſaith the Lord God, Now wyl I bring againe the captiues of Iacob, and haue mercye vppon the whole houſe of Iſrael, & be ielous for my holy names ſake,

26 After that they haue borne their ſhame, & al their tranſgreſſion, whereby they haue tranſgreſſed againſt me, when they dwelt ſafely in their land, & no man to feare them:

27 And when I haue brought them againe from among the people, when I haue gathered them togeather out of their enimies landes, and am ſanctified in them in the ſight of many nations:

28 Then ſhall they knowe that I am the Lord their God, whiche cauſed them to be led into captiuitie among the heathen, but haue geathered them againe into their owne lande, and not leaft one of them any more there.

29 After that wyll I hide my face no more from them, but wyll powre out my ſpirite vppon the houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lorde God.

(i) The heathen ſhal knowe that they ouercame not my people by their owne ſtrength, neither yet by the weakeneſſe of mine arme, but that this was for my peoples ſinnes.

The. xl. Chapter.

The reſtoryng of the cities, and of the temple that was to come, is ſhewed vnto the propher.

(a) The Iewes counted the begynning of the yereafter two ſortes: for feaſtes, they beganne to counte in Marche: and for their other affaires, in Septēber, ſo that this is to be vnderſtande of September.

1 IN the fiue and twentieth yere of our captiuitie, in the (a) beginning of the yeere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is, the fourteenth yeere after the citie was ſmytten, the ſelfe ſame day came the hand of the Lord vpon me, and brought me thyther:

2 Euen into the lande of Iſrael brought he me in the viſions of God, and ſet me downe vpon a maruellous high mountaine, wherupon there was as it had ben the buylding of a citie towarde the South.

3 Thither he carried me, and beholde, there was a (b) man, whoſe ſimilitude was like braſſe, whiche had a twiſted lyne of flaxe in his hande, and a cane to meaſure with: and he ſtoode in the doore.

4 And that man ſayd vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, marke wel with thine (c) eyes, hearken to with thine eares, and faſten it in thy harte what ſo euer I ſhall ſhewe thee: for to the intent that they myght be ſhewed thee, therefore art thou brought hither, and what ſo euer thou ſeeſt, thou ſhalt certifie the houſe of Iſrael thereof.

(b) Whiche was an angel in fourme of a man, that came to meaſure out this buyldyng.

(c) By this & the like Hebrue phraſes, he exhorted him to beholde, & marke diligently as a thing worthy notyng.

5 Beholde, there was a wal on the (d) outſide of the houſe rounde about: the cane to meaſure with that he had in his hand, was ſixe cubites long by the (e) cubite, & a hands breadth: So he meaſured the breadth of the buylding with one cane, and the height with one cane.

(d) Whiche compaſſed the whole hyl of Sion, in the toppe whereof, the temple was buylded.

6 Then came he to the gate whiche loketh toward the Eaſt, and went vp the ſtayres thereof, and meaſured the poſt of the gate, one cane broade, and the other poſt of the gate one cane broade.

(e) The cubite whiche he ſpeaketh of, was larger then the common cubite by a hid breadth, that is, foure inches, and it was called the holy cubite: the common cubite conteyned but fiue hand breadth, and this ſixe. reade cha. 43. 13.

7 And (euery) chamber was one cane long, and one cane broade, & betweene the chambers, were fiue cubites: and the poſt of the gate by the porche of the gate within, was one cane.

8 He meaſured alſo the porche of the gate within, with one cane.

9 Then meaſured he the porche of the gate eyght cubites: and the * pentiſles thereof two cubites, and the porch of the gate (was) inwarde.

* Or, frontes.

10 And the chambres of the gate eaſtward, were three on this ſide, and three on that ſide: they three were of one meaſure, and the pentiſles had one meaſure on this ſide, and one meaſure on that ſide.

11 After this he meaſured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, & the height of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The ſpace alſo before the chambers, was one cubite (on this ſide) and the ſpace one cubite on that ſide: and the chambers, ſixe cubites on this ſide, and ſixe cubites on that ſide.

13 He meaſured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his owne roofe, the breadth of fiue and twentie cubites: doore againſt doore.

14 He made * frontes alſo of three ſcore cubites, (euen) vnto the front of the court rounde about the gate.

* Or, pentiſles.

15 And from the fore front of the entrie of the gate, vnto the fore front of the gate within (were) fiftie cubites.

16 And there were narow windowes in the chambers, and in the frontes within the gate round about, and ſo in the arches: and the wyndowes (went) rounde about within, and vppon the frontes were Palme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outwarde court, wherin were chambers, and a pauement made for the court rounde about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And

18 And the pauement (was) by the syde of the gates ouer agaynst the length of the gates, & the pauement (was) beneath.
19 Then he measured the breadth from the foreffront of the lower gate without, vnto the foreffront of the court within, a hundred cubites eastwarde and northwarde.
20 And the gate in the outward court that looked towarde the north, measured he after the length and breadth thereof.
D 21 And the chambers therof (were) three on this syde, and three on that syde: and the frontes therof, and the arches therof were after the measure of the (i) fyrst gate: the length therof was fyftie cubites, and the breadth fyue and twentie cubites.
22 And their windowes, and their arches, with their palme trees (were) after the measure of the gate that loketh towarde the east: and the goyng vp vnto it (had) seuen steppes, and the arches therof (were) before them.
23 And the gate of the inner court (stoode) ouer agaynst the gate towarde the north and toward the east, and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubites.
24 After that he brought me towarde the south, where there stoode a gate towarde the south, and he measured the frontes therof and the arches therof according to those measures.
25 And (there were) windowes in it, and in the arches therof rounde about lyke these windowes: the length (was) fyftie cubites, and the breadth fyue and twentie cubites.
26 And (there were) seuen steppes at the goyng vp to it, and the arches therof before them: and it had palme trees, one on this syde, and another on that syde, vppon the front therof.
27 And (there was) a gate in the inner court towarde the south, and he measured from gate to gate towarde the south, a hundred cubites.
E 28 So he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, & he measured the south gate according to those measures.
29 And the chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches therof, according to these measures, & windowes in it: and in the arches therof rounde about, fifty cubites long, and fyue and twentie cubites brode.
30 And the arches rounde about (were) fyue and twentie cubites long, and fyue cubites brode.
31 And the arches therof (were) towarde the vtter court, and palme trees vpon the frontes therof, & the goyng vp to it (had) eyght steppes.
32 He brought me also into the inmost court toward the east, and measured the gate according to those measures.
33 And the chambers therof, and frontes therof, and the arches therof (were) according to those measures, and there were windowes therein, and in the arches therof rounde about, it (was) fyftie cubites long, and fyue and twentie cubites brode.
34 And the arches therof (were) towarde F the vtter court, and palme trees vpon the frontes therof on this syde, and on that syde, & the going vp to it had eight steppes.
35 And he brought me to the north gate, & measured it according to those measures.
36 The chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches therof, and (there were) windowes therein rounde about: and the length (was) fyftie cubites, & the breadth fyue and twentie cubites.
37 And the frontes therof (were) toward the vtter court, and palme trees (were) vpon the frontes therof on this syde and on that syde, and the going vp to it had eyght steppes.
38 And a chamber and the entrie therof (was) vnder the frontes of the gates: there they washed the (g) burnt offerynges.
39 And in the porche of the gate stoode two tables on this syde, and two tables on that syde, vpon the whiche they slue the burnt offering, and the synne offering, and the trespasse offering.
40 And at the syde without the steppes, at the entrie of the north gate (stoode) two tables, & on the other syde whiche was at the porche of the gate (were) two tables.
41 Foure tables were on this syde, & foure G on that syde, by the syde of the gate (euen) eyght tables, whereupon they slue (their sacrifyces.)
42 And the foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offering, of a cubite and a halfe long, & a cubite and a halfe brode, and one cubite high, whereupon were layd the instrumentes wherewith they slue the burne offering, and the sacrifice.
43 And within there were " hookes one "ttruets.
hand breadth (long) fastened round about, and vpon the tables was the offering flesshe.
44 And without the inner gate (were) the chambers of the syngers in the inwarde court, whiche was at the syde of the north gate, and their prospect was towarde the south: and one was at the syde of the east gate, hauing y prospect toward the north.
45 And he sayde vnto me, This chamber whose prospect is towarde the south, (is) for the priestes that haue charge to kepe the house.

46 And

(i) That is, in all gate, as appeareth in the next verse.

(g) That is, the inwardes or entrayles of the sacrifice that was offered for a burntoffring

46 And the chamber whoſe proſpecte is towarde the north (is) for the prieſtes that haue charge to keepe the quiter: theſe are the ſonnes of Sadoc, whiche of the ſonnes of Leui come neare to the Lord, to miniſter vnto him.

47 So he meaſured the court, whiche had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, (euen) foure ſquare: and the aulter ſtoode before the houſe.

(h) That is, of the temple.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the (h) houſe, and meaſured the porche fyue cubites on this ſyde, and fyue cubites on that ſyde: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this ſyde, and three cubites on that ſyde.

(i) From North to South.

49 The (i) length of the porche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by ſteppes went men vp to it: by the frontes alſo were pyllers, one on this ſyde, and another on that ſyde.

The. xli. Chapter.

The diſpoſition and deuice of buyldyng againe of the temple, and of the other thynges thereto belongyng.

1 AFter this he brought me to the temple, and meaſured the frontes, ſixe cubites brode on the one ſyde, and ſixe cubites brode on the other ſyde (which was) the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 The breadth of the doore was tenne cubites, and the ſydes of the doze (were) fyue cubites on the one ſyde, and fyue cubites on the other ſyde, and he meaſured the length (a) therof fourtie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites.

(a) Of the temple from this dore to the moſt holye place.

3 Then went he in and meaſured the front of the doore two cubites: but the doore it ſelfe was ſixe cubites, and the breadth on the other ſyde of the doore was ſeuen cubites.

4 He meaſured the length therof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites before the temple: and he ſayde vnto me, This is the moſt holy (place.)

5 He meaſured alſo the wal of the houſe ſixe cubites, & the breadth of a chamber foure cubites rounde about the houſe on euery ſyde.

6 And the chambers were chamber vppon chamber, "three and thirtie in order: and they entred the wal whych was of the houſe for the chambers rounde about, that they myght be faſtened, and not be faſtened in the wal of the houſe.

"three and thirtie foote bygh.

7 There was an enlarging, and a winding about, mounting ſtil vpward to the chambers: for the ſtayre of the houſe was mounting ſtyl vpward rounde about the houſe, therefore the houſe was larger vpward: ſo they went vp from the loweſt (chamber) to the hyeheſt by the myddeſt.

8 And I ſawe the houſe bygh rounde about: the fundations of the chambers (were) a ful cane of ſyxe cubites (b) vp to the armeholes.

(b) That is, great, and of the large meaſure.

9 The thickneſſe of the wal which was for the chamber without (was) fyue cubites, and that whiche remayned was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wideneſſe of twentie cubites rounde about the houſe on euery ſyde.

11 And the dooyes of the chambers were towarde the * place that remained, one dooye towarde the north, and another toward the ſouth: and the breadth of the place that remained, was fyue cubites rounde about.

* or, bygh ſpace.

12 Now the buyldyng that was before the ſeparate place at the end towarde the weſt (was) ſeuentie cubites bryde: and the wal of the buildyng was fyue cubites thicke rounde about, and the length nienetie cubites.

13 So he meaſured the houſe, whiche was a hundred cubites long, and the ſeparate place and the building with the walles, were a hundred cubites long alſo.

14 The breadth alſo of the faze front of the houſe, and of the ſeparate place toward the eaſt, was a hundred cubites. C

15 And he meaſured the length of the buildyng ouer againſt the ſeparate place which was behynde it, and the chambers on the one ſyde, and on the other ſyde, a hundred cubites, with the temple within, and the porches of the court.

16 The dooye poſtes, and the narowe wyndowes, and the chambers round about, on three ſydes ouer againſt the dooye, ſeeled with wood round about, from the ground vp to the wyndowes: and the wyndowes themſelues were ſeeled.

17 And from aboue the dooye vnto the houſe within and without, and vpon euery wal rounde about within and without, (cooke he) meaſure.

18 And it was made with (d) Cherubims and palme trees, ſo that a palme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub, and euery Cherub had two faces.

(d) That is, Cherubins and palme trees were grauen and carued in the walles.

19 So that the face of a man was towarde the palme tree on the one ſyde, and the face of a Lion towarde the palme tree on the other ſyde: (thus) was it made throughal the houſe rounde about.

20 From the grounde vnto aboue the dooye were Cherubims and palme trees made:

and

and (thes was) the wal of the temple.

D 21 The postes of ỹ temple were foure squared, and the fashion of the sanctuarie was (c)appearance like appearance.

(f) That is, the doore postes, or cheekes of the sanctuarie, were like the doore cheekes of the temple.

22 The aulter of wood was three cubites high, and two cubites long: the corners, the length, & the walles thereof were of wood. And he saide vnto me, This is the table that shalbe before the Lorde.

23 The temple and the holyest of al had either of them two doores.

24 And the doores had two (f) doores (a peece, euen) two folding doores, two for the one doore, and two doores for the other.

25 And vpon the doores of the temple there were made Cherubims and palme trees, like as was made vpon the walles: and thicke beames vpon the forefront of the porche without.

26 And (there were) narrowe wyndowes and palme trees on the one side, and on the other side, by the sides of the porche, & vpon the sides of the house, and thicke beames.

The .xlii. Chapter.

Of the chambers of the temple for the priestes, and the holy thynges.

1 THen led he me into the vtter court by the waye towarde the North, and he brought me into the chamber that (was) ouer against the separate place, whiche (was) before the buyldyng towarde the North.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites (was) the North doore: and the breadth (was) fiftie cubites.

3 Ouer against the twentie cubites whiche were for the inner court, and ouer against the pauement, whiche was for the vtter court, (was) chamber against chamber, three (orders.)

4 And before the chambers, there was a walking place of ten cubites wide inward, the way of one cubite: and their doores towarde the North.

5 Thus the vpper chambers were alwaye narrower: for thole chambers (seemed) to eate vp these, (to wyt) the lower and the myddlemer of the buyldyng.

6 For they were in three orders, but had no pyllers as the pyllers of the courtes: therefore were they smaller the the neathermost and the myddlemost (to recken) from the grounde.

B 7 And the wall that was without ouer against the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length thereof was fiftie cubites.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the vtter court, was fiftie cubites: & loe, before the temple was a hundred cubites.

9 And vnder these chambers (was) the entrie from the East, as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court.

10 In the thickneſſe of the wall of the court toward the East, before the separate place, and before the buylding of the chambers.

11 And the way before them after the appearance of the chambers which were toward the North: as their length, so was their breadth: and al their entries (were) according to their fashion, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doores of the chambers that were towarde the South, (was) a doore in the head of the way, (euen) the way directly before the wall towarde the East as one entreth.

13 Then sayde he vnto me, The chambers towarde the North, and the chambers towarde the South, whiche are before the separate place, those be holy chambers, wherein the priestes that (a) approche vnto the Lorde must eate the most holy thinges, and there must they laye the most holy thinges, and the meate offering, and sinne offering, and trespasse offering: for it is a holy place.

(a) That is, whiche exercise the priestes office, as more fully is declared in the next chapter folowing. verse. xix.

14 When the priestes come therin, they shal not goe out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they shal laye vp their garmentes wherein they minister, for they are holy: and shal put on (b) other garmentes, and so shal approche to those which are for the people.

(b) That is, their cõmon apparel whiche they vsed among the people: and as some say, was suche as the common people vsed.

15 Nowe when he had finished the measuring of the house within, he led me forth toward the gate, whose prospect is toward the East, and he measured it round about.

16 He measured the East side with the measuring cane, fiue hundred canes, (euen) with the measuryng cane rounde about.

17 And he measured the North side fiue hundred canes, (euen) with the measuryng cane round about.

18 The South side also measured he fyue hundred canes, by the measuring cane.

19 He turned about (also) to the West side, and measured fiue hundred canes, by the measuring cane.

(c) That is, betwene the temple & the citie, whiche in respect of the sanctuary and temple was counted prophane.

20 So he measured it by the foure sides: it had a wal round about, fiue hundred canes long, and fiue hundred broade, to make a separation betweene the (c) sanctuarie, and the prophane place.

The .xliii. Chapter.

He seeth the glory of God goyng into the temple, from whence it had before departed.

1 So

A 1 SO he brought me to the gate, (euen) the gate that turneth toward the east:

2 And beholde, then came the glorye of the God of Israel from out of the East, whose voyce was like a great noyse of waters, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

Ezech.9.c. 3 And according to the appearance of the vision whiche I sawe, (euen) according to the vision whiche I sawe (a) when I came to destroye the citie: and the visions were like the visions whiche I sawe by the ryuer Chebar, and I fel vpon my face.

4 And the (b) glory of the Lorde came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the East.

5 So a * wynde tooke me vp, and brought me into the innermer court: and beholo, the house was ful of the glory of the Lorde.

6 And I heard one speakyng vnto me out of the house, and there stoode a man by me,

B 7 And he saide vnto me, O thou sonne of man, this roome is my seate, and the place of my footesteppes, whereas I wyl dwel among the children of Israel for euermore: so that the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kynges through their whoredome, and through the dead bodyes of their (c) kinges (in) their high places.

8 Albeit they haue set their thresholdes by my thresholdes, and their postes by my postes, and a wal betwixt me and them, yet haue they defiled my holy name with their abominations that they haue committed: wherefore I haue consumed them in my wrath.

9 But nowe let them put away their whoredome, and the dead bodyes of their kinges out of my sight, & I wyll dwel among them for euermore.

10 Therefore, O thou sonne of man, shewe thou the house of Israel this house, that they may be ashamed of their wickednesse, and measure them selues an example thereat.

11 And if they be ashamed of al their workes: then shew them the fourme of the house and patterne therof, ỳ going out, the comming in, al the maner therof, yea, al the ordinances thereof, the figures, & al the lawes therof, and write it in their syght, that they may keepe the whole fashion therof, and al the ordinances therof, and doo them.

(d) Or, description. 12 This is the (d) lawe of the house: Upon the toppe of the mount shall all the limittes therof be, round about the most holy place: loe, this is the lawe of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the aulter in cubites: the cubite is a cubite and a hand breadth, the bottome (shalbe) a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the border therof by the edge therof rounde about was one spanne, and this (shalbe) the heyght of the aulter.

14 And from the bottome vpon the ground, vnto the lower peece, (shalbe) two cubites, the breadth one cubite: and from the litle peece to the great peece, (shalbe) foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite. C

15 The aulter was foure cubites high, and from ỳ aulter vpward stoode foure hornes.

16 And the aulter was twelue cubites long, and twelue cubites broade, square in the foure corners therof.

17 The frame of the aulter (shalbe) fourteene cubites long, and fourteene broade in the foure square corners therof, and the border about it shalbe halfe a cubite, and the bottome therof (shalbe) a cubite about, and the steppes thereof shalbe turned towarde the East.

18 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lorde God, These are the ordinances of the aulter, in the day whē it is made, to offer burnt offeringes therupon, and to sprinkle blood therupon.

19 And thou shalt geue to the priestes, to the Leuites that be of the seede of Sadoc, and approche vnto me, sayth the Lorde God, to ministre vnto me, a young bullocke for a sinne offeryng.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood therof, and put it on the foure hornes of it, and on the foure corners of the frame, and vpon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse it, and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offeryng, and burne him in the appoynted place without the sanctuarie. D

22 The second day, take a goate bucke without blemishe for a sinne offeryng, to cleanse the aulter withal, like as it was cleansed with the bullocke.

23 Nowe when thou hast made an ende of cleansyng it, then offer a young bullocke without blemishe, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemishe also.

24 Offer them before the Lorde, and let the priestes cast salt therupon, and geue them so vnto the Lorde for a burnt offeryng.

25 Seuen dayes shalt thou prepare euery day a goate bucke for sinne, a yeung bullocke and a ramme of the flocke, both without blemishe shal they prepare.

(e) Or, make cleane. 26 Seuen dayes shal they reconcile & cleanse the aulter, and (e) fyl the place therof.

27 When these dayes are expired, then vpon the eyght day, and so forth, the priestes shal make your burnt offerynges, and peace offerynges fringes vpon the aulter: so I wyl accept you, sayth the Lorde God.

The. xliiii. Chapter.

1. He sheweth what doore of the temple is shut. 6. He is commaunded to vpbraid the people with their offence.

AFter this he brought me agayne to the outward gate of the sanctuarie on the east syde, and that was shut.

2 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me, This gate shalbe styl (a) shut, and not opened, neyther shal any man goe through it: for the Lorde God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shalbe shut.

3 It is for the prince, the prince him self shal syt in it to eate bread before the Lorde: he shal enter by the way of the porche of that gate, & shal goe out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me towarde the north gate before the house: and as I looked, beholde, the glorie of the Lorde fylled the house of the Lorde, and I fel vpon my face.

5 So the Lord spake vnto me: O thou sonne of man, set thyne harte, and beholde with thyne eyes, and heare with thyne eares all that I say vnto thee concerning al the ordinances of the house of the Lorde, and al the lawes therof, and marke wel the entryng in of the house, with euery gooyng forth of the sanctuarie.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious (euen) to the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, O house of Israel, ye haue ynough of al your abominations.

7 Seeyng ye haue brought into my sanctuarie (b) strangers, hauing vncircumcised hartes and vncircumcised flesshe, to be in my sanctuarie to pollute my house, when ye offer my bread, fat, and blood, and they haue broken my couenaunt because of al your abominations.

8 And ye haue not kept the (c) ordinances of my holy thinges, and ye haue set keepers to keepe my sanctuarie (d) for you.

9 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Of al the strangers that dwel among the children of Israel, no stranger vncircumcised in hart, nor vncircumcised in flesshe, shal enter into my sanctuarie.

10 But the Leuites that went backe from me when Israel went astray, whiche strayed from me after their idols, (e) shal beare their iniquitie:

11 And they shalbe ministers in my sanctuarie, and keepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shal slaye the burnt offeryngs, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shal stande before them to serue them.

12 Because they serued before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fal into iniquitie: therefore haue I lyft vp my hande agaynst them, sayth the Lord God, and they shal beare their iniquitie.

13 And they shal not come neare vnto me to doo the office of a priest vnto me, neither shal they come neare vnto any of myne holy thynges in the most holy place: but they shal beare their owne shame and abominations whiche they haue done.

14 And I wyll make them keepers of the watche of the house, for al the seruice therof, and for al that shalbe done therein. C

15 But the priestes, the Leuites, the sonnes of Sadoc, that (f) kept the charge of my sanctuary whē the children of Israel strayed from me, shal come to me, to doo me seruice, to stand before me, and to offer me the fat and the blood, sayth the Lorde God.

16 They shal goe into my sanctuarie, and approche vnto my table to doo me seruice, and they shal keepe my charge.

17 Nowe when they goe in at the gates of the innermer court, they shal put on lynnen clothes, so that no woollen come vpon them whyle they doo seruice vnder the gates of the innermer court, and within.

18 They shal haue lynnen bonnettes vpon their heades, and lynnen "breeches vpon their loynes: they shal not gird them selues in the "sweate.

19 And when they goe forth into the vtter court, (euen) to the vtter court of the people, they shal put of the clothes wherein they haue ministred, and lay them in the chamber of the sanctuarie, & put on other apparel, and they shal not sanctifie the people with their clothes.

20 They shall not (g) shaue their heades, nor suffer their heare to growe long, but powle their heades onely.

21 Al the priestes that goe into the inmoste court shal drynke no wyne.

22 They shal marrie no wyddowe, neither one that is put from her husbande, but a mayde of the seede of the house of Israel, or a widdowe that hath had a priest before.

23 They shall shewe my people the difference betweene the holy and vnholy, and cause them to discerne betwixt the cleane and vncleane.

24 And in controuersie they shall stande to iudge, and geue sentence after my iudgementes: and my lawes and my statutes shal they kepe in al my solemne feastes, and halowe my sabbothes.

25 They shal come at no dead person to defile them selues, but to father or mother, sonne

The.xlv.Chapter.

Of iust weyghtes and measures.

A 1 When ye diuide the lande by the lot for inheritaunce, ye shal offer an oblation to the Lorde, a holy (a) portion of the lande, twenty & fyue thousande canes long, and tenne thousande brode: this shalbe holy in al the borders therof rounde about.

(a) Of al the land of Israel the Lord requireth only this portion, for the temple and for the priestes, for the citie, and for the prince.

2 Of this part there shal belong vnto the sanctuarie fyue hundred cubites (in length) with fiue hundred (in breadth) square rounde about: and fyftie cubites rounde about for the suburbes.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure, (namely) of the length of twentie and fiue thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand, and in it shalbe the sanctuarie, & the most holy place.

4 That holy portion of the lande shal pertaine vnto the priestes which doo seruice in the sanctuarie, whiche come neare to serue the Lorde: and it shalbe vnto them a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuarie.

5 And in the twentie and fyue thousande length, and ten thousande breadth, shal the Leuites that minister in the house haue their possession for twentie chambers.

6 Ye shal geue also vnto the citie a possession of fyue thousande canes brode, and twenty and fyue thousande long, ouer against the oblation of the holie portion that shalbe for the whole house of Israel.

7 And (a portion shalbe) for the prince on this syde and on that syde of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the citie, (euen) before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the citie, from the west corner westwarde, and from the east corner eastwarde: and the length shalbe by one of the portions, from the west border vnto the east border.

8 In this lande shalbe his possession in Israel: and my princes shal no more oppresse my people, and (there) of the lande shall they geue to the house of Israel accordyng to their tribes.

9 Thus sayth the Lorde God, (b) Let it suffise you, O ye princes of Israel: leaue of crueltie & oppression, and execute iudgement & iustice: take away your exactions from my people, sayth the Lorde God.

(b) The Prophete sheweth that the heades must be first reformed, afore any good order can be stablyshed among the people.

10 Ye shall haue a true ballance, a true (c) Ephah, and a true Bath.

(b) Ephah and Bath were both of one quantitie for the Ephah conteined in dyuers places as the Bath did in lyquor.

11 The Ephah and the Bath shalbe alyke: one Bath shal conteyne the tenth part of an Homer, and the Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equalitie therof shalbe after the Homer.

(d) That is three score Sicles make a weight called Manch: for he sayeth there are three parts to a Manch.

12 The Sicle maketh twentie Gerahs: & twentie Sicles, and (d) twentie and fyue Sicles, & fyftiene Sicles make a Maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shal offer: the fyrth part of an Ephah out of an Homer of wheate, and the fyrth part of an Ephah out of an Homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinances of the oyle, (euen) of the Bath of oyle (ye shal offer) the tenth part of a Bath out of the Cor: ten Bathes (shalbe) a Homer, because ten Bathes (fyl) a Homer.

15 And one lambe from two hundred sheepe out of the fat pastures of Israel for a meate offering, whole burnt offering, & peace offering, to reconcile them, saith the lord god.

16 All the people of the lande shal geue this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 Agayne, it shalbe the princes part to offer whole burnt offerynges, meate offerynges, and wyne offerings in the holy dayes, newe Moones, Sabbothes, and in all the high feastes of the house of Israel: he shal prepare the sinne offering, meate offering, whole burne offering, and peace offering, to reconcile the house of Israel.

18 Thus sayth the Lorde God, The fyrst day of the fyrst (e) moneth, thou shalt take a young bullocke without blemithe, and cleanse the sanctuarie.

(e) Which was Nisan, conteyning parte of March and parte of Aprill.

19 So the priest shal take of the blood of the sinne offering, and put it vpon the postes of the the house, and vpon the foure corners of the settes of the aulter, and vpon the postes of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thus shalt thou do also the seuenth day of the moneth, for suche as haue synned of ignorance, or beyng deceyued, to recon-cyle the house withal.
D 21 Upon the fourtienth day of the fyrst mo-neth ye shall haue the passeouer, a feaste of seuen dayes, and ye shall eate vnleauened bread.
22 Upon the same day shall the prince prepare for hym selfe and all the people of the lande, a bullocke for a synne offeryng.
23 And in the seuen dayes of the feast, he shal make a whole burnt offeryng to the Lorde, (euen) of seuen bullockes & seuen rammes without blemishe, dayly, for seuen dayes, and a hee goate dayly for a synne offeryng.
24 And he shal prepare a meate offeryng of an Ephah for a bullocke, & an Ephah for a ramme, & a (i) Hin of oyle for an Ephah.
25 In the seuenth (moneth) in the fiftieth day of the moneth, on the feast, he shall doo accordyng vnto these for seuen dayes: accor-dyng to the synne offeryng, according to the whole burnt offeryng, and according to the meate offeryng, and according to the oyle.

The.xlvi. Chapter.

1. The sacrifice of the Sabbothes, and of the new moones. 8. Through which doores they must goe in, or come out of the temple.

1 Thus sayth the Lorde God, The gate of the inner court towarde the east shalbe shut the sixe worcking dayes: but in the Sabboth and in the day of the newe moone it shalbe opened.
2 And the prince shal enter by the way of the porche of the gate without, & shal stande by the poste of the gate: and the priestes shall make his whole burnt offering, and his peace offeringes, and he shall worshyp at the threshold of the gate, and goe forth:
and the gate shall not be shutte tyll the euenyng.
3 On the same manner shal the people of the lande also do theyr worshyp before the lorde, at the doore of this gate vpō the sabbothes, and newe moones.
4 The whole burnt offering that the prince shal bryng vnto the Lorde vpon the Sab-both, shalbe sixe lambes without blemishe, and a ramme without blemishe.
5 And the meate offeryng shalbe an Ephah for a ramme, and the meate offering for the lambes a (a) gift of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.
6 In the day of the newe moneth (it shalbe) a young bullocke without blemyshe, and sixe lambes, and a ramme also without blemyshe.
7 With the bullocke he shal geue an Ephah: B and with the ramme an Ephah also for a meate offering: but to the lambes (b) ac- (b) According to his habilitie.
cording as his hande shal take, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.
8 And when the prince shal enter, he shall goe in by the way of the porch of that gate:
he shal goe forth by the way thereof.
9 But when the people of the lande come before the Lorde in the high solemne feast, as many as come in by the north gate to do worshyp, shal goe out againe at the south gate: & they that come in at the south gate, shal go forth againe at the north gate: there shall none returne by the gate where he came in, but shall goe right forth ouer on the other side.
10 And the prince he shal goe in the middest of them when they goe in, and so come forth when they come forth.
11 Upon the solemne and high feast dayes this shalbe the meate offring: an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambes the gyft of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.
12 Now when the prince shal make a free whole burnt offering, or peace offeryngs freely vnto the Lorde: one then shall open him the gate that turneth toward the east, & he shal make his whole burnt offeringes, and his peace offeringes, as he dyd on the Sabboth day: after he shal goe forth, and when he is gone forth, one shal shutte the gate.
13 Thou shalt dayly make a whole burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde of a lambe of one yere without blemishe, thou shalt do it eue-ry morneng.
14 Thou shalt prepare a meate offering for C it euery morneng, the sixth part of an Ephah, and the third part of a Hin of oyle to mingle with the fine floure: this meate offering shalbe continually by a perpetual ordinance vnto the Lorde.
15 Thus shal they prepare the lambe, the meate offering, and oyle, euery morning, for a continual whole burnt offering.
16 Moreouer, thus saith the lord God, If the prince geue a gyft vnto any of his sonnes, the inheritance thereof shalbe his sonnes:
their possession shalbe by inheritance.
17 But if he geue a gift of his inheritance to one of his seruantes, then it shalbe his to the (c) yeere of liberte, and then returne to (c) Which was at the yere of Iubilee. Le.25.b.
the prince: but the inheritance thereof is his sonnes, and shalbe theyrs.

18 The prince alſo (d) ſhal take none of the peoples inheritance, nor put them from their poſſeſſion: but to his ſonnes ſhal he geue his owne poſſeſſion, that my people be not ſcattered abrode euery man from his poſſeſſion.

(d) But be content with that portion that god hath aſſigned him Ezech. 45.b

19 And he brought me through the entrance at the ſide of the gate to the holy chambers of the prieſtes, which ſtoode towarde the north, and beholde there was a place vpon the weſt ſyde of them.

20 Then ſayde he vnto me, This is the place where the prieſtes ſhal ſeeth the treſpaſſe and ſinne offeringes, and bake the meate offeringes: that they neede not beare them into the outwarde courte, and to (e) ſanctifie the people.

(e) To cauſe the people to thinke it is lawful for them to eate them, and ſo fall into a vayne opinion of holynes & ſanctification.

21 So he brought me into the vtter courte, and cauſed me to goe by the foure corners of the court: and beholde in euery corner of the court there was a courte.

22 In the foure corners of the courte there were courtes ioyned of fourtie cubites long, and thirtie broade: theſe foure corners were of one meaſure.

23 And there went a wal round about them, (euen) about thoſe foure: and vnder the walles there were "kitchins made rounde about.

"Ranges.

24 Then ſayde he vnto me, Theſe are the cookes houſes, where the miniſters of the houſe ſhal boyle the ſacrifice of the people.

The.xlvii. Chapter.

1. The viſion of the waters that came out of the temple. 13. The coaſtes of the lande of promiſe, & the deuiſion thereof by tribes.

1 AFterwarde he brought me agayne vnto the doore of the houſe, and beholde there guſhed out (a) waters from vnder the threſholde of the houſe eaſtwarde: for the forefront of the houſe ſtoode toward the eaſt: and the waters ranne downe from vnder the right ſide of the houſe, whiche lyeth to the aulter ſouthwarde.

(a) Whereby are meant the ſpirituall graces that ſhoulde be geuen to the Church vnder the kingdome of Chriſte, as Iohn. 4.c.

2 Then ledde he me to the north gate, and ledde me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate by the way that turneth eaſtwarde: and beholde, there iſſued foorth waters from the right ſide.

3 Nowe when the man that had the lyne in his hande went foorth eaſtwarde, he meaſured a thouſande cubites, and then he brought me through the waters, the waters were to the ancles.

4 So he meaſured yet a thouſande, and brought me through the waters, the waters were to the knees: yet meaſured he a thouſand, and brought me through, the waters (were) to the loynes.

5 After this he meaſured a thouſand againe, then was it ſuche a (b) riuer that I might not wade through it, the waters was riſen, and the waters did flowe as a riuer that myght not be waded ouer.

(b) Spoiling that the graces of god ſhould neuer decreaſe, but euer abound in his church.

6 And he ſayde vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene this, O thou ſonne of man? and with that he brought me, and cauſed me to returne to the riuer banke agayne.

7 Nowe when I returned, beholde, at the banke of the riuer were very many trees (c) on the one ſide and on the other.

(c) Meaning the multitude of them that ſhoulde be refreſhed by the ſpirituall waters.

8 Then ſayde he vnto me, Theſe waters flowe out towarde the eaſt countrey, and runne downe into the playne, and come into the (d) ſea: which when it commeth into the ſea, the (e) waters ſhalbe wholſome.

(d) Shewyng that the abundance of theſe graces ſhould be ſo great, that the worlde ſhoulde be full thereof, which is ment by the Perſian ſea Gesenuth, and the ſea called Mediterraneum, Zach. 14.b

(e) Theſe waters which of nature are ſalt and vnholſome, ſhalbe made ſweete and comfortable.

9 Yea, all that line and moue, whereunto this riuer commeth, ſhall lyue: and there ſhalbe a very great multitude of fyſhe, becauſe theſe waters ſhal come thyther, for they ſhalbe wholſome: and euery thing ſhal liue whither the riuer commeth.

10 By this riuer ſhal the fiſhers ſtande, from Engaddi vnto Eneglaim, & there ſpreade out their nets: for they? fiſhe ſhalbe according to their kindes as ? fiſhe of the maine ſea, exceeding many.

11 But the marſhes thereof, and the pyttes thereof, ſhal not be made wholſome, they ſhalbe made ſalt pyttes.

12 By this riuer vpon the bankes therof on this ſide and on that ſide, ſhal grow all trees for meate, whoſe leaues ſhal not fade, neither ſhal the fruite thereof fayle, but ſhall bryng foorth newe fruite accordyng to his monethes, for the waters therof runne out of the ſanctuary: and the fruite therof ſhalbe for meate, and the leaues therof for "medicine.

13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Let this be the border whereby ye ſhall inherite the land, accordyng to the twelue tribes of Iſrael, Ioſeph ſhal haue two portions.

14 And ye ſhall inherite it one as well as another, concerning the which I lift vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers: & this lande ſhal fal vnto you for inheritance.

C Gen. 48.a Gen. 12.b Deut. 34.b

15 This is the border of the (f) lande vpon the north ſyde, from the maine ſea towarde Hethlon, as men goe to Zedada.

(f) By the lande of promiſe, he ſignifieth the ſpirituall lande, whereof this was a figure.

16 (Namely) Hamah, Berotha, Sabarim, whiche are betweene the borders of Damaſcus, and betweene the borders of Hamah, Hazar Hatichon, that lyeth vpon the coaſtes of Hauran.

17 Thus the borders from the ſea ſoyth ſhal be be Hazar Enan, the boyder of Damascus, and the north northwarde, and the boyders of Hamah: this is the north part.

18 The east syde shalbe from Hauran and Damascus, from Gilead and the lande of Israel by Iordane, and from the boyder vnto the east sea: and this is the east part.

19 The south syde shalbe towarde Teman, from Thamar to the waters of · strife in Cades, and the riuer to the mayne sea: and that is the south part toward Teman.

20 The west part also shalbe the great sea, from the boyders tyl a man comme ouer against Hamah: this is the west part.

21 This lande shal ye part among you accoyding to the tribes of Israel, 22 And diuide it by lot to be an heritage for you, and for the strangers that dwel among you, and beget children among you: for ye shal take them among the children of Israel, lyke as though they were of your owne countrey, and they shal haue (g) heritage with you among the children of Israel.

23 And in what tribe the stranger dwelleth, in the same tribe shal ye gene him his heritage, sayth the Lorde God.

The .xlviii. Chapter.

1. The lootes of the seuen tribes, 23. The lots of the other tribes.

1 These are the names of the tribes: Frō the north syde to the coast towarde Hethlon, tyl thou comest vnto Hamah and Hazar Enan, the boyders of Damascus northwarde, the coast of Hamah, Dan shall haue his poxtion from the east quarter vnto the west.

2 Upon the boyders of Dan, from the east syde vnto the west, shall Aser haue his poxtion.

3 Upon the boyders of Aser, from the east part vnto the west, shall Nephthali haue his poxtion.

4 Upon the boyders of Nephthali, from the east quarter vnto the west, shall Manasses haue his poxtion.

5 Upon the boyders of Manasses, from the east syde vnto the west, shal Ephraim haue his poxtion.

6 Upon the boyders of Ephraim, from the east part vnto the west, shall Ruben haue his poxtion.

7 Upon the boyders of Ruben, from the east quarter vnto the west, shal Iuda haue his poxtion.

8 Upon the boyders of Iuda, from the east part vnto the west part, shalbe the (a) offering whiche they shall offer, of fyue and twentie thousande (canes) hoade, and of length as one of the partes from the east syde vnto the west syde: and the sanctuarie shalbe in the middest of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer vnto the Lorde, shalbe fiue and twentie thousande long, and ten thousande hoade.

10 And for these (euen) for the priestes, shalbe this holy oblation: towarde the north fiue and twentie thousande (long) and towards the west tenne thousande hoade, towarde the east tenne thousande hoade also, and towarde the south fiue and twentie thousande long, and the sanctuarie of the Lorde shalbe in the middest thereof.

11 This sanctifyed poxtion shalbe the priests that are of the chyldren of Sadoc, whiche haue keape my charge, whiche went not astray in the errour of the children of Israel lyke as the Leuites went astray. Chap. 44. a 12 Therefore this oblation of the lande that is offered, shalbe theirs as a thing most holy, harde vpon the boyders of the Leuites.

13 And ouer against the boyder of ỹ priestes, shall the Leuites haue fyue & twentie thousande long, and tenne thousande hoade: all the length shalbe fiue and twentie thousande, and the breath ten thousande.

14 Of this poxtion they shall sel nothing, nor make any permutation therof, nor alienate the fyrst frutes of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lorde. C

15 And the fiue thousande that are leaft in the breadth ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande, shalbe a prophane place for the citie, for housyng and for suburbes: and the citie shalbe in the middest therof.

16 And these shalbe the measures therof: The north part fyue hundred and foure thousande, and the south (b) part fyue hundred and foure thousande, and the east part fyue hundred and foure thousand, and the west part fyue hundred and foure thousande. (b) Meaning that it shall be square.

17 The suburbes of the citie shall haue towarde the north two hundred and fiftie, towarde the south two hundred and fiftie, towarde the east two hundred and fiftie, towarde the west also two hundred & fyftie.

18 And the residue in length ouer against the oblation of the holy poxtion, shalbe tenne thousand towarde the east, and tenne thousande towarde the west: and it shalbe ouer against the oblation of the holy poxtion, and the encrease therof shalbe for their meate that serue the citie.

19 And they that serue the citie, they shall serue it out of al the tribes of Israel.

20 Al the oblation shalbe fyue and twentie

(c) Euery way it ſhalbe fiue & twentie thousand thousande (c) with fyue and twentie thousande: ye ſhal offer this oblacion ſquare, for the ſanctuarie, and for the poſſeſſion of the citie.

21 And the remnat ſhalbe for the prince, on the one ſyde and on the other of the holy oblation: and of the poſſeſſion of the citie ouer against the fiue and twentie thousand of the oblation toward the eaſt border, and weſtward ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande towarde the weſt border, ouer against ſhalbe the portion for the prince: this ſhalbe the holy oblation, and the houſe of the ſanctuarie ſhalbe in the middeſt therof.

22 Moreouer, from the poſſeſſion of the Leuites, and the cities poſſeſſion, that whiche is in the middeſt ſhalbe y princes, betwixt the border of (d) Juda and the border of Beniamin ſhalbe the princes.

(d) So that Juda was on the north ſyde of the princes and Leuites portions, and Beniamin on the ſouth ſyde.

23 Nowe of the other tribes: from y eaſt part vnto the weaſt, ſhall Beniamin haue his portion.

24 Upon the borders of Beniamin, from the eaſt ſyde vnto the weaſt, ſhal Simeon haue his portion.

25 Upon the borders of Simeon, from the eaſt ſyde vnto the weaſt, ſhal Iſachar haue his portion.

26 Upon the borders of Iſachar, from the eaſt ſyde vnto the weaſt, ſhal Zabulon haue his portion.

27 Upon the borders of Zabulon, from the eaſt part vnto the weaſt, ſhal Gad haue his portion.

28 Upon the borders of Gad at the ſouth ſyde toward Temanah, the border ſhalbe from Thamar, vnto the waters of Strife to Cades, and to the riuer (that runneth) vnto the mayne ſea.

* or, Meribath.

29 This is the lande whiche ye ſhal diuide by lot for an inheritance vnto the tribes of Iſrael, and theſe be their portions, ſaith the Lorde God.

30 Theſe be the bondes of the citie, vpon the north part fyue hundred and fourt thouſande meaſures.

31 The gates of the citie ſhal haue the names of the tribes of Iſrael, three gates of the north ſyde: one gate of Ruben, another of Juda, the thirde of Leui.

32 Upon the eaſt ſyde fyue hundred y fourt thouſande (meaſures,) with three gates: the one of Joſeph, another of Beniamin, the thirde of Dan.

33 Upon the ſouth ſyde fiue hundred and fourt thouſande meaſures, with the three gates: the one of Simeon, another of Iſachar, the thirde of Zabulon.

34 And vppon the weaſt ſyde, fyue hundred and fyue thouſande meaſures, with their three gates alſo: the one of Gad, another of Aſer, the thirde of Nephthali.

35 Thus ſhall it haue eyghteene thouſande meaſures rounde about: and the name of the citie from that tyme forth ſhalbe, "The Lord is there.

The ende of the propheſie of Ezechiel.

The booke of the prophete Daniel.

The firſt Chapter.

1. The prophete ſheweth the captiuitie of Iehoakim king of Juda. 4. Of the children that were in captiuitie, the king commaundeth to chooſe which of them ſhould be taught the learnyng and language of the Chaldeans.

A t

(a) Reade 2. king. 24. & Jere. 25. a.

IN the (a) thirde yeere of the reigne of Iehoakim kyng of Juda, came Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon vnto Hieruſalem, and beſiegred it.

2 And the Lorde delinered Iehoakim the king of Juda into his hande, with part of the veſſels of the houſe of God, whiche he caryed away into the lande of (b) Sennar, to the houſe of his God, and he brought the veſſels into his goddes treaſurie.

(b) Which was a plain by Babylon, where was the temple of the god. God, and here taken for Babylon.

3 And the king ſpake vnto Aſphenaz the (c) cheefe chamberlayne, that he ſhoulde bring him certayne of the children of Iſrael, of the kinges ſeede, and of the princes.

(c) Or, maiſter of the Eunuches.

4 Syngulers without any blemiſhe, but wel fauoured, ſtudious in al wiſdome, ſkilfull for knowledge, able to deter knowledge, and ſuche as haue linelyneſſe in them, that they they (d) may stande in the kynges palace: and whom they might teache the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

(d) Abeel to serue at the tables as in other places.

5 Unto these the king appointed a dayly prouision, euery day of a portion of the kynges meate, and of the wine whiche he dranke, so to nourishe them three yeeres, that afterwarde they might stande before the king.

6 Among those nowe were certaine of the children of Iuda: (namely) Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias.

B 7 Unto these the cheefe chamberlaine gaue (e) other names, and called Daniel, Baltassar: Ananias, Sidrach: Misael, Misach: and Azarias, Abednego.

(e) Either because they would declare their power, as conquerers, in change the names of the whiche they ouercame, or els for hatred of their Hebrue names.

8 But Daniel purposed in his hart that he woulde not defile him selfe with the portion of the kinges meate, nor with the wine which he dranke: therefore he required the cheefe chamberlayne that he might not defile him selfe.

9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour and tender loue with the chiefe chamberlayne.)

10 And the cheefe chamberlayne sayd vnto Daniel, I am afraide of my lord the king, which hath appointed you your meate and your drinke: wherefore shoulde he see your faces woorse liking then the spryngalles of your age, and so ye shal make me indanger my head vnto the king.

11 Then Daniel sayd vnto Melassar, whom the cheefe chamberlaine had set ouer Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias:

12 O proue but tenne dayes with thy seruantes, and let vs haue pulse to eate, and water to drinke.

13 Then let our countenances be looked vpon before thee, and the countenances of the children that eate of the portion of the kinges meate: and as thou seest, deale with thy seruantes.

(f) Or, better liking.

(g) Meaning liberal sufficiencies & natural knowledge, whiche was vsed where they were ascertaine.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proued them tenne dayes.

15 And at the ende of tenne dayes their countenances appeared fayer and (f) fatter in flesshe then al the childzens which did eate the portion of the kinges meate.

(h) So that he only was a prophet, and none of the other, for by dreames and visions God appeared to his prophets. Num. 12. a.

16 Thus Melassar tooke away the portion of their meate, & the wine that they shoulde drinke, and gaue them pulse.

17 As for these foure childzen, God gaue them knowledge and vnderstanding in (g) all learning and wisedome: also he gaue Daniel vnderstanding of al (h) visions and dreames.

(i) Of the three yeeres whose mencioned, ver. v

18 Nowe when the (i) tyme was expired that the king had appointed to bring them in, the chiefe chamberlayne brought them before Nabuchodonosor.

19 And the king communed with them: but among them all were founde none suche as Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias: therefore stoode they before the kyng.

20 In al matters of wisedome and vnderstanding that the kyng enquired of them, he founde them tenne tymes better then all the wise men and soothsayers that were in al his realme.

(k) That is, he waseestemedin Babylon as a prophete, and in authoritie so long as the common wealth stoode.

21 And Daniel abode styl vnto the (k) first yeere of kyng Cyrus.

The. ii. Chapter.

1. The dreame of Nabuchodonosor. 2. He calleth vnto him soothsayers, and requireth of them both the dreame and the interpretation thereof.

A 1 In the (a) seconde yeere of the raigne of Nabuchodonosor, had Nabuchodonosor a dreame, wherethrough his spirite was troubled, and his sleepe brake from hym.

(a) The father and the sonne were both called by this name, so that it is meant of the sonne when he raigned alone: for he raigned also after a sorte with his father. Or els in the second yeere of his general conquest of other barbarous nations.

2 Then the kyng commaunded to call the wyse men, and soothsayers, and sorcerers, and the Chaldees, for to shewe the king his dreame: So they came, and stoode before the king.

3 And the kyng sayde vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirite was troubled to knowe the dreame.

4 Upon this the Chaldees answeared the king in the Syrians speache, O kyng, God saue thy lyfe for ever: shewe thy seruantes the dreame, and we shal shewe the interpretation.

5 The kyng answeared and sayde to the Chaldeans, The thyng is gone from me: If ye wyll not make me vnderstande the dreame, with the interpretation thereof, ye shalbe drawen in peeces, and your houses made a fakes.

6 But yf ye tel me the dreame and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receiue of me gyftes, rewardes, and great honour, therefore shewe me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof.

B 7 They answeared agayne, and saide, The king must shewe his seruantes the dreame, and so shall we declare the interpretation thereof.

8 Then the king answeared, saying, I perceiue of a trueth, that ye woulde (b) redeeme the tyme, forsomuche as ye see the thing is gone from me.

(b) Ye seeke occasion of delayes, vntyl some other affayres might happē, and make me forgeat the matter.

9 Therfore if ye wil not tel me the dreame, this is your only purpose, Ye haue prepared lying and corrupt wordes to speake before me, tyll the tyme be changed: therfore tell me the dreame, that I may knowe that ye can declare me the interpretation therof.

10 Upon this the Chaldees gaue anſwearе before the king, and ſaid, There is no man vpon earth that can tell the thyng whiche the kyng ſpeaketh of, yea there is neyther king, prince, nor lord that euer aſked ſuche thinges at a wiſe man, ſoothſayer, or Chaldean.

11 For it is a rare matter that the kyng requireth, neyther is there any that can certifie the king therof, except the gods whoſe dwelling is not with fleſhe.

12 For the which cauſe the king was wroth with great indignation, and commaunded to deſtroy all the wiſe men at Babylon.

13 So the decree went forth, and the wyſe men were ſlaine: they ſought alſo to ſlay Daniel with his companions.

℣ 14 Then Daniel ſtayed the counſel and decree with Arioch the captayne of the kings garde, who was gone forth to put to death the wiſe men of Babylon.

15 He anſweared and ſaid vnto Arioch the kynges captaine, Why is the ſentence ſo haſtie from the king? then Arioch tolde Daniel the matter.

16 Upon this went Daniel, and deſyred the king that he would geue him leiſure, and that he would ſhewe the kyng the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his houſe, and ſhewed the thyng to Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias, his companions:

18 That they ſhould deſyre the God of heauen for grace in this ſecrete, that Daniel and his felowes, with other ſuche as were wiſe in Babylon, periſhed not.

19 Then was this ſecrete reuealed vnto Daniel in a viſion by nyght: then Daniel praiſed the God of heauen.

Pſal. 13. a. 20 Daniel alſo anſweared, and ſayde, The name of God be praiſed for euer and euer: for wiſedome and ſtrength are his.

℣ 21 He changeth the tymes and ſeaſons, he taketh away kinges, he ſetteth vp kynges: he geueth wyſdome vnto the wyſe, and vnderſtanding to thoſe that vnderſtande.

22 He reuealeth the deepe & ſecrete thynges, he knoweth the thyng that lyeth in darkeneſſe, for the light dwelleth with hym.

23 I thanke thee, and praiſe thee, O thou God of my fathers, that thou haſt geuen me wiſedome and ſtrength, and haſt ſhewed me nowe the thing that we deſired of thee: for thou haſt declared the kinges matter vnto vs.

24 Upon this went Daniel in vnto Arioch, whom the king had ordeyned to deſtroy the wyſe men at Babylon: he went and ſayd thus vnto him, Deſtroy not the wyſe men of Babylon, but bring me before the kyng, and I ſhall ſhewe the kyng the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the king in al the haſt, and ſaid thus vnto him, I haue founde a man among the children of Juda that were brought captiues, that wyl declare vnto the king the interpretation.

26 Then anſweared the king and ſayde to Daniel, whoſe name was Balthaſar, Art thou able to ſhewe me the dreame which I haue ſeene, and the interpretation therof?

27 Daniel anſweared in the preſence of the king, and ſayde, As for this ſecrete for the whiche the kyng maketh inquiſition, there can neither the men of vnderſtanding, nor ſoothſayers, nor the wiſe men, nor readers of deſtinies declare it vnto the kyng:

28 But there is a (c) God in heauen that reueleth ſecretes, and ſheweth the kyng Nabuchodonoſor what is for to come in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and that which thou haſt ſeene in thyne head vpon thy bed, is this.

29 O kyng, when thou waſt in thy bedde, thoughtes came into thy mynde what ſhoulde come hereafter: ſo he that is the opener of myſteries, telleth thee what is for to come.

30 As for me, this ſecrete is not ſhewed me for any wyſedome that I haue more then any other liuing: but only that I myght ſhewe the king the interpretation, and that thou mighteſt know the thoughtes of thine owne hart.

31 Thou kyng ſaweſt, and beholde, there (was) a great image: this great (d) image whoſe bryghtneſſe was excellent, ſtoode before thee, & the fourme therof was terrible.

32 This images (e) head was of fine gold, his breſt and armes of ſiluer, his belly and his thyghes of braſſe.

33 His legges were of iron, his feete were part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldeſt it tyl a ſtone was cutte without handes, whiche ſmote the image vpon his feete that were of iron and clay, and brake them in peeces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the braſſe, the ſiluer and gold broken altogether, and became like the chaffe of ſommer flowres, and the wynde caryed them away, that no place was founde for them: and the ſtone that ſmote ỹ image became a great mountayne, and fylled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame: and nowe wyl we ſhewe before the kyng what it meaneth.

37 O kyng, thou art a kyng of kynges: for the ℣ (c) Hereby he ſignifieth the kyng with a certayne feare & reuerence of God, that he might be the more apt to receiue the high myſteries that ſhoulde be reuealed.

(d) By this vnderſtande the worlde. (e) By golde, ſiluer, braſſe, and iron, is meant the Chaldees, Perſians, Macedonians, and Romane kyngdome, which ſhall ſucceſſiuely rule the worlde of Chriſtes time is here called the feete) come hym ſelfe and deſtroy the lot.

the God of heauen hath geuen vnto thee a kingdome, power, strength, and glory.

38 And in all places wherein ouer the children of men dwel, the beastes of the fielde, and the fowles of the ayre hath he geuen into thy hande, and hath made thee ruler in them al: thou art this (f) head of golde.

39 After thee shall aryse (g) another kingdome inferior to thee, and another (h) third kingdome of braſſe, whiche shall beare rule ouer al the earth.

40 The (i) fourth kingdome shalbe strong as iron: for as iron breaketh in peeces and subdueth all thinges, and as iron bruiſeth all theſe thinges, (ſo) shal it breake in peeces and bruiſe (al.)

41 Where as thou ſaweſt the feete and toes, part of potters claye, and part of iron, the kingdome shalbe (k) diuided, but there shalbe in it of the ſtrength of iron, for ſo muche as thou ſaweſt the iron mixt with the claye and earth.

42 And (as) the toes of the feete (were) part of iron and part of claye: (ſo) ſhall the kingdome be part ſtrong and part broken.

43 And whereas thou ſaweſt iron mixt with claye and earth, they ſhall mingle them ſelues with the ſeede of menne, and yet not ioyne one with another, as iron wyl not be mixt with claye.

44 And in the dayes of theſe kinges ſhall the God of heauen ſet vp a kingdome whiche ſhal neuer be deſtroyed, and this kingdome ſhall not be geuen ouer to another people:
but it ſhal breake and deſtroy al theſe king-domes, and it (l) ſhal ſtande for euer.

45 Lyke as thou ſaweſt that (m) without any handes there was cut out of the mount a ſtone, whiche brake the iron, the braſſe, the clay, the ſiluer and golde in peeces: ſo the great God hath ſhewed the king what ſhal comme to paſſe after this: this is a true dreame, and the interpretation of it is ſure.

46 Then the king Nabuchodonoſor fell downe vpon his face, and bowed him ſelfe vnto Daniel, and commaunded to offeryne
(n) rewardes and ſweete odours for him.

47 The king anſwearedd Daniel, and ſayde,
Of a treuth (o) your God is a god of gods, and the Lorde of kinges, and a reuealer of ſecretes, ſeeyng thou couldeſt reueale this ſecrete.

48 So the kyng made Daniel a great man, and gaue him many and great giftes: he made him ruler of all the countreys of Babylon, and the chiefe of the rulers about al
the wyſe men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel made requeſt to the king, and he ſet Sidrach, Miſach, and Abedne-go, ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: but Daniel (ſate) in the kinges

The. iii. Chapter.

1. The kyng ſetteth vp a golden image, whiche he commaundeth to be worſhiped. 8 Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego are accuſed, becauſe they deſpiſed the kynges commaundement.

1 NAbuchodonoſor the king made an image of golde, whiche was three-ſcore cubites high, and ſixe cubites thicke: he ſet it vp in the playne of Dura, in the prouince of Babylon.

2 Then Nabuchodonoſor the king ſent forth, to gather togeather the dukes, lor-des, and nobles, the iudges and officers, the deputies, and ſheriffes, with al the rulers of the prouinces, that they might come to the (a) dedication of the image which Nabuchodonoſor the king had ſet vp.

3 So the dukes, lordes, and nobles, the iudges and officers, deputies, and ſherifs, with al the rulers of the prouince, geathered them togeather vnto the dedication of the image that Nabuchodonoſor the kyng had ſet vp, and they ſtood before the image which Nabuchodonoſor had ſet vp.

4 Then an Heralde cryed a loude, To you it is commaunded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That when ye heare the noyſe of the cornet, trũpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, dul-cimer, and all manner of inſtrumentes of muſicke, ye fall downe and worſhip that golden image that Nabuchodonoſor the king hath ſet vp.

6 Who ſo then falleth not downe & wor-ſhippeth, ſhall euen the ſame houre be caſt into the middeſt of a hot fyerie furnace.

7 Therefore when all the folke heard the noyſe of ỹ cornet, trumpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, and al inſtrumentes of muſicke, then al the people, nations, and languages fell downe and worſhipped the golden image that Nabuchodonoſor the kyng had ſet vp.

8 Nowe were there certayne men of the Chaldees, that went euen then, and (b) cried out an accuſation of the Iewes.

9 They ſpake, and ſayd vnto the kyng Nabuchodonoſor, O king, liue for euer.

10 Thou, O king, haſt made a decree, that euery man that ſhall heare the ſounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, dulcimer, and al inſtrumentes of muſicke, ſhall fal downe and worſhippe the golden image:

(a) Shewyng that the idoll is not knowen for an idol ſo long as it is with the woorkman: but when the ceremonies & cuſtomes are recited and vſed, and the conſent of the people is there, then of a blocke they thinke they haue made a god.
(b) That is, accuſed the Iewes with an outcrie.

11 And who ſo then fel not downe, and worſhipped not, that he ſhoulde be caſt into the middes of an hotte fierie fornace.

12 Nowe are there certayne Iewes, whom thou haſt ſet ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: (namely) (c) Sydrach, Miſach, & Abednego: theſe men, O kyng, regarded not thy commaundement: yea they wyl not ſerue thy goddes, nor worſhip the golden image that thou haſt ſet vp.

13 Then Nabuchodonoſor in his anger and wrath commaũded that Sidrach, Miſach, & Abednego, ſhoulde be brought vnto him: ſo theſe men were brought before the king.

14 Then Nabuchodonoſor ſpake vnto them, and ſayde, Is it true, O Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, wyl not you ſerue my gods, nor worſhip the golden image that I haue ſet vp?

15 Nowe therefore be redye when ye heare the ſounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, dulcimer, and al inſtrumentes of muſicke, to fall downe and worſhip the image whiche I haue made: for yf ye worſhip it not, ye ſhalbe caſt immediatly into the middes of a hotte fierie furnace: for who is that God that can deliuer you out of my handes?

16 Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, anſwered the king, and ſaide, O Nabuchodonoſor, we are not (d) careful to anſweare thee in this matter:

17 Beholde, our God whom we ſerue, is (e) able to deliuer vs from the hotte fierie fornace: & he wyl deliuer vs out of thy hand, O king.

18 And though he wyll not, yet ſhalt thou knowe, O king, that we wyl not ſerue thy goddes, nor worſhippe the golden image which thou haſt ſet vp.

19 Then was Nabuchodonoſor ful of indignation, ſo that the countenance of his face changed vppon Sidrach, Miſach, & Abednego: therefore he charged and commaunded that they ſhoulde heate the fornace, one ſeuen tymes more then it was woont to be heat, 20 And he charged the moſt valiant men of warre that were in his armie, to binde Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, and to caſt them into the hot fierie furnace.

21 So theſe menne were bounde in their coates, hoſen, head attire, with their other garmentes, and caſt into the middes of the hotte fierie furnace.

22 Therefore becauſe the kinges commaundement was ſtraite, and the furnace was exceeding hot, the menne that put in Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, the flambe of the fyre deſtroyed them.

23 And theſe three men, Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, fell downe in the middes of the hotte fierie fornace bound.

24 Then Nabuchodonoſor the king was aſtonied, and roſe vp in all haſt: he ſpake vnto his counſel, and ſayde, Dyd not we caſt three men bounde into the middes of the fyre? They anſwearred and ſaide vnto the king, It is true, O king.

25 He anſwearred and ſayde, Loe I ſee foure men loſe, walking in the middes of the fire, and they haue no hurt: and the fourme of the fourth is like the (f) ſonne of God.

26 Vppon this went Nabuchodonoſor vnto the mouth of the hot fierie fornace, he ſpake alſo, and ſaide, O Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, ye ſeruantes of the high God, goe forth, and comme hyther. And ſo Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, came forth of the middes of the fyre.

27 The Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, & the kinges counſell came togeather to ſee theſe men, vppon whom the fyre had no manner of power in their bodyes: in ſo much that ỳ very heare of their head was not burnt, and their clothes vnchaunged, yea there was no ſmel of fyre felt vpon them.

28 Then ſpake Nabuchodonoſor, and ſaide, Bleſſed be the God of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, whiche hath ſent his angel, and deliuered his ſeruantes that put their truſt in him, and haue altered the kings commaundement, and ioparded their bodyes, rather then they would ſerue or worſhip any God, except their owne God onely.

29 Therefore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, & language, whiche ſpeake any blaſphemie againſt the God of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, ſhalbe drawen in peeces, and their houſes ſhalbe made a ſtake: becauſe there is no God that can deliuer after this ſort.

30 So the king promoted Sidrach, Miſach, & Abednego, in the prouince of Babylon.

The.iii. Chapter.

Nabuchodonoſor dreameth agayne.

1 NAbuchodonoſor king, vnto al people, nations, and languages that dwel vppon the (a) whole earth, peace be multiplyed among you.

2 I thought it good to ſhewe the ſignes and maruelous woorkes that the high God hath wrought vpon me.

3 O howe great are his ſignes, and howe mighty are his wonders? his kingdome is an (b) euerlaſting kingdome, & his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nabuchodonoſor bryng at reſt in my houſe,

(c) It ſeemeth that they named not Daniel, becauſe he was greatly in the kinges fauour, thinking if theſe three had benne deſtroyed, they might haue better occaſion to accuſe Daniel after: and this declareth that this pollicie of erecting this image, was inuented by the malitious flatterers, which ſought nothing but the deſtruction of the Iewes, whom they accuſed of rebellion, & ingratitude.

(d) They ſhould haue done iniurie to God, if they ſhoulde haue doubted in this holy cauſe, and therfore they ſay that they are reſolued to die for Gods cauſe.

(e) They grounde on two pointes: fyrſt on the power and prouidence of god ouer them: ſecondly on their cauſe, whiche was gods glory, & the reſtiſying of his true religion with their blood, and ſo make open confeſſion, that they wil not ſo much as outwardly conſent to idolatrie.

(a) Meaning ſo farre as his dominion extended.

(b) Reade Chap. 2. 6.

(f) That is, an angel of God, as verſe. 28.

house, and flozishing in my palace,

5 Sawe a (c) dreame whiche made me a-fraide, and the thoughtes vpon my bedde with the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree, that they shoulde bring all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might declare vnto me the interpretation of the dreame.

7 So came the wise men, the soothsayers, the Chaldeans, and wysardes, to whom I tolde the dreame: but they coulde not shewe me the interpretation therof.

8 Tyll at the last Daniel came before me, (whose name was Baltassar, according to the name of my God) which hath the spirit of the holy Gods in him, and before hym I tolde the dreame, saying,

9 O Baltassar, thou prince of wise men, for so muche as I knowe that thou hast the spirite of the holy Gods, and no secrete troubleth thee: tel me therfore the visions of my dreame that I haue seene, and the interpretation therof.

10 Thus were the visions of my head vpon my bedde: and beholde, I sawe a tree in the myddes of the earth, and the height therof was great.

11 A great tree and strong, and the heyght therof reached vnto the heauen, and the sight therof to the endes of all the earth.

12 The leaues therof were fayre, and the fruite therof muche, and in it was meate for all: the beastes of the field had shadowes vnder it, and the foules of the ayre dwelt in the boughes therof: al flesh fedde of it.

13 I sawe in the visions of my head vpon my bed, and beholde, a (d) watcher, and a holy one came downe from heauen, 14 And cryed mightily, saying thus: Hewe downe the tree, breake of his branches, shake of his leaues, and scatter his fruite abroade: that the beastes may geat them away from vnder him, and the foules from his branches.

15 Neuertheleſſe, leaue the stumpe of his rootes styll in the earth, and with a band of yron and brasse (bynde it) among the grasse of the fielde, & let it be wet with the deawe of heauen, and let his portion be with the beastes among the grasse of the fielde.

16 Let his hart be (e) changed from mans (nature,) and let a beastes hart be geuen vnto hym, and let seuen tymes be passed ouer him.

17 This sentence (f) according to the (f) decree of the watchers, and the request according to the woorde of the holy ones: because lyuyng menne should knowe that the hyghest hath power ouer the kyngdome of men, & geueth it to whom it liketh him, and setteth vp ouer it the baseſt among men.

18 This is the dreame that I kyng Nabuchodonosor haue seene: therefore thou, O Baltassar, declare the interpretation therof, for so muche as all the wise menne of my kingdome are not able to shewe me what it meaneth: but thou canst doo it, for the spirit of the holy Goddes is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Baltassar, held his peace byethe space of one houre, and his thoughtes (g) troubled him. So the kyng spake, and sayd, O Baltassar, let neyther the dreame, nor the interpretatiō therof trouble thee. Baltassar answeared, saying, O my Lorde, this dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation therof to thine aduersaries.

20 As for the tree that thou sawest, whiche was great and mightye, whose height reached vnto the heauen, and the sight therof through al the worlde,

21 Whose leaues were fayre, and the fruite therof muche, and in it was meate for all, vnder the which the beastes of the field had their habitation, and vpon whose branches the foules of the ayre dyd syt:

22 It is thou, O kyng, which art great and myghtie, for thy greatneſſe encreaseth, and reacheth vnto the heauen, so dooth thy dominion to the endes of the earth.

23 But whereas the kyng sawe a watcher, and a holy one that came downe from heauen, and sayde, Hewe downe the tree, and destroye it, yet leaue the stumpe of the rootes therof in the earth, and with a bande of yron and brasse bynde it among the grasse of the field, and let it be wet with the deawe of the heauen, and let his portion be with the beastes of the fielde, tyl (h) seuen tymes passe ouer hym.

24 This, O king, is the interpretation, yea it is the very decree of hym that is hyghest of all, and it toucheth my Lorde the kyng.

25 Thou shalt be cast out from menne, and thy dwelling shalbe with the beastes of the fielde: with grasse shalt thou be fed like (i) oxen, thou must be wet with the deawe of the heauen, yea, seuen tymes shal passe ouer thee, tyll thou (k) knowe that the hyghest hath power ouer the kyngdome of menne, and geueth it to whom he lyst.

26 Moreouer, whereas it was sayde that the stumpe of the roote of the tree should be leaft styl: it betokeneth that thy kyngdome shal remayne whole vnto thee, after thou hast learned to knowe that the power commeth from heauen.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsaile be acceptable vnto thee, and (l) breake of thy sinnes shal the errours of thy former lyfe be redressed.

(a) This was another dreame, beside that whiche he had of the same matter.

(b) Whiche was an angel of God.

(c) That is, in hym he deprined of natural reason, & mans vnderstanding.

(d) This was the decree of God him selfe, as appeareth in the 24. verse following, but it is cal. led the decree of the watchmen or angelles, because they brought it & reuealed it: whiche the holy menedes se to came to passe, for medlaryng in the decree of God, that the proude might be brought lowe, and the humble exalted.

(e) Partly consydering the great iudgementes of god in the horrible punishment of this great prince: and partly mooued with pitie of his cause, whom god had commaunded the Iewes to wish well to, & pray for, as Ier. xxix. b.

(f) Whereby he meaneth a long space, as seuē yeres or seuē quarters of yeres, or seuen monethes: for the interpretation is diuers.

(i) Not that his shape or fourme was changed into a beast, but that he was eyther stricken mad, & so auoyded mans company: or was cast out for his tyrannie, & so wandered among the beasts, & ate hearbes and grasse.

(k) Daniel sheweth the cause why god thus punished hym.

(l) Ceasse from prouoking God to anger any lōger by thy sinnes, and where thou hast cruelly oppressed many poore, be now mercyful vnto the in righteousnesse, so shal the errours ſinnes by righteouſneſſe, and thine iniquities by mercye towarde the poore: loe, let there be a healing of thine errour.

28 All theſe thinges touch thee kinge Nabuchodonoſor.

29 So after twelue monethes, the kyng walked in the palace of the kingdome of Babylon.

30 And the king ſpake, and ſayde, Is not this great Babylon that I haue buylte for the houſe of the kingdome by the myght of my power, and for the honour of my maieſtie?

31 While theſe woordes were yet in the kinges mouth, there fell a voyce from heauen, ſaying, O kinge Nabuchodonoſor, to thee be it ſpoken, thy kingdome is departed from thee, 32 And thou ſhalt be caſt out of mens companie, thy dwelling ſhalbe with the beaſtes of the fielde: ſo that thou ſhalt eate graſſe like oxen, and ſeuen tymes ſhal paſſe ouer thee, vntyll thou knoweſt that the higheſt hath power vppon the kingdome of men, & geueth it vnto whom it pleaſeth him.

33 The very ſame houre was this matter fulfilled vpon Nabuchodonoſor, ſo that he was caſte out of mens companie, and dyd eate graſſe like oxen, and his body was wet with the deawe of heauen, tyll his heares were growen as Eagles (feathers) and his nayles like byrdes clawes.

34 When this (m) tyme was paſt, I Nabuchodonoſor lift vp mine eies vnto heauen, & mine vnderſtanding was reſtored vnto me: then gaue I thankes vnto the higheſt, I magnified and prayſed him that liueth for euermore, whoſe power is an euerlaſtyng power, and his kingdome is from one generation to another.

35 And all they that dwell vppon the earth are to be reputed as nothing, and accordyng to his wyl he woorketh in the armie of heauen, and among the inhabiters of the earth: and there is none that may reſiſt his hand, or ſay vnto him, What doeſt thou?

36 At the ſame time was mine vnderſtanding geuen me againe, & I was (reſtored) to the honour of my kingdome, my glorye, and my beautie was reſtored vnto me, and my counſaillours and (n) princes ſought vnto me, and I was eſtabliſhed in my kyngdome, and my glory was augmented towarde me.

37 Nowe therefore I (o) Nabuchodonoſor, prayſe, and extoll, and magnifie the kyng of heauen, whoſe woorkes are all trueth, and his wayes iudgement, and thoſe that walk in pride, he is able to abaſe.

(m) That is, the ſeuen tymes or yeeres mentioned in the verſes, xvi. xxiii. & xxv.

(n) By whom it ſeemeth he was put from his kyngdome before

(o) He dooth not onely prayſe God for his deliuerance, but alſo confeſſeth his fault that god only may haue the glory, and man the ſhame, and that he may be exalted & man caſt downe.

The. v. Chapter.

I. Balthaſar kyng of Babylon abuſyng the veſſels of the temple, ſeeth a hande writyng in the wal. 8. The ſoothſayers called of the kyng, can not expounde the writyng.

1 KIng Balthaſar made a great feaſt to a thouſande of his princes, and dranke wyne (a) before the thouſande.

2 And Balthaſar when he had taſted the wyne, commaunded to bryng him the golden and ſiuer veſſels, which his father Nabuchodonoſor had brought from the temple in Hierualem, that the kyng and his princes, and his wyues, and his concubines, might drinke therin.

3 So were brought the golden veſſels that they had taken out of the temple of the Lordes houſe at Hierualem: and the king, and his princes, his wyues, and his concubines dranke in them.

4 They dranke wyne, and prayſed the gods of golde, ſyluer, braſſe, yron, wood, & ſtone.

5 In the very ſame houre there appeared fyngers of a mans hande writyng ryght ouer (b) againſt the candleſticke vppon the plaſter of the wal of the kynges palace, and the king ſawe the knockles of the hand that wrote.

6 Then changed the king his countenance, and his thoughtes troubled hym, ſo that the ioyntes of his loynes were looſed, and his (c) knees ſmote one againſt the other.

7 Wherefore the king cryed mightily, that they ſhoulde bryng the ſoothſayers, Chaldees, and wyſardes: the king ſpake alſo to the wiſe men of Babylon, and ſayde, What ſo can reade this writing, and ſhewe me the interpretation therof, ſhalbe clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of golde about his necke, and ſhalbe the third ruler in the kingdome.

8 Vppon this came al the kinges wiſe men, but they coulde neyther reade the writyng, nor ſhew the kyng the interpretation.

9 Then was king Balthaſar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in hym, and his princes were aſtonied.

10 Nowe the (d) queene by reaſon of the talke of the king and his princes, came into the banquet houſe: and the queene ſpake, and ſayd, O kyng, lyue for euer: let not thy thoughtes troubie thee, and let not thy countenance be changed.

11 There is a man in thy kyngdome that hath the ſpirite of the holy Goddes within hym: and in the dayes of thy father, lyght, and vnderſtandyng, and wiſedome, like the

(a) That is, not alone a commonly he was wont, but in a ſolemne banquet, whereunto he receyued all his nobles to accompanie hym,

(b) That it might the beter be ſeene,

(c) So he that before contemned god, was moued by this ſight to tremble for feare of Gods iudgements,

(d) This ſome thinke was his mother, other, his grandmothers or al likelyhood, woman of great age, that could remember the actes of Daniel, the wysedome of the gods was found in hym, whom the kyng Nabuchodonosor thy father, the kyng (I say) thy father made cheefe of the (c) wyse men, soothsayers, Chaldeans, and wysardes,

(c) Reade Chap. 4. b, and this declareth both that this none was alone vnto him, and also that he dyd not vse these vnprofitable practises because he was not among them whyle all were gone.

13 Because that suche an abundant spirite, knowledge, & vnderstanding, to expounde dreames, to open secretes, and to declare hard doubtes, was found in him, yea euen in Daniel, whom the kyng named Baltasar: let Daniel be called, and he shal declare the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the kyng: so the kyng spake vnto Daniel, and sayde, Art thou that Daniel, whiche art of the chyldren of the captiuitie of Iuda, whom my father the kyng brought out of Iurie?

¶ 14 I haue heard of thee that thou hast the spirite of the holy gods, and that lyght and vnderstandyng, and excellent wysedome is founde in thee.

15 Nowe haue there ben brought before me wyse men, and soothsayers, to reade this wryting, and to shewe me the interpretation therof: but they could not declare the interpretation of the thyng.

16 Then heard I of thee, that thou couldest shewe interpretations, and dissolue doubtes: nowe yf thou canst reade this wryting, and shewe me the meanyng therof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of gold about thy necke, and be the thyrde ruler in the kyngdome.

17 Then Daniel answeared, and sayde before the kyng, As for thy rewardes keepe them to thee selfe, and gene thy gyftes to another: yet I wyl reade the wryting vnto the kyng, and shewe hym the interpretation.

(f) Before he red the writing, he declareth to the king his great ingratitude toward god, who couldde not be moued nether by gene his the glorie, consyderyng his wonderful workes towarde his grandefather and forefathers that he knewe, and of whose power, and of whose mercy, and of whose iustice.

18 O thou kyng, the moste hygh God gaue vnto (f) Nabuchodonosor thy father a kingdome, & maiestie, and honour, & glory.

19 And for the maiestie that he gaue hym, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: he slue whom he would, he smote whom it pleased hym: agayne, whom he would he set vp, & whom he lyst he put downe.

20 But because his hart was lofty, and his mynde strengthened in pride, he was deposed from his kyngly throne, and they tooke his glory from hym.

21 He was driuen out from the sonnes of men, his harte was made lyke the beastes, and his dwellyng was with the wylde Asses, they fedde hym with grasse lyke Oxen, and his body was wet with the deawe of the heauen, til he knewe that the most hygh God bare rule ouer the kyngdome of men, and that he appoynteth ouer it whom so euer he pleaseth.

23 And thou his sonne, O Balthasar, hast not submitted thine hart, though thou knewest all these thynges, 23 But hast lyfte vp thee selfe agaynst the Lord of heauen, so that the vessels of his house were brought before thee, that thou and thy princes, with thy wyues and concubines, might drinke wyne thereout: and thou hast praysed the goddes of syluer, and golde, of brasse, and iron, of wood, & stone, which neither see, heare, nor vnderstande: as for the God in whose hande consysteth thy breath and al thy wayes, thou hast not glorified hym.

24 (g) Then was the knockles of the hande sent from him, and hath wrytten this wryting.

25 And this is the wryting that he hath wrytten: MENE (h) MENE, THECEL, VPHARSIN.

26 Nowe the interpretation of the thing is this, MENE, GOD hath numbred thy kyngdome, and brought it to an ende.

27 THECEL, thou art weyghed in the ballance, and art founde wantyng.

28 PHARES, thy kyngdome is diuided, and geuen to the Medes, and Perics.

29 Then commaunded Balthasar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and a chaine of golde about his necke, and made a proclamation concernyng him, that he shoulde be the thyrde ruler in the kyngdome.

30 The very same night was Balthasar the kyng of the Chaldees slayne.

31 And (i) Darius of the Medes tooke the kingdome, being three score and two yeres of age.

* or, Belsasar.

(g) After that God had so long tyme deferred his anger, and patiently wayted for thyne amendement,

(h) This woorde is doubled, not only to exaggregate the certayntie of the matter, but also as some thinke, the one to signifie the ende of the kyng, the other the ende of the kyngdome,

(i) Cyrus his sonne in lawe gaue him this title of honor, although Cyrus in effecte had the dominion.

The. vi. Chapter.

Daniel is made ruler ouer the lordes.

1 IT pleased Darius to set ouer his kyngdome a hundred and twentie gouernours, whiche shoulde be ouer the whole kyngdome.

2 Aboue these he set three princes, of whom Daniel was one, that the gouernours myght geue accomptes vnto them, and the kyng shoulde haue no damage.

3 Nowe this Daniel was preferred aboue the princes and gouernours, for the spirite (of God) was plenteous in hym, so that the kyng was mynded to set hym ouer the whole realme.

4 Wherefore the rulers and gouernours (a) sought an occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdome, but they could fynde none occasion nor faulte: for he was so faythful,

(a) Thus the wicked can not abide the graces of god in others, but seeke by al occasions to deface them, therefore agaynst such assaults there is no better remedie then to walke vprightly in the feare of god, and to haue a good conscience.

faithfull, that there was no blame nor fault founde in him.

5 Then ſayd theſe men, We ſhal finde none occaſion againſt this Daniel, except we finde it againſt hym concernyng the lawe of his God.

6 Upon this went the princes and lordes togeather vnto the kyng, and ſayd thus vnto hym, Kyng Darius, lyue for euer.

7 All the rulers of thy kyngdome, the officers, and gouernours, the counſelours, and dukes, haue conſulted togeather to make a decree for the king, and to eſtabliſh a ſtatute, That who ſo deſyreth any petition eyther of any god or man within theſe thirtie dayes, except of thee, O kyng, he ſhalbe caſt into the Lions denne.

(b) Becauſe he woulde not by his ſcilēce ſhewe that he conſented to this wicked decree, he ſet opē his wyndowes toward Hieruſalem when he prayed, both to ſtirre vp him ſelfe with the remembrance of gods promiſes to his people when they ſhould pray toward the temple: and alſo that others might ſee that he would neuer conſent in harte nor deede, for theſe fewe dayes, to any thyng contrary to gods glorye.

8 Nowe, O kyng, confyrme the decree, and ſeale the wrytyng, that it be not changed, accordyng to the lawe of the Medes and Perſians, whiche altereth not.

9 Wherefore kyng Darius ſealed the wrytyng and decree.

10 Nowe when Daniel vnderſtoode that he had ſealed the wryting, he went into his houſe, and the (b) wyndowes of his chamber toward Hieruſalem ſtoode open, there kneeled he downe vpon his knees three tymes a day, he made his petition, & prayſed his God, as he dyd afore tyme.

11 Then theſe men aſſembled, and founde Daniel makyng his petition, and prayeng vnto his God.

12 So they came to the kyng, and ſpake before him concerning his commaundement, ſaying, O kyng, haſt thou not ſealed the decree, that within thirtie dayes who ſo requireth his petition of any god or man, but onely of thee ſelfe, O kyng, he ſhalbe caſt into the denne of Lions? The king anſwered, and ſayd, Yea it is true according to the lawe of the Medes and Perſes that altereth not.

13 Then anſwered they, and ſayde vnto the kyng, This Daniel whiche is of the children of the captiuitie of Iuda, O king, regardeth neither thee, nor thy decree that thou haſt ſealed: but maketh his petition three tymes a day.

14 When the kyng hearde theſe wordes, he was ſore diſpleaſed with hym ſelfe, and ſet his hart on Daniel to deliuer hym, and he laboured tyl the ſunne went downe to deliuer hym.

15 Then theſe men aſſembled vnto the kyng, and ſayde vnto hym, Knowe this, O kyng, that the lawe of the Medes & Perſes (n) that the commaundement and ſtatute whiche the kyng maketh, may not be (c) altered.

16 Then the kyng commaunded, and they brought Daniel, and they caſte him into the Lions denne. Nowe the king ſpake vnto Daniel, and ſayde, Thy God whom thou alway ſerueſt, euen he wyll deliuer thee.

17 And there was brought a ſtone, and laid vpon the mouth of the denne, this the kyng ſealed with his owne ryng, and with the ſignet of his princes, that the purpoſe concernyng Daniel ſhoulde not be changed.

18 So the kyng went into his palace, and remayned faſtyng, neyther was there any inſtrumentes of muſicke brought in before him, and his ſleepe went from him.

19 But betymes in the morneyng at the breake of the day, the kyng roſe, and went in al haſte vnto the denne of the Lions.

20 Nowe as he came nigh vnto the denne, he cryed with a piteous voyce vnto Daniel, yea the king ſpake, & ſayde vnto Daniel, O Daniel, thou ſeruant of the liuing God, is not thy God whom thou ſerueſt alwaye able to deliuer thee from the Lions?

21 Then ſayde Daniel vnto the kyng, O kyng, lyue for euer.

22 My God hath ſent his angel, whiche hath ſhut the Lions mouthes, ſo that they myght not hurt me, for myne (d) innocencie is founde out before hym: and as for thee, O kyng, I neuer (e) offended thee.

23 Then was the kyng exceedyng glad for him, and commaunded to take Daniel out of the denne: ſo Daniel was brought out of the denne, and no maner of hurt was founde vpon hym, for he (f) put his truſt in his God.

24 And as for thoſe men whiche had accuſed Daniel, the kyng commaunded to bryng them, & to caſt them into the Lions denne, them, their children, & their wyues: ſo the Lions had the maiſtrie of them, and brake al their bones a ſunder or euer they came at the grounde of the denne.

25 After this wrote kyng Darius vnto all people, nations, and tongues, that dwelt in al landes, Peace be multiplied vnto you:

26 My commaundement is in al my dominion and kyngdome, that men feare and ſtande in awe of Daniels God: for he is the lyuyng God which abydeth euer, his kyngdome ſhal not fayle, and his power is euerlaſtyng.

27 He is he that deliuereth and ſaueth, he doeth wonders and maruelous workes in heauen and in earth, he hath preſerued Daniel from the power of the Lions.

28 So

(c) Thus the wicked maintein yl lawes by cōſtancie and obſtinatie, which is oft tymes either lightneſſe or ſlubbernnes, when as the innocentes thereby periſh: & therfore gouernours ought neyther to feare, nor to be aſhamed to breake ſuche.

(d) Mine vprightneſſe in this thyng wherin I was charged, was approued of GOD,

(e) For he dyd diſobey the kynges wicked commaundemēt to obey god, and ſo did no iniury to the kyng, who ought to commaunde nothyng wherby god ſhuld be diſhonored.

(f) Bycauſe he committed him ſelfe wholly vnto God, which cauſe he did defende: he was aſſured that nothyng but good could come vnto hym, wherin we ſee the power of fayth. as Heb. 11.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the raigne of Darius, and in the raigne of Cyrus of Persia.

The. vii. Chapeter.

A vision of foure beastes is shewed vnto Daniel.

1 IN the first yeere of Balthasar kyng of Babylon, sawe Daniel a dreame, & there were visions in his head vppon his bed: whiche dreame he wrote, and declared the summe of the matter.

2 Daniel spake, and saide, I sawe in my vision by night, and beholde, the foure (a) windes of heauen strouе vpon the great sea.

3 And foure great beastes came vp from the sea, one diuers from another.

4 The first was as a (b) Lion, & had Eagles wynges: I beheld tyll his wynges were pluckt from him, and he lifted vp from the earth, and set vpon his feet like a man, and there was geuen him a mans hart.

5 Beholde, another beast (whiche was) the seconde, was like a (c) beare, and stood vpon the one side: betwixe his teeth in his mouth he had three rybbes, and it was said vnto hym thus, Aryse, eate vp much flesshe.

6 Then I looked, and beholde, there was another like vnto a (d) Leopарde, this had wynges as a foule, euen (e) foure vpon the backe: this beast had foure heads, and there was power geuen him.

7 After this I saw in a vision by night, and beholde, the fourth beast was (f) grymme and horrible, and marueylous strong: it had great yron teeth, it deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his feet, it was vnlike the other beastes that were before it: for it had (g) ten hornes.

8 As I consydered the hornes, behold, there came vp among them another litle horne, before whom there were three of the first hornes pluckt away: and behold, this horne had eyes like the eyes of a man, & a mouth speaking presumptuous thinges.

9 I beheld tyll the thrones were set vp, and the ancient of dayes did sit, whose garment was white as snowe, and the heares of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flambe, and his wheeles as burnyng fire.

10 There issued foorth a fiery streame, and went out from before him: a thousand thousandes ministred vnto him, and ten thousande thousandes stoode before him: the iudgement was set, and the bookes opened.

11 Then tooke I heede thereunto, because of the voyce of the proud wordes which the horne spake: I beheld tyl the beast was slayne, and his body destroyed, and geuen to be brent in the fire.

12 As concerning the other beastes, they had their dominion taken away, but their lines were prolongued for a certaine time and season.

13 I sawe in visions by nyght, and beholde, there came one in the cloudes of heauen, like the sonne of man, which went vnto the ancient of daies, before whom they brought hym.

14 And he gaue him dominion and honour, and a kyngdome, that al people, nations, and languages shoulde serue hym: his dominion is an euerlastyng dominion, which shal neuer be taken awaye, and his kyngdome shal neuer be destroyed. ℭ

15 I Daniel was troubled in my spirite in the myddest of my body, and the visions of my head made me afrayde, 16 I gate me vnto (h) one of them that stoode by, and asked hym the trueth concernyng all these thynges: so he tolde me, and made me vnderstande the interpretation of these thynges.

17 These great beastes which are foure, are foure kynges whiche shall aryse out of the earth:

18 But the (i) hygh saintes shall receyue a kyngdome, and possesse a kyngdome for euer, euen for euer and euer.

19 After this, I required to knowe the trueth concerning the fourth beast, which was so vnlike the other beastes, and so horrible, whose teeth were of yron, and his naples of brasse, whiche deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his feete:

20 (I desired) also (to knowe the trueth) as touchyng the ten hornes that he had vppon his head, and this other which came vp afterward, before whose face there fel downe three, whiche horne had eyes, and a mouth that spake presumptuous thynges, and looked with a grymmer vysage then his (k) fellowes.

21 I beheld, and the same horne made battaile against the saintes, yea, and preuayled against them, 22 Untyl the (l) ancient of dayes came, that the iudgement was geuen to the high saintes, and tyll the tyme came that the saintes had the kyngdome in possession.

23 He gaue me this answere, That fourth beast shalbe the fourth kyngdome vppon earth, it shalbe vnlike to al the kingdomes: it shal deuoure, treade downe, and destroye all other landes.

24 The ten hornes, are ten kynges that shal aryse

(h) Meanyng of the angels as, verse. x.

(i) That is, Gods elect people, whiche shalhaue a kyngdome and churche to continue in for euer.

(k) That is, the three other empires ℭ

(l) That is, God whiche was before al tymes, as, verse. ix.

aryse out of the kyngdomes: after whom there shal stande vp another, whiche shalbe vnlike to the first, and he shal subdue three kinges:

25 And he shal speake wooꝛdes against the highest of al, he shal destroye the high saintes, and thinke that he may change times and lawes: they shalbe geuen into his hand vntyll a tyme, and tymes, and the diuiding of a tyme.

26 But the iudgement shal sit, and they shal take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it vnto the ende.

27 And the kingdome and dominion, and the greatnesse of the kyngdome vnder the whole heauen, shalbe geuen to the (m) people of high saintes, whose kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and all power shall serue and obey it.

(m) That is, to the church.

D 28 Hitherto the ende of the wooꝛdes: I Daniel had many cogitations (whiche) troubled me, & my countenance changed in me: but the wooꝛdes I kept styl in my hart.

The.viii. Chapter.

A vision of a stryfe betweene a Ramme and a hee Goate.

(a) After the general visiõ he cõmeth to certaine particuler visiõs as touching the destruction of the monarchie of the Persians and Macedoniãs, for the ruine of the Babylonians was at hand, and also he had sufficiẽtly spoken thereof.

1 IN the thirde yeere of the raigne of king Balthasar, there appeared a vision vnto me, (euen) vnto me Daniel, (a) after that which I had seene in the beginnyng.

2 I sawe in a vision, (and when I sawe it, I was in the palace of Susis, whiche is in the prouince of (b) Elam) and in the vision me thought I was in the ryuer of Ulai.

(b) Elam is Persia.

3 Then I looked vp, and sawe, and beholde, there stoode before the ryuer a (c) Ramme, whiche had two hoꝛnes, and these two hoꝛnes were high, but (d) one was higher then the other, and the highest came vp last.

(c) That is, the kingdõe of the Persians & Medes nowe ioyned togeather.

4 I sawe that this Ramme pushed with his hoꝛnes against the West, against the north, and against the south: so that no (e) beastes might stande before him, noꝛ defende them from his power, but he dyd as him lysted, and he came great.

(d) Meanyng Cyrus, whoꝛ after grewe greater in poꝛwer the Darius his vncle & father in lawe.

5 And as I consyderd, beholde, there came a hee (f) Goate from the West ouer the whole earth, and touched not the grounde, and this Goate had a (g) hoꝛne appeared betwixt his eyes.

(e) No kings or nations.

6 And he came vnto the Ramme that had the two hoꝛnes (whom I had seene standing by the ryuer) and ranne fiercely vpon him with his myght.

(f) Meaning Alexander, that came with great expedition. (g) Though he came in the name of al Grecia, yet he bare the title & dignitie of the general captaine, so that the strength was attributed to him, which is meant by this hoꝛne.

7 And I sawe hym drawe nygh vnto the Ramme, beyng very fierce vpon hym, yea, he (h) smote the Ramme, and brake his two hoꝛnes, neyther had the Ramme so much strength as to stand before hym: but he cast him downe to the ground, trode him vnder his feete, and there was none able to deliuer the Ramme out of his power.

(h) Alexander ouercame Darius in two battayles, and so had the kingdomes of the Medes and Persians.

8 Therefore the Goate waxed exceedyng great, and when he was at the strongest, his great hoꝛne was broken: then grewe there other foure notable ones in the steade of it, towarde the foure wyndes of the heauen.

9 And out of one of them came foorth a litle hoꝛne, whiche waxed very great towarde the South, towarde the East, and toward the pleasant lande.

(i) That is, God.

(k) Antiochus who raged against the church of God.

10 (i) It grewe vp vnto the host of heauen, whereof it dyd caste somme downe to the grounde, and of the starres also, and trode them vnder foote.

(l) This horne shal abolish for a time the true doctrine, and so corrupt Gods seruice.

11 Yea, it grewe vp against the (k) prince of the host, from whom the dayly (sacrifice) was taken away, and the places of the sanctuarie cast downe.

(m) Out of the angels.

12 And power was geuen vnto it ouer the dayly (sacrifice) for the iniquitie, and it shal (l) cast downe the trueth to the grounde: and thus shal it doo, and prosper.

(n) That is, a secret one, or a marueilous one, whose visiõs ded Christe the reuealer of al secrets.

13 Vpon this I hearde one of the saintes speakyng, and one of the (m) saintes spake vnto (n) Palmoni, saying, Howe long shall the vision of the dayly (sacrifice) and of the iniquitie of desolation (endure,) to giue both the sanctuarie and the power to be troden vnder foote?

(o) Euenyng & morning, do signifie a naturall day, that is, 24 houres.

14 And he answeared me, Vnto the (o) euenyng and the mornyng, two thousande and three hundred: then shal the sanctuarie be cleansed.

(p) That is, Christe.

15 Nowe when I Daniel had seene this vision, and sought for the vnderstanding of it: beholde, there stoode before me (p) like the similitude of a man.

(q) That is, betweene the banks of the ryuer Vlai.

16 And I hearde a mans voyce (q) betweene Ulai, whiche cryed, and sayde, O Gabriel, (r) make this man vnderstande the vision.

(r) This power to commaunde the angel, declareth it was God.

17 So he came and stoode by me, but I was afrayde at his commyng, and fel downe vpon my face: then sayde he vnto me, Vnderstande, O thou sonne of man: for at the (s) tyme of the ende this vision (shalbe.)

(s) That is, the vision shalbe fulfilled hereafter in tyme conuenient.

18 Now as he was speakyng vnto me, I fel in a slumber vpon my face to the grounde: but he touched me, and set me vp in my place.

19 And

19 And he sayd, Behold, I wyl shewe thee what shalbe in the last wrath: for in the tyme appoynted it shalbe fulfylled.
20 The Rammе whiche thou sawest ha-uyng two hornes, is the king of the Medes and Perses,
D 21 And the Goate is the kyng of Grecia: and the great horne that is betwixt his eyes, that is the fyrst kyng.
22 But where as it brake, and foure other rose vp in the steade, (it signifyeth) that out of one of this people shal stand vp foure kyngdomes, but not so mightie as it.
23 And in the ende of their kyngdome, whē the wicked are come to the ful, a king of a (t) fierce countenance, and vnderstandyng hard sentences, shal stande vp.
24 His power shalbe myghtie, but not in
(v) his strength, and he shall destroy wonderfully, he shal prosper and practise, and destroy the (x) mightie & the holy people.
25 And through his pollicie also he shall cause craft to prosper in his handes, he shal exalt him selfe in his hart, and in prosperitie he shal destroy many, and many one shal be put to death in his wealthynesse: he shal stand vp agaynst the (y) prince of princes, but he shalbe destroyed without (z) handes.
26 And the vision of the *euenyng and the mornyng whiche is declared, is true: therefore seale thou vp the vision, for it shalbe after many dayes.
27 Upon this was I Daniel feeble, so that I laye sicke (certayne) dayes: but when I rose vp, I went about the kings businesse, and was astonied at the vision, neuerthelesse, no man vnderstoode it.

(t) that is, Antiochus, who should be impudent, shamelesse, subtil, and crafty.
(v) That is, not by the Almightes strength.
(x) both the people that dwell about Ian, and the Iewes.
(y) blaspheming against God.
(z) GOD would destroye hym with a cōtagious plague, 2. Mac. 9.b
* Reade verse. 14.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. Daniel desyreth to haue that performed of GOD, whiche he hath promised concernyng the returne of the people from theyr banyshmente in Babylon.
26. The dearth of Christe.

1 IN the fyrst yeere of Darius the sonne of (a) Ahasuerus, whiche was of the seede of the Medes, and was made king ouer the (b) realme of the Chaldees,
2 Euen in the fyrst yere of his raigne, I Daniel vnderstood by (c) bookes the nūmber of the yeeres, wherof the LORDE spake vnto Jeremie the prophete that he wouldе accomplishe seuentie yeeres in the desolation of Hierusalem.
3 And I turned my face vnto the lord GOD, and sought by prayer & supplication, with fastyng, sackecloth, and ashes.
4 I prayed vnto the LORDE my GOD, and made my confession, saying, O Lord GOD, great and fearful, which keepeth couenant and mercie with them that loue "him, and keepe his commaundementes.
5 We haue synned, and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea we haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy preceptes, and from thy iudgementes.
6 We wouldе not obey thy seruauntes the prophetes that spake in thy name to our kinges, and princes, to our forefathers, and to al the people of the lande.
7 O LORDE, righteousnesse belongeth vnto thee, vnto vs open shame, as is come to passe this day vnto euery man of Juda, and to them that dwel at Hierusalem, yea vnto al Israel, whether they be farre or nygh, throughout all the landes whyther thou hast dryuen them, because of their offences that they haue done agaynst thee.
8 Yea, O Lord, vnto vs, to our kynges, and princes, to our forefathers that haue offended thee, belongeth open shame.
9 Unto the Lord our God parteyneth compassion and forgeuenesse, though we haue rebelled agaynst hym.
10 And we haue not obeyed the (d) voyce of the LORDE our God, to walke in his lawes whiche he laide before vs, by the hande of his seruantes the prophetes.
11 Yea al Israel haue transgressed & gone backe from thy lawe, so that they haue not hearkened vnto thy voyce: wherefore the (e) curse and othe that is written in the lawe of Moses the seruant of God, against whom we haue offended, is powred vppon vs.
12 And he hath confyrmed his wordes whiche he spake agaynst vs, and agaynst our iudges that iudged vs, to bryng vpon vs suche a great plague as neuer was vnder heauen, lyke as it is nowe come to passe in Hierusalem.
13 Yea all this plagne as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moses, is come vpon vs: yet made we not our prayers before the LORDE our GOD, that we myght turne agayne from our wickednesse, and vnderstand thy trueth.
14 Therefore hath the LORDE watched vpon the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the LORDE our God is righteous in all his woorkes whiche he doeth: for we wouldе not hearken vnto his voyce.
15 And nowe, O LORDE our God, thou that with a mightie hand hast brought thy people out of ỹ land of Egypt, to get thee selfe a name,

(a) Otherwyse called Assuerus.
(b) For Cyrus led with ambition, went about many yeres in other countreyes, and therfore Darius had the rule, though Cyrus were kyng in effect.
(c) Though he were a excellent Prophete, yet dayly encreased in knowledge by readyng the Scriptures.
(d) He sheweth that they rebel against God, whiche serue hym not according to his commaundement and woorde.
(e) As Deut. 17.c. or the curse confirmed by an othe.

a name, whiche remayneth this day, we haue synned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lorde, accordyng to al thy (f) righteousnesse, I beseche thee let thyne anger and thy wyath be turned awaye from thy citie of Hierusalem, thy holy hyll: for because of our synnes, and for the wickednesse of our fathers, Hierusalem and thy people are a reproche vnto al them that are about vs.

17 Nowe therefore, O our God, heare the prayer of thy seruant, and his intercession: O let thy face (g) shine ouer thy sanctuarie that lyeth waste, for the (h) Lordes sake.

18 O my God, enclyne thine eare, and hearken, open thyne eyes, beholde howe we be desolated, yea and the citie also whiche is called after thy name: for we doo not present our prayers before thee in our (i) owne ryghteousnesse, but in thy great mercies.

19 O Lord heare, O forgeue Lord, O Lord (k) consyder, & doo it, deferre not for thine owne sake, O my God: because thy name is called vpon thy citie, and vpon thy people.

20 As I was yet a speakyng at my prayers, knowledgyng myne owne [illegible], and the synnes of my people Israel, presentyng so mine intercession before the Lorde my God for the holy hyl of my God:

21 Yea while I was yet speakyng in my prayer, the man Gabriel (whom I had seene afore in the vision) came fleeyng, and touched me about the tyme of the euenyng oblation:

22 And he enformed me, and talked with me, and sayd, O Daniel, I am nowe come forth to geue thee knowledge and vnderstandyng.

23 At the begynnyng of thy supplications the commaundement came forth, and I am come to shewe thee, for thou art greatly beloued: therfore vnderstande the matter, and consyder the vision.

24 (l) Seuentie weekes are determined ouer thy people, and ouer thy holy citie, to finishe the wickednesse, and to seale vp the synnes, and to reconcile the iniquitie, and to bryng in euerlastyng ryghteousnesse, to seale vp the vision and prophecie, and to annoynt the most holy.

25 Knowe therefore and vnderstande, that from the goyng forth of the commaundement to bryng agayne the (people) and to buylde Hierusalem, vnto Messiah the prince, there shalbe seuen weekes, and three score and two weekes: and the streete shalbe buylt agayne, and the wal, (euen) in the straytenesse of tyme.

26 After these three score and two weekes shal Messiah be slayne, & not for him selfe: and the people of the prince that shal come, shal destroy the citie and the sanctuarie, and the ende thereof shalbe with a floodde, and vnto the ende of the battayle it shalbe destroyed by desolations.

27 He shal confyrme the couenaunt with many for one weeke, and in the myddest of the weeke he shal cause the sacrifice and the oblation to ceasse, and for the ouerspreadyng of the abominations, he shall make it desolate, (euen) vntyl the consummation determined shalbe powred vpon the desolate.

(f) That is, according to al thy merciful promises, and performance therof

(g) Shewe thee selfe fauourable.

(h) That is, for thy Christes sake, in whom thou wylt accept al our prayers.

(i) Declaring that the godly flee onely vnto Gods mercies, and renounce their owne workes, whē they seke for remission of their sinnes.

(k) Thus he coulde not content him selfe with any vehemencie of words, when he was so led with a feruēt zeale, consyderyng gods promise made to the citie in respect of the Church, and for the aduauncement of gods glory

(l) He alludeth to Ieremies prophecie, whereby he declared there should be seuentie yeres of the Iewes captiuitie, for the execution of Gods iudgement: but nowe Gods mercie should seuen folde exceede his iudgement, in geuyng them seuentie tymes seuen yeres of a happier state, though not altogeather voyde of affliction: which amounteth to foure hundred and nientie yeeres, euen to the commyng of Christe, and so then it shoulde continue for euer.

The. x. Chapeter.

I. There appeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in lynnen, 11. whiche sheweth hym wherefore he was sent.

1 IN the (a) thirde yere of Cyrus kyng of Persia, there was shewed vnto Daniel, otherwyse called Baltassar, a matter, yea a true matter, but it is yet a long tyme vnto it: he vnderstood the matter, and perceyued what the vision was.

(a) He meaneth this third yere, because at this tyme the buyldyng of the temple began to be hyndred by Cambises Cyrus sonne, when the other made warre in Asia minor against the Scythians, which was discouraging to the Gods, and a great feare to Daniel.

2 At the same tyme I Daniel mourned for the space of three weekes of dayes.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, as for flesshe and wyne there came none within my mouth: no, I dyd not once annoynt my selfe til the whole three weekes of dayes were fulfylled.

4 Vpon the foure and twentieth day of the fyrst moneth, I was by the syde of that great ryuer, (euen) Hiddekel.

5 I lyft vp myne eyes, and looked, and beheld a man clothed in lynnen, whose loynes were gyrded vp with fyne gold of Vphaz.

6 His body was lyke the Thurkis stone, his face to looke vpon was like lightning, his eyes as lampes of fyre, his armes and fete were like in colour to pulished brasse, and the voyce of his wordes was like the voyce of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone sawe this vision, for the men that were with me sawe not the vision: but a great fearefulnesse fell vpon them, so that they fled away, and hyd them selues.

8 Therfore I was left alone, and sawe this great vision, & there remained no strength in me: for my colour was turned in me into no resistence, and I retayned no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his wordes: and when I heard the voyce of his wordes, I fell astonied vpon my face, & my face toward the earth.

10 And beholde a hande touched me, which set me vp vpon my knees, and vpon the paulmes of my handes.

11 And he sayde vnto me, O Daniel, thou welbeloued man, take good heede to the wordes that I say vnto thee, and stande in thy place: for vnto thee am I nowe sent. And when he had saide these wordes vnto me, I stoode vp tremblyng.

12 Then sayde he vnto me, Feare not Daniel: for since the first day that thou diddest set thine hart to vnderstand, and to chasten thee selfe before thy God, thy wordes were heard, and I am come for thy wordes.

13 But the (b) prince of the kyngdoms of Persia withstoode me one and twentie dayes: but lo, Michael one of the chiefe princes came to helpe me, and I remayned there by the kinges of Persia.

14 And I am come to shewe thee what shall come vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it wil be long yet or the vision be fulfylled.

15 Nowe when he had spoken these wordes vnto me, I cast downe my head to the grounde, and helde my tongue.

16 And behold, there touched my lyppes one very like vnto a man: then opened I my mouth, and spake, and sayde vnto hym that stoode before me, O my Lord, by the vision my ſ ioyntes are turned out of (their) place, and I haue retayned no strength.

17 For how can the seruant of this my lord talke with my Lorde (beyng) suche a one? And as for me, straightway there remayned no strength in me, neyther is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came agayne and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me:

19 And saide, O man greatly beloued, feare not, peace be vnto thee, be strong, & of good courage. So when he had spoken vnto me, I was strengthened, and sayde, Speake on my Lord: for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Thus said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? nowe wil I returne to fight with the prince of the Perſes: as soone as I goe foorth, lo the (c) prince of Greeke lande shal come.

21 Nevertheless I wyll shewe thee that that is noted in the scripture of truethe: and there is none that helpeth me in these thinges, but (d) Michael your prince.

The xi. Chapter.

1. A prophesie of the kynges of Persia. 3. Of the kyngdome of Greece. 5. Of the kyngdome of Egypt, and of the bonde thereof. 15. Of the battayle with the kyngdome of Syria.

1 AND in the fyrste yeere of Darius of Media (a) I stoode to comfort hym, and to strength hym.

2 And nowe wyll I shewe thee the trueth: behold, there shal stand vp yet three kynges in Persia, but the fourth shalbe far rycher then they all: and by his strength and by his richesse he shall styre vp al agaynst the realme of Greeke lande.

3 Then shal there aryse yet a mightie kyng, that shal rule with great dominion, and do what hym lyst.

4 And when he ſ is stande vp, his kyngdome shalbe ſ oken, and shalbe diuided towarde the ſ winds of the heauen, and not to ſ lueth for his posteritie, nor according to ſ time, timen whiche he ruled: for his kingdom haue ſ pinckt vp, euen for others of the holy ſ e.

5 And ſ ſtrnished. ſ the south shalbe mightie, a ſ one of his princes, and he shal preuay ſ gainst hym, and beare rule: his dominion shalbe a great dominion.

6 And ſ the ende of yeeres they shalbe ioyned togeather, and the kynges (c) daughter of the south shal come to the king of ſ north for to make agreement, but she shal not retayne the power of the (f) arme, neyther shal he continue nor his arme: but she shalbe deliuered (to death) and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that comforted her in these tymes.

The. x. Chapter.

I. There appeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in lynnen, II. whiche sheweth hym wherefore he was sent.

1 IN the (a) thirde yere of Cyrus kyng of Persia, there was shewed vnto Daniel, otherwyse called Baltassar, a matter, yea a true matter, but it is yet a long tyme vnto it: he vnderstood the matter, and perceyued what the vision was.

(a) He reckeneth this thirde yere, because at this tyme the buyldyng of the temple began to be hyndred by Cambyses Cyrus sonne, when the other made warre in Asia minor against the Scythians, which was discouraged to the Iewes, and a great feare to Daniel,

2 At the same tyme I Daniel mourned for the space of three weekes of dayes.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, as for flesshe and wyne there came none within my mouth: no, I dyd not once annoynt my selfe til the whole three weekes of dayes were fullylled.

4 Vpon the foure and twentieth day of the fyrst moneth, I was by the syde of that great ryuer, (euen) Hiddekel.

5 I lyft vp myne eyes, and looked, and beheld a man clothed in linnen, whose loynes were gyrded vp with fyne gold of Vphaz.

6 His body was lyke the Thurkis stone, his face to looke vpon was like lightening, his eyes as lampes of fyre, his armes and fete were like in colour to pullished brasse, and the voyce of his wordes was like the voyce of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone sawe this vision, for the men that were with me sawe not the vision: but a great fearefulnesse fell vpon them, so that they fled away, and hyd them selues.

8 Therfore I was left alone, and sawe this great vision, & there remained no strength in me: for my colour was turned in me in-

to

…corruption, and I reteyned no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his wordes: and when I hearde the voyce of his wordes, I fell astonisd vpon my face, & my face toward the earth.

10 And beholde a hande touched me, which set me vp vpon my knees, and vpon the paulmes of my handes.

11 And he sayde vnto me, O Daniel, thou beeloued man, take good heede to the wordes that I say vnto thee, and stande in thy place: for vnto thee am I nowe sent. And when he had saide these wordes vnto me, I stoode vp tremblyng.

12 Then sayde he vnto me, Feare not Daniel: for since the first day that thou hyddest set thine hart to vnderstand, and to chasten thee selfe before thy God, thy wordes were hearde, and I am come for thy wordes.

13 But the (b) prince of the kyngdome of Persia withstoode me one and twentie dayes: but loe, Michael one of the chiefe princes came to helpe me, and I remayned there by the kinges of Persia.

14 And I am come to shewe thee what shall come vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it wil be long yet or the vision be fulfylled.

15 Nowe when he had spoken these wordes vnto me, I cast downe my head to the grounde, and helde my tongue.

16 And beholde, there touched my lyppes one very like vnto a man: then opened I my mouth, and spake, and sayde vnto hym that stoode before me, O my Lord, by the vision my * ioyntes are turned out of (their) place, and I haue reteyned no strength.

17 For how can the seruant of this my lord talke with my Lorde (beyng) suche a one? And as for me, straightway there remayned no strength in me, neyther is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came agayne and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me:

19 And saide, O man greatly beloued, feare not, peace be vnto thee, be strong, & of good courage. So when he had spoken vnto me, I was strengthened, and sayde, Speake on my Lord: for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Thus said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? nowe wil I returne to fight with the prince of the Perses: as soone as I goe forth, loe the (c) prince of Greeke lande shal come.

21 Neuertheless I wyll shewe thee that that is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that helpeth me in these thinges, but (d) Michael your prince.

The .xi. Chapter.

1. A prophesie of the kynges of Persia. 3. Of the kyngdome of Greece. 5. Of the kyngdome of Egypt, and of the bonde thereof. 15. Of the battayle with the kyngdome of Syria.

1 AND in the fyrste yeere of Darius of Media (a) I stoode to comfort hym, and to strength hym.

2 And nowe wyll I shewe thee the trueth: behold, there shal stand vp yet three kynges in Persia, but the fourth shalbe far richer then they all: and by his strength and by his richesse he shall styre vp al agaynst the realme of Greeke lande.

3 Then shal there aryse yet a mighty kyng, that shal rule with great dominion, and do what hym lyst.

4 And when he [illegible] stande vp, his kyngdome shalbe [illegible]ken, and shalbe diuided towarde the [illegible] windes of the heauen, and not to [illegible]s posteritie, nor according to [illegible]n whiche he ruled: for his kin[illegible]e pluckt vp, euen for other [illegible].

5 And [illegible] of the south shalbe mighty, an[illegible] of his princes, and he shal preuay[illegible] gaynst hym, and beare rule: his dominion shalbe a great dominion.

6 And [illegible] the ende of yeeres they shalbe ioyned together, and the kynges (c) daughter of the south shal come to the king of the north for to make agreement, but she shal not reteyne the power of the (f) arme, neyther shal he continue nor his arme: but she shalbe deliuered (to death) and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that comforted her in these tymes.

9 So [illegible] kyng of the south shall come into his kyngdome, and shall returne into his owne lande.

10 Wherefore his sonnes shalbe styred vp, and shal geather together a mighty great host of people, and one shal come and ouerflowe, and passe through: then shal he turne agayne and be styred vp at his fortresse.

11 Then the king of the ſouth ſhalbe angry, & ſhal come forth to fight with him, (euen) with the king of the north: for he ſhall ſet forth a great multitude, and the multitude ſhalbe geuen into his hande.

12 Then the multitude ſhalbe proude, and theyr hartes ſhalbe lifted vp, for he ſhal caſt downe thouſandes: but he ſhal not ſtil preuayle.

13 For the king of the north ſhall returne, and ſhall ſet forth a greater multitude then afore, and ſhal come forth (after certayne yeeres) with a mightie armie and great richers.

14 And at the ſame time there ſhall many ſtande vp againſt the king of the ſouth, ſo that the ſeditious children of thy people alſo ſhall exalt them ſelues to eſtabliſhe the viſion, but they ſhal f[illegible]

15 So the king of the [illegible]th ſhall come and caſt vp a mount, and [illegible] ſtrong cities: and the (g) armes o[illegible] ſhal not reſiſt: neither his choſe[illegible]ryther ſhal there be any ſtrength [illegible]e.

17 Againe he ſhal ſet his face to enter with the power of his whole kingdome, and his confederates with him, thus ſhal he do: and he ſhal geue him the (i) daughter of women to deſtroy her, but ſhe ſhal not ſtande (on his ſide) neither be for him.

18 After this ſhal he turne his face vnto the (k) iles, and ſhall take many: but a prince ſhal cauſe his ſhame to light vpon him, beſide that, he ſhall cauſe his owne ſhame to turne vpon him ſelfe.

19 For he ſhall turne his face towarde the fortes of his owne land: but he ſhalbe ouerthrowen and fal, and be no more founde.

20 Then ſhal ſtande vp in his place a taxer of taxes (m) the glory of the kyngdome, and after a fewe dayes he ſhalbe deſtroyed, neyther in wrath nor in battayle.

21 In his ſteede there ſhal ſtande vp a vyle perſon, to whom they ſhal not geue the honour of the kyngdome: but he ſhal come in peaceably, and obteyne the kingdome with flatteries.

22 And the armes ſhalbe ouerflowed with a floodde before him, and alſo the prince of the couenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he ſhal worke deceitfully, for he ſhal come vp, and ouercome with a ſmal people.

24 He ſhall enter into the quiet and plentifull prouince, and he ſhall do that whiche his fathers haue not done, nor his fathers fathers: he ſhall diuide among them the pray, and the ſpoyle, and the ſubſtance, yea and ſhall forecaſt his deuiſes agayne the ſtrong holdes (euen) for a tyme.

25 Alſo his powre and hart ſhal be ſtirre vp with a great armie againſt the kyng of the ſouth, the kyng of the ſouth ſhalbe moued vnto battaile with a great and a mightie hoſt alſo: neuertheleſſe, he ſhal not ſtande, for they ſhal forecaſt deuiſes againſt him.

26 Yea (l) they that feede of the portion of his meate ſhal deſtroy him, and his armie ſhall (m) ouerflowe, and many ſhal fal and be ſlayne.

27 Theſe two kynges hartes ſhalbe to do (n) miſcheefe, and they ſhal talke of deceit at one table, but it ſhal not proſper, for yet the ende ſhalbe at the time appointed.

28 Then ſhall he goe home againe into his lande with great (o) ſubſtance, and ſet his hart againſt the holy couenant, ſo ſhall he do, and returne to his owne lande.

29 At the time appointed he ſhall come againe, and goe towarde the ſouth: but the laſt ſhal not be as the fyrſt.

30 For the ſhippes of (p) Chithim ſhal come againſt him, therefore he ſhalbe ſory, and returne, and fret againſt the holy couenant: ſo ſhall he do, he ſhall (euen) returne and haue intelligence with them that forſake the holy couenant.

31 And armes ſhal ſtande on his part, and they ſhal pollute the ſanctuary of ſtrength, and ſhal take away the dayly (ſacrifice) and they ſhal ſet vp the abominable deſolation.

32 And ſuche as wyckedly breake the couenant, ſhal he cauſe to ſinne by flatterie: but the people that knowe their God, ſhal preuayle and proſper.

33 Thoſe alſo that haue vnderſtanding among the people, ſhall enkourme the multitude, and for a long ſeaſon they ſhall fall with the ſworde, with fyre, with captiuitie, and with the takyng away of theyr goodes.

34 Nowe when they ſhal fall, they ſhalbe holpen with a litle helpe, but many ſhall cleaue vnto them faignedly.

35 Yea ſome of thoſe that haue vnderſtanding ſhal fal, that they may be tryed, purified, and made white, tyl the tyme be out: for there is a tyme appointed.

36 And a king ſhall do what him lyſt, he ſhal exalt and magnifie him ſelfe againſt al that is good, yea he ſhal ſpeake marueilous thynges againſt the God of Gods, and he ſhal proſper tyl the wrath be fulfylled: for the determination is made.

37 He ſhall not regarde the God of his fathers,

(g) That is, the Egyptians with their captayne Scopas, were not able to withſtande Antiochus.

(h) He ſheweth that he ſhal not only afflict the Egyptians, but alſo the Iewes, and ſhall enter into theyr countrey, whereof he admoniſheth them before, that they may know that al theſe thinges come by gods prouidence.

(i) Antiochus maryed his daughter Cleopatra to Ptolomeus Epiphanes, thereby the rather to ouercome him: but ſhe fauoured her huſband, and obeyed not the ſubtile practiſes of her father

(k) The Iewes maner was to cal al coũtreyes, Iles, that were diuided from them by the Sea: yet Antiochus inuaded ſome that were Iles in deede, as Euboca, Phocea, Samos, Ciprus, &c. and at length conducted his armie into Grecia,

(l) ſignifyng Philometors princes and cheefe about him, thers, nor the delyres of women, yea he shal not care for any god: for he shal magnifye him selfe aboue al.

38 But in his place shal he honour the god Mauzzim, and the god whom his fathers knewe not shall he honour with golde and syluer, with pretious stones, and pleasant thinges.

39 Thus shal he doo in the holdes of Mauzzim with a strange god whom he shall acknowledge, he shal encrease his glory, and shal cause them to rule ouer many, and shall deuide the lande for gayne.

40 And at the ende of time shal the kyng of the (q) south pushe at him, and the king of the north shall comme against him lyke a whirlewinde, with charrettes, horsemen, and with many shippes: he shal enter into the countreys, and shal ouer flowe & passe thyough.

41 He shal enter also into the pleasant lande, and many countreys shalbe ouerthrowen: but these shal escape out of his hand (euen) Edom and Moab, and the cheefe of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hande also vpon the countreys, and the lande of Egypt shal not escape.

43 But he shal haue power ouer the treasures of gold and of siluer, and ouer al the pretious thinges of Egypt, and of the Libyans and Ethiopians in his passing (by them.)

44 Neuertheless, the tydinges out of the east (r) and the north shal trouble him, therefore he shall (s) goe forth with great wrath, to destroy and roote out many.

45 And he shal plant the tabernacles of his pallace betweene the seas, in the glorious and holy mountayne: yet he shall comme to his ende, and none shal helpe him.

The. xii. Chapter.

2. He propheseth the resurrection of the dead. 9. The darkenesse of the propheste of Daniel.

1 AND at that tyme shall (a) Michael stande vp, the great prince, whiche standeth for the children of thy people: for there shalbe a tyme of trouble, such as neuer was since there began to be a nation, vnto that same time: and at that tyme thy people shalbe deliuered euery one that shalbe founde written in the booke.

2 And many of them that sleepe in the dust of the earth, (b) shal awake, some to euerlasting lyfe, and some to shame and perpetual contempt.

8 Then I heard it, but I vnderstoode it not: then saide I, O my Lorde, what shall be the ende of these thinges?

9 And he sayde, Goe thy way Daniel, for the wordes are closed vp and sealed tyll the time of the ende.

10 Many shalbe purified, made white, and tryed: but the wicked shall doo wickedly, and none of the wicked shall haue vnderstanding, but the wyse shal vnderstande.

11 And from the tyme that the (i) dayly (sacrifyce) shalbe taken away, and the abominable desolation set vp, there shalbe a (k) thousande, two hundred, and ninetie dayes.

12 Blessed is he that wayteth and commeth to the thousande, three hundred, and fyue and thirtie dayes.
